PREFACE

Why is a teen-age version of the Bible needed? This is a question often asked, but never by teen-agers themselves. To put the situation in proper perspective, let a teen-ager answer the question with another question: "Why do we study every other subject under the sun from textbooks especially prepared for teen-age understanding, but when it comes to the Bible are asked to study from a version made for adults?" Typically such a counter-question is followed by a statement like this? "It isn't that we lack the vocabulary to follow what goes on in an adult version, but that on every page it is easy to see and to feel that this book was not prepared for us."

Why is a teen-age version of the Bible needed? Because they want one! In the case of the Bible, this in itself is cause for joy. Every teen-ager wants everything he owns to be peculiarly his or her own. Many in their teens show a healthy measure of maturity when confronted with serious things, though very few indeed would claim they are adults, even "young adults." But everywhere there is an encouraging response to those teen leaders who present the Bible to teen-agers in all its depth and impact — unadulterated, unwatered, and without excuse or deletion. These modern teeners seem bent upon living life to its fullest. Can they do so without the instruction of God through the Book He has provided for just such persons? Only those who have never read the Bible would be foolish enough to claim that life has meaning, direction and purpose without the Word of God. This is why the teen-ager wants a version especially prepared for the teen-reader. Who needs help in confronting life more than teen-agers? No one. What book can give more knowledge, more wisdom, more help, more comfort, more direction, and more of everything else they deeply desire? The Bible! No other one.

But why is the Bible so deeply needed and desired by young people of this day, the day of the astronaut and rocket? Because the Bible is the perfect, the only true counterpart to the teen-age heart and mind in any age, and the expanding universe is raising questions which only the Bible answers.

Once adults face up to the need for a special teen-age version, they still find it hard not to raise more questions, erect more obstacles. If it is not merely a matter of the difficulty of the vocabulary, they say, then what more can be done to make the Bible a living book in the lives of these fast-moving, even fast-maturing kids? Much in every way. First, let it not be said that vocabulary is not important. There are many words in every major version not readily understandable to the teen-ager (and there are hundreds of them, even in our most modern translations). Worse, the very appearance of such versions advertise the fact that no one expects to find a teen-ager reading them very much!

One thing we must face up to is this, that these emerging adults of tomorrow are better readers than were the adults of today at the same age. These young people know more than did the older generation at the same age, in nearly every subject – and many things that they ought not to know, as they sometimes uncomfortably admit. But the heart of the matter is this: they have the capacity to receive what the Bible has to give, and they will surprise even the most optimistic observer when properly challenged to dig into the Bible. (As one of the editorial exercises, two and three-hour reading sessions were held – without any break in the reading of the Bible, and without restricting any portion of the Bible. Two thirteen-year-old boys read the entire New Testament in a reading time of about 12 hours spread across 26 hours.)

How the Teen-age Version has been developed

Prebendary J. B. Phillips often tells how he happened to produce his Letters to Young Churches. He states, “After all, I thought to myself, much of this was written by one Christian in difficulty to other Christians in difficulty, and surely these young people will find them to their situation. But I was met by polite but complete lack of comprehension! These youngsters, who were by no means unintelligent, simply did not understand ‘Bible language.’ All my old passion for making truth comprehensible, and all my desire to do a bit of real translation, urged me to put some relevant New Testament truths into language which these young people could understand. This I did, and was rewarded beyond my expectations as they realized for the first time, not merely that the epistles of Paul really could make sense, but that the inspired words were extremely relevant to life as they knew it.”

This experience is by no means unusual for those blessed with the privilege of leading teen-agers in their quest for a life worth living, both here and hereafter. Most of us, however, have found that it isn't really “Bible language” (that is, the language God actually wrote via the prophets and apostles) that throws the young searchers off the trail. What throws them is the notion that the Bible is a dead book about dead people in a dead language. As to the dead language, Prebendary Phillips set up as his first principle, “The language used must be that commonly spoken.” There is no doubt that Old English, as a language, is dead. There may be some who still know it well, it being the language used in the vast majority of Bibles in English-reading countries (though I doubt there are many who know the meaning of a great many of its Old English words such as amerce, besom, bruit, champaign, clout, emerods, fray, neeing, leasing, ouches, etc.). But Old English is no longer spoken, no longer understood, and to teen-agers especially, no longer palatable as a language to learn. Many have learned it in order to read the Bible, many will continue to do so. The Teen-age Version of the Holy Bible eliminates the need for them to learn Old English.

As to the Bible being a dead book, this is simply not so. And it is not only Old English which makes it appear to some to be dead. The Bible is a living book written by the living God for living people who are interested in living right. Now, every teacher knows that it makes a big difference how a book is introduced to a new reader. No teacher worthy of the name would ever introduce a book by saying, "I know you may not find it very interesting, and it may be too difficult for you, but I wish you would read it anyhow; it will do you good." Yet this is the way most adults impress teen-agers when presenting them the Bible as reading matter. Despite this negative approach even the precious old King James Version, filled with Old English as it is, has proven to be a fascinating, life-giving book to millions of teen-agers, both this year and in years gone by, because someone has presented the Bible to them something like this, "Here are the living words of the living God, which He has written for you. For He, being an all-wise God, knew that you would be needing them. Whatever good thing you desire, or ever have desired, can be yours through the reading of this Book."

Removing the dead language is, of course, a definite plus. But others who have set out to remove the Old English from the Bible have also seen fit to remove much more than the Old English — and almost worse, to add many words of which God admittedly cannot be proven to be the author. Prebendary Phillips, in his usual frankness, set out as his second principle, "The translation should expand, if necessary, to preserve the original meaning." If by this he meant that often two words must be used to express a Greek word in the original, no harm could be done. But, in fact, as he readily states in his prefatory remarks, he has made no effort to merely translate the Greek with words which will represent that Greek. So, in fact, he disclaims that he has produced a translation, but instead, has produced a paraphrased commentary which attempts to bring out clearly what he has judged is the meaning of the Scriptures. Though others who have produced modern translations have not admitted as much, and indeed may not have been quite so free, it is clear that all have felt free to "translate" what they thought to be the meaning of the original. In fact, in many cases where the original does not convey the meaning they think it ought to have, they amend the original either by conjecture, or by changing the Hebrew vowels around.

“God is wiser than men” and all Scripture is “God-breathed.” Only the “heart-knowing God” could possibly frame words that would affect every single, though separate, heart, in a way which He Himself intended. And not only the original languages were affected, but God must foresee what future languages must carry His message and see that His words would still be perfect for His purpose when accurately translated into such a language. Because He is such a living, all-wise God, there is no need to rewrite the Bible for each succeeding age. To do so would be to destroy it before many generations have passed. It need only be truly translated.

The Teen-Age Version is careful to distinguish added words by putting them into italic type. Some such words seem to be called for at various points, making the message more understandable in English. However, should the reader fail to get the message (due perhaps to the adding of words to God’s words), then he can ignore the italicized words added by the translator. Dewey Beegle in his book, God’s Word Into English, states the matter clearly, “In the case of the modern versions which have neither italics nor footnotes, there are, obviously, no means of discerning difficult passages where the translation has elements of uncertainty, and so the reader must rely solely on the judgment and interpretation of the translator.” Exactly! Without italics, or footnotes, the poor reader of a modern translation is never going to understand much more of God’s word than what the translator allows him to understand. For the modern translator persists in interpreting the Bible for the reader, even by recasting the sentence to the point where in some instances the translation does not touch the original wording three words in five!

Teen-agers are smart. They quickly suspect the one who insists upon predigesting everything before presenting it to them. They want to judge for themselves what God has said to each one personally. They want to know if anyone has monkeyed with the ingredients before they were mixed and served forth. As for footnotes, no footnoted Bible has ever been the Bible of the people. None ever will be, for God made many individuals. Men will never assent to one man’s interpretation of anything — certainly not on so important a matter as the meaning of God’s words. Curiously, footnoted Bibles do not have very many notes explaining why they have taken away words, or why they have added words. The footnotes in modern Bibles are more commonly used to put into the margin some reading, theoretical or bizarre, which the minority of the translators found impossible to work into the translation itself.

What’s Different about the Teen-age Version?

As stated before, The Teen-Age Version is a Bible designed especially for teen-agers. The process by which this was arrived at was something quite different from asking the experts and the psychologists to predict what teen-agers would want. On the contrary, at every step the teen-agers themselves have been the judges of what they want, need, and will use. Of course the very latest and most expert knowledge from such fields as archaeology, history, geography, ancient languages, and semantics has been incorporated wherever truly applicable to the Biblical account. But there was no hesitation to consult teen-age groups constantly, especially for reading of and comment on the final text. These reading groups have given a myriad of excellent suggestions, have shown their taste for the beautiful and poetic words of the time-honored King James Version, and yet have been quite frank about some new departures in Bible publishing – the blue binding, the transparent jacket, the modern, readable type face.

Here are some of the desired features that teen-agers again and again asked to see incorporated into this version. Their emphasis is on readability, understandability, and beauty.

Readability

1. The type is large. Obviously, a Bible must have small print if it is to be a small Bible. There are some 770,000 words in the Bible. Most teen-agers definitely preferred a larger Bible in order to get a larger type. Of course this is a standard principle of textbook publishing.

2. The type is readable. Gone is the typical Bible page format, with letters and lines jammed together. Some of the tightest and hardest-to-read type faces in the world are in Bibles. It is not fair for a Bible publisher to expect a teen-ager to read a Bible that the publisher has made hard to read. The Caledonia type face in The Teen-age Version makes reading quick and easy.

3. This Bible is paragraphed. In line with the teen-agers' agreement that the Bible is not a museum piece, not a table-decorator, but a book to be read and enjoyed, the old sense-destroying, space-wasting, paragraph-per-verse way of printing Bibles was abandoned. Today's readers are quick. They will gladly meditate over a passage of Scripture, but they do not take kindly to obstacles thrown in the way of quick reading and understanding – and that in the name of tradition.

4. This Bible is versed at the beginning of each verse. Chapter-and-verse citation is not a thing of the past. Memory work, Bible drills, witnessing, counseling, and many other modern activities require the fast location of chapter and verse numbers.

5. Difficult words, names and places are diacritically marked. Speed and ease of pronunciation are possible with the simple system of marking employed. Our simpler system of marking was discovered to be desirable, for too many marks (as in dictionaries) cause confusion and discourage the reader.

6. The most difficult words and names are also phonically pronounced. Why stop the reader for the purpose of practising pronunciation via marks? He loses his line of thought, his reading rhythm — and the publisher can make any word easy to read at a glance. This feature is especially popular among those teen-agers who fear to attempt to read the Bible aloud in public.

Understanding

7. This Bible has easy-to-understand language. The Bible has enough big words that are necessary; why put in any more unthinkingly? Actually, apart from the names and places, we found God's original wording to be generally simple — though the subjects treated are in some ways "hard to be understood." Surely there is little excuse for a translator to force his reader to be constantly translating further as he reads. For this is what must happen when the reader tries to read long and uncommon words in stride. He must try to work out their meaning from the context, and then go back over the whole to try to fix the meaning of both the word and the verse in his mind. This is a disservice to him.

The key to knowledge is understanding. If reading matter is understood, greater knowledge is the result. And it makes a difference whether the subject matter is made easy to take into the understanding, for interest and energy quickly disappear when the reader must struggle over the mountainous, rugged words placed in his path by the translator. Some people may actually think in four-syllable words, but teen-agers do not usually do so. They have large vocabularies, but they do not praise a man who would rather translate "demolition of fortresses" instead of "pulling down of strongholds." If God had used the loftiest vocabulary He knows, no one would be able to understand what He had written. He chose to use easy-to-understand language, and this Version demonstrates it.

The many teen-agers we encountered proved the wisdom of the maxims, "Never stop your reader from reading" and "Never distract your reader's attention from the message."

8. Deity is capitalized. This not only a proper respect for the three Persons of the Godhead, but it helps fix the message in the mind of the reader. It also eliminates any possibility of confusing a pronoun referring to Deity with one in the same passage referring to a human. Identifying God with a capital letter often conveys the meaning to the reader quickly and certainly.

9. Old Testament words quoted in the New Testament are identified. The readers asked that the book, chapter and verse be identified on the spot. All such phrases are set in quotation marks.

10. A glossary of terms is provided. This is to satisfy the need for easily reached information on those terms not yet learned by the reader. Every subject has terms peculiar to itself, and theology is no different. Teen-agers are eager to learn these essential terms. They are impatient with those who water down Bible words, thus giving a pale knowledge of God's message to man.

11. Only proper English is used. Not only propriety is involved, but understanding too, when slang and common or jarring expressions are made to appear in the Holy Bible. These youngsters, if asked, will tell any investigator that there are many words and expressions in modern usage which they do not consider proper for use in the Scriptures.

12. A definite word-for-word treatment of the original Greek and Hebrew has been given. No rewriting of God's holy words has been attempted. There has been no tampering, paraphrasing, or improvement of God's Scriptures. What the Bible "might," "could," or "should" say does not interest any searching, serious reader. Such a person wants to know what God did say.

Beauty

13. Large type and more generous margins, and spacing between lines and paragraphs than are usually found, have given this Bible beauty. As usual, beauty in appearance arouses interest. All our readers have responded to this feature most favorably.

14. The binding, make-up and color were selected by teen-agers.

15. The unusual transparent jacket was a must on the teen-age list, not for attractiveness alone, but for showing and protecting the beauty of the Bible itself. It is washable, protects against scuffs, does not mar like so many jackets when shipped, and keeps the Bible looking like a Bible.

TABLE OF SIGNS USED TO INDICATE THE PRONUNCIATION OF SCRIPTURE NAMES AND WORDS

The system of markings in this book does not profess to be strictly scientific or logical, but aims at being as simple and practical as it can be made, and is based so far as is possible upon the use of signs which have long been familiar. The vowel, or vowels, of every separate syllable are marked as they are to be pronounced.

The words of which the pronunciation is marked are divided into syllables by short hyphens (-). The syllable on which most stress is to be laid in reading is marked (').

The Book of GENESIS

¹In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. ²And the earth was without form and empty. And darkness was on the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved on the face of the waters. ³And God said, Let there be light. And there was light. ⁴And God saw the light that it was good. And God divided between the light and the darkness. ⁵And God called the light, Day. And He called the darkness, Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.

⁶And God said, Let there be an expanse in the middle of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters. ⁷And God made the expanse, and divided the waters which were under the expanse from the waters which were above the expanse — and it was so. ⁸And God called the expanse, Heavens. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

⁹And God said, Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear — and it was so. ¹⁰And God called the dry land, Earth. And He called the gathering together of the waters, Seas. And God saw that it was good. ¹¹And God said, Let the earth bring forth tender sprouts (the herb yielding seed — and the fruit tree yielding fruit after its kind, whose seed is in itself) upon the earth — and it was so. ¹²And the earth brought forth tender sprouts—and herb yielding seed after its kind—and the tree yielding fruit after its kind, whose seed was in itself. And God saw that it was good. ¹³And the evening and the morning were the third day.

¹⁴And God said, Let there be lights in the expanse of the heavens to divide between the day and the night. And let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days and years — ¹⁵and let them be for lights in the expanse of the heavens to give light upon the earth. And it was so. ¹⁶And God made two great lights: the greater light to rule the day and the smaller light to rule the night — and the stars also. ¹⁷And God set them in the expanse of the heavens to give light upon the earth, ¹⁸and to rule over the day and over the night — and to divide between the light and the darkness. And God saw that it was good. ¹⁹And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

²⁰And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that has life, and fowls that fly over the earth in the open expanse of the heavens. ²¹And God created great sea-animals, and every living creature that moves, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind — and every winged fowl after its kind. And God saw that it was good. ²²And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the waters of the seas — and let the fowl multiply in the earth. ²³And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

²⁴And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after its kind — cattle, and creeping thing, and each animal of the earth after its kind — and it was so. ²⁵And God made the animal of the earth after its kind, and cattle after their kind, and everything that creeps upon the earth after its kind. And God saw that it was good.

²⁶And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth. ²⁷So God created man in His own image, in the image of God He created him. He created them male and female. ²⁸And God blessed them. And God said to them, Be fruitful, and multiply and fill the earth, and subdue it. And have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the fowl of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.

²⁹And God said, Behold! I have given you every herb bearing seed which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree (which has in it the fruit of a tree yielding seed) — to you it shall be for food. ³⁰And to every living thing of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to everything that creeps upon the earth which has life in it, there shall be every greenness of herbage for food — and it was so. ³¹And God saw everything that He had made, and behold! it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

¹And the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them. ²And on the seventh day God ended His work which He had made. And He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had made. ³And God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it — because in it He had rested from all His work which God created to make.

⁴These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created — in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens, ⁵and every plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew — for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was no man to till the ground. ⁶But there went up a mist from the earth and watered the whole face of the ground. ⁷And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life — and man became a living soul.

⁸And the LORD God planted a garden eastward in Eden. And there He put the man whom He had formed. ⁹And out of the ground the LORD God caused every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food, to grow. The tree of life also was in the middle of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil. ¹⁰And a river went out of Eden to water the garden. And from there it was divided and became four heads. ¹¹The name of the first is Pí'-shōn — that is it which surrounds all the land of Hāv'-ī-lāh, where there is gold. ¹²And the gold of that land is good. There is bdellium [dēl'-yūm] and the onyx stone. ¹³And the name of the second river is Gī'-hōn — it is the same that surrounds the whole land of Cush. ¹⁴And the name of the third river is Hīd'-dē-kēl — that is it which goes toward the east of Ās-syr'-ī-ā. And the fourth river is Euphrates [You-frāy'-tēs]. ¹⁵And the LORD God took the man and put him into the garden of Eden to work it and keep it. ¹⁶And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, You may freely eat of every tree in the garden, ¹⁷but you shall not eat of the tree of knowledge of good and evil — for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die.

¹⁸And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone. I will make him a helper for him. ¹⁹And out of the ground the LORD God formed every animal of the field and every fowl of the air, and brought them to Adam to see what he would call them. And whatever Adam called every living creature, that was the name of it. ²⁰And Adam gave names to all cattle, and to the fowls of the air, and to every animal of the field — but there was not found a helper for Adam. ²¹And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept. And He took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh in its room. ²²And the LORD God made the rib (which He had taken from the man) into a woman. And He brought her to the man. ²³And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh. She shall be called Woman because she was taken out of Man. ²⁴Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife — and they shall be one flesh. ²⁵And they were both naked — the man and his wife — and were not ashamed before one another.

¹Now the serpent was more crafty than any living thing of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said to the woman, Really, has God said, You shall not eat of every tree of the garden? ²And the woman said to the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden. ³But of the fruit of the tree which is in the middle of the garden, God has said, You shall not eat of it, neither shall you touch it — lest you die. ⁴And the serpent said to the woman, You shall not surely die — ⁵for God knows that in the day you eat of it, then your eyes shall be opened, and you shall be as God, knowers of good and evil. ⁶And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food — and that it was pleasing to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise — she took of the fruit of it, and ate, and gave also unto her husband with her — and he ate. ⁷And the eyes of both of them were opened. And they knew that they were naked. And they sewed fig-leaves together and made themselves aprons.

⁸And they heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day. And Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God in the midst of the trees of the garden. ⁹And the LORD God called to Adam and said to him, Where are you? ¹⁰And he said, I heard Thy sound in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked — and I hid myself. ¹¹And He said, Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten of the tree which I commanded you that you should not eat of it? ¹²And the man said, The woman whom Thou gavest to be with me — she gave me of the tree, and I did eat. ¹³And the LORD God said to the woman, What is this that you have done? And the woman said, The serpent deceived me, and I did eat. ¹⁴And the LORD God said to the serpent, Because you have done this you are cursed more than all cattle, and more than every animal of the field. You shall go upon your belly, and you shall eat dust all the days of your life. ¹⁵And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed — He will bruise your head, and you shall bruise His heel. ¹⁶Unto the woman He said, I will greatly increase your sorrow and your conception. In pain you shall bring forth children, and your desire shall be toward your husband, and he shall rule over you. ¹⁷And to Adam He said, Because you have listened to the voice of your wife and have eaten of the tree — of which I commanded you, saying, You shall not eat of it! — cursed is the ground for your sake. In pain shall you eat of it all the days of your life.

²²And the LORD God said, Behold! the man has become as one of us — to know good and evil. And now, lest he put forth his hand and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever — ²³therefore the LORD God sent him out from the garden of Eden to till the ground from which he had been taken. ²⁴So He drove out the man. And He placed chěr'-û-bîms at the east of the garden of Eden, and a flaming sword which turned every way — to keep the way of the tree of life.

¹And Adam knew Eve his wife. And she conceived and bore Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from Jehovah. ²And again she bore his brother Abel. And Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

³And as time went on, Cain brought to the LORD an offering of the fruit of the ground. ⁴And Abel also brought of the first-born of his flock and of the fat of it. And the LORD had respect to Abel and to his offering, ⁵but He did not have respect to Cain and to his offering. And Cain was very angry, and his face fell. ⁶And the LORD said to Cain, Why are you angry? and why did your face fall? ⁷If you do well, shall you not be accepted? And if you do not do well, sin crouches at the door — and its desire is for you, and you shall rule over it. ⁸And Cain talked with his brother Abel. And when they were in the field, Cain rose up against his brother Abel and killed him.

⁹And the LORD said unto Cain, Where is your brother Abel? And he said, I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper? ¹⁰And He said, What have you done? The voice of your brother's blood cries to Me from the ground. ¹¹And now you are cursed more than the ground which opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand. ¹²When you till the ground, it will not again give its strength to you. And you shall be a vagabond and a fugitive in the earth. ¹³And Cain said unto the LORD, My punishment is greater than I can bear. ¹⁴Behold! Thou hast driven me out from the face of the earth today, and I shall be hidden from Thy face. And I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth, and it shall come to pass that anyone who finds me shall kill me. ¹⁵And the LORD said to him, Therefore whoever kills Cain shall suffer revenge seven times. And the LORD set a mark upon Cain so that anyone who found him should not kill him.

¹⁶And Cain went out from the presence of the LORD and lived in the land of Nod, on the east of Eden. ¹⁷And Cain knew his wife. And she conceived and bore Ē'-nōch. And he built a city, and called the name of the city after the name of his son, Ē'-nōch.

¹⁸And Ī'-rād was born to Ē'-nōch. And Ī'-rād fathered Mē-hū'-jā-ël. And Mē-hū'-jā-ël fathered Mē-thū'-sā-ël. And Mē-thū'-sā-ël fathered Lā'-mēch.

¹⁹And Lā'-mēch took two wives to himself. The name of the first one was Ā'-dāh, and the name of the other was Zil'-lāh. ²⁰And Ā'-dāh bore Jā'-bāl — he was the father of those who dwell in tents, and of those who have cattle. ²¹And his brother's name was Jū'-bāl — he was the father of all those who handle the harp and the organ. ²²And Zil'-āh also bore Tū'-bāl-cain, the hammerer of every engraving tool of bronze and iron. And the sister of Tū'-bāl-cain was Nā'-ă-măh.

²³And Lā'-mēch said to his wives, Ā'-dāh and Zillah, Hear my voice, you wives of Lā'-mēch, listen to my speech — for I have killed a man because of my wound, and a young man because of my blow. ²⁴If Cain shall be avenged seven times, truly Lā'-mēch seventy-seven times.

²⁵And Adam knew his wife again. And she bore a son, and called his name Seth — for she said, God has appointed me another seed instead of Abel, whom Cain killed. ²⁶And there was also a son born to Seth, and he called his name Ē'-nōs. Then men began to call upon the name of the LORD.

¹This is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created man He made him in the likeness of God. ²He created them male and female, and blessed them. And He called their name Adam in the day when they were created.

³And Adam lived one hundred and thirty years and fathered a son in his own likeness, after his own image — and he called his name Seth. ⁴And the days of Adam after he had fathered Seth were eight hundred years. And he fathered sons and daughters. ⁵And all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years. And he died.

⁶And Seth lived one hundred and five years and fathered Ē'-nōs. ⁷And after he fathered Ē'-nōs, Seth lived eight hundred and seven years. And he fathered sons and daughters. ⁸And all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years. And he died.

⁹And Ē'-nōs lived ninety years and fathered Cā-ī'-nān. ¹⁰And after he fathered Cā-ī'-nān, Ē'-nōs lived eight hundred and fifteen years. And he fathered sons and daughters. ¹¹And all the days of Ē'-nōs were nine hundred and five years. And he died.

¹²And Cā-ī'-nān lived seventy years and fathered Mā-hāl'-ă-lēel. ¹³And after he fathered Mā-hāl'-ă-lēel, Cā-ī'-nān lived eight hundred and forty years. And he fathered sons and daughters. ¹⁴And all the days of Cā-ī'-nān were nine hundred and ten years, and he died.

¹⁵And Mā-hāl'-ă-lēel lived sixty-five years and fathered Jār'-ēd. ¹⁶And after he fathered Jār'-ēd, Mā-hāl'-ă-lēel lived eight hundred and thirty years. And he fathered sons and daughters. ¹⁷And all the days of Mā-hāl'-ă-lēel were eight hundred and ninety-five years. And he died.

¹⁸And Jār'-ēd lived one hundred and sixty-two years and fathered Ē'-nōch. ¹⁹And after he fathered Ē'-nōch, Jār'-ēd lived eight hundred years. And he fathered sons and daughters. ²⁰And all the days of Jār'-ēd were nine hundred and sixty-two years. And he died.

²¹And Ē'-nōch lived sixty-five years and fathered Mě-thū'-sě-lāh. ²²And Ē'-nōch walked with God three hundred years after he fathered Mě-thū'-sě-lāh. And he fathered sons and daughters. ²³And all the days of Ē'-nōch were three hundred and sixty-five years. ²⁴And Ē'-nōch walked with God, and then he was not – for God took him.

²⁸And Lā'-mēch lived one hundred and eighty-two years and fathered a son. ²⁹And he called his name Noah, saying, This one shall comfort us concerning our work and the toil of our hands, because of the ground which the LORD has cursed. ³⁰And after he fathered Noah, Lā'-mēch lived five hundred and ninety-five years. And he fathered sons and daughters. ³¹And all the days of Lā'-mēch were seven hundred and seventy-seven years. And he died.

³²And Noah was five hundred years old. And Noah fathered Shem, Ham, and Jā'-phēth.

¹And when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and when daughters were born to them, ²it came to pass that the sons of God saw the daughters of men – that they were beautiful. And they took wives for themselves from all whom they chose. ³And the LORD said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, since he is flesh. Yet his days shall be a hundred and twenty years.

⁴There were giants in the earth in those days. And also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bore sons to them, the same became mighty men who were of old, men of renown. ⁵And GOD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. ⁶And it grieved the LORD that He had made man on the earth, and made Him sorrowful at heart. ⁷And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created, from the face of the earth – both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air – for it grieves Me that I have made them.

⁸But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD. ⁹These are the generations of Noah. Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations. And Noah walked with God. ¹⁰And Noah fathered three sons, Shem, Ham, and Jā'-phēth. ¹¹The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence. ¹²And God looked upon the earth. And behold! it was corrupt – for all flesh had corrupted its way upon the earth. ¹³And God said to Noah, The end of all flesh has come before Me, for the earth is filled with violence through them. And, behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

¹⁴Make you an ark of gō'-phēr wood. You shall make rooms in the ark. And you shall pitch it inside and outside with pitch. ¹⁵And this is the way you shall make it. The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it shall be fifty cubits and the height of it shall be thirty cubits. ¹⁶You shall make a window in the ark, and you shall finish it above to a cubit. And you shall set the door of the ark in the side of it. You shall make it with lower, second and third stories. ¹⁷And behold! I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth in order to destroy all flesh (in which is the breath of life) from under the heavens. And everything which is in the earth shall die. ¹⁸But I will establish My covenant with you. And you shall come into the ark — you and your sons and your wife and your sons' wives with you. ¹⁹And you shall bring into the ark two of every kind, of every living thing of all flesh — to keep them alive with you. They shall be male and female. ²⁰Two of every kind shall come to you to keep them alive — of fowls after their kind, and of cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after its kind. ²¹And take unto you of all food that is eaten, and you shall gather it to you. And it shall be for food, for you and for them. ²²Noah did so. According to all that God commanded him, so he did.

¹And the LORD said to Noah, You and all your house come into the ark, for I have seen you righteous before Me in this generation. ²You shall take to you every clean animal by sevens, the male and female. And take two of the animals that are not clean, the male and female. ³Also take of the fowls of the air by sevens, the male and the female — to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth. ⁴For in seven more days I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights — and I will destroy from off the face of the earth every living thing that I have made. ⁵And Noah did according to all that the LORD commanded him. ⁶And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth.

⁷And Noah went in. And his sons and his wife and his sons' wives went in with him into the ark, because of the waters of the flood. ⁸And there went in unto Noah into the ark two and two, the male and female of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, ⁹and of every thing that creeps upon the earth — as God had commanded Noah.

¹⁰And after seven days it came to pass that the waters of the flood were upon the earth. ¹¹In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, in the seventeenth day of the month were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of the heavens were opened up. ¹²And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights. ¹³In this same day Noah and Shem and Ham and Jā'-phēth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, entered into the ark. ¹⁴They went in, and every animal after its kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth after its kind, and every fowl after its kind — every bird of every sort. ¹⁵And they went in unto Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh, in which is the breath of life. ¹⁶And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him. And the LORD shut him in.

¹⁷And the flood was forty days upon the earth. And the waters increased and bore up the ark, and it was lifted up above the earth. ¹⁸And the waters prevailed and were increased greatly upon the earth. And the ark went upon the face of the waters. ¹⁹And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth. And all the high hills that were under the whole heaven were covered. ²⁰The waters prevailed fifteen cubits upward, and the mountains were covered. ²¹And all flesh that moved upon the face of the earth died — of birds, of cattle, of animal, and of every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth — and every man. ²²All in whose nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died.

²³And every living thing which was on the face of the earth was destroyed, from man to cattle, and to the creeping things, and the fowls of the heavens. And they were destroyed from the earth, and only Noah was left — and those that were with him in the ark. ²⁴And the waters prevailed upon the earth a hundred and fifty days.

¹And God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattle which were with him in the ark. And God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters subsided. ²Also the fountains of the deep and the windows of heaven were stopped — and rain from heaven was restrained. ³And the waters returned from off the earth continually. And after the end of the hundred and fifty days the waters had gone down. ⁴And in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, the ark rested upon the mountains of Ār'-ā-rāt. ⁵And the waters decreased continually until the tenth month. And the tops of the mountains were seen in the tenth month on the first day of the month.

⁶And at the end of forty days it came to pass that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made. ⁷And he sent forth a raven, and it went out, going out and returning until the waters were dried up from off the earth. ⁸He also sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters had gone down from off the face of the earth. ⁹But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot. And she returned to him into the ark, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth. Then he put out his hand and took her, and pulled her in unto him into the ark. ¹⁰And he waited yet another seven days. And again he sent forth the dove out of the ark. ¹¹And the dove came in to him in the evening. And, lo, in her mouth was an olive leaf plucked off — so Noah knew that the waters had gone down from off the earth. ¹²And he waited yet another seven days, and sent forth the dove. And she did not return again to him any more.

¹³And in the six hundred and first year, at the beginning on the first day of the month, it came to pass that the waters were dried up from off the earth. And Noah removed the covering of the ark and looked. And behold! the face of the earth was dry. ¹⁴And in the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry.

¹⁵And God spoke to Noah, saying, ¹⁶Go out of the ark — you and your wife and your sons and your sons' wives with you. ¹⁷Bring out every living thing that is with you — of all flesh, of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth — so that they may breed abundantly in the earth, and be fruitful and multiply upon the earth. ¹⁸And Noah went out, and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him. ¹⁹Every animal, every fowl, and every creeping thing which creeps upon the earth after their families, went forth out of the ark. ²⁰And Noah built an altar unto the LORD. And he took of every clean animal, and of every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar. ²¹And the LORD smelled a sweet odor. And the LORD said in His heart, I will never again curse the ground for man's sake, even though the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth. Neither will I again smite every living thing as I have done. ²²While the earth remains, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.

¹And God blessed Noah and his sons. And He said to them, Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth. ²And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon the animals of the earth, and upon every bird of the air — upon all that moves on the earth, and upon all the fish of the sea — into your hand they are delivered. ³Every moving thing that lives shall be food for you. I have given you all things, even as the green herb. ⁴But you shall not eat of flesh with the life in it, or the blood of it. ⁵And surely the blood of your lives will I require. At the hand of every animal will I require it, and at the hand of man. At the hand of every man's brother will I require the life of man. ⁶Who-ever sheds man's blood, his blood shall be shed by man — for God made man in the image of God. ⁷And you be fruitful and multiply. Bring forth abundantly in the earth, and increase in it.

⁸And God spoke to Noah, and to his sons with him, saying, ⁹Behold! I, even I, establish My covenant with you, and with your seed after you — ¹⁰and with every living creature that is with you, of the birds, of the cattle, and of every animal of the earth with you — from all that go out from the ark, to every animal of the earth. ¹¹And I will establish My covenant with you. Neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood. Neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth. ¹²And God said, This is the token of the covenant which I make between Me and you and every living creature that is with you, for everlasting generations: ¹³I set my bow in the cloud. And it shall be a token of a covenant between Me and the earth. ¹⁴And it shall come to pass, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow shall be seen in the cloud. ¹⁵And I will remember My covenant which is between Me and you and every living creature of all flesh — and the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh. ¹⁶And the bow shall be in the cloud. And I will look upon it that I may remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the earth. ¹⁷And God said to Noah, This is the token of the covenant which I have established between Me and all flesh that is upon the earth.

¹⁸And the sons of Noah that went out of the ark were Shem, Ham, and Jā'-phēth — and Ham is the father of Cā'-nā-ān. ¹⁹These are the three sons of Noah, and the whole earth was overspread from them. ²⁰And Noah began to be a husbandman. And he planted a vineyard. ²¹And he drank of the wine and was drunk. And he was uncovered inside his tent. ²²And Ham, the father of Cā'-nā-ān, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brothers outside. ²³And Shem and Jā'-phēth took a garment and laid it upon both their shoulders. And they went backwards and covered the nakedness of their father. And their faces were backwards, and they did not see their father's nakedness. ²⁴And Noah awoke from his wine, and came to know what his younger son had done to him. ²⁵And he said, Cursed be Cā'-nā-ān — a servant of servants shall he be to his brothers. ²⁶And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Shem, and Cā'-nā-ān shall be his servant. ²⁷God shall enlarge Jā'-phēth, and he shall dwell in the tents of Shem — and Cā'-nā-ān shall be their servant.

²⁸And Noah lived three hundred and fifty years after the flood. ²⁹And all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years. And he died.

¹Now these are the generations of the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham, and Jā-phēth. And sons were born to them after the flood.

²The sons of Jā-phēth were Gō'-mēr and Mā'-gōg and Mā'-daī and Jā'-vān and Tū'-bāl and Mē'-shēch and Tī'-rās. ³And the sons of Gō'mēr were Āsh-kē-nāz and Rī'-phāth and Tō-gār-māh. ⁴And the sons of Jā'-vān were Ē-lī'-shāh and Tār'-shish and Kit'-tīm and Dō'-dā-nīm. ⁵By these were the isles of the Gentiles divided in their lands — every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations.

⁶And the sons of Ham were Cūsh and Miz'-rā-īm and Phūt and Cā'-nā-ān. ⁷And the sons of Cūsh were Sē'-bā and Hāv'-ī-lāh and Sāb'-tāh and Rā'-ā-māh and Sāb-tē'-chā. And the sons of Rā'-ā-māh were Shē'-bā and Dē'-dān. ⁸And Cūsh fathered Nimrod. He began to be a mighty one in the earth. ⁹He was a mighty hunter before the LORD. Therefore it is said, Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before the LORD. ¹⁰And the beginning of his kingdom was Bāb'-ēl, and Ēr'-ēch, and Āc'-cād, and Cāl'-nēh, in the land of Shī'-nār. ¹¹Out of that land he went forth to Ās-syr'-ī-ā. And he built Nin'-ē-vēh and Rē'-hō-bōth and Cā'-lāh — ¹²and Rē'-sēn between Nin'-ē-vēh and Cā'-lāh, which is a great city.

¹⁵And Cā'-nā-ān fathered Sī'-dōn, his firstborn, and Hēth — ¹⁶and the Jēb'-ū-sīte and the Ām'-ōr-ite, and the Gir'-gā-sīte, ¹⁷and the Hī'-vīte, and the Ār'-kīte, and the Sī'-nīte, ¹⁸and the Ār'-vā-dīte, and the Zēm'-ā-rīte, and the Hā'-māth-īte. And afterward the families of the Cā'-nāan-ites were spread abroad. ¹⁹And the border of the Cā'-nāan-ites was from Sī'-dōn (as you come to Gē'-rār) unto Gā'-zā, as you go in towards Sōd'-ōm and Gō-mōr'-rāh and Ād'-māh and Zē-bō'-īm, even unto Lā'-shā. ²⁰These are the sons of Ham, after their families, after their tongues, in their countries, and in their nations.

²¹And children were born to Shem, the father of all the children of Ē'-bēr, the brother of Jā'-phēth the elder. ²²The children of Shem were Ē'-lām and Āssh'-ūr and Ār-pāch'-shād and Lūd and Ār'-ām. ²³And the children of Aram were Uz and Hul and Gē'-thēr and Mash. ²⁴And Ār-pāch'-shād fathered Sā'-lāh, and Sā'-lāh fathered Ē'-bēr. ²⁵And two sons were born to Ē'-bēr. The name of the one was Pē'-lēg for in his days the earth was divided. And his brother's name was Jōk'-tān. ²⁶And Jōk'-tān fathered Āl-mō'-dād and Shē'-lēph and Hā-zār-mā'-vēth and Jē'-rāh ²⁷and Hā-dōr'-ām and Ū'-zāl and Dīk'-lāh ²⁸and Ō'-bāl and Ā-bīm'-ā-ēl and Shē'-bā ²⁹and Ō'-phir and Hāv'-lī-lāh and Jō'-bāb. All these were the sons of Jōk'-tān. ³⁰And their dwelling was from Mē'-shā, as you go to Sē'-phār, a mountain of the east. ³¹These are the sons of

³²These are the families of the sons of Noah, after their generations, in their nations. And from these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.

¹And the whole earth was of one language and of one speech. ²And as they traveled from the east, they found a plain in the land of Shī'nār. And they lived there. ³And they said to one another, Come, let us make brick and burn them thoroughly. And they had brick for stone, and they had asphalt for mortar. ⁴And they said, Come, let us build us a city and a tower with its top in the heavens. And let us make a name for ourselves, lest we be scattered upon the face of the whole earth.

⁵And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower which the children of men had built. ⁶And the LORD said, Behold! The people is one and they all have one language. And this they begin to do. And now nothing which they have imagined to do will be restrained from them. ⁷Come, let us go down and there confuse their language so that they cannot understand one another's speech. ⁸So the LORD scattered them abroad from that place upon the face of all the earth. And they quit building the city. ⁹Therefore the name of it is called Bāb'-ēl — because the LORD confused the language of all the earth there. And the LORD scattered them abroad upon the face of all the earth from that place.

¹⁰These are the generations of Shem. Shem was a hundred years old and fathered Ār-pāch'-shād two years after the flood. ¹¹And after he fathered Ār-pāch'-shād, Shem lived five hundred years. And he fathered sons and daughters.

¹²And Ār-pāch'-shād lived thirty-five years and fathered Sā'-lāh. ¹³And after he fathered Sā'-lāh, Ār-pāch'-shād lived four hundred and three years. And he fathered sons and daughters. ¹⁴And Sā'-lāh lived thirty years and fathered Ē'-bēr. ¹⁵And after he fathered Ē'-bēr, Salah lived four hundred and three years. And he fathered sons and daughters.

¹⁶And Ē'-bēr lived thirty-four years and fathered Pē'-lēg. ¹⁷And after he fathered Pē'-lēg, Ē'-bēr lived four hundred and thirty years. And he fathered sons and daughters. ¹⁸And Pē'-lēg lived thirty years and fathered Rē'-ū. ¹⁹After he fathered Rē'-ū, Peleg lived two hundred and nine years. And he fathered sons and daughters.

²⁰And Rē'-ū lived thirty-two years and fathered Sē'-rüg. ²¹And after he fathered Sē'-rüg, Rē'-ū lived two hundred and seven years. And he fathered sons and daughters. ²²And Sē'-rüg lived thirty years and fathered Nā'-hôr. ²³And after he fathered Nā'-hôr, Sē'-rüg lived two hundred years. And he fathered sons and daughters.

²⁴And Nā'-hôr lived twenty-nine years and fathered Tē'-räh. ²⁵And after he fathered Tē'-räh, Nā'-hôr lived a hundred and nineteen years. And he fathered sons and daughters. ²⁶And Tē'-räh lived seventy years and fathered Ā'-bräm, Nā'-hôr and Hâr'-än.

¹Now the LORD had said to Abram, Go out of your country, and from your kindred, and from your father's house into a land that I will show you. ²And I will make of you a great nation. And I will bless you and make your name great. And you shall be a blessing. ³And I will bless those that bless you and curse the one who curses you. And in you shall all families of the earth be blessed.

⁴So Abram departed, even as the LORD had spoken to him. And Lot went with him. And Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Hâr'-än. ⁵And Abram took Sâr'-ā-i his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had gained in Hâr'-än. And they went forth to go into the land of Cä'-näan. And they came into the land of Cä'-näan.

⁶And Abram passed through the land to the place of Shē'-chēm, unto the plain of Mō'-räh. And the Cä'-näan-ite was then in the land. ⁷And the LORD appeared to Abram and said, I will give this land to your seed. And he built an altar there unto the LORD who appeared to him. ⁸And he moved from there to a mountain on the east of Bēth'-ël. And he pitched his tent with Bethel on the west and Hā'-i on the east. And he built an altar there to the LORD, and called upon the name of the LORD. ⁹And Abram journeyed, going on still toward the south.

¹⁰And there was a famine in the land. And Abram went down into Egypt to stay there, for the famine was grievous in the land. ¹¹And it came to pass, when he had come near to enter into Egypt, that he said to Sâr'-ā-ī his wife, Behold now, I know that you are a beautiful woman to look upon. ¹²Therefore when the Egyptians see you, they shall say, This is his wife. And they will kill me, but they will save you alive. ¹³I pray you, say that you are my sister, so that it may be well with me for your sake. And my soul shall live because of you. ¹⁴And when Abram had come into Egypt, the Egyptians saw that the woman was very beautiful. ¹⁵The princes of Phâr'-ă-ōh also saw her and commended her before Phâr'-ă-ōh. And the woman was taken into Phâr'-ă-ōh's house. ¹⁶And he treated Abram well for her sake. And he had sheep, and oxen, and he-asses, and men-servants, and maid-servants, and she-asses, and camels. ¹⁷And the LORD plagued Phâr'-ă-ōh and his house with great plagues because of Sâr'-ā-ī, Abram's wife. ¹⁸And Phâr'-ă-ōh called Abram and said, What is this that you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife? ¹⁹Why did you say, She is my sister? And so I was about to take her to me as wife. Now therefore behold your wife. Take her and go your way. ²⁰And Phâr'-ă-ōh commanded his men concerning him. And they sent him away, and his wife, and all that he had.

¹And Abram went up out of Egypt — he, and his wife, and all that he had, (and Lot was with him) into the south. ²And Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver and in gold. ³And he went on his journeys from the south, even to Bethel, to the place where his tent had been from the beginning, between Bethel and Hā'-ī — ⁴to the place of the altar which he had made there at the first. And Abram called on the name of the LORD there.

⁵And Lot, who went with Abram, also had flocks and herds and tents. ⁶And the land was not able to bear them, that they might live together — for their substance was great, so that they could not live together. ⁷And there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's cattle and the herdsmen of Lot's cattle. And the Cā'-nāan-ite and the Pē-riz'-zite lived then in the land. ⁸And Abram said to Lot, Let there be no strife, I pray you, between me and you, and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen — for we are brothers. ⁹Is not the whole land before you? I pray you, separate yourself from me. If you take the left hand, then I will go to the right. Or if you go to the right hand, then I will go to the left. ¹⁰And Lot lifted up his eyes and saw all the plain of Jordan, that it was well watered everywhere (before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gō-mōr'-rāh,) even like the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt as you come to Zō'-ār. ¹¹Then Lot chose all the plain of Jordan for himself. And Lot journeyed east. And they separated themselves from one another. ¹²Abram lived in the land of Canaan, and Lot lived in the cities of the plain and pitched his tent toward Sodom. ¹³But the men of Sodom were wicked and sinners before the LORD, exceedingly so.

¹⁴And the LORD said unto Abram, (after Lot was separated from him,) Lift up your eyes now and look from the place where you are northward and southward, and eastward and westward. ¹⁵For all the land which you see I will give to you, and to your seed forever. ¹⁶And I will make your seed as the dust of the earth — so that if a man can count the dust of the earth, then shall your seed also be counted. ¹⁷Rise up and walk through the land, in the length of it and in the breadth of it — for I will give it to you. ¹⁸Then Abram moved his tent and came to live in the plains of Mām'-rē, which is in Hē'-brōn. And he built an altar to the LORD there.

¹And it came to pass in the days of Ām-rā'-phēl king of Shī'-nār, Ār'-ī-ōch king of Ēl-lā'-sār, Chēd-ōr-lā-ō'-mēr king of Ē-lām, and Tī'-dāl king of nations, ²*these* made war with Bē'-rā king of Sodom, and with Bīr'-shā king of Gō-mōr'-rāh, Shī'-nāb king of Ād'-māh, and Shēm-ē'-bēr king of Zē-boi'-īm, and the king of Bē'-lā, which is Zō'-ār. ³All these were joined together in the valley of Sīd'-dīm, which is the salt sea. ⁴They served Chēd-ōr-lā-ō'-mēr twelve years, and in the thirteenth year they rebelled. ⁵And in the fourteenth year Chēd-ōr-lā-ō'-mēr and the kings that were with him came and struck the Rēph'-ā-īms in Āsh'-tē-rōth Kār-nā'-īm, and the Zū'-zīms in Ham, and the Ē'-mīms in Shā'-vēh Kīr-ī-ā-thā'-īm, ⁶and the Hōr'-ites in their Mount Seir, as far as Ēl-pār'-ān, which is by the wilderness. ⁷And they returned, and came to Ēn-mīsh'-pāt, which is Kā'-dēsh, and struck all the country of the Ā-māl'-ēk-ites, and also the Ām'-ōr-ites who lived in Hāz'-ē-zōn-tā'-mār. ⁸And there went out the king of Sodom, and the king of Gō-mōr'-rāh, and the king of Ād'-māh, and the king of Zē-boi'-īm, and the king of Bē'-lā (which is Zō'-ār). And they joined battle with them in the valley of Sīd'-dīm — ⁹with Chēd-ōr-lā-ō'-mēr the king of Ē-lām, and with Tī'-dāl the king of nations, and Ām-rā'-phēl the king of Shī'-nār, and Ār'-ī-ōch the king of Ēl-lā'-sār — four kings with five. ¹⁰And the valley of Siddim had many asphalt pits. And the kings of Sodom and Gō-mōr'-rāh fled, and fell there. And they that remained fled to the mountain. ¹¹And they took all the goods of Sodom and Gō-mōr'-rāh, and all their food, and went their way. ¹²And they took Lot, Abram's brother's son, who lived in Sodom — and all his goods — and went away.

¹³And there came one who had escaped. And he told Abram the Hebrew — for he lived in the plains of Mām'-rē the Ām'-ōr-ite, brother of Ēsh'-cōl and brother of Aner. And these had a covenant with Abram. ¹⁴And when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he led forth his trained servants, born in his own house (three hundred and eighteen) and pursued them unto Dan. ¹⁵And he divided himself against them by night, he and his servants. And he struck them, and pursued them unto Hō'-bāh, which is on the left hand of Dā-mās'-cūs. ¹⁶And he brought back all the goods, and also brought back his brother Lot and his goods, and the women also, and the people.

¹⁷And the king of Sodom went out to meet him after his return from the slaughter of Chēd-ōr-lā-ō'-mēr and of the kings that were with him, at the valley of Shā'-vēh, which is the king's valley. ¹⁸And Mēl-chīz'-ēd-ēk the king of Sā'-lēm brought forth bread and wine. And he was the priest of the most high God. ¹⁹And he blessed him, and said, Blessed be Abram of the most high God, possessor of Heaven and earth. ²⁰And blessed be the most high God, who has delivered your enemies into your hand. And he gave him tithes of all. ²¹And the king of Sodom said to Abram, Give me the people and take the goods for yourself. ²²And Abram said to the king of Sodom, I have lifted up my hand to the LORD, the most high God, the possessor of Heaven and earth, ²³that I will not take anything that is yours — not from a thread even to a shoestring — lest you say, I have made Abram rich. ²⁴But I will take only that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men which went with me — Aner, Ēsh'-cōl, and Mām'-rē — let them take their portion.

¹After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, saying, Fear not, Abram, I am your shield and your exceeding great reward. ²And Abram said, Lord GOD, what wilt Thou give me, since I am childless, and the steward of my house is this Ēl-ī-ē'-zēr of Dā-mās'-cūs? ³And Abram said, Behold! Thou hast given no seed to me. And behold! one born in my house is my heir. ⁴And behold! the word of the LORD came to him saying, This one shall not be your heir. But he that shall come forth out of your own bowels shall be your heir. ⁵And he brought him outside and said, Look now toward Heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them. And He said to him, So shall your seed be. ⁶And he believed in the LORD. And He counted it to him for righteousness. ⁷And He said to him, I am the LORD that brought you out of Ur of the Chā'l'-dēēs, to give you this land to inherit it. ⁸And he said, Lord GOD, by what shall I know that I shall inherit it? ⁹And He said to him, Take Me a heifer of three years old, and a she-goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon. ¹⁰And he took all these unto himself, and divided them in the middle, and laid each piece against one another — but he did not divide the birds. ¹¹And when the birds of prey came down upon the carcasses, Abram drove them away. ¹²And when the sun was going down a deep sleep fell upon Abram. And behold! a horror of great darkness fell upon him. ¹³And He said to Abram, You must surely know that your seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them. And they shall afflict them four hundred years. And also I will judge that nation whom they shall serve. ¹⁴And afterward they shall come out with great substance. ¹⁵And you shall go to your fathers in peace. You shall be buried in a good old age. ¹⁶But in the fourth generation they shall come here again — for the iniquity of the Ām'-ōr-ites is not yet full. ¹⁷And it came to pass that when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold! a smoking furnace, and a burning lamp that passed between those pieces. ¹⁸In the same day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, I have given this land to your seed, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Eū-phrā-tēs — ¹⁹the Kē-nites, and the Kē-niz'-zites, and the Kād'-mō-nites, ²⁰and the Hit'-tites, and the Pē-riz'-zites, and the Rēph'-ā-ims, ²¹and the Ām'-ōr-ites, and the Cā-nāan-ites, and the Gīr'-gā-shites, and the Jēb'-ū-sites.

¹Now Sār'-ā-ī Abram's wife bore him no children. And she had a maid, an Egyptian whose name was Hā'-gär. ²And Sār'-ā-ī said to Abram, Behold now, the LORD has kept me from bearing. I pray you, go in unto my maid. It may be that I may get children by her. And Abram listened to the voice of Sār'-ā-ī. ³And Sār'-ā-ī, Abram's wife, took Hā'-gär her maid, the Egyptian, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife (after Abram had lived ten years in the land of Canaan).

⁴And he went in unto Hā'-gär, and she conceived. And when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes. ⁵And Sār'-ā-ī said to Abram, My wrong be upon you. I have given my maid into your bosom, and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes. The LORD judge between me and you. ⁶But Abram said to Sār'-ā-ī, Behold, your maid is in your hand. Do to her as it pleases you. And when Sār'-ā-ī dealt hardly with her, she fled from her face.

⁷And the Angel of the LORD found her by a fountain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain in the way to Shur. ⁸And He said, Hā'-gär, Sār'-ā-ī's maid, where did you come from? and where will you go? And she said, I flee from the face of my mistress Sār'-ā-ī. ⁹And the Angel of the LORD said to her, Return to your mistress and submit yourself under her hands. ¹⁰And the Angel of the LORD said to her, I will multiply your seed exceedingly, so that it shall not be numbered for multitude. ¹¹And the Angel of the LORD said to her, Behold, you are with child and shall bear a son. And you shall call his name Iśh'-mā-ēl, because the LORD has heard your affliction. ¹²And he will be a wild man. His hand will be against every man, and every man's hand against him. And he shall live in the presence of all his brothers. ¹³And she called the name of the LORD who had spoken to her, Thou God of vision! For she said, Have I also looked after Him that sees me here? ¹⁴Therefore the well was called Bēer-lā'-hai-roi. Behold it is between Kā'-dēsh and Bē'-rēd.

¹⁵And Hā'-gār bore Abram a son. And Abram called his son's name, which Hā'-gār bore, Īsh'-mā-ēl. ¹⁶And Abram was eighty-six years old when Hā'-gār bore Īsh'-mā-ēl to Abram.

¹And when Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to Abram and said to him, I am the Almighty God! Walk before Me and be perfect. ²And I will make My covenant between Me and you, and will multiply you exceedingly. ³And Abram fell on his face. And God talked with him, saying, ⁴As for Me, behold! My covenant is with you, and you shall be a father of many nations. ⁵Neither shall your name any more be called Abram, but your name shall be Abraham — for I have made you a father of many nations. ⁶And I will make you exceeding fruitful, and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come out of you. ⁷And I will establish My covenant between Me and you and your seed after you in their generations for an everlasting covenant — to be a God unto you and to your seed after you.

⁸And I will give the land in which you are a stranger to you and to your seed after you, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession. And I will be their God.

⁹And God said to Abraham, You shall keep My covenant therefore, you, and your seed after you in their generations. ¹⁰This is My covenant, which you shall keep, between Me and you and your seed after you. Every man child among you shall be circumcised. ¹¹And you shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin. And it shall be a token of the covenant between Me and you. ¹²And he that is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every man child in your generations — he that is born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, who is not of your seed. ¹³He that is born in your house, and he that is bought with your money, must be circumcised. And My covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant. ¹⁴And the uncircumcised man child whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that soul shall be cut off from his people — he has broken My covenant.

¹⁵And God said to Abraham, As for Sâr'-ā-ī your wife, you shall not call her name Sâr'-ā-ī, but her name shall be Sâr'-āh. ¹⁶And I will bless her, and give you a son also of her. Yes, I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of nations, kings of people shall be from her. ¹⁷And Abraham fell upon his face and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a child be born unto him that is a hundred years old? And shall Sarah, who is ninety years old, bear? ¹⁸And Abraham said unto God, Oh that Ish'-mā-ēl might live before Thee! ¹⁹And God said, Sarah your wife shall bear you a son indeed. And you shall call his name Y'-sâac. And I will establish My covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him. ²⁰And as for Ish'-mā-ēl, I have heard you. Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly. He shall father twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation. ²¹But I will establish My covenant with Isaac, whom Sâr'-âh shall bear unto you at this set time in the next year. ²²And He left off talking with him, and God went up from Abraham.

²³And Abraham took his son Ish'-mā-ēl, and all that were born in his house, and all that were bought with his money — every male among the men of Abraham's house — and circumcised the flesh of their foreskins in the selfsame day, even as God said unto him. ²⁴And Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. ²⁵And his son Ish'-mā-ēl was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. ²⁶In the same day Abraham and his son Ishmael were circumcised. ²⁷And all the men of his house, that were born in the house, and bought with money of the stranger, were circumcised with him.

¹And the LORD appeared unto him in the plains of Mām'-rē, and he sat at the tent door in the heat of the day. ²And he lifted up his eyes and looked, and lo, three men stood by him. And when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground. ³And he said, My Lord, if now I have found favor in Thy sight, do not pass away, I pray Thee, from Thy servant. ⁴Let a little water, I pray Thee, be brought, and wash Thy feet, and rest under the tree. ⁵And I will fetch a morsel of bread, and you may comfort your hearts. After that you shall pass on. For therefore you are come to your servant. And they said, Do so, as you have said. ⁶And Abraham hastened into the tent to Sarah, and said, Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal; knead it, and make cakes upon the hearth. ⁷And Abraham ran out to the herd and brought a calf, tender and good. And he gave it unto a young man. And he hurried to dress it. ⁸And he took butter and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them. And he stood by them under the tree, and they did eat.

⁹And they said to him, Where is Sâr'-âh your wife? And he said, Behold, in the tent. ¹⁰And He said, I will certainly return unto you according to the time of life, and lo, Sâr'-âh your wife shall have a son.

And Sâr'-äh heard it in the tent door which was behind Him. ¹¹Now Abraham and Sarah were old and far gone in days, and it had ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women. ¹²Therefore Sarah laughed within herself, saying, After I am past age, shall I have pleasure, my lord being old also? ¹³And the LORD said unto Abraham, Why did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I, who am old, truly bear a child? ¹⁴Is anything too hard for the LORD? At the time appointed I will return again, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son. ¹⁵Then Sarah denied, saying, I did not laugh — for she was afraid. And He said, No, but you did laugh.

¹⁶And the men rose up from there, and looked toward Söd'-öm. And Abraham was with them to bring them on the way. ¹⁷And the LORD said, Shall I hide from Abraham the thing which I do, ¹⁸when Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the persons of the earth shall be blessed in him? ¹⁹For I know him, that he will command his children after him, and they shall keep the way of the LORD, to do justice and judgment — that the LORD may bring upon Abraham that which He has spoken of him. ²⁰And the LORD said, Because the cry of Söd'-öm and Gô-mör'-räh is great, and because their sin is very grievous, ²¹I will go down now and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which has come unto Me. And if not, I will know. ²²And the men turned their faces away from there, and went toward Sodom. But Abraham still stood before the LORD.

²⁶And the LORD said, If I find in Söd'-öm fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes. ²⁷And Abraham answered and said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak to the LORD, who am but dust and ashes. ²⁸Perhaps there will be five lacking from the fifty righteous. Wilt Thou destroy all the city for lack of five? And He said, If I find there forty-five, I will not destroy it. ²⁹And he spoke unto Him yet again, and said, Perhaps there shall be forty found there. And He said, I will not do it for forty's sake. ³⁰And he said, O let not the LORD be angry, and I will speak. Perhaps there shall be thirty found there. And He said, I will not do it if I find thirty there. ³¹And he said, Lo now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the LORD. Perhaps there shall be twenty found there. And He said, I will not destroy it for twenty's sake. ³²And he said, Oh do not let the LORD be angry, and I will speak only once more. Perhaps ten shall be found there. And He said, I will not destroy it for ten's sake. ³³And the LORD went His way as soon as He had left off talking with Abraham. And Abraham returned to his place.

¹And there came two angels to Söd'-öm at evening. And Lot sat in the gate of Sodom. And Lot rose up to meet them when he saw them. And he bowed himself with his face toward the ground, ²and said, Behold now, my lords, I pray you turn into your servant's house and stay all night, and wash your feet, and you shall rise up early and go your ways. And they said, No, but we will stay in the street all night. ³But he urgently pressed on them, and they turned in unto him and entered into his house. And he made them a feast, and baked unleavened bread, and they did eat.

⁴But before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, surrounded the house — both old and young, all the people from every quarter. ⁵And they called to Lot, and said unto him, Where are the men which came in unto you this night? Bring them out to us, that we may know them. ⁶And Lot went out to the door unto them, and shut the door after him. ⁷And he said, I pray you, brothers, do not do so with me. ⁸Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man. I pray you, let me bring them out unto you, and you do them as is good in your eyes. But do nothing unto these men, for therefore they came under the shadow of my roof. ⁹And they said, Stand back! And they said, This one came in to stay, and he must needs be a judge. Now we will deal worse with you than with them. And they pressed hard upon the man, Lot, and came near to breaking the door. ¹⁰But the men put out their hands and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut the door. ¹¹And they smote the men that were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great — so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

¹²And the men said unto Lot, Have you anyone here besides yourself? Bring your sons-in-law, and your sons, and your daughters, and whatever you have in the city, bring them out of this place. ¹³For we will destroy this place because the cry of them has grown great before the face of the LORD. And the LORD has sent us to destroy it.

¹⁴And Lot went out and spoke with his sons-in-law, who married his daughters, and said, Get up and get out of this place, for the LORD will destroy this city. But he seemed as one that mocked to his sons-in-law.

¹⁵And when the morning rose up, then the angels hurried Lot, saying, Rise up! Take your wife and your two daughters who are here, lest you be consumed in the iniquity of the city. ¹⁶While he lingered, the angel laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters — the LORD being merciful unto him — and they brought him forth and set him outside the city.

¹⁷And it came to pass when they had brought him outside, that He said. Escape for your life! Do not look behind you, nor stay in all the plain. Escape to the mountain lest you be consumed. ¹⁸And Lot said unto them, Oh no, Lord, pray ¹⁹behold now, Thy servant has found grace in Thy sight, and Thou hast magnified Thy mercy, which Thou hast shown to me in saving my life. And I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil take me and I die. ²⁰Behold now, this city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one. Oh let me escape there (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live. ²¹And He said unto him, See, I have accepted you concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city for which you have spoken. ²²You hurry and escape there! for I cannot do anything till you have come there. Therefore the name of the city was called Zō'-är.

²³The sun was risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zō'-är. ²⁴Then the LORD rained upon Söd'-öm and upon Gō-mör'-räh brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven. ²⁵And He overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground. ²⁶But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.

²⁷And Abraham got up early in the morning to the place where he stood before the LORD. ²⁸And he looked toward Söd'-öm and Gō-mör'-räh, and toward all the lands of the plain, and saw, and, lo, the smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace. ²⁹And when God destroyed the cities of the plain, it came to pass that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when He overthrew the cities in which Lot lived. ³⁰And Lot went up out of Zō'-är, and lived in the mountain, and his two daughters with him. For he feared to live in Zō'-är, and he and his two daughters lived in a cave. ³¹And the firstborn said unto the younger, Our father is old, and there is no man in the earth to come in unto us in the way of all the earth. ³²Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, so that we may preserve seed of our father. ³³And they made their father drink wine that night. And the firstborn went in, and lay with her father. And he did not notice when she lay down nor when she arose. ³⁴And it came to pass on the next day, that the firstborn said unto the younger, Behold, I lay last night with my father. Let us make him drink wine this night also, and you go in and lie down with him so that we may preserve seed of our father. ³⁵And they made their father drink wine that night also, and the younger arose and lay with him. And he did not notice when she lay down nor when she arose. ³⁶So both the daughters of Lot were with child by their father. ³⁷And the firstborn bore a son, and called his name Mō'-āb. The same is the father of the Mō'-āb-ītes unto this day. ³⁸And the younger also bore a son, and called his name Bēn-ām'-mī. The same is the father of the children of Ām'-mon unto this day.

¹And Abraham journeyed from there toward the south country, and lived between Kā'-dēsh and Shūr, and stayed in Gē'-rār. ²And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, She is my sister. And Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch the king of Gē'-rār sent and took Sarah. ³But God came to Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch in a dream by night, and said to him, Behold, you are as dead for the woman whom you have taken — for she is a man's wife. ⁴But Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch had not come near her. And he said, Lord, wilt Thou also kill a righteous nation? ⁵Did he not say unto me, She is my sister? And she herself said, He is my brother. In the sincerity of my heart and innocency of my hands I have done this. ⁶And God said to him in a dream, Yes, I know that you did this in the sincerity of your heart — for I also withheld you from sinning against Me. Therefore I did not allow you to touch her. ⁷Now therefore, restore his wife to the man. For he is a prophet, and he shall pray for you, and you shall live. And if you do not restore her, know that you shall surely die — you, and all that are yours. ⁸Therefore Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears. And the men were greatly afraid. ⁹Then Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch called Abraham, and said to him, What have you done unto us? In what have I offended you, that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done deeds unto me that ought not to be done. ¹⁰And Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch said unto Abraham, What did you see that you have done this thing? ¹¹And Abraham said, Because I thought, Surely the fear of God is not in this place, and they will kill me for my wife's sake. ¹²And yet truly she is my sister. She is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother. And she became my wife.

¹³And it came to pass, when God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said to her, This is your kindness which you show unto me — at every place where we shall come, say of me, He is my brother. ¹⁴And Abimelech took sheep and oxen, and men-servants and women-servants, and gave them unto Abraham. And he restored him Sarah his wife. ¹⁵And Abimelech said, Behold, my land is before you. Live where it pleases you. ¹⁶And to Sarah he said, I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver. Behold, he is to you a covering of the eyes, unto all that are with you, and with all others. So she was reprov'd.

¹⁷So Abraham prayed unto God, and God healed Abimelech and his wife and his maid-servants, and they bore children. ¹⁸For the Lord had fast closed up all the wombs of the house of Abimelech because of Sarah, Abraham's wife.

¹And the LORD visited Sarah as He had said. And the LORD did unto Sarah as He had spoken. ²For Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him. ³And Abraham called the name of his son that was born unto him (whom Sarah bore to him) Ī'-śâac. ⁴And Abraham circumcised his son Ī'-śâac when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him. ⁵And Abraham was a hundred years old when his son Ī'-śâac was born to him.

⁶And Sarah said, God has made me laugh, so that all who hear will laugh with me. ⁷And she said, Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah should have suckled children? For I have borne a son to him in his old age. ⁸And the child grew and was weaned, and Abraham made a great feast the day that Isaac was weaned.

¹²And God said to Abraham, Let it not be grievous in your sight because of the boy and because of your bondwoman. In all that Sarah has said unto you, listen to her voice — for in Isaac your seed shall be called. ¹³And also, I will make a nation of the son of the bondwoman, because he is your seed. ¹⁴And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread and a bottle of water, and gave it to Hâ'-gär, putting it on her shoulder. And he gave her the boy, and sent her away. And she departed and wandered in the wilderness of Bêer-shê'-bâ. ¹⁵And the water was gone in the bottle, and she cast the boy under one of the shrubs. ¹⁶And she went and sat down across from him — a good way off, about a bowshot. For she said, Let me not see the death of the boy. And she sat over against him, and lifted up her voice, and cried. ¹⁷And God heard the voice of the boy, and the angel of God called to Hâ'-gär out of heaven, and said to her, What ails you, Hagar? Do not fear, for God has heard the voice of the boy where he is. ¹⁸Rise up, lift up the boy and hold him up with your hand, for I will make him a great nation. ¹⁹And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went and filled the bottle with water, and gave drink to the boy.

²⁰And God was with the boy, and he grew, and lived in the wilderness, and became an archer. ²¹And he lived in the wilderness of Pâr'-ân, and his mother took a wife for him out of the land of Egypt.

²²And it came to pass at that time, that Ā-bīm'-ě-lěch and Phī'-cōl, the chief captain of his army, spoke to Abraham, saying, God is with you in all that you do. ²³Now therefore swear unto me here by God that you will not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son. But you shall do unto me according to the kindness that I have done to you and to the land in which you have lived also. ²⁴And Abraham said, I will swear. ²⁵And Abraham reproved Abimelech because of a well of water which Abimelech's servants had violently taken away. ²⁶And Abimelech said, I do not know who has done this thing, neither did you tell me, neither have I even heard of it, except today. ²⁷And Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave them unto Abimelech, and both of them made a covenant. ²⁸And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves. ²⁹And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What are these seven ewe lambs which you have set by themselves? ³⁰And he said, For you shall take these seven ewe lambs from my hand, so that they may be a witness unto me that I have dug this well. ³¹Therefore he called that place Bēer-shē'-bā, because they swore, both of them, there. ³²So they made a covenant at Bēer-shē'-bā.

Then Abimelech and Phī'-cōl the chief captain of his army rose up, and they returned unto the land of the Phī-līs'-tines. ³³And Abraham planted a tree in Bēer-shē'-bā, and called there on the name of the LORD, the everlasting God. ³⁴And Abraham lived in the Philistines' land many days.

¹And it came to pass after these things that God tested Abraham, and said unto him, Abraham! And he said, Behold me. ²And He said, Take now your son, your only one — Ī'-śāac, whom you love — and go into the land of Mō-rī'-āh and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I will name to you.

³And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Ī'-śāac his son. And he split the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up and went to the place of which God had told him. ⁴Then on the third day, Abraham lifted up his eyes and saw the place afar off. ⁵And Abraham said unto his young men, You stay here with the ass. And I and the boy will go yonder and worship, and come again to you. ⁶And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it upon Isaac his son. And he took the fire in his hand, and a knife. And they both went together. ⁷And Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, My father. And he said, Behold me, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood. But where is the lamb for a burnt offering? ⁶And Abraham said, My son, God will provide Himself a lamb for a burnt offering. So they both went together.

⁹And they came to the place which God had told him of. And Abraham built an altar there and laid the wood in order. And he bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar upon the wood. ¹⁰And Abraham stretched forth his hand and took the knife to kill his son. ¹¹And the Angel of the LORD called unto him out of Heaven, and said, Abraham! Abraham! And he said, Behold me. ¹²And He said, Do not lay your hand upon the boy, neither do anything to him. For now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from Me. ¹³And Abraham lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold! Behind him a ram was caught in a thicket by his horns. And Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering instead of his son. ¹⁴And Abraham called the name of that place Jehovah-jireh: as it is said to this day, In the mount of the LORD it shall be seen.

¹⁵And the Angel of the LORD called to Abraham out of Heaven the second time, ¹⁶and said, I have sworn by Myself, says the LORD — because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only son — ¹⁷that in blessing I will bless you, and in multiplying I will multiply your seed like the stars of the heavens, and as the sand which is upon the seashore. And your Seed shall possess the gate of His enemies. ¹⁸And in your Seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice.

¹⁹So Abraham returned unto his young men, and they rose up and went together to Bēer-shē'-bā. And Abraham lived at Bēer-shē'-bā.

²⁰And it came to pass after these things that it was told Abraham, saying, Behold Mil'-cāh. She also has borne children to your brother Nā'hôr — ²¹Hūz his firstborn, and Būz his brother, and Kē-mū'-ēl the father of Ār'-ām, ²²and Chēs'-ēd, and Hā'-zō, and Pil'-dāsh, and Jid'-lāph, and Bē-thū'-ēl. ²³And Bē-thū'-ēl fathered Rē-bēk'-āh. These eight did Mil'-cāh bear to Nā'hôr, Abraham's brother. ²⁴And his concubine, whose name was Reū'-māh, she also bore Tē'-bāh, and Gā'-hām, and Thā'-hāsh, and Mā'-ā-chāh.

¹And Sarah was a hundred twenty seven years old — these were the years of the life of Sarah. ²And Sarah died in Kīr'-jāth-ār'-bā; the same is Hē'-brōn in the land of Canaan. And Abraham came to mourn for Sarah, and to weep for her.

³And Abraham stood up from before his dead, and spoke unto the sons of Heth, saying, ⁴I am a stranger and a visitor with you. Give me a possession of a burying-place with you, so that I may bury my dead out of my sight. ⁵And the children of Heth answered Abraham saying unto him, ⁶Hear us, my lord. You are a mighty prince among us. Bury your dead in the choice of our burying places — none of us shall withhold from you his burying-place from burying your dead. ⁷And Abraham stood up, and bowed himself to the people of the land, the children of Heth. ⁸And he spoke with them, saying, If it is your mind that I should bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and ask for me of Ephron the son of Zō'-hār, ⁹that he may give me the cave of Mäch-pē'-läh which he has, which is in the end of his field. For as much money as it is worth he shall give it to me for a possession of a burying-place among you. ¹⁰And Ephron lived among the children of Heth. And Ephron the Hīt'-tite answered Abraham in the ears of the children of Heth, of all that went in at the gate of the city, saying, ¹¹No, my lord, hear me. I give you the field, and the cave that is in it I give to you. In the presence of the sons of my people I give it to you. Bury your dead. ¹²And Abraham bowed down himself before the people of the land. ¹³And he spoke unto Ephron in the ears of the people of the land, saying, Only if you would, please hear me. I will give you money for the field. Take it from me, and I will bury my dead there. ¹⁴And Ephron answered Abraham, saying unto him, ¹⁵My lord, listen to me. The land is worth four hundred shekels of silver. What is that between me and you? Therefore bury your dead. ¹⁶And Abraham listened unto Ephron. And Abraham weighed to Ephron the silver which he had named in the hearing of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, which passes with the merchant.

¹⁷And the field of Ephron, which was Mäch-pē'-läh, which was before Mäm'-rē — the field and the cave which was in it, and all the trees that were in the field, that were in all the borders round about — were made sure ¹⁸unto Abraham for a possession in the presence of the children of Heth, before all that went in at the gate of his city. ¹⁹And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave at the field of Mäch-pē'-läh before Mäm'-rē — the same is Hē'-brōn in the land of Canaan. ²⁰And the field, and the cave that is in it, were made sure to Abraham for a possession of a burying-place by the sons of Heth.

¹And Abraham was old, far gone in age. And the LORD had blessed Abraham in all things. ²And Abraham said to the oldest servant of his house, who ruled over all that he had, I pray you, put your hand under my thigh. ³And I will make you swear by the LORD, the God of Heaven and the God of the earth, that you shall not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell. ⁴But you shall go to my country and to my kindred, and take a wife to my son Isaac. ⁵And the servant said to him, Perhaps the woman will not be willing to follow me to this land. Must I necessarily bring your son again to the land from which you came? ⁶And Abraham said to him, Take care that you do not bring my son there again.

⁷The LORD, the God of Heaven, who took me from my father's house and from the land of my kindred, and who spoke unto me, and who swore unto me, saying, Unto your seed I will give this land: He shall send His Angel before you. And you shall take a wife unto my son from there. ⁸And if the woman will not be willing to follow you, then you shall be clear from this oath. Only do not bring my son there again. ⁹And the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master and swore to him concerning the matter.

¹⁰And the servant took ten camels of the camels of his master, and departed. For all the goods of his master were in his hand. And he arose, and went to Mēs-ō-pō-tā'-mī-ă, unto the city of Nā'-hôr. ¹¹And he made his camels kneel down outside the city by a well of water at the time of the evening, the time that women go out to draw. ¹²And he said, O LORD, God of my master Abraham, I pray Thee, send me good speed this day, and show kindness to my master Abraham. ¹³Behold, I stand by the well of water. And the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water. ¹⁴And let it come to pass that the young woman to whom I shall say, Let down your pitcher, I pray you, so that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink, and I will give your camels drink also — let it be her that Thou hast appointed for Thy servant Isaac. And by it I shall know that Thou hast shown kindness to my master.

¹⁵And before he had finished speaking, it came to pass that, behold, Rē-bēk'-äh came out, who was born to Bē-thū'-ël, son of Mil'-cäh, the wife of Nā'-hôr, Abraham's brother, with her pitcher upon her shoulder. ¹⁶And the young woman was very beautiful to look upon, neither had any man known her. And she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up. ¹⁷And the servant ran to meet her, and said, I pray you, let me drink a little water of your pitcher. ¹⁸And she said, Drink, my lord. And she hurried and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink. ¹⁹And when she had finished giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for your camels also, until they have finished drinking. ²⁰And she hurried, and emptied her pitcher in the trough, and ran again to the well to draw water. And she drew for all his camels. ²¹And the man was watching her, keeping silent, in order to know whether the LORD had prospered his journey or not. ²²And it came to pass as the camels had finished drinking, that the man took a golden earring of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hand, weighing ten shekels of gold. ²³And he said, Whose daughter are you? I pray you, tell me. Is there room in your father's house for us to stay in? ²⁴And she said to him, I am the daughter of Bē-thū'-ël the son of Mil'-cäh, whom she bore unto Nā'-hôr. ²⁵And she said to him, We have both straw and fodder enough, and room to lodge in. ²⁶And the man bowed down his head, and worshipped the Lord. ²⁷And he said, Blessed be the LORD, God of my master Abraham, who has not left my master destitute of His mercy and His truth. As for me, the LORD led me in the way to the house of my master's brothers. ²⁸And the young woman ran and told her mother's house these things.

²⁹And Rē-běk'-äh had a brother, and his name was Lā'-băn. And Lā'-băn ran out to the man, to the well. ³⁰And when he saw the earrings and bracelets upon his sister's hands, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, So spoke the man to me — he came to the man. And behold, he stood by the camels at the well. ³¹And he said, Come in, blessed of the LORD. Why do you stand outside? For I have prepared the house, and room for the camels.

³²And the man came into the house. And he unloaded his camels, and gave straw and fodder to the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men that were with him. ³³And there was food set before him to eat. But he said, I will not eat until I have told my errand. And he said, Speak on. ³⁴And he said, I am Abraham's servant. ³⁵And the LORD has blessed my master greatly, and he has become great. And He has given him flocks and herds and silver and gold, and menservants and maidservants, and camels and asses. ³⁶And Sarah my master's wife bore a son to my master when she was old. And he has given to him all that he has. ³⁷And my master made me swear, saying, You shall not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Cä'-nāan-ites, in whose land I live. ³⁸But you shall go to my father's house, and to my kindred, and take a wife to my son. ³⁹And I said to my master, Perhaps the woman will not follow me. ⁴⁰And he said to me, The LORD, before whom I walk, will send his Angel with you, and prosper your way. And you shall take a wife for my son from my kindred, and from my father's house. ⁴¹Then shall you be clear from my oath when you come to my kindred, and if they do not give you one, you shall be clear from my oath.

⁴²And I came this day to the well, and said, O LORD, God of my master Abraham, if now Thou dost prosper my way which I go, ⁴³behold, I stand by the well of water. And it shall come to pass that, when the virgin comes forth to draw water, and I say to her, Give me, I pray you, a little water from your pitcher to drink, ⁴⁴and she say to me, Both you drink, and I will also draw for your camels — let the same be the woman whom the LORD has appointed for my master's son. ⁴⁵And before I finished speaking in my heart, behold! Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder. And she went down to the well and drew water. And I said unto her, I pray you, let me drink. ⁴⁶And she hurried and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drink, and I will give drink to your camels also. So I drank, and she made the camels drink also. ⁴⁷And I asked her and said, Whose daughter are you? And she said, The daughter of Bě-thū'-ēl, Nā'-hōr's son, whom Mil'-cāh bore unto him. And I put the earring upon her face and the bracelets upon her hands. ⁴⁸And I bowed down my head and worshipped the LORD, and blessed the LORD, God of my master Abraham, who had led me in the right way to take my master's brother's daughter to his son.

⁴⁹And now if you will deal kindly and truthfully with my master, tell me. And if not, tell me so that I may turn to the right hand or to the left. ⁵⁰Then Lā'-bān and Bě-thū'-ēl answered and said, The thing has come forth from the LORD. We cannot speak to you bad or good. ⁵¹Behold! Rebekah is before you; take her and go. And let her be the wife of your master's son, even as the LORD has spoken.

⁵²And it came to pass that when Abraham's servant heard their words, he worshipped the LORD, bowing himself to the earth. ⁵³And the servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and clothing, and gave them to Rebekah. He also gave precious things to her brother and to her mother. ⁵⁴And they ate and drank, he and the men that were with him, and stayed all night. And they rose up in the morning, and he said, Send me away to my master. ⁵⁵And her brother and her mother said, Let the young woman stay with us a few days, rather ten. After that she shall go. ⁵⁶And he said to them, Do not hinder me, since the LORD has prospered my way. Send me away, that I may go away to my master. ⁵⁷And they said, We will call the young woman and inquire at her mouth. ⁵⁸And they called Rebekah, and said to her, Will you go with this man? And she said, I will go. ⁵⁹And they sent away Rebekah their sister, and her nurse, and Abraham's servant, and his men. ⁶⁰And they blessed Rebekah, and said to her, Our sister, be the mother of thousands of millions, and let your seed possess the gate of those who hate them.

⁶¹And Rebekah rose up, and her young women, and they rode upon the camels and followed the man. And the servant took Rebekah and went his way. ⁶²And Isaac came from the way of the well Lā-hai'-roi, for he lived in the south country. ⁶³And Isaac went out to think things over in the field at the beginning of the evening. And he lifted up his eyes, and looked. And behold, camels were coming. ⁶⁴And Rebekah lifted up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac, she quickly alighted from off the camel. ⁶⁵For she had said to the servant, What man is this that walks in the field to meet us? And the servant said, It is my master. Therefore she took a veil and covered herself. ⁶⁶And the servant told Isaac all things that he had done. ⁶⁷And Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife. And he loved her. And Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

¹Then again Abraham took a wife, and her name was Kē-tū'-rāh. ²And She bore him Zīm'-rān and Jök'-shān and Mē'-dān and Mīd'-ī-ān and Ish'-bāk and Shū'-āh. ³And Jök'-shān fathered Shē'-bā and Dē'-dān. And the sons of Dē'-dān were Āssh'-û-rīm and Lē-tū'-shīm and Lē-ūm'-mīm. ⁴And the sons of Midian were Ē'-phāh and Ē'-phēr and Hā'-nōch and Ā-bī'-dā and Ēl-dā'-āh. All these were the children of Kē-tū'-rāh.

⁵And Abraham gave all that he had to Isaac. ⁶But to the sons of the concubines which Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts. And he sent them away from Isaac his son, while he still lived, eastward to the east country. ⁷And these are the days of the years of Abraham's life, which he lived — a hundred seventy-five years. ⁸Then Abraham gave up the spirit and died in a good old age, old and satisfied. And he was gathered to his people. ⁹And his sons Isaac and Ish'-mā-ēl buried him in the cave of Māch-pē'-lāh, in the field of Ephron the son of Zō'-hār the Hittite, which is before Mām'-rē — ¹⁰the field which Abraham purchased of the sons of Heth. There Abraham was buried, and Sarah his wife.

¹¹And after the death of Abraham, it came to pass that God blessed his son Isaac. And Isaac lived by the well Lā-haī'-roi.

²⁹And Jacob boiled pottage. And Esau came from the field, and he was faint. ³⁰And Esau said to Jacob, I pray you, feed me with that red pottage, for I am faint. Therefore his name was called Ē'-dōm. ³¹And Jacob said, Sell me your birthright today. ³²And Esau said, Behold, I am at the point of dying, and what profit shall this birthright be to me? ³³And Jacob said, Swear to me this day. And he swore to him, and he sold his birthright to Jacob. ³⁴Then Jacob gave Esau bread and pottage of lentils. And he ate and drank, and rose up and went his way. So Esau despised his birthright.

¹And there was a famine in the land, besides the famine that was in the days of Ā'-brā-hām. And Isaac went to Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch king of the Phi-lis'-tines, unto Gē'-rār. ²And the LORD appeared unto him and said, Do not go down into Egypt. Live in the land which I shall tell you of. ³Stay in this land, and I will be with you and will bless you — for unto you and unto your seed I will perform the oath which I swore unto Abraham your father. ⁴And I will make your seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give to your seed all these countries. And in your seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed — ⁵because Abraham obeyed My voice and kept My charge, My commandments, My statutes, and My laws.

⁶And Isaac lived in Gē'-rār. ⁷And the men of the place asked him about his wife. And he said, She is my sister. For he feared to say, My wife — lest the men of the place should kill him for Rebekah, because she was beautiful to look upon. ⁸And when he had been there a long time, it came to pass that Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch king of the Philistines looked out through the window, and saw. And behold! Isaac was caressing Rebekah his wife. ⁹And Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch called Isaac and said, Behold! She surely is your wife. And why did you say, She is my sister? And Isaac said to him, Because I said, Lest I die on account of her. ¹⁰Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch said, What is this you have done to us? One of the people might have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us. ¹¹And Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He that touches this man or his wife shall surely be put to death. ¹²Then Isaac sowed in that land, and received in the same year a hundredfold. And the LORD blessed him. ¹³And the man became great. And he went forward and grew until he became very great. ¹⁴And he had possession of flocks and possession of herds, and many household servants. And the Philistines envied him. ¹⁵For all the wells which his father's servants had dug in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped them and filled them with earth. ¹⁶And Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch said to Isaac, Go away from us, for you are much mightier than we are.

¹⁷And Isaac departed from there, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gē'-rār, and lived there. ¹⁸And Isaac dug again the wells of water which they had dug in the days of Abraham his father — for the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham. And he called their names after the names by which his father had called them.

²³And he went from there to Bēer-shē'-bā. ²⁴And the LORD appeared to him the same night, and said, I am the God of Abraham your father. Do not fear, for I am with you, and will bless you and multiply your seed for My servant Abraham's sake. ²⁵And he built an altar there, and called upon the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there. And Isaac's servants dug a well there. ²⁶Then Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch went to him from Gē'-rār, with Ā-hūz'-zāth one of his friends, and Phī'-chōl the chief captain of his army. ²⁷And Isaac said to them, Why do you come to me, since you hate me and have sent me away from you? ²⁸And they said, We saw certainly that the LORD was with you. And we said, Let there be now an oath between us, between us and you, and let us make a covenant with you; ²⁹that you will do us no harm since we have not touched you, and since we have done nothing but good to you, and have sent you away in peace. You are now the blessed of the LORD. ³⁰And he made them a feast, and they ate and drank. ³¹And they rose up early in the morning, and swore to one another. And Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace. ³²And the same day it came to pass that Isaac's servants came and told him about the well which they had dug. And they said to him, We have found water. ³³And he called it Shē'-bāh. Therefore the name of the city is Bēer-shē'-bā unto this day.

³⁴And Esau was forty years old when he took to wife Judith the daughter of Bēer'-ī the Hīt'-tite, and Bāsh'-ĕ-māth the daughter of Ē'-lōn the Hīt'-tite — ³⁵who were a grief of mind to Isaac and to Rebekah.

¹And it came to pass, when Isaac was old and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called his oldest son Esau and said to him, My son. ²And he said to him, Behold, here I am. And he said, Behold now, I am old, I do not know the day of my death. ³Now therefore I pray you, take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field and hunt deer meat for me. ⁴And make tasty meat for me, such as I love, and bring it to me so that I may eat, that my soul may bless you before I die. ⁵And Rebekah was listening when Isaac spoke to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt for deer meat in order to bring it.

⁶And Rebekah spoke to her son Jacob, saying, Behold, I heard your father speak to your brother Esau, saying, ⁷Bring me deer meat, and make me tasty meat so that I may eat and bless you before the LORD before my death. ⁸Therefore, my son, obey my voice according to what I command you. ⁹Go now to the flock, and bring me from there two good kids of the goats. And I will make them tasty meat for your father, such as he loves. ¹⁰And you shall bring it to your father so that he may eat, and that he may bless you before his death. ¹¹And Jacob said to his mother Rebekah, Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man. ¹²My father will perhaps feel me, and I shall seem to him as a deceiver. And I shall bring a curse upon me, and not a blessing. ¹³And his mother said to him, Your curse be upon me, my son, only obey my voice and go bring them to me. ¹⁴And he went. And he took them and brought them to his mother. And his mother made tasty meat such as his father loved. ¹⁵And Rebekah took the costly garments of her older son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them on Jacob her younger son. ¹⁶And she put the skins from the kids of the goats on his hands, and on the smooth of his neck. ¹⁷And she gave the tasty meat and the bread which she had prepared into the hand of her son Jacob.

¹⁸And he came to his father and said, My father! And he said, Here I am; who are you, my son? ¹⁹And Jacob said to his father, I am Esau your first-born. I have done as you asked me. Arise, I pray you, sit and eat of my deer meat, that your soul may bless me. ²⁰And Isaac said to his son, How is it that you have found it so quickly, my son? And he said, Because the LORD your God brought it to me. ²¹And Isaac said to Jacob, Come near, I pray you, so that I may feel you, my son, whether you are truly my son Esau or not. ²²And Jacob went near to Isaac his father. And he felt him and said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau. ²³And he did not know him because his hands were hairy like his brother Esau's hands. So he blessed him. ²⁴And he said, Are you truly my son Esau? And he said, I am. ²⁵And he said, Bring it to me, and I will eat of my son's deer meat, so that my soul may bless you. And he brought it near to him, and he ate. And he brought him wine, and he drank. ²⁶And his father Isaac said to him, Come near now and kiss me, my son. ²⁷And he came near and kissed him. And he smelled the smell of his clothing, and blessed him, and said, See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the LORD has blessed. ²⁸Therefore God give you of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine. ²⁹Let people serve you, and let nations bow down to you. Be lord over your brothers, and let your mother's sons bow down to you. Cursed be everyone that curses you, and blessed be he that blesses you.

³⁰And it came to pass, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was scarcely gone from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting. ³¹And he also had made tasty meat and brought it to his father. And he said unto his father, Let my father arise and eat of his son's deer meat so that your soul may bless me. ³²And his father Isaac said to him, Who are you? And he said, I am your son, your first-born, Esau. ³³And Isaac trembled with a great trembling, and said, Who? Where is he who has hunted deer and brought it to me, and I have eaten of all before you came, and have blessed him? Yes! he shall be blessed! ³⁴And when Esau heard the voice of his father, he cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry, and said to his father, Bless me, even me also, O my father! ³⁵And he said, Your brother came with deceit, and has taken away your blessing. ³⁶And he said, Is he not rightly named Jacob? For he has supplanted me these two times: he took away my birthright, and behold, now he has taken away my blessing. And he said, Have you not reserved a blessing for me? ³⁷And Isaac answered and said to Esau, Behold! I have made him your lord, and all his brothers I have given him for servants. And with corn and wine I have supported him. And what shall I do now to you, my son? ³⁸And Esau said to his father, Have you but one blessing, my father? Bless me, even me also, O my father. And Esau lifted up his voice and wept. ³⁹And Isaac his father answered and said to him, Behold! Your dwelling shall be of the fatness of the earth and of the dew of heaven from above. ⁴⁰And by your sword you shall live, and shall serve your brother. And it shall come to pass when you shall have the dominion, you shall break his yoke from off your neck.

⁴¹And Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father had blessed him. And Esau said in his heart, The days of mourning for my father are at hand. Then I will kill my brother Jacob. ⁴²And these words of her older son Esau were told to Rebekah. And she sent and called her younger son Jacob, and said to him, Behold, your brother Esau comforts himself regarding you, intending to kill you. ⁴³Now therefore, my son, obey my voice and arise. Flee to my brother Lā'-bān, to Hār'-ān, ⁴⁴and stay with him a few days ⁴⁵until your brother's fury turns away, until your brother's anger turns away from you and he forgets what you have done to him. Then I will send and bring you from there. Why should I also be bereaved of both of you in one day? And Rebekah said to Isaac, I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth. If Jacob takes a wife of the daughters of Heth, like these of the daughters of the land, what good shall my life do me?

¹And Isaac called Jacob, and blessed him, and commanded him. And he said to him, You shall not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan. ²Arise, go to Pā-dān-ār'-ām, to the house of Bě-thū'-ēl your mother's father. And take a wife from there of the daughters of Lā'-bān your mother's brother. ³And may God almighty bless you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, so that you may be a multitude of people. ⁴And may He give you the blessing of Abraham — to you and to your seed with you — so that you may inherit the land in which you are a stranger, which God gave to Abraham. ⁵And Isaac sent Jacob away. And he went to Pā-dān-ār'-ām to Lā'-bān, son of Bě-thū'-ēl the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau.

⁶When Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Pā-dān-ār'-ām in order to take a wife from there, and that as he blessed him he gave him a command, saying, You shall not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan — ⁷and that Jacob obeyed his father and his mother, and had gone to Pā-dān-ār'-ām — ⁸and when Esau saw that the daughters of Canaan did not please Isaac his father — ⁹then Esau went to Ish'-mā-ēl, and took Mā'-hā-lāth the daughter of Ish'-mā-ēl, Abraham's son, the sister of Nē-bā'-jōth, unto the wives which he had, to be his wife.

¹⁰And Jacob went out from Bēer-shē'-bā, and went toward Hār'-ān. ¹¹And he lighted upon a certain place, and stayed there all night, because the sun had set. And he took of the stones of that place, and put them down for pillows, and lay down in that place to sleep. ¹²And he dreamed. And behold! a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to Heaven. And behold! the angels of God ascending and descending on it. ¹³And behold! the LORD stood above it, and said, I am the LORD, God of Abraham your father, and the God of Isaac. The land on which you lie I will give to you and to your seed. ¹⁴And your seed shall be like the dust of the earth, and you shall spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south. And in you and in your seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed. ¹⁵And, behold, I am with you, and will keep you in every place where you go, and will bring you again into this land — for I will not leave you until I have done that which I have spoken of unto you.

¹⁶And Jacob awakened from his sleep. And he said, Surely the LORD is in this place, and I did not know it. ¹⁷And he was afraid, and said, How fearful is this place! This is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of Heaven! ¹⁸And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone which he had put down for his pillow, and set it up for a pillar, and poured oil on the top of it. ¹⁹And he called the name of that place Bēth'-ēl. But the name of that city was Lüz at first. ²⁰And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat and clothing to put on, ²¹so that I come again unto my father's house in peace — then shall the LORD be my God. ²²And this stone which I have set for a pillar shall be God's house. And of all that Thou shalt give me, I will surely give the tenth unto Thee.

¹Then Jacob went on his journey, and came to the land of the people of the east. ²And he looked, and behold! a well in the field. And, lo, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it, for they watered the flocks out of that well. And a great stone was upon the well's mouth. ³And all the flocks were gathered there. And they rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again upon the well's mouth in its place. ⁴And Jacob said to them, My brothers, where are you from? And they said, We are from Hār'-ān. ⁵And he said to them, Do you know Lā'-bān the son of Nā'-hôr? And they said, We know him. ⁶And he said to them, Is he well? And they said, He is well. And, behold, his daughter Rā'-chēl comes with the sheep. ⁷And he said, Lo, the day is yet high. It is not yet time for gathering the cattle together. Water the sheep, and go feed them. ⁸And they said, We cannot, until all the flocks have been gathered together. And they roll the stone from the well's mouth — then we water the sheep.

¹⁵And Lā'-bān said to Jacob, Because you are my brother, should you then serve me for nothing? Tell me, what shall your wages be? ¹⁶And Lā'-bān had two daughters. The name of the oldest was Lē'-āh, and the name of the younger was Rachel. ¹⁷Leah was weak of eyes, but Rachel was beautiful and well-favored. ¹⁸And Jacob loved Rachel, and said, I will serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter. ¹⁹And Lā'-bān said, It is better that I give her to you than that I should give her to another man. Stay with me. ²⁰And Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed to him but a few days — for the love he had for her.

²¹And Jacob said to Laban, Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, so that I may go in unto her. ²²And Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feast. ²³And in the evening he took his daughter Leah and brought her to him. And he went in unto her. ²⁴And Laban gave Zil'-pāh his maid to his daughter Leah for a handmaid. ²⁵And in the morning, behold! it was Leah! And he said to Laban, What is this you have done to me? Did I not serve with you for Rachel? Why then have you tricked me? ²⁶And Laban said, It must not be done so in our country, to give the younger before the firstborn. ²⁷Fulfill her week, and we will give you this also for the service which you shall serve with me still another seven years. ²⁸And Jacob did so, and fulfilled her week. And he gave him Rachel his daughter to wife also. ²⁹And Laban gave Bil'-hāh his maid to his daughter Rachel, to be her handmaid. ³⁰And he also went in unto Rachel. He also loved Rachel more than Leah, and served with him still seven more years.

³¹And when the LORD saw that Leah was hated; He opened her womb. But Rachel was barren. ³²And Leah conceived and bore a son. And she called his name Reū'-bēn — for she said, Surely the LORD has looked upon my afflictions. Now therefore my husband will love me. ³³And she conceived again, and bore a son, and said, Because the LORD has heard that I was hated, He has therefore given me this son also. And she called his name Sīm'-ē-ōn. ³⁴And she conceived again, and bore a son, and said, Now this time my husband will return to me, because I have borne him three sons. Therefore his name was called Lē'-vī. ³⁵And she conceived again, and bore a son; and she said, Now I will praise the LORD. Therefore she called his name Jū'-dāh, and quit bearing.

¹And when Rachel saw that she bore Jacob no children, Rachel envied her sister. And she said to Jacob, Give me children, or else I will die. ²And Jacob's anger was kindled against Rachel. And he said, Am I in God's stead, who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb? ³And she said, Behold my maid Bil'-hāh — go in unto her, and she shall bear upon my knees, so that I may also have children by her. ⁴And she gave him her handmaid Bīl'-häh to wife. And Jacob went in unto her. ⁵And Bīl'-häh conceived, and bore Jacob a son. ⁶And Rachel said, God has judged me, and has also heard my voice, and has given me a son. Therefore she called his name Dan. ⁷And Rachel's maid Bīl'-häh conceived again, and bore Jacob a second son. ⁸And Rachel said, With the wrestlings of God I have wrestled with my sister, and I have prevailed. And she called his name Nāph'-tä-li. ⁹When Leah saw that she had quit bearing, she took her maid Zil'-päh and gave her to Jacob to wife. ¹⁰And Leah's maid Zil'-päh bore Jacob a son. ¹¹And Leah said, A troop comes. And she called his name Gad. ¹²And Leah's maid Zil'-päh bore Jacob a second son. ¹³And Leah said, I am happy, for the daughters will call me blessed. And she called his name Āsh'-ēr.

¹⁴And Reū'-bēn went in the days of the wheat harvest, and found may-apples in the field, and brought them to his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, I pray you, give me some of your son's may-apples. ¹⁵And she said to her, Is it a small matter that you have taken my husband? And would you also take my son's may-apples? And Rachel said, Therefore he shall lie with you tonight for your son's may-apples. ¹⁶And Jacob came out of the field in the evening. And Leah went out to meet him, and said, You must come in unto me, for I have surely hired you with my son's may-apples. And he lay with her that night. ¹⁷And God listened to Leah, and she conceived, and bore Jacob the fifth son. ¹⁸And Leah said, God has given me my hire, because I have given my maid to my husband. And she called his name Īs'-sā-chär. ¹⁹And Leah conceived again, and bore Jacob the sixth son. ²⁰And Leah said, God has presented me with a good dowry. Now my husband will live with me, because I have borne him six sons. And she called his name Zē-bū'-lün. ²¹And afterward she bore a daughter, and called her name Dī'-näh.

²²And God remembered Rachel, and God listened to her and opened her womb. ²³And she conceived and bore a son, and she said, God has taken away my reproach. ²⁴And she called his name Joseph. And she said, The LORD shall add another son to me.

²⁵And when Rachel had borne Joseph, it came to pass that Jacob said to Lā'-bān, Send me away so that I may go into my own place and to my country. ²⁶Give me my wives and my children, for whom I have served you, and let me go — for you know my service which I have done you. ²⁷And Laban said to him, I pray you, if I have found favor in your eyes, stay. For I have learned by experience that the LORD has blessed me for your sake. ²⁸And he said, Appoint your wages and I will give it. ²⁹He said to him, You know how I have served you, and how your cattle were with me. ³⁰For you had little before I came, and it has now increased to a multitude. And the LORD has blessed you since my coming. And now when shall I provide for my own house also? ³¹And he said, What shall I give you? And Jacob said, You shall not give me anything. If you will do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep your flock. ³²I will pass through all the flocks today, taking out all the speckled and spotted sheep, and all of the black sheep among the lambs, and the spotted and the speckled among the goats. And these shall be my hire. ³³So shall my righteousness answer for me in time to come, and it shall come for my hire before your face. Every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and black among the sheep, shall be counted stolen with me. ³⁴And Laban said, Behold, let it be according to your word. ³⁵And that day he took out the he-goats that were striped and spotted, and all the she-goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had white in it, and all the black from among the lambs, and gave them into the hand of his sons. ³⁶And he set three days' journey between himself and Jacob. And Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flocks.

³⁷And Jacob took rods of green poplar, and of the hazel and chestnut tree. And he peeled white streaks in them, and made the white appear which was in the rods. ³⁸And he set the rods which he had peeled before the flocks in the gutters in the watering troughs when the flocks came to drink, so that they should conceive when they came to drink. ³⁹And the flocks conceived in front of the rods, and brought forth striped cattle, speckled, and spotted. ⁴⁰And Jacob separated the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks toward the striped, and all the black in the flock of Laban. And he put his own flocks by themselves, and did not put them with the flock of Laban. ⁴¹And when the stronger flocks conceived, Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the flocks in the gutters, so that they might conceive among the rods. ⁴²But when the flocks were feeble, he did not put them in — so the feebler ones were Laban's and the stronger ones were Jacob's. ⁴³And the man increased exceedingly, and had many flocks, and maidservants, and manservants, and camels, and asses.

¹And he heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, Jacob has taken away all that was our father's, and he has gotten all this glory from that which was our father's. ²And Jacob saw the countenance of Laban, and, behold, it was not toward him as before. ³And the LORD said to Jacob, Return to the land of your fathers, and to your kindred, and I will be with you. ⁴And Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field to his flocks. ⁵And he said to them, I see your father's face, that it is not toward me as before — but the God of my father has been with me. ⁶And you know that with all my power I have served your father, ⁷and your father has deceived me and changed my wages ten times. But God did not allow him to hurt me. ⁸If he said this,

The speckled shall be your wages — then all the flocks bore speckled. And if he said this, The striped shall be your hire — then all the flocks bore striped. ⁹So God has taken away the flocks of your father, and has given them to me. ¹⁰And at the time the cattle conceived, I lifted up my eyes and saw in a dream, and, behold! the rams which leaped upon the cattle were striped, speckled, and mottled. ¹¹And the Angel of God spoke to me in a dream, saying, Jacob! And I said, Here I am. ¹²And he said, Lift up your eyes and see all the rams which leap upon the cattle, that they are striped, speckled, and mottled. For I have seen all that Laban does to you. ¹³I am the God of Bēth'-ēl, where you anointed the pillar, where you vowed a vow to Me. Now arise, get out from this land, and return to the land of your kindred.

¹⁴And Rachel and Leah answered and said to him, Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house? ¹⁵Are we not counted strangers by him? For he has sold us, and has also entirely devoured our money. ¹⁶For all the riches which God has taken from our father, that is ours and our children's. Now then, whatever God has said to you, do.

²²It was told Laban on the third day that Jacob had fled. ²³And he took his brothers with him, and pursued after him seven days' journey. And they overtook him in Mount Gīl'-ē-ād. ²⁴And God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said to him, Take heed that you do not speak either good or bad to Jacob. ²⁵Then Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount. And Laban with his brothers pitched in Mount Gilead. ²⁶And Laban said to Jacob, What have you done, that you have stolen away my heart and carried away my daughters as captives taken with the sword? ²⁷Why did you flee away secretly, and steal away from me, and did not tell me so that I might have sent you away with mirth, and with songs, with tabret and with harp? ²⁸And why have you not allowed me to kiss my sons and my daughters? You have done foolishly in so doing. ²⁹It is in the power of my hand to do you harm. But the God of your fathers spoke to me last night, saying, Take heed that you do not speak either good or bad to Jacob. ³⁰And now you have gone because you longed after your father's house, but why have you stolen my gods?

³¹And Jacob answered and said to Laban, Because I was afraid, for I said, Perhaps you would take your daughters away from me by force. ³²With whomever you find your gods, let him not live. Before our brothers, choose what is yours with me, and take it to you. For Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them. ³³And Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the tents of the two maid-servants, and he did not find them. And he went out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent. ³⁴Now Rachel had taken the images and put them into the camel's saddle, and sat on them. And Laban searched all the tent, but did not find them. ³⁵But she said to her father, Let it not displease my lord that I cannot rise up before you. For the custom of women is upon me. And he searched, but did not find the images.

³⁶And Jacob was angry, and rebuked Laban. And Jacob answered and said to Laban, What is my trespass? What is my sin, that you have so hotly pursued after me? ³⁷For you have searched all my stuff — what have you found of all your household stuff? Set it here before my brothers and your brothers, that they may judge between us both. ³⁸I was with you these twenty years. Your ewes and she-goats have not cast their young, and the rams of your flock I have not eaten. ³⁹That which was torn I did not bring to you; I bore the loss of it. You required it at my hand, whether stolen by day, or stolen by night. ⁴⁰So I was; in the day the heat consumed me, and the frost by night. And my sleep departed from my eyes. ⁴¹So I have been twenty years in your house — I served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six for your flocks. And you have changed my wages ten times. ⁴²Unless the God of my fathers, the God of Abraham, and the Fear of Isaac had been with me, surely you would have sent me away now empty. God has seen my affliction and the labor of my hands, and rebuked you last night.

⁴³And Laban answered and said to Jacob, These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and these flocks are my flocks — all that you see is mine. And what can I do this day to these my daughters, or to their children which they have borne? ⁴⁴Now therefore come, let us make a covenant, you and I. And let it be for a witness between you and me. ⁴⁵And Jacob took a stone and set it up for a pillar. ⁴⁶And Jacob said to his brothers, Come, gather stones. And they took stones and made a heap. And they ate there upon the heap. ⁴⁷And Laban called it Jé'-gär-sä-hä-dü'-thä — but Jacob called it Gä'-lēed. ⁴⁸And Laban said, This heap is a witness between you and me this day. Therefore the name of it was called Gä'-lēed, ⁴⁹and Miz'-päh — for he said, The LORD watch between you and me when we are absent from one another. ⁵⁰If you shall afflict my daughters, or if you shall take other wives besides my daughters, no man is with us. See! God is witness between you and me. ⁵¹And Laban said to Jacob, Behold this heap, and behold this pillar which I have cast between you and me. ⁵²This heap is witness, and this pillar is witness, that I will not pass over this heap to you, and that you shall not pass over this heap and this pillar to me, for harm. ⁵³The God of Abraham, and the God of Nā'-hôr, the God of their father, judge between us. And Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac. ⁵⁴Then Jacob offered sacrifice on the mountain, and called his brothers to eat bread. And they ate bread and stayed all night in the mountain. ⁵⁵And early in the morning Laban rose up, and kissed his sons and his daughters, and blessed them. And Laban departed and returned to his place.

¹And Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him. ²And when Jacob saw them he said, This is God's host. And he called the name of that place Mā-hā-nā'-im. ³And Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother, to the land of Sē'-ir, the country of Ē'-dôm. ⁴And he commanded them, saying, So shall you speak to my lord Esau: Your servant Jacob says thus, I have lived with Laban and stayed until now. ⁵And I have oxen and asses, flocks, and menservants, and women-servants. And I have sent to tell my lord, that I may find grace in your sight. ⁶And the messengers returned to Jacob saying, We came to your brother Esau, and also he comes to meet you, and four hundred men with him. ⁷Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed, and he divided the people that were with him, and the flocks and herds, and the camels, into two bands. ⁸And he said, If Esau come to the one company and strike it, then the other company which is left shall escape. ⁹And Jacob said, O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, the LORD who said to me, Return unto your country and to your kindred, and I will deal well with you: ¹⁰I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies and of all the truth which Thou hast shown to Thy servant — for with my staff I passed over this Jordan, and now I have become two bands. ¹¹Deliver me, I pray Thee, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau. For I fear him, lest he come and strike me, and the mother with the children. ¹²And Thou didst say, I will surely do you good, and make your seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.

It is a present sent to my lord Esau. And, behold, he also is behind us. ¹⁹And so he commanded the second and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, In this way you shall speak to Esau when you find him. ²⁰And moreover, you shall say, Behold, your servant Jacob is behind us. For he said, I will appease him with the present that goes before me, and afterward I will see his face. Perhaps he will accept me.

²¹So the present went over before him. And he himself lodged that night in the company. ²²And he rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two women-servants, and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford Jāb'-bōk. ²³And he took them, and set them over the brook, and sent over what he had.

²⁴And Jacob was left alone. And a Man wrestled there with him until the breaking of the day. ²⁵And when He saw that He did not prevail against him, He touched the hollow of his thigh. And the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint as he wrestled with Him. ²⁶And He said, Let me go, for the day breaks. And he said, I will not let Thee go except Thou bless me. ²⁷And He said unto him, What is your name? And he said, Jacob. ²⁸And He said, Your name shall no longer be called Jacob, but Īs'-rā-ēl — for like a prince you have power with God and with men, and have prevailed. ²⁹And Jacob asked and said, I pray Thee, tell me Thy name. And He said, Why is it that you ask after My name? And He blessed him there. ³⁰And Jacob called the name of the place Pēn'-ī-ēl — for I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved. ³¹And as he passed over Pēn-ū'-ēl the sun rose upon him, and he limped upon his thigh. ³²Therefore the children of Īs'-rā-ēl do not eat of the sinew which shrank, which is upon the hollow of the thigh, until this day — because He touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh in the sinew that shrank.

¹And Jacob lifted up his eyes and looked. And behold! Esau came, and four hundred men with him. And he divided the children unto Leah, and unto Rachel, and unto the two handmaids. ²And he put the handmaids and their children first, and Leah and her children afterward, and Rachel and Joseph last. ³And he passed over in front of them, and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother. ⁴And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell upon his neck and kissed him. And they wept. ⁵And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children, and said, Who are these with you? And he said, The children which God has graciously given your servant. ⁶Then the handmaidens came near, they and their children, and they bowed themselves. ⁷And Leah also, and her children, came near and bowed themselves. And afterward Joseph came near, and Rachel, and they bowed themselves. ⁸He asked, What do you mean by all this drove which I met? And he said, These are to find grace in the sight of my lord. ⁹And Esau said, I have enough, my brother. Keep what you have yourself. ¹⁰And Jacob said, No, I pray you, if now I have found grace in your sight, then receive my present at my hand. For therefore have I seen your face, as though I had seen the face of God, and you were pleased with me. ¹¹I pray you, take my blessing that is brought to you, because God has dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough. And he urged him, and he took it. ¹²And he said, Let us take our journey, and let us go, and I will go before you. ¹³And he said to him, My lord knows that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds with young are with me. And if the men should overdrive them one day, all the flock will die. ¹⁴I pray you, let my lord pass over before his servant, and I will lead on softly, according as the flocks that go before me, and the children, are able to endure, until I come unto my lord to Sē'-īr. ¹⁵And Esau said, Let me now leave with you some of the folk that are with me. And he said, Why, then? Let me find grace in the sight of my lord.

¹⁶So Esau returned that day on his way to Sē'-īr. ¹⁷And Jacob journeyed to Sūc'-cōth and built him a house, and made booths for his cattle. Therefore the name of the place is called Sūc'-cōth.

¹⁸And Jacob came to Shá'-lēm, a city of Shē'-chēm, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Pā-dān-ār'-ām. And he pitched his tent in front of the city. ¹⁹And he bought a piece of a field, where he had spread his tent, at the hand of the children of Hā'-môr, Shē'-chēm's father, for a hundred pieces of money. ²⁰And he erected there an altar, and called it Ēl-ēl'-ô-hē-Īs'-rā-ēl.

⁶And Hā'-môr the father of Shē'-chēm went out to Jacob to speak with him. ⁷And the sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard. And the men were grieved, and they were very angry, because he had done folly in Īs'-rā-ēl, in lying with the daughter of Jacob. Now this thing ought not to be done. ⁸And Hā'-môr communed with them, saying, The soul of my son Shē'-chēm longs for your daughter. I pray you, give her to him for a wife. ⁹And you make marriages with us, giving your daughters to us, and taking our daughters unto you. ¹⁰And you shall live with us. And the land shall be before you. Live and trade in it, and get possessions in it. ¹¹And Shē'-chēm said to her father and to her brothers, Let me find grace in your eyes, and whatever you shall say unto me I will give. ¹²Heap upon me ever so much price and dowry, and I will give according as you shall say unto me. But give me the girl for a wife. ¹³And the sons of Jacob answered Shē'-chēm and Hā'-môr his father, speaking with deceit because he had defiled Dinah their sister. ¹⁴And they said to them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is uncircumcised – for that would be a reproach to us. ¹⁵But in this we will agree with you, if you will be as we are, that every male of you be circumcised, ¹⁶then we will give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will live with you, and we will become one people. ¹⁷But if you will not listen to us, to be circumcised, then we will take our daughter, and we will go. ¹⁸And their words pleased Hā'-môr and Shē'-chēm, Hā'-môr's son. ¹⁹And the young man did not hesitate to do the thing, because he had delight in Jacob's daughter. And he was more honorable than all the house of his father.

²⁰And Hā'-môr and Shē'-chēm his son came to the gate of their city, and talked with the men of their city, saying, ²¹These men are at peace with us. Therefore let them live in the land, and trade in it. For the land, behold, is large enough for them. Let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters. ²²Only on this condition will the men agree to live with us, to be one people, if every male among us is circumcised as they are circumcised. ²³Shall not their cattle and their substance and every animal of theirs be ours? Only let us agree with them, and they will live with us. ²⁴And all that went out of the gate of his city listened to Hā'-môr and to Shē'-chēm his son. And every male was circumcised, all that went out of the gate of his city.

²⁵And it came to pass on the third day, when they were sore, that two of the sons of Jacob, Sîm'-ê-ôn and Lē'-vî, Dinah's brothers, took each man his sword and came upon the city boldly, and killed all the males. ²⁶And they killed Hā'-môr and Shē'-chēm his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shē'-chēm's house, and went out. ²⁷The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and spoiled the city, because they had defiled their sister. ²⁸They took their sheep and their oxen, and their asses, and that which was in the city and that which was in the field. ²⁹And all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives, they took captive, and spoiled even all that was in the house.

³⁰And Jacob said to Sîm'-ê-ôn and Lē'-vî, You have troubled me, to make me stink among those who live in the land, among the Că'-nāan-ites and the Pē-rîz'-zîtes. And I, being few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and kill me. And I shall be destroyed, my house and I. ³¹And they said, Should he deal with our sister as with a harlot?

¹And God said to Jacob, Arise, go up to Bethel, and live there. And make an altar there to God, who appeared to you when you fled from the face of Esau your brother. ²Then Jacob said to his household, and to all that were with him, Put away the strange gods that are among you, and be clean, and change your garments. ³And let us arise and go up to Bethel, and I will make an altar there unto God, who answered me in the day of my distress, and was with me in the way which I went. ⁴And they gave all the strange gods which were in their hands to Jacob, and the earrings which were in their ears. And Jacob hid them under the oak which was by Shé'-chēm. ⁵And they journeyed. And the terror of God was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob. ⁶So Jacob came to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan, that is, Bethel, he and all the people that were with him. ⁷And he built an altar there and called the place Ēl-Bēth'-ēl — because God appeared to him when he fled from the face of his brother. ⁸But Dēb'-ō-rāh, Rē-bēk'-āh's nurse, died, and she was buried beneath Bethel, under an oak. And the name of it was called Āl-lōn-bā'-chūth.

⁹And God appeared to Jacob again when he came out of Pā-dān-ār'-ām, and blessed him. ¹⁰And God said to him, Your name is Jacob. Your name shall not be called Jacob any more, but Īs'-rā-ēl shall be your name. And He called his name Īs'-rā-ēl. ¹¹And God said to him, I am God Almighty. Be fruitful and multiply. A nation and a company of nations shall be from you, and kings shall come out of your loins. ¹²And the land which I gave unto Abraham and Isaac, I will give to you, and to your seed after you I will give the land. ¹³And God went up from him in the place where He talked with him. ¹⁴And Jacob set up a pillar in the place where He talked with him, a pillar of stone. And he poured a drink offering on it, and he poured oil on it. ¹⁵And Jacob called the name of the place where God spoke with him, Bethel.

¹⁶And they journeyed from Bethel. And there was only a little way to come to Ē'-phrāth. And Rachel travailed, and she had hard labor. ¹⁷And it came to pass when she was in hard labor, that the midwife said to her, Do not fear, you shall have this son also. ¹⁸And it came to pass as her soul was departing (for she died) that she called his name Bēn-ō'-nī. But his father called him Bēn'-jā-mīn. ¹⁹And Rachel died and was buried in the way to Ē'-phrāth, which is Bēth'-lē-hēm. And Jacob set up a pillar upon her grave. ²⁰That is the pillar of Rachel's grave unto this day.

²¹And Īs'-rā-ēl journeyed, and spread his tent beyond the tower of Ē'-dār. ²²And when Israel lived in that land, Reū'-bēn went and lay with Bil'-häh his father's concubine. And Israel heard it. Now the sons of Jacob were twelve: ²³The sons of Leah were Reü'-bën, Jacob's first-born, and Sim'-ë-ön, and Lë'-vi, and Jü'-däh, and Īs'-sä-chär, and Zë-bü'-lün. ²⁴The sons of Rachel were Joseph and Bën'-jä-mìn. ²⁵And the sons of Bil'-häh, Rachel's handmaid, were Dan and Nāph'-tä-li. ²⁶And the sons of Zil'-päh, Leah's handmaid, were Gad and Asher. These are the sons of Jacob, which were born to him in Pā-dän-âr'-äm.

²⁷And Jacob came unto Isaac his father, unto Mäm'-rë, unto the city of Ār'-bäh, which is Hë'-brön, where Abraham and Isaac had lived. ²⁸And the days of Isaac were a hundred and eighty years. ²⁹And Isaac gave up the spirit and died, and was gathered to his people, old and full of days. And his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

¹Now these are the generations of Esau, who is Ē'-döm. ²Esau took his wives from the daughters of Canaan, Ā'-däh the daughter of Ē'-lön the Hit'-tite, and Ā-höl-i-bä'-mäh the daughter of Ā'-näh the daughter of Zib'-ë-ön the Hi'-vite; ³and Bāsh'-ë-māth Īsh'-mä-ël's daughter, sister of Në-bä'-jōth. ⁴And Ā'-däh bore Ē-li'-phāz to Esau. And Bāsh'-ë-māth bore Reü'-ël. ⁵And Ā-höl-i-bä'-mäh bore Jë'-ūsh and Jä'-ä-lām and Kôr'-äh. These are the sons of Esau, which were born to him in the land of Canaan. ⁶And Esau took his wives, and his sons, and his daughters, and all the souls of his house, and his cattle, and all his beasts, and all his substance which he had gotten in the land of Canaan, and went into the country away from the face of his brother Jacob. ⁷For their riches were more than that they might dwell together. And the land in which they were strangers could not bear them because of their cattle. ⁸So Esau lived in Mount Së'-ir. Esau is Ē'-döm.

⁹And these are the generations of Esau, the father of the Ē'-döm-ites, in Mount Së'-ir. ¹⁰These are the names of Esau's sons: Ē-li'-phāz the son of Ā'-däh the wife of Esau, Reü'-ël the son of Bāsh'-ë-māth the wife of Esau. ¹¹And the sons of Ē-li'-phāz were Të'-mān, Ö'-mär, Zë'-phō, and Gā'-tām, and Kë'-nāz. ¹²And Tīm'-nä was concubine to Ē-li'-phāz Esau's son. And she bore Ām'-ä-lëk to Ē-li'-phāz. These were the sons of Ā'-däh Esau's wife. ¹³And these are the sons of Reü'-el: Nā'-hāth, and Zë'-räh, Shām'-mäh, and Miz'-päh. These were the sons of Bāsh'-ë-māth Esau's wife. ¹⁴And these were the sons of Ā-höl-i-bä'-mäh, the daughter of Ā'-näh the daughter of Zib'-ë-ön, Esau's wife: and she bore to Esau Jë'-ūsh, and Jä'-ä-lām, and Kôr'-äh.

¹⁵These were the princes of the sons of Esau: the sons of Ē-li'-phāz, the firstborn son of Esau, Prince Të'-mān, Prince Ö'-mär, Prince Zë'-phō, Prince Kë'-nāz, ¹⁶Prince Kôr'-äh, Prince Gā'-tām, and Prince Ām'-ä-lëk. These are the princes of Ē-li'-phāz in the land of Ē'-döm. These were the sons of Ā'-däh.

¹⁷And these are the sons of Reū'-ēl, Esau's son: Prince Nā'-hāth, Prince Zē'-rāh, Prince Shām'-māh, Prince Miz'-zāh. These are the princes of Reū'-ēl in the land of Ē'-dōm. These are the sons of Bāsh'-ē-māth, Esau's wife.

¹⁸And these are the sons of Ā-hōl-i-bā'-māh, Esau's wife: Prince Jē'-ūsh, Prince Jā'-ā-lām, Prince Kōr'-āh. These are the princes of Ā-hōl-i-bā'-māh, the daughter of Ā'-nāh, Esau's wife. ¹⁹These are the sons of Esau, who is Ē'-dōm, and these are their princes.

²⁰These are the sons of Sē'-ir the Hōr'-ite, who inhabited the land: Lō'-tān, and Shō'-bāl, and Zīb'-ē-ōn, and Ā'-nāh, ²¹and Dī'-shōn, and Ē'-zēr, and Dī'-shān. These are the princes of the Hōr'-ites, the children of Sē'-ir, in the land of Ē'-dōm. ²²And the children of Lō'-tān were Hōr'-i and Hē'-mām. And Lō'-tān's sister was Tīm'-nā. ²³And the children of Shō'-bāl were these: Āl'-vān, and Mān'-ā-hāth, and Ē'-bāl, and Shē'-phō, and Ō'-nām. ²⁴And these are the children of Zīb'-ē-ōn: both Ā'-jāh and Ā'-nāh. This was that Ā'-nāh that found the mules in the wilderness, as he fed the asses of Zīb'-ē-ōn his father. ²⁵And the children of Ā'-nāh were these: Dī'-shōn and Ā-hōl-i-bā'-māh the daughter of Ā'-nāh. ²⁶And these are the children of Dī'-shōn: Hēm'-dān, and Ēsh'-bān, and Ith'-rān, and Chē'-rān. ²⁷The children of Ē'-zēr are these: Bil'-hān, and Zā'-ā-vān, and Ā'-kān. ²⁸The children of Dī'-shān are these: Uz and Ār'-ān.

²⁹These are the princes of the Hōr'-ites: Prince Lō'-tān, Prince Shō'-bāl, Prince Zīb'-ē-ōn, Prince Ā'-nāh, ³⁰Prince Dī'-shōn, Prince Ē'-zēr, Prince Dī'-shān. These are the princes of Hōr'-i, among their princes in the land of Sē'-ir.

³¹And these are the kings that reigned in the land of Ē'-dōm, before any king reigned over the children of Israel. ³²And Bē'-lā the son of Bē'-ōr reigned in Ē'-dōm. And the name of his city was Dīn'-hā-bāh. ³³And Bē'-lā died, and Jō'-bāb the son of Zē'-rāh of Bōz'-rāh reigned in his stead. ³⁴And Jō'-bāb died, and Hū'-shām of the land of Tē'-mān-i reigned in his stead. ³⁵And Hū'-shām died, and Hā'-dād the son of Bē'-dād, who killed Mīd'-i-ān in the field of Mō'-āb, reigned in his stead. And the name of his city was Ā'-vīth. ³⁶And Hā'-dād died, and Sām'-lāh of Mās'-rēk-āh reigned in his stead. ³⁷And Sām'-lāh died, and Saul of Rē'-hō-bōth by the river reigned in his stead. ³⁸And Saul died, and Bā-āl-hā'-nān the son of Achbor reigned in his stead. ³⁹And Bā-āl-hā'-nān the son of Achbor died, and Hā'-dār reigned in his stead. And the name of his city was Pā'-ū. And his wife's name was Mē'-hēt'-ā-bēl, the daughter of Mā'-trēd, the daughter of Mē'-zā-hāb. ⁴⁰And these are the names of the princes of Esau, according to their families, after their places, by their names: Prince Tīm'-nāh, Prince Āl'-vāh, Prince Jē'-thēth, ⁴¹Prince Ā-hōl-i-bā'-māh, Prince Ē'-lāh, Prince Pī'-nōn, ⁴²Prince Kē'-nāz, Prince Tē'-mān, Prince Mīb'-zār, ⁴³Prince Māg'-dī-ēl, Prince Iram. These are the princes of Ē'-dōm, according to their dwelling places in the land of their possession. He is Esau the father of the Ē'-dōm-ites.

¹And Jacob lived in the land in which his father was a stranger, in the land of Canaan. ²These are the generations of Jacob: Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brothers. And the boy was with the sons of Bil'-häh and with the sons of Zil'-päh, his father's wives. And Joseph brought to his father an evil report of them. ³Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age. And he made him a coat of many colors. ⁴And when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably to him. ⁵And Joseph dreamed a dream and told it to his brothers. And they hated him still more. ⁶And he said to them, I pray you, Hear this dream which I have dreamed. ⁷For behold! We were binding sheaves in the field, and lo, my sheaf arose and also stood upright. And behold! Your sheaves stood around and bowed down to my sheaf. ⁸And his brothers said to him, Shall you indeed reign over us? Or shall you indeed have the rule over us? And they hated him still more for his dreams and for his words. ⁹And he dreamed still another dream, and told it to his brothers. And he said, Behold, I have dreamed another dream. And behold! The sun and the moon and the eleven stars bowed down to me. ¹⁰And he told it to his father and to his brothers. And his father rebuked him and said to him, What is this dream that you have dreamed? Shall I, and your mother, and your brothers indeed come to bow down ourselves to the earth before you? ¹¹And his brothers were jealous of him. But his father observed the saying.

¹²And his brothers went to feed his father's flock in Shē'-chēm. ¹³And Israel said to Joseph, Do not your brothers feed in Shechem? Come, and I will send you to them. And he said to him, Here I am. ¹⁴And he said to him, I pray you, go see whether it is well with your brothers and well with the flocks. And bring me word again. So he sent him out of the valley of Hē'-brōn, and he came to Shechem. ¹⁵And a certain man found him, and, behold, he was wandering in the field. And the man asked him, saying, What are you looking for? ¹⁶And he said, I am looking for my brothers. Tell me, I pray you, where do they feed? ¹⁷And the man said, They are gone from here, for I heard them say, Let us go to Dō'-thän. And Joseph went after his brothers, and found them in Dō'-thän. ¹⁸And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near them, they conspired against him to kill him. ¹⁹And they said to one another, Behold, this dreamer comes. ²⁰Therefore come now, and let us kill him, and throw him into some pit, and we will say some evil beast has devoured him. And we shall see what will become of his dreams. ²¹And Reū'-bēn heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands and said, Let us not kill him. ²²And Reū'-bēn said to them, Shed no blood. Throw him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him (so that he might rescue him out of their hands, to deliver him to his father again).

²³And when Joseph had come to his brothers, they stripped Joseph out of his coat, the coat of many colors that was on him. ²⁴And they took him and threw him into a pit. And the pit was empty, with no water in it. ²⁵And they sat down to eat bread. And they lifted up their eyes, and looked. And behold, a company of Īsh'-mā-ēl-ites came from Gīl'-ē-ād, with their camels bearing spices and balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt. ²⁶And Judah said to his brothers, What profit is it if we should kill our brother and hide his blood? ²⁷Come, let us sell him to the Īsh'-mā-ēl-ites, and let not our hand be upon him — for he is our brother, and our flesh. And his brothers listened. ²⁸Then these passed by Mīd'-ī-ān-ites, who were merchantmen. And they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Īsh'-mā-ēl-ites for twenty pieces of silver. And they brought Joseph into Egypt.

²⁹And Reū'-bēn returned to the pit. And behold! Joseph was not in the pit. And he tore his clothes. ³⁰And he returned to his brothers and said, The child no longer is, and I, where shall I go? ³¹And they took Joseph's coat, and killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the coat in the blood. ³²And they sent the coat of many colors, and they brought it to their father. And they said, We have found this. Do you know whether it is your son's coat or not? ³³And he knew it, and said, It is my son's coat. An evil beast has eaten him. Joseph is without doubt torn in pieces. ³⁴And Jacob tore his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his loins, and mourned for his son many days. ³⁵And all his sons, and all his daughters, rose up to comfort him. But he refused to be comforted. And he said, For I will go down into the grave to my son mourning. So his father wept for him.

³⁶And the Mīd'-ī-ān-ites sold him into Egypt unto Pōt'-ī-phār, an officer of Phār'-ā-ōh's, and captain of the guard.

¹And at that time Judah went down from his brothers and turned in to a certain Ā-dūl'-lām-ite, whose name was Hī'-rāh. ²And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Cā'-nāan-ite, whose name was Shū'-āh. And he took her and went in to her. ³And she conceived and bore a son. And he called his name Er. ⁴And she conceived again, and bore a son, and she called his name Ō'-nān. ⁵And she yet again conceived and bore a son. And she called his name Shē'-lāh. And she was at Chē'-zīb when she bore him. ⁶And Judah took a wife for Er his first-born, whose name was Tā'-mār. ⁷And Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD. And the LORD killed him. ⁸And Judah said to Ō'-nān, Go in unto your brother's wife, and marry her, and raise up seed to your brother. ⁹And Ō'-nān knew that the seed would not be his. And it came to pass, when he went in to his brother's wife, that he spilled on the ground, lest he should give seed to his brother. ¹⁰And the thing which he did was evil in the eyes of the LORD. Therefore He killed him also. ¹¹Then said Judah to Tā'-mār his daughter-in-law, Remain a widow at your father's house until Shē'-lāh my son is grown (for he said, Lest perhaps he die also, as his brothers did). And Tā'-mār went and lived in her father's house.

¹²And as many days went by, Judah's wife, the daughter of Shū'-āh, died. And Judah was comforted, and went up to his sheep-shearer to Tim'-nāth, he and his friend Hi'-rāh the Ā-dūl'-lām-ite. ¹³And it was told to Tā'-mār, saying, Behold, your father-in-law goes up to Tim'-nāth to shear his sheep. ¹⁴And she put off her widow's clothes, and covered herself with a veil, and wrapped herself. And she sat in an open place, which is by the way to Tim'-nāth. For she saw that Shē'-lāh was grown and she was not given to him as wife. ¹⁵When Judah saw her, he thought she was a harlot, because she had covered her face. ¹⁶And he turned aside to her by the wayside, and said, Come, I pray you, let me come in unto you (for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law). And she said, What will you give me, so that you may come in unto me? ¹⁷And he said, I will send a kid from the flock. And she said, Will you give me a pledge until you send it? ¹⁸And he said, What pledge shall I give you? And she said, Your signet, and your bracelet, and your staff that is in your hand. And he gave it to her, and came in unto her, and she conceived by him. ¹⁹And she arose, and went away, and laid away her veil from her, and put on the clothes of her widowhood. ²⁰And Judah sent the kid by the hand of his friend the Ā-dūl'-lām-ite, to receive his pledge from the woman's hand. But he did not find her. ²¹Then he asked the men of that place, saying, Where is the harlot who was openly by the wayside? And they said, There was no harlot here. ²²And he returned to Judah, and said, I cannot find her. And also the men of the place said, There was no harlot here. ²³And Judah said, Let her take it to her, lest we be ashamed. Behold, I sent this kid, and you have not found her.

²⁴And it came to pass, about three months afterward, that it was told Judah, saying, Your daughter-in-law Tā'-mār has played the harlot, and also, behold, she is with child by whoredom. And Judah said, Bring her forth, and let her be burned. ²⁵When she was brought forth, she sent to her father-in-law, saying, I am with child by the man whose things these are. And she said, I pray you, Observe, whose things are these, the signet, and bracelets, and staff? ²⁶And Judah acknowledged them, and said, She has been more righteous than I have, because I did not give Shē-lāh my son to her. And he never knew her again.

²⁷And in the time of her travail, behold, twins were in her womb. ²⁸And when she travailed, it came to pass that one put out his hand. And the midwife took and bound upon his hand a scarlet thread, saying, This came out first. ²⁹And as he drew back his hand, it came to pass that, behold, his brother came out. And she said, How have you torn a break for yourself? Therefore his name was called Phâr'-ēz. ³⁰And afterwards his brother came out, who had the scarlet thread upon his hand. And his name was called Zâr'-āh.

¹And Joseph was brought down to Egypt. And Pōt'-ī-phār, an officer of Phâr'-ā-ōh, captain of the guard, an Ē-gyp'-tiān, bought him from the hands of the Ish'-mā-ēl-ītes who had brought him down there. ²And the LORD was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man. And he was in the house of his master the Ē-gyp'-tiān. ³And his master saw that the LORD was with him, and that the LORD made all he did to prosper in his hand. ⁴And Joseph found grace in his sight, and he served him. And he made him overseer over his house, and he put into his hand all that he had. ⁵And it came to pass from the time that he had made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, that the LORD blessed the Ē-gyp'-tiān's house for Joseph's sake. And the blessing of the LORD was upon all that he had, in the house and in the field. ⁶And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand. And he did not know anything that he had, except the bread which he ate. And Joseph was beautiful in form and in appearance.

⁷And it came to pass after these things, that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Joseph. And she said, Lie with me. ⁸But he refused and said to his master's wife, Behold, my master does not know what is with me in the house, and he has given all that he has into my hand. ⁹*There* is none greater in this house than I am. Neither has he kept back anything from me except you, because you are his wife. How then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God? ¹⁰And it came to pass, as she spoke to Joseph day by day, that he did not listen to her. to lie with her or to be with her. ¹¹And it came to pass about this time that he came into the house to do his work. And none of the men of the house were inside. ¹²And she caught him by his robe, saying, Lie with me. And he left his robe in her hand and fled, and got out. ¹³And it came to pass, when she saw that he had left his robe in her hand, and had fled, ¹⁴she called to the men of her house and spoke to them, saying, See, he has brought in a Hebrew to us to mock us. He came in to me, to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice. ¹⁵And when he heard that

I lifted up my voice and cried, he left his robe with me, and fled, and got out. ¹⁶And she laid up his robe beside her until his lord came home. ¹⁷And she spoke to him according to these words, saying, The Hebrew servant which you have brought to us came in to me to mock me. ¹⁸And it came to pass as I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his robe with me and ran out. ¹⁹And when his master heard the words of his wife which she spoke to him, saying, Your servant did this to me, his wrath was kindled. ²⁰And Joseph's master took him and put him in the prison, a place where the king's prisoners were bound. And he was there in the prison.

²¹But the LORD was with Joseph, and showed him mercy, and gave him favor in the sight of the keeper of the prison. ²²And the keeper of the prison gave all the prisoners that were in the prison into Joseph's hand. And whatever they did there, he was the doer of it. ²³The keeper of the prison did not look to anything under his hand, because the LORD was with him; and whatever he did, the LORD made it to prosper.

¹And after these things it came to pass that the butler of the king of Egypt, and his baker, had offended their lord the king of Egypt. ²And Phâr'-ă-ōh was angry against two of his officers, against the chief of the butlers and against the chief of the bakers. ³And he put them under guard in the house of the captain of the guard, into the prison, the place where Joseph was bound. ⁴And the captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he served them. And they continued for a time under guard.

⁵And they dreamed a dream, both of them, each man his dream in one night, each man according to the interpretation of his dream, the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt — who were bound in the prison. ⁶And Joseph came in to them in the morning, and looked upon them, and behold, they were sad. ⁷And he asked Phâr'-ă-ōh's officers who were with him under guard in his lord's house, saying, Why do you look so sad today? ⁸And they said to him, We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Joseph said to them, Do not interpretations belong to God? I pray you, tell me. ⁹And the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, In my dream, behold! A vine was before me. ¹⁰And in the vine were three branches. And it was as if it budded, and its blossoms shot forth. And the clusters of it brought forth ripe grapes. ¹¹And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand. And I took the grapes and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand. ¹²And Joseph said to him, This is the interpretation of it. The three branches are three days. ¹³Yet within three days Pharaoh shall lift up your head and restore you to your place. And you shall deliver Pharaoh's cup into his hand, just as you did when you were his butler. ¹⁴But think on me when it is well with you, and I pray you show kindness unto me, and make mention of me to Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house. ¹⁵For indeed I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews, and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon.

¹⁶When the chief baker saw the interpretation was good, he said to Joseph, I also was in my dream, and behold! Three white baskets were on my head. ¹⁷And in the top basket were all kinds of baked foods for Pharaoh. And the birds ate them out of the basket upon my head. ¹⁸And Joseph answered and said, This is the interpretation of it. The three baskets are three days. ¹⁹Yet within three days Pharaoh shall lift up your head from off you, and shall hang you on a tree. And the birds shall eat your flesh from off you.

²⁰And it came to pass the third day, Pharaoh's birthday, that he made a feast to all his servants. And he lifted up the head of the chief butler, and of the chief baker, among his servants. ²¹And he restored the chief butler back into his butlership again. And he gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand. ²²But he hanged the chief baker, even as Joseph had interpreted to them. ²³Yet the chief butler did not remember Joseph, but forgot him.

¹And it came to pass at the end of two full years that Pharaoh dreamed. And behold! He stood by the river. ²And behold! There came up out of the river seven cows beautiful in appearance, and fat of flesh. And they fed in a meadow. ³And behold! Seven other cows came up after them out of the river, evil in appearance, and lean of flesh. And they stood by the other cows upon the brink of the river. ⁴And the evil-appearing and lean-fleshed cows ate up the seven beautiful-appearing and fat cows. So Pharaoh awoke.

⁵And he slept and dreamed the second time. And behold! Seven ears of corn came up on one stock, fat and good. ⁶And behold! Seven thin ears, and blasted with the east wind, sprang up after them. ⁷And the seven thin ears devoured the seven fat and full ears. And Pharaoh awoke, and behold, it was a dream. ⁸And it came to pass in the morning that his spirit was troubled, and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all the wise men of it. And Pharaoh told them his dream, but there was none who could interpret them to Pharaoh. ⁹Then the chief butler spoke to Pharaoh, saying, I remember my fault this day. ¹⁰Pharaoh was angry with his servants, and put me under guard in the captain of the guard's house, me and the chief baker. ¹¹And we dreamed a dream one night, he and I. We dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream. ¹²And there was there with us a young man, a Hebrew, servant to the captain of the guard. And we told him, and he interpreted our dreams to us. He interpreted to each man according to his dream. ¹³And as he interpreted to us, so it was. He restored me to my office, and he hanged him.

¹⁴Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph. And they brought him out of the dungeon. And he shaved and changed his clothing, and came in unto Pharaoh. ¹⁵And Pharaoh said to Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it. And I have heard it said of you that you can understand a dream to interpret it. ¹⁶And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, It is not in me. God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace. ¹⁷And Pharaoh said to Joseph, In my dream, behold! I stood upon the bank of the river. ¹⁸And behold! There came up out of the river seven cows, beautiful in appearance and fat of flesh. And they fed in a meadow. ¹⁹And behold! Seven other cows came up after them, poor and evil of appearance, and lean of flesh, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for badness. ²⁰And the lean and the evil-appearing cows did eat up the first seven fat cows. ²¹And when they had eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them — but they were still evil of appearance, as at the beginning. So I awoke. ²²And I saw in my dream, and behold! Seven ears came up in one stock, full and good. ²³And behold! Seven ears, withered, thin, blasted with the east wind, sprang up after them. ²⁴And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears. And I told this to the magicians, but there was none that could open it to me.

²⁵And Joseph said to Pharaoh, The dream of Pharaoh is one. God has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do. ²⁶The seven good cows are seven years. And the seven good ears are seven years. The dream is one. ²⁷And the seven thin and evil-appearing cows that came up after them are seven years. And the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind shall be seven years of famine. ²⁸This is the thing which God has spoken to Pharaoh; what God is about to do, He shows to Pharaoh. ²⁹Behold, there come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. ³⁰And there shall arise after them seven years of famine. And all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the famine shall consume the land. ³¹And the plenty shall not be known in the land because of the famine following — for it shall be very grievous. ³²And since the dream was doubled to Pharaoh twice, it is because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass. ³³Now therefore let Pharaoh look for a man who is discreet and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt. ³⁴Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint officers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plenteous years. ³⁵And let them gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up grain under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities. ³⁶That food shall be for a store to the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt, so that the land does not perish through the famine.

³⁷And the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants. ³⁸And Pharaoh said to his servants, Can we find anyone like this, a man in whom the Spirit of God is? ³⁹And Pharaoh said to Joseph, Since God has showed you all this, no man is as discreet and wise as you are. ⁴⁰You shall be over my house, and all my people shall be ruled according to your word. Only in the throne will I be greater than you are. ⁴¹And Pharaoh said to Joseph, See, I have set you over all the land of Egypt. ⁴²And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand. And he dressed him in clothing of fine linen, and put a gold chain around his neck. ⁴³And he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had, and they cried before him, Bow the knee! And he made him ruler over all the land of Egypt.

⁴⁴And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I am Pharaoh, and without you shall no man lift up his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt. ⁴⁵And Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zāph'-nāth-pā-ā-né'-āh. And he gave him for his wife Ās'-ē-nāth the daughter of Pō-ti'-phēr-āh, priest of On. And Joseph went out over all the land of Egypt.

⁴⁶And Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt. ⁴⁷And in the seven years of plenty, the earth brought forth by handfuls. ⁴⁸And he gathered up all the food of the seven years which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up food in the cities. He laid up the food of the field, which was round about every city, in the same city. ⁴⁹And Joseph gathered grain like the sand of the sea, very much, until he quit numbering it — for it was without number. ⁵⁰And two sons were born unto Joseph before the years of famine came — whom Ās'-ē-nāth the daughter of Pō-ti'-phēr-āh priest of On, bore unto him. ⁵¹And Joseph called the name of the first-born Mā-nās'-sēh. For he said, God has made me forget all my toil and all my father's house. ⁵²And the name of the second he called Ē'-phrā-īm. For he said, God has caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction.

⁵³And the seven years of plenty that was in the land of Egypt, were ended. ⁵⁴And the seven years of famine began to come, according as Joseph had said. And the famine was in all lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was bread. ⁵⁵And when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread. And Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, Go to Joseph. What he says to you, do. ⁵⁶And the famine was over all the face of the earth. And Joseph opened all the storehouses, and sold to the Egyptians. And the famine became sore in the land of Egypt. ⁵⁷And all countries came into Egypt to Joseph, because the famine was so sore in all lands.

¹Now when Jacob saw that there was grain in Egypt, Jacob said to his sons, Why do you look upon one another? ²And he said, Behold, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy for us from there, so that we may live and not die.

³And Joseph's ten brothers went down to buy grain in Egypt. ⁴But Benjamin, Joseph's brother, Jacob did not send with his brothers — for he said, Lest perhaps mischief befall him. ⁵And the sons of Israel came to buy among those that came, for the famine was in the land of Canaan. ⁶And Joseph was the governor over the land — he was the one that sold to all the people of the land. And Joseph's brothers came and bowed down themselves before him with their faces to the earth. ⁷And Joseph saw his brothers, and he knew them, but made himself strange to them, and spoke roughly to them. And he said to them, Where do you come from? And they said, From the land of Canaan to buy food. ⁸And Joseph knew his brothers, but they did not know him. ⁹And Joseph remembered the dreams which he dreamed of them, and said to them, You are spies! You have come to see the nakedness of the land. ¹⁰And they said to him, No, my lord, but your servants have come to buy food. ¹¹We are all one man's sons. We are honest; your servants are not spies. ¹²And he said to them, No, but you have come to see the nakedness of the land. ¹³And they said, Your servants are twelve brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan. And behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one is not. ¹⁴And Joseph said to them, That is what I spoke to you, saying, You are spies! ¹⁵By this you shall be proved; by the life of Pharaoh you shall not go forth from here unless your youngest brother comes here. ¹⁶Send one of you, and let him bring your brother, and you shall be kept in prison so that your words may be proved, whether any truth is in you. Or else, by the life of Pharaoh, surely you are spies. ¹⁷And he put them all together into ward three days.

¹⁸And Joseph said to them the third day, Do this and live, for I fear God. ¹⁹If you are honest, let one of your brothers be bound in the house of your prison. You go carry grain for the famine of your houses. ²⁰But bring your youngest brother to me, so that your words shall be proved true, and you shall not die. And they did so.

²¹And they said one to another, We are truly guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul when he besought us, and we would not hear. Therefore this distress has come upon us. ²²And Reü'-bēn answered them, saying, Did I not speak to you saying, Do not sin against the child? And you would not hear. Therefore, behold, also his blood is required. ²³And they did not know that Joseph understood, for he spoke to them by an interpreter. ²⁴And he turned himself about from them, and wept. And he returned to them again and talked with them, and took Sīm'-ē-ōn from them and bound him before their eyes. ²⁵Then Joseph commanded their sacks to be filled with grain, and that every man's money be put back into his sack, and to give them provision for the way. And so he did unto them. ²⁶And they loaded their asses with grain, and departed from there.

²⁷And as one of them opened his sack to give his ass fodder in the inn, he saw his money — for, behold, it was in the mouth of the sack. ²⁸And he said to his brothers, My money has been put back. And, lo, it is even in my sack. And their hearts failed, and they were afraid, saying to one another, What is this that God has done to us? ²⁹And they came to Jacob their father, unto the land of Canaan, and told him all that happened to them, saying, ³⁰The man, the lord of the land, spoke roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country. ³¹And we said to him, We are honest, we are not spies. ³²We are twelve brothers, sons of our father. One is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan. ³³And the man, the lord of the country, said to us, By this I shall know that you are honest. Leave one of your brothers here with me, and take food for the famine of your households, and be gone. ³⁴And bring your youngest brother to me. Then I shall know that you are not spies, but that you are honest. So I will deliver you your brother, and you shall trade in the land.

³⁵And when they emptied their sacks, behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack. And when they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid. ³⁶And Jacob their father said to them, You have bereaved me. Joseph is not, and Sīm'-ē-ōn is not, and you will take Bēn'-jā-mīn away. All these things are against me. ³⁷And Reuben spoke to his father, saying, Kill my two sons if I do not bring him to you. Deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to you again. ³⁸And he said, My son shall not go down with you. For his brother is dead, and he is left alone. If mischief should befall him by the way you go, then you shall bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.

¹And the famine was sore in the land. ²And it came to pass, when they had eaten up the grain which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said to them, Go again, buy us a little food. ³And Judah spoke to him, saying, The man solemnly protested to us, saying, You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you. ⁴If you will send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food. ⁵But if you will not send him, we will not go down. For the man said unto us, You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you. ⁶And Israel said, Why have you dealt so ill with me, to tell the man whether you had yet a brother? ⁷And they said, The man asked us strictly of our state and of our kindred, saying, Is your father still alive? Have you yet another brother? And we told him according to the tenor of these words. Could we certainly know that he would say, Bring your brother down? ⁸And Judah said unto Israel his father, Send the boy with me, and we will arise and go, so that we may live and not die – both we and you, and also our little ones. ⁹I will be surety for him. You shall require him of my hand. If I do not bring him to you and set him before you, then let me bear the blame forever. ¹⁰For unless we had lingered, surely now we would have returned the second time.

¹¹And their father Israel said to them, If it must be so now, do this. Take of the best fruits of the land in your vessels, and carry down the man a present, a little balm, and a little honey, spices, and myrrh, nuts, and almonds. ¹²And take double money in your hand, and the money that was brought again in the mouth of your sacks, carry it again in your hand. Perhaps it was an oversight. ¹³Take also your brother, and arise, go again to the man. ¹⁴And God Almighty give you mercy before the man, so that he may send away your other brother and Benjamin. If I am bereaved, I am bereaved.

¹⁵And the men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin. And they rose up and went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph. ¹⁶And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the ruler of his house, Bring these men home, and kill and make ready – for these men shall dine with me at noon. ¹⁷And the man did as Joseph said. And the man brought the men into Joseph's house. ¹⁸And the men were afraid, because they were brought into Joseph's house. And they said, Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time we are brought in, so that he may seek occasion against us, and fall upon us, and take us for bondmen, and our asses. ¹⁹And they came near to the steward of Joseph's house, and they talked with him at the door of the house, ²⁰and said, O sir, we indeed came down the first time to buy food. ²¹And it came to pass, when we came to the inn, that we opened our sacks, and, behold, every man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight. And we have brought it again in our hands. ²²And we have brought down other money in our hands to buy food. We cannot tell who put our money in our sacks. ²³And he said, Peace be unto you, do not fear. Your God, and the God of your father, has given you treasure in your sacks. I had your money. And he brought Sim'-ě-ōn out to them. ²⁴And the man brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave them water, and they washed their feet. And he gave fodder to their asses. ²⁵And they made ready the presents for the coming of Joseph at noon – for they heard that they should eat bread there.

earth. ²⁷And he asked them as to their welfare, and said, Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive? ²⁸And they answered, Your servant, our father, is in good health. He is still alive. And they bowed down their heads and made obeisance. ²⁹And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, Is this your younger brother of whom you spoke to me? And he said, God be gracious unto you, my son. ³⁰And Joseph made haste, for his bowels yearned toward his brother. And he sought a place to weep. And he entered into his room and wept there. ³¹And he washed his face, and went out, and controlled himself, and said, Set the bread on. ³²And they set it on for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Ē-gyp'-tiāns who ate with him, by themselves, because the Ē-gyp'-tiāns may not eat bread with the Hebrews; for that is an ā-bōm'-ī-nā-tiōn to the Ē-gyp'-tians. ³³And they sat before him, the first-born according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth. And the men marvelled at one another. ³⁴And he took messes unto them from before him. But Bēn'-jā-min's mess was five times as much as any of theirs. And they drank, and were merry with him.

⁶And he overtook them, and he spoke to them these same words. ⁷And they said to him, Why does your lord say these words? God forbid that your servants should do according to this thing. ⁸Behold, the money which we found in our sack's mouth, we brought it in to you out of the land of Canaan. How then should we steal out of your lord's house silver or gold? ⁹With whomever of your servants it may be found, both let him die, and we all will be my lord's bondmen. ¹⁰And he said, Now also let it be according to your word. He with whom it is found shall be my servant, and you shall be blameless. ¹¹Then they speedily took down every man his sack to the ground, and every man opened his sack. ¹²And he searched, beginning at the oldest and leaving off at the youngest. And the cup was found in Benjamin's sack. ¹³Then they tore their clothes, and every man loaded his ass and returned to the city.

¹⁴And Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, for he was still there. And they fell before him on the ground. ¹⁵And Joseph said to them, What deed is this that you have done? Do you not know that such a man as I can certainly divine? ¹⁶And Judah said, What shall we say unto my lord? What shall we speak? Or how shall we clear ourselves? God has found out the iniquity of your servants. Behold, we are my lord's servants, both we and he also with whom the cup is found. ¹⁷And he said, God forbid that I should do so. The man in whose hand the cup is found, he shall be my servant. And as for you, get you up in peace to your father.

¹⁸Then Judah came near him and said, O my lord, pray let your servant speak a word in my lord's ears, and do not let your anger burn against your servant, for you are even as Pharaoh. ¹⁹My lord asked his servants, saying, Do you have a father or a brother? ²⁰And we said unto my lord, We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one. And his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his father, and his father loves him. ²¹And you said to your servants, Bring him down to me, that I may set my eyes upon him. ²²And we said to my lord, The boy cannot leave his father, for if he should leave his father, his father would die. ²³And you said to your servants, Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you shall see my face no more. ²⁴And when we came up to your servant my father, we told him the words of my lord. ²⁵And our father said, Go again and buy us a little food. ²⁶And we said, We cannot go down. If our youngest brother is with us, then we will go down, for we may not see the man's face unless our youngest brother is with us. ²⁷And your servant my father said to us, You know that my wife bore me two sons. ²⁸And the one went out from me, and I said, Surely he is torn in pieces. And I never saw him since. ²⁹And if you take this also from me, and mischief befall him, you shall bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave. ³⁰Now therefore when I come to your servant my father, and the boy is not with us, seeing that his life is bound up in the lad's life, ³¹it shall come to pass, when he sees that the lad is not with us, he will die. And your servants shall bring down the gray hairs of your servant our father with sorrow to the grave. ³²For your servant became surety for the lad to my father, saying, If I do not bring him to you, then I shall bear the blame to my father forever. ³³Now therefore, I pray you, let your servant abide instead of the boy as a bondman to my lord. And let the boy go up with his brothers. ³⁴For how shall I go up to my father, and the boy be not with me? Lest perhaps I see the evil that shall come upon my father.

¹Then Joseph could not control himself before all those who stood by him. And he cried, Cause every man to go out from me! And there stood no man with him, while Joseph made himself known to his brothers. ²And he wept aloud. And the Ē-gyp'-tians in the house of Pharaoh heard. ³And Joseph said to his brothers, I am Joseph. Does my father still live? And his brothers could not answer him, for they were troubled at his presence. ⁴And Joseph said to his brothers, Come near me, I pray you. And they came near. And he said, I am Joseph your brother, whom you sold into Egypt. ⁵Now therefore do not be grieved, nor angry with yourselves that you sold me here — for God sent me before you to preserve life. ⁶For these two years the famine has been in the land, and there are still five years in which there shall neither be plowing nor harvest. ⁷And God sent me before you to preserve you a remnant in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance. ⁸So now it was not you who sent me here, but God. And He has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler over all the land of Egypt. ⁹Hurry and go up to my father and say to him, So says your son Joseph, God has made me lord of all Egypt. Come down to me, do not wait. ¹⁰And you shall dwell in the land of Gō'-shēn, and you shall be near to me, you and your children and your children's children, and your flocks, and your herds, and all that you have. ¹¹And I will nourish you there, for there are still five years of famine — lest you and your household, and all that you have, come to poverty. ¹²And, behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaks to you. ¹³And you shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that you have seen. And you shall hurry and bring down my father here. ¹⁴And he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck, and wept. And Benjamin wept upon his neck. ¹⁵Moreover he kissed all his brothers, and wept upon them. And afterwards his brothers talked with him.

¹⁶And the report of it was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, Joseph's brothers have come. And it was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and of his servants. ¹⁷And Pharaoh said to Joseph, Say unto your brothers, Do this. Load your beasts and go, get you into the land of Canaan, ¹⁸and take your father and your household and come unto me. And I will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and you shall eat the fat of the land. ¹⁹Now you are commanded; do this. Take wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, and for your wives, and bring your father, and come. ²⁰And do not regard your stuff, for the good of all the land of Egypt is yours. ²¹And the children of Israel did so. And Joseph gave them wagons according to the commandment of Pharaoh, and gave them provision for the way. ²²To all of them he gave each man changes of clothing, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver, and five changes of clothing. ²³And to his father he sent this: ten asses loaded with the good things of Egypt, and ten she-asses loaded with grain and bread and meat for his father by the way. ²⁴So he sent his brothers away, and they departed. And he said to them, See that you do not fall out by the way. ²⁵And they went up out of Egypt, and came into the land of Canaan, unto Jacob their father. ²⁶And they told him, saying, Joseph is still alive, and he is governor over all the land of Egypt. And Jacob's heart fainted, for he did not believe them. ²⁷And they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said to them. And when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived. ²⁸And Israel said, It is enough. Joseph my son is still alive. I will go and see him before I die.

¹And Israel took his journey with all that he had, and came to Bēer-shē'-bā, and offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac. ²And God spoke to Israel in the visions of the night, and said, Jacob, Jacob! And he said, Here I am. ³And He said, I am God, the God of your fathers. Do not fear to go down into Egypt, for I will make of you a great nation. ⁴I will go down with you into Egypt, and I will also surely bring you up again. And Joseph shall put his hand upon your eyes. ⁵And Jacob rose up from Bēer-shē'-bā. And the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father, and their little ones, and their wives, in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him. ⁶And they took their cattle, and their goods which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and came into Egypt, Jacob and all his seed with him. ⁷His sons, and his sons' sons with him, his daughters, and his sons' daughters, and all his seed, he brought with him into Egypt.

⁸And these are the names of the children of Israel who came into Egypt, Jacob and his sons: Reu'-bēn, Jacob's firstborn. ⁹And the sons of Reuben were Hā'-nōch, and Phāl'-lū, and Hēz'-rōn, and Cār'-mī. ¹⁰And the sons of Sīm'-ē-ōn were Jē-mū'-ēl, and Jā'-mīn, and Ō'-hād, and Jā'-chīn, and Zō'-hār, and Shā'-ūl the son of a woman of Canaan. ¹¹And the sons of Lē'-vī were Gēr'-shōn, Kō'-hāth, and Mē-rār'-ī. ¹²And the sons of Judah were Er, and Ō'-nān, and Shē'-lāh, and Phār'-ēz, and Zār'-āh. But Er and Ō'-nān died in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Phār'-ēz were Hēz'-rōn and Hām'-ūl. ¹³And the sons of Is'-sā-chār were Tō'-lā, and Phū'-vāh, and Jōb, and Shīm'-rōn. ¹⁴And the sons of Zē-bū'-lūn were Sē'-rēd, and Ē'-lōn, and Jāh'-lēel. ¹⁵These are the sons of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob in Pā-dān-ār'-ām, with his daughter Dinah. All the souls of his sons and his daughters were thirty-three.

¹⁶And the sons of Gad were Ziph'-ī-ōn, and Hāg'-gī, Shū'-nī, and Ēz'-bōn, Ē'-rī, and Ā-rō'-dī, and Ā-rē'-lī. ¹⁷And the sons of Ash'-ēr were Jim'-nāh, and Ish'-ū-āh, and Is'-ū-ī, and Bē-rī'-āh, and Sē'-rāh their sister. And the sons of Bē-rī'-āh were Hē'-bēr and Māl'-chī-ēl. ¹⁸These are the sons of Zil'-pāh, whom Laban gave to Leah his daughter, and these whom she bore to Jacob were sixteen souls.

¹⁹The sons of Rachel Jacob's wife were Joseph and Benjamin. ²⁰And unto Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Mā-nās'-sēh and Ē'-phrā-īm, whom Ās'-ē-nāth the daughter of Pō-tī'-phēr-āh priest of Ōn bore him. ²¹And the sons of Benjamin were Bē'-lāh, and Bē'-chēr, and Āsh'-bēl, Gē'-rā, and Nā'-ā-mān, Ē'-hī, and Rōsh, and Mūp'-pīm, and Hūp'-pīm, and Ārd. ²²These are the sons of Rachel, who were born to Jacob. All the souls were fourteen.

²³And the sons of Dan: Hū'-shīm. ²⁴And the sons of Nāph'-tā-li were Jāh'-zēel, and Gū'-nī, and Jē'-zēr, and Shīl'-lēm. ²⁵These are the sons of Bil'-hāh, whom Laban gave to Rachel his daughter, and she bore these to Jacob. All the souls were seven.

²⁶All the souls that came with Jacob into Egypt, who came out of his loins, besides Jacob's sons' wives, all the souls were sixty-six. ²⁷And the sons of Joseph, who were born to him in Egypt, were two souls. All the souls of the house of Jacob, who came into Egypt, were seventy.

²⁸And he sent Judah before him to Joseph, to direct his face to Gō'-shēn. ²⁹And they came into the land of Gō'-shēn. And Joseph made his chariot ready, and went up to meet Israel his father, to Gō'-shēn, and presented himself to him. And he fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while. ³⁰And Israel said to Joseph, Now let me die, since I have seen your face, because you are still alive. ³¹And Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's house, I will go up and show Pharaoh, and say unto him, My brothers and my father's house, who were in the land of Canaan, have come unto me. ³²And the men are shepherds, for their trade has been to feed cattle. And they have brought their flocks and their herds and all that they have. ³³And it shall come to pass, when Pharaoh shall call you, and shall say, What is your occupation? ³⁴Then you shall say, Your servants' trade has been about cattle from our youth even until now, both we and also our fathers — so that you may live in the land of Gō'-shēn, for every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians.

¹Then Joseph came and told Pharaoh, and said, My father and my brothers, and their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have, have come out of the land of Canaan. ²And behold, they are in the land of Gō'-shēn. And he took some of his brothers, five men, and presented them to Pharaoh. ³And Pharaoh said unto his brothers, What is your occupation? And they said to Pharaoh, Your servants are shepherds, both we and our fathers. ⁴They said moreover to Pharaoh, For we have come to live in the land. For your servants have no pasture for their flocks. For the famine is sore in the land of Canaan. Now therefore, we pray you, let your servants dwell in the land of Gō'-shēn. ⁵And Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, Your father and your brothers have come unto you. ⁶The land of Egypt is before you. Make your father and brothers to live in the best of the land; in the land of Gō'-shēn let them live. And if you know of any men of ability among them, then make them rulers over my house. ⁷And Joseph brought in Jacob his father, and set him before Pharaoh. And Jacob blessed Pharaoh. ⁸And Pharaoh said unto Jacob, How old are you? ⁹And Jacob said to Pharaoh, The days of the years of my pilgrimage are a hundred and thirty years. Few and evil have been the days of the years of my life, and I have not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage. ¹⁰And Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh.

¹¹And Joseph placed his father and his brothers, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rām'-ē-sēs, as Pharaoh had commanded. ¹²And Joseph nourished his father and his brothers, and all his father's household, with bread, according to their families.

¹³And there was no bread in all the land, for the famine was very sore, so that the land of Egypt and all the land of Canaan fainted because of the famine. ¹⁴And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the grain which they bought. And Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house. ¹⁵And when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph and said, Give us bread — for why should we die in your presence? For the money failed. ¹⁶And Joseph said, Give your cattle, and I will give you for your cattle, if money fail. ¹⁷And they brought their cattle to Joseph. And Joseph gave them bread for their horses, and for their flocks, and for the cattle of the herds, and for the asses. And he fed them with bread for all their cattle for that year. ¹⁸When that year was ended, they came to him the second year and said, We will not hide it from my lord, how that our money is spent. My lord also has our herds of cattle. There is nothing left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies and our lands. ¹⁹Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants for Pharaoh. And give us seed, that we may live and not die, that the land be not desolate. ²⁰And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh, for the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine prevailed over them. So the land became Pharaoh's. ²¹And as for the people, he removed them to cities, from one end of the borders of Egypt even to the other end of it. ²²Only he did not buy the land of the priests, for the priests had a portion from Pharaoh, and ate their portion which Pharaoh gave them. Therefore they did not sell their land.

²³Then Joseph said to the people, Behold, I have bought you this day, and your land, for Pharaoh. Lo, here is seed for you, and you shall sow the land. ²⁴And it shall come to pass in the increase, that you shall give the fifth part unto Pharaoh, and four parts shall be your own, for seed of the field, and for your food, and for them of your household, and for food for your little ones. ²⁵And they said, You have saved our lives. Let us find grace in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants. ²⁶And Joseph made it a law of the land of Egypt to this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth part, excepting only the land of the priests, which did not become Pharaoh's.

²⁷And Israel lived in the land of Egypt, in the country of Gó'-shēn. And they had possession in it, and grew, and multiplied exceedingly. ²⁸And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years, so the whole age of Jacob was a hundred forty-seven years. ²⁹And the time drew near that he must die. And he called his son Joseph, and said to him, If now I have found grace in your sight, I pray you put your hand under my thigh and deal kindly and truly with me. I pray you, do not bury me in Egypt. ³⁰But I will lie with my fathers. You shall carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their buryingplace. And he said, I will do as you have said. ³¹And he said, Swear unto me. And he swore unto him. And Israel bowed himself upon the bed's head.

¹And it came to pass after these things, that one told Joseph, Behold, your father is sick. And he took with him his two sons, Mā-nās'-sēh and Ē'-phrā-īm. ²And one told Jacob, and said, Behold, your son Joseph comes to you. And Israel strengthened himself, and sat upon the bed. ³And Jacob said to Joseph, God almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me. ⁴And He said to me, Behold, I will make you fruitful and multiply you. And I will make of you a multitude of people, and will give this land to your seed after you for an everlasting possession. ⁵And now your two sons, Ē'-phrā-īm and Mā-nās'-sēh, who are born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you into Egypt, are mine — like Reū'-bēn and Sīm'-ě-ōn, they shall be mine. ⁶And your issue, which you beget after them, shall be yours, and shall be called after the name of their brothers in their inheritance. ⁷And as for me, when I came from Pā'-dān, Rachel died beside me in the land of Canaan in the way, when there was still but a little way to come to Ē'-phrāth. And I buried her there in the way of Ē'-phrāth (the same is Bēth'-lē-hēm).

⁸And Israel beheld Joseph's sons, and said, Who are these? ⁹And Joseph said to his father, They are my sons, whom God has given me in this place. And he said, I pray you bring them to me, and I will bless them. ¹⁰Now the eyes of Israel were dim for age, so that he could not see. And he brought them near him, and he kissed them and embraced them. ¹¹And Israel said to Joseph, I had not thought I would see your face, and, lo, God has showed me also your seed. ¹²And Joseph brought them out from between his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth. ¹³And Joseph took them both, Ē'-phrā-īm in his right hand toward Israel's left hand, and Mā-nās'-sēh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand. And he brought them near to him. ¹⁴And Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it upon Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Mā-nās'-sēh's head, crossing his hands – for Mā-nās'-sēh was the first-born.

¹⁵And he blessed Joseph and said, May God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, the God who fed me all my life unto this day, ¹⁶the Angel who redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads. And let my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac, and let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth. ¹⁷And when Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of Ē'-phrā-īm, it displeased him. And he held up his father's hand to remove it from Ē'-phrā-īm's head to Mā-nās'-sēh's head. ¹⁸And Joseph said to his father, Not so, my father. For this is the firstborn. Put your right hand upon his head. ¹⁹And his father refused and said, I know, my son, I know. He also shall become a people, and he also shall be great, but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he is, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations. ²⁰And he blessed them that day, saying, In you shall Israel bless, saying, God make you as Ē'-phrā-īm and as Mā-nās'-sēh. And he set Ē'-phrā-īm before Mā-nās'-sēh. ²¹And Israel said to Joseph, Behold, I die. But God shall be with you, and bring you again into the land of your fathers. ²²Moreover I have given to you one portion above your brothers, which I took out of the hand of the Ām'-ōr-ite with my sword and with my bow.

¹And Jacob called to his sons and said, Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you what shall befall you in the last days. ²Gather yourselves together, and hear, you sons of Jacob, and listen to Israel your father.

³*Reū'-bēn*, you are my firstborn, my might, and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity and the excellency of power – ⁴unstable as water, you shall not excel, because you went up to your father's bed; then you defiled it. He went up to my couch.

⁵*Sim'-ē-ōn* and Lē'-vī are brothers; instruments of cruelty are in their habitations. ⁶O my soul, do not come into their secret. Let not my honor be united with their assembly. For in their anger they killed a man, and in their self-will they dug down a wall. ⁷Let their anger be cursed, for it was fierce — and their wrath, for it was cruel. I will divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel.

⁸Judah, may your brothers praise you. May your hand be in the neck of your enemies. May your father's children bow down before you. ⁹Judah is a lion's whelp. My son, you have gone up from the prey. He stooped, he crouched like a lion, and like a strong lion. Who shall rouse him up? ¹⁰The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor a Law-giver from between his feet, until Shi'-lōh come. And the gathering of the people shall be unto him. ¹¹Binding his foal to the vine, and his ass's colt to the choice vine, he washed his garments in wine, and his clothes in the blood of grapes. ¹²His eyes shall be darker than wine, and his teeth whiter than milk.

¹³Zē-bū'-lūn shall live at the haven of the sea. And he shall be a haven for ships. And his border shall be unto Sī'-dōn.

¹⁴Īs'-sā-chār is a strong ass crouching down between two burdens. ¹⁵And he saw that rest was good and that the land was pleasant. And he bowed his shoulder to bear, and became a servant unto tribute.

¹⁶Dan shall judge his people, as one of the tribes of Israel. ¹⁷Dan shall be a serpent by the way, an adder in the path, that bites the horse's heels, so that its rider shall fall backward. ¹⁸I have waited for Thy salvation, O LORD.

¹⁹Gad, a troop shall overcome him. But he shall overcome at the last.

²⁰Out of Āsh'-ēr his bread shall be fat, and he shall yield royal dainties.

²¹Nāph'-tā-li is a hind let loose. He gives goodly words.

²⁷Benjamin is a wolf that tears in pieces. In the morning he shall devour the prey, and at night he shall divide the spoil.

²⁸All these are the twelve tribes of Israel. And this is what their father spoke to them, and blessed them; everyone according to his blessing he blessed them. ²⁹And he charged them and said to them, I am to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ē'-phrōn the Hit'-tite, ³⁰in the cave that is in the field of Mäch-pē'-läh, which is before Mäm'-rē, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field of Ē'-phrōn the Hit'-tite for a possession of a burying-place. ³¹There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife. There they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife. And there I buried Leah. ³²The purchase of the field, and of the cave that is in it, was from the children of Heth. ³³And when Jacob had made an end of commanding his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed, and yielded up the spirit, and was gathered to his people.

¹And Joseph fell upon his father's face, and wept upon him, and kissed him. ²And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father. And the physicians embalmed Israel. ³And forty days were fulfilled for him, for so are fulfilled the days of those who are embalmed. And the Ē-gyp'-tiāns mourned for him seventy days. ⁴And when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spoke to the house of Pharaoh, saying, If now I have found grace in your eyes, I pray you speak in the ears of Pharaoh saying, ⁵My father made me swear, saying, Lo, I die. You shall bury me in my grave which I have dug for me in the land of Canaan. Now therefore, I pray you, let me go up and bury my father, and I will come again. ⁶And Pharaoh said, Go up and bury your father, according as he made you swear.

¹⁴And Joseph returned to Egypt, he and his brothers, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.

¹⁵And when Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, Joseph will perhaps hate us, and will certainly repay us all the evil which we did unto him. ¹⁶And they sent a messenger to Joseph, saying, Your father did command before he died, saying, ¹⁷So shall you say to Joseph, Forgive, I pray you now, the trespass of your brothers, and their sin. For they did evil to you. And we pray you, forgive now the trespass of the servants of the God of your father. And Joseph wept when they spoke to him. ¹⁸And his brothers also went and fell down before his face. And they said, Behold, we are your servants. ¹⁹And Joseph said to them, Do not fear. For am I in the place of God? ²⁰But as for you, you thought evil against me, but God meant it for good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save a great many people alive. ²¹Now therefore do not fear. I will nourish you and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spoke kindly to them.

²²And Joseph lived in Egypt, he and his father's house. And Joseph lived a hundred and ten years. ²³And Joseph saw Ē'-phrā-īm's children of the third generation. Also the children of Mā'-chīr the son of Mā-nās'-sēh were brought up upon Joseph's knees. ²⁴And Joseph said to his brothers, I die. And God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land into the land which He swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. ²⁵And Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from here. So Joseph died, being a hundred and ten years old. And they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

The Book of EXODUS

¹Now these are the names of the children of Israel who came into Egypt. Every man and his household came with Jacob. ²Reū'-bēn, Sīm'-ē-ōn, Lē'-vī, and Judah, ³Īs'-sā-chār, Zē-bū'-lūn, and Benjamin, ⁴Dan, and Nāph'-tā-lī, Gad, and Asher. ⁵And all the souls that came out of the loins of Jacob were seventy souls, for Joseph was already in Egypt. ⁶And Joseph died, and all his brothers, and all that generation. ⁷And the children of Israel were fruitful, and increased very much, and multiplied, and became exceeding mighty. And the land was filled with them. ⁸Now there arose a new king over Egypt, who did not know Joseph. ⁹And he said to his people, Behold, the people of the children of Israel are more and mightier than we are. ¹⁰Come, let us deal wisely with them, lest they multiply, and when there comes a war, they join also unto our enemies, and fight against us, and so get out of the land. ¹¹Therefore they set taskmasters over them to afflict them with their burdens. And they built treasure cities for Pharaoh, Pī'-thōm and Rā-ām'-seš. ¹²But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were grieved because of the children of Israel. ¹³And the Egyptians made the children of Israel serve with harshness. ¹⁴And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, working in mortar and in brick, and in all kinds of service in the field. All the service in which they made them serve was with harshness.

¹⁵And the king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, of which the name of the one was Shīph'-rāh, and the name of the other Pū'-āh. ¹⁶And he said, When you do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the stool, if it is a son, then you shall kill him. But if it is a daughter, then she shall live. ¹⁷But the midwives feared God, and did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the men children alive. ¹⁸And the king of Egypt called for the midwives and said to them, Why have you done this thing, and have saved the men-children alive? ¹⁹And the midwives said unto Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women. For they are lively, and are delivered before the midwives come in to them. ²⁰Therefore God dealt well with the midwives. And the people multiplied and became very mighty. ²¹And it came to pass, because the midwives feared God, that He made them houses. ²²And Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Every son that is born you shall cast into the river, and every daughter you shall save alive.

¹And a man of the house of Levi took a daughter of Levi as his wife. ²And the woman conceived and bore a son. And when she saw him, that he was a beautiful child, she hid him three months. ³But when she could no longer hide him, she took an ark of bulrushes for him, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and put the child in it. And she laid it in the flags by the river's edge. ⁴And his sister stood afar off, to know what would be done to him.

⁵And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash at the river. And her maidens walked along by the riverside. And when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to bring it. ⁶And when she had opened it, she saw the child. And behold, the babe wept. And she had pity on him, and said, This is one of the Hebrews' children. ⁷Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call a nurse of the Hebrew women for you, that she may nurse the child for you? ⁸And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. And the maid went and called the child's mother. ⁹And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Take this child away and nurse it for me, and I will give you your wages. And the woman took the child and nursed it. ¹⁰And the child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. And she called his name Mō'-ses. And she said, Because I took him out of the water.

¹¹And in those days, when Moses was grown, he went out to his brothers and looked upon their burdens. And he saw an Ē-gyp'-tiän striking a Hebrew, one of his brothers. ¹²And he looked this way and that way, and when he did not see anyone, he killed the Ē-gyp'-tiän and hid him in the sand. ¹³And when he went out the second day, behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together. And he said to him that did the wrong, Why do you strike your fellow? ¹⁴And he said, Who made you a prince and a judge over us? Do you intend to kill me as you killed the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely this thing is known. ¹⁵Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to kill Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and lived in the land of Mīd'-i-än. And he sat down by a well. ¹⁶Now the priest of Mīd'-i-än had seven daughters. And they came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock. ¹⁷And the shepherds came and drove them away. But Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock. ¹⁸And when they came to Reū'-ēl their father, he said, How is it that you have come so soon today? ¹⁹And they said, An Ē-gyp'-tiän delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water for us and watered the flock. ²⁰And he said to his daughters, And where is he? Why is it that you have left the man? Call him, that he may eat bread. ²¹And Moses was content to live with the man. And he gave Moses his daughter Zīp'-pō-rāh. ²²And she bore a son, and called his name Gēr'-shōm. For he said, I have been a stranger in a strange land.

²³And in time the king of Egypt died. And the children of Israel sighed because of the bondage, and they cried, and their cry came up to God because of the bondage. ²⁴And God heard their groaning, and God remembered His covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. ²⁵And God looked upon the children of Israel, and God had respect for them.

¹Now Moses kept the flock of his father-in-law Jēth'-rō, the priest of Mīd'-ī-ān. And he led the flock to the back side of the desert. And he came to the mountain of God, to Hōr'-ēb. ²And the Angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a flame of fire, out of the midst of the bush. And he looked, and behold! the bush burned with fire! And the bush was not burned up. ³And Moses said, I will now turn aside and see this great sight, why the bush is not burned. ⁴And when the LORD saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses! Moses! And he said, Here I am. ⁵And he said, Do not come here. Put off your shoes from off your feet, for the place on which you stand is holy ground. ⁶Moreover He said, I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face — for he was afraid to look upon God.

⁷And the LORD said, I have surely seen the affliction of My people who are in Egypt. And I have heard their cry because of their task-masters — for I know their sorrows. ⁸And I am coming down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, to bring them up out of that land unto a good land, a large land, unto a land flowing with milk and honey — to the place of the Cā'-nāan-ītes, and the Ām'-ōr-ītes, and the Pē-riz'-zītes, and the Hī'-vītes, and the Jēb'-ū-sītes. ⁹Now therefore, behold, the cry of the children of Israel has come unto Me. And I have also seen the oppression with which the Ē-gyp'-tiāns oppress them. ¹⁰Therefore come now, and I will send you to Pharaoh, that you may bring forth My people the children of Israel out of Egypt. ¹¹And Moses said unto God, Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt? ¹²And He said, I will certainly be with you. And this shall be a token to you, that I have sent you: When you have brought forth the people out of Egypt, you shall serve God upon this mountain. ¹³And Moses said to God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say to them, The God of your fathers has sent me to you — and they shall say to me, What is His name? — what shall I say to them? ¹⁴And God said to Moses, I AM THAT I AM. And He said, So you shall say to the children of Israel, I AM has sent me to you. ¹⁵God said moreover unto Moses, So shall you say to the children of Israel: The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is My name forever, and this is My memorial unto all generations. ¹⁶Go and gather the elders of Israel together, and say unto them, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob appeared to me, saying, I have surely visited you, and have seen that which is done to you in Egypt. ¹⁷And I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt to the land of the Canaanites, and the Hī'-tītes, and the Ām'-or-ītes, and the Pě-rīz'-zītes, and the Hī'-vītes, and the Jēb'-ū-sītes, into a land flowing with milk and honey. ¹⁸And they shall listen to your voice. And you shall come, you and the elders of Israel, to the king of Egypt. And you shall say to him, The LORD God of the Hebrews has met with us. And now let us go, we beseech you, three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God. ¹⁹And I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you go, no, not by a mighty hand. ²⁰And I will stretch out My hand and smite Egypt with all My wonders which I will do in the midst of it. And after that he will let you go. ²¹And I will give this people favor in the sight of the Ē-gyp'-tīans. And it shall come to pass that when you go, you shall not go empty. ²²But every woman shall ask of her neighbor, and of her that stays in her house, jewels of silver and jewels of gold and clothing. And you shall put them upon your sons and upon your daughters. And you shall spoil the Ē-gyp'-tīans.

¹And Moses answered and said, But, behold, they will not believe me nor listen to my voice — for they will say, The LORD has not appeared to you. ²And the LORD said to him, What is that in your hand? And he said, A rod. ³And He said, Throw it on the ground. And he threw it on the ground. And it became a serpent. And Moses ran from it. ⁴And the LORD said to Moses, Put forth your hand and take it by the tail. And he put forth his hand and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand — ⁵so that they may believe that the LORD God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob, has appeared unto you.

⁶And the LORD said furthermore to him, Now put your hand in your bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom. And when he took it out, behold, his hand was as leprous as snow. ⁷And He said, Put your hand into your bosom again. And he put his hand into his bosom again. And he plucked it out of his bosom, and behold, it was turned again like his other flesh. ⁸And if they will not believe you, neither listen to the voice of the first sign, then they will believe the voice of the latter sign. ⁹And also if they will not believe these two signs, neither listen unto your voice, then you shall take from the water of the river and pour it upon the dry land. And the water which you take out of the river shall become blood on the dry land. ¹⁰And Moses said unto the LORD, O my Lord, I am not a man of words, neither before now, nor since Thou hast spoken unto Thy servant, but I am slow of speech and of a slow tongue. ¹¹And the LORD said unto him, Who has made man's mouth? Or who makes the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? Have not I, the LORD? ¹²Now therefore go, and I will be with your mouth and teach you what you shall say. ¹³And he said, O my Lord, I pray Thee, send by the hand of him whom Thou wilt send. ¹⁴And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses. And He said, Is not Aaron the Levite your brother? I know that he can speak well. And also, behold, he comes forth to meet you. And when he sees you, he will be glad in his heart. ¹⁵And you shall speak to him, and put words in his mouth. And I will be with your mouth and with his mouth, and will teach you what you shall do. ¹⁶And he shall be your spokesman to the people — he shall become your mouth, and you shall be to him instead of God. ¹⁷And you shall take this rod in your hand, with which you shall do signs.

¹⁸And Moses went and returned to Jēth'-rō his father-in-law, and said to him, I pray you, let me go and return to my brothers who are in Egypt and see if they are still alive. And Jēth'-rō said to Moses, Go in peace. ¹⁹And the LORD said unto Moses in Mid'-ī-ān, Go! Return to Egypt, for all the men who sought your life are dead. ²⁰And Moses took his wife and his sons, and set them upon an ass, and he returned to the land of Egypt. And Moses took the rod of God in his hand. ²¹And the LORD said to Moses, When you go to return into Egypt, see that you do all those wonders which I have put in your hand before Pharaoh — but I will harden his heart, that he shall not let the people go. ²²And you shall say to Pharaoh, Thus says the Lord: Israel is My son, My first-born. ²³And I say to you, Let My son go, that he may serve Me. And if you refuse to let him go, behold, I will kill your son, your first-born.

²⁴And it came to pass by the way, in the inn, that the LORD met him and sought to kill him. ²⁵Then Zip'-pō-rāh took a sharp stone, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and threw it at his feet, and said, Surely a bloody husband you are to me. ²⁶So He let him go. Then she said, You are a bloody husband, because of the cīr-cūm-cīš'-iōn.

²⁷And the LORD said to Āar'-ōn, Go into the wilderness to meet Moses. And he went and met him in the mount of God, and kissed him. ²⁸And Moses told Āar'-ōn all the words of the LORD who had sent him, and all the signs which He had commanded him. ²⁹And Moses and Āar'-ōn went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel. ³⁰And Āar'-ōn spoke all the words which the LORD had spoken unto Moses, and did the signs in the sight of the people. ³¹And the people believed. And when they heard that the LORD had visited the children of Israel, and that He had looked upon their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshipped.

¹And afterward Moses and Āar'-ōn went in and told Pharaoh, Thus says the LORD God of Israel: Let My people go, that they may hold a feast to Me in the wilderness. ²And Pharaoh said, Who is the LORD, that I should obey His voice to let Israel go? I do not know the LORD, neither will I let Israel go. ³And they said, The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Let us go, we pray you, three days' journey into the desert and sacrifice to the LORD our God — lest He fall upon us with plague or with the sword. ⁴And the king of Egypt said to them, Moses and Aaron, why do you keep the people from their work? Get to your burdens! ⁵And Pharaoh said, Behold, the people of the land now are many, and you make them rest from their burdens. ⁶And Pharaoh commanded the taskmasters of the people and their officers the same day, saying, ⁷You shall no more give the people straw to make brick, as before. Let them go and gather straw for themselves. ⁸And you shall lay upon them the number of bricks which they have made before now. You shall not take away any of it. For they are idle; therefore they cry, saying, Let us go and sacrifice to our God. ⁹Let more work be laid upon the men, and let them labor in it. And do not let them regard vain words.

¹⁰And the taskmasters of the people and their officers went out. And they spoke to the people, saying, So says Pharaoh, I will not give you straw. ¹¹Go and get straw where you can find it, yet not any of your work shall be taken away. ¹²So the people were scattered abroad through all the land of Egypt, to gather stubble for straw. ¹³And the taskmasters hurried them, saying, Do your works, your daily tasks, just as when there was straw. ¹⁴And the officers of the children of Israel, whom Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten. And they demanded, Why have you not completed your task in making brick, both yesterday and today, as you did before?

¹⁵Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried to Pharaoh, saying, Why do you deal so with your servants? ¹⁶There is no straw given to your servants, and they say to us, Make brick! And behold, your servants are beaten, but the fault is in your own people. ¹⁷But he said, You are idle! You are idle! Therefore you say, Let us go and do sacrifice to the LORD. ¹⁸Therefore go now and work, for there shall be no straw given to you; yet you shall deliver the number of bricks. ¹⁹And the officers of the children of Israel saw that they were in an evil case, after it was said, You shall not take away anything from your bricks of your daily task.

²⁰And they met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh. ²¹And they said to them, The LORD look upon you and judge, because you have made our smell to be hated in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hands to kill us. ²²And Moses returned to the LORD, and said, Lord, why hast Thou treated this people ill? Why is it that Thou hast sent me? ²³For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in Thy name, he has done evil to this people. Neither hast Thou delivered Thy people at all.

¹Then the LORD said to Moses, Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh — for with a strong hand he shall let them go, and with a strong hand he shall drive them out of his land. ²And God spoke to Moses, and said to him, I am the LORD. ³And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty. But I was not known to them by the name JĒ-HŌ'-VĀH. ⁴And I have also established My covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, in which they were strangers. ⁵And I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Ē-gyp'-tiāns keep in bondage. And I have remembered My covenant. ⁶Therefore say to the children of Israel, I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burden of the Ē-gyp'-tiāns, and I will rescue you out of their bondage. And I will redeem you with a stretched-out arm, and with great judgments. ⁷And I will take you to Me for a people, and I will be to you a God. And you shall know that I am the LORD your God, who brings you out from under the burdens of the Ē-gyp'-tiāns. ⁸And I will bring you in to the land concerning which I lifted up My hand to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. And I will give it to you for a heritage. I am the LORD!

⁹And Moses said so to the children of Israel. But they did not listen to Moses through shortness of spirit and through cruel bondage. ¹⁰And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ¹¹Go in, speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land. ¹²And Moses spoke before the LORD, saying, Behold, the children of Israel have not listened to me. How then shall Pharaoh hear me, since I have lips that are not circumcised? ¹³And the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, and gave them a charge to the children of Israel, and to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁴These are the heads of their fathers' houses: The sons of Reū'-bēn the first-born of Israel were Hā'-nōch and Pāl'-lū, Hēz'-rōn and Cār'-mī. These are the families of Reū'-bēn. ¹⁵And the sons of Sīm'-ē-ōn were Jē-mū'-ēl and Jā'-mīn and Ō'-hād and Jā'-chīn and Zō'-hār and Shā'-ūl, the son of a Cā-nāan-ī'-tīsh woman. These are the families of Sīm'-ē-ōn. ¹⁶And these are the names of the sons of Lē'-vī according to their generations: Gēr'-shōn, and Kō'-hāth, and Mē-rār'-ī. And the years of the life of Lē'-vī were a hundred and thirty-seven years. ¹⁷The sons of Gēr'-shōn were Lib'-nī and Shīm'-ē-ī, according to their families. ¹⁸And the sons of Kō'-hāth were Ām'-rām and İz'-här and Hē'-brōn and Ūz'-zī-ēl. And the years of the life of Kō'-hāth were a hundred and thirty-three years. ¹⁹And the sons of Mē-rār'-ī were Mäh'-lī and Mū'-shī. These are the families of Lē'-vī according to their generations. ²⁰And Ām'-rām took Jōch'-ē-bēd his father's sister for his wife. And she bore him Aaron and Moses. And the years of the life of Ām'-rām were a hundred and thirty-seven years. ²¹And the sons of İz'-här were Kōr'-äh and Nēph'-ēg and Zich'-ri. ²²And the sons of Ūz'-zī-ēl were Mī'-shā-ēl and Ēl-zā'-phän and Zith'-rī. ²³And Aaron took Ē-lī'-shē-bā, daughter of Ām-mīn'-ā-dāb, sister of Nā-āsh'-ōn, for his wife. And she bore him Nā'-dāb and Ā-bī'-hū, Ēl-ē-ā'-zär and Ith'-ä-mär. ²⁴And the sons of Kōr'-äh were Ās'-sīr and Ēl-kā'-näh and Ā-bī'-ä-sāph. These are the families of the Kōr'-hītes. ²⁵And Aaron's son Ēl-ē-ā'-zär took of the daughters of Pū'-tī-ēl for his wife. And she bore him Phīn'-ē-hās. These are the heads of the fathers of the Lē'-vītes according to their families. ²⁶These are the Aaron and Moses to whom the LORD said, Bring out the children of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their armies. ²⁷These are the ones who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt to bring out the children of Israel from Egypt. These are that Moses and Aaron.

²⁸And it came to pass on the day when the LORD spoke unto Moses in the land of Egypt, ²⁹that the LORD spoke to Moses saying, I am the LORD. You speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I say to you. ³⁰And Moses said before the LORD, Behold, I am of uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh listen to me?

¹And the LORD said to Moses, See, I have made you a god to Pharaoh. And Aaron your brother shall be your prophet. ²You shall speak all that I command you. And Aaron your brother shall speak to Pharaoh, that he send the children of Israel out of his land. ³And I will harden Pharaoh's heart and multiply My signs and My wonders in the land of Egypt. ⁴But Pharaoh shall not listen to you, so that I may lay My hand upon Egypt, and bring My armies, and My people the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great judgments. ⁵And the Ē-gyp'-tiāns shall know that I am the LORD when I stretch forth My hand upon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them. ⁶And Moses and Aaron did as the LORD commanded them; so they did. ⁷And Moses was eighty years old, and Aaron was eighty-three years old, when they spoke to Pharaoh.

⁸And the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying: ⁹When Pharaoh shall speak to you saying, Show a miracle for yourselves, you shall say to Aaron, Take your rod, and throw it in front of Pharaoh.

And it shall become a snake. ¹⁰And Moses and Aaron went in unto Pharaoh. And they did as the LORD had commanded. And Aaron threw down his rod in front of Pharaoh and in front of his servants, and it became a snake. ¹¹Then Pharaoh also called the wise men and the sôr'-cêr-êrs. Now the magicians of Egypt also did the same way with their secret arts. ¹²For each man threw down his rod, and they became snakes. But Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods. ¹³And He hardened Pharaoh's heart so that he did not listen to them, as the LORD had said.

¹⁴And the LORD said to Moses, Pharaoh's heart is hardened. He refuses to let the people go. ¹⁵You go to Pharaoh in the morning. Lo, he goes out to the water. And you shall stand by the river's brink until he comes. And you shall take in your hand the rod which was turned to a snake. ¹⁶And you shall say to him, The LORD God of the Hebrews has sent me to you, saying, Let My people go so that they may serve Me in the wilderness. And, behold, until now you would not hear. ¹⁷Thus says the LORD, In this you shall know that I am the LORD. Behold! I will smite with the rod that is in my hand upon the waters which are in the river, and they shall be turned to blood. ¹⁸And the fish in the river shall die, and the river shall stink. And the Ē-gyp'-tiâns shall hate to drink of the water of the river. ¹⁹And the LORD spoke to Moses, Say to Aaron, Take your rod, and stretch out your hand upon the waters of Egypt, upon their streams, upon their rivers, and upon their ponds, and upon all their pools of water, that they may become blood – and that there may be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood and in vessels of stone.

²⁰And Moses and Aaron did so, as the LORD commanded. And he lifted up the rod and struck the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh and in the sight of his servants. And all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood. ²¹And the fish that was in the river died; and the river stank, and the Ē-gyp'-tiâns could not drink of the water of the river. And there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt. ²²And the magicians of Egypt did so with their secret arts. And Pharaoh's heart was hardened, neither did he listen to them, as the LORD had said. ²³And Pharaoh turned and went into his house; neither did he set his heart to this also. ²⁴And all the Egyptians dug round about the river for water to drink, for they could not drink of the water of the river. ²⁵And seven days were completed after the LORD had stricken the river.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses, Go to Pharaoh, and say to him: Thus says the LORD, Let my people go so that they may serve Me. ²And if you refuse to let them go, behold, I will strike all your borders with frogs. ³And the river shall bring forth frogs plentifully, which shall go up and come into your house, and into your bedroom, and upon your bed, and into the house of your servants, and upon your people, and into your ovens, and into your kneading troughs. ⁴And the frogs shall come, up both on you, and on your people, and upon all your servants.

⁵And the LORD spoke unto Moses, Say unto Aaron: Stretch out your hand with your rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt. ⁶And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt. ⁷And the magicians did so with their secret arts, and brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt. ⁸Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, Pray unto the LORD, that He may take away the frogs from me and from my people. And I will let the people go, so that they may do sacrifice unto the LORD. ⁹And Moses said unto Pharaoh, Glory over me! When shall I pray for you, and for your servants, and for your people, to destroy the frogs from you and your houses, so that they may remain in the river only? ¹⁰And he said, Tomorrow. And he said, It shall be according to your word, so that you may know that there is none like the LORD our God. ¹¹And the frogs shall depart from you, and from your houses, and from your servants, and from your people. They shall remain in the river only. ¹²And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh. And Moses cried unto the LORD because of the frogs which He had brought against Pharaoh. ¹³And the LORD did according to the word of Moses. And the frogs died out of the houses, out of the villages, and out of the fields. ¹⁴And they gathered them together in heaps. And the land stank. ¹⁵But when Pharaoh saw that there was a breathing spell, he hardened his heart, and did not listen to them – even as the LORD had said.

¹⁶And the LORD said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron: Stretch out your rod, and strike the dust of the land, so that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt. ¹⁷And they did so. For Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod and struck the dust of the earth. And it became lice in man and in beast. All the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt. ¹⁸And the magicians did so with their secret arts to bring forth lice, but they could not. So there were lice upon man and upon beast. ¹⁹Then the magicians said to Pharaoh, This is the finger of God. And Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he did not listen to them – as the LORD had said.

²⁰And the LORD said to Moses, Rise up early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh. Lo, he comes forth to the water. And say unto him, Thus says the LORD: Let My people go, so that they may serve Me. ²¹Else, if you will not let My people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies upon you, and upon your servants, and upon your people, and into your houses. And the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground on which they are. ²²And in that day I will cut off the land of Gō'-shēn, in which My people live, so that no swarms of flies shall be there – to the end that you may know that I am the LORD in the midst of the earth. ²³And I will put a dividing line between My people and your people. This miracle shall be tomorrow. ²⁴And the LORD did so. And there came a grievous swarm of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Egypt. The land was destroyed because of the swarms.

²⁵And Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, Go sacrifice to your God in the land. ²⁶And Moses said, It is not right for us to do so, for we shall sacrifice the ā-bom-ī-nā'-tion of the Egyptians to the LORD our God. Lo, shall we sacrifice the ā-bom-ī-nā'-tion of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us? ²⁷We will go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as He shall command us. ²⁸And Pharaoh said, I will let you go so that you may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness. Only you shall not go very far away. Pray for me. ²⁹And Moses said, Behold, I will go out from you, and I will pray unto the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, tomorrow. But do not let Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD. ³⁰And Moses went out from Pharaoh and prayed unto the LORD. ³¹And the LORD did according to the word of Moses. And He removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people. There remained not one. ³²And Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go.

¹Then the LORD said to Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh and tell him, Thus says the LORD God of the Hebrews: Let My people go so that they may serve Me. ²For if you refuse to let them go, and will hold them still, ³behold, the hand of the LORD is upon your cattle which is in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the sheep. There shall be a very grievous plague. ⁴And the LORD shall separate between the cattle of Israel and the cattle of Egypt. And there shall nothing die of all that belongs to the children of Israel. ⁵And the LORD appointed a set time, saying, Tomorrow the LORD shall do this thing in the land. ⁶And the LORD did that thing on the next day, and all the cattle of Egypt died. But of the cattle of the children of Israel, not one died. ⁷And Pharaoh sent, and, behold, there was not one of the cattle of the Israelites dead. And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go.

¹³And the LORD said to Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and say to him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let My people go, so that they may serve Me. ¹⁴For I will at this time send all My plagues upon your heart, and upon your servants, and upon your people, so that you may know that there is none like Me in all the earth. ¹⁵For now I will stretch out My hand, that I may strike you and your people with plagues, and you shall be cut off from the earth. ¹⁶And in very deed for this cause I have raised you up, in order to show My power in you, and that My name may be declared throughout all the earth. ¹⁷Do you still exalt yourself against My people, that you will not let them go? ¹⁸Behold! Tomorrow about this time I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as has not been in Egypt since the foundation of it even until now. ¹⁹Therefore send now, and gather your cattle, and all that you have in the field. Upon every man and beast which shall be found in the field, and shall not be brought home, the hail shall come down upon them, and they shall die. ²⁰He that feared the word of the LORD among the servants of Pharaoh made his servants and his cattle to flee into the houses. ²¹And he that did not regard the word of the LORD left his servants and his cattle in the field.

²²And the LORD said to Moses, Stretch forth your hand toward heaven, so that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt. ²³And Moses stretched forth his rod toward heaven. And the LORD sent thunder and hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground. And the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt. ²⁴So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as there was none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation. ²⁵And the hail struck throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast. And the hail struck every herb of the field, and broke every tree of the field. ²⁶Only in the land of Gō'-shēn, where the children of Israel were, was there no hail.

²⁷And Pharaoh sent and called for Moses and Aaron, and said unto them, I have sinned this time. The LORD is righteous, and I and my people are wicked. ²⁸Pray unto the LORD — for it is enough — let there be no more mighty thunderings and hail. And I will let you go, and you shall stay no longer. ²⁹And Moses said unto him, as soon as I go out of the city, I will spread abroad my hands unto the LORD. And the thunder shall stop, neither shall there be any more hail, so that you may know that the earth is the LORD's. ³⁰But as for you and your servants, I know that you will not fear the LORD God. ³¹And the flax and the barley was stricken, for the barley was in the ear, and the flax was balled. ³²But the wheat and the rye were not stricken, for they had not grown up. ³³And Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread abroad his hands unto the LORD. And the thunders and hail stopped, and the rain was not poured upon the earth. ³⁴And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders had ceased, he sinned still more and hardened his heart, he and his servants. ³⁵And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, neither would he let the children of Israel go — even as the LORD had spoken by Moses.

¹And the LORD said to Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the heart of his servants, so that I might show these My signs before him, ²and so that you may tell in the ears of your son, and of your son's son, what things I have worked in Egypt, and My signs which I have done among them — so that you may know that I am the LORD. ³And Moses and Aaron came in unto Pharaoh and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, How long will you refuse to humble yourself before Me? Let My people go, so that they may serve Me. ⁴Else, if you refuse to let My people go, behold, tomorrow I will bring the locusts into your coast. ⁵And they shall cover the face of the earth, so that one cannot be able to see the earth. And they shall eat the rest of that which has escaped, which remains to you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which grows for you out of the field. ⁶And they shall fill your houses, and the houses of all your servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians — which neither your fathers, nor your fathers' fathers have seen, since the day they were upon the earth until this day. And he turned himself and went out from Pharaoh. ⁷And Pharaoh's servants said to him, How long shall this man be a snare to us? Let the men go so that they may serve the LORD their God. Do you not yet know that Egypt is destroyed? ⁸And Moses and Aaron were brought again unto Pharaoh, and he said to them, Go! Serve the LORD your God. Who are the ones that shall go? ⁹And Moses said, We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters. We will go with our flocks and with our herds. For we must hold a feast unto the LORD. ¹⁰And he said to them, May the LORD be so with you, as I send you and your little ones away. Watch out, for evil is before you. ¹¹Not so! You men go now and serve the LORD, for it is you who did desire it. And they were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.

¹²And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up upon the land of Egypt and eat every herb of the land – all that the hail has left. ¹³And Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind upon the land all that day and all that night. When it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts. ¹⁴And the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt and rested in all the coasts of Egypt – very grievous. Before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such. ¹⁵For they covered the face of the whole earth so that the land was darkened. And they ate every herb of the land and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left. And there did not remain any green thing in the trees, or in the herbs of the field, through all the land of Egypt.

¹⁶Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste. And he said, I have sinned against the LORD your God, and against you. ¹⁷Now therefore, I pray you, forgive my sin only this once, and pray unto the LORD your God, that He may take away from me this death only. ¹⁸And he went out from Pharaoh, and prayed unto the LORD. ¹⁹And the LORD turned a mighty strong west wind, which took away the locusts and threw them into the Red. Sea. There did not remain one locust in all the coasts of Egypt. ²⁰But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go.

²¹And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out your hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, so that one may even feel the darkness. ²²And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven. And there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days. ²³They did not see one another, nor did any rise from his place, for three days. But all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings. ²⁴And Pharaoh called unto Moses, and said, You go serve the LORD. Only let your flocks and your herds be left. Let your little ones also go with you. ²⁵And Moses said, You must give us also sacrifices and burnt offerings, so that we may sacrifice unto the LORD our God. ²⁶Our cattle also shall go with us. There shall not a hoof be left behind. For we must take from them to serve the LORD our God. And we do not know with what we must serve the LORD until we come there. ²⁷But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let them go. ²⁸And Pharaoh said to him, Go away from me! Take heed to yourself; see my face no more. For in the day you see my face you shall die. ²⁹And Moses said, You have spoken well. I will never see your face again.

¹And the LORD said to Moses, I will still bring one more plague upon Pharaoh and upon Egypt. Afterward he will let you go from here. When he shall let you go, he shall surely thrust you out from here altogether. ²Speak now in the ears of the people, and let every man borrow from his neighbor, and every woman from her neighbor, jewels of silver and jewels of gold. ³And the LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people. ⁴And Moses said, Thus saith the LORD: About midnight I will go out into the midst of Egypt. ⁵And all the first-born in the land of Egypt shall die, from the first-born of Pharaoh that sits upon his throne, even unto the first-born of the maid-servant that is behind the mill — and the first-born of beasts. ⁶And there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there was none like it, nor shall be like it any more. ⁷But against any of the children of Israel not even a dog shall move his tongue, against man or beast — so that you may know that the LORD puts a difference between the Egyptians and Israel. ⁸And all these, your servants, shall come down unto Me and bow themselves down unto Me, saying, You and all the people that follow you get out. And after that I will go out. And he went out from Pharaoh in a great anger. ⁹And the LORD said to Moses, Pharaoh shall not listen to you, so that My wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt. ¹⁰And Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh. And the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart so that he would not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying, ²This month shall be unto you the beginning of months. It shall be the first month of the year to you. ³You speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them each man a lamb for his father's house, a lamb for a house. ⁴And if the household is too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbor next to his house take it according to the number of the souls — each one, according to the eating of his mouth, you shall count concerning the lamb. ⁵Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year. You shall take it out from the sheep or from the goats. ⁶And you shall keep it up until the fourteenth day of the same month. And the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it in the evening. ⁷And they shall take of the blood and strike it on the two side posts and upon the upper door post of the houses in which they shall eat it. ⁸And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roasted with fire, and unleavened bread. They shall eat it with bitter herbs. ⁹Do not eat of it raw, nor boiled at all with water, but roasted with fire — its head with its legs, and with the inner parts of it. ¹⁰And you shall let nothing of it remain until the morning. And that which remains of it until the morning you shall burn with fire.

¹¹And you shall eat of it this way, with your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand. And you shall eat it in a hurry. It is the LORD's passover. ¹²For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both man and beast. And I will execute judgment against all the princes of Egypt. I am the LORD. ¹³And the blood shall be a token to you upon the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you. And the plague shall not be upon you for a destruction when I smite the land of Egypt. ¹⁴And this day shall be a memorial unto you. And you shall keep it as a feast to the LORD throughout your generations. You shall keep it as a feast by a law forever. ¹⁵You shall eat unleavened bread seven days. Even the first day you shall put away leaven out of your houses. For whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel. ¹⁶And in the first day there shall be a holy gathering, and in the seventh day there shall be a holy gathering for you. No manner of work shall be done in them, except that which every man must eat — that only may be done by you. ¹⁷And you shall keep the feast of unleavened bread. For in this same day I have brought your armies out of the land of Egypt. Therefore you shall keep this day in your generations by a law forever. ¹⁸In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, you shall eat unleavened bread — until the twenty-first day of the month at evening. ¹⁹Seven days there shall be no leaven found in your houses — for whoever eats that which is leavened, even that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he is a stranger or born in the land. ²⁰You shall eat nothing leavened. In all your dwelling-places you shall eat unleavened bread.

²¹Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel and said unto them, Draw out and take a lamb for yourselves according to your families, and kill the passover. ²²And you shall take a bunch of hyssop [hiss'-op] and dip it in the blood that is in the bowl, and strike the lintel and the two side posts with the blood that is in the bowl. And none of you shall go out of the door of his house until the morning. ²³For the LORD will pass through to strike the Egyptians. And when He sees the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and will not allow the destroyer to come into your houses to strike you. ²⁴And you shall observe this thing for a law to you and to your sons forever. ²⁵And it shall come to pass, when you have come to the land which the LORD will give you, according as He has promised, that you shall keep this service. ²⁶And when your children shall say unto you, What do you mean by this service? — ²⁷you shall say, It is the sacrifice of the LORD's passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when He struck the Egyptians and delivered our houses. And the people bowed the head and worshipped. ²⁸And the children of Israel went away and did as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron — so they did.

²⁹And at midnight the LORD struck all the first-born in the land of Egypt, from the first-born of Pharaoh that sat on his throne unto the first-born of the captive that was in the dungeon — and all the first-born of cattle. ³⁰And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he and all his servants, and all the Egyptians. And there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was not a house where there was not one dead. ³¹And he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up! Get away from my people, both you and the children of Israel! And go serve the LORD, as you have said. ³²Also take your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and be gone. And bless me also. ³³And the Egyptians were urging the people, that they might send them out of the land in a hurry — for they said, We are all dead. ³⁴And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneading-troughs being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders. ³⁵And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses — and they borrowed jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and clothing from the Egyptians. ³⁶And the LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they loaned to them. And they spoiled the Egyptians.

⁴⁰Now the time that the children of Israel lived in Egypt was four hundred and thirty years. ⁴¹And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years — even the very same day — it came to pass that all the armies of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt. ⁴²It is a night to be much kept unto the LORD for bringing them out from the land of Egypt. This is that night of the LORD to be kept by all the children of Israel in their generations.

⁴³And the LORD said unto Moses and Aaron, This is the Law of the Passover. There shall be no stranger eat of it. ⁴⁴But every man's servant that is bought for money, when you have circumcised him, then he shall eat of it. ⁴⁵A foreigner and a hired servant shall not eat of it. ⁴⁶It shall be eaten in one house. You shall not carry any of the flesh abroad out of the house. Neither shall you break a bone of it. ⁴⁷All the congregation of Israel shall keep it. ⁴⁸And when a stranger shall stay with you, and desires to keep the Passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it. And he shall be as one that is born in the land. And no uncircumcised person shall eat of it. ⁴⁹There shall be one law to him that is home-born, and unto the stranger that lives among you. ⁵⁰So all the children of Israel did. Even as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did. ⁵¹And it came to pass the very same day, that the LORD did bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their armies.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ²Sanctify all the first-born unto Me, whatever opens the womb among the children of Israel, of man and of beast. It is Mine.

³And Moses said unto the people, Remember this day in which you came out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. For the LORD brought you out from this place by the strength of His hand. There shall be no leavened bread eaten. ⁴You came out this day in the month Ā'-bīb. ⁵And it shall be when the LORD shall bring you into the land of the Cā'-nāan-ītes, and the Hī'-tites, and the Ām'-ōr-ītes, and the Hī'-vītes, and the Jēb'-ū-sītes, which He swore unto your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, that you shall keep this service in this month. ⁶You shall eat unleavened bread seven days, and in the seventh day shall be a feast to the LORD. ⁷Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days. And there shall no leavened bread be seen with you, nor shall there be leaven seen with you in all your borders.

⁸And you shall show your son in that day, saying, This is because of that which the LORD did unto me when I came forth out of Egypt. ⁹And it shall be a sign to you upon your hand, and for a memorial between your eyes, that the LORD's law may be in your mouth. For the Lord has brought you out of Egypt with a strong hand. ¹⁰You shall therefore keep this law in its season from year to year.

¹¹And when the LORD shall bring you into the land of the Canaan-ites, as He swore unto you and to your fathers, and shall give it to you, ¹²you shall set apart unto the LORD all that opens the womb, and every firstling that comes of any animal which you have — the males shall be the LORD's. ¹³And every firstling of an ass you shall redeem with a lamb. And if you will not redeem it, then you shall break its neck. And all the firstborn of man among your children you shall redeem. ¹⁴And it shall be when your sons asks you in time to come, saying, What is this? you shall say unto him, The LORD brought us out of Egypt by the strength of His hand, from the house of bondage. ¹⁵And when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, the LORD killed all the first-born of the land of Egypt, both the first-born of man, and the first-born of animals. Therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all that opens the womb, which are males – but all the first-born of my children I redeem. ¹⁶And it shall be for a token upon your hand, and for frontlets between your eyes – for the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt by strength of hand.

¹⁷And it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, God did not lead them through the way of the land of the Phi-lis'-tines, although that was near. For God said, Lest the people repent when they see war, and they return to Egypt. ¹⁸But God led the people around, through the way of the wilderness of the Red Sea. And the children of Israel went up armed out of the land of Egypt. ¹⁹And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him – for he had strictly sworn the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and you shall carry my bones away from here with you. ²⁰And they took their journey from Sūc'-cōth and camped in Ē'-thām, in the edge of the wilderness. ²¹And the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the right away – and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light, to go by day and night. ²²He did not take away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people.

⁵And the king of Egypt was told that the people fled. And the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was turned against the people. And they said, Why have we done this, that we have let Israel go from serving us? ⁶And he made his chariot ready, and took his people with him. ⁷And he took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over every one of them. ⁸And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt. And he pursued after the children of Israel, and the children of Israel went out with a high hand. ⁹But the Egyptians pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army. And they overtook them camping by the sea, beside Pi-hā-hi'-rōth, before Bā'-āl-zē-phōn. ¹⁰And when Pharaoh drew near, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes. And, behold, the Egyptians marched after them. And they were very afraid. And the children of Israel cried out unto the LORD. ¹¹And they said unto Moses, Have you taken us away to die in the wilderness because there were no graves in Egypt? Why have you dealt this way with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt? ¹²Did we not tell you this word in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, so that we may serve the Egyptians? For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness. ¹³And Moses said to the people, Do not fear. Stand still and see the salvation of the LORD, which He will show you this day. For the Egyptians whom you have seen today, you shall never see them anymore. ¹⁴The LORD shall fight for you, and you shall hold your peace.

¹⁵And the LORD said unto Moses, Why do you cry unto Me? Speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward. ¹⁶But lift up your rod and stretch out your hand over the sea, and divide it. And the children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea. ¹⁷And behold! I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them. And I will get honor for Me upon Pharaoh, and upon all his army, upon his chariots and upon his horsemen. ¹⁸And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD when I have gotten honor for Me upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

¹⁹And the Angel of God, who went before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them. And the pillar of the cloud went from in front of their face and stood behind them. ²⁰And it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel. And it was a cloud and darkness, but it gave light by night to Israel, so that the one did not come near the other all night. ²¹And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea. And the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided. ²²And the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground. And the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand and on their left.

²³And the Egyptians pursued and went after them to the middle of the sea — all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen. ²⁴And in the morning watch it came to pass that the LORD looked to the army of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and of the cloud, and troubled the army of the Egyptians. ²⁵And He took off their chariot wheels, and made them go heavily, so that the Egyptians said, Let us flee from the face of Israel, for the LORD fights for them against the Egyptians. ²⁶And the LORD said to Moses, Stretch out your hand over the sea, so that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen. ²⁷And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea. And the sea returned to its strength when the morning appeared. And the Egyptians fled against it. And the LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the middle of the sea. ²⁸And the waters returned and covered the chariots and the horsemen, all the army of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them. There did not remain so much as one of them. ²⁹But the children of Israel walked upon dry land in the middle of the sea. And the waters were a wall to them on their right hand and on their left. ³⁰So the LORD saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians. And Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the seashore. ³¹And Israel saw that great work which the LORD did upon the Egyptians. And the people feared the LORD, and believed the LORD and His servant Moses.

¹Then the children of Israel and Moses sang this song unto the LORD, and spoke, saying,

I will sing unto the LORD, for He has triumphed gloriously — the horse and his rider He has thrown into the sea. ²The LORD is my strength and song, and He has become my salvation. He is my God, and I will prepare Him a habitation — my father's God, and I will exalt Him. ³The LORD is a Man of war — the LORD is His name. ⁴Pharaoh's chariots and his army He has thrown into the sea — his chosen captains also are drowned in the Red Sea. ⁵The depths have covered them — they sank into the bottom like a stone. ⁶Thy right hand, O LORD, has become glorious in power. Thy right hand, O LORD, has dashed the enemy in pieces. ⁷And in the greatness of Thy excellency Thou hast overthrown them that rose up against Thee. Thou didst send forth Thy wrath, consuming them like stubble. ⁸And with the blast of Thy nostrils the waters were gathered together; the floods stood upright like a heap; the depths were curdled in the heart of the sea. ⁹The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; my lust shall be satisfied upon them, I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them. ¹⁰Thou didst blow with Thy wind; the sea covered them. They sank like lead in the mighty waters. ¹¹Who is like Thee, O LORD, among the gods? Who is like Thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders? ¹²Thou didst stretch out Thy hand, the earth swallowed them. ¹³Thou in Thy mercy hast led forth the people which Thou hast redeemed. Thou hast guided them in Thy strength unto Thy holy habitation. ¹⁴The people shall hear and be afraid. Sorrow shall take hold on the people of Phī-lis'-tiā. ¹⁵Then the princes of Edom shall be amazed. Trembling shall take hold upon the mighty men of Mō'-āb. All the people of Canaan shall melt away. ¹⁶Fear and dread shall fall upon them. By the greatness of Thy arm they shall be as still as a stone, until Thy people pass over, O LORD; until the people which Thou hast purchased pass over. ¹⁷Thou shalt bring them and plant them in the mountain of Thy inheritance, in the place, O LORD, Thou hast made for Thee to dwell in — the Sanctuary, O LORD, which Thy hands have established. ¹⁸The LORD shall reign forever and ever. ¹⁹For the horse of Pharaoh went in with his chariots and with his horsemen into the sea, and the LORD brought again the waters of the sea upon them. But the children of Israel went on dry land in the middle of the sea.

²⁰And Mîr'-î-ăm the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a timbrel in her hand. And all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances. ²¹And Mîr'-î-ăm answered them, Sing unto the LORD, for He has triumphed gloriously. The horse and his rider He has thrown into the sea. ²²So Moses brought Israel from the Red Sea, and they went out into the wilderness of Shur. And they went three days in the wilderness, and found no water.

²³And when they came to Mâr'-ăh, they could not drink of the waters of Mâr'-ăh, because they were bitter. Therefore the name of it was called Mâr'-ăh. ²⁴And the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drink? ²⁵And he cried unto the LORD. And the LORD showed him a tree. And when he had cast it into the waters, the waters were made sweet. There he made a decree and a law for them, and there he proved them. ²⁶And he said, If you will carefully listen to the voice of the LORD your God, and will do that which is right in His sight, and will give ear to His commandments, and keep all His laws, I will put none of these diseases upon you, which I have brought upon the Egyptians — for I am the LORD who heals you. ²⁷And they came to Ē'-lîm, where there were twelve wells of water, and seventy palm trees. And they camped there by the waters.

¹And they took their journey from Ē'-lîm, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came into the wilderness of Sin, which is between Ē'-lîm and Sî'-nâi, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt. ²And the whole congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. ³And the children of Israel said unto them, O that we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh-pots, when we ate bread to the full — for you have brought us forth into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger. ⁴Then the LORD said to Moses, Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you. And the people shall go out and gather a certain amount every day, that I may prove them, whether they will walk in My law or not. ⁵And on the sixth day it shall come to pass that they shall prepare that which they bring in. And it shall be twice as much as they gather day by day. ⁶And Moses and Aaron said unto all the children of Israel, At evening, then you shall know that the LORD has brought you out from the land of Egypt. ⁷And in the morning, then you shall see the glory of the LORD. For He hears your murmurings against the LORD. And what are we, that you murmur against us? ⁸And Moses said, This shall come to pass when the LORD shall give you flesh to eat in the evening and bread to the full in the morning. For the LORD hears your murmurings which you murmur against Him. And what are we? Your murmurings are not against us, but against the LORD.

⁹And Moses spoke unto Aaron, Say unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, Come near before the LORD. For He has heard your murmurings. ¹⁰And as Aaron spoke unto the whole congregation of the children of Israel, they looked toward the wilderness. And behold! The glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud. ¹¹And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying, ¹²I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel. Speak unto them, saying, You shall eat flesh at evening, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread. And you shall know that I am the LORD your God. ¹³And at evening the quails came up and covered the camp. And in the morning the dew lay round about the host. ¹⁴And when the layer of dew had gone up, behold, there was a small round thing upon the face of the wilderness, small as the hoar frost upon the ground. ¹⁵And when the children of Israel saw it, they said, What is that? For they did not know what it was. And Moses said unto them, This is the bread which the LORD has given you to eat. ¹⁶This is the thing which the LORD has commanded: Each man gather of it according to his eating, an ō'-mēr for every man, according to the number of your souls. Each one shall take for those who are in his camp. ¹⁷And the children of Israel did so, and gathered, some more, and some less. ¹⁸And when they measured it with an ō'-mēr, he that gathered much had nothing over, and he that gathered little lacked nothing. They gathered each one according to his eating.

¹⁹And Moses said, Let no man leave of it until the morning. ²⁰Nevertheless they did not listen to Moses, but some of them left of it until the morning. And it became rotten with worms, and stank. And Moses was angry with them. ²¹And they gathered it every morning, each man according to his eating. And when the sun became hot, it melted.

²²And it came to pass, on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two ō'-mērs for one man. And all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses. ²³And he said to them, This is that which the LORD has said, Tomorrow is the rest of the holy sabbath unto the LORD. Bake what you will bake today, and boil what you will boil. And that which remains over, lay up for you to be kept until the morning. ²⁴And they laid it up until the morning, as Moses said. And it did not stink, neither was there any worm in it. ²⁵And Moses said, Eat that today. For today is a sabbath unto the LORD. Today you shall not find it in the field. ²⁶Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day is the sabbath. In it there shall be none.

²⁷And some of the people went out on the seventh day in order to gather. And they did not find any. ²⁸And the LORD said to Moses, How long do you refuse to keep My commandments and My laws? ²⁹See, because the LORD has given you the sabbath, therefore He gives you the bread of two days on the sixth day. Every man stay in his place. Let no man go out of his place on the seventh day. ³⁰So the people rested on the seventh day. ³¹And the house of Israel called the name of it Manna. And it was like cōr-ĭ-ān'-dēr seed, white. And the taste of it was like wafers made with honey. ³²And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commanded: Fill an ō'-mēr of it to be kept for your generations, so that you may see the bread with which I have fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt. ³³And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a pot and put an ō'-mēr full of manna in it, and lay it up before the LORD, to be kept for your generations. ³⁴As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the Tēst'-ĭ-mō-ny, to be kept. ³⁵And the children of Israel ate manna forty years, until they came to a land in which people lived. They ate manna until they came into the borders of the land of Canaan. ³⁶(Now an ō'-mēr is the tenth part of an ē'-phāh.)

¹And all the congregation of the children of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, after their journey, according to the commandment of the Lord, and pitched in Rēph'-ĭ-dīm. And there was no water for the people to drink. ²Therefore the people scolded Moses and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said to them, Why do you scold me? Why do you tempt the LORD? ³And the people thirsted there for water. And the people murmured against Moses and said, Why have you brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst? ⁴And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, What shall I do unto this people? They are almost ready to stone me. ⁵And the LORD said unto Moses, Go on in front of the people, and take with you the elders of Israel. And take your rod with which you struck the river, in your hand, and go. ⁶Behold, I will stand before you there upon the rock in Hōr'-ēb. And you shall smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, so that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel. ⁷And he called the name of the place Mās'-sāh, and Mēr'-ĭ-bāh, because of the scolding of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, Is the LORD among us or not?

⁸Then Ām'-ā-lēk came and fought with Israel in Rēph'-ĭ-dīm. ⁹And Moses said to Joshua, Choose us out men, and go out to fight with Ām'-ā-lēk. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of God in my hand. ¹⁰So Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and fought with Ām'-ā-lēk. And Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill. ¹¹And when Moses held up his hand, Israel prevailed. And when he let down his hand, Ām'-ă-lĕk prevailed. ¹²But Moses' hands were heavy. And they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it. And Aaron and Hur held up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side. And his hands were steady until the going down of the sun. ¹³And Joshua defeated Ām'-ă-lĕk and its people with the edge of the sword. ¹⁴And the LORD said unto Moses, Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua. For I will utterly put out the remembrance of Ām'-ă-lĕk from under heaven. ¹⁵And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it Jĕ-hó'-vāh-nīs'-sī. ¹⁶For he said, Because the LORD has sworn that the LORD will have war with Ām'-ă-lĕk from generation to generation.

¹When Jĕth'-rō, the priest of Mīd'-ī-ān, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that God had done for Moses and for Israel his people, that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt, ²then Jĕth'-rō, Moses' father-in-law, took Zip'-pō-rāh Moses' wife, after he had sent her back, ³and her two sons — of which the name of the one was Gĕr'-shōm (for he said, I have been an alien in a strange land), ⁴and the name of the other was Ēl-ī-ē'-zĕr (for the God of my father, my help, delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh.) ⁵And Jĕth'-rō, Moses' father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife unto Moses in the wilderness, where he camped at the mount of God. ⁶And he said to Moses, I, your father-in-law Jĕth'-rō, have come unto you, and your wife and her two sons with her. ⁷And Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and bowed down to him, and kissed him. And they asked each other of their welfare. And they came into the tent. ⁸And Moses told his father-in-law all that the LORD had done unto Pharaoh and the Egyptians for Israel's sake, all the travail that had come upon them by the way, and how the LORD delivered them. ⁹And Jĕth'-rō rejoiced for all the goodness which the LORD had done to Israel, whom He had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians. ¹⁰And Jĕth'-rō said, Blessed be the LORD, who has delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians and out of the hand of Pharaoh, and who has delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians. ¹¹Now I know that the LORD is greater than all gods; for in the thing in which they dealt proudly, He was above them. ¹²And Jĕth'-rō, Moses' father-in-law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God. And Aaron came, and all the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law before God.

¹³And on the next day it came to pass that Moses sat to judge the people. And the people stood by Moses from the morning unto the evening. ¹⁴And when Moses' father-in-law saw all that he did to the people, he said, What is this thing which you do to the people? Why do you sit alone by yourself, and all the people stand by you from morning unto evening? ¹⁵And Moses said unto his father-in-law, Because the people come unto me to inquire of God. ¹⁶When they have a matter, they come to me. And I judge between one and another, and I make them know the statutes of God and His laws. ¹⁷And Moses' father-in-law said unto him, The thing that you do is not good. ¹⁸You will surely wear away, both you and this people that is with you. For this thing is too heavy for you — you are not able to perform it alone. ¹⁹Listen now to my voice; I will give you counsel, and God will be with you. You be for the people toward God, that you may bring the causes unto God. ²⁰And you shall teach them ordinances and laws, and shall show them the way in which they must walk, and the work that they must do. ²¹Moreover you shall provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness — and place such over them to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. ²²And let them judge the people at all times. And it shall be, that every great matter they shall bring unto you, but every small matter they shall judge. So it shall be easier for you, and they shall bear with you. ²³If you will do this thing, and God command you, then you shall be able to endure, and all this people shall also go to their place in peace. ²⁴So Moses listened to the voice of his father-in-law, and did all that he had said. ²⁵And Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. ²⁶And they judged the people at all times. The hard causes they brought to Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves. ²⁷And Moses let his father-in-law depart. And he went his way into his own land.

¹In the third month when the children of Israel had gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day they came into the wilderness of Sī'-naī. ²For they had departed from Rēph'-ī-dīm, and had come to the desert of Sī'-naī, and had pitched in the wilderness. And Israel camped there in front of the mount. ³And Moses went up unto God, and the LORD called unto him out of the mountain, saying, So you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel: ⁴You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you unto Myself. ⁵Now therefore, if you will obey My voice indeed, and keep My covenant, then you shall be a peculiar treasure unto Me above all people — for all the earth is Mine. ⁶And you shall be unto Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation. These are the words which you shall speak to the children of Israel.

before their faces all these words which the LORD commanded him. And all the people answered together and said, All that the LORD has spoken we will do. And Moses returned the words of the people unto the LORD. ⁹And the LORD said unto Moses, Lo, I come unto you in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with you, and believe you forever. And Moses told the words of the people unto the LORD. ¹⁰And the LORD said unto Moses, Go to the people and sanctify them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their clothes. ¹¹And be ready for the third day. For the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people upon Mount Sī'-naī. ¹²And you shall set bounds to the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves. Do not go up into the mountain, or touch the border of it. Whoever touches the mountain shall be surely put to death. ¹³There shall not be a hand to touch it, but that he shall surely be stoned or hot through. Whether it is beast or man, it shall not live. When the trumpet sounds long, they shall come up to the mountain.

¹⁴And Moses went down from the mountain to the people, and sanctified the people. And they washed their clothes. ¹⁵And he said to the people, Be ready for the third day. Do not approach a woman. ¹⁶And it came to pass on the third day in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mountain. And the voice of the trumpet was exceeding loud, so that all the people that were in the camp trembled. ¹⁷And Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet with God. And they stood at the lower part of the mountain. ¹⁸And Mount Sī'-naī was smoking, all of it, because the LORD came down upon it in fire. And the smoke of it went up like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked greatly. ¹⁹And when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and became louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him by a voice. ²⁰And the LORD came down upon Mount Sinai, on the top of the mountain. And the LORD called Moses up to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up. ²¹And the LORD said to Moses, Go down. Command the people, lest they break through unto the LORD to gaze, and many of them perish. ²²And let the priests also, who come near to the LORD, sanctify themselves, lest the LORD break forth upon them. ²³And Moses said unto the LORD, The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai. For Thou didst command us saying, Set bounds around the mountain, and sanctify it. ²⁴And the LORD said unto him, Away! You go down, and you shall come up, you and Aaron with you. But do not let the priests and the people break through to come up unto the LORD, lest He break forth upon them. ²⁵So Moses went down unto the people, and spoke unto them.

¹And God spoke all these words, saying, ²I am the LORD your God, who has brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

³You shall have no other gods before Me.

⁴You shall not make unto yourselves any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. ⁵You shall not bow yourself down to them, nor serve them. For I the LORD your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of those that hate me, ⁶and showing mercy unto thousands of those that love Me and keep My commandments.

⁸Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. ⁹Six days you shall labor and do all your work. ¹⁰But the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD your God. In it you shall not do any work, you nor your son, nor your daughter, your man-servant, nor your maid-servant, nor your cattle, nor your stranger that is within your gates. ¹¹For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.

¹²Honor your father and your mother, so that your days may be long upon the land which the LORD your God gives you.

¹³You shall not kill.

¹⁴You shall not commit adultery.

¹⁵You shall not steal.

¹⁶You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

¹⁸And all the people saw the thunders, and the lightnings, and the noise of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking. And when the people saw it, they moved, and stood afar off. ¹⁹And they said to Moses, You speak with us, and we will hear. But let not God speak with us, lest we die. ²⁰And Moses said unto the people, Do not fear, for God has come to prove you, and so that His fear may be before your faces, so that you may not sin. ²¹And the people stood afar off, and Moses drew near unto the thick darkness where God was. ²²And the LORD said unto Moses, So you shall say to the children of Israel, You have seen that I have talked with you from Heaven. ²³You shall not make with Me gods of silver, neither shall you make unto you gods of gold.

²⁴You shall make an altar of earth to Me, and shall sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and your peace offerings, your sheep and your oxen. In all places where I record My name I will come unto you, and I will bless you. ²⁵And if you will make Me an altar of stone, you shall not build it of cut stone. For if you lift up your tool upon it, you have defiled it. ²⁶Neither shall you go up by steps unto My altar, that your nakedness be not uncovered on it.

¹Now these are the judgments which you shall set before them. ²If you buy a Hebrew servant, he shall serve six years. And in the seventh he shall go out free for nothing. ³If he came in by himself, he shall go out by himself. If he was married, then his wife shall go out with him. ⁴If his master has given him a wife, and she has borne him sons or daughters, the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out by himself. ⁵And if the servant shall plainly say, I love my master, my wife, and my children — I do not want to go out free: ⁶then his master shall bring him to the judges. He shall also bring him to the door or to the door-post. And his master shall bore his ear through with an awl, and he shall serve him forever.

⁷And if a man sells his daughter to be a maid-servant, she shall not go out as the men-servants do. ⁸If she does not please her master, who has betrothed her to himself, then he shall let her be redeemed. He shall have no power to sell her to a strange nation, since he has dealt deceitfully with her. ⁹And if he has betrothed her to his son, he shall deal with her as with daughters. ¹⁰If he takes himself another wife, her food, her clothing, and her duty of marriage shall not be lessened. ¹¹And if he does not do these three to her, then she shall go out free without money.

¹²He that strikes a man, so that he dies, shall be surely put to death. ¹³And if a man does not lie in wait, but God delivers him into his hand, then I will appoint you a place where he shall flee. ¹⁴But if a man comes presumptuously upon his neighbor to slay him with guile, you shall take him from My altar, so that he may die. ¹⁵And he that strikes his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.

¹⁶And he that steals a man and sells him, or if he is found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death. ¹⁷And he that curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.

¹⁸And if men strive together, and one strikes another with a stone, or with his fist, and he does not die, but keeps his bed: ¹⁹if he rises again and walks abroad upon his staff, then he that struck him shall be set free — only he shall pay for the loss of his time, and shall cause him to be completely healed.

²²If men strive and hurt a woman with child, so that her child comes out, and yet no harm follow, he shall surely be punished, according as the woman's husband will lay upon him. And he shall pay as the judges say. ²³And if any harm follow, then you shall give life for life, ²⁴eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, ²⁵burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

²⁸If an ox gores a man or woman so that they die, then the ox shall surely be stoned, and his flesh shall not be eaten. But the owner of the ox shall be set free. ²⁹But if the ox was apt to push with his horn in time past, and his owner has been told, and he has not kept him in, but that he has killed a man or a woman — the ox shall be stoned, and his owner also shall be put to death. ³⁰If there is laid on him a sum of money, then he shall give for the ransom of his life whatever is laid upon him. ³¹Whether he has gored a son, or has gored a daughter, according to this judgment it shall be done unto him. ³²If the ox shall gore a man-servant or a maid-servant, he shall give to their master thirty shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.

³⁵And if one man's ox hurts another's, so that it dies, then they shall sell the live ox, and divide the money of it. And they shall also divide the dead ox. ³⁶Or if it is known that the ox has been apt to gore in time past, and his owner has not kept him in, he shall surely pay ox for ox. And the dead shall be his own.

¹If a man shall steal an ox, or a sheep, and kill it or sell it, he shall restore five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep.

²If a thief is found breaking up, and is struck so that he dies, no blood shall be shed for him. ³If the sun is risen upon him, blood is due for him. He should repay in full. If he has nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft. ⁴If the theft is certainly found in his hand alive, whether it is an ox, or an ass, or a sheep, he shall restore double.

⁶If fire breaks out and catches in thorns, so that the stacks of grain, or the standing grain, or the field, is burned up, he who kindled the fire shall surely repay in full.

⁷If a man shall deliver to his neighbor money or stuff to keep, and it is stolen out of the man's house — if the thief is found, let him pay double. ⁸If the thief is not found, then the master of the house shall be brought to the judges, to see whether he has put his hand to his neighbor's goods. ⁹For every case of trespass — for ox, for ass, for sheep, for clothing, for any kind of lost thing, which another claims to be his — the cause of both parties shall come before the judges. And whom the judges shall condemn, he shall pay double unto his neighbor. ¹⁰If a man delivers to his neighbor an ass, or an ox, or a sheep, or any animal to keep, and it dies, or is hurt, or driven away, no man seeing it — ¹¹*then* shall an oath of the LORD be between them both, that he has not put his hand to his neighbor's goods. And the owner of it shall accept it, and he shall not make it good. ¹²And if it is stolen from him, he shall fully repay the owner of it. ¹³If it is torn in pieces, let him bring it for witness, and he shall not make good that which was torn.

¹⁴And if a man borrows from his neighbor, and it is hurt, or dies, when the owner of it is not with it, he shall surely make it good. ¹⁵But if the owner of it is with it, he shall not make it good. If it is something hired, it came for its hire.

¹⁶And if a man lures a maid who is not promised, and lies with her, he shall surely endow her to be his wife. ¹⁷If her father utterly refuses to give her to him, he shall pay money according to the dowry of virgins.

¹⁸You shall not allow a witch to live.

¹⁹Whoever lies with an animal shall surely be put to death.

²⁰He who sacrifices to any god, except unto the LORD only, he shall be utterly destroyed.

²¹You shall neither vex a stranger nor oppress him, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.

²²You shall not afflict any widow or fatherless child. ²³If you afflict them in any way, and they cry at all unto Me, I will surely hear their cry. ²⁴And My wrath shall become hot, and I will kill you with the sword, and your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.

²⁵If you lend money to any of My people that is poor beside you, you shall not be to him as a money-lender, neither shall you lay upon him interest. ²⁶If you at all take your neighbor's clothing as a pledge, you shall deliver it to him by the time the sun goes down. ²⁷For that is his covering only, it is his clothing for his skin — in what shall he sleep? And when he cries unto Me, I will hear, for I am gracious.

²⁸You shall not revile the judges, nor curse the ruler of your people.

²⁹You shall not delay to offer the first of your ripe fruits and of your sap. You shall give the first-born of your sons to Me. ³⁰Likewise you shall do with your oxen and with your sheep — it shall be with its dam seven days. On the eighth day you shall give it to Me.

³¹And you shall be holy men to Me. Neither shall you eat flesh that is torn by beasts in the field. You shall throw it to the dogs.

⁴If you meet your enemy's ox or his ass going astray, you shall surely bring it back to him again. ⁵If you see the ass of him who hates you lying under his burden, and would hold back from helping him, you shall surely help him. ⁶You shall not wrest the judgment of your poor in his cause. ⁷Keep far from a false matter, and do not kill the innocent and righteous. For I will not justify the wicked. ⁸And you shall take no gift, for the gift blinds the wise and perverts the words of the righteous.

⁹Also you shall not oppress a stranger. For you know the heart of a stranger, since you were strangers in the land of Egypt. ¹⁰And you shall sow your land six years, and shall gather in the fruits of it. ¹¹But the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie still, so that the poor of your people may eat. And what they leave, the animals of the field shall eat. In the same way you shall deal with your vineyard and with your olive-yard. ¹²You shall do your work six days, and on the seventh day you shall rest — so that your ox and your ass may rest, and the son of your hand-maid, and the stranger, may be refreshed. ¹³And be watchful in all things that I have said unto you. And make no mention of the name of other gods, neither let it be heard out of your mouth. ¹⁴You shall keep a feast unto Me three times in the year. ¹⁵You shall keep the feast of unleavened bread. You shall eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded you, in the time appointed of the month Ā'-bīb — for in it you came out of Egypt — and no one shall appear before Me empty. ¹⁶And the feast of harvest, the first-fruits of your labors, which you have sown in the field — and the feast of ingathering, in the end of the year, when you have gathered in your labors out of the field. ¹⁷Three times in the year all your males shall appear before the Lord GOD. ¹⁸You shall not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leavened bread, neither shall the fat of My sacrifice remain until the morning. ¹⁹The first of the first-fruits of your land you shall bring into the house of the LORD your God. You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk.

²⁰Behold, I send an Angel before you, to keep you in the way, and to bring you in the way, and to bring you to the place which I have prepared. ²¹Beware of Him, and obey His voice. Do not provoke Him, for He will not pardon your transgressions. For My name is in Him. ²²But if you shall indeed obey His voice, and do all that I speak, then I will be an enemy unto your enemies, and an adversary unto your adversaries. ²³For My Angel shall go before you and bring you in unto the Ām'-ōr-ites, and the Hīt'-tites, and the Pē-riz'-zites, and the Cā'-nāan-ites, and the Hī'-vites, and the Jēb'-ū-sites. And I will cut them off. ²⁴You shall not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do after their works. But you shall utterly overthrow them, and quite break down their images. ²⁵And you shall serve the LORD your God, and He shall bless your bread and your water. And I will take sickness away from the midst of you.

²⁶Nothing shall cast their young, nor be barren in your land. The number of your days I will fulfill. ²⁷I will send My fear before you, and will destroy all the people to whom you shall come. And I will make all your enemies turn their backs to you. ²⁸And I will send hornets before you, which shall drive out the Hī'-vite, the Cā'-nāan-ite, and the Hīt'-tite, before you. ²⁹I will not drive them out from before you in one year, lest the land become a waste, and the beast of the field multiply against you. ³⁰By little and little I will drive them out from before you, until you have increased, and inherit the land. ³¹And I will stretch your bounds from the Red Sea even unto the Sea of the Philistines, and from the desert to the river. For I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand, and you shall drive them out before you. ³²You shall make no covenant with them or with their gods. ³³They shall not dwell in your land lest they make you sin against Me. For if you serve their gods, it surely will be a snare to you.

¹And He said to Moses, Come up unto the LORD, you and Aaron, Nā'-dāb and Ā-bī'-hū, and seventy of the elders of Israel. And you worship afar off. ²And Moses alone shall come near the LORD, but they shall not come near. Neither shall the people go up with him.

said, All the words which the LORD has said, we will do. ⁴And Moses wrote all the words of the LORD, and rose up early in the morning, and built an altar under the hill and twelve pillars according to the twelve tribes of Israel. ⁵And he sent young men of the children of Israel who offered burnt offerings, and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen unto the LORD. ⁶And Moses took half of the blood, and put it in basins, and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar. ⁷And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the ears of the people. And they said, All that the LORD has said we will do, and be obedient. ⁸And Moses took the blood and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold the blood of the covenant, which the LORD has made with you concerning all these words. ⁹Then Moses went up, and Aaron, Nā'-dāb, and Ā-bī'-hū, and seventy of the elders of Israel. ¹⁰And they saw the God of Israel. And there was under His feet as it were a paved work of a sapphire [sāf-fire'] stone, and as it were the body of heaven in clearness. ¹¹And upon the nobles of the children of Israel he did not lay his hands. Also they saw God, and ate and drank.

¹²And the LORD said unto Moses, Come up to Me in the mountain, and be there. And I will give you tablets of stone, and a law, and commandments which I have written, so that you may teach them. ¹³And Moses rose up, and his minister Jōsh'-ū-ā. And Moses went up into the mountain of God. ¹⁴And he said unto the elders, You stay here for us until we come again to you. And behold, Aaron and Hur are with you. If any man has any matters to do, let him come to them. ¹⁵And Moses went up into the mountain, and a cloud covered the mountain. ¹⁶And the glory of the LORD abode upon Mount Sī'-nāi, and the cloud covered it six days. And the seventh day He called to Moses out of the midst of the cloud. ¹⁷And the sight of the glory of the LORD was like devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the eyes of the children of Israel. ¹⁸And Moses went into the midst of the cloud, and went up into the mountain. And Moses was in the mountain forty days and forty nights.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ²Speak to the children of Israel that they bring Me an offering. You shall take an offering from every man that gives it willingly with his heart. ³And this is the offering which you shall take of them: gold, and silver, and brass, ⁴and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair, ⁵and rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and ā-cā'-ciā wood, ⁶oil for the light, spices for anointing oil and for sweet incense, ⁷onyx stones, and stones to be set in the ephod and in the breastplate. ⁸And let them make Me a sanctuary, so that I may dwell among them. ⁹According to all that I show you, after the pattern of the tabernacle, and the pattern of all the instruments of it, even so you shall make it.

¹⁰And they shall make an ark of ă-că'-ciă wood. Two and a half cubits shall be the length of it, and a cubit and a half the breadth of it, and a cubit and a half the height of it. ¹¹And you shall overlay it with pure gold. You shall overlay it within and without, and shall make upon it a crown of gold round about. ¹²And you shall cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in the four corners of it. And two rings shall be in the one side of it, and two rings in the other side of it. ¹³And you shall make staves of ă-că'-ciă wood, and overlay them with gold. ¹⁴And you shall put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, so that the ark may be carried with them. ¹⁵And the staves shall be in the rings of the ark. They shall not be taken from it. ¹⁶And you shall put into the ark the testimony which I shall give you. ¹⁷And you shall make a mercy-seat of pure gold. Two and a half cubits shall be the length of it, and a cubit and a half the breadth of it. ¹⁸And you shall make two chěr'-û-bîms of gold; of beaten work you shall make them, in the two ends of the mercy-seat. ¹⁹And make one chěr'-ûb on the one end, and the other chěr'-ûb on the other end. From the mercy-seat you shall make the chěr'-û-bîms, on the two ends of it. ²⁰And the chěr'-û-bîms shall stretch forth their wings on high, covering the mercy-seat with their wings, and their faces shall look one to another; toward the mercy-seat shall the chěr'-û-bîms be. ²¹And you shall put the mercy-seat above, upon the ark. And you shall put the testimony that I shall give you, in the ark. ²²And I will meet with you there, and I will talk with you from above the mercy-seat, from between the two chěr'-û-bîms which are upon the ark of the testimony, of all things which I will give you in commandment to the children of Israel.

²³You shall also make a table of ă-că'-ciă wood. Two cubits shall be the length of it, and a cubit the breadth of it. And a cubit and a half shall be its height. ²⁴And you shall overlay it with pure gold, and make to this a crown of gold round about. ²⁵And you shall make unto it a border of a hand's breadth round about. And you shall make a golden crown to the border of it, round about. ²⁶And you shall make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings in the four corners that are on the four feet of it. ²⁷The rings shall be adjoining the border as places for the staves to carry the table. ²⁸And you shall make the staves of ă-că'-ciă wood and overlay them with gold, so that the table may be carried with them. ²⁹And you shall make the dishes of it, and spoons of it, and covers of it, and bowls of it, and pitchers of it. You shall make them of pure gold. ³⁰And you shall set upon the table showbread before Me always.

³¹And you shall make a lampstand of pure gold. The lampstand shall be made of beaten work — its shaft, and its branches, its bowls, its knobs, and its blossoms, shall be of the same. ³²And six branches shall come out of the sides of it — three branches of the lampstand out of the one side, and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side. ³³Three bowls shall be made like almonds, with a knob and a blossom in one branch; and three bowls shall be made like almonds in the other branch, with a knob and a blossom. So in the six branches that come out of the lampstand. ³⁴And in the lampstand shall be four bowls made like almonds, with their knobs and their blossoms. ³⁵And there shall be a knob under two branches of the same, and a knob under two branches of the same, and a knob under two branches of the same, according to the six branches that proceed out of the lampstand. ³⁶Their knobs and their branches shall be of the same — all of it shall be one beaten work of pure gold. ³⁷And you shall make the seven lamps of it, and they shall light the lamps of it, so that they may give light over the face of it. ³⁸And the tongs of it, and its snuff-dishes, shall be of pure gold. ³⁹He shall make it of a talent of pure gold, with all these vessels. ⁴⁰And look that you make them after their pattern, which was shown you in the mountain.

¹Moreover you shall make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet. You shall make them with chēr'-ū-bīms of the work of a cunning workman. ²The length of one curtain shall be twenty-eight cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits. And every one of the curtains shall have one measure. ³The five curtains shall be coupled together to one another. And the other five curtains shall be coupled to one another. ⁴And you shall make loops of blue upon the edge of the one curtain at the edge of the set. And likewise you shall do in the border of the curtain that is outermost in the second set. ⁵You shall make fifty loops in the one curtain, and you shall make fifty loops in the edge of the curtain that is in the coupling of the second, so that the loops may take hold of one another. ⁶You shall make fifty clasps of gold, and couple the curtains together with the clasps. And it shall be one tabernacle.

⁷And you shall make curtains of goats' hair to be a covering upon the tabernacle. You shall make eleven curtains. ⁸The length of one curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits. And the eleven curtains shall be all of one measure. ⁹And you shall couple five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves, and shall double the sixth curtain in the forefront of the tabernacle. ¹⁰And you shall make fifty loops on the edge of one curtain that is outermost in the coupling, and fifty loops in the edge of the curtain which couples the second. ¹¹And you shall make fifty clasps of brass, and put the clasps into the loops, and couple the tent together, so that it may be one. ¹²And the rest that remains of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remains, shall hang over the backside of the tabernacle. ¹³And a cubit on the one side, and a cubit on the other side of that which remains in the length of the curtains of the tent, it shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle, on this side and on that side, to cover it. ¹⁴And you shall make a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering above of badgers' skins.

¹⁵And you shall make boards for the tabernacle of ā-cā'-ciā wood standing up. ¹⁶Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and a cubit and a half shall be the breadth of one board. ¹⁷*There shall be two pins* in one board, set in order against one another. So you shall make for all the boards of the tabernacle. ¹⁸And you shall make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards on the south side southward. ¹⁹And you shall make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards — two sockets under one board for its two pins, and two sockets under another board for its two pins. ²⁰And for the second side of the tabernacle on the north side there shall be twenty boards, ²¹and their forty sockets of silver, two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board. ²²And for the sides of the tabernacle westward you shall make six boards. ²³And you shall make two boards for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides. ²⁴And they shall be coupled together beneath, and they shall be coupled together above the head of it unto one ring. So it shall be for them both. They shall be for the two corners. ²⁵And they shall be eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets — two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

²⁶And you shall make bars of ā-cā'-ciā wood, five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle, ²⁷and five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle — and five bars for the side of the tabernacle, for the two sides westward. ²⁸And the middle bar in the midst of the boards shall reach from end to end. ²⁹And you shall overlay the boards with gold, and make their rings of gold for places for the bars. And you shall overlay the bars with gold. ³⁰And you shall rear up the tabernacle according to the pattern of it which was shown you in the mountain.

³³And you shall hang up the veil under the clasps, that you may bring the ark of the testimony in there within the veil. And the veil shall divide unto you between the holy place and the most holy. ³⁴And you shall put the mercy-seat upon the ark of the testimony in the most holy place. ³⁵And you shall set the table outside the veil, and the lampstand over against the table on the side of the tabernacle toward the south. And you shall put the table on the north side. ³⁶And you shall make a hanging for the door of the tent, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, worked with needlework. ³⁷And you shall make five pillars of ā-cā'-ciā wood for the hanging, and overlay them with gold — their hooks shall be of gold. And you shall cast five sockets of brass for them.

¹And you shall make an altar of ā-cā'-ciā wood, five cubits long and five cubits broad. The altar shall be square. And the height of it shall be three cubits. ²And you shall make the horns of it upon the four corners of it. Its horns shall be of the same, and you shall overlay it with brass. ³And you shall make its pans to receive its ashes, and its shovels, and its basins, and its flesh-hooks, and its fire-pans. All the vessels of it you shall make of brass. ⁴And you shall make for it a grate of network of brass. And upon the net you shall make four brass rings in the four corners of it. ⁵And you shall put it under the compass of the altar beneath, so that the net may be even to the midst of the altar. ⁶And you shall make staves for the altar, staves of ā-cā'-ciā wood, and overlay them with brass. ⁷And the staves shall be put into the rings, and the staves shall be upon the two sides of the altar, to carry it. ⁸You shall make it hollow with boards; as it was shown you in the mountain, so shall they make it.

¹²And for the breadth of the court on the west side shall be hangings of fifty cubits. Their pillars shall be ten, and their sockets ten. ¹³And the breadth of the court on the east side eastward shall be fifty cubits. ¹⁴The hangings of one side shall be fifteen cubits. Their pillars shall be three, and their sockets three. ¹⁵And on the other side shall be hangings of fifteen cubits. Their pillars shall be three, and their sockets three.

¹⁸The length of the court shall be a hundred cubits, and the breadth fifty cubits everywhere, and the height five cubits of fine twined linen, and their sockets of brass. ¹⁹All the vessels of the tabernacle in all the service of it, and all the pins of it, and all the pins of the court, shall be of brass.

²⁰And you shall command the children of Israel that they bring you pure olive oil beaten for the light, to cause the lamp to burn always. ²¹In the tabernacle of the congregation, outside the veil which is before the testimony, Aaron and his sons shall order it from evening to morning before the LORD. It shall be a statute forever unto their generations on behalf of the children of Israel.

¹And you take unto you Aaron your brother, and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel, so that he may minister unto Me in the priest's office — Aaron, Nā'-dāb and Ā-bī'-hū, Ēl-ē-ā'-zār and Īth'-ā-mār, Aaron's sons. ²And you shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother, for glory and for beauty. ³And you shall speak unto all who are wisehearted, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they make Aaron's garments to consecrate him — so that he may minister unto Me in the priest's office. ⁴And these are the garments which they shall make: a breast-plate, and an ē'-phöd, and a robe, and an embroidered coat, a miter, and a girdle. And they shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother, and his sons, so that he may minister unto Me in the priest's office. ⁵And they shall take gold, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen.

¹³And you shall make settings of gold, ¹⁴and two chains of pure gold at the ends. You shall make them of woven work, and fasten the woven chains to the settings.

²²And you shall make chains upon the breast-plate at the ends, of woven work of pure gold. ²³And you shall make upon the breast-plate two rings of gold, and shall put the two rings on the two ends of the breast-plate. ²⁴And you shall put the two woven chains of gold in the two rings which are on the ends of the breast-plate. ²⁵And the other two ends of the two woven chains you shall fasten in the two settings, and put them on the shoulder-pieces of the ē'-phōd before it.

²⁶And you shall make two rings of gold, and you shall put them upon the two ends of the breast-plate in the border of it, which is in the side of the ē'-phōd inward. ²⁷And you shall make two other rings of gold, and shall put them on the two sides of the ē'-phōd underneath, toward the front of it, over against the other coupling of it, above the embroidered girdle of the ē'-phōd. ²⁸And they shall bind the breast-plate by the rings of it unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it may be above the embroidered girdle of the ephod, and so that the breast-plate may not be loosed from the ephod. ²⁹And Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel in the breast-plate of judgment upon his heart, when he goes in unto the holy place, for a memorial before the LORD continually.

³⁰And you shall put in the breast-plate of judgment the Ū'-rim and the Thūm'-mim. And they shall be upon Aaron's heart, when he goes in before the LORD. And Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel upon his heart before the LORD continually. ³¹And you shall make the robe of the ephod all of blue. ³²And there shall be a hole in the top of it, in the midst of it. It shall have a binding of woven work round about the hole of it, as it were the hole of a coat of mail, so that it may not be torn. ³³And upon the hem of it you shall make pōme'-grān-ātes of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, round about the hem of it — and bells of gold between them round about. ³⁴*There shall be* a golden bell and a pōme'-grān-āte, a golden bell and a pōme'- grān-āte, upon the hem of the robe all around. ³⁵And it shall be on Aaron to serve. And his sound shall be heard when he goes in to the holy place before the LORD, and when he comes out, so that he will not die.

³⁶And you shall make a plate of pure gold, and carve on it, like the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD. ³⁷And you shall put it on a blue lace, so that it may be on the miter; on the front of the miter it shall be. ³⁸And it shall be on Aaron's forehead, so that Aaron may bear the iniquity of the holy things which the children of Israel shall hallow in all their holy gifts. And it shall always be on his forehead, so that they may be accepted before the LORD.

⁴⁰And you shall make coats for Aaron's sons, and you shall make for them girdles, and bonnets you shall make for them, for glory and for beauty. ⁴¹And you shall put them upon Aaron your brother, and his sons with him. And you shall anoint them, and consecrate them, and sanctify them, so that they may minister unto Me in the priest's office.

⁴²And you shall make them linen breeches to cover their nakedness — from the loins even to the thighs they shall reach. ⁴³And they shall be upon Aaron, and upon his sons, when they come in unto the tabernacle of the congregation, or when they come near the altar to minister in the holy place — so that they do not bear iniquity, and die. It shall be a statute forever unto him and his seed after him.

¹And this is the thing that you shall do to them, to hallow them to minister unto Me in the priest's office. Take one young bull and two rams without blemish, ²and unleavened bread, and cakes unleavened mixed with oil, and wafers unleavened anointed with oil. You shall make them of wheat flour. ³And you shall put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bull and the two rams. ⁴And you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall wash them with water. ⁵And you shall take the garments, and put the coat upon Aaron, and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breast-plate, and gird him with the embroidered girdle of the ephod. ⁶And you shall put the miter upon his head, and put the holy crown upon the miter. ⁷Then you shall take the anointing oil, and pour it upon his head, and anoint him. ⁸And you shall bring his sons and put coats upon them. ⁹And you shall gird them with girdles, Aaron and his sons, and put the bonnets on them. And the priest's office shall be theirs for an everlasting statute. And you shall consecrate Aaron and his sons. ¹⁰And you shall cause a bull to be brought before the tabernacle of the congregation. And Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the bull. ¹¹And you shall kill the bull before the LORD, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ¹²And you shall take of the blood of the bull, and put it upon the horns of the altar with your finger, and pour all the blood beside the bottom of the altar. ¹³And you shall take all the fat that covers the inward parts, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and that fat that is upon them, and burn them upon the altar. ¹⁴But the flesh of the bull, and its skin, and its dung, you shall burn with fire outside the camp. It is a sin offering.

¹⁵And you shall also take one ram. And Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram. ¹⁶And you shall kill the ram, and you shall take its blood and sprinkle it all round upon the altar. ¹⁷And you shall cut the ram in pieces, and wash the inward parts of it and its legs, and put them with its pieces and with its head. ¹⁸And you shall burn the whole ram upon the altar. It is a burnt offering unto the LORD. It is a sweet savor, an offering made by fire unto the LORD. ¹⁹And you shall take the other ram. And Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram. ²⁰Then you shall kill the ram, and take of its blood, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of Aaron, and upon the tip of the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumb of their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about. ²¹And you shall take of the blood that is upon the altar, and of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon the garments of his sons with him. And he shall be hallowed, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him. ²²Also you shall take from the ram the fat and the rump, and the fat that covers the inward parts, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys and the fat that is upon them, and the right shoulder, for it is a ram of consecration — ²³and one loaf of bread, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of the unleavened bread that is before the LORD, ²⁴and you shall put all in the hands of Aaron and in the hands of his sons, and shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD. ²⁵And you shall receive them from their hands, and burn them upon the altar for a burnt offering, for a sweet savor before the LORD. It is an offering made by fire unto the LORD. ²⁶And you shall take the breast of the ram of Aaron's consecration and wave it for a wave offering before the LORD. And it shall be your part. ²⁷And you shall sanctify the breast of the wave offering, and the shoulder of the heave offering, which is waved, and which is heaved up, of the ram of the consecration — of that which is for Aaron and of that which is for his sons. ²⁸And it shall be Aaron's and his sons' by a statute forever from the children of Israel. For it is a heave offering. And it shall be a heave offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifices of their peace offerings, even their heave offering unto the LORD.

³¹And you shall take the ram of the consecration, and boil its flesh in the holy place. ³²And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram and the bread that is in the basket, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ³³And they shall eat those things with which the atonement was made, to consecrate and to sanctify them. But a stranger shall not eat of them, because they are holy. ³⁴And if any of the flesh of the consecrations, or of the bread, remains until the morning, then you shall burn the remainder with fire. It shall not be eaten, because it is holy. ³⁵And so you shall do unto Aaron and to his sons according to all things which I have commanded you. You shall consecrate them seven days. ³⁶And you shall offer every day a bull for a sin offering for atonement. And you shall cleanse the altar when you have made an atonement, and you shall anoint it to sanctify it. ³⁷You shall make an atonement for the altar seven days, and sanctify it. And it shall be a most holy altar. Whatever touches the altar shall be holy.

³⁸Now this is what you shall offer upon the altar — two lambs of the first year day by day forever. ³⁹The one lamb you shall offer in the morning, and the other lamb you shall offer at evening. ⁴⁰And with the one lamb a tenth part of flour mixed with the fourth part of a hin of beaten oil, and the fourth part of a hin of wine for a drink offering. ⁴¹And you shall offer the other lamb at evening, and shall do unto it according to the meal offering of the morning, and according to its drink offering, for a sweet smell, an offering made by fire unto the LORD. ⁴²*This shall be* a burnt offering forever throughout your generations, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD — where I will meet you, to speak there to you. ⁴³And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and Israel shall be sanctified by My glory. ⁴⁴And I will sanctify the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar. I will also sanctify both Aaron and his sons to minister unto Me in the priest's office.

⁴⁵And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God. ⁴⁶And they shall know that I am the LORD their God, who brought them forth out of the land of Egypt so that I may dwell among them. I am the LORD their God.

¹And you shall make an altar to burn incense upon. You shall make it of ā-cā'-ciā wood. ²A cubit shall be the length of it, and a cubit the breadth of it. It shall be square. And two cubits shall be the height of it. The horns of it shall be of the same. ³And you shall overlay it with pure gold, the top of it, and the sides of it round about, and the horns of it. And you shall make unto it a crown of gold round about. ⁴And you shall make two golden rings to it under the crown of it, by the two corners of it, upon the two sides of it you shall make it. And they shall be for places for the staves to bear it with. ⁵And you shall make the staves of ā-cā'-ciā wood and overlay them with gold. ⁶And you shall put it before the veil that is by the ark of the testimony, in front of the mercy-seat that is over the testimony, where I will meet with you. ⁷And Aaron shall burn sweet incense on it every morning; when he dresses the lamps he shall burn incense upon it. ⁸And when Aaron lights the lamps at evening, he shall burn incense upon it, a perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your generations. ⁹You shall offer no strange incense on it, nor burnt sacrifice, nor meal offering. Neither shall you pour drink offering on it. ¹⁰And Aaron shall make an atonement upon the horns of it once in a year with the blood of the sin offerings of atonement. He shall make atonement once in the year throughout your generations. It is most holy unto the LORD.

¹¹And the LORD spoke unto Moses saying, ¹²When you count the children of Israel, of those who are to be counted, then they shall each man give a ransom for his soul unto the LORD when you number them, so that there may be no plague among them when you number them. ¹³They shall give this, every one that passes among those who are counted, half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary (a shekel is twenty gē'-rāhs); a half shekel shall be the offering of the LORD. ¹⁴Everyone that passes among those who are numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering unto the LORD. ¹⁵The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less, than half a shekel, when they give an offering unto the LORD to make an atonement for your souls. ¹⁶And you shall take the atonement money of the children of Israel, and shall appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of the congregation — so that it may be a memorial unto the children of Israel before the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls.

²²Moreover the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, ²³Take also unto you principal spices, of pure myrrh five hundred shekels, and of sweet cinnamon half as much, even two hundred and fifty shekels, and of sweet cāl'-ă-mūs two hundred and fifty shekels,²⁴ and of cās'-siā five hundred shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, and of olive oil a hin.²⁵ And you shall make it an oil of holy ointment, an ointment compound after the art of the perfumer. It shall be a holy anointing oil.²⁶ And you shall anoint the tabernacle of the congregation with it, and the ark of the testimony,²⁷ and the table and all its vessels, and the lampstand and its vessels, and the altar of incense,²⁸ and the altar of burnt offerings with all its vessels, and the laver and its foot.²⁹ And you shall sanctify them so that they may be most holy. Whatever touches them shall be holy.³⁰ And you shall anoint Aaron and his sons and consecrate them, so that they may minister unto Me in the priest's office.³¹ And you shall speak to the children of Israel saying, This shall be a holy anointing oil unto Me throughout your generations.³² It shall not be poured upon man's flesh, neither shall you make any other like it, according to the way it is made. It is holy, and it shall be holy unto you.³³ Whoever compounds any like it, or whoever puts any of it upon a stranger, shall even be cut off from his people.

³⁴And the LORD said unto Moses, Take unto yourself sweet spices — stăc'-tē, and ô-ny'-chă, and găl'-bă-nūm — sweet spices with pure frankincense. There shall be the same of each.³⁵ And you shall make it a perfume, an incense according to the art of the perfumer — salted, pure and holy.³⁶ And you shall beat some of it very small, and put it before the testimony in the tabernacle of the congregation, where I will meet with you. It shall be most holy to you.³⁷ And as for the perfume which you shall make, you shall not make any for yourselves according to the way it is made. It shall be holy unto you for the LORD.³⁸ Whoever shall make any like that, to smell of it, shall even be cut off from his people.

¹And the LORD spoke unto Moses saying, ²See, I have called by name Běz'-ă-lēel the son of Ū'-rī, the son of Hūr, of the tribe of Judah.³ And I have filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship, ⁴in order to work out cunning works; to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass,⁵ and in cutting of stones, to set them, and in carving of timber, to work in all manner of workmanship.⁶ And behold, I have given unto him Ā-hō'-lī-ăb, the son of Ā-hīs'-ă-măch, of the tribe of Dan. And I have put wisdom in the hearts of all those who are wise-hearted, so that they may make all that I have commanded you — ⁷the tabernacle of the congregation, and the ark of the testimony, and the mercy-seat that is upon it, and all the vessels of the tabernacle,⁸ and the table and its vessels, and the pure lampstand with all its vessels, and the altar of incense,⁹ and the altar of burnt offering with all its vessels, and the laver and its foot,¹⁰ and the cloths of service, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office,¹¹ and the anointing oil, and sweet incense for the holy place — according to all that I have commanded you, they shall do.

¹²And the LORD spoke unto Moses saying, ¹³Speak also to the children of Israel saying, Verily you shall keep My sabbaths. For it is a sign between Me and you throughout your generations, so that you may know that I am the LORD who sanctifies you. ¹⁴You shall keep the Sabbath therefore, for it is holy unto you. Everyone that defiles it shall surely be put to death. For whoever does any work in it, that soul shall be cut off from among his people. ¹⁵Six days may work be done, but in the seventh is the sabbath of rest, holy to the LORD. Whoever does any work in the Sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death. ¹⁶Therefore the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations, for an everlasting covenant. ¹⁷It is a sign between Me and the children of Israel forever. For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day He rested, and was refreshed.

¹⁸And He gave unto Moses, when He had made an end of speaking with him upon Mount Sinai, two tablets of testimony, tablets of stone, written with the finger of God.

¹And when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered themselves together unto Aaron and said to him, Up! Make us gods who shall go before us. For as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him. ²And Aaron said to them, Break off the golden earrings which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me. ³And all the people broke off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them to Aaron. ⁴And he received them at their hand, and fashioned it with an engraving tool, after he had made it a molten calf. And they said, These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt. ⁵And when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it. And Aaron made proclamation and said, Tomorrow is a feast to the LORD. ⁶And they rose up early on the next day and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings. And the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

⁷And the LORD said to Moses, Go! Get down, for your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves. ⁸They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them. They have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed to it, and said, These are your gods, O Israel, who have brought you up out of the land of Egypt. ⁹And the LORD said to Moses, I have seen this people, and behold, it is a stiff-necked people. ¹⁰Now therefore let Me alone, so that My wrath may become hot against them and so that I may consume them. And I will make of you a great nation. ¹¹And Moses prayed to the LORD his God, and said, LORD, why doth Thy wrath become hot against Thy people, whom Thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? ¹²Why should the Ē-gyp'-tians speak and say, He brought them out for harm, to kill them in the mountains and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from Thy fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against Thy people. ¹³Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, Thy servants, to whom Thou didst swear by Thine own self, and said unto them, I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this and that I have spoken of will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it forever. ¹⁴And the LORD repented of the evil which He spoke of doing unto His people.

¹⁵And Moses turned, and went down from the mountain, and the two tablets of the testimony were in his hand. The tablets were written on both sides; on the one side and on the other were they written. ¹⁶And the tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, engraved upon the tablets. ¹⁷And when Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, There is a noise of war in the camp. ¹⁸And he said, It is not the voice of those who shout for mastery, neither is it the voice of those who cry from being overcome. But I hear the noise of those who sing.

¹⁹And as soon as he came near the camp, he saw the calf and the dancing. And Moses' anger became hot, and he threw the tablets out of his hands, and broke them at the bottom of the mountain. ²⁰And he took the calf which they had made and burned it in the fire, and ground it to powder, and dropped it upon the water, and made the children of Israel drink of it. ²¹And Moses said unto Aaron, What did his people do unto you, that you have brought so great a sin upon them? ²²And Aaron said, Let not the anger of my lord become hot. You know the people, that they are set on mischief. ²³For they said to me, Make us gods who shall go before us — for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him. ²⁴And I said to them, Whoever has any gold, let them break it off. So they gave it to me, then I threw it into the fire, and there came out this calf.

²⁵And when Moses saw that the people were naked, (for Aaron had made them naked unto their shame among their enemies,) ²⁶then Moses stood in the gate of the camp and said, Who is on the LORD's side? Let him come unto me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves to him. ²⁷And he said to them, Thus says the LORD God of Israel: Each man put his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and kill every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbor. ²⁸And the children of Levi did according to the word of Moses. And there fell of the people that day about three thousand men. ²⁹For Moses had said, Consecrate yourselves today to the LORD, even every man upon his son, and upon his brother, so that He may bless you with a blessing this day.

³⁰And on the next day Moses said unto the people, You have sinned a great sin. And now I will go up unto the LORD. Perhaps I shall make an atonement for your sin. ³¹And Moses returned to the LORD, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made them gods of gold. ³²Yet now wilt Thou forgive their sin! And if not, I pray Thee, blot me out of Thy book which Thou hast written. ³³And the LORD said to Moses, Whoever has sinned against Me, I will blot him out of My book. ³⁴Therefore now go, lead the people to the place of which I have spoken to you. Behold, My Angel shall go before you. Nevertheless in the day when I visit, I will visit their sin upon them. ³⁵And the LORD plagued the people because they made the calf which Aaron made.

¹And the LORD said to Moses, Depart and go up from here, you and the people whom you have brought up out of the land of Egypt, unto the land which I swore unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, Unto your seed I will give it. ²And I will send an angel before you. And I will drive out the Cā'-nāan-īte, the Ām'-ōr-īte, and the Hit'-tite, and the Pē-rīz'-zīte, and the Hī'-vite, and the Jēb'-ū-site. ³*He will bring you* into a land flowing with milk and honey. For I will not go up in the midst of you, for you are a stiff-necked people — lest I consume you in the way.

⁴And when the people heard these evil tidings, they mourned. And no man put his ornaments on himself. ⁵For the LORD had said unto Moses, Say unto the children of Israel, You are a stiff-necked people. I will come up into the midst of you in a moment, and consume you. Therefore now put off your ornaments from you, that I may know what to do with you. ⁶And the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by Mount Hōr'-ēb. ⁷And Moses took the tabernacle and pitched it outside the camp, afar off from the camp, and called it the tabernacle of the congregation. And everyone who sought the LORD went out to the tabernacle of the congregation, which was outside the camp. ⁸And when Moses went out to the tabernacle, all the people rose up, and each man stood at his tent door and looked after Moses until he had gone into the tabernacle. ⁹And it came to pass, as Moses went into the tabernacle, the cloudy pillar descended and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the LORD talked with Moses. ¹⁰And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the tabernacle door. And all the people rose up and worshipped, each man in his tent door. ¹¹And the LORD spoke to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. And he turned again to the camp. But his servant, Jōsh'-ū-ā the son of Nun, a young man, did not leave the tabernacle.

¹²And Moses said to the LORD, Behold, Thou sayest unto me, Bring up this people. And Thou hast not let me know whom Thou wilt send with me. Yet Thou hast said, I know you by name, and you have also found grace in My sight. ¹³Now therefore, I pray Thee, if I have found grace in Thy sight, show me now Thy way, that I may know Thee, that I may find grace in Thy sight. And consider that this nation is Thy people. ¹⁴And He said, My presence shall go with you, and I will give you rest. ¹⁵And he said to Him, If Thy presence does not go with me, do not carry us up from here. ¹⁶For in what shall it be known here that I and Thy people have found grace in Thy sight? Is it not in that Thou goest with us? So we shall be separated, I and Thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth. ¹⁷And the LORD said to Moses, I will do this thing also that you have spoken. For you have found grace in My sight, and I know you by name. ¹⁸And he said, I beseech Thee, Show me Thy glory. ¹⁹And He said, I will make all My goodness pass before you, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before you. And I will be gracious unto whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy. ²⁰And He said, You cannot see My face. For there shall no man see Me and live. ²¹And the LORD said, Behold! There is a place by Me, and you shall stand upon a rock. ²²And while My glory passes by, I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and will cover you with My hand while I pass by. ²³And I will take away My hand, and you shall see My back parts. But My face shall not be seen.

¹And the LORD said to Moses, cut out two tablets of stone like the first. And I will write upon these tablets the words that were in the first tablets which you broke. ²And be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and present yourself there to Me in the top of the mountain. ³And no man shall come up with you, neither let any man be seen throughout all the mountain, neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that mountain.

⁵And the LORD came down in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD. ⁶And the LORD passed by before him and proclaimed, The LORD, The LORD God, merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, ⁷keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and who will by no means clear the guilty — visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, unto the third and to the fourth generation. ⁸And Moses made haste and bowed his head toward the earth, and worshipped. ⁹And he said, If now I have found grace in Thy sight, O LORD, I pray Thee, let my Lord go among us. For it is a stiff-necked people. And pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for Thy inheritance. ¹⁰And He said, Behold! I make a covenant. Before all your people I will do marvels such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation. And all the people among whom you are shall see the work of the LORD, for it is a terrible thing that I will do with you. ¹¹Observe that which I command you this day. Behold! I drive out before you the Ām'-ōr-ite, and the Cā'-nāan-ite, and the Hit'-tite, and the Pě-riz'-zite and the Hī'-vite, and the Jēb'-ū-sīte. ¹²Take heed to yourself, lest you make a covenant with the people of the land where you go — lest it be for a snare in the midst of you. ¹³But you shall destroy their altars, break their images, and cut down their groves. ¹⁴For you shall worship no other god — for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God — ¹⁵lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they go whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice to their gods, and call you, and you eat of his sacrifice — ¹⁶and lest you take from their daughters for your sons, and their daughters go whoring after their gods and make your sons go whoring after their gods. ¹⁷You shall make you no molten gods.

¹⁸You shall keep the feast of unleavened bread. You shall eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded you, in the time of the month Ā'-bib. For in the month Ā'-bib you came out from Egypt. ¹⁹All that opens the womb is Mine. And every firstling among your cattle, ox or sheep, is Mine. ²⁰But the firstling of an ass you shall redeem with a lamb. And if you do not redeem it, then you shall break its neck. All the first-born of your sons you shall redeem. And none shall appear before Me empty.

²¹You shall work six days, but on the seventh day you shall rest. In plowing time and in harvest you shall rest. ²²And you shall observe the feast of weeks, of the first-fruits of wheat harvest, and the feast of ingathering at the year's end. ²³Three times in the year your men children shall appear before the Lord GOD, the God of Israel. ²⁴For I will cast out the nations before you and enlarge your borders. Neither shall any man desire your land when you shall go up to appear before the LORD your God three times in the year. ²⁵You shall not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leaven. Neither shall the sacrifice of the feast of the Passover be left to the morning. ²⁶The first of the first-fruits of your land you shall bring to the house of the LORD your God. You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk. ²⁷And the LORD said to Moses, Write these words; for after the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel. ²⁸And he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights. He neither ate bread, nor drank water. And he wrote upon the tablets the words of the covenant, the ten commandments.

²⁹And it came to pass, when Moses came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of testimony in Moses' hand, when he came down from the mountain, that Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone while He talked with him. ³⁰And when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone. And they were afraid to come near him. ³¹And Moses called to them. And Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned to him, and Moses talked with them. ³²And afterward all the children of Israel came near. And he gave them in commandment all that the LORD had spoken with him in Mount Sinai. ³³And until Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face. ³⁴But when Moses went in before the LORD to speak with Him, he took the veil off until he came out. And he came out and spoke to the children of Israel that which he was commanded. ³⁵And the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone. And Moses put the veil upon his face again, until he went in to speak with Him.

¹And Moses gathered all the congregation of the children of Israel together and said to them, These are the words which the LORD has commanded, that you should do them. ²Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be to you a holy day, a sabbath of rest to the LORD. Whoever does work in it shall be put to death. ³You shall kindle no fire throughout your living places upon the Sabbath day.

⁴And Moses spoke to all the congregation of the children of Israel saying, This is the thing which the LORD commanded. He said, ⁵Take from among you an offering to the LORD. Whoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it, an offering of the LORD — gold, and silver, and brass, ⁶and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair, ⁷and rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and ã-cã'-ciã wood, ⁸and oil for the light, and spices for anointing oil, and for the sweet incense, ⁹and onyx stones, and stones to be set for the ephod and for the breast-plate. ¹⁰And every wise-hearted one among you shall come and make all that the LORD has commanded — ¹¹the tabernacle, its tent, and its covering, its clasps, and its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets. ¹²And make the ark and the staves of it, the mercy-seat, and the veil of the covering, ¹³the table, and its staves, and all its vessels, and showbread, ¹⁴also the lampstand for the light, and its vessels, and its lamp, with the oil for the light, ¹⁵and the incense altar, and its staves, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging of the door at the entering in of the tabernacle. ¹⁶And make the altar of burnt offering, with its brass grate, its staves, and all its vessels, the laver and its base, ¹⁷the hangings of the court, its pillars and their sockets, and the hanging for the door of the court, ¹⁸the pins of the tabernacle, and the pins of the court, and their cords, ¹⁹the cloths of service, to do service in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office.

²⁰And all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses. ²¹And they came, every one whose heart stirred him up, and every one whom His spirit made willing. They brought the LORD's offering to the work of the tabernacle of the congregation, and for all His service, and for the holy garments. ²²And they came, both men and women, as many as were willing hearted, bringing bracelets and earrings, and rings and tablets, all jewels of gold. And every man that offered gave an offering of gold to the LORD. ²³And every man with whom was found blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair, and red skins of rams, and badgers' skins, brought them. ²⁴Everyone that offered an offering of silver and brass brought the LORD's offering. And every man with whom was found ā-cā'-ciā wood for any work of the service, brought it. ²⁵And all the women that were skillful spun with their hands and brought that which they had spun, of blue, and of purple, of scarlet, and of fine linen. ²⁶And all the women whose hearts stirred them up in wisdom spun goats' hair. ²⁷And the rulers brought onyx stones, and stones to be set, for the ephod and for the breast-plate. ²⁸And they brought spice and oil, for the light and for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense. ²⁹The children of Israel brought a willing offering unto the LORD, every man and woman whose heart made them willing to bring for all kinds of work which the LORD had commanded to be made by the hand of Moses.

³⁰And Moses said to the children of Israel, See, the LORD has called the son of Ū'-rī the son of Hūr, by the name Bēz'-ā-lēel, of the tribe of Judah. ³¹And He has filled him with the spirit of God in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all kinds of work, ³²and to work out skillful works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, ³³and in the cutting of stones to set, and in carving of wood, to make any kind of skillful work. ³⁴And He has put in his heart that he may teach, he and Ā-hō'-li-āb the son of Ā-hīs'-ā-māch of the tribe of Dan. ³⁵He has filled them with wisdom of heart to work all kinds of work — of the carver, and of the skillful worker, and of the embroider-er, in blue, and in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, of those who do any work, and of those who work out artful work.

¹Then Běz'-ă-lēel and Ā-hō'-lī-ăb worked. And every wise-hearted man in whom the LORD put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all kinds of work for the service of the sanctuary, according to all that the LORD had commanded, worked also. ²And Moses called Běz'-ă-lēel and Ā-hō'-lī-ăb, and every wise-hearted man in whose heart the LORD had put wisdom, even everyone whose heart stirred him up to come to do the work. ³And they received all the offerings from Moses, the offering which the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, to make it. And they still brought to him free offerings every morning. ⁴And all the wise men who worked all the work of the sanctuary came, every man from his work which they made.

⁵And they spoke to Moses, saying, The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work which the LORD commanded to make. ⁶And Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be known throughout the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman make any more work for the offering of the sanctuary. So the people were kept from bringing. ⁷For the stuff which they had was enough for all the work to make it, and too much.

⁸And every wise-hearted man among them that worked the work of the tabernacle, made ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet. He made them chěr'-ū-bims of skillful work. ⁹The length of one curtain was twenty-eight cubits, and the breadth of one curtain was four cubits. The curtains were all of one size. ¹⁰And he coupled the five curtains to one another, and he coupled the other five curtains to one another. ¹¹And he made loops of blue on the edge of one curtain from the edge in the coupling. Likewise he made loops in the outermost side, in the coupling of the second curtain. ¹²He made fifty loops in one curtain, and he made fifty loops in the edge of the curtain which was in the coupling of the second. The loops held one curtain to another. ¹³And he made fifty clasps of gold, and coupled the curtains to one another with the clasps. So it became one tabernacle. ¹⁴And he made curtains of goats' hair for the tent over the tabernacle. He made eleven curtains. ¹⁵The length of one curtain was thirty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain was four cubits. The eleven curtains were of one size. ¹⁶And he coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves. ¹⁷And he made fifty loops on the outermost edge of the curtain in the coupling, and he made fifty loops upon the edge of the curtains which couple the second.

²⁰And he made boards for the tabernacle of ă-că'-ciă wood, standing up. ²¹The length of a board was ten cubits, and the breadth of a board was one and a half cubits. ²²One board had two pins, equally distant from one another. So he made for all the boards of the tabernacle. ²³And he made boards for the tabernacle — twenty boards for the south side southward, ²⁴and he made forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards — two sockets under one board for its two pins, and two sockets under another board for its two pins. ²⁵And for the other side of the tabernacle, toward the north, he made twenty boards, ²⁶and their forty sockets were of silver — two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board. ²⁷And he made six boards for the sides of the tabernacle westward. ²⁸And he made two boards for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides. ²⁹And they were coupled beneath, and coupled together at the head of it, to one ring. So he did to both of them in both the corners. ³⁰And there were eight boards. And their sockets were sixteen sockets of silver, two sockets under every board. ³¹And he made bars of ă-că'-ciă wood — five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle, ³²and five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle for the westward sides. ³³And he made the middle bar to shoot through the boards from the one end to the other. ³⁴And he overlaid the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold to be places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold. ³⁵And he made a veil of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen. He made it with chěr'-û-bîms of cunning work. ³⁶And he made to it four pillars of ă-că'-ciă and overlaid them with gold. Their hooks were of gold, and he cast four sockets of silver for them. ³⁷And he made a hanging for the tabernacle door of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, of needlework. ³⁸And he made five pillars of it with their hooks. And he overlaid their capitals and their fillets with gold, but their five sockets were of brass.

¹And Běz'-ă-lêel made the ark of ă-că'-ciă wood. Its length was two cubits and a half, and its breadth was a cubit and a half, and its height was a cubit and a half. ²And he overlaid it with pure gold inside and out, and made a crown of gold around it. ³And he cast four rings of gold for it, for the corners of it — even two rings on the one side of it and two rings on the other side of it. ⁴And he made staves of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold. ⁵And he put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, in order to bear the ark.

⁶And he made the mercy-seat of pure gold. The length of it was two cubits and a half, and the breadth of it was one cubit and a half. ⁷And he made two chēr'-ū-bīms of gold on the two ends of the mercy-seat. He made them beaten out of one piece, ⁸one cherub on the end on this side, and another cherub on the other end on that side. He made the cherubims out of the mercy-seat on the two ends of it. ⁹And the cherubims spread out their wings on high, and covered with their wings over the mercy-seat, with their faces toward one another. The faces of the cherubims were toward the mercy-seat.

¹⁰And he made the table of acacia wood. The length of it was two cubits, and the breadth of it was a cubit, and the height of it was a cubit and a half. ¹¹And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made unto it a crown of gold round about. ¹²Also he made unto it a border round about, of a hand's breadth. And he made a crown of gold for the border of it round about. ¹³And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings on the four corners that were in the four feet of it. ¹⁴Over against the border were the rings, the places for the staves to carry the table. ¹⁵And he made the staves of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold, to carry the table. ¹⁶And he made the vessels which were on the table, its dishes and its spoons, and its bowls, and its covers to cover it, of pure gold.

¹⁷And he made the lampstand of pure gold. He made the lampstand of beaten work. Its shaft and its branch, its bowl, its knobs, and its blossoms, were of the same. ¹⁸And six branches went out of the sides of it — three branches of the lampstand out of the one side of it, and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side of it. ¹⁹Three bowls were made like almonds in one branch, a knob and a blossom. And three bowls were made like almonds in another branch, a knob and a blossom. So throughout the six branches going out of the lampstand. ²⁰And in the lampstand were four bowls made like almonds, its knobs and its blossoms. ²¹And a knob was under two branches of the same, and a knob under two branches of the same, and a knob under two branches of the same, according to the six branches going out of it. ²²Their knobs and their branches were of the same — all of it was one beaten work of pure gold. ²³And he made its seven lamps, and its snuffers, and its snuff-dishes, of pure gold. ²⁴He made it of a talent of pure gold, and all the vessels of it.

²⁵And he made the incense altar of acacia wood. The length of it was a cubit, and the breadth of it a cubit. It was square. And the height of it was two cubits. The horns of it were of the same. ²⁶And he overlaid it with pure gold, the top of it and the sides of it round about, and the horns of it. Also he made a crown of gold round about it. ²⁷And he made two rings of gold for it under the crown of it, by the two corners of it, upon the two sides of it, to be places for the staves to bear it with. ²⁸And he made the staves of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold. ²⁹And he made the holy anointing oil, and the pure incense of sweet spices, according to the work of the perfumer.

¹And he made the altar of burnt offering, of acacia wood. The length of it was five cubits, and the breadth of it was five cubits. It was square. And the height of it was three cubits. ²And he made the horns of it on the four corners of it. The horns of it were of the same. And he overlaid it with brass. ³And he made all the vessels of the altar, the pots, and the shovels, and the basins, the flesh-hooks, and the fire-pans. All the vessels of it he made with brass. ⁴And he made a brass grate of network for the altar, under the compass of it, beneath to the middle of it. ⁵And he cast four rings for the four ends of the grate of brass, places for the staves. ⁶And he made the staves of acacia wood and overlaid them with brass. ⁷And he put the staves into the rings on the sides of the altar, to bear it with. He made the altar hollow with boards. ⁸And he made the laver of brass, and the base of it of brass — out of the mirrors of the women who assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

⁹And he made the court. On the south side southward the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen, a hundred cubits. ¹⁰Their pillars were twenty, and their brass sockets were twenty. The hooks of the pillar and their fillets were of silver. ¹¹And for the north side the hangings were a hundred cubits, their pillars were twenty, and their sockets of brass twenty. The hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver. ¹²And for the west side were hangings of fifty cubits. Their pillars were ten, and their sockets ten. The hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver. ¹³And for the east side eastward fifty cubits. ¹⁴The hangings of the one side were fifteen cubits, and their pillars were three, and their sockets three. ¹⁵And for the other side of the court gate, on this hand and that hand, were hangings of fifteen cubits. Their pillars were three, and their sockets three.

²¹This is the sum of the tabernacle, of the tabernacle of testimony, as it was counted, according to the commandment of Moses, for the service of the Levites by the hand of Ith'-ä-mär, son to Aaron the priest. ²²And Bëz'-ä-lëel the son of Ū'-rī, the son of Hûr, of the tribe of Judah, made all that the LORD commanded Moses. ²³And with him was Ä-hö'-li-äb, son of Ä-his'-ä-mäch, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, and a skillful workman, and an embroiderer in blue and in purple and in scarlet and fine linen. ²⁴All the gold that was used for the work in all the work of the holy place, even the gold of the offering, was twenty-nine talents and seven hundred thirty shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary. ²⁵And the silver from those who were numbered of the congregation was a hundred talents, and seventeen hundred seventy-five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary. ²⁶*It was* a bē'-käh for every man, half a shekel, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for everyone that went to be numbered, from twenty years old and upward — for six hundred three thousand, five hundred fifty men. ²⁷And the sockets of the sanctuary were cast of the hundred talents of silver, and the sockets of the veil also. A hundred sockets of the hundred talents, a talent for a socket. ²⁸And he made hooks for the pillars out of the seventeen-hundred seventy-five shekels, and overlaid their capitals and filleted them. ²⁹And the brass of the offering was seventy talents, and twenty-four hundred shekels, ³⁰and with it he made the sockets to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the brass altar, and the brass grate for it, and all the vessels of the altar, ³¹and the sockets of the court round about, and the sockets of the court gate, and all the pins of the tabernacle, and all the pins of the court round about.

¹And of the blue, and purple, and scarlet, they made cloths of service, to do service in the holy place, and made the holy garments for Aaron — even as the LORD commanded Moses. ²And he made the ephod of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen. ³And they beat the gold into thin plates, and cut it into wires, to work it in the blue, and in the purple, and in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, with embroidered work. ⁴They made shoulder-pieces for it, to couple it together. It was coupled together by the two edges. ⁵And the embroidered girdle of its ephod, which was upon it, was of the same, according to the work of it — gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, even as the LORD commanded Moses. ⁶And they worked onyx stones enclosed in settings of gold, engraved as signets are engraved, with the names of the children of Israel. ⁷And he put them on the shoulders of the ephod, stones for a memorial to the children of Israel, even as the LORD commanded Moses.

²²And he made the robe of the ephod of woven work, all of blue. ²³And there was a hole in the midst of the robe, like the hole of a coat of mail, with a band round about the hole so that it might not tear. ²⁴And they made upon the hems of the robe pöme'-grän-ätes of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined linen. ²⁵And they made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pöme'-grän-ätes upon the hems of the robe, round about, between the pöme'-grän-ätes — ²⁶a bell and a pöme'-grän-äte, a bell and a pöme'-grän-äte, round about the hem of the robe to minister in — even as the LORD commanded Moses. ²⁷And they made coats of fine linen of woven work for Aaron and for his sons. ²⁸And they made a miter of fine linen, and ornamental bonnets of fine linen, and linen breeches of fine twined linen, ²⁹and a girdle of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, of needle-work — even as the LORD commanded Moses.

³²So all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation was finished. And the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses. So they did. ³³And they brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent, and all its furniture, its clasps, its boards, its bars, and its pillars, and its sockets, ³⁴and the covering of rams' skins dyed red, and the covering of badgers' skins, and the veil of the covering, ³⁵the ark of the testimony, and the staves of it, and the mercy-seat, ³⁶the table, and all the vessels of it, and the showbread, ³⁷the pure lampstand, the lamps of it, even the lamps to be set in order, and all the vessels of it, and the oil for light, ³⁸and the golden altar, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging for the tabernacle door, ³⁹the brass altar, and its grate of brass, its staves, and all its vessels, the laver and its base, ⁴⁰the hangings of the court, its pillars and its sockets, and the hanging for the court gate, its cords, and its pins, and all the vessels of the service of the tabernacle for the tent of the congregation, ⁴¹the cloths of service to do service in the holy place, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and his sons' garments, to minister in the priest's office. ⁴²According to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel made all the work. ⁴³And Moses looked upon all the work, and, behold, they had done it. As the LORD commanded, even so they had done it. And Moses blessed them.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ²You shall set up the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation on the first day of the first month. ³And you shall put the ark of the testimony in it, and cover the ark with the veil. ⁴And you shall bring the table in, and set in order the things that are to be set in order upon it. And you shall bring the lampstand in and light the lamps of it. ⁵And you shall set the altar of gold for the incense in front of the ark of the testimony, and put the hanging of the door to the tabernacle. ⁶And you shall set the altar of the burnt offering in front of the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation. ⁷And you shall set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and shall put water in it. ⁸And you shall set up the court round about, and hang up the hanging at the court gate. ⁹And you shall take the anointing oil and anoint the tabernacle, and all that is in it, and shall hallow it and all the vessels of it. And it shall be holy. ¹⁰And you shall anoint the altar of the burnt offering, and all its vessels, and sanctify the altar. And it shall be a most holy altar. ¹¹And you shall anoint the laver and its base, and sanctify it. ¹²And you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and wash them with water. ¹³And you shall put the holy garments on Aaron, and anoint him and sanctify him, so that he may minister to Me in the priest's office. ¹⁴And you shall bring his sons and clothe them with coats. ¹⁵And you shall anoint them, even as you anointed their father, so that they may minister unto Me in the priest's office. For their anointing shall surely be an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations. ¹⁶So Moses did. According to all that the LORD commanded him, so he did.

¹⁷And in the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, the tabernacle was reared up. ¹⁸And Moses reared up the tabernacle and fastened its sockets, and set up the boards of it, and put in the bars of it, and reared up its pillars. ¹⁹And he spread the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering of the tent above upon it — even as the LORD commanded Moses. ²⁰And he took the tablets of the law and put them into the ark, and set the staves on the ark, and put the mercy-seat above upon the ark. ²¹And he brought the ark into the tabernacle and set up the veil of the covering, and covered the ark of the testimony — even as the LORD commanded Moses. ²²And he put the table in the tent of the congregation, on the side of the tabernacle northward, outside the veil. ²³And he set the bread in order upon it before the LORD — even as the LORD had commanded Moses.

²⁴And he put the lampstand in the tent of the congregation across from the table, on the side of the tabernacle southward. ²⁵And he lighted the lamps before the LORD — even as the LORD commanded Moses. ²⁶And he put the golden altar in the tent of the congregation in front of the veil. ²⁷And he burned sweet incense on it — even as the LORD commanded Moses. ²⁸And he set up the hanging at the door of the tabernacle. ²⁹And he put the altar of burnt offering by the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation, and offered on it the burnt offering and the meal offering — even as the LORD commanded Moses. ³⁰And he set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and put water there, to wash with. ³¹And Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet there. ³²When they went into the tent of the congregation, and when they came near the altar, they washed — even as the LORD commanded Moses. ³³And he reared up the court round about the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the hanging of the court gate. So Moses finished the work.

³⁴Then a cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. ³⁵And Moses was not able to enter into the tent of the congregation because the cloud stayed on it, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. ³⁶And when the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the children of Israel journeyed on in all their journeys. ³⁷But if the cloud was not taken up, then they did not journey until the day that it was taken up. ³⁸For the cloud of the LORD was upon the tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

The Book of LEVITICUS

¹And the LORD called to Moses and spoke to him out of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying, ²Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, If any one of you brings an offering to the LORD, you shall bring your offering of the cattle — of the herd and of the flock. ³If his offering is a burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without blemish. He shall offer it of his own voluntary will at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD. ⁴And he shall put his hand on the head of the burnt offering. And it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him. ⁵And he shall kill the bull before the LORD. And the priests, Aaron's sons, shall bring the blood and sprinkle the blood all around upon the altar that is by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ⁶And he shall skin the burnt offering and cut it into its pieces. ⁷And the sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire on the altar and lay the wood in order on the fire. ⁸And the priests, Aaron's sons, shall lay the parts, the head and the fat, in order upon the wood that is upon the altar. ⁹But its inwards and its legs he shall wash in water. And the priest shall burn all on the altar, a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor unto the LORD.

¹⁴And if the burnt sacrifice for his offering to the LORD is of fowls, then he shall bring his offering of turtle-doves or of young pigeons. ¹⁵And the priest shall bring it to the altar, and wring off its head and burn it on the altar. And the blood of it shall be wrung out at the side of the altar. ¹⁶And he shall pluck away its crop with its feathers, and throw it beside the altar on the east part, by the place of the ashes. ¹⁷And he shall cut it in two with the wings of it, but shall not tear it apart. And the priest shall burn it on the altar, upon the wood that is upon the fire. It is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to the LORD.

¹And when anyone will offer a meal offering to the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour. And he shall pour oil on it and put frankincense on it. ²And he shall bring it to Aaron's sons, the priests. And he shall take out of it his handful of the flour of it, and of the oil of it, with all the frankincense of it. And the priest shall burn the memorial of it upon the altar, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to the LORD. ³And the rest of the meal offering shall be Aaron's and his sons', a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

¹²As for the sacrifice of the first-fruits, you shall offer them to the LORD. But they shall not be burned on the altar for a sweet savor. ¹³And every sacrifice of your meal offering shall you season with salt. Neither shall you allow the salt of the covenant of your God to be lacking from your meal offering. You shall offer salt with all your offerings. ¹⁴And if you offer a meal offering of your first-fruits to the LORD, you shall offer for the meal offering of your first-fruits green ears of grain dried by the fire, grain beaten out of full ears. ¹⁵And you shall put oil on it and lay frankincense on it. It is a meal offering. ¹⁶And the priest shall burn the memorial of it, of the beaten grain of it, and of the oil of it, with all the frankincense of it. It is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

¹And if his offering is a sacrifice of peace offering, if he offers it of the herd, whether it is a male or female, he shall offer it without blemish before the LORD. ²And he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering, and kill it at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. And the priests, Aaron's sons, shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar around about. ³And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the peace offering, an offering made by fire unto the LORD — he shall take away the fat that covers the inward parts and all the fat that is upon the inward parts, ⁴and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys. ⁵And Aaron's sons shall burn it on the altar upon the burnt sacrifice which is upon the wood that is upon the fire. It is an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to the LORD.

⁶And if his offering for a sacrifice of peace offering to the LORD is of the flocks, male or female, he shall offer it without blemish. ⁷If he offers a lamb for his offering, then he shall offer it before the LORD. ⁸And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his offering and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation. And Aaron's sons shall sprinkle the blood of it round about upon the altar. ⁹And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the peace offering, an offering made by fire unto the LORD. He shall take away the fat of it, and the whole rump (he shall take it off next to the backbone), and the fat that covers the inward parts, and all the fat that is upon the inward parts, ¹⁰and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys. ¹¹And the priest shall burn it upon the altar. It is the food of the offering made by fire unto the LORD.

¹²And if his offering is a goat, then he shall offer it before the LORD. ¹³And he shall lay his hand upon the head of it and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation. And the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle the blood of it upon the altar round about. ¹⁴And he shall offer his offering of it, an offering made by fire unto the LORD. And he shall take away the fat that covers the inward parts, and all the fat that is upon the inward parts, ¹⁵and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys. ¹⁶And the priest shall burn them upon the altar. It is the food of the offering made by fire for a sweet savor. All the fat is the LORD's. ¹⁷*It shall* be a statute forever for your generations throughout all your dwellings, that you eat neither fat nor blood.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²Speak to the children of Israel, saying: If a soul shall sin through ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and shall do against any of them — ³*or* if the priest, who is anointed, sins according to the sin of the people — then let him bring for his sin which he has sinned a young bull without blemish, for a sin-offering. ⁴And he shall bring the bull to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD, and shall lay his hand on the bull's head, and kill the bull before the LORD. ⁵And the priest that is anointed shall take of the bull's blood and bring it to the tabernacle of the congregation. ⁶And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle some of the blood seven times before the LORD, before the veil of the sanctuary. ⁷And the priest shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar of sweet incense before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation. And he shall pour all the blood of the bull at the bottom of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ⁸And he shall take from it all the fat of the bull for the sin offering; the fat that covers the inward parts, and all the fat that is upon the inward parts, ⁹and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, shall he take away — ¹⁰even as it was taken off the bull of the sacrifice of peace offerings. And the priest shall burn them upon the altar of the burnt offering. ¹¹And the skin of the bull, and all its flesh, with its head, and with its legs, and its inward parts, and its dung — ¹²even the whole bull shall he carry forth outside the camp to a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and burn it on the wood with fire. It shall be burned where the ashes are poured out.

¹³And if the whole congregation of Israel sins through ignorance, and the thing is hidden from the eyes of the assembly, and if they have done something against any of the commandments of the LORD as to things which should not be done, and are guilty: ¹⁴when the sin which they have sinned against it is known, then the congregation shall offer a young bull for the sin, and bring him before the tabernacle of the congregation. ¹⁵And the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the head of the bull before the LORD, and the bull shall be killed before the LORD. ¹⁶And the priest that is anointed shall bring of the bull's blood to the tabernacle of the congregation. ¹⁷And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD, before the veil. ¹⁸And he shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar which is before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall pour out all the blood at the bottom of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ¹⁹And he shall take all its fat from it and burn it upon the altar. ²⁰And he shall do with the bull as he did with the bull for a sin offering — so shall he do with this. And the priest shall make an atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them. ²¹And he shall carry forth the bull outside the camp, and burn it as he burned the first bull. It is a sin offering for the congregation.

²²When a ruler has sinned and done something through ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD his God as to things which should not be done, and is guilty — ²³or if his sin which he has sinned comes to his knowledge — he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a male without blemish. ²⁴And he shall lay his hand on the head of the goat and kill it in the place where they killed the burnt offering before the LORD. It is a sin offering. ²⁵And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out its blood at the bottom of the altar of burnt offering. ²⁶And he shall burn all its fat upon the altar, as the fat of the sacrifice of peace offerings. And the priest shall make an atonement for him for his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.

²⁷And if any one of the people of the land sins through ignorance, doing something against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and is guilty — ²⁸or if his sin which he has sinned comes to his knowledge — then he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a female without blemish, for his sin which he has sinned. ²⁹And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and kill the sin offering in the place of the burnt offering. ³⁰And the priest shall take of the blood of it with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood of it at the bottom of the altar. ³¹And he shall take away all the fat of it, as the fat is taken away from off the sacrifice of peace offering. And the priest shall burn it on the altar for a sweet savor to the LORD. And the priest shall make an atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him. ³²And if he brings a lamb for a sin offering, he shall bring a female without blemish. ³³And he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and kill it for a sin offering in the place where they kill the burnt offering. ³⁴And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood of it at the bottom of the altar. ³⁵And he shall take away all the fat of it, as the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of the peace offerings. And the priest shall burn them on the altar, according to the offerings made by fire to the LORD. And the priest shall make an atonement for his sin that he has committed, and it shall be forgiven him.

¹And if a soul sins and hears the voice of swearing, and is a witness, whether he has seen or known, if he does not tell it, then he shall bear his iniquity. ²Or if a soul touches any unclean thing, whether it is a dead body of an unclean beast, or a dead body of unclean tamed beasts, or the dead body of unclean creeping things, and if it is hidden away from him — he also shall be unclean and guilty. ³Or if he touches the uncleanness of man, whatever uncleanness it is that a man shall be defiled with, and it is hidden from him — when he learns of it, then he shall be guilty. ⁴Or if a soul swears, pronouncing with his lips to do evil or to do good, whatever it is that a man shall pronounce with an oath, and it is hidden from him — when he learns of it, then he shall be guilty in one of these. ⁵And when he shall be guilty in one of these things, he shall confess that he has sinned in that thing. ⁶And he shall bring his trespass offering unto the LORD for his sin which he has sinned — a female from the flock, a lamb or a kid of the goats, for a sin offering. And the priest shall make an atonement for him for his sin.

⁷And if he is not able to bring a lamb, then he shall bring for his trespass which he has committed, two turtle-doves or two young pigeons unto the LORD — one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. ⁸And he shall bring them to the priest, who shall offer that which is for the sin offering first, and shall wring off its head from its neck, but shall not tear it apart. ⁹And he shall sprinkle of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, and the rest of the blood shall be wrung out at the bottom of the altar. It is a sin offering. ¹⁰And he shall offer the second for a burnt offering, according to the ordinance. And the priest shall make an atonement for him for his sin which he has sinned, and it shall be forgiven him.

¹¹But if he is not able to bring two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, then he that sinned shall bring for his offering the tenth part of an ē'-phāh of fine flour for a sin offering. He shall put no oil upon it, neither shall he put any frankincense on it. For it is a sin offering. ¹²Then he shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it, a memorial of it, and burn it on the altar, according to the offering made by fire to the LORD. It is a sin offering. ¹³And the priest shall make an atonement for him regarding his sin that he has sinned in one of these, and it shall be forgiven him. And the rest shall be the priest's, as a meal offering.

¹⁴And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁵If a soul commits a trespass and sins through ignorance in the holy things of the LORD, then he shall bring for his trespass to the LORD a ram without blemish out of the flocks, together with an amount set by you, by shekels of silver, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for a trespass offering. ¹⁶And he shall make amends for the harm that he has done in the holy thing, and shall add the fifth part of it, and give it to the priest. And the priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering, and it shall be forgiven him.

¹⁷And if a soul sins and commits any of these things which are forbidden to be done by the commandments of the LORD, though he knows it not, yet he is guilty, and shall bear his iniquity. ¹⁸And he shall bring a ram without blemish out of the flock, together with an amount set by you, for a trespass offering, to the priest. And the priest shall make an atonement for his ignorance in which he erred without knowing it, and it shall be forgiven him. ¹⁹It is a trespass offering. He has certainly trespassed against the LORD.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ²If a soul sins, and commits a trespass against the LORD, and lies to his neighbor in that which was delivered to him to keep, or in fellowship, or in a thing taken away by violence, or has deceived his neighbor, ³or has found that which was lost and lies concerning it and swears falsely — in any of all these that a man does, sinning in it, ⁴then (because he has sinned and is guilty) he shall pay back that which he took away violently, or the thing which he has gotten deceitfully, or that which was delivered to him to keep, or the lost thing which he found, ⁵or all that about which he has sworn falsely. He shall even pay back all of it, and shall add the fifth part more to it, and give it to him to whom it belongs, in the day of his trespass offering. ⁶And he shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD, a ram without blemish out of the flock, together with an amount set by you, for a trespass offering, unto the priest. ⁷And the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD, and it shall be forgiven him for anything of all that he has done in trespassing in it.

⁸And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ⁹Command Aaron and his sons, saying, This is the law of the burnt offering. It is the burnt offering because of the burning upon the altar all night unto the morning, and the fire of the altar shall be burning in it. ¹⁰And the priest shall put on his linen garment. And he shall put his linen breeches upon his flesh and take up the ashes which the fire has consumed with the burnt offering on the altar. And he shall put them beside the altar. ¹¹And he shall put off his garments and put on other garments, and carry forth the ashes outside the camp to a clean place. ¹²And the fire upon the altar shall be burning in it. It shall not be put out. And the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt offering in order upon it. And he shall burn on it the fat of the peace offerings. ¹³The fire shall always be burning upon the altar. It shall never go out.

¹⁴And this is the law of the meal offering. The sons of Aaron shall offer it before the LORD before the altar. ¹⁵And he shall take from it his handful of the flour of the meal offering, and of the oil of it, and all the frankincense which is upon the meal offering, and shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savor, the memorial of it, unto the LORD. ¹⁶And the rest of it Aaron and his sons shall eat. It shall be eaten with unleavened bread in the holy place. They shall eat it in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation. ¹⁷It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it as their portion of My offerings made by fire. It is most holy, as is the sin offering, and as the trespass offering is. ¹⁸All the males among the children of Aaron shall eat of it. It shall be a statute forever in your generations concerning the offerings of the LORD made by fire. Everyone that touches them shall be holy.

²⁴And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²⁵Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, This is the law of the sin offering. In the place where the burnt offering is killed, the sin offering shall be killed before the LORD. It is most holy. ²⁶The priest who offers it for sin shall eat it. It shall be eaten in the holy place, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation. ²⁷Whatever shall touch the flesh of it shall be holy. And when the blood of it is sprinkled on any garment, you shall wash that on which it was sprinkled in the holy place. ²⁸But the earthen vessel in which it is boiled shall be broken. And if it is boiled in a brass pot, it shall be both scoured and rinsed in water. ²⁹All the males among the priests shall eat of it. It is most holy. ³⁰And no sin offering, of which any of the blood is brought into the tabernacle of the congregation for atonement in the holy place, shall be eaten. It shall be burned up in the fire.

¹Likewise this is the law of the trespass offering. It is most holy. ²In the place where they kill the burnt offering, they shall kill the trespass offering. And he shall sprinkle the blood of it round about upon the altar. ³And he shall offer all the fat of it — the rump, and the fat that covers the inwards, ⁴and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them (which is by the flanks), and the caul that is above the liver, with the kidneys, he shall take it away. ⁵And the priest shall burn them upon the altar for an offering made by fire to the LORD. It is a trespass offering. ⁶Every male among the priests shall eat of it. It shall be eaten in the holy place. It is most holy. ⁷As the sin offering is, so is the trespass offering. There is one law for them. The priest that makes atonement with it shall have it. ⁸And the priest that offers any man's burnt offering, that priest shall have the skin of the burnt offering which he has offered for himself. ⁹And all the meal offering that is baked in the oven, and all that is dressed in the frying-pan and in the flat plate, shall be the priest's that offers it. ¹⁰And every meal offering mixed with oil, and dry, shall all the sons of Aaron have, one like another.

¹¹And this is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings which he shall offer unto the LORD. ¹²If he offers it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes mixed with oil, of fine flour, fried. ¹³Besides the cakes, he shall offer for his offering leavened bread with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his peace offerings. ¹⁴And from it he shall offer one cake out of the whole sacrifice for a heave offering unto the LORD. It shall be the priest's that sprinkles the blood of the peace offerings. ¹⁵And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten the same day that it is offered. He shall not leave any of it until the morning. ¹⁶But if the sacrifice of his offering is a vow, or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offers his sacrifice. And on the next day also the rest of it shall be eaten. ¹⁷But the rest of the flesh of the sacrifice of the third day shall be burned with fire. ¹⁸And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of the peace offerings is eaten at all the third day, it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be imputed to him who offers it. It shall be an abomination, and the soul that eats of it shall bear his iniquity. ¹⁹And the flesh that touches any unclean thing shall not be eaten. It shall be burned with fire. And as for the flesh, all who are clean shall eat of it. ²⁰But the soul that eats of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings that pertain to the LORD, having his uncleanness upon him, even that soul shall be cut off from his people. ²¹Moreover the soul that shall touch any unclean thing, like the uncleanness of man, or any unclean animal, or an abominable unclean thing, and eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings which pertain to the LORD, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

²²And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²³Speak to the children of Israel, saying, You shall eat no kind of fat, of ox or of sheep or of goat. ²⁴And the fat of the dead body that dies of itself, and the fat of that which is born with beasts, may be used in any other use. But you shall in no way eat of it. ²⁵For whoever eats the fat of the beast of which men offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, even the soul that eats it shall be cut off from his people. ²⁶Moreover you shall eat no kind of blood, of fowl or of beast, in any of your dwellings. ²⁷Whatever soul eats any kind of blood, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

²⁸And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²⁹Speak to the children of Israel, saying, He who offers the sacrifice of his peace offerings unto the LORD, shall bring his sacrifice unto the LORD of the sacrifice of his peace offerings. ³⁰His own hands shall bring the offerings of the LORD made by fire. He shall bring the fat with the breast, so that the breast may be waved for a wave-offering before the LORD. ³¹And the priest shall burn the fat upon the altar. But the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons'. ³²And you shall give the right shoulder to the priest for a heave offering of the sacrifices of your peace offerings. ³³He among the sons of Aaron who offers the blood of the peace offerings, and the fat, shall have the right shoulder for his part. ³⁴For I have taken the wave breast and the heave shoulder from the children of Israel, off the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons by a statute forever from among the children of Israel.

³⁵This is the portion of the anointing of Aaron, and of the anointing of his sons, out of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, in the day He presented them to minister to the LORD in the priest's office — ³⁶which the LORD commanded to be given to them of the children of Israel, in the day that He anointed them as a statute forever throughout their generations. ³⁷This is the law of the burnt offering, of the meal offering, and of the sin offering, and of the trespass offering, and of the consecrations, and of the sacrifices of the peace offerings, ³⁸which the LORD commanded Moses in Mount Sinai, in the day that He commanded the children of Israel to offer their sacrifices unto the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²Take Aaron, and his sons with him, and the garments, and the anointing oil, and a bull for the sin offering, and two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread. ³And gather all the congregation together to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ⁴And Moses did as the LORD had commanded him. And the assembly was gathered together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ⁵And Moses said unto the congregation, This is the thing which the LORD commanded to be done. ⁶And Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and washed them with water. ⁷And he put upon him the coat, and girded him with the girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod upon him, and girded him with the embroidered girdle of the ephod, and bound it to him with it. ⁸And he put the breast-plate upon him. Also he put in the breast-plate the Ū'-rīm and the Thūm'-mīm. ⁹And he put the miter upon his head. Also he put the golden plate, the holy crown, upon the miter, upon his forehead — even as the LORD commanded Moses. ¹⁰And Moses took the anointing oil and anointed the tabernacle and all that was in it, and sanctified them. ¹¹And he sprinkled some of it upon the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all its vessels — both the laver and its base, to sanctify them. ¹²And he poured of the anointing oil upon Aaron's head and anointed him, to sanctify him.

¹⁸And he brought the ram for the burnt offering. And Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram. ¹⁹And he killed it. And Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about. ²⁰And he cut the ram into pieces. And Moses burned the head and the pieces and the fat. ²¹And he washed the inwards and the legs in water. And Moses burned the whole ram upon the altar. It was a burnt sacrifice for a sweet savor, an offering made by fire unto the LORD — even as the LORD commanded Moses.

²²And he brought the other ram, the ram of consecration. And Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram. ²³And he killed it. And Moses took of the blood of it, and put it upon the tip of Aaron's right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot. ²⁴And he brought Aaron's sons. And Moses put the blood upon the tip of their right ear, and upon the thumbs of their right hands, and upon the great toes of their right feet. And Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about. ²⁵And he took the fat, and the rump, and all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right shoulder. ²⁶And he took one unleavened cake out of the basket of unleavened bread that was before the LORD, and a cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and upon the right shoulder. ²⁷And he put all upon Aaron's hands, and upon his sons' hands, and waved them for a wave offering before the LORD. ²⁸And Moses took them off their hands and burned them on the altar upon the burnt offering. They were consecrations for a sweet savor. It is an offering made by fire unto the LORD. ²⁹And Moses took the breast and waved it for a wave offering before the LORD. It was Moses' part of the ram of consecration — even as the LORD commanded Moses. ³⁰And Moses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which was upon the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons' garments with him. And he sanctified Aaron, his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.

³¹And Moses said to Aaron and to his sons, Boil the flesh at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. And eat it there with the bread that is in the basket of consecrations, as I have commanded, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it. ³²And that which remains of the flesh and of the bread you shall burn with fire. ³³You shall not go out of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation seven days, until the days of your consecration are at an end. For He shall consecrate you seven days. ³⁴As He has done this day, so the LORD has commanded to do, to make an atonement for you. ³⁵Therefore you shall abide at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation day and night seven days, and keep the charge of the LORD, so that you do not die. For so I am commanded. ³⁶So Aaron and his sons did all the things which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

¹And on the eighth day it came to pass that Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the elders of Israel. ²And he said to Aaron, Take a young calf for a sin offering, and a ram without blemish for a burnt offering, and offer before the LORD. ³And to the children of Israel you shall speak saying, Take a kid of the goats for a sin offering, and a calf and a lamb of the first year, all without blemish, for a burnt offering. ⁴Also take a bull and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD. Also take a meal offering mixed with oil. For today the LORD will appear to you.

⁵And they brought that which Moses commanded before the tabernacle of the congregation. And all the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD. ⁶And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commanded that you should do. And the glory of the LORD shall appear to you. ⁷And Moses said to Aaron, Go to the altar, and offer your sin offering and your burnt offerings, and make an atonement for yourself and for the people. And offer the offering of the people, and make an atonement for them — even as the LORD commanded. ⁸Aaron then went to the altar and killed the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself. ⁹And the sons of Aaron brought the blood to him. And he dipped his finger in the blood and put it upon the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the bottom of the altar. ¹⁰But he burned the fat and the kidneys and the caul above the liver of the sin offering on the altar — even as the LORD commanded Moses. ¹¹And he burned the flesh and the hide with fire outside the camp. ¹²And he killed the burnt offering. And Aaron's sons presented to him the blood, which he sprinkled round about upon the altar. ¹³And they presented the burnt offering unto him, ⁸And the LORD spoke to Aaron, saying, ⁹Do not drink wine nor strong drink — neither you nor your sons with you — when you go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest you die. It shall be a statute forever throughout your generations. ¹⁰And it is so that you may put a difference between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean — ¹¹and so that you may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the LORD has spoken to them by the hand of Moses. ¹²And Moses spoke to Aaron, and to Ēl-ē-ā'-zār and to Ith'-ā-mär his sons that were left, Take the meal offering that remains of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and eat it without leaven beside the altar. For it is most holy. ¹³And you shall eat in the holy place, because it is your due, and your sons' due, of the sacrifices of the LORD made by fire. For so I am commanded. ¹⁴And the wave breast and heave shoulder you shall eat in a clean place, you, and your sons and your daughters with you. For it is your due and your sons' due, given out of the sacrifices of peace offerings of the children of Israel. ¹⁵The heave shoulder and the wave breast they shall bring with the offerings made by fire of the fat, to wave for a wave offering before the LORD. And it shall be yours, and your sons' with you, by a statute forever — even as the LORD has commanded.

¹⁶And Moses carefully looked for the goat of the sin offering. And behold! it was burned! And he was angry with Ēl-ē-ā'-zār and Ith'-ā-mär, the sons of Aaron left alive, saying, ¹⁷Why have you not eaten the sin offering in the holy place, since it is most holy, and God has given it to you to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD? ¹⁸Behold! The blood of it was not brought in within the holy place. You should indeed have eaten it in the holy place, as I commanded. ¹⁹And Aaron said to Moses, Behold, this day they have offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD. And such things have befallen me. And if I had eaten the sin offering today, should it have been accepted in the sight of the LORD? ²⁰And when Moses heard, he was content.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying to them, ²Speak to the children of Israel, saying, These are the animals which you shall eat among all the animals that are in the earth. ³Whatever divides the hoof, and is cloven-footed, chewing the cud, among the animals — that you shall eat. ⁴Nevertheless you shall not eat these of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the hoof — the camel, for he chews the cud but does not divide the hoof. He is unclean to you. ⁵And the coney, because he chews the cud but does not divide the hoof. He is unclean to you. ⁶And the hare, because he chews the cud but does not divide the hoof. He is unclean to you. ⁷And the swine, though he en-footed, yet he does not chew the cud. shall not eat of their flesh, and you shall They are unclean to you.

Therefore you shall sanctify yourselves, and you shall be holy, for I am holy. Neither shall you defile yourselves with any kind of creeping thing that creeps upon the earth. ⁴⁵For I am the LORD who brings you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God. You shall therefore be holy, for I am holy. ⁴⁶This is the law of the animals, and of the fowl, and of every living creature that moves in the waters, and of every creature that creeps upon the earth — ⁴⁷to make a difference between the unclean and the clean, and between the beast that may be eaten and the beast that may not be eaten.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a woman has conceived seed and has borne a man child, then she shall be unclean seven days. According to the days of the separation of her infirmity she shall be unclean. ³And in the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be cīr'-cūm-cīsed. ⁴And she shall then continue in the blood of her purifying thirty-three days. She shall touch no holy thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purifying are fulfilled. ⁵But if she bears a girl child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her separation. And she shall continue in the blood of her purifying sixty-six days. ⁶And when the days of her purifying are fulfilled, for a son or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon or a turtle-dove, for a sin offering unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest. ⁷He shall offer it before the LORD, and make an atonement for her. And she shall be cleansed from the issue of her blood. This is the law for her that has borne a male or a female. ⁸And if she is not able to bring a lamb, then she shall bring two turtle-doves or two young pigeons. The one shall be for a burnt offering, and the other for a sin offering. And the priest shall make an atonement for her, and she shall be clean.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, ²When a man has a rising in the skin of his flesh, a scab or bright spot, and it is in the skin of his flesh like the plague of leprosy [lěp'-rō-sēe], then he shall be brought to Aaron the priest, or to one of his sons the priests. ³And the priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh. And when the hair in the plague has turned white, and the plague in sight is deeper than the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosy. And the priest shall look on him and shall pronounce him unclean. ⁴And if the bright spot is white in the skin of his flesh, and in sight is not deeper than the skin, and the hair of it has not turned white, then the priest shall shut up him that has the plague seven days. ⁵And the priest shall look on him the seventh day. And behold, if the plague in his sight is stayed, and the plague has not spread in the skin, then the priest shall shut him up seven days more. ⁶And the priest shall look upon him again in the seventh day. And behold, if the plague is somewhat dark, and the plague has not spread in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean. It is only a scab. And he shall wash his clothes and be clean.

⁷But if the scab spreads much abroad in the skin after he has been seen by the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen by the priest again. ⁸And if the priest sees that the scab spreads in the skin, behold, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a leprosy. ⁹When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought to the priest. ¹⁰And the priest shall look. And behold, if the rising is white in the skin, and if it has turned the hair white and there is quick raw flesh in the rising, ¹¹it is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh. And the priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not shut him up, for he is unclean. ¹²And if a leprosy breaks out on the skin, and the leprosy covers all the skin of him who has the plague from his head even to his foot, wherever the priest looks — ¹³then the priest shall look. And behold, if the leprosy has covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce him clean that has the plague. It has all turned white. He is clean. ¹⁴But when raw flesh appears in him, he shall be unclean. ¹⁵And the priest shall see the raw flesh, and pronounce him to be unclean. The raw flesh is unclean — it is a leprosy. ¹⁶Or if the raw flesh turns again and is changed to white, he shall come to the priest. ¹⁷And the priest shall see him. And behold, if the plague has turned to white, then the priest shall pronounce him clean that has the plague. He is clean.

¹⁸And when anyone has a boil in his skin, and it has healed, ¹⁹and in the place of the boil there is a white rising or a bright spot, white and somewhat reddish, and it is shown to the priest — ²⁰and if, when the priest sees it, behold, it is in sight lower than the skin, and the hair of it has turned white, the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a plague of leprosy broken out of the boil. ²¹But if the priest looks on it, and, behold, there are no white hairs in it, and it is not lower than the skin, but is somewhat dark, then the priest shall shut him up seven days. ²²And if it spreads abroad very much in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a plague. ²³But if the bright spot stays in its place and does not spread, it is a burning boil. And the priest shall pronounce him clean.

²⁴Or if there is any flesh in which the skin has a hot burning, and the living flesh that burns has a white bright spot, somewhat reddish or white, ²⁵then the priest shall look upon it. And behold, if the hair in the bright spot has turned white, and it is in sight deeper than the skin, it is a leprosy broken out of the burning. Therefore the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is the plague of leprosy. ²⁶But if the priest looks on it, and behold, there is no white hair in the bright spot, and it is no lower than the other skin, but is somewhat dark, then the priest shall shut him up seven days. ²⁷And the priest shall look upon him the seventh day. And if it is spread abroad very much in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is the plague of leprosy. ²⁸And if the bright spot stays in its place, and does not spread in the skin, but is somewhat dark, it is a rising of the burning, and the priest shall pronounce him clean — for it is an inflammation of the burning.

²⁹If a man or woman has a plague upon the head or the beard, ³⁰then the priest shall see the plague. And behold, if it is in sight deeper than the skin, and there is a yellow thin hair in it, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a dry scab, a leprosy upon the head or beard. ³¹And if the priest looks on the plague of the scab, and behold, it is not in sight deeper than the skin, and there is no black hair in it, then the priest shall shut him up that has the plague of the scab seven days. ³²And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the plague. And behold, if the scab does not spread, and there is no yellow hair, and the scab is not in sight deeper than the skin, ³³he shall be shaven, but shall not shave the scab. And the priest shall shut him up that has the scab seven days more. ³⁴And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the scab. And behold, if the scab has not spread in the skin, nor is in sight deeper than the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean. And he shall wash his clothes and be clean. ³⁵But if the scab spreads very much in the skin after his cleansing, ³⁶then the priest shall look upon him, and behold, if the scab is spread in the skin, the priest shall not look for yellow hair. He is unclean. ³⁷But if the scab is in his sight stayed, and there is black hair growing up in it, the scab is healed. He is clean, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

⁴⁷Also the garment that has the plague of leprosy in it, whether it is a woolen garment or a linen garment — ⁴⁸whether it is in the warp or woof — of linen or of wool, whether in a skin or in anything made of skin, ⁴⁹and if the plague is greenish or reddish in the garment or in the skin, either in the warp or in the woof or in anything of skin, it is a plague of leprosy. And it shall be shown unto the priest. ⁵⁰And the priest shall look upon the plague, and shut up that which has the plague seven days. ⁵¹And he shall look on the plague upon the seventh day. If the plague is spread in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in any skin or in any work that is made of skin, the plague is a fretting leprosy. It is unclean. ⁵²He shall therefore burn that garment, whether warp or woof, in wool or in linen or anything of skin in which the plague is. For it is a fretting leprosy. It shall be burned in the fire. ⁵³And if the priest shall look, and behold, the plague has not spread in the garment, either in the warp or the woof, of anything of skin, ⁵⁴then the priest shall command that they wash the thing in which the plague is. And he shall shut it up seven days more. ⁵⁵And the priest shall look upon the plague after it is washed, and behold, though the plague has not changed its color and the plague has not spread, it is unclean. You shall burn it in the fire. It is a sunken spot, whether it is bald in the head of it or in the forehead of it. ⁵⁶And if the priest looks, and behold, the plague is somewhat dark after the washing of it, then he shall tear it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof. ⁵⁷And if it appears still in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in anything of skin, it is a spreading plague. You shall burn that in which the plague is, with fire. ⁵⁸And the garment which you shall wash — either warp or woof, or whatever thing of skin it is — if the plague has departed from them, then it shall be washed a second time, and shall be clean. ⁵⁹This is the law of the plague of leprosy in a garment of woolen or linen, either in the warp or woof or anything of skins, to pronounce it clean or to pronounce it unclean.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²This shall be the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing. He shall be brought to the priest. ³And the priest shall go forth out of the camp. And the priest shall look, and behold, if the plague of leprosy is healed in the leper, ⁴then the priest shall command to take two clean live birds for him that is to be cleansed, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop. ⁵And the priest shall command that one of the birds be killed in an earthen vessel over running water. ⁶As for the living bird, he shall take it and the cedar wood and the scarlet and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water. ⁷And he shall sprinkle upon him that is to be cleansed from the leprosy seven times, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird loose into the open field. ⁸And he that is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and wash himself in water so that he may be clean. And after that he shall come into the camp, and shall stay outside his tent seven days.

kill the sin offering and the burnt offering, in the holy place. For as the sin offering is the priest's, so is the trespass offering. It is most holy. ¹⁴And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering, and the priest shall put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot. ¹⁵And the priest shall take some of the log of oil and pour it into the palm of his own left hand. ¹⁶And the priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand and shall sprinkle of the oil with his finger seven times before the LORD. ¹⁷And of the rest of the oil that is in his hand the priest shall put upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the blood of the trespass offering. ¹⁸And the rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall pour upon the head of him that is to be cleansed. And the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD.

¹⁹And the priest shall offer the sin offering and make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed from his uncleanness. And afterward he shall kill the burnt offering. ²⁰And the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the meal offering upon the altar. And the priest shall make an atonement for him, and he shall be clean. ²¹And if he is poor and cannot get so much, then he shall take one lamb for a trespass offering to be waved, to make an atonement for him, and one tenth deal of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering, and a log of oil, ²²and two turtle-doves or two young pigeons, such as he is able to get. And the one shall be a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering. ²³And he shall bring them on the eighth day for his cleansing to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD. ²⁴And the priest shall take the lamb of the trespass offering, and the log of oil, and the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD. ²⁵And he shall kill the lamb of the trespass offering. And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot. ²⁶And the priest shall pour some of the oil into the palm of his own left hand. ²⁷And the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before the LORD. ²⁸And the priest shall put of the oil that is his hand upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the place of the blood of the trespass offering. ²⁹And the rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put upon the head of him that is to be cleansed, to make an atonement for him before the LORD. ³⁰And he shall offer the one of the turtle-doves, or of the young pigeons, such as he is able to get, ³¹*even* such as he is able to get, the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering, with the meal offering. And the priest shall make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed before the LORD. ³²This is the law of him in whom is the plague of leprosy, whose hand is not able to get that which pertains to his cleansing.

³³And the LORD spoke unto Moses and Aaron, saying, ³⁴When you have come into the land of Canaan which I give you for a possession, and I put the plague of leprosy in a house of the land of your possession, ³⁵and he that owns the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, It seems to me there is a plague in the house — ³⁶then the priest shall command that they empty the house before the priest goes to see the plague, so that all that is in the house may not become unclean. And afterwards the priest shall go in to see the house. ³⁷And he shall look on the plague. And behold, if the plague is in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall, ³⁸then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days. ³⁹And the priest shall come again the seventh day and shall look. And behold, if the plague has spread in the walls of the house, ⁴⁰then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and they shall throw them into an unclean place outside the city. ⁴¹And he shall cause the house to be scraped inside all around, and they shall pour out the dust that they scrape off outside the city in an unclean place. ⁴²And they shall take other stones and put them in the place of those stones. And he shall take other mortar and shall plaster the house. ⁴³And if the plague comes again and breaks out in the house after he has taken away the stones and after he has scraped the house, and after it is plastered, ⁴⁴then the priest shall come and look. And behold, if the plague has spread in the house, it is a fretting leprosy in the house. It is unclean.

⁴⁵And he shall break down the house, the stones of it, and the timber of it, and all the mortar of the house, and he shall carry them out of the city into an unclean place. ⁴⁶Moreover he that goes into the house all the while that it is shut up shall be unclean until the evening. ⁴⁷And he that lies in the house shall wash his clothes. And he that eats in the house shall wash his clothes. ⁴⁸And if the priest shall come in and look upon it, and behold, the plague has not spread in the house after the house was plastered, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean because the plague is healed. ⁴⁹And he shall take two birds to cleanse the house, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop [hiss'-op]. ⁵⁰And he shall kill the one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water. ⁵¹And he shall take the cedar wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times. ⁵²And he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar wood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet. ⁵³But he shall let the living bird go out of the city into the open fields, and make an atonement for the house. And it shall be clean. ⁵⁴This is the law for all kinds of plague of leprosy and scab — ⁵⁵and for the leprosy of a garment and of a house, ⁵⁶and for a rising and for a scab and for a bright spot — ⁵⁷to teach when it is unclean and when it is clean. This is the law of leprosy.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, ²Speak unto the children of Israel and say to them, When any man has a running issue out of his flesh, his issue makes him unclean. ³And this shall be his uncleanness in his issue. Whether his flesh runs with his issue, or his flesh is stopped from his issue, it is his uncleanness. ⁴Every bed, on which he lies that has the issue, is unclean. And everything on which he sits shall be unclean. ⁵And whoever touches his bed shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. ⁶And he that sits on anything on which he sat that has the issue, shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. ⁷And he that touches the flesh of him that has the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. ⁸And if he that has the issue spits upon him that is clean, then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. ⁹And whatever saddle he rides upon that has the issue, shall be unclean. ¹⁰And whoever touches anything that was under him shall be unclean until the evening. And he that carries any of those things shall wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. ¹¹And whomever he touches that has the issue, and has not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. ¹²And the earthen vessel that he touches who has the issue shall be broken. And every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water. ¹³And when he that has an issue is cleansed of his issue, then he shall number seven days to himself for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean. ¹⁴And on the eighth day he shall take two turtle-doves to himself, or two young pigeons, and come before the LORD to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and give them to the priest. ¹⁵And the priest shall offer them, the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering. And the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD for his issue. ¹⁶And if any man has an outflow of seed go out from him, then he shall wash all his flesh in water and be unclean until the evening. ¹⁷And every garment and every skin on which the outflow of seed comes shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the evening. ¹⁸Also the woman with whom a man shall lie with outflow of seed, they shall both bathe in water and be unclean until the evening.

²⁵And if a woman has an issue of her blood many days out of the time of her separation, or if it runs beyond the time of her separation, all the days of the issue of her uncleanness shall be as the days of her separation. She shall be unclean. ²⁶Every bed on which she lies all the days of her issue shall be unto her as the bed of her separation, and whatever she sits upon shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of her separation. ²⁷And whoever touches those things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. ²⁸But if she is cleansed of her issue, then she shall number to herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean. ²⁹And on the eighth day she shall take two turtle-doves unto her, or two young pigeons, and bring them to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ³⁰And the priest shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. And the priest shall make atonement for her before the LORD for the issue of her uncleanness. ³¹So you shall separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness, so that they do not die in their uncleanness when they defile My tabernacle that is among them. ³²This is the law of him that has an issue, and of him whose seed goes from him and is defiled with it, ³³and of her that is menstruating, and of him that has an issue, of the man, and of the woman, and of him that lies with her that is unclean.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron—when they offered before the LORD and died—²and the LORD said to Moses, Speak to Aaron your brother, that he does not come at all times into the holy place within the veil before the mercy-seat, which is upon the ark, so that he will not die. For I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy-seat. ³Aaron shall come into the holy place this way: with a young bull for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering. ⁴He shall put on the holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linen girdle, and with the linen miter he shall be dressed. These are holy garments. Therefore he shall wash his flesh in water and put them on. ⁵And he shall take of the congregation of the children of Israel two kids of the goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering. ⁶And Aaron shall offer his bull of the sin offering, which is for himself, and make an atonement for himself and for his house. ⁷And he shall take the two goats and present them before the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ⁸And Aaron shall cast lots upon the two goats — one lot for the LORD and the other lot for the scape-goat. ⁹And Aaron shall bring the goat upon which the LORD's lot fell, and offer it for a sin offering. ¹⁰But the goat on which the lot fell to be the scape-goat, shall be presented alive before the LORD, to make an atonement with him, and to let him go for a scape-goat into the wilderness.

¹⁵Then he shall kill the goat of the sin offering that is for the people, and bring its blood inside the veil. And he shall do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it upon the mercy-seat and before the mercy-seat. ¹⁶And he shall make an atonement for the holy place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions in all their sins. And so he shall do for the tabernacle of the congregation which remains with them in the midst of their uncleanness. ¹⁷And there shall be no man in the tabernacle of the congregation when he goes in to make an atonement in the holy place, until he comes out and has made an atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the congregation of Israel. ¹⁸And he shall go out unto the altar that is before the LORD and make an atonement for it. And he shall take of the blood of the bull, and of the blood of the goat, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about. ¹⁹And he shall sprinkle of the blood upon it with his finger seven times and cleanse it, and hallow it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel.

²⁰And when he has made an end of reconciling the holy place and and the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, he shall bring the live goat. ²¹And Aaron shall lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat, and confess over him all the sins of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions in all their sins, putting them upon the head of the goat, and shall send him away by the hand of a chosen man into the wilderness. ²²And the goat shall bear upon him all their sins unto a land in which no one lives. And he shall let the goat go in the wilderness. ²³And Aaron shall come into the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall put off the linen garments which he put on when he went into the holy place, and shall leave them there. ²⁴And he shall wash his flesh with water in the holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth and offer his burnt offering, and the burnt offering of the people, and make an atonement for himself and for the people. ²⁵And the fat of the sin offering shall he burn upon the altar. ²⁶And he that let go the goat for the scape-goat shall wash his clothes and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward come into the camp. ²⁷And the bull for the sin offering, and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, shall they carry forth outside the camp. And they shall burn their skins in the fire, and their flesh and their dung. ²⁸And he who burns them shall wash his clothes and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp.

²⁹And this shall be a statute forever unto you: in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall afflict your souls and do no work at all — neither one of your own country or a stranger that is staying among you. ³⁰For on that day an atonement shall be made for you to cleanse you, so that you may be clean from all your sins before the LORD. ³¹It shall be a sabbath of rest to you, and you shall afflict your souls, by a statute forever. ³²And the priest whom he shall anoint, and whom he shall consecrate to minister in the priest's office in his father's stead, shall make the atonement and shall put on the linen clothes, the holy garments. ³³And he shall make an atonement for the holy sanctuary, and he shall make an atonement for the tabernacle of the congregation, and for the altar; and he shall make an atonement for the priests and for all the people of the congregation. ³⁴And this shall be an everlasting statute unto you, to make an atonement for the children of Israel for their sins once a year. And he did as the LORD commanded Moses.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say to them, This is the thing which the LORD has commanded, saying, ³Whatever man of the house of Israel kills an ox or lamb or goat in the camp, or kills it out of the camp, ⁴and does not bring it unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer an offering unto the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD – blood shall be charged to that man; he has shed blood. And that man shall be cut off from among his people, ⁵to the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices which they offer in the open field, even that they may bring them unto the LORD, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest, and offer them for peace offerings unto the LORD. ⁶And the priest shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar of the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and burn the fat for a sweet savor unto the LORD. ⁷And they shall no more offer their sacrifices unto devils, after whom they have gone whoring. This shall be a statute forever unto them throughout their generations.

⁸And you shall say to them, Whatever man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who are staying among you, offers a burnt offering or sacrifice, ⁹and does not bring it unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation to offer it unto the LORD, even that man shall be cut off from among his people. ¹⁰And whatever man of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that are staying among you, eats any kind of blood – I will even set My face against that soul who eats blood, and will cut him off from among his people. ¹¹For the life of the flesh is in the blood. And I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls. For it is the blood that makes an atonement for the soul. ¹²Therefore I said unto the children of Israel, No soul of you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger that is staying among you eat blood. ¹³And whatever man of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that are staying among you, hunts and catches any beast or fowl that may be eaten, he shall even pour out the blood of it and cover it with dust. ¹⁴For it is the life of all flesh. The blood of it is for the life of it. Therefore I said unto the children of Israel, You shall eat the blood of no kind of flesh. For the life of all flesh is its blood. Whoever eats it shall be cut off. ¹⁵And every soul that eats that which died of itself, or that which was torn, whether it is one of your own country or a stranger, he shall both wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening. Then he shall be clean. ¹⁶But if he does not wash them, nor bathe his flesh, then he shall bear his iniquity.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, I am the LORD your God. ³You shall not do like the doings of the land of Egypt in which you lived. And you shall not do like the doings of the land of Canaan, where I bring you. Neither shall you walk in their ordinances. ⁴You shall do My judgments and keep My ordinances, to walk in them. I am the LORD your God. ⁵You shall therefore keep My statutes and My judgments, which if a man does, he shall live in them. I am the LORD.

⁶None of you shall approach to any who are near of kin to him, to uncover their nakedness. I am the LORD. ⁷You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father or the nakedness of your mother. She is your mother; you shall not uncover her nakedness. ⁸You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's wife. It is your father's nakedness. ⁹*You shall not uncover* the nakedness of your sister, the daughter of your father or the daughter of your mother, whether born at home or born away. Their nakedness you shall not uncover. ¹⁰The nakedness of your son's daughter, or of your daughter's daughter, you shall not uncover their nakedness. For theirs is your own nakedness. ¹¹*You shall not uncover* the nakedness of your father's wife's daughter, begotten of your father. She is your sister. You shall not uncover her nakedness. ¹²You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's sister. She is your father's near kinswoman. ¹³You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister. For she is your mother's near kinswoman. ¹⁴You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father's brother. You shall not approach to his wife. She is your aunt.

²¹And you shall not let any of your seed pass through the fire to Mō'-lēch, neither shall you profane the name of your God. I am the LORD. ²²You shall not lie with mankind as with womankind. It is hateful to God. ²³Neither shall you lie with any animal to defile yourself with it. Neither shall any woman stand before an animal to lie down to it. It is a shameful mixing. ²⁴Do not defile yourselves in any of these things. For in all these the nations are defiled which I cast out before you. ²⁵And the land is defiled. Therefore I visit its wickedness upon it, and the land itself vomits out those who live in it. ²⁶You shall therefore keep My statutes and My judgments, and shall not commit any of these abominations — neither shall any of your nation, nor any stranger that lives among you. ²⁷(For the men of the land who were before you have done all these abominations, and the land is defiled). ²⁸*You shall not do these* so that the land may not spue you out also when you defile it, as it spued out the nations that were before you. ²⁹For whoever shall commit any of these abominations, even the souls who commit them shall be cut off from among their people. ³⁰Therefore you shall keep My ordinance, that you do not commit any of these abominable customs which were committed before you, and that you do not defile yourselves in them. I am the LORD your God.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²Speak unto all the congregation of the children of Israel and say to them, You shall be holy, for I the LORD your God am holy. ³You shall each man fear his mother and his father, and keep My sabbaths. I am the LORD your God. ⁴Do not turn to idols, nor make molten gods to yourselves. I am the LORD your God. ⁵And if you offer a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD, you shall offer it at your own will. ⁶It shall be eaten the same day you offer it, and on the next day. And if anything remains until the third day, it shall be burned in the fire. ⁷And if it is eaten at all on the third day, it is abominable. It shall not be accepted. ⁸Therefore anyone that eats it shall bear his iniquity, because he has profaned the hallowed thing of the LORD. And that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

²⁹Do not prostitute your daughter, to cause her to be a whore, lest the land fall to whoredom and the land become full of wickedness. ³⁰You shall keep My sabbaths and respect My sanctuary. I am the LORD. ³¹Do not regard those that have familiar spirits, nor seek after wizards to be defiled by them. I am the LORD your God. ³²You shall rise up before the hoary head and honor the face of the old man, and fear your God. I am the LORD. ³³And if a stranger lives with you in your land, you shall not oppress him. ³⁴*But* the stranger that dwells with you shall be unto you as one born among you, and you shall love him as yourself. For you were strangers in the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

³⁵You shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in measures and weights, or in quantity. ³⁶You shall have just balances, just weights, a just é'-phäh, and a just hîn. I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt. ³⁷Therefore you shall observe all My statutes and all My judgments, and do them. I am the LORD.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²Again you shall say to the children of Israel, Whoever of the children of Israel or of the strangers who live in Israel, that gives any of his seed unto Mō'-lēch — he shall surely be put to death. The people of the land shall stone him with stones. ³And I will set My face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people, because he has given of his seed unto Mō'-lēch, to defile My sanctuary, and to profane My holy name. ⁴And if the people of the land in any way hide their eyes from the man when he gives of his seed unto Mō'-lēch, and do not kill him, ⁵then I will set My face against that man and against his family, and will cut him off, and all that go lusting after him to commit adultery with Molech, from among their people.

⁶And the soul that turns after those who have familiar spirits, and after wizards, to go lusting after them, I will even set My face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people. ⁷Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be holy. For I am the LORD your God. ⁸And you shall keep My statutes and do them. I the LORD sanctify you. ⁹And everyone who curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death. He has cursed his father or his mother; his blood shall be upon him. ¹⁰And the man who commits adultery with another man's wife, who commits adultery with his neighbor's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death. ¹¹And the man who lies with his father's wife has uncovered his father's nakedness. Both of them shall surely be put to death. Their blood shall be upon them. ¹²And if a man lies with his daughter-in-law, both of them shall surely be put to death. They have worked confusion; their blood shall be upon them. ¹³If a man also lies with mankind, as he lies with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination. They shall surely be put to death. Their blood shall be upon them. ¹⁴And if a man takes a wife and her mother, it is wickedness. They shall be burned with fire, both he and they, so that there may be no wickedness among you. ¹⁵And if a man lies with an animal, he shall surely be put to death. And you shall kill the animal. ¹⁶And if a woman goes up to any animal and lies down to it, you shall kill the woman and the animal. They shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them. ¹⁷And if a man shall take his sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter, and see her nakedness, and she see his nakedness, it is a wicked thing. And they shall be cut off in the sight of their people. He has uncovered his sister's nakedness; he shall bear his iniquity. ¹⁸And if a man shall lie with a woman having her sickness, and shall uncover her nakedness, he has discovered her fountain, and she has uncovered the fountain of her blood. And both of them shall be cut off from among their people. ¹⁹And you shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister, nor of your father's sister. For he uncovers his near kin. They shall bear their iniquity. ²⁰And if a man shall lie with his uncle's wife, he has uncovered his uncle's nakedness. They shall bear their sin. They shall die childless. ²¹And if a man shall take his brother's wife, it is an unclean thing. He has uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.

²²You shall therefore keep all My statutes and all My judgments, and do them, so that the land where I bring you to live shall not spit you out. ²³And you shall not walk in the ways of the nation which I cast out before you. For they committed all these things, and therefore I hated them. ²⁴But I have said unto you, You shall inherit their land, and I will give it to you to possess it, a land that flows with milk and honey. I am the LORD your God, who has separated you from other people. ²⁵You shall therefore put difference between clean animals and unclean, and between unclean fowls and clean. And you shall not make your souls hateful by beast, or by fowl, or by any kind of living thing that creeps upon the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean. ²⁶And you shall be holy unto Me. For I the LORD am holy, and have severed you from other people so that you should be Mine.

²⁷A man also or woman that has a familiar spirit, or that is a wizard, shall surely be put to death. They shall stone them with stones. Their blood shall be upon them.

¹And the LORD said to Moses, Speak unto the priests the sons of Aaron, and say to them, There shall none be defiled for the dead among his people. ²But for his kin that is near him, for his mother and for his father and for his son and for his daughter and for his brother ³and for his sister a virgin who is near unto him, who has had no husband — for her he may be defiled. ⁴He shall not defile himself, being a chief man among his people, to defile himself. ⁵They shall not make baldness upon their head, nor shall they shave off the corner of their beard, nor make any cuttings in their flesh. ⁶They shall be holy unto their God and not profane the name of their God. For they offer the offerings of the LORD made by fire, the bread of their God. Therefore they shall be holy. ⁷They shall not take a wife who is a whore or defiled. Neither shall they take a woman put away from her husband. For he is holy unto his God. ⁸You shall sanctify him therefore, for he offers the bread of your God. He shall be holy unto you. For I am holy, the LORD who sanctifies you.

¹⁶And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ¹⁷Speak unto Aaron, Whoever of your seed in their generations has any blemish, do not let him approach to offer the bread of his God. ¹⁸For whatever man has a blemish, shall not approach — a blind man, or a lame man, or he that has a flat nose, or anything superfluous, ¹⁹or a man that is broken-footed, or broken-handed, ²⁰or crooked-backed, or a dwarf, or who has a blemish in his eye, or has scurvy, or is scabbed, or has his stones broken — ²¹no man that has a blemish of the seed of Aaron the priest shall come near to offer the offerings of the LORD made by fire. He has a blemish; he shall not come near to offer the bread of his God. ²²He shall eat the bread of his God, both of the most holy and of the holy. ²³Only he shall not go in unto the veil, nor come near unto the altar, because he has a blemish — so that he does not profane My sanctuaries. For I the LORD do sanctify them. ²⁴And Moses told it to Aaron and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, that they set themselves apart from the holy things of the children of Israel, and that they do not profane My holy name in those things which they devote to Me. I am the LORD. ³Say unto them, Whoever of all your seed among your generations that goes unto the holy things, which the children of Israel hallow unto the Lord — if he has his uncleanness upon him, that soul shall be cut off from My presence. I am the LORD. ⁴Whatever man of the seed of Aaron is a leper, or has a running issue, he shall not eat of the holy things until he is clean. And whoever touches anything that is unclean by the dead, or a man whose seed goes from him, ⁵or whoever touches any creeping thing by which he may be made unclean, or a man from whom he may take uncleanness — whatever uncleanness he has, ⁶the soul which has touched any such things shall be unclean until evening. And he shall not eat of the holy things unless he washes his flesh with water. ⁷And when the sun is down, he shall be clean, and shall afterward eat of the holy things, because it is his food. ⁸He shall not eat that which dies of itself, or is torn, to defile himself with them. I am the LORD. ⁹They shall therefore keep My ordinance, lest they bear sin for it and therefore die if they defile it. I the LORD sanctify them. ¹⁰There shall no stranger eat of the holy things. A stranger staying with the priest, or a hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing. ¹¹But if the priest buys any soul with his money, he shall eat of it. And he that is born in his house shall eat of his food. ¹²If the priest's daughter also is married to a stranger, she may not eat of an offering of the holy things. ¹³But if the priest's daughter is a widow, or divorced, and has no child, and has returned unto her father's house, as in her youth — she shall eat of her father's food. But no stranger shall eat of it.

¹⁷And the Lord spoke to Moses saying, ¹⁸Speak to Aaron and to his sons and to all the children of Israel, and say unto them: Whoever of the house of Israel or of the strangers in Israel offers his sacrifices for his vows, for all his free-will offerings, which they will offer unto the LORD for a burnt offering — ¹⁹*you shall offer* at your own will a male without blemish, of the cattle, of the sheep, or of the goats. ²⁰*But* you shall not offer that which has a blemish. For it shall not be acceptable for you. ²¹And whoever offers a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD to carry out his vow, or a free-will offering in cattle or sheep, it shall be perfect to be accepted. There shall be no blemish in them. ²²Blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a wen, or having scurvy, or scabbed, you shall not offer these unto the LORD, nor make an offering by fire of them upon the altar unto the LORD. ²³Either a bull or a lamb that has anything superfluous or lacking in his parts, you may offer that for a free-will offering. But for a vow it shall not be accepted. ²⁴You shall not offer unto the LORD that which is bruised or crushed, or broken or cut. Neither shall you make any offering of it in your land. ²⁵Neither out of a stranger's hand shall you offer the bread of your God of any of these, because their uncleanness is in them, and blemishes are in them. They shall not be accepted for you.

²⁶And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²⁷When a bull or a sheep or a goat is brought forth, then it shall be seven days under the dam. And from the eighth day and from then on, it shall be accepted for an offering made by fire unto the LORD. ²⁸And whether it is cow or ewe, you shall not kill it and its young both in one day. ²⁹And when you will offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving unto the LORD, offer it at your own will. ³⁰On the same day it shall be eaten up. You shall leave none of it until the next day. I am the LORD. ³¹Therefore you shall keep My commandments, and do them. I am the LORD. ³²Neither shall you profane My holy name. But I will be holy among the children of Israel. I am the LORD who makes you holy, ³³who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God. I am the LORD.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²Speak unto the children of Israel and say unto them, The feasts of the LORD, which you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, even these are My feasts. ³Six days shall work be done, but the seventh day is the sabbath of rest, a holy no work of labor, but you shall offer an offering of the first-fruits of the harvest of the LORD, holy convocations in their seasons. ⁵In the fourteenth day of the LORD's Passover, ⁶and on the fifteenth day the feast of unleavened bread to the LORD, shall last seven days. ⁷In the first day you shall do no work of labor in these days, offering made by fire unto the LORD seven days a holy convocation. You shall do no work of labor. ⁸As Moses saying, ¹⁰Speak unto the children of Israel. When you have come into the land which I give you, when you reap the harvest of it, then you shall bring an offering of your harvest unto the priest. ¹¹And he shall offer it unto the LORD to be received for you. On the next day the priest shall wave it. ¹²And you shall offer with the sheaf a male lamb without blemish of the first year unto the LORD. ¹³And the meal offering shall be of fine flour mixed with oil, an offering made by fire for a sweet savor. And the drink offering shall be of wine, the fourth part of a hin. ¹⁴And you shall eat of the bread of your grain, nor green ears, until the same day of the offering unto your God. It shall be a statute forever in all your dwellings.

And you shall observe the day from the next day after the sabbath, when you wave the sheaf of the wave offering; seven days shall it be. ¹⁶Even unto the next day after the seventh day, fifty days. And you shall offer a new meal offering. You shall bring out of your homes two wave offerings. They shall be of fine flour. They shall be waved before the LORD. ¹⁸And you shall offer seven lambs without blemish of the first year, and two rams. They shall be for a burnt offering with their meal offering, and their drink offering shall be by fire of sweet savor unto the LORD. And one kid of the goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings. ²⁰And the bread of the first-fruits of a wave offering shall be of the two lambs. They shall be holy to the LORD. And you shall proclaim on the same day that this day shall be unto you. You shall do no work of labor, but you shall observe it in all your dwellings throughout your gen-

²²And when you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not completely clean the land, neither shall you gather any gleanings of your harvest. You shall leave them to the poor and to the stranger. I am the LORD your God.

²³And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²⁴Speak to the children of Israel saying: In the seventh month, in the first day of the month, you shall have a sabbath, a memorial of blowing of trumpets — a holy convocation. ²⁵You shall do no work of labor but you shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD. ²⁶And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²⁷Also on the tenth day of this seventh month shall be a day of atonement. It shall be a holy convocation to you. And you shall afflict your souls and offer an offering made by fire to the LORD. ²⁸And you shall do no work in that same day — for it is a day of atonement, in order to make an atonement for you before the LORD your God. ²⁹For whatever soul shall not be afflicted in that same day, he shall be cut off from among his people. ³⁰And whatever soul does any work in that same day, the same soul will I destroy from among his people. ³¹You shall do no kind of work. It shall be a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings. ³²It shall be to you a sabbath of rest, and you shall afflict your souls. In the ninth day of the month, from evening unto evening, you shall keep your sabbath.

³³And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ³⁴Speak to the children of Israel, saying, The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the feast of tabernacles for seven days to the LORD. ³⁵On the first day shall be a holy convocation. You shall do no work of labor. ³⁶Seven days you shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD. On the eighth day shall be a holy convocation unto you. And you shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD. It is a solemn assembly. And you shall do no work of labor. ³⁷These are the feasts of the LORD which you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, a burnt offering and a meal offering, a sacrifice, and drink offerings, everything upon its day. ³⁸*This shall be* besides the sabbath of the LORD, and besides your gifts, and besides all your vows, and besides all your free-will offerings which you give unto the LORD. ³⁹Also in the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the fruit of the land, you shall keep a feast unto the LORD seven days. On the first day shall be a sabbath, and on the eighth day shall be a sabbath. ⁴⁰And you shall take the boughs of goodly trees for yourselves on the first day, branches of palm trees, and the boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook, and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God seven days. ⁴¹And you shall keep it a feast unto the LORD seven days in the year. It shall be a statute forever in your generations. You shall keep it in the seventh month. ⁴²You shall live in booths seven days. All that are born Israelites shall live in booths, ⁴³so that your generations may know that I made the children of Israel live in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God. ⁴⁴And Moses declared the feasts of the LORD unto the children of Israel.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²Command the children of Israel that they bring unto you pure olive oil, beaten, for the light, to cause the lamps to be always burning. ³Aaron shall order it from evening until the morning before the LORD forever outside the veil of the testimony, in the tabernacle of the congregation. It shall be a statute forever in your generations. ⁴He shall order the lamps upon the pure lampstand before the LORD forever.

¹⁰And the son of a woman of Israel, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel. And this son of the woman of Israel and a man of Israel struggled together in the camp. ¹¹And the son of the woman of Israel blasphemed the name of the LORD, and cursed. And they brought him to Moses. (And his mother's name was Shē-lō'-mīth, the daughter of Dīb'-rī, of the tribe of Dan.) ¹²And they put him in ward, so that the mind of the LORD might be shown to them. ¹³And the LORD spoke unto Moses saying, ¹⁴Bring forth him who has cursed outside the camp, and let all that heard him lay their hands upon his head, and let all the congregation stone him. ¹⁵And you shall speak to the children of Israel saying, Whoever curses his God shall bear his sin. ¹⁶And he that blasphemeth the name of the LORD shall surely be put to death. All the congregation shall surely stone him. And the stranger as well, even as he that is born in the land; when he blasphemeth the Name, he shall be put to death.

²³And Moses spoke to the children of Israel that they should bring him forth who had cursed outside the camp, and stone him with stones. And the children of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses in Mount Sinai, saying, ²Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, When you come into the land which I give you, then shall the land keep a sabbath unto the LORD. ³You shall sow your field six years, and you shall prune your vineyard six years, and gather in the fruit of it. ⁴But in the seventh year shall be a sabbath of rest to the land, a sabbath for the LORD. You shall neither sow your field, nor prune your vineyard. ⁵You shall not reap that which grows of its own accord of your harvest, neither gather the grapes of your undressed vine. It is a year of rest to the land. ⁶And the sabbath of the land shall be food for you — for you and for your servant, and for your maid and for your hired servant, and for your stranger who stays with you, ⁷and for your cattle, and for the beasts that are in your land, shall all the increase of it be food.

⁸And you shall number seven sabbaths of years to you, seven times seven years. And the time of the seven sabbaths of years shall be forty-nine years to you. ⁹Then you shall cause the trumpet of the jū'-bī-lēe to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month — in the day of atonement shall you make the trumpet sound throughout all your land. ¹⁰And you shall make the fiftieth year holy, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land to all those who live in it. It shall be a jū'-bī-lēe to you, and you shall return each man to his possession, and you shall return each man unto his family. ¹¹That fiftieth year shall be a jubilee to you. You shall not sow, neither reap that which grows of itself in it, nor gather in it of your undressed vine. ¹²For it is the jubilee. It shall be holy to you. You shall eat the increase of it out of the field. ¹³In the year of this jubilee you shall return each man to his possession. ¹⁴And if you sell anything to your neighbor, or buy from your neighbor's hand, you shall not oppress one another. ¹⁵According to the number of years after the jubilee you shall buy of your neighbor, according to the number of the fruits he shall sell to you. ¹⁶According to the number of years you shall increase the price of it, and according to the fewness of years you shall cut down the price of it. For according to the number of the years of the fruits he sells to you. ¹⁷You shall not therefore oppress one another. But you shall fear your God. For I am the LORD your God.

¹⁸Therefore you shall do My statutes, and keep My judgments and do them. And you shall dwell in the land in safety. ¹⁹And the land shall yield its fruits, and you shall eat your fill and dwell in it in safety. ²⁰And if you shall say, What shall we eat the seventh year? Behold, we shall not sow nor gather in our increase! ²¹Then I will command My blessing upon you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for three years. ²²And you shall sow the eighth year, and still eat of old fruit until the ninth year — until its fruits come in, you shall eat of the old fruit.

²³The land shall not be sold forever — for the land is Mine. For you are strangers and pilgrims with Me. ²⁴And in all the land of your possession you shall grant a redemption for the land. ²⁵If your brother has become poor, and has sold away some of his possessions, and if any of his relatives come to redeem it, then he shall redeem that which his brother sold. ²⁶And if the man has nobody to redeem it, and he himself is able to redeem it, ²⁷then let him count the years of the sale of it, and restore the overplus to the man to whom he sold it — so that he may return to his possession. ²⁸But if he is not able to restore it to him, then that which is sold shall remain in the hand of him that has bought it until the year of jubilee. And in the jubilee it shall go out, and he shall return to his possession. ²⁹And if a man sells a dwelling house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold. He may redeem it within a full year. ³⁰And if it is not redeemed within the time of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be made sure forever to him who bought it throughout his generations. It shall not go out in the jubilee. ³¹But the houses of the villages which have no walls round about them shall be counted as the fields of the country. They may be redeemed, and they shall go out in the jubilee. ³²However, the Levites may redeem the cities of the Levites, the houses of the cities of their possession, at any time. ³³And if a man purchases a house from the Levites, then the house that was sold and the city of his possession shall go out in the year of jubilee. For the house of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel. ³⁴But the field of the suburbs of their cities may not be sold, or it is theirs forever.

³⁵And if your brother has become poor, and his hand has failed with you, then you shall help him — yes, even if he is a stranger or a visitor — so that he may live with you — ³⁶take no interest from him, no increase. But fear your God, so that your brother may live with you. You shall not give him your money on interest, nor lend him your good for increase. ³⁸I am the LORD your God who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan and to be our God. ³⁹And if your brother who lives beside you has become poor, and is sold to you, you shall not compel him to serve as a bond-servant. ⁴⁰But as a hired servant, as a sojourner, he shall be with you, and shall serve you until the year of jubilee. ⁴¹And then he shall depart from you, he and his children with him, and shall return unto his own family. And he shall return unto the possession of his fathers. ⁴²For they are My servants, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt. They shall not be sold as bondmen. ⁴³You shall not rule over him with rigor, but shall fear your God. ⁴⁴Both your bondmen, and your bondmaids whom you shall have, shall be of the heathen that are round about you. You shall buy bondmen and bondmaids from them. ⁴⁵Moreover, of the children of the strangers that live among you, you shall buy from them and from their families that are with you, whom they begot in your land. And they shall be yours. ⁴⁶And you shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit as yours. They shall be your bondmen forever. But you shall not rule over your brothers, the children of Israel, over one another, with harshness.

⁴⁷And if a visitor or stranger becomes rich among you, and your brother who dwells beside him becomes poor and sells himself to the stranger or visitor by you, or to the stock of the stranger's family, ⁴⁸after he is sold he may be redeemed again. One of his brothers may redeem him — ⁴⁹either his uncle or his uncle's son may redeem him, or any that is near of kin to him of his family may redeem him. Or if he is able, he may redeem himself. ⁵⁰And he shall count with him that bought him from the year that he was sold to him, until the year of jubilee. And the price of his sale shall be according to the number of years, according to the time of a hired servant it shall be with him. ⁵¹If there are still many years, he shall give again the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for, according to the years. ⁵²And if there remain but few years unto the year of jubilee, then he shall count with him, and according to his years he shall give him again the price of his redemption. ⁵³And as a yearly hired servant he shall be with him. And the other shall not rule with harshness over him in your sight. ⁵⁴And if he is not redeemed in these years, then he shall go out in the year of jubilee — he and his children with him. ⁵⁵For unto Me the children of Israel are servants. They are My servants whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

¹You shall make no idols nor graven image, neither rear up a pillar. Neither shall you set up any image of stone in your land in order to bow down to it. For I am the LORD your God. ²You shall keep My sabbaths and revere My sanctuary. I am the LORD. ³If you walk in My statutes and keep My commandments and do them, ⁴then I will give you rain in due season, and the land shall yield her increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit. ⁵And your threshing shall reach to the vintage, and the vintage shall reach to the sowing time. And you shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely. ⁶And I will give peace in the land, and you shall lie down and none shall make you afraid. And I will cause evil beasts to cease out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land. ⁷And you shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword. ⁸And five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight. And your enemies shall fall by the sword in front of you. ⁹For I will have respect to you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and establish My covenant with you. ¹⁰And you shall eat of the old, and bring forth the old because of the new. ¹¹And I will set My tabernacle among you. And My soul shall not abhor you. ¹²And I will walk among you and will be your God, and you shall be My people. ¹³I am the LORD your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt so that you should not be their bondmen. And I have broken the bonds of your yoke, and made you go upright.

¹⁴But if you will not listen to Me, and will not do all these commandments, ¹⁵and if you shall despise My statutes, or if your soul hates My judgments, so that you will not do all My commandments, so that you break My covenant — ¹⁶I will also do this to you: I will even appoint terror over you, consumption, and the burning fever that shall consume the eyes and cause sorrow of heart. And you shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it. ¹⁷And I will set My face against you, and you shall be slain before your enemies. They that hate you shall reign over you. And you shall flee when none pursues you. ¹⁸And if you will not yet listen to Me for all this, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins. ¹⁹And I will break the pride of your power, and I will make your heaven like iron and your earth like brass. ²⁰And your strength shall be spent in vain. For your land shall not yield its increase, neither shall the trees of the field yield their fruits.

²¹And if you walk contrary to Me, and will not listen to Me, I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins. ²²I will also send wild beasts among you, who shall rob you of your children and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number. And your highways shall be deserted. ²³And if you will not be reformed by Me by these things, but will still walk contrary to Me, ²⁴then I will walk contrary to you and will punish you seven times more for your sins. ²⁵And I will bring a sword upon you that shall execute the vengeance of the covenant. And when you are gathered together inside your cities, I will send the plague among you. And you shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy. ²⁶And when I have broken the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver you your bread again by weight. And you shall eat and not be satisfied. ²⁷And if you will not for all of this listen to Me, but will walk contrary to Me, ²⁸then I will walk contrary to you also in fury. And I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins. ²⁹And you shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters you shall eat. ³⁰And I will destroy your high places and cut down your images, and throw your carcasses upon the carcasses of your idols, and My soul shall despise you. ³¹And I will make your cities waste and cause your sanctuaries to be deserted. And I will not smell the savor of your sweet odors. ³²And I will turn the land into wasteland. And your enemies who dwell in it shall be astonished at it. ³³And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you. And your land shall be waste, and your cities waste.

³⁴Then shall the land enjoy its sabbaths, as long as it lies waste, and you are in your enemies' land. Then shall the land rest and enjoy its sabbaths. ³⁵As long as it lies waste it shall rest, because it did not rest in your sabbaths when you lived on it. ³⁶And upon those of you that are left alive I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies. And the sound of a shaking leaf shall chase them, and they shall flee as if fleeing from a sword. And they shall fall when none pursues. ³⁷And they shall fall upon one another, as if it were before a sword, when none pursues. And you shall have no power to stand before your enemies. ³⁸And you shall perish among the heathen, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up. ³⁹And they that are left of you shall pine away in their wilful sin in your enemies' lands. And also they shall pine away with them in the perversities of their fathers. ⁴⁰If they shall confess their wilfulness and the wilfulness of their fathers, with their sin which they sinned against Me, and that also they have walked contrary to Me, ⁴¹and that I also have walked contrary to them and have brought them into the land of their enemies – if then their uncircumcised hearts are humbled, and they then accept the punishments of their wickedness, ⁴²then I will remember My covenant with Jacob, and also My covenant with Isaac, and also My covenant with Abraham I will remember. And I will remember the land. ⁴³The land also shall be left of them, and shall enjoy its sabbaths, while it lies waste without them. And they shall accept the punishment of their iniquities – because, even because they despised My judgments, and because their soul hated My statutes. ⁴⁴And yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not cast them away, neither will I hate them, to destroy them utterly and to break My covenant with them. For I am the LORD their God. ⁴⁵But for their sakes, I will remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the heathen, so that I might be their God. I am the LORD.

⁴⁶These are the statutes and judgments and laws, which the Lord made between Him and the children of Israel in Mount Sinai by the hand of Moses.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²Speak to the children of Israel and say unto them, When a man shall make a special vow, the persons shall be for the LORD by your evaluation. ³And your judgment shall be of the male from twenty years old even to sixty years old, even your judgment shall be fifty shekels of silver, after the shekel of the sanctuary. ⁴And if it is a female, then your judgment shall be thirty shekels. ⁵And if it is from five years old to twenty years old, then your judgment shall be of the male twenty shekels, and for the female ten shekels. ⁶And if it is from a month old to five years old, then your judgment shall be of the male five shekels of silver, and for the female your judgment shall be three shekels of silver. ⁷And if it is from sixty years old and above, if it is a male then your judgment shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels. ⁸But if he is poorer than your judgment, then he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall value him. The priest shall value him according to the ability of him who vowed. ⁹And if it is an animal of which men bring an offering unto the LORD, all that any man gives of such to the LORD shall be holy. ¹⁰He shall not alter it nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good. And if he shall at all change animal for animal, then it and the exchange of it shall be holy. ¹¹And if it is any unclean animal, of which they do not offer a sacrifice unto the LORD, then he shall present the animal before the priest. ¹²And the priest shall value it, whether it is good or bad. As you value it, you who are the priest, so shall it be. ¹³But if he will at all redeem it, then he shall add a fifth part of it to what you judged.

¹⁴And when a man shall sanctify his house to be holy unto the LORD, then the priest shall judge it, whether it is good or bad. As the priest shall judge it, so shall it stand. ¹⁵And if he who sanctified it desires to redeem his house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of your judgment to it, and it shall be his. ¹⁶And if a man shall sanctify to the LORD some part of a field that he owns, then your judgment shall be according to the seed of it. A homer of barley seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver. ¹⁷If he sanctifies his field from the year of jubilee, according to your judgment it shall stand. ¹⁸But if he sanctifies his field after the jubilee, then the priest shall reckon to him the money according to the years that remain, even until the year of jubilee, and it shall be taken from your estimation. ¹⁹And if he who sanctified the field desires in any way to redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of your estimation to it, and it shall be made sure to him. ²⁰And if he will not redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more. ²¹But the field, when it goes out in the jubilee, shall be holy unto the LORD, as a field devoted. The possession of it shall be the priest's. ²²And if a man sanctifies to the LORD a field which he has bought, which is not of the fields he owns, ²³then the priest shall count to him the worth of your estimation, until the year of jubilee. And he shall give your estimation in that day, as a holy thing to the LORD. ²⁴In the year of the jubilee the field shall return to him from whom it was bought, to him to whom the possession of the land belonged. ²⁵And all your judgments shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary – twenty gē'-rāhs shall be the shekel.

²⁶Only the firstborn of an animal, which should be the LORD's firstborn, no man shall sanctify it – whether it is an ox, or sheep, it is the LORD's. ²⁷And if it is of an unclean animal, then he shall redeem it according to your estimation, and shall add a fifth part of it to it. Or if it is not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to your estimation. ²⁸However, no devoted thing that a man shall devote to the LORD of all that he has, either of man or animal, or of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed. Every devoted thing is most holy to the LORD. ²⁹Nothing devoted, which shall be devoted of men, shall be redeemed, but shall surely be put to death. ³⁰And all the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land, or of the fruit of the tree, is the LORD's. It is holy to the LORD. ³¹And if a man will at all redeem anything of his tithes, he shall add to it the fifth part of it. ³²And concerning the tithe of the herd, or of the flock, of whatever passes under the rod, the tenth shall be holy to the LORD ³³He shall not search whether it is good or bad, neither shall he change it. And if he changes it at all, then both it and the change of it shall be holy. It shall not be redeemed.

The Book of NUMBERS

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the tabernacle of the congregation, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying, ²Take the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, with the number of names, every male by their polls — ³from twenty years old and upward, all that are able to go forth to war in Israel. You and Aaron shall number them by their armies. ⁴And with you there shall be a man of every tribe, each one head of the house of his fathers. ⁵And these are the names of the men that shall stand with you. Of the tribe of Reuben, Šē-lī'-zūr the son of Shēd'-ē-ūr. ⁶Of Simeon, Shē-lū'-mī-ēl the son of Zū-ī-shād'-daī. ⁷Of Judah, Nāh'-shōn the son of Ām-mīn'-ā-dāb. ⁸Of Is'-sā-šār, Nēth'-ā-nēel the son of Zū'-ār. ⁹Of Zē-bū'-lūn, Ē-lī'-āb the son of Hē'-lōn. ¹⁰Of the children of Joseph: of Ē'-phrā-īm, Ē-lī'-shā-mā the son of Ām'mī-hūd: of Mā-nās'-sēh, Gā-mā'-lī-ēl the son of Pē-dāh'-zūr. ¹¹Of Benjamin, Ā-bī'-dān the son of Gīd-ē-ō'nī. ¹²Of Dan, Ā-hī-ē'-zēr the son of Ām-mī-shād'-daī. ¹³Of Asher, Pā'-gī-ēl the son of Ōc'-rān. ¹⁴Of Gad, Ē-lī'-ā-sāph the son of Deū'-ēl. ¹⁵Of Nāph'-tā-lī, Ā-hī'-rā the son of Ē'-nān. ¹⁶These were the noted ones of the congregation, princes of the tribes of their fathers, heads of thousands in Israel.

²²Of the children of Simeon, by their generations, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, those that were numbered of them, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war — ²³those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Simeon, were fifty-nine thousand, three hundred. ²⁴Of the children of Gad, by their generations, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war — ²⁵those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Gad, were forty-five thousand, six hundred and fifty. ²⁶Of the children of Judah, by their generations, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war — ²⁷those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Judah, were seventy-four thousand, six hundred.

²⁸Of the children of Is'-sā-chār, by their generations, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war — ²⁹those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Is'-sā-chār, were fifty-four thousand, four hundred. ³⁰Of the children of Zē-bū'-lūn, by their generations, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war — ³¹those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Zē-bū'-lūn, were fifty-seven thousand, four hundred. ³²Of the children of Joseph, of the children of Ē'-phrā-īm, by their generations, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war — ³³those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Ē'-phrā-īm, were forty thousand, five hundred. ³⁴Of the children of Mā-nās'-sēh, by their generations, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war — ³⁵those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Manasseh, were thirty-two thousand, two hundred.

³⁶Of the children of Benjamin, by their generations, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war — ³⁷those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Benjamin, were thirty-five thousand, four hundred. ³⁸Of the children of Dan, by their generations, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war — ³⁹those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Dan, were sixty-two thousand, seven hundred. ⁴⁰Of the children of Asher, by their generations, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war — ⁴¹those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Asher, were forty-one thousand, five hundred. ⁴²Of the children of Nāph'-tā-li, by their generations, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war — ⁴³those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Nāph'-tā-li, were fifty-three thousand, four hundred.

⁴⁴These are those who were numbered, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, and the princes of Israel numbered, being twelve men. Each one was for the house of his fathers. ⁴⁵So were all those that were numbered of the children of Israel, by the house of their fathers, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war in Israel — ⁴⁶even all those who were numbered were six hundred three thousand, five hundred and fifty.

⁴⁷But the Levites, according to the tribe of their fathers, were not numbered among them. ⁴⁸For the LORD had spoken to Moses saying, ⁴⁹Only you shall not number the tribe of Levi, neither take the sum of them among the children of Israel. ⁵⁰But you shall set the Levites over the tabernacle of testimony, and over all the vessels of it, and over all things that belong to it. They shall carry the tabernacle and all the vessels of it. And they shall serve it, and shall camp around the tabernacle. ⁵¹And when the tabernacle sets forth, the Levites shall take it down. And when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up. And the stranger who comes near shall be put to death. ⁵²And the children of Israel shall pitch their tents, every man by his own camp, and every man by his own banner, throughout their armies. ⁵³But the Levites shall pitch around the tabernacle of testimony, so that there may be no wrath upon the congregation of the children of Israel. And the Levites shall keep the charge of the tabernacle of testimony. ⁵⁴And the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses. So they did.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ²Every man of the children of Israel shall pitch by his own banner, with the banner of their father's house. They shall pitch far off, around the tabernacle of the congregation. ³And those who pitch on the east side toward the rising of the sun shall be those of the banner of the camp of Judah, throughout their armies. And Nāh'-shōn the son of Ām-mīn'-ā-dāb shall be captain of the children of Judah. ⁴And his army, and those that were numbered of them, were seventy-four thousand, six hundred. ⁵And those that pitch next to him shall be the tribe of Īs'-sā-chār. And Nēth'-ā-nēel the son of Zū'-ār shall be captain of the children of Īs'-sā-chār. ⁶And his army, and those that were numbered of it, were fifty-four thousand, four hundred. ⁷Then the tribe of Zē-bū'-lūn. And Ē-lī'-āb shall be captain of the children of Zē-bū'-lūn. ⁸And his army, and those that were numbered of it, were fifty-seven thousand, four hundred. ⁹All that were numbered in the camp of Judah were a hundred eighty-six thousand, four hundred, throughout their armies. These shall go forward first.

¹⁰On the south side shall be the banner of the camp of Reuben, according to their armies. And the captain of the children of Reuben shall be Ē-lī'-zūr the son of Shēd'-ē-ūr. ¹¹And his army, and those that were numbered of it, were forty-six thousand, five hundred. ¹²And those who pitch beside him shall be the tribe of Simeon. And the captain of the children of Simeon shall be Shē-lú'-mī-ēl the son of Zū-rī-shād'-daī. ¹³And his army, and those that were numbered of them, were fifty-nine thousand, three hundred. ¹⁴Then the tribe of Gad. And the captain of the sons of Gad shall be Ē-lī'-ā-sāph the son of Deū'-ēl. ¹⁵And his army, and those that were numbered of them, were forty-five thousand, six hundred and fifty. ¹⁶All that were numbered in the camp of Reuben were a hundred fifty-one thousand, four hundred and fifty, throughout their armies. And they shall go forward in the second rank.

¹⁷Then the tabernacle of the congregation shall go forward with the camp of the Levites in the midst of the camp. As they camp, so they shall go forward, each man in his place, by their banners.

¹⁸On the west side shall be the banner of the camp of Ephraim, according to their armies. And the captain of the sons of Ephraim shall be Ē-lī'-shā-mā the son of Ām'mī-hūd. ¹⁹And his army, and those that were numbered with them, were forty thousand, five hundred. ²⁰And beside him shall be the tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh. And the captain of the children of Mā-nās'-sēh shall be Gā-mā'-lī-ēl the son of Pē-dāh'-zūr. ²¹And his army, and those that were numbered of them, were thirty-two thousand, two hundred. ²²Then the tribe of Benjamin. And the captain of the sons of Benjamin shall be Ā-bī'-dān the son of Gīd-ē-ō'-nī. ²³And his army, and those that were numbered of them, were thirty-five thousand, four hundred. ²⁴All that were numbered of the camp of Ephraim were a hundred eight thousand, one hundred, by their armies. And they shall go forward in the third rank.

²⁵The banner of the camp of Dan shall be on the north side of their armies. And the captain of the children of Dan shall be Ā-hī-ē'-zēr the son of Ām-mī-shād'-daī. ²⁶And his army, and those that were numbered of them, were sixty-two thousand, seven hundred. ²⁷And those that camp beside him shall be the tribe of Asher. And the captain of the children of Asher shall be Pā'-gī-ēl the son of Ōc'-rān. ²⁸And his army, and those that were numbered of them, were forty-one thousand, five hundred. ²⁹Then the tribe of Nāph'-tā-lī. And the captain of the children of Nāph'-tā-lī shall be Ā-hī'-rā the son of Ē'-nān. ³⁰And his army, and those that were numbered of them, were fifty-three thousand, four hundred. ³¹All those who were numbered in the camp of Dan were a hundred fifty-seven thousand, six hundred. They shall go last with their banners.

³²These are those who were numbered of the children of Israel by the house of their fathers. All those who were numbered of the camps throughout their armies were six hundred three thousand, five hundred and fifty. ³³But the Levites were not numbered among the children of Israel, even as the LORD commanded Moses. ³⁴And the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses. So they pitched by their banners, and so they went forward, everyone according to their families, according to the house of their fathers.

¹These also are the generations of Aaron and Moses in the day that the LORD spoke with Moses in Mount Sinai. ²And these are the names of the sons of Aaron: Nā'-dāb the first-born, and Ā-bī'-hū, Ēl-ē-ā'-zār, and Ith'-ā-mār. ³These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the priests who were anointed, whom he set apart to minister in the priest's office. And Nā'-dāb and Ā-bī'-hū died before the LORD when they offered strange fire before the LORD in the wilderness of Sinai. And they had 10 children. And Ēl-ē-ā'-zār and Ith'-ā-mār ministered in the priest's office in the presence of Aaron their father.

¹¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ¹²And I, behold, I have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel instead of all the first-born that opens the womb among the children of Israel. Therefore the Levites shall be Mine. ¹³Because all the first-born are mine—for on the day that I struck all the first-born in the children of Egypt I made all the first-born in Israel holy unto Me, both man and animal. They shall be Mine. I am the LORD.

¹⁴And the LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai saying, ¹⁵Number the children of Levi according to the house of their fathers, by their families – you shall number them, every male from a month old and upward. ¹⁶And Moses numbered them according to the word of the LORD, as he was commanded. ¹⁷And these were the sons of Levi by their names: Gēr'-shōn, and Kō'-hāth, and Mē-rār'-ī. ¹⁸And these are the names of the sons of Gēr'-shōn by their families: Lib'-nī and Shim'-ē-ī. ¹⁹And the sons of Kō'-hāth by their families were Ām'-rām and I'-zē-hār, Hē'-brōn and Ūz'-zī-ēl. ²⁰And the sons of Mē-rār'-ī by their families were Māh-li and Mū'-shī. These were the families of the Levites according to the house of their fathers. ²¹Of Gēr'-shōn was the family of the Līb'-nītes and the family of the Shīm'-ītes. These are the families of the Gēr'-shōn-ītes. ²²Those who were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward — those who were numbered of them were seven thousand, five hundred. ²³The families of the Gēr'-shōn-ītes shall pitch behind the tabernacle westward. ²⁴And the chief of the house of the father of the Gēr'-shōn-ītes shall be Ē-lī'-ā-sāph the son of Lā'-ēl. ²⁵And the charge of the sons of Gēr'-shōn in the tabernacle of the congregation shall be the tabernacle, and the tent, and the covering of it, and the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, ²⁶and the hangings of the court, and the curtain for the door of the court which is by the tabernacle and by the altar round about, and the cords of it, for all the service of it.

²⁷And of Kō'-hāth was the family of the Ām'-rām-ītes, and the family of the Ī'-zē-hār-ītes, and the family of the Hē'-brōn-ītes, and the family of the Ūz'-zī-ēl-ītes. These are the families of the Kō'-hāth-ītes. ²⁸In the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were eight thousand and six hundred, keeping the charge of the sanctuary. ²⁹The families of the sons of Kō'-hāth shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle southward. ³⁰And the chief of the house of the father of the families of the Kō'-hāth-ītes shall be Ē-lī-zā'-phān the son of Ūz'-zī-ēl. ³¹And their charge shall be the ark, and the table, and the lampstand, and the altars, and the vessels of the sanctuary with which they minister, and the hanging, and all the service of it. ³²And Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the son of Aaron the priest shall be chief over the leaders of the Levites, having the oversight of the ones who keep the charge of the sanctuary.

³³Of Mē-rār'-ī was the family of the Mäh'-lites and the family of the Mū'-shītes. These are the families of Mē-rār'-ī. ³⁴And those who were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males from a month old and upward, were six thousand and two hundred. ³⁵And the chief of the house of the father of the families of Mē-rār'-ī was Zū'-rī-ēl the son of Āb'-ī-hāil. These shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle northward. ³⁶And the office and charge of the sons of Mē-rār'-ī shall be the boards of the tabernacle, and the bars of it, and the pillars of it, and the sockets of it, and all the vessels of it, and all that serves unto it, ³⁷and the pillars of the court all around, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords.

⁴⁰And the LORD said to Moses, Number all the first-born of the males of the children of Israel from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names. ⁴¹You shall take the Levites for Me (I am the LORD) in the place of all the first-born among the children of Israel — and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstlings among the cattle of the children of Israel. ⁴²And as the LORD commanded him, Moses numbered all the first-born among the children of Israel. ⁴³And all the first-born males by the number of names, from a month old and upward, of those that were numbered of them, were twenty-two thousand two hundred and seventy-three. ⁴⁴And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ⁴⁵Take the Levites instead of all the first-born among the children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of their cattle. And the Levites shall be Mine. I am the LORD. ⁴⁶And for those that are to be redeemed of the two hundred and seventy-three of the first-born of the children of Israel, who are more than the Levites, you shall even take five shekels each by the poll, according to the shekel of the sanctuary you shall take. (The shekel is twenty gē'-rāhs.) ⁴⁷And you shall give unto Aaron and to his sons the money with which the number of them left over is to be redeemed. ⁴⁸And Moses took the redemption money from those who were over and above the ones who were redeemed by the Levites. ⁴⁹He took the money from the first-born of the children of Israel — one thousand three hundred and sixty-five shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary. ⁵⁰And Moses gave the money from those who were redeemed unto Aaron and to his sons, according to the word of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron saying, ²Take the sum of the sons of Kō'-hāth from among the sons of Levi, according to their families, by the house of their fathers, ³from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years, all that enter into the host, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation. ⁴This shall be the service of the sons of Kō'-hāth in the tabernacle of the congregation, about the most holy things.

⁵And when the camp sets forth, Aaron and his sons shall come, and they shall take down the covering veil and cover the ark of testimony with it. ⁶And they shall put on it the covering of badgers' skins, and shall spread over it a cloth wholly of blue, and shall put in the staves of it. ⁷And they shall spread a cloth of blue upon the table of showbread, and put the dishes on it, and the spoons, and the bowls, and covers to cover it with. And the continual bread shall be on it. ⁸And they shall spread upon them a cloth of scarlet and cover it with a covering of badgers' skins, and they shall put in the staves of it. ⁹And they shall make a cloth of blue and cover the lampstand of the light, and its lamps, and its tongs, and its snuff-dishes, and all the oil vessels of it, with which they serve it. ¹⁰And they shall put it and all the vessels of it inside a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put it upon a bar. ¹¹And upon the golden altar they shall spread a cloth of blue, and cover it with a covering of badgers' skins, and they shall put the staves into it. ¹²And they shall take all the instruments of ministry with which they serve in the sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blue, and cover them with a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put them on a bar. ¹³And they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth on it. ¹⁴And they shall put on it all the vessels of it, with which they minister about it — the censers, the flesh-hooks, and the shovels, and the basins, all the vessels of the altar. And they shall spread upon it a covering of badgers' skins, and put the staves into it. ¹⁵And when Aaron and his sons have made an end of covering the sanctuary, and all the vessels of the sanctuary, when the camp is to set forward — then after that the sons of Kō'-hāth shall come to carry it. But they shall not touch any holy thing lest they die. These things are the burden of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation.

¹⁶And to the office of Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the son of Aaron the priest belongs the oil for the light, and the sweet incense, and the daily meal offering, and the anointing oil, the oversight of all the tabernacle and of all that is in it, in the sanctuary and in the vessels of it.

¹⁷And the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron saying, ¹⁸Do not cut off the tribe of the families of the Kō'-hāth-ites from among the Levites. ¹⁹But do to them in this way, that they may live and not die when they approach the most holy things. Aaron and his sons shall go in and appoint each one of them to his service and to his burden. ²⁰But they shall not go in to watch when the holy things are covered, lest they die.

²¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²²Take also the sum of the sons of Gēr'-shōn throughout the houses of their fathers by their families. ²³From thirty years old and upward to fifty years old you shall number them — all that enter in to perform the service, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation. ²⁴This is the service of the families of the Gēr'-shōn-ites, to serve and to carry burdens. ²⁵And they shall carry the curtains of the tabernacle, and the tabernacle of the congregation, its covering, and the covering of the badgers' skins that is above upon it, and the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, ²⁶and the hangings of the court, and the hanging for the door of the gate of the court, which is by the tabernacle and by the altar round about, and their cords, and all the instruments of their service, and all that is made for them. So they shall serve. ²⁷At the appointment of Aaron and his sons shall be all the service of the sons of the Gēr'-shōn-ites, in all their burdens and in all their service. And you shall appoint all their burdens unto the ones in charge. ²⁸This is the service of the families of the sons of Gēr'-shōn in the tabernacle of the congregation. And their charge shall be under the hand of Ith'-ā-mār the son of Aaron the priest.

³⁴And Moses and Aaron and the leaders of the congregation numbered the sons of the Kō'-hāth-îtes according to their families, and according to the house of their fathers. ³⁵*They numbered them* from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone that entered into the service, for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation. ³⁶And those that were numbered of them by their families were two thousand seven hundred and fifty. ³⁷These were the ones that were numbered of the families of the Kō'-hāth-îtes, all that might do service in the tabernacle of the congregation, which Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses. ³⁸And those that were numbered of the sons of Gēr'-shōn, throughout their families, and by the house of their fathers, ³⁹from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone that enters into the service for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation, ⁴⁰even those that were numbered of them throughout their families, by the house of their fathers, were two thousand six hundred and thirty. ⁴¹These are the ones who were numbered of the families of the sons of Gēr'-shōn, of all that might do service in the tabernacle of the congregation, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD.

⁴²And those that were numbered of the families of the sons of Mē-râr'-î, throughout their families, by the house of their fathers, ⁴³from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone that enters into the service for the work in the tabernacle of the congregation, ⁴⁴even those that were numbered of them according to their families, were three thousand, two hundred. ⁴⁵These are those who were numbered of the sons of Mē-râr'-î, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses. ⁴⁶All those that were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the chief of Israel numbered, according to their families and according to the house of their fathers, ⁴⁷from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone that came to do the service of the ministry and the service of the burden in the tabernacle of the congregation, ⁴⁸even those that were numbered of them, were eight thousand, five hundred and eighty. ⁴⁹According to the commandment of the LORD they were numbered by the hand of Moses, everyone according to his service and according to his burden. So they were numbered by him as the LORD commanded Moses.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²Command the children of Israel that they put out of the camp every leper and everyone that has an issue, and whoever is defiled by the dead. ³You shall put out both male and female. You shall put them outside the camp so that they do not defile their camps in the midst of which I dwell. ⁴And the children of Israel did so, and put them out outside the camp. Even as the LORD spoke to Moses, so the children of Israel did.

⁵And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ⁶Speak to the children of Israel: When a man or woman shall commit any sin that men commit, to commit a trespass against the LORD, and that person is guilty, ⁷then they shall confess their sin which they have done. And he shall make good his wrong in full, and add to it one fifth of it, and give it to him against whom he has sinned. ⁸But if the man has no kinsman to whom he may pay for the wrong, let the trespass be given unto the LORD, to the priest, besides the ram of the atonement by which an atonement shall be made for him. ⁹And every offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel which they shall bring unto the priest, shall be his. ¹⁰And every man's devoted things shall be his. Whatever any man gives the priest, it shall be his.

¹¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ¹²Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, If any man's wife go aside and be unfaithful to him, ¹³and a man lie with her carnally, and if it is hidden from the eyes of her husband and is kept hidden, and she is defiled, and there are no witnesses against her, neither is she taken in the act — ¹⁴and if the spirit of jealousy comes upon him and he is jealous of his wife, and she is defiled — or if the spirit of jealousy comes upon him and he is jealous of his wife, and she is not defiled — ¹⁵then the man shall bring his wife to the priest. And he shall bring her offering for her, the tenth part of an é'-phäh of barley meal. He shall pour no oil upon it, nor put frankincense on it, for it is an offering of jealousy, a reminding offering, bringing iniquity to mind.

¹⁶And the priest shall bring her near and set her before the LORD ¹⁷And the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel. And the priest shall take of the dust that is in the floor of the tabernacle and put it into the water. ¹⁸And the priest shall set the woman before the LORD, and uncover the woman's head, and put the reminding offering in her hands—which is the jealousy offering. And the priest shall have in his hand the bitter water that causes the curse. ¹⁹And the priest shall charge her by an oath, and say to the woman, If no man has lain with you, and if you have not gone aside to uncleanness, being under your husband, you are free from this bitter water that causes the curse. ²⁰But if you have gone aside, being under your husband, and if you are defiled and some man has lain with you besides your husband, ²¹then the priest shall charge the woman with an oath of cursing — and the priest shall say to the woman. The LORD make you a curse and an oath among your people, when the LORD makes your thigh to fall away and your belly to swell. ²²And this water that causes the curse shall go into your bowels to make your belly swell and your thigh fall away. And the woman shall say, Amen, amen. ²³And the priest shall write these curses in a book, and he shall blot them out with the bitter water. ²⁴And he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter water that causes the curse. And the water that causes the curse shall enter into her and become bitter. ²⁵Then the priest shall take the jealousy offering out of the woman's hand and shall wave the offering before the LORD, and offer it upon the altar. ²⁶And the priest shall take a handful of the offering, as a memorial of it, and burn it upon the altar, and afterward he shall cause the woman to drink the water. ²⁷And when he has made her drink the water, if she is defiled and has been unfaithful to her husband, the water that causes the curse shall enter into her and become bitter. And her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall fall away. And the woman shall be a curse among her people. ²⁸And if the woman is not defiled, but is clean, then she shall be free, and shall conceive seed. ²⁹This is the law of jealousies when a woman goes aside, being under her husband, and is defiled. ³⁰Or when the spirit of jealousy comes on him, and he is jealous over his wife, and shall set the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute upon her all this law. ³¹Then shall the man be guiltless from iniquity, and this woman shall bear her iniquity.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, When either man or woman shall separate in order to vow a vow of a Nāz'-ā-rite, in order to separate unto the LORD, ³he shall separate from wine and strong drink and shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink; neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moist grapes or dried. ⁴All the days of his Nāz'-ā-rite-shīp he shall eat nothing that is made of the vine tree, from the kernels even to the husk. ⁵All the days of his vow to separate, no razor shall come upon his head. Until the days are fulfilled in which he separates unto the LORD, he shall be holy and shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow. ⁶All the days that he separates unto the LORD, he shall not come near any dead body. ⁷He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, or for his brother, or for his sister, when they die — because the consecration of his God is upon his head. ⁸All the days of his separation he is holy unto the LORD. ⁹And if any man dies very suddenly beside him, and he has defiled the head of his consecration, then he shall shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day he shall shave it. ¹⁰And on the eighth day he shall bring two turtle-doves or two young pigeons to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ¹¹And the priest shall offer the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering, and make an atonement for him, because he sinned by the dead, and shall make his head holy that same day. ¹²And he shall set apart unto the LORD the days of his separation, and shall bring a lamb of the first year for a guilt offering. But the days that were before shall be lost, because his separation was defiled.

¹³And this is the law of the Nāz'-ā-rīte, when the days of his separation are fulfilled. He shall be brought to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ¹⁴And he shall offer his offering unto the LORD — one male lamb of the first year without blemish for a burnt offering, and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish for a sin offering, and one ram without blemish for peace offerings, ¹⁵and a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, and wafers of unleavened bread anointed with oil, and their meal offerings and their drink offerings. ¹⁶And the priest shall bring them before the LORD and shall offer his sin offerings and his burnt offering. ¹⁷And he shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread. The priest shall offer also his meal offering and his drink offering. ¹⁸And the Nāz'-ā-rīte shall shave the head of his separation at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall take the hair of the head of his separation and put it in the fire which is under the sacrifice of the peace offerings. ¹⁹And the priest shall take the boiled shoulder of the ram and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them upon the hands of the Nāz'-ā-rīte, after his separation has been shaved. ²⁰And the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD. This is holy for the priest, with the wave breast and heave shoulder. And after that the Nāz'-ā-rīte may drink wine. ²¹This is the law of the Nāz'-ā-rīte who has vowed his offering unto the LORD for his separation, besides that which he is able to get — according to the vow which he vowed, so he must do according to the law of his separation.

²²And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²³Speak to Aaron and to his sons saying, In this way you shall bless the children of Israel, saying unto them, ²⁴The LORD bless you and keep you. ²⁵The LORD make His face shine upon you and be gracious unto you. ²⁶The LORD lift up his face unto you and give you peace. ²⁷And they shall put My name upon the children of Israel. And I will bless them.

¹And on the day that Moses had fully set up the tabernacle, and had anointed it and sanctified it, and all the instruments of it, both the altar and all the vessels of it, and had anointed them and sanctified them, the princes of Israel offered, those who were heads of the house of their fathers, who were the princes of the tribes and were over them that were numbered. ³And they brought their offerings before the LORD — six covered wagons and twelve oxen, a wagon for two of the princes, and an ox for each one. And they brought them before the tabernacle. ⁴And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ⁵Take it from them so that they may be used in doing the service of the tabernacle of the congregation. And you shall give them to the Levites, to every man according to his service. ⁶And Moses took the wagons and the oxen and gave them to the Levites. ⁷He gave two wagons and four oxen to the sons of Gēr'-shōn, according to their service. ⁸And he gave four wagons and eight oxen to the sons of Mē-râr'-î, according to their service, under the hand of Īth'-ā-mär, the son of Aaron the priest. ⁹But to the sons of ĩō'-häth he did not give any, because the service of the sanctuary belonging to them was that which they should carry upon their shoulders.

¹²And he that offered his offering the first day was Näh'-shōn the son of Ām-mīn'-ā-dāb, of the tribe of Judah. ¹³And his offering was one silver platter. The weight of it was a hundred thirty shekels. And he offered one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary — both of them were full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering — ¹⁴one spoon of ten shekels of gold, full of incense — ¹⁵one young bull — one ram — one lamb of the first year for a burnt offering — ¹⁶one kid of the goats for a sin offering — ¹⁷and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Näh'-shōn the son of Ām-mīn'-ā-dāb.

¹⁸On the second day Nēth'-ā-nēel the son of Zū'-är, prince of Is'-sā-här, offered. ¹⁹He offered for his offering one silver platter, the weight of which was a hundred and thirty shekels — one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering — ²⁰one spoon of gold of ten shekels, full of incense — ²¹one young bull — one ram — one lamb of the first year for a burnt offering — ²²one kid of the goats for a sin offering — ²³and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Nēth'-ā-nēel the son of Zū'-är.

³⁶On the fifth day Shē-lū'-mī-ēl the son of Zū-rī-shād'-daī, prince of the children of Simeon, offered. ³⁷His offering was one silver platter of the weight of a hundred thirty shekels — one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering — ³⁸one golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense — ³⁹one young bull — one ram — one lamb of the first year for a burnt offering — ⁴⁰one kid of the goats for a sin offering — ⁴¹and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Shē-lū'-mī-ēl the son of Zū-rī-shād'-daī.

⁴⁸On the seventh day Ē-lī'-shā-mā the son of Ām'-mī-hūd, prince of the children of Ē'-phrā-īm, offered. ⁴⁹His offering was one silver platter

if the weight of a hundred thirty shekels — one silver bowl of seventy hekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering — ⁵⁰one golden spoon of ten hekels, full of incense — ⁵¹one young bull — one ram — one lamb of the first year for a burnt offering — ⁵²one kid of the goats for a sin offering — ⁵³and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of ʾ-ḏ-lī'-shā-mā the son of Ām'-mī-hūḏ.

⁶⁰On the ninth day Ā-bī'-dān the son of Gīd-ē-ō'-nī, prince of the children of Benjamin, offered. ⁶¹His offering was one silver platter of the weight of a hundred thirty shekels — one silver bowl of seventy hekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering — ⁶²one golden spoon of ten hekels, full of incense — ⁶³one young bull — one ram — one lamb of the first year for a burnt offering — ⁶⁴one kid of the goats for a sin offering — ⁶⁵and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of ʾ-bī'-dān the son of Gīd-ē-ō'-nī.

⁶⁶On the tenth day Ā-hī-ē'-zēr the son of Ām-mī-shād'-dai, prince of the children of Dan, offered. ⁶⁷His offering was one silver platter of the weight of a hundred thirty shekels — one silver bowl of seventy hekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering — ⁶⁸one golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense — ⁶⁹one young bull — one ram — one lamb of the first year for a burnt offering — ⁷⁰one kid of the goats for a sin offering — ⁷¹and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Ā-hī-ē'-zēr the son of Ām-mī-shād'-dai.

⁷²On the eleventh day Pā'-gī-ēl the son of Ōc'-rān, prince of the children of Asher, offered. ⁷³His offering was one silver platter of the weight of a hundred thirty shekels — one silver bowl of seventy hekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering — ⁷⁴one golden spoon of ten hekels, full of incense — ⁷⁵one young bull — one ram — one lamb of the first year for a burnt offering — ⁷⁶one kid of the goats for a sin offering — ⁷⁷and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Pā'-gī-ēl the son of Ōc'-rān.

⁷⁸On the twelfth day Ā-hī'-rā the son of Ē'-nān, prince of the children of Nāph'-tā-lī, offered. ⁷⁹His offering was one silver platter of the weight of a hundred thirty shekels — one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering — ⁸⁰one golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense — ⁸¹one young bull — one ram — one lamb of the first year for a burnt offering — ⁸²one kid of the goats for a sin offering — ⁸³and for a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five lambs of the first year. This was the offering of Ā-hī'-rā the son of Ē'-nān.

⁸⁴This was the dedication of the altar, in the day when it was anointed, by the princes of Israel: twelve platters of silver, twelve silver bowls, twelve golden spoons. ⁸⁵Each platter of silver weighed a hundred thirty shekels, each bowl seventy shekels. All the silver vessels weighed two thousand four hundred shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary. ⁸⁶The golden spoons were twelve, full of incense, weighing ten shekels apiece, according to the shekel of the sanctuary. All the gold of the spoons was a hundred and twenty shekels. ⁸⁷All the oxen for the burnt offerings were twelve bulls, the rams twelve, the lambs of the first year twelve, with their meal offering. And the kids of the goats for a sin offering were twelve. ⁸⁸And all the oxen for the sacrifice of the peace offerings were twenty-four bulls, the rams sixty, the male goats sixty, the lambs of the first year sixty. This was the dedication of the altar after it was anointed.

⁸⁹And when Moses had gone into the tabernacle of the congregation to speak with Him, then he heard the voice of One speaking to him from the mercy-seat that was upon the ark of testimony, from between the two chēr'-ū-bīms.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²Speak unto Aaron, and say to him, When you light the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light in front of the lampstand. ³And Aaron did so. He lighted the lamps of it over against the lampstand, as the LORD commanded Moses. ⁴And this work of the lampstand was of beaten gold, to the base of it, to the blossoms of it, it was beaten work. According to the pattern which the LORD had showed Moses, so he made the lampstand.

⁵And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ⁶Take the Levites from among the children of Israel, and purify them. ⁷And in this way shall you do to them to purify them. Sprinkle water of purifying upon them, and let them shave all their flesh, and let them wash their clothes, and make themselves clean. ⁸Then let them take a young bull with its meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil, and another young bull shall you take for a sin offering. ⁹And you shall bring the Levites before the tabernacle of the congregation. And you shall gather the whole assembly of the children of Israel together. ¹⁰And you shall bring the Levites before the LORD. And the children of Israel shall put their hands upon the Levites. ¹¹And Aaron shall offer the Levites before the LORD for an offering of the children of Israel, so that they may do the service of the LORD. ¹²And the Levites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bulls. And you shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, unto the LORD, to make an atonement for the Levites. ¹³And you shall set the Levites before Aaron, and before his sons, and offer them for an offering unto the LORD. ¹⁴So you shall separate the Levites from among the children of Israel. And the Levites shall be Mine.

¹⁵And after that the Levites shall go in to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation. And you shall purify them and offer them for an offering. ¹⁶For they are wholly given unto Me from among the children of Israel. Instead of those that open every womb, the first-born of all the children of Israel, I have taken them unto Me. ¹⁷For all the first-born of the children of Israel are Mine, both man and animal. On the day that I struck every first-born in the land of Egypt I set them apart for Myself. ¹⁸And I have taken the Levites for all the first-born of the children of Israel. ¹⁹And I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the children of Israel in the tabernacle of the congregation, and to make an atonement for the children of Israel — so that there may be no plague among the children of Israel when the children of Israel come near the sanctuary. ²⁰And Moses and Aaron and all the congregation of the children of Israel, did to the Levites according to all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites. So the children of Israel did unto them. ²¹And the Levites were purified, and they washed their clothes. And Aaron offered them as an offering before the LORD. And Aaron made an atonement for them to purify them. ²²And after that the Levites went in to do their service in the tabernacle of the congregation before Aaron and before his sons. Even as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did to them.

²³And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²⁴This is what belongs to the Levites. From twenty-five years old and upward they shall go in to wait upon the service of the tabernacle of the congregation. ²⁵And from the age of fifty years they shall stop waiting upon the service, and shall serve no more. ²⁶But they shall minister with their brothers in the tabernacle of the congregation, to keep the charge, and shall do no service. So you shall do to the Levites as to their duties.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying, ²Let the children of Israel also keep the Passover at its appointed time. ³In the fourteenth day of this month, at evening, you shall keep it in its appointed time. You shall keep it according to all the rites of it, and according to all the ceremonies of it. ⁴And Moses spoke to the children of Israel that they should keep the Passover. ⁵And they kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month at evening in the wilderness of Sinai. According to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so all the children of Israel did.

⁶And there were certain men who were defiled by the dead body of a man, so that they could not keep the Passover on that day. And they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day. ⁷And those men said unto him, We are defiled by the dead body of a man. Why are we kept back that we may not offer an offering of the LORD in its appointed time among the children of Israel? ⁸And Moses said to them, Stand still, and I will hear what the LORD will command about you. ⁹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ¹⁰Speak to the children of Israel, saying, If any man of you or of your posterity shall be unclean because of a dead body, or is in a journey afar off, he shall still keep the Passover unto the LORD. ¹¹They shall keep it the fourteenth day of the second month at evening, eating it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. ¹²They shall leave none of it until the morning, nor break any bone of it. According to all the ordinances of the Passover they shall keep it. ¹³But the man that is clean, and is not in a journey, and holds back from keeping the Passover, even the same soul shall be cut off from among his people. Because he did not bring the offering of the LORD in His appointed time, that man shall bear his sin. ¹⁴And if a stranger shall live among you, and desires to keep the Passover unto the LORD, he shall do according to the ordinance of the Passover, and according to the manner of it. You shall have one ordinance, both for the stranger and for him that was born in the land.

¹⁵And on the day that the tabernacle was reared up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, the tent of the testimony. And at evening it was upon the tabernacle, looking like fire, until the morning. ¹⁶So it was always. The cloud covered it by day, and it looked like fire by night. ¹⁷And when the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle, then after that the children of Israel journeyed. And in the place where the cloud stayed, there the children of Israel pitched their tents. ¹⁸At the commandment of the LORD the children of Israel journey, and at the commandment of the LORD they pitched. As long as the cloud stayed upon the tabernacle they rested in their tents. ¹⁹And when the cloud stayed long upon the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel kept the charge of the LORD and did not journey. ²⁰And so it was, when the cloud was a few days upon the tabernacle, according to the commandment of the LORD they remained in their tents, and according to the commandment of the LORD they journeyed. ²¹And so it was, when the cloud stayed from evening unto the morning, and the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed — whether it was by day or by night that the cloud was taken up, they journeyed. ²²Or whether it was two days, or a month, or a year, that the cloud stayed upon the tabernacle, remaining on it, the children of Israel stayed in their tents and did not journey. But when it was taken up, they journeyed. ²³At the commandment of the LORD they rested in the tents, and at the commandment of the LORD they journeyed. They kept the charge of the LORD at the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²Make two trumpets of silver. You shall make them of beaten work. And they shall be used for the calling of the assembly and for causing the camps to go forward. ³And when they shall blow with them, all the assembly shall gather themselves to you at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ⁴And if they blow with one trumpet, then the princes who are heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves to you. ⁵When you blow an alarm, then the camps that lie on the east parts shall go forward. ⁶When you blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that lie on the south side shall take their journey. They shall blow an alarm for their journeys. ⁷But when the congregation is to be gathered together, you shall blow, but you shall not sound an alarm. ⁸And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow with the trumpets. And they shall be to you for an ordinance forever throughout your generations. ⁹And if you go to war in your land against the enemy who fights against you, then you shall blow an alarm with the trumpets. And you shall be remembered before the LORD your God, and you shall be saved from your enemies. ¹⁰Also in the day of your gladness, and in your solemn days, and in the beginnings of your months, you shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings, so that they may be to you for a memorial before your GOD. I am the LORD your God.

¹¹And on the twentieth day of the second month, in the second year, the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle of the testimony. ¹²And the children of Israel took their journeys out of the land of Sinai. And the cloud rested in the wilderness of Pâr'-ân. ¹³And they first took their journey according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

¹⁴In the first place went the banner of the camp of Judah according to their armies. And over his army was Näh'-shôn the son of Ām-mîn'-ā-dāb. ¹⁵And over the army of the tribe of the children of Is'-sā-chār was Nēth'-ā-nēel the son of Zū'-ār. ¹⁶And over the army of the tribe of Zē-bū'-lūn was Ē-lī'-āb the son of Hē'-lōn. ¹⁷And the tabernacle was taken down. And the sons of Gēr'-shōn and the sons of Mē-rār'-i went forward carrying the tabernacle.

¹⁸And the banner of the camp of Reuben went forward according to their armies. And over his army was Ē-lī'-zūr the son of Shēd'-ē-ūr. ¹⁹And over the army of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shē-lū'-mī-ēl the son of Zū-rī-shād'-daī. ²⁰And over the army of the tribe of Gad was Ē-lī'-ā-sāph the son of Deū'-ēl. ²¹And the Kō'-hāth-ites went forward carrying the sanctuary. And the tabernacle was set up before they came.

²⁹And Moses said to Hō'-bāb, the son of Reū'-ēl the Mīd'-ī-ān-īte, Moses' father-in-law: We are going to the place of which the LORD said, I will give it to you. Come with us and we will do you good. For the LORD has spoken good concerning Israel. ³⁰And he said to him, I will not go, but I will go to my own land and to my kindred. ³¹And he said, Do not leave us, I pray you, because you know how we are to camp in the wilderness, and so you may be to us instead of eyes. ³²And if you go with us, whatever goodness the LORD shall do to us, the same will we do to you.

³³And they moved three days' journey from the mountain of the LORD. And the ark of the covenant of the LORD went before them in the three days' journey, to look for a resting-place for them. ³⁴And the cloud of the LORD was upon them by day, when they went out of the camp. ³⁵And when the ark went forward, Moses said, Rise up, LORD, and let Thy enemies be scattered, and let those who hate Thee flee before Thee. ³⁶And when it rested, he said, Return, O LORD, unto the many thousands of Israel.

¹And when the people complained, it displeased the LORD. And the LORD heard it, and His anger was kindled. And the fire of the LORD burned among them and burned up those who were in the outermost parts of the camp. ²And the people cried to Moses. And when Moses prayed unto the LORD, the fire was put out. ³And he called the name of the place Tāb'-ē-rāh, because the fire of the LORD burned among them. ⁴And the mixed multitude that was among them fell into strong lusting. And the children of Israel also cried again, and said, Who shall give us flesh to eat? ⁵We remember the fish which we ate freely in Egypt, the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlic. ⁶But now our soul is dried away — there is nothing at all besides this manna before our eyes. ⁷And the manna was like cōr'-ī-ān-dēr seed, and the color of it was like the color of bdellium [dēl'-ī-ūm]. ⁸And the people went around and gathered it, and ground it in mills, or beat it in a mortar, and baked it in pans, and made cakes of it. And the taste of it was like the taste of fresh oil. ⁹And when the dew fell upon the camp in the night, the manna fell upon it.

¹⁰Then Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, every man in the door of his tent. And the anger of the LORD was kindled greatly. Moses also was displeased. ¹¹And Moses said to the LORD, Why hast Thou afflicted Thy servant? And why have I not found favor in Thy sight, so that Thou layest the burden of all this people upon me? ¹²Have I conceived all this people? Did I bring them forth, that Thou shouldest say to me, Carry them in your bosom like a nursing father carries the sucking child, to the land which Thou didst swear unto their fathers? ¹³From where should I get flesh to give to all this people? For they weep unto me, saying, Give us flesh that we may eat. ¹⁴I am not able to bear all this people alone, because it is too heavy for me. ¹⁵And if Thou art going to deal this way with me, I beg Thee to kill me at once, if I have found favor in Thy sight — and let me not see my misery.

¹⁶And the LORD said to Moses, Gather unto Me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people, and the officers over them. And bring them to the tabernacle of the congregation so that they may stand there with you. ¹⁷And I will come down and talk with you there. And I will take of the spirit which is upon you, and will put it upon them, and they shall bear the burden of the people with you so that you do not bear it alone. ¹⁸And say unto the people, Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat flesh. For you have wept in the ears of the Lord, saying, Who shall give us flesh to eat? — for it was well with us in Egypt. Therefore the LORD will give you flesh, and you shall eat. ¹⁹You shall not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, nor ten days, nor twenty days, ²⁰but even a whole month — until it comes out at your nostrils, and it is hateful to you — because you have despised the LORD who is among you, and have wept before Him, saying, Why did we come out of Egypt? ²¹And Moses said, The people among whom I am, are six hundred thousand footmen. And Thou hast said, I will give them flesh so that they may eat a whole month! ²²Shall the flocks and the herds be killed, to be enough for them? Or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to be enough for them? ²³And the LORD said to Moses, Has the LORD's hand become short? You shall see now whether or not My word shall come to pass to you.

²⁴And Moses went out and told the people the words of the LORD, and gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them round about the tabernacle. ²⁵And the LORD came down in a cloud and spoke to him, and took of the spirit that was upon him and gave it to the seventy elders. And when the Spirit rested upon them, they prophesied. But they never did so again. ²⁶But two of the men stayed in the camp — the name of the one was Ēl'-dād, and the name of the other was Mē'-dād. And the Spirit rested upon them. And they were of those who were written, but did not go out to the tabernacle. And they prophesied in the camp. ²⁷And a young man ran and told Moses, and said, Ēl'-dād and Mē'-dād are prophesying in the camp. ²⁸And Jōsh'-ū-ā the son of Nun, the servant of Moses, one of his young men, answered and said, My lord Moses, make them cease. ²⁹And Moses said to him, Are you jealous for my sake? Would God that all the LORD's people were prophets, that the LORD would put His Spirit upon them! ³⁰And Moses went into the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

³¹And a wind went forth from the LORD. And it brought quails from the sea and let them fall by the camp, about a day's journey on this side, and about a day's journey on the other side, all around the camp, and about two cubits high upon the face of the earth. ³²And the people stood up all that day and all that night, and all the next day, and they gathered the quails. And he that gathered least gathered ten homers. And they spread them out for themselves all around the camp. ³³And while the flesh was yet between their teeth, before it was chewed, the wrath of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD struck the people with a very great plague. ³⁴And he called the name of that place Kib'-rōth-hāt-tā'-ā-vāh, because there they buried the people that lusted. ³⁵And the people moved from Kib'-rōth-hāt-tā'-ā-vāh to Hā-zē'-rōth, and stayed at Hā-zē'-rōth.

¹And Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cūsh'-ite woman whom he had married. For he had married a Cushite woman. ²And they said, Has the LORD indeed spoken only by Moses? Has He not also spoken by us? And the LORD heard it. ³(Now the man Moses was very meek, more than all the men who were upon the face of the earth.) ⁴And the LORD spoke suddenly to Moses and to Aaron and to Miriam, You three come out to the tabernacle of the congregation. And the three came out. ⁵And the LORD came down in the pillar of the cloud and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam. And they both came forth. ⁶And He said, Hear now My words. If there is a prophet among you, I the LORD will make Myself known to him in a vision, and will speak to him in a dream. ⁷Not so, My servant Moses. He is trusted in all My house. ⁸I will speak with him mouth to mouth, even clearly, and not in dark speeches. And he shall behold the likeness of the LORD. Why then were you not afraid to speak against My servant Moses? ⁹And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them, and He departed. ¹⁰And the cloud departed from the tabernacle. And behold! Miriam became leprous, white as snow. And Aaron looked upon Miriam, and behold, she was leprous. ¹¹And Aaron said to Moses, Oh, my lord, I beseech you, do not lay upon us the sin in which we have done foolishly, and in which we have sinned. ¹²Let her not be like one dead, of whom the flesh is half gone when he comes out of his mother's womb. ¹³And Moses cried unto the LORD saying, Heal her now, O God, I beseech Thee. ¹⁴And the LORD said to Moses, If her father had but spit in her face, should she not be ashamed seven days? Let her be shut out from the camp seven days, and after that let her be received in. ¹⁵And Miriam was shut out from the camp seven days. And the people did not journey until Miriam was brought in. ¹⁶And afterward the people moved from Hā-zē'-rōth, and pitched in the wilderness of Pār'-ān.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²Send men so that they may search the land of Canaan, which I give to the children of Israel. You shall send a man from every tribe of their fathers, everyone a ruler among them. ³And Moses by the commandment of the LORD sent them from the wilderness of Pār'-ān. All those men were heads of the children of Israel. ⁴And these were their names. Of the tribe of Reuben, Shām'-mū-ā the son of Zāc'-cūr. ⁵Of the tribe of Simeon, Shā'-phāt the son of Hōr'-ī. ⁶Of the tribe of Judah, Cā'-lēb the son of Jē-phūn'-nēh. ⁷Of the tribe of Is'-sā-chār, Ī'-gāl the son of Joseph. ⁸Of the tribe of Ē'-phrā-īm, Ō-shē'-ā the son of Nun. ⁹Of the tribe of Benjamin, Pāl'-tī the son of Rā'-phu. ¹⁰Of the tribe of Zē-bū'-lūn, Gād'-dī-ēl the son of Sō'-dī. ¹¹Of the tribe of Joseph: of the tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh, Gād'-dī the son of Sū'-sī. ¹²Of the tribe of Dan, Ām'-mī-ēl the son of Gē-māl'-lī. ¹³Of the tribe of Asher, Sē'-thūr the son of Michael. ¹⁴Of the tribe of Nāph'-tā-lī, Nāh'-bī the son of Vōph'-sī. ¹⁵Of the tribe of Gad, Geū'-ēl the son of Mā'-chī. ¹⁶These are the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called Ō-shē'-ā the son of Nun Jōsh'-ū-ā.

¹⁷And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said to them, Go up this way, southward, and go up into the mountain. ¹⁸And see the land, what it is — and the people that live in it, whether they are strong or weak, few or many. ¹⁹And see what the land is that they live in, whether it is good or bad — and what cities they dwell in, whether in tents or in strongholds — ²⁰and what the land is, whether it is fat or lean, whether there is wood in it or not. And be of good courage, and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time of first ripe grapes.

²¹So they went up and searched the land from the wilderness of Zin to Rē'-hōb, as men come to Hā'-māth. ²²And they went up by the south and came to Hē'-brōn, where Ā-hī'-mān, Shē'-shaī, and Tāl'-maī, the children of Ān'-āk, were. (Now Hē'-brōn was built seven years before Zō'-an in Egypt.) ²³And they came to the valley of Ēsh'-cōl and cut from there a branch with one cluster of grapes. And they carried it between two men upon a staff. And they brought of the pōme'-grān-ātes and of the figs. ²⁴The place was called the valley of Ēsh'-cōl because of the clusters of grapes which the children of Israel cut down from there. ²⁵And they returned from spying out the land after forty days.

²⁶And they left and came to Moses and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the wilderness of Pār'-ān, to Kā'-dēsh. And they brought back word to them and to all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land. ²⁷And they told him and said, We came to the land where you sent us, and surely it flows with milk and honey. And this is the fruit of it. ²⁸Nevertheless the people that dwell in the land are strong, and the cities are walled, very great. And moreover we saw the children of Ān'-āk there. ²⁹The Ā-māl'-ēk-ītes dwell in the land of the south, and the Hīt'-tites, and the Jēb'-ū-sites, and the Ām'-ōr-ītes dwell in the mountains. And the Cā'-nāan-ītes dwell by the sea and by the coast of Jordan. ³⁰And Caleb stilled the people before Moses and said, Let us go up at once and possess it. For we are well able to overcome it. ³¹But the men that went up with him said, We are not able to go up against the people, for they are stronger than we are. ³²And they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched to the children of Israel, saying, The land through which we have gone to search it, is a land that eats up those who live in it. And all the people whom we saw in it are men of great size. ³³And there we saw the giants, the sons of Ān'-āk, of the giants. And we were in our own sight like grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight.

¹And all the congregation lifted up their voice and cried. And the people wept that night. ²And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron. And the whole congregation said to them, Oh that we had died in the land of Egypt! Or, Oh that we had died in the wilderness! ³And why has the LORD brought us into this land to fall by the sword, so that our wives and our children should be a prey? Would it not be better for us to return to Egypt? ⁴And they said to one another, Let us make a captain, and let us return to Egypt. ⁵Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel. ⁶And Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jē-phūn'-nēh (who were of those that searched the land), tore their clothes. ⁷And they spoke to all the company of the children of Israel saying, The land which we passed through to search is an exceedingly good land. ⁸If the LORD delights in us, then He will bring us into this land and give it to us, a land which flows with milk and honey. ⁹Only do not rebel against the LORD, neither fear the people of the land. For they are bread for us. Their protection has departed from them, and the LORD is with us. Do not fear them. ¹⁰But all the congregation said to stone them with stones. And the glory of the LORD appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation before all the children of Israel.

¹¹And the LORD said to MOSES, How long will this people provoke Me? And how long will it be before they believe Me, for all the signs which I have showed among them? ¹²I will strike them with the pestilence and will dīs-īn-hēr'-īt them, and I will make of you a greater nation and mightier than they. ¹³And Moses said unto the LORD, Then the Egyptians shall hear. (For Thou didst bring up this people in Thy might from among them.) ¹⁴And they will tell it to those who live in this land. They have heard that Thou, LORD, art among this people, and that Thou, LORD, art seen face to face, and that Thy cloud stands over them, and that Thou dost go before them by daytime in a pillar of cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night. ¹⁵Now if Thou shalt kill all this people as one man, then the nations which have heard of Thy fame will speak, saying, ¹⁶Because the LORD was not able to bring this people into the land which He swore unto them, therefore He has killed them in the wilderness. ¹⁷And now, I beseech Thee, let the power of my lord be great, according as Thou hast spoken, saying, ¹⁸The LORD is long-suffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by no means clearing the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation. ¹⁹I beseech Thee, pardon the iniquity of this people according to the greatness of Thy mercy, and as Thou has forgiven this people from Egypt even until now.

²⁰And the LORD said, I have pardoned according to your word. ²¹But truly, as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD. ²²Because all those men who have seen My glory and My miracles which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have tempted Me now these ten times, and have not listened to My voice, ²³surely they shall not see the land which I swore to their fathers, neither shall any of them that provoked Me see it. ²⁴But My servant Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and has followed Me fully, I will bring him into the land into which he went. And his seed shall possess it. ²⁵(Now the Ā-māl'-ēk-ītes and the Canaanites lived in the valley.) Tomorrow turn and go into the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea.

²⁶And the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ²⁷How long shall I bear with this evil congregation, which murmurs against Me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel which they murmur against Me. ²⁸Say to them, As I live, says the LORD, as you have spoken in My ears, so I will do to you. ²⁹Your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness, and all that were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, who have murmured against Me, ³⁰you shall without doubt not come into the land which I swore to make you live in — except Caleb the son of Jē-phūn'-nēh, and Joshua the son of Nun. ³¹But your little ones, which you said should be a prey, I will bring them in and they shall know the land which you have despised. ³²But as for you, your bodies shall fall in this wilderness. ³³And your children shall wander in the wilderness forty years and bear your fōr-nī-cā'-tions, until your bodies have wasted in the wilderness. ³⁴According to the number of the days in which you searched the land — forty days — each day for a year you shall bear your iniquities — forty years — and you shall know my breaking off. ³⁵I the LORD have spoken — I will surely do it to all this evil congregation who are gathered together against Me. They shall be destroyed in this wilderness, and there they shall die. ³⁶And the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land — who returned and made all the congregation to murmur against him, by bringing up an evil report upon the land — ³⁷even those men that brought up the evil report upon the land died by the plague before the LORD. ³⁸But Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jē-phūn'-nēh, who were of the men that went to spy out the land, lived. ³⁹And Moses told these sayings to all the children of Israel. And the people mourned greatly.

⁴⁰And they rose up early in the morning and went up to the top of the mountain, saying, Lo, we are here, and will go up to the place which the LORD has promised, for we have sinned. ⁴¹And Moses said, Why do you now go beyond the commandment of the LORD? — Since it cannot be blessed. ⁴²Do not go up, for the LORD is not among you — so that you may not be beaten before your enemies. ⁴³For the Ā-māl'-ĕk-ites and the Canaanites are there before you, and you shall fall by the sword. Because you have turned away from the LORD, therefore the LORD will not be with you. ⁴⁴But they presumed to go up to the hill-top. But the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and Moses, did not leave the camp. ⁴⁵Then the Ā-māl'-ĕk-ites came down, and the Canaanites who lived in the hill, and struck them, and beat them down, even to Hôr'-mäh.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²Speak unto the children of Israel and say to them, When you have come into the land of your dwelling places, which I give to you, ³and will make an offering by fire to the LORD, a burnt offering or a sacrifice in performing a vow, or in a free-will offering, or in your solemn feasts, to make a sweet savor unto the LORD, from the herd or from the flock, ⁴then he who offers his offering unto the LORD shall bring a meal offering of a tenth deal of flour mixed with the fourth part of a hin of oil. ⁵And the fourth part of a hin of wine for a drink offering shall you prepare with the burnt offering or sacrifice for one lamb. ⁶Or for a ram, you shall prepare for a meal offering two tenth deals of flour mixed with the third part of a hin of oil. ⁷And for a drink offering you shall offer the third part of a hin of wine for a sweet savor to the LORD. ⁸And when you prepare a bull for a burnt offering, or for a sacrifice in performing a vow, or peace offerings unto the LORD, ⁹then he shall bring with the bull a meal offering of three tenth deals of flour mixed with half a hin of oil. ¹⁰And you shall bring for a drink offering half a hin of wine, for an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor to the LORD. ¹¹So it shall be done for one bull, or for one ram, or for a lamb, or a kid. ¹²According to the number that you shall prepare, so you shall do to everyone according to their number. ¹³All that are born of the country shall do these things in this way, in offering an offering made by fire, of a sweet savor unto the LORD. ¹⁴And if a stranger stays with you, or whoever is among you in your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire of a sweet savor unto the LORD — as you do, so he shall do. ¹⁵One ordinance shall be for you of the congregation and also for the stranger that lives with you, an ordinance forever in your generations. As you are, so the stranger shall be before the LORD. ¹⁶One law and one way shall be for you and for the stranger that lives with you.

¹⁷And the LORD spoke to Mōses saying, ¹⁸Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, When you come into the land where I bring you, ¹⁹then when you eat of the bread of the land, you shall offer up a heave offering to the LORD. ²⁰You shall offer up a cake of the first of your dough for a heave offering. As you do the heave offering of the threshing-floor, so you shall lift it up. ²¹Of the first of your dough you shall give to the LORD a heave offering in your generations.

²²And if you have erred and have not done all these commandments which the LORD has spoken to Moses (²³all that the LORD has commanded you by the hand of Moses from the day that the LORD commanded Moses and from then on in your generations), ²⁴then if anything is committed by ignorance without the knowledge of the congregation, all the congregation shall offer up one young bull for a burnt offering, for a sweet savor unto the LORD, with its meal offering and its drink offering, according to the ordinance, and one kid of the goats for a sin offering. ²⁵And the priest shall make an atonement for all the congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them — for it is ignorance. And they shall bring their offering, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their ignorance. ²⁶And it shall be forgiven all the congregation of the children of Israel and the stranger that lives among them, since all the people were in ignorance. ²⁷And if any soul sins through ignorance, then he shall bring a female goat of the first year for a sin offering. ²⁸And the priest shall make an atonement for the soul that sins without knowing, when he sins by ignorance before the LORD, to make an atonement for him. And it shall be forgiven him. ²⁹And you shall have one law for him who sins through ignorance, both for him that is born among the children of Israel and for the stranger that lives among them. ³⁰But the soul who acts with a high hand, whether born in the land or a stranger, the same reproaches the LORD. And that soul shall be cut off from among his people. ³¹Because he has despised the word of the LORD and has broken His commandment, that soul shall be utterly cut off. His iniquity shall be upon him.

³²And while the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering sticks on the sabbath day. ³³And those who found him gathering sticks brought him to Moses and Aaron and to all the congregation. ³⁴And they put him under guard because it had not been clearly said what should be done to him. ³⁵And the LORD said to Moses, The man shall surely be put to death. All the congregation shall stone him with stones outside the camp. ³⁶And all the congregation brought him outside the camp and stoned him with stones, and he died — even as the LORD commanded Moses.

³⁷And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ³⁸Speak unto the children of Israel and command them that they make fringes in the borders of their garments throughout their generations, and that they put upon the fringe of the borders a ribbon of blue. ³⁹And it shall be to you for a fringe, that you may look upon it and remember all the commandments of the LORD, and do them — and so that you do not seek after your own heart and your own eyes, after which you are used to commit fôr-nĩ-cā'-tion — ⁴⁰so that you may remember and do all My commandments, and be holy unto your God. ⁴¹I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God. I am the LORD your God.

⁸And Moses said to Kôr'-āh, Hear, I pray you, you sons of Levi — ⁹*does it seem* a small thing to you that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near Himself to do the service of the tabernacle of the LORD and to stand before the congregation to minister unto them? ¹⁰And He has brought you near Him, and all your brothers the sons of Levi with you. And do you seek the priesthood also? ¹¹For this cause both you and all your company are gathered together against the LORD. And what is Aaron, that you murmur against him?

¹²And Moses sent to call Dā'-thān and Ā-bī'-rām, the sons of Ē-lī'-āb. And they said, We will not come up. ¹³*Is it* a small thing that you have brought us up out of a land that flows with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, unless you also make yourself a prince over us? ¹⁴Besides you have not brought us into a land that flows with milk and honey, or given us inheritance in fields and vineyards. Will you put out the eyes of these men? We will not come up. ¹⁵And Moses was very angry, and said to the LORD, Do not respect their offering. I have not taken one ass from them, neither have I hurt one of them. ¹⁶And Moses said unto Kôr'-āh, Stand before the LORD, you and all your company — you and they, and Aaron, tomorrow. ¹⁷And every man take his censer and put incense in them, and let every man bring his censer before the LORD, two hundred and fifty censers — you also, and Aaron, each with his censer. ¹⁸And every man took his censer and put fire in them, and laid incense on it, and stood in the door of the tabernacle of the congregation with Moses and Aaron.

³¹And as he had made an end of speaking all these words, the ground which was under them split apart. ³²And the earth opened her mouth and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that belonged to Kôr'āh, and all their goods. ³³They and all that belonged to them went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed upon them. And they perished from among the congregation. ³⁴And all Israel that were around them fled at their cry. For they said, Lest the earth swallow us up also. ³⁵And there came out a fire from the LORD and burned up the two hundred and fifty men who offered incense.

³⁶And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ³⁷Speak to Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the son of Aaron the priest, that he take up the censers out of the burning, and scatter the fire yonder. For they are holy. ³⁸The censers of these sinners against their own souls, let them make them into broad plates for a covering of the altar: for they offered them before the LORD, therefore they are made holy. And they shall be a sign to the children of Israel. ³⁹And Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the priest took the brass censers, the ones with which those who had been burned up had offered, and they were made into broad plates for a covering of the altar — ⁴⁰a memorial to the children of Israel, that no stranger who is not of the seed of Aaron may come near to offer incense before the LORD, so that he may not be as Kôr'-âh and as his company — as the LORD said to him by the hand of Moses.

⁴¹But on the next day all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron saying, You have killed the people of the LORD. ⁴²And when the congregation was gathered together against Moses and against Aaron, they looked toward the tabernacle of the congregation. And behold! The cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD appeared. ⁴³And Moses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of the congregation. ⁴⁴And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ⁴⁵Get away from this congregation so that I may consume them as in a moment. And they fell upon their faces. ⁴⁶And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a censer, and put fire in it from the altar, and put on incense, and go quickly to the congregation and make an atonement for them. For wrath has gone out from the LORD — the plague has begun. ⁴⁷And Aaron did as Moses commanded and ran into the midst of the congregation. And behold! The plague had begun among the people. And he put on incense, and made an atonement for the people. ⁴⁸And he stood between the dead and the living, and the plague was stayed. ⁴⁹Now those who died in the plague were fourteen thousand, seven hundred, besides the ones who died about the matter of Kôr'-âh. ⁵⁰And Aaron returned to Moses to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the plague was stayed.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²Speak to the children of Israel, and take a rod from every one of them according to the house of their fathers, of all their princes according to the house of their fathers, twelve rods. Write every man's name upon his rod. ³And you shall write Aaron's name upon the rod of Levi. For one rod shall be for the head of the house of their fathers. ⁴And you shall lay them up in the tabernacle of the congregation before the testimony, where I will meet with you. ⁵And the rod of the man whom I shall choose shall blossom. And I will make to cease from Me the murmurings of the children of Israel by which they murmur against you. ⁶And Moses spoke to the children of Israel, and every one of their princes gave him a rod for each prince, according to their fathers' houses, twelve rods. And the rod of Aaron was among their rods. ⁷And Moses laid up the rods before the LORD in the tabernacle of witness. ⁸And on the next day Moses went into the tabernacle of witness. And behold! The rod of Aaron for the house of Levi had budded and had brought forth buds, and had bloomed, and had yielded almonds. ⁹And Moses brought out all the rods from before the LORD to all the children of Israel. And they looked, and every man took his rod.

¹⁰And the LORD said to Moses, Bring Aaron's rod again before the testimony, to be kept as a token against the rebels. And you shall completely take away their murmurings from Me so that they do not die. ¹¹And Moses did so. As the LORD commanded him, so he did. ¹²And the children of Israel spoke to Moses saying, Behold, we die, we perish, we all perish. ¹³Whoever comes near the tabernacle of the LORD shall die. Shall we be consumed with dying?

¹And the LORD said to Aaron, You and your sons, and your father's house with you shall bear the iniquity of the sanctuary. And you and your sons with you shall bear the iniquity of the priesthood. ²And bring your brothers also of the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, with you, so that they may be joined to you and minister to you. But you and your sons with you shall minister before the tabernacle of witness. ³And they shall keep your charge and the charge of all the tabernacle. Only they shall not come near the vessels of the sanctuary and the altar, so that neither they nor you also may die. ⁴And they shall be joined to you, and keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, for all the service of the tabernacle. And a stranger shall not come near you. ⁵And you shall keep the charge of the sanctuary and the charge of the altar, so that there may be no wrath any more upon the children of Israel. ⁶And I, behold, I have taken your brothers the Levites from among the children of Israel. They are given to you as a gift for the LORD, to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation. ⁷Therefore you and your sons with you shall keep your priests' office for everything of the altar and inside the veil. And you shall serve. I have given your priest's office as a service of gift. And the stranger that comes near shall be put to death.

⁸And the LORD said to Aaron, Behold, I have also given you the charge of My heave offerings of all the holy things of the children of Israel. I have given them to you because of the anointing, and to your sons, by an ordinance forever. ⁹This shall be yours of the most holy things, reserved from the fire — every sacrifice of theirs, every meal offering of theirs, and every trespass offering of theirs, which they shall give Me. These are most holy for you and for your sons. ¹⁰You shall eat it in the most holy place. Every male shall eat it. It shall be holy unto you. ¹¹And this is yours, the heave offering of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Israel. I have given them to you and to your sons and to your daughters with you, by a statute forever. Everyone that is clean in your house shall eat of it. ¹²All the best of the oil, and all the best of the wine, and of the wheat, the first-fruits of them which they shall offer unto the LORD, I have given them to you. ¹³And whatever is first ripe in the land, which they shall bring to the LORD, shall be yours. Everyone that is clean in your house shall eat of it.

¹⁴Everything devoted in Israel shall be yours. ¹⁵Everything that opens the womb in all flesh, which they bring to the LORD, whether of men or animals, shall be yours. Nevertheless the first-born of man you shall surely redeem, and the first-born of unclean animals you shall redeem. ¹⁶And those that are to be redeemed from a month old you shall redeem, according to your judgment for the money of five shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gē'-rāhs. ¹⁷But the first-born of a cow, or the first-born of a sheep, or the first-born of a goat, you shall not redeem. They are holy. You shall sprinkle their blood upon the altar, and shall burn their fat for an offering made by fire, for a sweet savor unto the LORD. ¹⁸And their flesh shall be yours, as the wave breast and as the right shoulder are yours. ¹⁹All the heave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer to the LORD, I have given you and your sons and your daughters with you, by a law forever. It is a covenant of salt forever before the LORD to you and to your seed with you.

²⁰And the LORD spoke to Aaron, You shall have no inheritance in their land, neither shall you have any part among them. I am your part and your inheritance among the children of Israel. ²¹And behold, I have given the children of Levi all the tenth in Israel for an inheritance, for their service which they serve, the service of the tabernacle of the congregation. ²²Neither must the children of Israel come near the tabernacle of the congregation from now on, lest they bear sin and die. ²³But the Levites shall do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they shall bear their iniquity. It shall be a statute forever throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel they have no inheritance. ²⁴But the tithes of the children of Israel, which they offer as a heave offering unto the LORD, I have given to the Levites to inherit. Therefore I have said to them, Among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.

²⁵And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²⁶So speak to the Levites and say to them, When you take tithes from the children of Israel, which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then you shall offer up a heave offering of it for the LORD, a tenth part of the tithe. ²⁷And your heave offering shall be credited to you, as though it were the grain of the threshing-floor, and as the fulness of the wine-press. ²⁸So you also shall offer a heave offering unto the LORD of all your tithes which you receive from the children of Israel. And you shall give from it the LORD's offering to Aaron the priest. ²⁹Out of all your gifts you shall offer every heave offering of the LORD, of all the best of it, the holy part of it out of it. ³⁰Therefore you shall say to them, When you have lifted up the best of it, then it shall be credited to the Levites as though it were the increase of the threshing-floor, and as the increase of the wine-press. ³¹And you shall eat it in every place, you and your households. For it is your reward for your service in the tabernacle of the congregation. ³²And you shall bear no sin because of it, when you have lifted up the best of it. Neither shall you defile the holy things of the children of Israel, lest you die.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron saying, ²This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD has commanded, saying, Speak to the children of Israel that they bring you a red heifer without spot, in which there is no blemish, and upon which no yoke ever came. ³And you shall give it to Ēl-ē-ā'-zär the priest that he may bring it forth outside the camp. And one shall kill it before his face. ⁴And Ēl-ē-ā'-zär the priest shall take of its blood with his finger and sprinkle of its blood directly before the tabernacle of the congregation seven times. ⁵And one shall burn the heifer in his sight — its skin and its flesh and its blood with its dung, he shall burn. ⁶And the priest shall take cedar wood and hyssop and scarlet, and throw it into the midst of the burning of the heifer. ⁷Then the priest shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water. And afterward he shall come into the camp, and the priest shall be unclean until the evening. ⁸And he who burns her shall wash his clothes in water and bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the evening. ⁹And a man that is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and lay them up outside the camp in a clean place, and it shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Israel for a water of separation. It is a cleansing for sin. ¹⁰And he who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening. And it shall be to the children of Israel, and to the stranger that lives among them, for a statute forever.

¹¹He who touches the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days. ¹²He shall purify himself with it on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean. But if he does not purify himself the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be clean. ¹³Whoever touches the dead body of any man that is dead, and does not purify himself, defiles the tabernacle of the LORD. And that soul shall be cut off from Israel. Because the water of separation was not sprinkled upon him, he shall be unclean. His uncleanness is still upon him.

¹⁴This is the law when a man dies in a tent. All that come into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days. ¹⁵And every open vessel which has no covering bound upon it, is unclean. ¹⁶And whoever touches one that is killed with a sword in the open fields, or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days. ¹⁷And for an unclean person they shall take of the ashes of the burnt heifer of cleansing for sin, and running water shall be put to it in a vessel. ¹⁸And a clean person shall take hyssop and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it upon the tent and upon all the vessels, and upon the persons that were there, and upon him that touched a bone, or one killed, or one dead, or a grave. ¹⁹And the clean person shall sprinkle upon the unclean on the third day, and on the seventh day. And on the seventh day he shall purify himself, and wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water. And he shall be clean at evening. ²⁰But the man that shall be unclean, and shall not purify himself, that soul shall be cut off from among the congregation, because he has defiled the sanctuary of the LORD. The water of separation has not been sprinkled upon him. He is unclean. ²¹And it shall be a never-ending law to them, that he who sprinkles the water of separation shall wash his clothes. And he that touches the water of separation shall be unclean until evening. ²²And whatever the unclean person touches shall be unclean. And the soul who touches it shall be unclean until evening.

¹Then the children of Israel came, the whole congregation, into the desert of Zin in the first month. And the people stayed in Kā'-dēsh. And Miriam died there and was buried there. ²And there was no water for the congregation. And they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron. ³And the people contended with Moses and spoke, saying, Oh that we had died when our brothers died before the LORD! ⁴And why have you brought up the congregation of the LORD into this wilderness, so that we and our cattle should die there? ⁵And why have you made us to come up out of Egypt, to bring us into this evil place? It is no place of seed or of figs or of vines or of pōme'-grān-ātes. Neither is there any water to drink. ⁶And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they fell upon their faces. And the glory of the LORD appeared to them. ⁷And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ⁸Take the rod, and gather the assembly together, you and Aaron your brother, and speak to the rock before their eyes. And it shall give forth its water, and you shall bring forth to them water out of the rock. So you shall give the congregation and their animals drink. ⁹And Moses took the rod from before the LORD as He commanded him. ¹⁰And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock, and he said to them, Hear now you rebels. Must we bring water for you out of this rock? ¹¹And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he struck the rock twice. And the water came out plentifully, and the congregation and their animals drank.

¹²And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, Because you did not believe Me, to sanctify Me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them. ¹³This is the water of Mēr'-ī-bāh. Because the children of Israel fought with the LORD, and He showed Himself holy among them.

¹⁴And Moses sent messengers from Kā'-dēsh to the king of Ē'-dōm — so says your brother Israel, You know all the trouble that has happened to us — ¹⁵how our fathers went down into Egypt, and we have lived in Egypt a long time. And the Egyptians troubled us and our fathers. ¹⁶And when we cried unto the LORD, He heard our voice and sent an Angel, and has brought us forth out of Egypt. And behold! We are in Kā'-dēsh, a city in the outermost part of your border. ¹⁷Let us pass, I pray you, through your country. We will not pass through the fields, nor through the vineyards, neither will we drink of the water of the wells. We will go by the king's highway, we will not turn to the right hand nor to the left until we have passed your borders. ¹⁸And Ē'-dōm said to him, You shall not pass by me, lest I come out against you with the sword. ¹⁹And the children of Israel said unto him, We will go by the highway. And if I and my cattle drink of your water, then I will pay for it. Without doing anything, I will only go through on my feet. ²⁰And he said, You shall not go through. And Ē'-dōm came out against him with many people, and with a strong hand. ²¹So Ē'-dōm refused to give Israel passage through his border. Therefore Israel turned away from him.

²²And the children of Israel, the whole congregation, moved from Kā'-dēsh and came to Mount Hor. ²³And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron in Mount Hor, by the border of the land of Ē'-dōm, saying, ²⁴Aaron shall be gathered to his people. For he shall not enter into the land which I have given to the children of Israel, because you rebelled against My word at the water of Mēr'-ī-bāh. ²⁵Take Aaron and Ēl-ē-ā'-zār his son, and bring them up to Mount Hor. ²⁶And strip Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Ēl-ē-ā'-zār his son. And Aaron shall be gathered unto his people, and shall die there. ²⁷And Moses did as the LORD commanded. And they went up into Mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation. ²⁸And Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Ēl-ē-ā'-zār his son. And Aaron died there in the top of the mount. And Moses and Ēl-ē-ā'-zār came down from the mountain. ²⁹And when all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, they mourned for Aaron thirty days, all the house of Israel.

¹And when king Ār'-ād the Cā'-nāan-īte, who lived in the south, heard that Israel came by the way of the spies, then he fought against Israel and took some of them prisoners. ²And Israel vowed a vow unto the LORD and said, If Thou wilt indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will completely destroy their cities. ³And the LORD listened to the voice of Israel and delivered up the Canaanites. And they completely destroyed them and their cities. And he called the name of the place Hôr'-mäh.

⁴And they moved from Mount Hor by the way of the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom. And the soul of the people was very discouraged because of the way. ⁵And the people spoke against God and against Moses, Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no bread, neither is there any water. And our soul hates this light bread. ⁶And the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people. And many people of Israel died. ⁷Therefore the people came to Moses and said, We have sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD and against you. Pray to the LORD that He take away the serpents from us. And Moses prayed for the people. ⁸And the LORD said to Moses, Make a fiery serpent and set it upon a pole. And everyone who is bitten, when he looks upon it, shall live. ⁹And Moses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a pole. And it came to pass that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he looked upon the serpent of brass, he lived.

¹⁰And the children of Israel went forward and pitched in Ö'-böth. ¹¹And they moved from Ö'-böth and pitched at Ī'-jē-äb'-ä-rīm in the wilderness which is in front of Mō'-äb, toward the sunrising. ¹²From there they moved and pitched in the valley of Zâr'-äd. ¹³From there they moved and pitched on the other side of Ār'-nōn, which is in the wilderness that comes out of the borders of the Ām'-ör-ites — for Ār'-nōn is in the border of Mō'-äb, between Mō'-äb and the Ām'-ör-ites. ¹⁴Therefore it is said in the book of the wars of the LORD, what He did in the Red Sea, and in the brooks of Arnon, ¹⁵and at the stream of the brooks that goes down to the dwelling of Ār and lies upon the border of Mō'-äb. ¹⁶And from there they went to Beer. That is the well of which the LORD spoke to Moses, Gather the people together, and I will give them water.

²¹And Israel sent messengers to Sī'-hōn king of the Ām'-ör-ites, saying, ²²Let me pass through your land. We will not turn into the fields or into the vineyards. We will not drink of the waters of the well. We will go along by the king's highway until we are past your borders. ²³And Sī'-hōn would not allow Israel to pass through his border. But Sī'-hōn gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness. And he came to Jā'-hāz and fought against Israel. ²⁴And Israel struck him with the edge of the sword and possessed his land from Ār'-nōn to Jāb'-bok, even to the children of Ām'-mōn. For the border of the children of Ām'-mōn was strong. ²⁵And Israel took all these cities. And Israel lived in all the cities of the Ām'-ōr-ites, in Hēsh'-bōn and in all the villages of it. ²⁶For Hēsh'-bōn was the city of Sī'-hōn the king of the Ām'-ōr-ites, who had fought against the former king of Mō'-āb and had taken all his land out of his hand, even unto Ār'-nōn. ²⁷Therefore they who speak in proverbs say, Come into Hēsh'-bōn, let the city of Sī'-hōn be built and prepared. ²⁸For there has gone out a fire from Hēsh'-bōn, a flame from the city of Sī'-hōn. It has consumed Ār of Mō'-āb, the lords of the high places of Ār'-nōn. ²⁹Woe to you, Mō'-āb! You are undone, O people of Chemosh [Kē'-mōsh]! He has given his sons to be runaways, and his daughters to go into captivity, unto Sī'-hōn king of the Ām'-ōr-ites. ³⁰We have shot at them. Hēsh'-bōn has perished even to Dī'-bōn, and we have laid them waste even to Nō'-phāh which goes to Mē'-dē-bā.

³¹So Israel lived in the land of the Ām'-ōr-ites. ³²And Moses sent to spy out Jā'-ā'-zēr, and they took the villages of it and drove out the Ām'-ōr-ites that were there. ³³And they turned and went up by the way of Bā'-shān. And Og the king of Bā'-shān went out against them, he and all his people, to the battle at Ēd'-rē-ī. ³⁴And the LORD said to Moses, Do not fear him, for I have delivered him into your hand, and all his people and his land. And you shall do to him as you did to Sī'-hōn king of the Ām'-ōr-ites who lived at Hēsh'-bōn. ³⁵So they struck him and his sons and all his people, until there was none left him alive. And they possessed his land.

⁷And the elders of Moab and the elders of Mīd'-i-ān departed with the rewards of divination in their hand. And they came to Balaam and spoke the words of Balak to him. ⁸And he said to them, stay here to-night, and I will bring you word again, as the LORD shall speak to me. And the princes of Moab stayed with Balaam. ⁹And God came to Balaam and said, What men are these with you? ¹⁰And Balaam said unto God, Balak the son of Zīp'-pôr, king of Moab, has sent to me saying, ¹¹Behold! A people has come out of Egypt which covers the face of the earth. Come now, curse them for me. Perhaps I shall be able to overcome them and drive them out. ¹²And God said to Balaam, You shall not go with them. You shall not curse the people, for they are blessed. ¹³And Balaam rose up in the morning and said to the princes of Balak, Go into your land, for the LORD refuses to let me go with you. ⁴And the princes of Moab rose up. And they went to Balak and said, Balaam refuses to come with us.

¹⁵And Balak sent princes again, more and more honorable than those. ⁶And they came to Balaam and said to him, So says Balak the son of Zīp'-pôr, I pray you, let nothing hinder you from coming to me. ¹⁷For I will raise you up to very great honor, and I will do whatever you say to me. I pray you, come then and curse this people for me. ¹⁸And Balaam answered and said to the servants of Balak, If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the word of the LORD my God, to do less or more. ¹⁹I pray you now therefore, stay here also this night so that I may know what more the LORD will say unto me. ²⁰And God came unto Balaam at night and said to him, If the men come to call you, rise up, go with them. But still, the word which I shall say unto you, that you shall do. ²¹And Balaam rose up in the morning and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab.

²²And God's anger was kindled because he went. And the Angel of the LORD stood in the way as an enemy against him. Now he was riding upon his ass, and his two servants were with him. ²³And the ass saw the Angel of the LORD standing in the way, and His sword drawn in His hand. And the ass turned aside out of the way and went into the field. And Balaam struck the ass, to turn her into the way. ²⁴But the Angel of the LORD stood in a path of the vineyards, a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side. ²⁵And when the ass saw the Angel of the LORD, she pushed herself into the wall and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall. And he struck her again. ²⁶And the Angel of the LORD went further and stood in a narrow place, where there was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left. ²⁷And when the ass saw the Angel of the LORD, she fell down under Balaam. And Balaam's anger was kindled, and he struck the ass with a staff. ²⁸And the LORD opened the mouth of the ass, and she said to Balaam, What have I done to you, that you have beaten me these three times? ²⁹And Balaam said to the ass, Because you have mocked me. I wish there were a sword in my hand, for now I would kill you. ³⁰And the ass said to Balaam, Am I not your ass, upon which you have ridden ever since I was yours, to this day? Was I ever known to do so to you? And he said, no.

³¹Then the LORD opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the Angel of the LORD standing in the way, and His sword drawn in His hand. And he bowed down his head, and fell flat on his face. ³²And the Angel of the LORD said to him, Why have you beaten your ass these three times? Behold! I went out to be an enemy to you, because your way is perverse before Me. ³³And the ass saw Me and turned from Me these three times. Unless she had turned from Me, surely now I also would have killed you and saved her alive. ³⁴And Balaam said to the Angel of the LORD, I have sinned. For I did not know that Thou didst stand in the way against me. Now therefore, if it displeases Thee, I will go back again. ³⁵And the Angel of the LORD said to Balaam, Go with the men. But only the word that I shall speak to you, that you shall speak. So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

³⁶And when Balak heard that Balaam had come, he went out to meet him, to a city of Moab, which is in the border of Ār'-nōn, which is in the outermost border. ³⁷And Balak said to Balaam, Did I not earnestly send to you to call you? Why did you not come unto me? Am I not able indeed to lift you up to honor? ³⁸And Balaam said to Balak, Lo, I have come unto you. Have I now any power at all to say anything? The word that God puts in my mouth, that I shall speak. ³⁹And Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kūr'-jāth-hū'-zōth. ⁴⁰And Balak offered oxen and sheep, and sent to Balaam and to the princes that were with him. ⁴¹And on the next day Balak took Balaam and brought him up into the high places of Baal, so that from there he might see the utmost part of the people.

¹And Balaam said to Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare here seven oxen and seven rams for me. ²And Balak did as Balaam had spoken. And Balak and Balaam offered on every altar a bull and a ram. ³And Balaam said to Balak, Stand by your burnt offering, and I will go. Perhaps the LORD will come to meet me. And whatever He shows me I will tell you. And he went to a high place. ⁴And God met Balaam. And he said to Him, I have prepared seven altars, and I have offered upon every altar a bull and a ram. ⁵And the LORD put a word in Balaam's mouth and said, Return to Balak, and so you shall speak. ⁶And he returned to him. And lo, he stood by his burnt sacrifice, he and all the princes of Moab.

⁷And he took up his parable, and said, Balak the king of Moab has brought me from Ār'-ām, out of the mountains of the east, saying,

Come, curse Jacob for me, and come, defy Israel. ⁸How shall I curse him whom God has not cursed? Or how shall I defy him whom the LORD has not defied? ⁹For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I behold him. Lo, the people shall dwell alone, and shall not be counted among the nations. ¹⁰Who can count the dust of Jacob, and the number of the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his! ¹¹And Balak said unto Balaam, What have you done to me? I took you to curse my enemies, and behold, you have kept on blessing them! ¹²And he answered and said, Must I not be careful to speak that which the LORD has put in my mouth? ³And Balak said unto him, I pray you, come with me to another place from where you may see them. You shall see only the outermost part of them, and shall not see them all. And curse them from there for me.

¹⁴And he brought him into the field of Zō'-phīm, to the top of Pīs'-gāh, and built seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on every altar. ⁵And he said unto Balak, Stand here by your burnt offering while I meet the LORD yonder. ¹⁶And the LORD met Balaam and put a word in his mouth, and said, Go again to Balak and say this. ¹⁷And when he came to him, behold, he stood by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab were with him. And Balak said to him, What has the LORD spoken?

¹⁸And he took up his parable and said, Rise up, Balak, and hear. Listen to me, son of Zip'-pôr. ¹⁹God is not a man that He should lie, neither is He the son of man that He should repent. Has He said, and shall He not do it? Or has He spoken, and shall He not make it good? ²⁰Behold, I have received commandment to bless. And He has blessed, and I cannot reverse it. ²¹He has not seen iniquity in Jacob, neither has He seen perverseness in Israel. The LORD his God is with him, and the shout of a king is among them. ²²God brought them out of Egypt. He has as it were the strength of an ox. ²³Surely there is no magic art against Jacob, neither is there any fortune-telling against Israel. According to this time it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel, What God has worked! ²⁴Behold, the people shall rise up like a great lion, and lift up himself like a young lion. He shall not lie down until he eats of the prey and drinks the blood of the slain.

²⁵And Balak said to Balaam, Neither curse them at all nor bless them at all. ²⁶But Balaam answered and said to Balak, Did I not tell you, saying, All that the LORD speaks, that I must do? ²⁷And Balak said to Balaam, I pray you, come. I will bring you into another place. Perhaps it will please God that you will curse them for me from there. ²⁸And Balak brought Balaam to the top of Pē'-ôr that looks toward Jē-shī'-mōn. ¹⁹And Balaam said to Balak, Build seven altars here for me, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams here for me. ³⁰And Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bull and a ram on every altar.

¹And when Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he did not go, as at other times, to seek for secret arts, but he set his face toward the wilderness. ²And Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel pitched, according to their tribes. And the Spirit of God came upon him. ³And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Bē'-ôr has said, and the man whose eyes are open has said — 'he has said — he who heard the words of God, who saw the vision of the Almighty, falling down but having his eyes open — ⁵How goodly are your tents, O Jacob, and your tabernacles, O Israel! ⁶They are spread forth like the valleys, like gardens by the river's side, like the trees of aloes which the LORD has planted, like cedar trees beside the waters. ⁷He shall pour the water out of his buckets, and his seed shall be in many waters. And his king shall be higher than Ā'-gāg, and his kingdom shall be exalted. ⁸God brought him forth out of Egypt. He has as it were the strength of an ox. He shall eat up the nations his enemies, and shall break their bones, and pierce them through with his arrows. ⁹He crouched. He lay down as a lion, and as a great lion. Who shall stir him up? Blessed is he who blesses you, and cursed is he who curses you.

¹⁰And Balak's anger was kindled against Balaam. And he struck his hands together. And Balak said to Balaam, I called you to curse my enemies, and behold, you have kept on blessing them these three times. ¹¹Therefore now flee to your place. I thought to lift you up to great honor, but lo, the LORD has kept you back from honor. ¹²And Balaam said to Balak, Did I not speak also to your messengers whom you sent to me, saying, ¹³If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the commandment of the LORD, to do good or bad of my own mind. But what the LORD said, that I will speak. ¹⁴And now, behold, I go to my people. Come! I will make known to you what this people shall do to your people in the latter days.

¹⁵And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Bē'-ôr has said, and the man whose eyes are open has said — ¹⁶he has said, he who heard the words of God and knew the knowledge of the Most High, who saw the vision of the Almighty, falling down but having his eyes open — ¹⁷I shall see him, but not now. I shall behold him, but not near. There shall come a Star out of Jacob, and a Scepter shall rise out of Israel, and shall strike the corners of Moab, and destroy all the children of Sheth. ¹⁸And Edom shall be a possession. Sē'-ir also shall be a possession for his enemies. And Israel shall do valiantly. ¹⁹Out of Jacob shall come He who shall have dominion and shall destroy him who remains of the city.

²⁰And when he looked on Ām'-ā-lēk, he took up his parable and said, Ām'-ā-lēk was the first of the nations. But his latter end shall be that he shall perish forever. ²¹And he looked on the Kē'-nītes, and took up his parable and said, Strong is your dwelling-place, and you put your nest in a rock. ²²Nevertheless the Kē'-nītes shall be wasted until Āssh'-ūr shall carry you away captive. ²³And he took up his parable and said, Alas, who shall live when God does this! ²⁴And ships shall come from the coast of Chīt'-tīm, and shall afflict Āssh'-ūr, and shall afflict F'-bēr, and he also shall perish forever. ²⁵And Balaam rose up, and went and returned to his place. And Balak also went his way.

¹And Israel lived in Chīt'-tīm, and the people began to commit fôr-nī-ca-tiōn with the daughters of Moab. ²And they called the people unto the sacrifices of their gods. And the people ate and bowed down to their gods. ³And Israel joined himself to Bā'-āl-pē-ôr. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel. ⁴And the LORD said to Moses, Take all the heads of the people and hang them up before the LORD against the sun, so that the fierce anger of the LORD may be turned away from Israel. ⁵And Moses said to the judges of Israel, Every one of you kill his men who were joined to Bā'-āl-pē-ôr. ⁶And behold! One of the children of Israel came and brought to his brothers a woman of Midian, in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israel, who were weeping before the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ⁷And when Phīn'-ē-hās, the son of Ēl-ē-ā'-zār, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose up from among the congregation and took a spear in his hand. ⁸And he went after the man of Israel into the tent, and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman, through her belly. So the plague was stayed from the children of Israel. ⁹And those that died in the plague were twenty-four thousand.

¹⁰And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ¹¹Phīn'-ē-hās the son of Ēl-ē-ā'-zār, the son of Aaron the priest, has turned My wrath away from the children of Israel while he was zealous for My sake among them — so that I did not destroy the children of Israel in My jealousy. ¹²Therefore say, Behold! I give him My covenant of peace. ¹³And he shall have it, and his seed after him, the covenant of an everlasting priesthood—because he was zealous for his God, and made an atonement for the children of Israel. ¹⁴Now the name of the Israelite who was killed, (he who was killed with the woman of Midian) was Zīm'-rī, the son of Sā'-lû, a prince of a chief house among the Simeonites. ¹⁵And the name of the woman of Midian (she who was slain) was Cöz'-bī, the daughter of Zur. He was head over a people, and of a chief house in Mid'-ī-ān.

¹And after the plague, the LORD spoke to Moses and to Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the son of Aaron the priest, saying, ²Take the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel, from twenty years old and upward, throughout their fathers' house, all that are able to go to war in Israel. ³And Moses and Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the priest spoke with them in the plains of Moab beside Jordan saying, ⁴Count the people from twenty years old and upward, as the LORD commanded Moses and the children of Israel, who went forth out of the land of Egypt.

⁵Reuben, the oldest son of Israel — the children of Reuben, Hā'-nōch, of whom comes the family of the Hā'-nōch-ites; of Pāl'-lū the family of the Pāl'-lū-ites; ⁶of Hēz'-rōn the family of the Hēz'-rōn-ites; of Cār'-mī, the family of the Cār'-mītes. ⁷These are the families of the Reū'-bēn-ites. And those who were numbered of them were forty-three thousand, seven hundred and thirty. ⁸And the sons of Pāl'-lū were Ē-lī'-āb. ⁹And the sons of Ē-lī'-āb were Nēm'-ū-ēl, and Dā'-thān, and Ā-bī'-rām. This is that Dā'-thān and Ā-bī'-rām who were famous in the congregation, who fought against Moses and against Aaron in the company of Kōr'-āh, when they fought against the LORD. ¹⁰And the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up together with Kōr'-āh, when that company died, when the fire devoured two hundred and fifty men. And they became a sign. ¹¹However the children of Kōr'-āh did not die.

¹⁹The sons of Judah were Er and Ō'-nān. And Er and Ō'-nān died in the land of Canaan. ²⁰And the sons of Judah according to their families were: of Shē'-lāh, the family of the Shē'-lā-nītes; of Phār'-ēz, the family of the Phār'-ēz-ites; of Zē'-rāh, the family of the Zār'-hītes. ²¹And the sons of Phâr'-êz were: of Hêz'-rôn, the family of the Hêz'-rôn-ites; of Hâm'-ül, the family of the Hâm'-ül-ites. ²²These are the families of Judah according to those that were numbered of them, seventy-six thousand and five hundred.

²³Of the sons of Is'-sä-chär according to their families: of Tõ'-lä, the family of the Tõ'-lä-ites; of Pü'-ä, the family of the Pü'-nites; ²⁴of Jäh'-üb, the family of the Jäh'-üb-ites; of Shim'-rôn, the family of the Shim'-rôn-ites. ²⁵These are the families of Is'-sä-chär according to those that were numbered of them, sixty-four thousand and three hundred.

²⁶Of the sons of Zê-bü'-lün, according to their families: of Sé'-rêd, the family of the Sär'-dites; of Ê'-lôn, the family of the Ê'-lôn-ites; of Jäh'-lêel, the family of the Jäh'-lêel-ites. ²⁷These are the families of the Zê-bü'-lün-ites according to those that were numbered of them, sixty thousand and five hundred.

²⁸The sons of Joseph according to their families were Mä-näs'-sêh and Ê'-phrä-ïm. ²⁹Of the sons of Mä-näs'-sêh: of Mä'-chir, the family of the Mä'-chir-ites. And Mä'-chir fathered Gil'-ê-äd: of Gil'-ê-äd come the family of the Gil'-ê-äd-ites. ³⁰These are the sons of Gil'-ê-äd: of Jê-ê'-zêr, the family of the Jê-ê'-zêr-ites; of Hê'-lêk, the family of the Hê'-lêk-ites. ³¹And of Äs'-ri-êl, the family of the Äs'-ri-êl-ites; and of Shê'-chêm, the family of the Shê'-chêm-ites; ³²and of Shê'-mî'-dä, the family of the Shê'-mî'-dä-ites; and of Hê'-phêr, the family of the Hê'-phêr-ites.

³³And Zê-löph'-ê-häd the son of Hê'-phêr had no sons, but daughters. And the names of the daughters of Zê-löph'-ê-häd were Mär'-läh, and No'-äh, Hög'-läh, Mil'-cäh, and Tir'-zäh. ³⁴These are the families of Mä-näs'-sêh, and those that were numbered of them were fifty-two thousand and seven hundred.

⁴²These are the sons of Dan according to their families: of Shû'-hām, the families of the Shû'-hām-ites. These are the families of Dan according to their families. ⁴³All the families of the Shû'-hām-ites, according to those that were numbered of them, were sixty-four thousand and four hundred.

⁴⁴Of the children of Asher according to their families: of Jīm'-nā, the family of the Jīm'-nites; of Jēs'-ū-i, the family of the Jēs'-ū-ites; of Bē-rī'-āh, the family of the Bē-rī'-ites. ⁴⁵Of the sons of Bē-rī'-āh: of Hē'-bēr, the family of the Hē'-bēr-ites; of Māl'-chī-ēl, the family of the Māl'-chī-ē'-lites. ⁴⁶And the name of the daughter of Asher was Sarah. ⁴⁷These are the families of the sons of Asher according to those that were numbered of them, fifty-three thousand and four hundred.

⁵²And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ⁵³Unto these the land shall be divided for an inheritance according to the number of names. ⁵⁴To many you shall give the more inheritance, and to few you shall give the less inheritance. To everyone shall his inheritance be given according to those that were numbered of him. ⁵⁵Notwithstanding the land shall be divided by lot. According to the names of the tribes of their fathers they shall inherit. ⁵⁶According to the lot shall the possession of it be divided between many and few.

⁵⁷And these are those who were numbered of the Levites after their families: of Gēr'-shōn, the family of the Gēr'-shōn-ites; of Kō'-hāth, the family of the Kō'-hāth-ites; of Mē-rār'-i, the family of the Mē-rār'-ites. ⁵⁸These are the families of the Levites: the family of the Lib'-nites, the family of the Hē'-brōn-ites, the family of the Māh'-lites, the family of the Mū'-shites, the family of the Kōr'-ā-thites. And Kō'-hāth fathered Ām'-rām. ⁵⁹And the name of Ām'-rām's wife was Jōch'-ē-bēd, the daughter of Levi, whom her mother bore to Levi in Egypt. And she bore unto Ām'-rām Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their sister. ⁶⁰And unto Aaron was born Nā'-dāb, and Ā-bī-hū, Ēl-ē-ā'-zār, and Ith'-ā-mār. ⁶¹And Nā'-dāb and Ā-bī-hū died when they offered strange fire before the LORD. ⁶²And those who were numbered of them were twenty-three thousand, all males from a month old and upward. For they were not numbered among the children of Israel, because there was no inheritance given them among the children of Israel.

⁶³These are they that were numbered by Moses and Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the priest, who numbered the children of Israel in the plains of Moab near Jordan near Jericho. ⁶⁴But among these there was not a man of them whom Moses and Aaron the priest numbered, when they numbered the children of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai. ⁶⁵For the LORD had said of them, They shall surely die in the wilderness. And there was not a man left of them, except Caleb the son of Jē-phūn'-neh and Joshua the son of Nun.

¹Then the daughters of Zē-lōph'-ē-hād, the son of Hē'-phēr, the son of Gīl'-ē-ād, the son of Mā'-chīr, the son of Mā-nās'-sēh, of the families of Mā-nās'-sēh the son of Joseph, came. And these are the names of his daughters: Māh'-lāh, Nō'-āh, Hōg'-lāh, Mīl'-cāh, and Tīr'-zāh. ²And they stood before Moses and before Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the priest, and before the princes and all the congregation, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying, ³Our father died in the wilderness, and he was not in the company of those who gathered themselves together against the LORD in the company of Kōr'-āh, but died in his own sin, and had no sons. ⁴Why should the name of our father be taken away from among his family, because he has no son? Therefore give us a possession among the brothers of our father. ⁵And Moses brought their cause before the LORD. ⁶And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ⁷the daughters of Zē-lōph'-ē-hād speak right. You shall surely give them a possession of an inheritance among their father's brothers. And you shall cause the inheritance of their father to pass to them. ⁸And you shall speak to the children of Israel saying, If a man dies and has no son, then you shall cause his inheritance to pass to his daughter. ⁹And if he has no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers. ¹⁰And if he has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his father's brothers. ¹¹And if his father has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his kinsman that is next to him of his family, and he shall possess it. And it shall be unto the children of Israel a statute of judgment, as the LORD commanded Moses.

¹²And the LORD said to Moses, Get up into this Mount Āb'-ā-rīm and see the land which I have given to the children of Israel. ¹³And when you have seen it, you also shall be gathered to your people as Aaron your brother was gathered. ¹⁴For you rebelled against My commandment in the desert of Zin, in the strife of the congregation, to sanctify Me at the water before their eyes — that is the water of Mēr'-ī-bāh in Kā'-dēsh in the wilderness of Zin. ¹⁵And Moses spoke unto the Lord saying, ¹⁶Let the LORD, the God of the spirits of all flesh, set a man over the congregation ¹⁷who may go out before them, and who may go in before them, and who may lead them out, and who may bring them in — so that the congregation of the LORD may not be as sheep which have no shepherd. ¹⁸And the LORD said to Moses, Take Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the Spirit, and lay your hand upon him. ¹⁹And set him before Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the priest, and before all the congregation, and give him a charge in their sight. ²⁰And you shall put some of your honor upon him, so that all the congregation of the children of Israel may be obedient. ²¹And he shall stand before Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the priest, who shall ask for him according to the judgment of Ū'-rīm before the LORD. At his word they shall go out, and at his word they shall come in, he and all the children of Israel with him, even all the congregation. ²²And Moses did as the LORD commanded him. And he took Joshua and set him before Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the priest and before all the congregation. ²³And he laid his hands upon him and gave him a charge, even as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²Command the children of Israel, and say to them, My offering and My bread for My sacrifices made by fire, a sweet savor unto Me, you shall be careful to offer unto Me in their due season. ³And you shall say to them, This is the offering made by fire which you shall offer unto the LORD — two lambs of the first year without spot day by day for a continual burnt offering. ⁴The one lamb you shall offer in the morning, and the other lamb you shall offer at evening. ⁵And a tenth part of an ē'-phāh of flour for a meal offering, mixed with the fourth part of a hin of beaten oil. ⁶*It is* a continual burnt offering which was ordained in Mount Sinai for a sweet savor, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD. ⁷And the drink offering of it shall be the fourth part of a hin for the one lamb. You shall cause the strong wine to be poured unto the LORD in the holy place for a drink offering. ⁸And the other lamb you shall offer at evening. As the meal offering of the morning, and as the drink offering of it, you shall offer it, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savor unto the LORD.

⁹And on the sabbath day two rams of the first year without spot, and two tenth deals of flour for a meal offering, mixed with oil, and the drink offering of it — ¹⁰*this is* the burnt offering of every sabbath, besides the continual burnt offering, and its drink offering.

¹¹And in the beginnings of your months you shall offer a burnt offering to the LORD — two young bulls, and one ram, seven lambs of the first year without spot, ¹²and three tenth deals of flour for a meal offering, mixed with oil, for one bull, and two tenth deals of flour for a meal offering, mingled with oil, for one ram — ¹³and a separate tenth deal of flour mixed with oil for a meal offering to one lamb, for a burnt offering of a sweet savor, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD. ¹⁴And their drink offerings shall be half a hin of wine to a bull, and the third part of a hin to a ram, and a fourth part of a hin unto a lamb. This is the burnt offering of every month throughout the months of the year. ¹⁵And one kid of the goats for a sin offering to the LORD shall be offered, besides the continual burnt offering and its drink offering. ¹⁶And in the fourteenth day of the first month is the Passover of the LORD. ¹⁷And in the fifteenth day of this month is the feast. Seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten. ¹⁸In the first day shall be a holy convocation. You shall do no kind of laboring work. ¹⁹But you shall offer a sacrifice made by fire for a burnt offering to the LORD — two young bulls, and one ram, and seven lambs of the first year. They shall be unto you without blemish. ²⁰And their meal offering shall be of flour mixed with oil: three tenth deals you shall offer for a bull, and two tenth deals for a ram, ²¹a separate tenth part shall you offer for every lamb throughout the seven lambs — ²²and one goat for a sin offering to make an atonement for you. ²³You shall offer these besides the burnt offering in the morning, which is for a continual burnt offering. ²⁴In this way you shall offer daily, throughout the seven days, the bread of the sacrifice made by fire, for a sweet savor unto the LORD. It shall be offered besides the continual burnt offering and its drink offering. ²⁵And on the seventh day you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no laboring work.

²⁶Also in the day of the first-fruits, when you bring a new meal offering unto the LORD in your feast of weeks, you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no laboring work. ²⁷But you shall offer the burnt offering for a sweet savor unto the LORD — two young bulls, one ram, seven lambs of the first year ²⁸and their meal offering of flour mixed with oil, three tenth deals to one bull, two tenth deals unto one ram, ²⁹a separate tenth deal unto one lamb, throughout the seven lambs, ³⁰one kid of the goats, to make an atonement for you. ³¹You shall offer them besides the continual burnt offering and its meal offering and their drink offerings. They shall be unto you without blemish.

¹And in the seventh month, on the first of the month, you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no laboring work. It is a day of blowing the trumpets unto you. ²And you shall offer a burnt offering for a sweet savor unto the LORD — one young bull, one ram, seven lambs of the first year without blemish. ³And their meal offering shall be flour mixed with oil, three tenth deals for a bull, two tenth deals for a ram, ⁴and one tenth deal for one lamb, throughout the seven lambs, ⁵and one kid of the goats for a sin offering to make an atonement for you. ⁶*These* shall be besides the burnt offering of the month, and its meal offering, and the daily burnt offering, and its meal offering, and their drink offerings, according to their ordinance, for a sweet savor, a sacrifice made by fire to the LORD.

¹²And on the fifteenth day of the seventh month you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no laboring work, and you shall keep a feast unto the LORD seven days. ¹³And you shall offer a burnt offering, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savor unto the LORD — thirteen young bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year. They shall be without blemish. ¹⁴And their meal offering shall be of flour, mixed with oil, three tenth deals to every bull of the thirteen bulls, two tenth deals to each ram of the two rams, ¹⁵and a separate tenth deal to each lamb of the fourteen lambs, ¹⁶and one kid of the goats for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its meal offering, and its drink offering.

²⁶And on the fifth day nine bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without spot. ²⁷And their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, according to the law — ²⁸and one goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering and its meal offering and its drink offering. ²⁹And on the sixth day eight bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish. ³⁰And their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, for the lambs, shall be according to their number, according to the law — ³¹and one goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its meal offering, and its drink offering. ³²And on the seventh day seven bulls, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish. ³³And their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, according to the law — ³⁴and one goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its meal offering, and its drink offering.

³⁵On the eighth day you shall have a solemn assembly. You shall do no laboring work. ³⁶But you shall offer a burnt offering, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savor unto the LORD — one bull, one ram, seven lambs of the first year without blemish. ³⁷Their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bull, for the ram, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, according to the law. ³⁸And one goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, and its meal offering and its drink offering. ³⁹These things you shall do unto the LORD in your set feasts, besides your vows and your free-will offerings, for your burnt offerings, and for your meal offerings, and for your drink offerings, and for your peace offerings. ⁴⁰And Moses told the children of Israel according to all that the LORD commanded Moses.

¹And Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes concerning the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the LORD has commanded. ²If a man vows a vow unto the LORD, or swears an oath to bind his soul with a bond, he shall not break his word. He shall do according to all that comes out of his mouth. ³If a woman also vows a vow unto the LORD, and binds herself by a bond, being in her father's house in her youth, ⁴and if her father hears her vow and her bond with which she has bound her soul, and if her father shall hold his peace with her — then all her vows shall stand, and every bond with which she has bound her soul shall stand. ⁵But if her father does not allow her in the day that he hears, not any of her vows or of her bonds with which she has bound her soul shall stand. And the LORD shall forgive her because her father did not allow her. ⁶And if she had a husband when she vowed, or if she said anything rash out of her lips with which she bound her soul, ⁷and if her husband heard and held his peace with her in the day that he heard it — then her vows shall stand, and her bonds with which she bound her soul shall stand. ⁸But if her husband did not allow her on the day that he heard it, then he shall make her vow which she vowed, and that which she uttered with her lips, with which she bound her soul, of no effect. And the LORD shall forgive her. ⁹But every vow of a widow and of her who is divorced, with which they bound their souls, shall stand against her. ¹⁰And if she vowed in her husband's house, or bound her soul by a bond with an oath, ¹¹and if her husband heard and held his peace with her, and did not forbid her — then all her vows shall stand, and every bond with which she bound her soul shall stand. ¹²But if her husband has completely made them void on the day he heard, whatever comes out of her lips, concerning her vows or concerning the bond of her soul, shall not stand. Her husband has made them void. And the LORD shall forgive her. ¹³Every vow and every binding oath to afflict the soul, her husband may make it firm, or her husband may make it void. ¹⁴But if her husband does hold his peace with her from day to day, then he establishes all her vows or all her bonds which are upon her. He confirms them, because he held his peace with her in the day that he heard. ¹⁵But if he shall in any way make them void after he has heard, then he shall take away her iniquity. ¹⁶These are the statutes which the LORD commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, between the father and his daughter in her youth in her father's house.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²Avenge the children of Israel from the Mīd'-ī-ān-ītes. Afterward you shall be gathered to your people. ³And Moses spoke to the people saying, Arm some of yourselves to the war, and let them go against the Mīd'-ī-ān-ītes, and avenge the LORD from Mīd'-ī-ān. ⁴You shall send to the war a thousand from every tribe, throughout all the tribes of Israel. ⁵So they were delivered out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed for war. ⁶And Moses sent them to the war, a thousand of every tribe. He sent them and Phīn'-ĕ-hās the son of Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the priest, to the war, with the holy instruments and the trumpets to blow in his hand. ⁷And they warred against the Mīd'-ī-ān-ītes, as the LORD commanded Moses. And they killed all the males. ⁸And they killed the kings of Mīd'-ī-ān, besides the rest of them that were killed. They killed Ē'-vī, and Rē'-kēm, and Zūr, and Hūr, and Rē'-bā — five kings of Mīd'-ī-ān. They also killed Bā'-lāam the son of Bē-ôr with the sword. ⁹And the children of Israel took all the women of Mīd'-ī-ān captive, and their little ones, and the spoil of all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods. ¹⁰And they burned with fire all their cities in which they lived, and all their beautiful castles. ¹¹And they took all the spoil and all the prey of men and animals. ¹²And they brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoil, to Moses and to Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the priest and to the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the camp at the plains of Moab, which is by Jordan near Jericho.

¹³And Moses and Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went forth to meet them outside the camp. ¹⁴And Moses was angry with the officers of the army, the captains over thousands and captains over hundreds, who came from the battle. ¹⁵And Moses said to them, Have you saved all the women alive? ¹⁶Behold, these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Bā'-lāam, to commit sin against the LORD in the matter of Pē'-ôr, and there was a plague among the congregation of the LORD. ¹⁷Now therefore kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman that has known man by lying with him. ¹⁸But all the women children, that have not known a man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves. ¹⁹And stay outside the camp seven days. Whosoever has killed any person, and whoever has touched any dead one, purify yourselves and your captives on the third day and on the seventh day. ²⁰And purify all your clothing, and all that is made of skins, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood.

²¹And Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the priest said to the men of war who went to battle, This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD commanded Moses. ²²Only the gold and the silver, the brass, the iron, the tin, and the lead — ²³everything that can stand the fire, you shall make it go through the fire, and it shall be clean. Nevertheless it shall be purified with the water of separation. And all that cannot stand the fire you shall make go through the water. ²⁴And you shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and you shall be clean, and afterwards you shall come into the camp.

²⁵And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²⁶Take the sum of the prey that was taken of man and of animal, you and Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the priest and the chief fathers of the congregation. ²⁷And divide the prey into two parts: between those who took the war upon themselves, who went out to battle, and between all the congregation. ²⁸And levy a tax for the LORD from the men of war who went out to battle — one soul of five hundred, of the persons and of the beeves, and of the asses, and of the sheep. ²⁹Take it from their half and give it to Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the priest, for a heave offering unto the LORD. ³⁰And from the children of Israel's half you shall take one portion of fifty, of the persons, of the beeves, of the asses, of the flocks, of all kinds of animals, and give them to the Levites who keep the charge of the tabernacle of the LORD. ³¹And Moses and Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses. ³²And the prize, the rest of the spoil which the men of war had caught, was six hundred and seventy-five thousand sheep, ³³seventy-two thousand beef cattle, ³⁴sixty-one thousand asses, ³⁵and thirty-two thousand persons in all, of women that had not known men by lying with them. ³⁶And the half, the portion of those who went out to war, was in number three hundred thirty-seven thousand and five hundred sheep, ³⁷and the LORD's tax of the sheep was six hundred and seventy-five. ³⁸And the beef cattle were thirty-six thousand, of which the LORD's tax was seventy-two. ³⁹And the asses were thirty thousand, five hundred, of which the LORD's tax was sixty-one. ⁴⁰And the persons were sixteen thousand, of which the LORD's tax was thirty-two persons. ⁴¹And Moses gave the tax, the LORD's heave offering, to Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the priest, as the LORD commanded Moses.

⁴⁸And the officers who were over thousands of the army, over the captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, came near Moses. ⁴⁹And they said to Moses, Your servants have taken the sum of the men of war who are under our charge, and there is not one man of us lacking. ⁵⁰We have therefore brought an offering for the LORD, what every man has found, of jewels of gold, chains, and bracelets, rings, earrings, and tablets, to make an atonement for our souls before the LORD. ⁵¹And Moses and Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the priest took the gold from them, all cut jewels. ⁵²And all the gold of the offering that they offered up to the LORD, of the captains of thousands, and of the captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels. ⁵³For the men of war had taken spoil, every man for himself. ⁵⁴And Moses and Ēl-ē-ā'-zār took the gold of the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the tabernacle of the congregation, for a memorial for the children of Israel before the LORD.

¹Now the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had a very great multitude of cattle. And when they saw the land of Jā'-zēr, and the land of Gilead—that, behold, the place was a place for cattle — ²the children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spoke to Moses and to Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the priest, and to the princes of the congregation, saying, ³Āt'-ā-rōth, and Dī'-bōn, and Jā'-zēr, and Nīm'-rāh, and Hēsh'-bōn, and Ēl-ē-ā'-lēh, and Shē'-bām, and Nē'-bō, and Bē'-ōn — ⁴*even* the country which the LORD struck before the congregation of Israel, is a land for cattle, and your servants have cattle. ⁵Therefore, they said, if we have found grace in your sight, let this land be given unto your servants for a possession, and do not bring us over Jordan.

did when I sent them from Kā'-dēsh-bār'-nē-ă to see the land. ⁹For when they went up into the valley of Ēsh'-cōl and saw the land, they broke the hearts of the children of Israel, so that they should not go into the land which the LORD had given them. ¹⁰And the LORD's anger was kindled the same time, and He swore, saying, ¹¹Surely none of the men that came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and up, shall see the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob — because they have not fully followed Me, ¹²except Caleb the son of Jē-phūn'-nēh, the Kē'-nēz-ite, and Joshua the son of Nun, for they have fully followed the LORD. ¹³And the LORD's anger was kindled against Israel, and He made them wander in the wilderness forty years until all the generation which had done evil in the sight of the LORD was destroyed. ¹⁴And behold, you are risen up in your fathers' stead, an increase of sinful men, to add still more to the fierce anger of the LORD toward Israel. ¹⁵For if you turn away from after Him, He will yet again leave them in the wilderness. And you shall destroy all this people.

¹⁶And they came near to him and said, We will build sheep-folds here for our cattle, and cities for our little ones, ¹⁷but we ourselves will go ready armed before the children of Israel until we have brought them to their place. And our little ones shall live in the fenced cities because of those who live in the land. ¹⁸We will not return to our houses until the children of Israel have inherited every man his inheritance. ¹⁹For we will not inherit with them on the other side of Jordan, or forward, because our inheritance has fallen unto us on this side of Jordan, eastward. ²⁰And Moses said to them, If you will do this thing, if you will go armed before the LORD to war, ²¹and all of you will go armed over Jordan before the LORD until He has driven out His enemies from before Him, ²²and the land is subdued before the LORD, then afterwards you shall return and be guiltless before the LORD and before Israel. And this land shall be your possession before the LORD. ²³But if you will not do so, behold, you have sinned against the LORD. And be sure your sin will find you out. ²⁴Build cities for your little ones and folds for your sheep, and do that which has come out of your mouth.

before you, then you shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession. ³⁰But if they will not go over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan. ³¹And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying, As the LORD has said unto your servants, so we will do. ³²We will go over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, so that the possession of our inheritance on this side Jordan may be ours. ³³And Moses gave to them, to the children of Gad and to the children of Reuben, and to the half the tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sī'-hōn king of the Ām'-ōr-ites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bā'-shān, the land with its cities in the borders, the cities of the country all around.

³⁴And the children of Gad built Dī'-bōn and Āt'-ā-rōth and Ā-rō'-ēr, ³⁵and Āt'-rōth, Shō'-phān, and Jā'-ā'-zēr, and Jōg'-bē-hāh, ³⁶and Bēth-nīm'-rāh, and Bēth-hār'-ān, fenced cities. And they built folds for sheep. ³⁷And the children of Reuben built Hēsh'-bōn, and Ēl-ē-ā'-lēh, and Kīr-jā-thā'-īm, ³⁸and Nē'-bō, and Bā'-āl-mē-ōn (their names being changed) and Shīb'-māh. And they gave other names to the cities which they built. ³⁹And the children of Mā'-chīr the son of Mā-nās'-sēh went to Gilead and took it, and put out the Ām'-ōr-ite who was in it. ⁴⁰And Moses gave Gilead to Mā'-chīr the son of Mā-nās'-sēh, and he lived in it. ⁴¹And Jā'-īr the son of Mā-nās'-sēh went and took the small towns of it, and called them Hā'-vōth-jā'-īr. ⁴²And Nō'-bāh went and took Kē'-nāth and the villages of it, and called it Nō'-bāh, after his own name.

¹These are the journeys of the children of Israel, who went forth out of the land of Egypt with their armies under the hand of Moses and Aaron. ²And Moses wrote their goings out according to their journeys by the commandment of the LORD. And these are their journeys according to their starting-places. ³And they departed from Rām'-ē-sēs in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month. On the next day after the Passover the children of Israel went out with a high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians. ⁴For the Egyptians buried all their first-born whom the LORD had stricken among them. The LORD also executed judgments upon their gods. ⁵And the children of Israel moved from Rām'-ē-sēs and pitched in Sūc'-cōth. ⁶And they departed from Sūc'-cōth and pitched in Ē'-thām, which is in the edge of the wilderness. ⁷And they moved from Ē'-thām and turned again to Pī-hā-hī'-rōth, which is in front of Bā'-āl-zē-phōn. And they pitched in front of Mīg'-dōl. ⁸And they departed from before Pī-hā-hī'-rōth and passed through the middle of the sea into the wilderness, and went three days' journey in the wilderness of Ē'-thām, and pitched in Mār'-āh. ⁹And they moved from Mār'-āh and came to Ē'-līm. And in Ē'-līm were twelve fountains of water and seventy palm trees. And they pitched there. ¹⁰And they moved from Ē'-līm and camped by the Red Sea. ¹¹And they moved from the Red Sea and camped in the wilderness of Sin.

¹²And they took their journey out of the wilderness of Sin and camped in Dōph'-kāh. ¹³And they departed from Dōph'-kāh and camped in Ā'-lūsh. ¹⁴And they moved from Ā'-lūsh and camped at Rēph'-ī-dīm, where there was no water for the people to drink. ¹⁵And they departed from Rēph'-ī-dīm and pitched in the wilderness of Sī'-naī. ¹⁶And they moved from the desert of Sī'-naī and pitched at Kīb'-rōth-hāt-tā'-ā-vāh. ¹⁷And they departed from Kīb'-rōth-hāt-tā'-ā-vāh and camped at Hā-zē'-rōth. ¹⁸And they departed from Hā-zē'-rōth and pitched in Rīth'-māh. ¹⁹And they departed from Rīth'-māh and pitched at Rīm-mōn-pār'-ēz. ²⁰And they departed from Rīm-mōn-pār'-ēz and pitched in Lib'-nāh. ²¹And they moved from Lib'-nāh and pitched at Rīs'-sāh. ²²And they journeyed from Rīs'-sāh and pitched in Kē-hē-lā'-thāh. ²³And they went from Kē-hē-lā'-thāh and pitched in Mount Shā'-phēr. ²⁴And they moved from Mount Shā'-phēr and camped in Hā-rā'-dāh. ²⁵And they moved from Hā-rā'-dāh and pitched in Māk-hē'-lōth. ²⁶And they moved from Māk-hē'-lōth and camped at Tā'-hāth. ²⁷And they departed from Tā'-hāth and pitched at Tār'-āh. ²⁸And they removed from Tār'-āh and pitched in Mīth'-cāh.

²⁹And they went from Mīth'-cāh and pitched in Hāsh-mō'-nāh. ³⁰And they departed from Hāsh-mō'-nāh and camped at Mō'-sē-rōth. ³¹And they departed from Mō'-sē-rōth and pitched in Bēn-ē-jā'-ā-kān. ³²And they moved from Bēn-ē-jā'-ā-kān and camped at Hōr-hā-gid'-gād. ³³And they went from Hōr-hā-gid'-gād and pitched in Jōt'-bā-thāh. ³⁴And they moved from Jōt'-bā-thāh and camped at Ēb-rō'-nāh. ³⁵And they departed from Ēb-rō'-nāh and camped at Ē-zī-ōn-gā'-bēr. ³⁶And they moved from Ē-zī-ōn-gā'-bēr and pitched in the wilderness of Zin, which is Kā'-dēsh. ³⁷And they moved from Kā'-dēsh and pitched in Mount Hor, in the edge of the land of Edom. ³⁸And Aaron the priest went up to Mount Hor at the commandment of the LORD and died there, in the fortieth year after the children of Israel had come up out of the land of Egypt, in the first of the fifth month. ³⁹And Aaron was a hundred and twenty-three years old when he died in Mount Hor. ⁴⁰And King Ār'-ād the Canaanite, who lived in the south in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the children of Israel. ⁴¹And they departed from Mount Hor and pitched in Zāl-mō'-nāh. ⁴²And they departed from Zāl-mō'-nāh and pitched in Pū'-nōn. ⁴³And they departed from Pū'-nōn and pitched in Ō'-bōth. ⁴⁴And they departed from Ō'-bōth and pitched in Ī-jē-āb'-ā-rīm, in the border of Moab. ⁴⁵And they departed from Ī-rīm and pitched in Dī'-bōn-gād. ⁴⁶And they moved from Dī'-bōn-gād and camped on Āl'-mōn-dib-lā-thā'-īm. ⁴⁷And they moved from Āl'-mōn-dib-lā-thā'-īm and pitched in the mountains of Āb'-ā-rīm, before Nē'-bō. ⁴⁸And they departed from the mountains of Āb'-ā-rīm and pitched in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho. ⁴⁹And they pitched by Jordan, from Bēth-jēs'-ī-mōth to Ā-bēl-shīt'-tim in the plains of Moab.

⁵⁰And the LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho, saying, ⁵¹Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, When you have passed over Jordan into the land of Canaan, ⁵²then you shall drive out all those who live in the land from before you, and destroy all their pictures, and destroy all their molded images and pluck down all their high places. ⁵³And you shall put out the land-owners and live in it. For I have given you the land to possess it. ⁵⁴And you shall divide the land by lot for an inheritance among your families. And you shall give the more inheritance to the many, and to the fewer you shall give the less inheritance. Every man's inheritance shall be in the place where his lot falls; according to the tribes of your fathers you shall inherit. ⁵⁵But if you will not drive out the people of the land from before you, then those of them whom you let remain shall be pricks in your eyes and thorns in your sides, and they shall trouble you in the land in which you live. ⁵⁶Moreover I shall do unto you as I thought to do unto them.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ²Command the children of Israel and say to them: When you come into the land of Canaan—this is the land that shall fall unto you for an inheritance, the land of Canaan with its borders — ³then your south quarter shall be from the wilderness of Zin along by the coast of Edom, and your south border shall be the furthest coast of the Salt Sea eastward. ⁴And your border shall turn from the south to the ascent of Āk-rāb'-bīm and pass on to Zin. And its border shall be from the south to Kā-dēsh-bār-nē-ā, and shall go on to Hā'-zār-ād-dār, and pass on to Āz'-mōn. ⁵And the border shall turn from Āz'-mōn to the river of Egypt, and the end of it shall be at the sea. ⁶And for the western border, you shall even have the Great Sea for a border. This shall be your west border. ⁷And this shall be your north border. From the Great Sea you shall point out for you Mount Hor. ⁸From Mount Hor you shall point your border to the entrance of Hā'-māth. And the end of the border shall be at Zē'-dād. ⁹And the border shall go on to Ziph'-rōn, and the end of it shall be at Hā'-zār-ē'-nān. This shall be your north border. ¹⁰And you shall point out your east border from Hā'-zār-ē'-nān to Shē'-phām. ¹¹And the coast shall go down from Shē'-phām to Rib'-lāh, on the east side of Ā'-īn. And the border shall go down, and shall reach to the side of the sea of Chīn'-nē-rēth eastward. ¹²And the border shall go down to Jordan, and the end of it shall be at the Salt Sea. This shall be your land with the borders of it round about.

¹⁶And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ¹⁷These are the names of the men who shall divide the land to you — Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the priest and Joshua the son of Nun. ¹⁸And you shall take one prince from every tribe, to divide the land by inheritance. ¹⁹And the names of the men are these. Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jē-phūn'-nēh. ²⁰And of the tribe of the children of Simeon, Shē-mū'-ēl the son of Ām'-mī-hūd. ²¹Of the tribe of Benjamin, E-lī'-dād the son of Chīs'-lōn. ²²And the prince of the tribe of the children of Dan, Būk'-kī the son of Jōg'-lī. ²³The prince of the children of Joseph, for the tribe of the children of Mā-nās'-sēh, shall be Hān'-nī-ēl the son of Ē'-phōd. ²⁴And the prince of the tribe of the children of Ē'-phrā-īm shall be Kē-mū'-ēl the son of Shīph'-tān. ²⁵And the prince of the tribe of the children of Zē-bū'-lūn shall be Ē-lī-zā'-phān the son of Pār'-nāch. ²⁶And the prince of the tribe of the children of Īs'-sā-chār shall be Pāl'-tī-ēl the son of Āz'-zān. ²⁷And the prince of the tribe of the children of Asher shall be Ā-hī'-hūd the son of Shē-lō'-mī. ²⁸And the prince of the tribe of the children of Nāph'-tā-lī shall be Pē-dāh'-ēl the son of Ām'-mī-hūd. These are the ones to whom the LORD commanded to divide the inheritance unto the children of Israel in the land of Canaan.

¹And the LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho, saying, ²Command the children of Israel that they give unto the Levites, from the inheritance of their possessions cities to live in. And you shall also give to the Levites suburbs for the cities round about them. ³And they shall have the cities to live in. And the suburbs of them shall be for their cattle, and for their goods, and for all their animals. ⁴And the suburbs of the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall reach from the wall of the city and outward a thousand cubits round about. ⁵And you shall measure from outside the city on the east side two thousand cubits, and on the south side two thousand cubits, and on the west side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits. And the city shall be in the middle. This shall be to them the suburbs of the cities. ⁶And among the cities which you shall give unto the Levites there shall be six cities for refuge, which you shall appoint for the manslayer, so that he may flee there. And you shall add forty-two cities to them. ⁷So all the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall be forty-eight cities. You shall give them with their suburbs. ⁸And the cities which you shall give shall be of the possessions of the children of Israel. You shall give many from those who have many. But from those who have few you shall give few. Everyone shall give of his cities to the Levites according to his inheritance which he inherits.

⁹And the LORD spoke to Moses saying, ¹⁰Speak to the children of Israel and say to them, When you have come over Jordan into the land of Canaan, ¹¹then you shall choose cities to be cities of refuge for you, so that the slayer who kills any person through error may flee there. ¹²And they shall be unto you cities for refuge from the avenger, so that the manslayer does not die until he stands before the congregation in judgment. ¹³And of those cities which you shall give, you shall have six cities for refuge. ¹⁴You shall give three cities on this side Jordan, and you shall give three cities in the land of Canaan to be cities of refuge. ¹⁵These six cities shall be a refuge for the children of Israel, and for the stranger, and for anyone who stays among them, so that everyone who kills any person through error may flee there.

¹⁶And if he strikes him with an instrument of iron, so that he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer shall surely be put to death. ¹⁷And if he strikes him by throwing a stone, with which he may die, and if he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer shall surely be put to death. ¹⁸Or if he strikes him with a hand weapon of wood, with which he may die, and if he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer shall surely be put to death. ¹⁹The revenger of blood himself shall kill the murderer. When he meets him, he shall kill him. ²⁰And if he stabs him from hatred, or hurls at him by lying in wait, so that he dies, ²¹or in hatred strikes him with his hand so that he dies, he who struck him shall surely be put to death. For he is a murderer. The revenger of blood will kill the murderer when he meets him.

²²But if he stabs him suddenly without hatred, or has thrown something on him without lying in wait, ²³or with any stone with which a man may die if he does not see, and throws it upon him so that he dies, and was not his enemy, neither sought his harm — ²⁴then the congregation shall judge between the one who kills and the revenger of blood according to these judgments. ²⁵And the congregation shall deliver the one who kills out of the hand of the revenger of blood. And the congregation shall send him back to the city of his refuge, to which he had fled. And he shall stay in it until the death of the high priest who was anointed with the holy oil. ²⁶But if the one who killed shall at any time come outside the border of the city of his refuge to which he had fled, ²⁷and if the revenger of blood finds him outside the borders of the city of his refuge, and if the revenger of blood kills the slayer, he shall not be guilty of blood — ²⁸because he should have remained in the city of his refuge until the death of the high priest. But after the death of the high priest the one who killed shall return to the land of his possession.

²⁹So these things shall be for a statute of judgment unto you throughout your generations in all your dwellings. ³⁰Whoever kills any person, the murderer shall be put to death by the mouth of witnesses. But one witness shall not testify against any person to cause him to die. ³¹Moreover you shall take no atonement for the life of a murderer who is guilty of death. But he shall surely be put to death. ³²And you shall take no atonement for him who has fled to the city of his refuge, so that he should come again to live in the land until the death of the high priest. ³³So you shall not defile the land in which you are. For blood defiles the land. And the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed in it, except by the blood of him that shed it. ³⁴So do not defile the land which you shall inhabit, in which I dwell. For I the LORD dwell among the children of Israel.

¹And the chief fathers of the families of the children of Gilead, the son of Mā'-chīr, the son of Mā-nās'-sēh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near and spoke before Moses, and before the princes, the chief fathers of the children of Israel. ²And they said, The LORD commanded my lord to give the land for an inheritance by lot to the children of Israel. And my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of Zē-lōph'-ē-hād our brother to his daughters. ³And if they are married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then shall their inheritance be taken from the inheritance of our fathers and shall be put to the inheritance of the tribe unto which they are received. So it shall be taken from the lot of our inheritance. ⁴And when the jubilee of the children of Israel shall come, then their inheritance shall be put to the inheritance of the tribe into which they are received. So their inheritance shall be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

⁵And Moses commanded the children of Israel according to the word of the LORD saying, The tribe of the sons of Joseph has said well.

⁶This is the thing which the LORD commands concerning the daughters of Zē-lōph'-ē-hād, saying, Let them marry to whom they think best. Only they shall marry into the family of the tribe of their father. ⁷So the inheritance of the children of Israel shall not be moved from tribe to tribe. For every one of the children of Israel shall keep himself to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers. ⁸And every daughter that possesses an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israel shall be wife unto one of the family of the tribe of her father, so that the children of Israel may each one enjoy the inheritance of his fathers. ⁹Neither shall the inheritance move from one tribe to another tribe. But every one of the tribes of the children of Israel shall keep himself to his own inheritance. ¹⁰Even as the LORD commanded Moses, so the daughters of Zē-lōph'-ē-hād did. ¹¹For Māh'-lāh, Tīr'-zāh, and Hōg'-lāh, and Mil'-cāh, and Noah, the daughters of Zē-lōph'-ē-hād, were married to their father's brothers' sons. ¹²They were married into the families of the sons of Mā-nās'-sēh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father. ¹³These are the commandments and the judgments which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses unto the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho.

The Book of DEUTERONOMY

³And in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first of the month, Moses spoke to the children of Israel according to all that the LORD had given him in commandment to them — ⁴after he had killed Si'-hôn the king of the Âm'-ôr-ites, who lived in Hêsh'-bôn, and Ôg the king of Bâ'-shân who lived at Âs'-tâ-rôth in Êd'-rê-î — ⁵on this side Jordan, in the land of Moab, Moses began to declare this law. He said, ⁶The LORD our God spoke to us in Hôr'-ëb, saying, You have lived long enough in this mountain. ⁷Turn and take your journey, and go into the mountain of the Âm'-ôr-ites, and to all his neighbors in the plain, in the hills, and in the valley, and in the south, and by the sea side, to the land of the Canaanites, and to Lëb'-â-nôn, unto the great river, the river Eû-phrà'-tês. ⁸Behold, I have set the land before you. Go in and possess the land which the LORD swore to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give to them and to their seed after them.

⁹And I spoke to you at that time, saying, I am not able to bear you all by myself. ¹⁰The LORD your God has multiplied you, and, behold, you are this day like the stars of heaven for multitude. ¹¹(May the LORD God of your fathers make you a thousand times as many as you are, and bless you, as He has promised you!) ¹²How can I all by myself bear your pressure and your burden and your strife?¹³Take wise and understanding men, men known among your tribes, and I will make them rulers over you. ¹⁴And you answered me and said, The thing which you have spoken is good. ¹⁵So I took the chief of your tribes, wise and noted men, and made them heads over you, captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, and captains over fifties, and captains over tens, and officers among your tribes. ¹⁶And I commanded your judges at that time saying, Hear the causes between your brothers, and judge righteously between every man and his brother, and the stranger with him. ¹⁷You shall not respect persons in judgment, but you shall hear the small as well as the great. You shall not be afraid of the face of man, for the judgment is God's. And the cause that is too hard for you, bring it to me, and I will hear it. ¹⁸And I commanded you at that time all the things which you should do.

¹⁹And when we departed from Hôr'-ëb, we went through all that great and terrible wilderness which you saw by the way of the mountain of the Âm'-ôr-ites, as the LORD our God commanded us. And we came to Kā'dēsh-bār'-nē-ā. ²⁰And I said to you, You have come to the mountain of the Amorites, which the LORD our God has given unto us. ²¹Behold, the LORD your God has set the land before you. Go up and possess it, even as the LORD God of your fathers has said to you. Do not fear, neither be troubled. ²²And you came near to me, every one of you, and said, We will send men before us, and they shall search out the land and bring us word again by what way we must go up, and into what cities we shall come. ²³And the saying pleased me very much. And I took twelve men of you, one of a tribe. ²⁴And they turned and went up into the mountain and came to the valley of Ēsh'-cōl, and searched it out. ²⁵And they took of the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down to us, and brought us word again and said, It is a good land which the LORD our God gives us.

²⁶But you would not go up, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God. ²⁷And you murmured in your tents and said, Because the LORD hates us, He has brought us forth out of the land of Egypt to deliver us into the hand of the Ām'-ōr-ites, to destroy us. ²⁸Where shall we go up? Our brothers have broken our hearts, saying, The people are greater and taller than we are. The cities are great and walled up to heaven. And moreover we have seen the sons of the Ān'-ā-kims there. ²⁹Then I said to you, Do not dread them nor be afraid of them. ³⁰The LORD your God who goes before you shall fight for you, according to all that He did for you in Egypt before your eyes, ³¹and in the wilderness where you have seen how the LORD your God carried you, as a man carries his son, in all the way that you went until you came into this place. ³²Yet in this thing you did not believe the LORD your God, ³³who went in the way before you to search you out a place to pitch your tents, in fire by night, to show you by what way you should go, and in a cloud by day.

³⁴And the LORD heard the voice of your words, and was angry and swore, saying, ³⁵Surely there shall not one of these men of this evil generation see that good land, which I swore to give to your fathers, ³⁶except Caleb the son of Jē-phūn'-nēh — he shall see it, and to him I will give the land that he has trodden upon, and to his children, because he has fully followed the LORD. ³⁷Also the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, saying, You also shall not go in there. ³⁸But Joshua the son of Nun, who stands before you, he shall go in there. Make him strong, for he shall cause Israel to inherit it. ³⁹Moreover your little ones, who you said would be a prey, and your children who in that day had no knowledge between good and evil, they shall go in there. And I will give it to them, and they shall possess it. ⁴⁰But as for you, turn and take your journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea.

⁴¹Then you answered and said to me, We have sinned against the LORD — we will go up and fight according to all that the LORD our God commanded us. And when each one of you had buckled on his weapons of war, you were ready to go up into the hill. ⁴²But the LORD said to me, Say to them, Do not go up, neither fight — for I am not among you — lest you be beaten by your enemies. ⁴³So I spoke to you. And you would not hear, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD, and went presumptuously into the hill. ⁴⁴And the Amorites who lived in that mountain came out against you and chased you, even as bees do, and destroyed you in Sē'-ir, even to Hôr'-mäh. ⁴⁵And you returned and wept before the LORD. But the LORD would not listen to your voice, nor give ear to you. ⁴⁶So you stayed in Kā'-dēsh many days, according to the days that you stayed there.

¹Then we turned and took our journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea, as the LORD spoke to me. And we went around Mount Sē'-ir many days. ²And the LORD spoke to me, saying, ³You have gone around this mountain long enough. Turn northward. ⁴And command the people saying, You are to pass through the border of your brothers, the children of Esau, who dwell in Sē'-ir. And they shall be afraid of you. Therefore be careful. ⁵Do not meddle with them, for I will not give you of their land, no, not so much as a foot breadth — because I have given Mount Sē'-ir to Esau for a possession. ⁶You shall buy food from them for money, so that you may eat. And you shall also buy water from them for money, so that you may drink. ⁷For the LORD your God has blessed you in all the works of your hand. He knows your walking through this great wilderness. The LORD your God has been with you these forty years. You have lacked nothing.

⁸And when we left our brothers the children of Esau who lived in Sē'-ir, through the way of the plain from Ē'-läth, and from Ē-zī-ön-gā'-bēr, we turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab. ⁹And the LORD said to me, Do not trouble the Mō'-āb-ites, neither fight with them in battle. For I will not give you any of their land for a possession. Because I have given Ār to the children of Lot for a possession. ¹⁰The Ē'-mīmś lived there in times past, a great people, who were many and tall like the Ān'-ā-kīms. ¹¹(They also were known as giants, like the Ān'-ā-kīms, but the Mō'-āb-ites call them Ē'-mīmś. ¹²The Hôr'-īms also lived in Sē'-ir in times past. But the children of Esau took their place when they had destroyed them from before them, and lived in their place — even as Israel did unto the land of his possession which the LORD gave to them.)

¹³Now, I said, rise up and get over the valley Zē'-rēd. And we went over the valley Zē'-rēd. ¹⁴And the time in which we came from Kā'-dēsh-bār'-nē-ā until we had come over the valley Zē'-rēd, was thirty-eight years — until all the generations of the men of war had died out from among the host, even as the LORD swore unto them. ¹⁵For indeed the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from among the host, until they were gone.

¹⁶So when all the men of war were gone from among the people, and were dead, ¹⁷the LORD spoke to me, saying, ¹⁸today you are to pass over through Ār, the coast of Moab. ¹⁹And when you come near, across from the children of Ām'-mōn, do not trouble them nor meddle with them. For I will not give you any possessions from the land of the children of Ām'-mōn, because I have given it to the children of Lot for a possession. ²⁰(That also was known to be a land of giants. Giants lived there in past times. And the Ām'-mōn-ites call them Zām-zūm'-mīmś — ²¹a people great and many, and tall, like the Ān'-ā-kīms, but the LORD destroyed them before them. And they took their place and lived in their place, ²²as He did to the children of Esau who lived in Sē'-ir, when he destroyed the Hōr'-īms from before them. And they took their place and lived in their place even to this day. ²³And the Cāph'-tō-rīms, who came forth out of Cāph'-tōr destroyed the Ā'-vīmś who lived in Hā-zē'-rīm, unto Āz'-zāh, and lived in their place.)

²⁴Rise up and take your journey, and pass over the river Ār'-nōn. Behold! I have given into your hand Sī'-hōn the Ām'-ōr-īte, king of Hēsh'-bōn, and his land. Begin to possess it, and fight with him in battle. ²⁵Today I will begin to put your dread and your fear upon the nations that are under the whole heaven — who shall hear report of you, and shall tremble and be in anguish because of you.

²⁶And I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kē'-dē-mōth to Sī'-hōn king of Hēsh'-bōn with words of peace, saying, ²⁷Let me pass through your land. I will go along by the highway. I will neither turn to the right hand nor to the left. ²⁸You shall sell me food for money, so that I may eat, and give me water for money so that I may drink. Only I will pass through on my feet, ²⁹(as the children of Esau who live in Sē'-ir, and the Moabites who live in Ār, did to me,) until I shall pass over Jordan into the land which the LORD our God gives us. ³⁰But Sī'-hōn king of Hēsh'-bōn would not let us pass by him. For the LORD your God hardened his spirit and made his heart stubborn so that He might deliver him into your hands, as it is this day. ³¹As the LORD said to me, Behold, I have begun to give Sī'-hōn and his land before you. Begin to possess it so that you may inherit his land. ³²Then Sī'-hōn came out against us, he and all his people, to fight at Jā'-hāz. ³³And the LORD our God delivered him before us. And we struck him and his sons and all his people. ³⁴And we took all his cities at that time and completely destroyed the men and the women and the little ones of every city. We left none to remain. ³⁵Only we took the cattle as a spoil for ourselves, and the spoil of the cities which we took. ³⁶From Ā-rō'-ēr, which is by the brink of the river of Ār'-nōn, and from the city that is by the river, even unto Gilead, there was not one city too strong for us. The LORD our God delivered all to us. ³⁷Only to the land of the children of Ammon you did not come, nor unto any place of the river Jāb'-bōk, nor to the cities in the mountains, nor to whatever the LORD our God denied us.

¹Then we turned and went up the way to Bā'-shān. And Og the king of Bā'-shān came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Ēd'-rē-ī. ²And the LORD said to me, Do not fear him, for I will deliver him and all his people, and his land, into your hand. And you shall do to him as you did to Sī'-hōn king of the Ām'ōr-ītes, who lived at Hēsh'-bōn. ³So the LORD our God delivered Og into our hands also, the king of Bā'-shān, and all his people. And we struck him until none was left remaining to him. ⁴And we took all his cities at that time. There was not a city which we did not take from them, sixty cities, all the region of Ār'-gōb, the kingdom of Og in Bā'-shān. ⁵All these cities were fenced with high walls, gates, and bars — besides a good many unwallled towns. ⁶And we completely destroyed them, as we did to Sī'-hōn king of Hēsh'-bōn, completely destroying the men, women, and children of every city. ⁷But we took the cattle and the spoil of the cities as a prize for ourselves. ⁸And we took at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites the land that was on this side Jordan, from the river of Ār'-nōn unto Mount Hermon ⁹(the Hermon which the Si-dō'-nī-āns call Sī'-rī-ōn, and the Amorites call it Shē'-nūr). ¹⁰All the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, and Sāl'-chāh and Ēd'-rē-ī, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan were taken. ¹¹For only Og king of Bashan remained of the rest of the giants. Behold! His bedstead was a bedstead of iron. Is it not in Rāb'-bāth of the children of Ām'-mōn? Nine cubits was the length of it, and four cubits the width of it, according to the cubit of a man. ¹²And this land which we possessed at that time, from Ā-rō'-ēr which is by the river Ār'-nōn, and half of Mount Gilead, and the cities of it, I gave to the men of Reuben and of Gad. ¹³And the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to the half tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh — all the region of Ār'-gōb, with all Bashan, which was called the land of giants. ¹⁴Jā'-īr the son of Mā-nās'-sēh took all the country of Ār'-gōb unto the coasts of Gē-shū'-rī and Mā-āch'-ā-thī. And he called them after his own name, Bā-shān-hā'-vōth-jā'-īr unto this day. ¹⁵And I gave Gilead unto Mā'-chīr. ¹⁶And to the Reubenites and to the Gadites I gave from Gilead even to the river Arnon, half the valley, and the border even to the river Jāb'-bōk, the border of the children of Ammon, ¹⁷the plain also, and Jordan, and the border of it, from Chīn'-nē-rēth even to the sea of the plain, the salt sea, under Āsh'-dōth-pīs'-gāh eastward.

¹⁸And I commanded you at that time saying, The LORD your God has given you this land to possess it. You shall pass over armed before your brothers the children of Israel, all that are able for the war. ¹⁹But your wives and your little ones, and your cattle (I know that you have much cattle) shall stay in your cities which I have given you ²⁰until the LORD has given rest to your brothers, as well as to you, and until they also possess the land which the LORD your God has given them beyond Jordan. And then you shall each one return to his possessions which I have given you.

²¹And I commanded Joshua at that time saying, Your eyes have seen all that the LORD your God has done to these two kings. So the LORD shall do to all the kingdoms where you pass. ²²You shall not fear them. For the LORD your God shall fight for you. ²³And I begged the LORD at that time saying, ²⁴O LORD God, Thou hast begun to show Thy servant Thy greatness, and Thy mighty hand. For what God is there in heaven or in earth who can do according to Thy works, and according to Thy might? ²⁵I pray Thee, let me go over and see the good land that is beyond Jordan, that goodly mountain, and Lēb'-ā-nōn. ²⁶But the LORD was angry with me because of you and would not hear me. And the LORD said unto me, Let it be enough for you. Speak no more to Me of this matter. ²⁷Get up into the top of Pīś'-gāh and lift up your eyes westward and northward and southward and eastward, and behold it with your eyes. For you shall not go over this Jordan. ²⁸But charge Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him. For he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which you shall see. ²⁹So we stayed in the valley over against Bēth-pē'-ōr.

¹Now therefore listen, O Israel, to the statutes and to the judgments which I teach you, in order to do them, so that you may live and go in and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers gives you. ²You shall not add to the word which I command you, neither shall you take away from it, so that you may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you. ³Your eyes have seen what the LORD did because of Bā-āl-pē'-ōr. For the LORD your God has destroyed from among you all the men that followed Bā-āl-pē'-ōr. ⁴And you who did hold fast to the LORD your God are alive, every one of you, this day. ⁵Behold, I have taught you statutes and judgments, even as the LORD my God commanded me, so that you should do so in the land where you go to possess it. ⁶Therefore keep and do them, for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people. ⁷For what nation is so great, who has God so near them, as the LORD our God is in all things for which we call upon Him? ⁸And what nation is so great, that has statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law which I set before you this day?

⁹Only take heed to yourself and keep your soul carefully, lest you forget the things which your eyes have seen, and lest they depart from your heart all the days of your life. But teach them to your sons, and your sons' sons.

¹⁴And the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments so that you might do them in the land where you go over to possess it. ¹⁵Therefore take good heed to yourselves – for you saw no kind of likeness on the day the LORD spoke to you in Hôr'-ëb out of the midst of the fire – ¹⁶lest you corrupt yourselves, and make yourselves a graven image – the likeness of any figure, the likeness of male or female, ¹⁷the likeness of any beast that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged fowl that flies in the air, ¹⁸the likeness of anything that creeps on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth – ¹⁹and lest you lift up your eyes to heaven, and when you see the sun, and the moon, and the stars, all the host of heaven, lest you should be driven to worship them and serve them, which the LORD your God has divided to all nations under the whole heaven. ²⁰But the LORD has taken you and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt, to be to Him a people of inheritance, as you are this day.

²¹Furthermore the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and swore that I should not go over Jordan, and that I should not go in to that good land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance. ²²But I must die in this land; I must not go over Jordan. But you shall go over and possess that good land. ²³Take heed to yourselves, lest you forget the covenant of the LORD your God, which He made with you, and make you a graven image, the likeness of anything which the LORD your God has forbidden you. ²⁴For the LORD your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God.

²⁵When you shall father children and children's children, and when you shall have remained long in the land and shall make yourselves rotten by making a graven image or the likeness of anything, and shall do evil in the sight of the LORD your God, to provoke Him to anger

— ²⁶I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that you shall soon utterly perish from off the land which you are passing over Jordan to possess. You shall not prolong your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed. ²⁷And the LORD shall scatter you among the nations, and you shall be left few in number among the nations where the LORD shall drive you. ²⁸And there you shall serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see nor hear nor eat nor smell. ²⁹But if you shall seek the LORD your God from there, you shall find Him, if you seek Him with all your heart and with all your soul.

³⁰When you are in trouble and when all these things have found you in the latter days, if you return to the LORD your God and shall be obedient unto His voice ³¹(for the LORD your God is a merciful God), He will not forsake you, nor destroy you, nor forget the covenant of your fathers which He swore to them. ³²For ask now of the days that are past, which were before you, since the day that God created man upon the earth, and ask from the one side of heaven to the other, where there has been any such thing as this great thing is, or has been heard like it. ³³Did people ever hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire (as you have heard) and live? ³⁴Or has any God tried to go and take a nation for Himself from the midst of another nation, by trials, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by a stretched out arm, and by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes? ³⁵It was shown unto you so that you might know that the LORD is God, and no one else beside Him. ³⁶He made you hear His voice out of Heaven so that He might teach you. And He showed you His great fire upon earth. And you heard His words out of the midst of the fire. ³⁷And because He loved your fathers, therefore He chose their seed after them, and brought you out in His sight with His mighty power out of Egypt, ³⁸in order to drive out from before you nations greater and mightier than you, to bring you in, to give you their land for an inheritance, as it is this day. ³⁹Therefore know this day, and think of it within your heart, that the LORD is God in Heaven above and on the earth beneath. There is no other. ⁴⁰Therefore you shall keep his laws and His commandments which I command you this day, so that it may go well with you and with your children after you, and so that you may make your days longer upon the earth which the LORD your God gives you forever.

⁴¹Then Moses separated three cities on this side Jordan towards the sunrise, ⁴²so that the slayer might flee there, he who should kill his neighbor through error and who did not hate him in times past — and that fleeing to one of these cities he might live. ⁴³*They were* Bē'-zēr in the wilderness, in the plain country, of the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead of the Gadites; and Gō'-lān in Bā'-shān, of the Mā-nās'-sītes.

⁴⁴And this is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel. ⁴⁵These are the testimonies and the statutes and the judgments which Moses spoke to the children of Israel after they came forth out of Egypt — ⁴⁶on this side Jordan, in the valley over against Bêth-pê'-ôr, in the land of Sî'-hôn king of the Amorites, who lived at Hêsh'-bôn, whom the children of Israel killed, after they had come forth out of Egypt. ⁴⁷And they possessed his land, and the land of Og king of Bâ'-shan, two kings of the Amorites, who were on this side Jordan toward the sunrise, ⁴⁸from Ā-rō'-ēr, which is by the bank of the river Arnon, even to Mount Šî'-ôn, which is Hēr'-mon, ⁴⁹and all the plain on this side Jordan eastward, even to the sea of the plain, under the springs of Piś'-gâh.

¹And Moses called all Israel and said to them, Hear, O Israel, the statutes and judgments which I speak in your ears this day, so that you may learn them and keep and do them. ²The LORD our God made a covenant with us in Hôr'-ēb. ³The LORD did not make this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us who are all of us here alive this day. ⁴The LORD talked with you face to face in the mountain out of the midst of the fire — ⁵(I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to show you the word of the LORD, for you were afraid because of the fire, and did not go up into the mountain), saying, ⁶I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

⁷You shall have no other gods besides Me.

⁸You shall not make any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the waters beneath the earth. ⁹You shall not bow yourself down to them, nor serve them. For I the LORD your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of those who hate Me, ¹⁰and showing mercy unto thousands of those who love Me and keep My commandments.

¹²Keep the sabbath day to sanctify it, as the LORD your God has commanded you. ¹³Six days you shall labor and do all your work. ¹⁴But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD your God. In it you shall not do any work — you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your man-servant, nor your maid-servant, nor your ox, nor your ass, nor any of your cattle, nor your stranger that is inside your gates — so that your man-servant and your maid-servant may rest as well as you. ¹⁵And remember that you were a servant in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and with a stretched-out arm. Therefore the LORD your God commanded you to keep the sabbath day.

¹⁶Honor your father and your mother, as the LORD your God has commanded you – so that your days may be made longer, and that it may go well with you in the land which the LORD your God gives you.

¹⁷You shall not kill.

¹⁸Neither shall you commit adultery.

¹⁹Neither shall you steal.

²⁰Neither shall you bear false witness against your neighbor.

²⁸And the LORD heard the voice of your words when you spoke to me. And the LORD said to me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken unto you. They have well said all that they have spoken. ²⁹O that there were such a heart in them that they would fear Me and keep all My commandments always, so that it might be well with them and with their children forever! ³⁰Go say to them, Go into your tents again. ³¹But as for you, you stand here by Me, and I will speak unto you all the commandments and the laws and the judgments which you shall teach them, so that they may do them in the land which I am giving them, to possess it. ³²Therefore you shall be careful to do as the LORD your God has commanded you. You shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. ³³You shall walk in all the ways which the LORD your God has commanded you so that you may live and it may be well with you, and so that you may make your days longer in the land which you shall possess.

¹Now these are the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments, which the LORD our God commanded to teach you so that you might do them in the land where you go, to possess it — ²so that you might fear the LORD your God, to keep all His statutes and His commandments which I command you — you, and your son, and your son's son — all the days of your life, and so that your days may be made longer.

³Therefore hear, O Israel, and be careful to do it, so that it may be well with you, and that you may grow stronger, as the LORD God of our fathers has promised you, in the land that flows with milk and honey. ⁴Hear, O Israel. The LORD our God is one LORD. ⁵And you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. ⁶And these words which I command you this day shall be in your heart. ⁷And you shall carefully teach them unto your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up. ⁸And you shall bind them for a sign upon your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. ⁹And you shall write them upon the posts of your house, and on your gates. ¹⁰And when the LORD your God has brought you into the land which He swore unto your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, (to give you great and goodly cities which you did not build, ¹¹and houses full of all good things which you did not fill, and wells which are dug, but which you did not dig, vineyards and olive trees which you did not plant,) when you shall have eaten and be full, ¹²*then* beware lest you forget the LORD who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. ¹³You shall fear the LORD your God and serve Him, and shall swear by His name. ¹⁴You shall not go after other gods, of the gods of the people who are round about you, ¹⁵(for the LORD your God is a jealous God among you,) lest the anger of the LORD your God be kindled against you and destroy you from off the face of the earth.

¹⁶You shall not tempt the LORD your God as you tempted Him in Mās'-sāh. ¹⁷You shall carefully keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and His testimonies, and His statutes which He has commanded you. ¹⁸And you shall do what is right and good in the sight of the LORD, so that it may be well with you, and so that you may go in and possess the good land which the LORD swore unto your fathers, ¹⁹to cast out all your enemies from before you, as the LORD has spoken. ²⁰When your son asks you in time to come, saying, What do the testimonies, and the statutes and the judgments which the LORD our God has commanded you mean? ²¹Then you shall say unto your son, We were Pharaoh's slaves in Egypt, and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand. ²²And the LORD showed signs and wonders, great and evil signs, upon Egypt, upon Pharaoh and upon all his household, before our eyes. ²³And He brought us out from there so that He might bring us in to give us the land which He swore unto our fathers. ²⁴And the LORD commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God, for our good always, so that He might preserve us alive, as it is at this day. ²⁵And if we are careful to do all these commandments before the LORD our God, as He has commanded us, it shall be our righteousness.

¹When the LORD your God shall bring you into the land where you go to possess it, and has cast out many nations before you — the Hit'tites and the Gīr'-gā-shītes and the Ām'-ōr-ites, and the Canaanites, and the Pē-rīz'-zītes, and the Hī'-vītes, and the Jēb'-ū-sītes, seven nations greater and mightier than you — ²and when the LORD your God shall deliver them before you, you shall crush them and completely destroy them. You shall make no covenant with them nor show mercy to them. ³Neither shall you make marriages with them. You shall not give your daughter unto his son, nor shall you take his daughter unto your son. ⁴For they will turn away your son from following Me, so that they may serve other gods. So the anger of the LORD will be kindled against you and will destroy you suddenly. ⁵But you shall deal with them in this way — you shall destroy their altars and break down their images, and cut down their groves and burn their graven images with fire. ⁶For you are a holy people unto the LORD your God. The LORD your God has chosen you to be a special people unto Himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth. ⁷The LORD did not set His love upon you, nor choose you, because you were more in number than any people, for you were the fewest of all people. ⁸But because the LORD loved you, and because He wou'd keep the oath which He had sworn unto your fathers, the LORD has brought you out with a mighty hand and redeemed you out of the house of slavery, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. ⁹Therefore know that the LORD your God, He is God, the faithful God who keeps covenant and mercy with them that love Him and keep His commandments, to a thousand generations. ¹⁰And he repays those who hate Him to their face, to destroy them. He will not be slow to repay him who hates Him. He will repay him to his face. ¹¹Therefore you shall keep the commandments and the statutes and the judgments which I command you this day, to do them.

¹²Therefore, because you listen to these judgments and keep and do them, the LORD your God shall keep unto you the covenant and the mercy which He swore unto your fathers. ¹³And He will love you and bless you and multiply you. He will also bless the fruit of your womb, and the fruit of your land, your grain, and your wine, and your oil, the increase of your cattle, and the flocks of your sheep, in the land which He swore unto your fathers to give you. ¹⁴You shall be blessed above all people. There shall not be male or female barren among you or among your cattle. ¹⁵And the LORD will take away from you all sickness, and will put none of the evil diseases of Egypt which you know upon you. But He will lay them upon all who hate you.

¹⁶And you shall destroy all the people which the LORD your God shall deliver you. Your eye shall have no pity upon them, neither shall you serve their gods, for they will be a snare to you. ¹⁷If you shall say in your heart, These nations are more than I; how can I throw them out? ¹⁸You shall not be afraid of them, but shall well remember what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt. ¹⁹*Remember* the great temptations which your eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the stretched-out arm by which the Lord your God brought you out. So shall the LORD your God do to all the people of whom you are afraid. ²⁰Moreover the LORD your God will send the hornet among them, until the ones who are left, and who hide themselves from you, are destroyed. ²¹You shall not be afraid of them, for the LORD your God is among you, a mighty and terrible God. ²²And the LORD your God will put out those nations before you by little and little. You may not destroy them at once, lest the beasts of the field increase upon you. ²³But the LORD your God shall deliver them to you, and shall destroy them with a mighty ruin until they are destroyed. ²⁴And He shall deliver their kings into your hand, and you shall destroy their name from under heaven. No man shall be able to stand before you until you have destroyed them. ²⁵You shall burn the graven images of their gods with fire. You shall not desire the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it for yourself, so that you may not be snared in it. For it is hateful to the LORD your God. ²⁶Neither shall you bring a thing God hates into your house, lest you be a cursed thing like it. You shall utterly hate it, and you shall utterly despise it. For it is a cursed thing.

it) so that He might make you know that man shall not live by bread alone. But man shall live by every word that comes out of the mouth of the LORD. ⁴Your clothing did not become old on you, neither did your foot swell, these forty years. ⁵You shall also consider in your heart that as a man chastens his son, so the LORD your God chastens you. ⁶Therefore you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God, to walk in His ways and to fear him. ⁷For the LORD your God brings you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills, ⁸a land of wheat and barley and vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive oil and honey, ⁹a land in which you shall eat bread without lacking anything. You shall not lack anything in it. It is a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills you may dig brass. ¹⁰When you have eaten and are full, then you shall bless the LORD your God for the good land which He has given you.

¹¹Beware that you do not forget the LORD your God, in not keeping His commandments, and His judgments, and His statutes, which I command you this day — ¹²lest when you have eaten and are full and have built goodly houses and lived in them, ¹³and when your herds and your flocks multiply, and your silver and your gold is multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied, ¹⁴then your heart might be lifted up, and you might forget the LORD your God who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of slavery. ¹⁵*For He* led you through the great and terrible wilderness in which were fiery serpents and scorpions and thirsty wastes, where there was no water. It was He who brought you forth water out of the rock of flint, ¹⁶who fed you in the wilderness with manna which your fathers did not know, so that He might humble you and so that He might prove you, to do you good in the end — ¹⁷and so that you might not say in your heart, My power and the might of my hand has gotten me this wealth. ¹⁸But you shall remember the LORD your God, for it is He who gives you power to get wealth, so that He may confirm His covenant which He has sworn unto your fathers, as it is this day. ¹⁹And if you do at all forget the LORD your God and walk after other gods and serve them and worship them, I testify against you this day that you shall surely perish. ²⁰As the nations whom the LORD destroys before your face, so you shall perish because you would not listen to the voice of the LORD your God.

¹Hear, O Israel! You are to pass over Jordan this day, to go in to possess nations greater and mightier than you, cities great and fenced up to heaven, ²a people great and tall, the children of the Ān'-ā-kims, whom you know, and of whom you have heard it said, Who can stand before the children of Ān'-āk! ³Therefore understand this day that the LORD your God is He who goes over before you. Like a consuming fire He shall destroy them, and He shall bring them down before your face. So you shall drive them out and destroy them quickly, as the LORD has said unto you. ⁴Do not speak in your heart, after the LORD your God has cast them out from before you, saying, For my righteousness the LORD has brought me in to possess this land. But for the wickedness of these nations the LORD your God drives them out from before you. ⁵Not for your righteousness, or for the uprightness of your heart, do you go to possess their land. But for the wickedness of these nations the LORD your God drives them out from before you, and so that He may perform the word which the LORD swore to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. ⁶Therefore understand that the LORD your God does not give you this good land, to possess it, for your righteousness. For you are a stiff-necked people.

⁷Remember, and do not forget, how you provoked the LORD your God to wrath in the wilderness. From the day you departed out of the land of Egypt, until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against the LORD. ⁸Also in Hôr-ēb you provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry with you to have destroyed you. ⁹When I had gone up into the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I stayed in the mountain forty days and forty nights — I did not either eat bread nor drink water. ¹⁰And the LORD delivered to me two tablets of stone written with the finger of God. And on them was written according to all the words which the LORD spoke with you in the mountain out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly. ¹¹And at the end of forty days and forty nights the LORD gave me the two tables of stone, the tables of the covenant. ¹²And the LORD said to me, Arise! Get down quickly from here, for your people whom you have brought forth out of Egypt have corrupted themselves. They have quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them. They have made them a molten image. ¹³Furthermore the LORD spoke to me saying, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiff-necked people. ¹⁴Let me alone, so that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under heaven. And I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they are. ¹⁵So I turned and came down from the mountain, and the mountain burned with fire. And the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands. ¹⁶And I looked, and behold! You had sinned against the LORD your God, and had made you a molten calf. You had turned aside quickly out of the way which the LORD had commanded you. ¹⁷And I took the two tablets and threw them out of my hands and broke them before your eyes.

provoke Him to anger. ¹⁹For I was afraid of the anger and fury with which the LORD was angry against you to destroy you. But the LORD listened to me at that time also. ²⁰And the LORD was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him. And I prayed for Aaron also the same time. ²¹And I took your sin, the calf which you had made, and burned it with fire, and stamped it, grinding it very small, until it was as small as dust. And I threw the dust of it into the brook that descended out of the mountain.

²²And at Tăb'-ĕ-răh, and at Măs'-săh, and at Kīb'-rôth-hăt-tă'-ă-văh, you provoked the LORD to anger. ²³Likewise when the LORD sent you from Kă'-dêsh-băr'-nĕ-ă, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you, then you rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and you did not believe Him, nor listened to His voice. ²⁴You have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you. ²⁵So I fell down before the LORD forty days and forty nights, as I fell down at the first, because the LORD had said He would destroy you. ²⁶I prayed therefore to the LORD and said, O Lord GOD, do not destroy Thy people and Thy inheritance which Thou hast redeemed through Thy greatness, which Thou hast brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand. ²⁷Remember Thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Do not look to the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin, ²⁸lest the land from where Thou didst bring us out say, Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which He promised them, and because He hated them, He has brought them out to kill them in the wilderness. ²⁹Yet they are Thy people and Thy inheritance which Thou didst bring out by Thy mighty power and by Thy stretched-out arm.

¹At that time the LORD said to me, Cut out two tablets of stone like the first, and come up unto Me into the mountain, and make an ark of wood. ²And I will write on the tablets the words that were in the first tablets which you broke, and you shall put them in the ark. ³And I made an ark of ă-că'-ciă wood, and cut out two tablets of stone like the first, and went up into the mountain, having the two tablets in my hand. ⁴And He wrote on the tablets, according to the first writing, the ten commandments which the LORD spoke to you in the mountain out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly. And the LORD gave them to me. ⁵And I turned myself and came down from the mountain, and put the tables in the ark which I had made. And there they are, as the LORD commanded me.

⁶And the children of Israel took their journey from Bĕer'-ôth of the children of Jă'-ă-kăn to Mō'-sĕ-ră. There Aaron died, and there he was buried. And Ĕl-ĕ-ă-zăr his son served in the priest's office in his stead.

From there they moved to Gūd-gō'-dāh, and from Gūd-gō'-dāh to Jōt'-bāth, a land of rivers of waters. ⁸At that time the LORD separated the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister unto Him, and to bless in His name, unto this day. ⁹Therefore Levi has no part nor inheritance with his brothers. The LORD is his inheritance, according as the LORD your God promised him. ¹⁰And I stayed in the mountain, according to the first time, forty days and forty nights. And the LORD listened to me at that time also. The LORD would not destroy you. ¹¹And the LORD said to me, Arise, Go before the people, causing them to go in and possess the land which I swore unto their fathers to give unto them.

¹²And now, Israel, what does the LORD your God ask of you, but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways, and to love Him, and to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, ¹³to keep the commandments of the LORD, and His statutes, which I command you this day for your good? ¹⁴Behold, the heaven and the heaven of heavens belongs to the LORD your God, the earth also, with all that is in it. ¹⁵Only the LORD had a delight in your fathers to love them, and He chose their seed after them, you above all people, as it is this day. ¹⁶Therefore circumcise the foreskin of your heart, and be no longer stiff-necked. ¹⁷For the LORD your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, a mighty, and a terrible God, who does not respect persons nor take bribes. ¹⁸He executes justice for the fatherless and widow, and loves the stranger in giving him food and clothing. ¹⁹Therefore love the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt. ²⁰You shall fear the LORD your God. You shall serve Him, and you shall hold fast to Him, and swear by His name. ²¹He is your praise, and He is your God, who has done for you these great and terrible things which your eyes have seen. ²²Your fathers went down into Egypt with seventy persons. And now the LORD your God has made you as the stars of heaven for multitude.

¹Therefore you shall love the LORD your God, and keep His charge and His statutes and His judgments and His commandments always. And you know this day — for I do not speak with your children who have not known and who have not seen the correcting of the LORD your God — His greatness, His mighty hand, and His stretched-out arm, ³and His miracles, and His acts which He did in the midst of Egypt, unto Pharaoh the king of Egypt and to all his land. ⁴And you know what He did to the army of Egypt, to their horses and to their chariots — how He made the water of the Red Sea to overflow them as they pursued after you, and how the LORD has destroyed them unto his day. ⁵And you know what He did to you in the wilderness until you came into this place, ⁶and what He did unto Dā'-thān and Ā-bī'rām, the sons of Ē-lī'-āb the son of Reuben — how the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and all the substance that was in their possession, in the midst of all Israel. ⁷But your eyes have seen all the great acts of the LORD which He did.

⁸Therefore you shall keep all the commandments which I command you this day, so that you may be strong and go in and possess the land where you go to possess it, ⁹and so that you may make your days longer in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give to them and to their seed a land that flows with milk and honey. ¹⁰For the land into which you go to possess it, is not as the land of Egypt from which you came out, where you sowed your seed and watered it with your foot, like a garden of herbs. ¹¹But the land which you are entering to possess is a land of hills and valleys, drinking water from the rain of heaven. ¹²*It is* a land which the LORD your God cares for. The eyes of the LORD your God are always upon it, from the beginning of the year even to the end of the year. ¹³And if you will listen carefully to my commandments which I command you this day, to love the LORD and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul, ¹⁴I will give you the rain of your land in its due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that you may gather in your grain and your wine and your oil. ¹⁵And I will send grass in your fields for your cattle so that you may eat and be full. ¹⁶Take heed to yourselves that your heart may not be deceived, and you turn aside and serve other gods, and worship them. ¹⁷And then the LORD's wrath may be kindled against you, and He may shut up the heaven so that there will be no rain, and so that the land will not yield her fruit. And you will perish quickly from off the good land which the LORD gives you.

¹⁸Therefore you shall lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, so that they may be as frontlets between your eyes. ¹⁹And you shall teach them to your children, speaking of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up. ²⁰And you shall write them upon the door posts of your house, and upon your gates, ²¹so that your days and the days of your children may be multiplied in the land which the LORD swore to give to your fathers, like the days of the heavens upon the earth. ²²For if you will carefully keep all these commandments which I command you, to do them, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways, and to hold fast unto Him, ²³then the LORD will drive out all these nations from before you, and you shall possess greater and mightier nations than yourself. ²⁴Every place on which the soles of your feet shall tread shall be yours — from the wilderness and Lēb'-ā-non, from the river, the river Eū-phrā'-tēs, even to the furthest sea shall your border be. ²⁵There shall no man be able to stand before you, for the LORD your God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that you shall tread upon, as He has said unto you.

²⁶Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse — ²⁷a blessing if you obey the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you this day, ²⁸and a curse if you will not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but will turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods which you have not known. ²⁹And when the LORD your God has brought you into the land where you go to possess it, you shall put the blessing upon Mount Gē-rī-zīm, and the curse upon Mount E'-bāl. ³⁰Are they not on the other side Jordan, by the way where the sun goes down, in the land of the Canaanites, who dwell in the plain over against Gīl-gāl beside the plains of Mō'-rēh? ³¹For you shall pass over Jordan to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God gives you, and you shall possess it and dwell in it. ³²And you shall be careful to do all the statutes and judgments which I set before you this day.

¹These are the statutes and judgments which you shall be careful to do in the land which the LORD God of your fathers gives you to possess, all the days that you live upon the earth. ²You shall completely destroy all the places in which the nations which you shall possess served their gods — upon the high mountains and upon the hills and under every green tree. ³And you shall overthrow their altars and break their pillars, and burn their groves with fire. And you shall cut down the carved images of their gods, and destroy their names out of that place. ⁴You shall not do so unto the LORD your God. ⁵But unto the place which the LORD your God shall choose out of all your tribes to put His name there, even unto His dwelling place you shall seek, and there you shall come. ⁶And there you shall bring your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, and your tithes, and heave offerings of your hand, and your vows, and your free-will offerings, and the first-born of your herds and of your flocks. ⁷And there you shall eat before the LORD your God, and you shall rejoice in all that you put your hand to, you and your households in which the LORD your God has blessed you. ⁸You shall not do according to all the things that we do here this day, each man doing whatever is right in his own eyes. ⁹For you have not as yet come to the rest and to the inheritance which the LORD your God gives you.

¹⁰But when you go over Jordan and live in the land which the LORD your God gives you to inherit, and when He gives you rest from all your enemies round about, so that you live in safety, ¹¹then there shall be a place which the LORD your God shall choose to cause His name to dwell there. There you shall bring all that I command you, your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the heave offering of your hand, and all your choice vows which you vow unto the LORD. ¹²And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you and your sons and your daughters and your men-servants and your maid-servants, and the Levite that is within your gates (because he has no part nor inheritance with you). ¹³Take heed to yourself that you do not offer your burnt offering in every place that you see. ¹⁴But in the place which the LORD shall choose in one of your tribes, there you shall offer your burnt offering, and there you shall do all that I command you. ¹⁵However, you may kill and eat flesh in all your gates, whatever your soul desires, according to the blessing of the LORD your God which He has given you, the unclean and the clean may eat of it, as of the gazelle, and as of the hart. ¹⁶Only you shall not eat the blood. You shall pour it upon the earth like water.

¹⁷You may not eat inside your gates the tithe of your grain or of your wine or of your oil, or the first-born of your herds or of your flock, or any of your vows which you vow, or your free-will offerings or the heave offering of your hand. ¹⁸But you must eat them before the LORD your God in the place which the LORD your God shall choose – you, and your son, and your daughter, and your man-servant, and your maid-servant, and the Levite that is within your gates. And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God in all that you put your hands to. ¹⁹Take heed to yourself that you do not forsake the Levite as long as you live upon the earth.

²⁰When the LORD your God shall make your border larger, as He has promised you, and you shall say, I will eat flesh, because your soul longs to eat flesh – you may eat flesh, whatever your soul desires. ²¹If the place which the LORD your God has chosen to put his name there is too far from you, then you shall kill of your herd and of your flock which the LORD has given you, as I have commanded you, and you shall eat in your gates whatever your soul desires. ²²Even as the gazelle and the hart is eaten, so you shall eat them. The unclean and the clean shall eat of them alike.

²³Only be sure that you do not eat the blood. For the blood is the life. And you may not eat the life with the flesh. ²⁴You shall not eat it. You shall pour it upon the earth like water. ²⁵You shall not eat it, so that it may go well with you and with your children after you, when you shall do what is right in the sight of the LORD. ²⁶Only your holy things which you have, and your vows, you shall take and go to the place which the LORD shall choose. ²⁷And you shall offer your burnt offerings, the flesh and the blood, upon the altar of the LORD your God. And the blood of your sacrifices shall be poured out upon the altar of the LORD your God, and you shall eat the flesh. ²⁸Be careful to hear all these words which I command you, so that it may go well with

²⁹When the LORD your God shall cut off the nations before you, where you go to possess them, and you take their place and dwell in their land, ³⁰take heed to yourself that you do not become snared by following them, after they are destroyed from before you. And be careful that you do not ask about their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods that I too may do likewise. ³¹You shall not do so unto the LORD your God. For every hateful thing unto the LORD, which He hates, they have done unto their gods — ³²for even their sons and their daughters they have burned in the fire to their gods. Whatever thing I command you, be careful to do it. You shall not add to it, nor take away from it.

¹If a prophet rises among you, or a dreamer of dreams, and gives you a sign or a wonder, ²and the sign or the wonder which he tells you comes to pass, of which he said, Let us go after other gods which you have not known, and let us serve them — ³you shall not listen to the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams. For the LORD your God is testing you to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul. ⁴You shall walk after the LORD your God and fear Him, and keep His commandments, and obey His voice, and you shall serve Him and hold fast to Him. ⁵And that prophet or that dreamer of dreams shall be put to death, because he has spoken to turn you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to lure you out of the way which the LORD your God commanded you to walk in. So you shall put the evil away from the midst of you.

⁶If your brother, the son of your mother, or your son, or your daughter, or the wife of your bosom, or your friend who is like your own soul, lures you secretly, saying, Let us go and serve other gods which you have not known, you nor your fathers — ⁷*that is*, of the gods of the people who are round about you, near you or far off from you, from the one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth — ⁸you shall not consent to him or listen to him. Neither shall your eye pity him, neither shall you spare, neither shall you hide him. ⁹But you shall surely kill him. Your hand shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people. ¹⁰And you shall stone him with stones so that he dies, because he has sought to lure you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. ¹¹And all Israel shall hear, and fear, and shall do no more any such wickedness as this among you.

¹²If, in one of your cities which the LORD your God has given you to dwell in, you shall hear someone saying, ¹³*Certain* men, the children of Bē'-li-āl, have gone out from among you and have withdrawn those who live in their city, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which you have not known — ¹⁴then you shall inquire and make search, and ask carefully. And behold, If it is true, and the thing is certain, that such a hateful thing is done among you, ¹⁵you shall surely strike those who live in that city with the edge of the sword, destroying it completely, and all that is in it, and all the cattle of it, with the edge of the sword. ¹⁶And you shall gather all the spoil of it into the middle of its street, and shall burn the city with fire, and all its spoil, every bit of it, for the LORD your God. And it shall be a heap forever. It shall not be built again. ¹⁷And let nothing of the cursed thing cling to your hand, so that the LORD may turn from the heat of his anger and show you mercy, and have pity upon you, and multiply you as He has sworn unto your fathers, ¹⁸when you shall listen to the voice of the LORD your God, to keep all His commandments which I command you this day, to do that which is right in the eyes of the LORD your God.

¹You are the children of the LORD your God. You shall not cut yourselves nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead. ²For you are a holy people unto the LORD your God, and the LORD has chosen you to be a peculiar people unto Himself, above all the nations that are upon the earth. ³You shall not eat anything hateful to God. ⁴These are the animals which you shall eat: the ox, the sheep, and the goat, ⁵the hart, and the gazelle, and the fallow deer, and the wild goat, and the mountain goat, and the wild ox, and the mountain-sheep. ⁶And every animal that divides the hoof (and divides it into two claws), and chews the cud among the animals, that you shall eat. ⁷Nevertheless these you shall not eat, of those which chew the cud, or of those that divide the cloven hoof: the camel, and the hare, and the coney — for they chew the cud, but do not divide the hoof. They are unclean unto you. ⁸And the swine — because it divides the hoof but does not chew the cud, it is unclean unto you. You shall not eat of their flesh nor touch their dead body. ⁹These you shall eat of all that are in the waters: all that have fins and scales you shall eat. ¹⁰And whatever does not have fins and scales you shall not eat. It is unclean to you. ¹¹You shall eat of all clean birds. ¹²But you shall not eat of these: the eagle, and the ōs'-sī-frāge, and the ospray, ¹³and the falcon, and the kite, and the vulture after its kind, ¹⁴and every raven after its kind, ¹⁵and the owl, and the night hawk, and the cuckoo, and the hawk after its kind, ¹⁶the little owl, and the great owl, and the swan, ¹⁷and the pelican, and the gier eagle, and the cormorant, ¹⁸and the stork, and the heron after its kind, and the lap-wing, and the bat. ¹⁹And every creeping thing that flies is unclean to you. They shall not be eaten.

²⁰You may eat of all clean fowls.

²¹You shall not eat of anything that dies of itself. You shall deliver it to the stranger that is in your gates, so that he may eat it. Or you may sell it to a stranger. For you are a holy people unto the LORD your God. You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk. ²²You shall truly tithe all the increase of your seed that the field brings forth year by year. ²³And you shall eat before the LORD your God in the place which He shall choose to place His name there, the tithe of your grain, of your wine, and of your oil, and the first-born of your herds and of your flocks — so that you may learn to fear the LORD your God always. ²⁴And if the way is too long for you, so that you are not able to carry it, or if the place is too far from you, which the LORD your God shall choose to set His name there, when the LORD your God has blessed you, ²⁵then you shall turn it into money and bind up the money in your hand, and shall go to the place which the LORD your God shall choose. ²⁶And you shall pay that money for whatever your soul desires, for oxen, or for sheep, or for wine, or for strong drink, or for whatever your soul desires. And you shall eat there before the LORD your God, and you shall rejoice, you and your household ²⁷and the Levite that is within your gates — you shall not forsake him, for he has no part nor inheritance with you.

²⁸At the end of three years you shall bring forth all the tithe of your increase the same year, and shall lay it up inside your gates. ²⁹And the Levite, because he has no part nor inheritance with you, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, who are inside your gates, shall come, and shall eat and be satisfied — so that the LORD may bless you in all the work of your hand which you do.

¹At the end of every seven years you shall make a release. ²And this is the manner of the release. Every man who has a loan to his neighbor shall release it. He shall not exact it from his neighbor, or from his brother, because it is called the LORD's release. ³You may exact it from a foreigner, but your hand shall release that which is yours with your brother, ⁴except when there shall be no poor among you. For the LORD shall greatly bless you in the land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance to possess it — ⁵only if you carefully listen to the voice of the LORD your God to be careful to do all these commandments which I command you this day. ⁶For the LORD your God blesses you as He promised you. And you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow. And you shall reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over you.

⁷If there is among you a poor man of one of your brothers inside any of your gates in your land which the LORD your God gives you, you shall not harden your heart nor shut your hand from your poor brother. ⁸But you shall open your hand wide unto him, and shall surely lend him enough for his need, that which he lacks. ⁹Beware that there is not a thought in your wicked heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand – and your eye may be evil against your poor brother, and you give him nothing. And he may cry unto the LORD against you, and it is sin to you. ¹⁰You shall surely give to him, and your heart shall not be grieved when you give to him, because for this thing the LORD your God shall bless you in all your works, and in all that you put your hand to. ¹¹For the poor shall never cease out of the land. Therefore I command you saying, You shall open your hand wide to your brother, to your poor, and to your needy, in your land.

¹²If your brother, a Hebrew man or a Hebrew woman, is sold to you and serves you six years, then in the seventh year you shall let him go free from you. ¹³And when you send him out free from you, you shall not let him go away empty. ¹⁴You shall surround him from your flock, and from your grain floor, and from your wine-press. With that with which the LORD your God has blessed you, you shall give to him. ¹⁵And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you. Therefore I command you this thing today. ¹⁶And if he says to you, I will not go away from you, because he loves you and your house, because he is happy with you – ¹⁷then you shall take an awl and thrust it through his ear unto the door, and he shall be your servant forever. And also unto your maid-servant you shall do likewise. ¹⁸It shall not seem hard to you when you send him away from you free, for he has been worth a double hired servant in serving you six years. And the LORD your God shall bless you in all that you do.

¹⁹All the first-born males that come from your herd and from your flock, you shall set apart unto the LORD your God. You shall do no work with the first-born of your bull, nor shear the first-born of your sheep. ²⁰You shall eat it before the LORD your God year by year in the place which the LORD shall choose, you and your household. ²¹And if there is any blemish in it, if it is lame, or blind, or any ill blemish, you shall not sacrifice it unto the LORD your God. ²²You shall eat it inside your gates. The unclean and the unclean shall eat it alike, as the gazelle, and as the hart. ²³Only you shall not eat the blood of it. You shall pour it upon the ground like water.

¹Observe the month Ā'-bīb, and keep the Passover unto the LORD your God. For in the month Ā'-bib the LORD your God brought you forth out of Egypt by night. ²You shall therefore sacrifice the Passover unto the LORD your God, of the flock and the herd, in the place which the LORD shall choose to place His name there. ³You shall eat no leavened bread with it. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread with it, the bread of affliction, for you came forth out of the land of Egypt in haste. This is so that you may remember the day that you came forth out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life. ⁴And there shall be no leavened bread seen with you in all your borders for seven days. Neither shall any of the flesh which you sacrificed in the first day at evening remain all night until the morning. ⁵You may not sacrifice the Passover within any of your gates, which the LORD your God gives you — ⁶but at the place which the LORD your God shall choose to place His name in, there you shall sacrifice the Passover at evening, at the going down of the sun, at the time that you came forth out of Egypt. ⁷And you shall roast and eat it in the place which the LORD your God shall choose. And in the morning you shall turn and go to your tents. ⁸Six days you shall eat unleavened bread. And on the seventh day shall be a solemn assembly to the LORD your God. You shall do no work.

⁹You shall count seven weeks to yourselves. Begin to count the seven weeks from the time you began to put the sickle to the grain. ¹⁰And you shall keep the feast of weeks unto the LORD your God with a measure of a free-will offering of your hand, which you shall give according as the LORD your God has blessed you. ¹¹And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you, and your son, and your daughter, and your man-servant, and your maid-servant, and the Levite that is inside your gates, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, those who are among you, in the place which the LORD your God has chosen to place His name there. ¹²And you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt. And you shall be careful to do these statutes.

¹³You shall keep the feast of tabernacles seven days after you have gathered in your grain and your wine. ¹⁴And you shall rejoice in your feast — you, and your son, and your daughter, and your man-servant, and your maid-servant, and the Levite, the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are inside your gates. ¹⁵Seven days you shall keep a solemn feast unto the LORD your God in the place which the LORD your God shall choose. Because the LORD your God shall bless you in all your increase, and in all the works of your hands, therefore you shall surely rejoice.

¹⁶Three times in a year shall all your males appear before the LORD your God in the place which He shall choose—in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles. And they shall not appear before the LORD empty. ¹⁷Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD your God which He has given you.

¹⁸You shall make judges and officers for you in all your gates, which the LORD your God gives you, throughout your tribes. And they shall judge the people with just judgment. ¹⁹You shall not wrest judgment. You shall not respect persons, neither take a gift, for a gift blinds the eyes of the wise and perverts the words of the righteous. ²⁰You shall follow that which is altogether just, that you may live and inherit the land which the LORD your God gives you.

²¹You shall not plant a grove of any trees near the altar of the LORD your God which you shall make. ²²Neither shall you set up any image, which the LORD your God hates.

¹You shall not sacrifice unto the LORD your God any bull or sheep in which there is any blemish or any unseemly thing, for that is an insult to the LORD your God.

²If there is found among you, inside any of your gates which the LORD your God gives you, a man or woman who has worked wickedness in the sight of the LORD your God, in breaking His covenant, ³and has gone and served other gods and worshipped them (either the sun, or moon, or any of the host of heaven, which I have not commanded) — ⁴and if it is told you, and you have heard and inquired carefully, and, behold, it is true and the thing is certain, that such abomination is done in Israel — ⁵then you shall bring forth that man or that woman who has committed that wicked thing, to your gates, even that man or that woman, and shall stone them with stones until they die. ⁶At the mouth of two witnesses or three witnesses shall he that is worthy of death be put to death. ⁷At the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death. The hands of the witnesses shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterwards the hands of all the people. So you shall put the evil away from among you.

⁸If there arises a matter too hard for you in judgment, between blood and blood, between plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, matters of disagreement within your gates, then you shall arise and go up to the place which the LORD your God shall choose. ⁹And you shall come to the priests the Levites, and to the judge that shall be in those days, and ask. And they shall show you the sentence of judgment. ¹⁰And you shall do according to the sentence which the ones of that place which the LORD shall choose, shall show you. And you shall be careful to do according to all that they tell you. ¹¹According to the sentence of the law which they shall teach you, and according to the judgment which they shall tell you, you shall do. You shall not turn aside from the sentence which they shall show you, to the right hand or to the left. ¹²And the man that acts proudly and will not listen to the priest who stands to minister there before the LORD your God, or to the judge, even that man shall die. And you shall put away the evil from Israel. ¹³And all the people shall hear and fear, and not do proudly any more. ¹⁴When you come to the land which the LORD your God gives you, and shall possess it and shall live in it, and shall say, I will set a king over me, like all the nations that are around me, ¹⁵you shall surely set a king over you, whom the LORD your God shall choose. You shall set a king over you from among your brothers. You may not set a stranger over you, who is not your brother. ¹⁶But he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he should multiply horses, because the LORD has said unto you, You shall return no more that way from now on. ¹⁷Neither shall he multiply wives to himself, so that his heart does not turn away. Neither shall he greatly multiply silver and gold to himself. ¹⁸And when he sits upon the throne of his kingdom, he shall write a copy of this law in a book out of that which is before the priests the Levites. ¹⁹And it shall be with him, and he shall read it all the days of his life, so that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, to keep all the words of this law, and these statutes, to do them — ²⁰so that his heart may not be lifted up above his brothers, and that he does not turn aside from the commandment, to the right hand or the left — to the end that he may make his days longer in his kingdom, he and his children, in the midst of Israel.

¹The priests the Levites, all the tribe of Levi, shall have no part nor inheritance with Israel. They shall eat the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and His inheritance. ²Therefore they shall have no inheritance among their brothers. The LORD is their inheritance, as He has said to them.

³And this shall be the priest's due from the people, from those that offer a sacrifice, whether it is ox or sheep. And they shall give to the priest the shoulder and the two cheeks, and the stomach. ⁴You shall also give him the first-fruit of your grain, of your wine, and of your oil, and the first of the fleece of your sheep. ⁵For the LORD your God has chosen him out of all your tribes, to stand to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons forever.

⁹When you come to the land which the LORD your God gives you, you shall not learn to do according to the abominations of those nations. ¹⁰There shall not be found among you anyone who makes his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that uses divination, or an observer of clouds, or a fortune-teller, or a witch, ¹¹or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or one who calls to the dead. ¹²For all that do these things are an abomination unto the LORD. And because of these abominations the LORD your God drives them out from before you. ¹³You shall be perfect with the LORD your God. ¹⁴For these nations whom you shall possess listened to observers of clouds and to diviners. But as for you, the LORD your God has not allowed you to do so.

¹⁵The LORD your God will raise up unto you a Prophet from the midst of you, of your brothers, One like me. Unto Him you shall listen — ¹⁶according to all that you desired of the LORD your God in Hôr'-êb in the day of the assembly, saying, Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God, neither let me see this great fire any more, so that I do not die. ¹⁷And the LORD said to me, They have spoken well what they have spoken. ¹⁸I will raise them up a Prophet from among their brothers, like you, and will put My words in His mouth. And He shall speak unto them all that I shall command Him. ¹⁹And whoever will not listen to My words which He shall speak in My name, I will require it of him. ²⁰But the prophet who shall speak proudly in My name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or who shall speak in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die. ²¹And if you say in your heart, How shall we know the word which the LORD has not spoken? ²²When a prophet speaks in the name of the LORD, if the thing does not follow nor come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD has not spoken — the prophet has spoken it proudly. You shall not be afraid of him.

¹When the LORD your God has cut off the nations whose land the LORD your God gives you, and when you take their place and live in their cities and in their houses, ²you shall separate three cities for you in the middle of your land, which the LORD your God gives you to possess it. ³You shall prepare you a way, and divide the borders of your land which the LORD your God gives you to inherit, into three parts, so that every slayer may flee there. ⁴And this is the case of the slayer who shall flee there that he may live — whoever in error kills his neighbor whom he did not hate in times past ⁵(as when a man goes into the wood with his neighbor to cut wood, and his hand brings a stroke with the axe to cut down the tree, and the head slips from the wood and lights upon his neighbor so that he dies) he shall flee to one of those cities and live — ⁶so that the avenger of the blood may not pursue the slayer while his heart is hot, and overtake him because the way is long, and kill him. But he was not worthy of death for he did not hate him in time past. ⁷Therefore I command you saying, You shall separate three cities for you. ⁸And if the LORD your God makes your border larger, as He has sworn unto your fathers, and gives you all the land which He promised to give unto your fathers — ⁹if you will keep all these commandments which I command you this day, to do them, to love the LORD your God, and to walk always in His ways — then you shall add three more cities to these three, ¹⁰so that innocent blood may not be shed in your land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance, and blood may not be upon you.

¹⁴You may not remove your neighbor's landmark which those in the past have set in your inheritance, which you shall inherit in the land which the LORD your God gives you to possess it.

¹⁵One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sins. At the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be made sure. ¹⁶If a false witness rises up against any man to testify a falling away against him, ¹⁷then both the men who are disagreeing shall stand before the LORD, before the priests and the judges which shall be in those days. ¹⁸And the judges shall make careful inquiry. And behold, if the witness is a false witness and has testified falsely against his brother, ¹⁹then you shall do unto him as he had thought to have done unto his brother. So you shall put the evil away from among you. ²⁰And those who remain shall hear and fear, and shall from then on commit no such evil among you. ²¹And your eye shall not pity. Life shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

¹When you go out to battle against your enemies and see horses and chariots, a people more than you, do not be afraid of them. For the LORD your God is with you, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt. ²And when you have come near to the battle, the priest shall go up and speak to the people, ³and shall say to them, Hear, O Israel, today you go up to battle against your enemies. Do not let your hearts faint, do not fear, and do not tremble, neither be terrified because of them. ⁴For the LORD your God is He who goes with you to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.

⁵And the officers shall speak to the people saying, What man is there that has built a new house and has not dedicated it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man dedicate it. ⁶And what man is there that has planted a vineyard and has not yet eaten of it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man eat of it. ⁷And what man is there that has become engaged to a wife and has not taken her? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man take her. ⁸And the officers shall speak further to the people, and they shall say, What man is there that is fearful and faint-hearted? Let him go and return to his house, lest his brothers' heart faint as well as his heart. ⁹And when the officers have made an end of speaking to the people, they shall make captains of the armies to lead the people.

¹⁰When you come near a city to fight against it, then shout peace to it. ¹¹And if it makes the answer of peace and opens to you, then all the people that are found in it shall pay tax to you, and they shall serve you. ¹²But if it will make no peace with you, but will make war against you, then you shall besiege it. ¹³And when the LORD your God has delivered it into your hands, you shall strike every male of it with the edge of the sword. ¹⁴But the women, and the little ones, and the cattle, and all that it is in the city, all the spoil of it, you shall take to yourself. And you shall eat the spoil of your enemies, which the LORD your God has given you. ¹⁵So you shall do to all the cities which are very far off from you, which are not of the cities of these nations. ¹⁶But of the cities of these people, which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance, you shall save alive nothing that breathes. ¹⁷But you shall utterly destroy them — the Hit'tites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Pē-riz'-zītes, the Hī'-vītes and the Jēb'-ū-sītes — as the LORD your God has commanded you, ¹⁸so that they may not teach you to do according to all their abominations which they have done to their gods. So you would sin against the LORD your God.

¹⁹When you shall besiege a city a long time in making war against it to take it, you shall not destroy the trees of it by forcing an axe against them. For you may eat of them, and you shall not cut them down. For is the tree of the field a man, that it should be used in the siege? ²⁰Only the trees which you know that they are not trees for food, you shall destroy and cut them down. And you shall build bulwarks against the city that makes war with you, until it is subdued.

¹If one is found dead in the land which the LORD your God gives you to possess it, lying in the field, and it is not known who has killed him, ²then your elders and your judges shall come forth. And they shall measure to the cities which are around him who is dead. ³And the city which is nearest to the dead man, even the elders of that city, shall take a heifer which has not been worked with, which has not drawn in the yoke. ⁴And the elders of that city shall bring down the heifer to a rough valley, which is neither plowed nor sown, and shall strike off the heifer's neck there in the valley. ⁵And the priests, the sons of Levi, shall come near. For the LORD your God has chosen them to minister unto him, and to bless in the name of the LORD, and by their word shall every controversy and every stroke be tried. ⁶And all the elders of that city which is next to the dead man, shall wash their hands over the heifer that has been beheaded in the valley. ⁷And they shall answer and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it. ⁸Be merciful, O LORD, unto Thy people Israel, whom Thou hast redeemed, and do not lay innocent blood to the charge of Thy people Israel. And the blood shall be forgiven them. ⁹So you shall put away the guilt of innocent blood from among you, when you do what is right in the sight of the LORD.

¹⁰When you go forth to war against your enemies, and the LORD your God has delivered them into your hands and you have taken them captive, ¹¹and see among the captives a beautiful woman, and have a desire unto her, that you would have her for your wife, ¹²then you shall bring her home to your house. And she shall shave her head and dress her nails. ¹³And she shall put the clothing of her captivity off her, and shall remain in your house, and shall sorrow for her father and her mother a full month. And after that you shall go in unto her and be her husband, and she shall be your wife. ¹⁴And if you have no delight in her, then you shall let her go where she will. But you shall not sell her at all for money, you shall not make a slave of her, because you have humbled her.

¹⁵If a man has two wives, one beloved and another hated, and they have borne him children, both the beloved and the hated, and if the first-born son was of her that was hated, ¹⁶then when he makes his sons to inherit what he has, he may not make the son of the beloved first-born before the son of the hated one, who is truly the first-born. ¹⁷But he shall acknowledge the son of the hated as the first-born by giving him a double portion of all that he has. For he is the beginning of his strength. The right of the first-born is his.

¹⁸If a man has a son who is stubborn and rebels, who will not obey the voice of his father or the voice of his mother (and when they have chastened him, he will not listen to them), ¹⁹then his father and his mother shall lay hold on him and bring him out to the elders of his city, and to the gate of his place. ²⁰And they shall say to the elders of his city, this son of ours is stubborn and rebellious. He will not obey our voice. He is a glutton and a drunkard. ²¹And all the men of his city shall stone him with stones so that he dies. So shall you put evil away from you, and all Israel shall hear and fear.

²² And if a man has committed a sin worthy of death, and if he is put to death and you hang him on a tree, ²³his body shall not remain all night on the tree. But you shall surely bury him that day (for he that is hanged is accursed of God), so that your land may not be defiled, which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance.

¹You shall not see your brother's ox or his sheep go astray and hide yourself from them. You shall surely bring them again to your brother. ²And if your brother is not near you, or if you do not know him, then you shall bring it into your own house, and it shall be with you until your brother seeks after it, and you shall give it back to him again. ³In the same way you shall do with his ass. And so shall you do with his clothing. And with any lost thing of your brother's, which he has lost and you have found, you shall do the same. You may not hide yourself. ⁴You shall not see your brother's ass or his ox fall down by the way, and hide yourself from them. You shall surely help him to lift them up again.

⁵The woman shall not wear that which pertains to a man, neither shall a man put a woman's garment on. For all that do so are hateful to the LORD your God. ⁶If a bird's nest happens to be before you in the way in any tree, or on the ground, whether young ones or eggs, and the dam sitting upon the young or upon the eggs, you shall not take the dam with the young. ⁷But you shall in every case let the dam go and take the young for yourself, so that it may be well with you, and you may make your days longer. ⁸When you build a new house, then you shall make a guard rail for your roof, so that you do not bring blood upon your house, if any man falls from there.

take that man and punish him. ¹⁹And they shall fine him a hundred shekels of silver, and give them to the father of the girl, because he has brought an evil name upon a virgin of Israel. And she shall be his wife. He may not put her away all his days. ²⁰But if this thing is true and the tokens of virginity are not found for the girl, ²¹then they shall bring the girl out to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones so that she dies — because she has done foolishness in Israel, to play the harlot in her father's house. So you shall put evil away from among you.

²²If a man is found lying with a woman married to a husband, then they shall both of them die — the man that lay with the woman, and the woman. So you shall put away evil from Israel. ²³If a girl who is a virgin is engaged to a husband, and a man finds her in the city and lies with her, ²⁴then you shall bring them both out unto the gate of that city, and you shall stone them with stones that they die — the girl because she did not cry out in the city, and the man because he has humbled his neighbor's wife. So you shall put away evil from among you. ²⁵But if a man finds an engaged girl in the field, and the man forces her and lies with her, then only the man that lay with her shall die. ²⁶But you shall do nothing to the girl. There is no sin worthy of death in the girl; for as when a man rises against his neighbor and slays him, even so is this matter. ²⁷For he found her in the field, the engaged girl cried out, but there was none to save her. ²⁸If a man finds a girl that is a virgin, who is not engaged and lays hold on her, and lies with her, and they are found, ²⁹then the man who lay with her shall give to the girl's father fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife. Because he has humbled her, he may not put her away all his days. ³⁰A man shall not take his father's wife, nor uncover his father's skirt.

¹He whose testicles are crushed, or who has his male member cut off, shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD. ²A bastard shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD. Even to his tenth generation he shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD. ³An Ammonite or Mō'-āb-īte shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD. Even to their tenth generation they shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD forever — ⁴because they did not meet you with bread and with water in the way when you came forth out of Egypt, and because they hired against you Bā'-lāam the son of Bē'-ōr, of Pē'-thōr of Mēs-ō-pō-tā'-mī-ā, to curse you. ⁵Nevertheless the LORD your God would not listen to Bāl'-āam, but the LORD your God turned the curse to a blessing unto you, because the LORD your God loved you. ⁶You shall not seek their peace nor their prosperity all your days forever.

⁷You shall not despise an Ē'-dōm-ite, for he is your brother. You shall not despise an Egyptian, because you were a stranger in his land. ⁸The children that are born to them shall enter into the congregation of the LORD in their third generation.

⁹When the army goes forth against your enemies, then keep yourself from every wicked thing.

¹⁰If there is among you any man that is not clean because of uncleanness that chances upon him by night, then he shall go outside the camp. He shall not come inside the camp. ¹¹But when evening comes on, he shall wash with water. And when the sun is down, he shall come into the camp.

¹²You shall also have a place outside the camp where you shall go forth. ¹³And you shall have a paddle upon your weapon. And when you sit down outside, you shall dig with it, and shall turn back and cover that which comes from you. ¹⁴For the LORD your God walks in the middle of your camp, to deliver you and to give up your enemies before you. Therefore your camp shall be holy, so that He may see no unclean thing in you and turn away from you.

¹⁵You shall not deliver unto his master the servant who has escaped from his master unto you. ¹⁶He shall live with you, among you, in that place which he shall choose in one of your gates, where it seems good to him. You shall not treat him cruelly.

¹⁷There shall be no harlot of the daughters of Israel, nor a sodomite of the sons of Israel. ¹⁸You shall not bring the hire of a harlot, or the price of a dog, into the house of the LORD your God for any vow. For even both these are hateful unto the LORD your God.

¹⁹You shall not lend for interest to your brother, interest of money, interest of food, interest of anything that is loaned upon interest. ²⁰You may lend upon interest to a stranger, but you shall not lend upon interest to your brother, so that the LORD your God may bless you in all that you set your hand to in the land where you go to possess it.

²¹When you shall vow a vow unto the LORD your God, you shall not wait to pay it, for the LORD your God will surely require it of you, and it would be sin in you. ²²But if you shall cease to vow, it shall be no sin in you. ²³That which has gone out of your lips you shall keep and perform — even a free-will offering, according as you have vowed unto the LORD your God, which you have promised with your mouth.

²⁴When you come into your neighbor's vineyard, then you may eat grapes to your fill at your own pleasure, but you shall not put any in your vessel. ²⁵When you come into the standing grain of your neighbor, then you may pluck the heads with your hand, but you shall not move a sickle into your neighbor's standing grain.

¹When a man has taken a wife and married her, and it happens that she finds no favor in his eyes, because he has found some uncleanness in her, then let him write her a bill of divorce and put it in her hand, and send her out of his house. ²And when she has departed from his house, she may go and be another man's wife. ³And if the latter husband hates her and writes her a bill of divorcement and puts it in her hand and sends her out of his house — or if the latter husband dies, he who took her to be his wife — ⁴her former husband, who sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife after she is defiled. For that is hateful before the LORD. And you shall not cause the land to sin, which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance.

⁵When a man has taken a new wife, he shall not go out to war, neither shall he be charged with any business. He shall be free at home one year, and shall cheer up his wife whom he has taken.

⁶No man shall take the lower or the upper millstone to pledge, for he takes a man's life to pledge.

⁷If a man is found stealing any of his brothers, the children of Israel, and makes a slave of him, or sells him, then that thief shall die. And you shall put evil away from among you.

⁸Be careful in the plague of leprosy, that you watch carefully and do according to all that the priests the Levites shall teach you. As I commanded them, so you shall be careful to do. ⁹Remember what the LORD your God did unto Miriam by the wayside, after you had come forth out of Egypt.

¹⁰When you loan anything to your brother, you shall not go into his house to bring forth his pledge. ¹¹You shall stand outside, and the man to whom you loan shall bring the pledge outside to you. ¹²And if the man is poor, you shall not sleep with his pledge—¹³in any case you shall deliver him the pledge again when the sun goes down, that he may sleep in his own clothing, and bless you. And it shall be righteousness unto you before the LORD your God.

¹⁴You shall not ill-treat a hired servant who is poor and needy, of your brothers, or of your strangers that are in your land within your gates. ¹⁵At his day you shall give him his hire, neither shall the sun go down upon it — for he is poor and sets his heart upon it — lest he cry against you unto the LORD, and it shall be sin unto you. ¹⁶The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the children be put to death for the fathers. Every man shall be put to death for his own sin.

¹⁷You shall not turn aside the rightful judgment of the stranger or of the fatherless — nor take a widow's clothing to pledge — ¹⁸but you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you from there. Therefore I command you to do this thing.

¹⁹When you cut down your harvest in your field, and have forgotten a sheaf in the field, you shall not go again to bring it. It shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow — so that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands. ²⁰When you beat your olive tree, you shall not go over the boughs again. It shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow. ²¹When you gather the grapes from your vineyard, you shall not glean it afterward. It shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow. ²²And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt. Therefore I command you to do this thing.

¹If there is an argument between men, and they come to judgment so that the judges may judge them, then they shall justify the righteous and condemn the wicked. ²And if the wicked man is worthy to be beaten, it shall happen that the judge shall cause him to lie down and to be beaten before his face, according to his fault, by a certain number. ³He may give him forty stripes, and no more — lest, if he should give more, and beat him above these with many stripes, then your brother shall seem vile unto you.

⁴You shall not muzzle the ox when he treads out the grain.

⁵If brothers live together, and one of them dies and has no child, the wife of the dead shall not marry outside to a stranger. Her husband's brother shall go in unto her and take her as a wife for himself, and perform the duty of a husband's brother to her. ⁶And it shall be that the first-born whom she bears shall succeed in the name of his brother who is dead, so that his name may not be put out of Israel. ⁷And if the man does not want to take his brother's wife, then let his brother's wife go up to the gate to the elders, and say, My husband's brother refuses to raise up a name in Israel to his brother. He will not perform the duty of my husband's brother. ⁸Then the elders of his city shall call him and speak to him. And if he stands and says, I do not like to take her, ⁹then his brother's wife shall come to him in the presence of his elders, and take off his shoe from his foot, and spit in his face, and shall answer and say, So shall it be done to that man who will not build up his brother's house. ¹⁰And his name shall be called in Israel, The house of him who has his shoe taken off.

¹³You shall not have in your bag two kinds of weights, a great and a small. ¹⁴You shall not have in your house two kinds of measures, a great and a small. ¹⁵You shall have a perfect and just weight, a perfect and just measure you shall have — so that your days may be lengthened in the land which the LORD your God gives you. ¹⁶For all that do such things, all that do unrighteousness, are hateful to the LORD your God.

¹⁷Remember what Ām'-ā-lēk did to you by the way, when you had come forth out of Egypt, ¹⁸how he met you by the way and struck those of you who were behind, all the feeble behind you, when you were faint and weary. And he did not fear God. ¹⁹Therefore when the LORD your God has given you rest from all your enemies round about in the land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance to possess it, you shall blot out the remembrance of Ām'-ā-lēk from under heaven. You shall not forget.

¹And it shall be, when you have come into the land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance, and possess it, and live in it, ²you shall take of the first of all the fruit of the earth which you shall bring of your land that the LORD your God gives you, and you shall put it in a basket, and shall go to the place which the LORD your God shall choose to place His name there. ³And you shall go to the priest in those days, and say to him, I profess today unto the LORD your God that I have come to the country which the LORD swore unto our fathers to give us. ⁴And the priest shall take the basket out of your hand and set it down before the altar of the LORD your God. ⁵And you shall speak and say before the LORD your God, My father was a Syr'-ī-ān ready to perish. And he went down to Egypt, and stayed there with a few, and became there a nation, great, mighty, and many. ⁶And the Egyptians ill-treated us, and afflicted us, and laid hard bondage upon us. ⁷And when we cried unto the LORD God of our fathers, the LORD heard our voice and looked upon our afflictions and our labor and our oppression. ⁸And the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with fearful might, and with miracles and with wonders. ⁹And He has brought us into this place, and has given us this land, a land that flows with milk and honey. ¹⁰And now, behold, I have brought the first-fruits of the land which Thou, O LORD, hast given me. And you shall set it before the LORD your God, and worship before the LORD your God. ¹¹And you shall rejoice in every good thing which the LORD your God has given to you, and to your house — you, and the Levite, and the stranger that is among you.

¹²When you have made an end of tithing all the tithes of your increase the third year, the year of tithing, and have given it to the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, (that they may eat inside your gates and be filled), ¹³then you shall say before the LORD your God, I have brought away the holy things out of my house, and also have given them unto the Levite, and to the stranger, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all Thy commandments which Thou hast commanded me. I have not broken Thy commandments, neither have I forgotten. ¹⁴I have not eaten of it in my mourning, neither have I taken away any of it for unclean use, nor given any of it for the dead. I have listened to the voice of the LORD my God, and have done according to all that Thou hast commanded me. ¹⁵Look down from Thy holy dwelling, from Heaven, and bless Thy people Israel and the land which Thou hast given us, as Thou didst swear unto our fathers, a land that flows with milk and honey.

¹⁶This day the LORD your God has commanded you to do these statutes and judgments. You therefore shall keep and do them with all your heart and with all your soul. ¹⁷You have this day said that the LORD is your God, and that you would walk in His ways, and keep His statutes and His commandments and His judgments, and listen to His voice. ¹⁸And the LORD has taken you this day to be His peculiar people, as He has promised you, and that you should keep all His commandments, ¹⁹and to make you high above all nations which he has made, in praise and in name and in honor, and that you may be a holy people unto the LORD your God, even as He has spoken.

¹And Moses with the elders of Israel commanded the people saying, Keep all the commandments which I command you this day. ²And on the day when you shall pass over Jordan to the land which the LORD your God gives you, you shall set up great stones and plaster them with plaster. ³And you shall write upon them all the words of the law when you have passed over, so that you may go in to the land which the LORD your God gives you, a land that flows with milk and honey, as the LORD God of your fathers has promised you. ⁴Therefore when you have gone over Jordan, you shall set up these stones which I command you this day, in Mount Ē'-bāl, and you shall plaster them with plaster. ⁵And you shall build an altar there unto the LORD your God, an altar of stones. You shall not lift up any iron tool upon them. ⁶You shall build the altar of the LORD your God of whole stones, and you shall offer burnt offerings on it unto the LORD your God. ⁷And you shall offer peace offerings, and shall eat there, and rejoice before the LORD your God. ⁸And you shall write all the words of this law very plainly upon the stones.

⁹And Moses and the priests the Levites spoke unto all Israel, saying, Take heed and listen, O Israel. This day you have become the people of the LORD your God. ¹⁰You shall therefore obey the voice of the LORD your God, and do His commandments and His statutes which I command you this day.

¹¹And Moses charged the people the same day, saying, ¹²These shall stand upon Mount Gē-ri'-zīm to bless the people when you have come over Jordan — Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Is'-sā-chār, and Joseph, and Benjamin. ¹³And these shall stand upon Mount Ē'-bāl to curse — Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zē-bū'-lūn, Dan, and Nāph'-tā-li. ¹⁴And the Levites shall speak and say unto all the men of Israel with a loud voice, ¹⁵Cursed is the man that makes any graven or molten image, an abomination unto the LORD, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and puts it in a secret place. And all the people shall answer and say, Amen. ¹⁶Cursed is he who thinks lightly of his father or his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen. ¹⁷Cursed is he who removes his neighbor's landmark. And all the people shall say, Amen. ¹⁸Cursed is he who makes the blind to wander out of the way. And all the people shall say, Amen. ¹⁹Cursed is he who perverts the judgment of the stranger, fatherless, and widow. And all the people shall say, Amen. ²⁰Cursed is he who lies with his father's wife, because he uncovers his father's skirt. And all the people shall say, Amen. ²¹Cursed is he who lies with any kind of animal. And all the people shall say, Amen. ²²Cursed is he who lies with his sister, the daughter of his father or the daughter of his mother. And all the people shall say, Amen. ²³Cursed is he who lies with his mother-in-law. And all the people shall say, Amen. ²⁴Cursed is he who strikes his neighbor secretly. And all the people shall say, Amen. ²⁵Cursed is he who takes reward to kill an innocent person. And all the people shall say, Amen. ²⁶Cursed is he who does not confirm all the words of this law, to do them. And all the people shall say, Amen.

¹And if you shall listen carefully to the voice of the LORD your God, to observe and to do all His commandments which I command you this day, the LORD your God will set you on high above all nations of the earth. ²And all these blessings shall come upon you and overtake you, if you will listen to the voice of the LORD your God. ³You shall be blessed in the city, and you shall be blessed in the field. ⁴The fruit of your body shall be blessed, and the fruit of your ground, and the fruit of your cattle, the increase of your cows, and the flocks of your sheep. ⁵Your basket and your store shall be blessed. ⁶You shall be blessed when you come in, and you shall be blessed when you go out.

⁷The LORD shall cause your enemies that rise up against you to be stricken before your face. They shall come out against you one way, and flee before you seven ways. ⁸The LORD shall command the blessing upon you in your storehouses, and all that you set your hand to. And He shall bless you in the land which the LORD your God gives you.

⁹The LORD shall establish you a holy people unto Himself, as He has sworn unto you, if you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God and walk in His ways. ¹⁰And all the people of the earth shall see that you are called by the name of the LORD, and they shall be afraid of you. ¹¹And the LORD shall make you to have plenty of goods, in the fruit of your body, and in the fruit of your cattle, and in the fruit of your ground, in the land which the LORD swore unto your fathers to give you. ¹²The LORD shall open to you His good treasure, the heaven to give the rain unto your land in its season, and to bless all the work of your hand. And you shall loan unto many nations, and you shall not borrow. ¹³And the LORD shall make you the head, and not the tail. And you shall be always above, and you shall not be beneath — if you listen to the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you this day, to observe and to do them. ¹⁴And you shall not go aside from any of the words which I command you this day, to the right hand or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

¹⁵But, if you will not listen to the voice of the LORD your God, to observe and to do all His commandments and His statutes which I command you this day, all these curses shall come upon you and overtake you. ¹⁶You shall be cursed in the city, and you shall be cursed in the field. ¹⁷Your basket and your store shall be cursed. ¹⁸The fruit of your body shall be cursed, and the fruit of your land, the increase of your cows, and the flocks of your sheep. ¹⁹You shall be cursed when you come in, and you shall be cursed when you go out. ²⁰The LORD shall send upon you cursing, vexation, and rebuke, in all that you set your hand to do, until you are destroyed, and until you perish quickly, because of the wickedness of your doings by which you have forsaken Me. ²¹The LORD shall make the plague cling to you until He has consumed you from off the land where you go to possess it. ²²The LORD shall strike you with lung disease and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with the sword, and with blasting, and with mildew. And they shall pursue you until you perish. ²³And your heaven which is over your head shall be brass, and the earth that is under you shall be iron. ²⁴The LORD shall make the rain of your land powder and dust. It shall come down from heaven upon you until you are destroyed.

²⁵The LORD shall cause you to be stricken before your enemies. You shall go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them. And you shall be moved into all the kingdoms of the earth. ²⁶And your body shall be food to all birds of the air, and to the beasts of the earth. And no man shall frighten them away. ²⁷The LORD will strike you with the boils of Egypt, and with the hemorrhoids [hēm'-ôr-roids], and with the scab, and with the itch, of which you cannot be healed. ²⁸The LORD shall strike you with madness and blindness and astonishment of heart. ²⁹And you shall grope at noonday, as the blind gropes in darkness, and you shall not prosper in your ways. And you shall always be pressed down and spoiled forever, and no man shall save you. ³⁰You shall become engaged to a wife, and another man shall lie with her. You shall build a house, and you shall not live in it. You shall plant a vineyard, and you shall not gather the grapes of it. ³¹Your ox shall be slain before your eyes, and you shall not eat of it. Your ass shall be violently taken away from before your face, and shall not be restored to you. Your sheep shall be given to your enemies, and you shall have none to rescue them. ³²Your sons and your daughters shall be given to another people, and your eyes shall look and fail with longing for them all the day long. And there shall be no power in your hand. ³³The fruit of your land, and all your labors, shall be eaten up by a nation which you do not know.

And you shall always be oppressed and crushed — ³⁴so that you shall be mad because of that which you shall see with the sight of your eyes. ³⁵The LORD shall strike you in the knees and in the legs with a sore boil that cannot be healed, from the sole of your foot to the top of your head. ³⁶The LORD shall bring you, and your king which you shall set over you, to a nation which neither you nor your fathers have known. And there you shall serve other gods, wood and stone. ³⁷And you shall become an astonishment, a proverb, and a by-word among all nations where the LORD shall lead you. ³⁸You shall carry much seed out into the field, and shall gather but little in, for the locust shall eat it. ³⁹You shall plant vineyards and dress them, but shall neither drink of the wine nor gather the grapes, for the worms shall eat them. ⁴⁰You shall have olive trees throughout all your coasts, but you shall not anoint yourself with the oil, for your olive shall drop off its fruit. ⁴¹You shall give birth to sons and daughters, but you shall not enjoy them, for they shall go into captivity. ⁴²All your trees and the fruit of your land the locust shall possess. ⁴³The stranger that is within you shall get up above you very high, and you shall come down very low. ⁴⁴He shall loan to you, and you shall not loan to him. He shall be the head, and you shall be the tail.

⁴⁵Moreover all these curses shall come upon you, and shall pursue you and overtake you, until you are destroyed, because you did not listen to the voice of the LORD your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes which He commanded you. ⁴⁶And they shall be upon you for a sign and for a wonder, and upon your seed forever. ⁴⁷Because you did not serve the LORD your God with joyfulness and with gladness of heart for the abundance of all things,⁴⁸ therefore you shall serve your enemies which the LORD shall send against you, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in the lack of all things. And he shall put a yoke of iron upon your neck until he has destroyed you.

⁴⁹The LORD shall bring a nation against you from far, from the end of the earth, as the eagle flics — a nation whose tongue you shall not understand, ⁵⁰a nation fierce of face who shall not regard the person of the old, nor show favor to the young. ⁵¹And he shall eat the fruit of your cattle and the fruit of your land, until you are destroyed — who shall not leave you grain, wine, or oil, the increase of your cows, or flocks of your sheep, until he has destroyed you. ⁵²And he shall besiege you in all your gates until your high and fenced walls in which you trusted come down, throughout all the land. And he shall besiege you in all your gates throughout all your land which the LORD your God has given you. ⁵³And you shall eat the fruit of your own body, the flesh of your sons and of your daughters, which the LORD your God has given you, in the siege and in the difficulty with which your enemies shall distress you. ⁵⁴The man that is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be evil toward his brother and toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the rest of his children whom he shall leave — ⁵⁵so that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat, because he has nothing left to him in the siege and in the difficulty with which your enemies shall distress you in all your gates. ⁵⁶The tender and delicate woman among you, who would not adventure to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter, ⁵⁷and toward her young one who comes out from between her feet, and toward her children whom she shall bear. For she shall eat them secretly for lack of all things, in the siege and straitness with which your enemies shall distress you in your gates.

⁵⁸If you will not observe to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that you may fear this glorious and fearful name, THE LORD YOUR GOD, ⁵⁹then the LORD will make your plagues remarkable, and the plagues of your children shall be great plagues, and they shall go on a long time with sore and long-lasting sicknesses.

⁶⁰Moreover He will bring upon you all the diseases of Egypt which you were afraid of. And they shall cling to you. ⁶¹Also every sickness and every plague which is not written in the book of this law, the LORD will bring them upon you until you are destroyed. ⁶²And you shall be left few in number, whereas you were as the stars of heaven for multitude, because you would not obey the voice of the LORD your God.

⁶³And as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you good and to multiply you, so the LORD will rejoice over you to destroy you and to bring you to nothing. And you shall be plucked from off the land where you go to possess it. ⁶⁴And the LORD shall scatter you among all people, from the one end of the earth even to the other, and you shall serve other gods there, which neither you nor your father have known, wood and stone. ⁶⁵And among these nations you shall find no ease, neither shall the sole of your foot have rest. But the LORD shall give you there a trembling heart and failing of eyes and sorrow of mind. ⁶⁶And your life shall hang in doubt before you, and you shall fear day and night, and shall have no assurance of your life. ⁶⁷In the morning you shall say, Would God it were evening! And at evening you shall say, Would God it were morning! — for the fear of your heart with which you shall fear, and for the sight of your eyes which you shall see. ⁶⁸And the LORD shall bring you into Egypt again with ships, by the way of which I said to you, You shall see it no more again. And there you shall be sold to your enemies for men-slaves and women-slaves, and no man shall buy you.

¹These are the words of the covenant which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Mō'-āb, besides the covenant which He made with them in Horeb. ²And Moses called to all Israel and said to them, You have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt unto Pharaoh and unto all his servants, and to all his land. ³Your eyes have seen the great temptations, the signs, and those great miracles. ⁴Yet the LORD has not given you a heart to perceive and eyes to see and ears to hear, until this day. ⁵And I have led you forty years in the wilderness. Your clothes have not become old upon you, and your shoe has not become old upon your foot. ⁶You have not eaten bread, neither have you drunk wine or strong drink, so that you might know that I am the LORD your God. ⁷And when you came to this place, Sī'-hōn the king of Hēsh'-bōn, and Og the king of Bā'-shān, came out against us to battle, and we struck them. ⁸And we took their land and gave it for an inheritance to the Reubenites and to the Gadites and to the half tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh. ⁹Therefore keep the words of this covenant and do them, so that you may prosper in all that you do.

¹⁰You stand this day, all of you, before the LORD your God — your captains of your tribes, your elders, and your officers, with all the men of Israel, ¹¹your little ones, your wives, and your stranger that is in your camp, from the cutter of your wood to the drawer of your water — ¹²so that you should enter into covenant with the LORD your God, and into His oath, which the LORD your God makes you this day — ¹³so that He may establish you today for a people unto Himself, and that He may be a God unto you, as He has said to you, and as He has sworn unto your fathers — to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. ¹⁴Neither do I make this covenant and this oath with you only, ¹⁵but with him who stands here with us this day before the LORD our God, and also with him that is not here with us this day ¹⁶(for you know how we have lived in the land of Egypt, and how we came through the nations which you passed by, ¹⁷and you have seen their abominations and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them) — ¹⁸lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turns away this day from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations — lest there should be among you this day a root that bears gall and wormwood, ¹⁹and lest it come to pass, when he hears the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the imagination of my heart, to add drunkenness to thirst. ²⁰The LORD will not spare him, but then the anger of the LORD and His jealousy shall smoke against that man, and all the curses that are written in this book shall lie upon him, and the LORD shall blot out his name from under heaven.

²¹And the LORD shall set him apart to evil out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this book of the law — ²²so that the generation to come of your children that shall rise up after you, and the stranger that shall come from a far land, shall say (when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses which the LORD has laid upon it, ²³*that* the whole land of it is brimstone, and salt, and burning, that it is not sown, nor bears, nor has any grass growing in it, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gō-mōr'-rāh, Ād'-māh, and Zē-bō'-īm, which the LORD overthrew in His anger, and in His wrath), ²⁴even all nations shall say, Why has the LORD done this to this land? What does the heat of this great anger mean? ²⁵Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD God of their fathers, which He made with them when He brought them forth out of the land of Egypt. ²⁶For they went and served other gods, and worshipped them, gods whom they did not know, and who had not given to them any portion. ²⁷And the anger of the LORD was kindled against this land, to bring upon it all the curses that are written in this book. ²⁸And the LORD rooted them out of their land in anger and wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as it is this day. ²⁹The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children forever, so that we may do all the words of this law.

¹And when all these things have come upon you, the blessing and the curse which I have set before you, and when you shall call them to mind among all the nations where the LORD your God has driven you, ²and shall return to the LORD your God and shall obey His voice according to all that I command you this day, you and your children, with all your heart, and with all your soul, ³then the LORD your God will turn your captivity. And He will have compassion upon you, and will return and gather you from all the nations where the LORD your God has scattered you. ⁴If any of you is driven out into the outermost parts of heaven, the LORD your God will gather you from there, and He will bring you from there. ⁵And the LORD your God will bring you into the land which your fathers possessed, and you shall possess it. And He will do you good, and multiply you above your fathers. ⁶And the LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your seed, to love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, so that you may live. ⁷And the LORD your God will put all these curses upon your enemies, and upon those that hate you, who persecuted you. ⁸And you shall return and obey the voice of the LORD, and do all His commandments which I command you this day. ⁹And the LORD your God will make you have plenty in every work of your hand, in the fruit of your body, and in the fruit of your cattle, and in the fruit of your land, for good. For the LORD will again rejoice over you for good, as He rejoiced over your fathers, ¹⁰if you shall listen to the voice of the LORD your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes which are written in this book of the law, and if you turn unto the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

¹¹For this commandment which I command you this day is not hidden from you, neither is it far off. ¹²It is not in Heaven, that you should say, Who shall go up for us to Heaven, and bring it to us, so that we may hear it and do it? ¹³Neither is it beyond the sea, so that you should say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it to us so that we may hear it and do it? ¹⁴But the word is very near you, in your mouth and in your heart, so that you may do it.

¹⁵See, I have set before you this day life and good, and death and evil, ¹⁶in that I command you this day to love the LORD your God, to walk in His ways, and to keep His commandments and His statutes and His judgments, so that you may live and multiply. And the LORD your God shall bless you in the land where you go to possess it. ¹⁷But if your heart turns away, so that you will not hear, but shall be drawn away and worship other gods and serve them, ¹⁸I announce to you this day that you shall surely perish, you shall not prolong your days upon the land where you pass over Jordan to go to possess it. ¹⁹I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing. Therefore choose life so that both you and your seed may live, ²⁰so that you may love the LORD your God, and that you may obey His voice, and that you may cling to Him. For He is your life and the length of your days, so that you may dwell in the land which the LORD swore unto your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them.

¹And Moses went and spoke these words to all Israel. ²And he said to them, I am a hundred twenty years old this day. I can no more go out and come in. Also the LORD has said unto me, You shall not go over this Jordan. ³The LORD your God will go over before you. He will destroy these nations from before you, and you shall possess them. And Joshua shall go over before you, as the LORD has said. ⁴And the LORD shall do unto them as He did to Si'-hōn and to Og, kings of the Ām'-ōr-ītes, and to the land of those whom He destroyed. ⁵And the LORD shall give them up before your face, so that you may do unto them according to the commandments which I have commanded you. ⁶Be strong and of a good courage. Do not fear nor be afraid of them. For the LORD your God is He who goes with you. He will not fail you nor forsake you.

⁷And Moses called to Joshua and said to him in the sight of all Israel, Be strong and of a good courage. For you must go with this people to the land which the LORD has sworn unto their fathers to give them, and you shall cause them to inherit it. ⁸And the LORD is He who goes before you. He will be with you; He will not fail you nor forsake you. Do not fear; nor be dismayed.

⁹And Moses wrote this law and delivered it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel. ¹⁰And Moses commanded them, saying, At the end of seven years — at the set time of the year of release, in the feast of tabernacles, ¹¹when all Israel has come to appear before the LORD your God in the place which He shall choose — you shall read this law before all Israel in their hearing. ¹²Gather the people together, men and women and children, and your stranger who is within your gates, so that they may hear and that they may learn and fear the LORD your God, and be careful to do all the words of this law, ¹³and that their children who have not known may hear and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as you live in the land where you go over Jordan to possess it.

¹⁴And the LORD said to Moses, Behold, your days are coming near when you must die. Call Joshua and present yourselves in the tabernacle of the congregation, so that I may give him a charge. And Moses and Joshua went. And they presented themselves in the tabernacle of the congregation. ¹⁵And the LORD appeared in the tabernacle in a pillar of a cloud. And the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the tabernacle. ¹⁶And the LORD said to Moses, Behold, you shall sleep with your fathers. And this people shall rise up and go lusting after the gods of the strangers of the land into which they are going, to be among them. And they will forsake Me and break My covenant which I have made with them. ¹⁷Then My anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them. And I will hide My face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall befall them — so that they will say in that day, Have not these evils come upon us because our God is not among us? ¹⁸And I will surely hide My face in that day for all the evils which they have done, in that they have turned unto other gods.

¹⁹Now therefore write this song for you, and teach it to the children of Israel. Put it in their mouths so that this song may be a witness for Me against the children of Israel. ²⁰For when I shall have brought them into the land which I swore unto their fathers, the land that flows with milk and honey, and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and have become fat, then they will turn to other gods and serve them, and provoke Me and break My covenant. ²¹And when many evils and troubles have befallen them, this song shall testify against them as a witness. For it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed. For I know their imagination which they do, even now, before I have brought them into the land which I swore.

²²Moses therefore wrote this song the same day, and taught it to the children of Israel. ²³And he gave Joshua the son of Nun a charge and said, Be strong and of a good courage. For you shall bring the children of Israel into the land which I swore unto them, and I will be with you. ²⁴And when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this law in a book, until they were finished, ²⁵Moses commanded the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying, ²⁶Take this book of the law, and put it in the side of the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, so that it may be there for a witness against you. ²⁷For I know your rebellion and your stiff neck. Behold, while I am still alive with you this day, you have been rebellious against the LORD. And how much more after my death? ²⁸Gather unto me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, so that I may speak these words in their ears, and call heaven and earth to record against them. ²⁹For I know that after my death you will become altogether rotten, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you. And evil will befall you in the latter days, because you will do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger through the work of your hands. ³⁰And Moses spoke in the ears of all the congregation of Israel the words of this song, until they were ended.

¹Give ear, O heavens, and I will speak; and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth. ²My doctrine shall drop as the rain; my speech shall drop down as the dew, as the small rain upon the tender plant, and as the showers upon the grass; ³because I will call upon the name of the LORD. Praise God for His greatness. ⁴He is the Rock, His work is perfect. For all His ways are judgment. A God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is He. ⁵They have corrupted themselves. They are not His children, that is their blot. They are a perverse and crooked generation. ⁶Do you repay the LORD in this way, O foolish and unwise people? Is not He your father who has bought you? Has He not made you and established you?

⁷Remember the days of old; consider the years of many generations. Ask your father, and he will show you; your elders, and they will tell you. ⁸When the Most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when He separated the sons of Adam, He set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel. ⁹For the LORD's portion is His people. Jacob is the lot of His inheritance. ¹⁰He found him in a desert land, and in the deserted, howling wilderness. He led him about, He instructed him, He kept him as the apple of His eye. ¹¹As an eagle stirs up her nest, flutters over her young, spreads abroad her wings, takes them and bears them on her wings, ¹²so the LORD alone led him, and there was no strange god with him. ¹³He made him ride on the high places of the earth, so that he might eat the increase of the fields. And He made him suck honey out of the rock, and oil out of the flinty rock, ¹⁴butter from cows, and milk from sheep, with fat of lambs, and rams of the breed of Bā'-shān, and goats, with the fat of kidneys of wheat. And you drank the pure blood of the grape.

¹⁵But Jē-shū'-rūn became fat and kicked. You have become fat, you have grown thick, you are covered with fat. Then he forsook God who made him, and lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation. ¹⁶They provoked Him to jealousy with strange gods; with abominations they provoked Him to anger. ¹⁷They sacrificed to devils, not to God — to gods whom they knew not, to new gods newly come up, whom your fathers did not fear. ¹⁸You are not mindful of the Rock who brought you forth, and have forgotten God who formed you. ¹⁹And when the LORD saw it, he despised them because of the provoking of His sons and of His daughters. ²⁰And He said, I will hide My face from them; I will see what their end shall be. For they are a very perverse generation, children in whom is no faith. ²¹They have moved Me to jealousy with that which is not God. They have provoked Me to anger with their vanities. And I will move them to jealousy with those who are not a people. I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation. ²²For a fire is kindled in My anger, and shall burn to the lowest hell, and shall consume the earth with its increase, and set on fire the foundations of the mountains. ²³I will heap mischief upon them. I will spend My arrows upon them. ²⁴*They shall be* burned with hunger and devoured with burning coals, and with bitter destruction. I will also send the teeth of beasts upon them, with the poison of serpents of the dust. ²⁵The sword outside, and the terror inside, shall destroy both the young man and the virgin, the babe also with the man of grey hairs. ²⁶I said I would scatter them into corners; I would make the memory of them to cease from among men, ²⁷were it not that I feared the wrath of the enemy — lest their enemies should behave themselves strangely; lest they should say, Our hand is high and the LORD has not done all this.

²⁸For they are a nation without wisdom, neither is there any understanding in them. ²⁹O that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end! ³⁰How shall one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, unless their Rock had sold them and the LORD had shut them up? ³¹For their rock is not as our Rock, even our enemies themselves being judges. ³²For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, and of the fields of Gō-mōr'-rāh. Their grapes are grapes of gall. Their clusters are bitter. ³³Their wine is the poison of serpents, and the cruel venom of asps.

⁴⁴And Moses came and spoke all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he and Joshua the son of Nun. ⁴⁵And Moses made an end of speaking all these words to all Israel. ⁴⁶And he said to them, Set your hearts unto all the words which I testify among you this day, which you shall command your children to observe and to do, all the words of this law. ⁴⁷For it is not a vain thing for you, because it is your life. And through this thing you shall make your days longer in the land where you go over Jordan to possess it. ⁴⁸And the LORD spoke to Moses that same day, saying, ⁴⁹Get up into this mountain Āb'-ā-rīm, unto Mount Nē'-bo, which is in the land of Moab, that is over against Jericho, and behold the land of Canaan which I give to the children of Israel for a possession. ⁵⁰And die in the mountain where you go up, and be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother died in Mount Hor and was gathered to his people — ⁵¹because you sinned against Me among the children of Israel at the waters of Mēr'-i-bāh-Kā'-dēsh, in the wilderness of Zin — because you did not sanctify Me in the midst of the children of Israel. Yet you shall see the land before you, but you shall not go there unto the land which I give the children of Israel.

¹And this is the blessing with which Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death. ²And he said,

The LORD came from Sinai and rose up from Sē'-ir unto them. He shone forth from Mount Pār'-ān, and He came with ten thousands of saints. From His right hand went a fiery law for them. ³Yea, He loved the people. All His saints are in Thy hand, and they sat down at Thy feet. Everyone shall receive of Thy words. ⁴Moses commanded us a law, the inheritance of the congregation. ⁵And he was king in Jē-shū'-rūn, when the heads of the people and the tribes of Israel were gathered together.

⁶Let Reuben live and not die, and let not his men be few. ⁷And this is the blessing of Judah. And he said, Hear, LORD, the voice of Judah, and bring him unto his people. Let his hands be sufficient for him, and be Thou a help to him from his enemies. ⁸And of Levi he said, Let Thy Thūm'-mīm and Thy Ū'-rīm be with Thy holy one whom Thou didst prove at Mās'-sāh, with whom Thou didst strive at the waters of Mēr'-i-bāh, ⁹who said to his father and to his mother, I have not seen him — neither did he know his brothers, nor knew his own children, for they have observed Thy word and kept Thy covenant. ¹⁰Let them teach Jacob Thy judgments, and Israel Thy law. Let them put incense before Thee and whole burnt sacrifice upon Thy altar. ¹¹O LORD, bless what is his, and accept the work of his hands. Strike through the loins of those who rise against him, and of those who hate him, that they should not rise again.

¹²Of Benjamin he said, The beloved of the LORD shall live in safety beside Him, and shall cover him all the day long, and He shall live between his shoulders. ¹³And of Joseph he said, Blessed of the LORD is his land, for the precious things of heaven, for the dew, and for the deep that crouches beneath, ¹⁴and for the precious fruits brought forth by the sun, and for the precious things put forth by the moon, ¹⁵and for the chief things of the ancient mountains, and for the precious things of the lasting hills, ¹⁶and for the precious things of the earth and fulness of it, and for the good-will of Him who lived in the bush. Let the bless- ing come upon the head of Joseph, and upon the top of the head of him who was separated from his brothers. ¹⁷His glory is like the first-born of his bull, and his horns are like the horns of an ox. With them he shall push the people together to the ends of the earth. And they are the ten thousands of E'-phrā-īm, and they are the thousands of Mā-nās'-sēh.

¹⁸And of Zē-bū'-lūn he said, Rejoice, Zē-bū'-lūn, in your going out — and, Īs'-sā-chär, in your tents. ¹⁹They shall call the people to the mountain. There they shall offer sacrifices of righteousness, for they shall suck of the bounty of the seas and of treasures hid in the sand. ²⁰And of Gad he said, Blessed is he who makes Gad greater. He lives as a lion and tears the arm with the crown of the head. ²¹And he provided the first part for himself, because there, in a portion of the lawgiver, was he seated. And he came with the heads of the people. He executed the justice of the LORD, and His judgments with Israel. ²²And of Dan he said, Dan is a lion's whelp. He shall leap from Bā'-shän. ²³And of Nāph'-tä-lī he said, O Nāph'-tä-lī, satisfied with favor, and full with the blessing of the LORD, possess the west and the south. ²⁴And of Asher he said, Let Asher be blessed with children, let him be pleasing to his brothers, and let him dip his foot in oil. ²⁵Your shoes shall be iron and brass. And as your days, so shall your strength be.

²⁶There is none like the God of Jē-shū'-rūn, who rides upon the heaven to your help, and in His majesty upon the skies. ²⁷The eternal God is your refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms. And He shall throw the enemy out from before you, and shall say, Destroy them. ²⁸Israel then shall dwell in safety alone. The fountain of Jacob shall be upon a land of grain and wine. Also his skies shall drop down dew. ²⁹Happy are you, O Israel! Who is like you, O people saved by the LORD, the shield of your help, and who is the sword of your excellency! And your enemies shall be found liars unto you, and you shall tread upon their high places.

¹And Moses went up from the plains of Mō'-āb to the mountain of Né'-bō, to the top of Pīs'-gāh that is over against Jericho. And the LORD showed him all the land of Gilead, unto Dan, ²and all Nāph'-tä-lī, and the land of E'-phrā-īm, and Mā-nās'-sēh, and all the land of Judah, to the furthest sea, ³and the south, and the plain of the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees, to Zō'-ār. ⁴And the LORD said to him, This is the land which I swore unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, saying, I will give it to your seed. I have caused you to see it with your eyes, but you shall not go over there. ⁵So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Mō'-āb, according to the word of the LORD. ⁶And He buried him in a valley in the land of Mō'-āb, over against Bēth-pē'-ôr. But no man knows of his grave unto this day.

And Moses was a hundred and twenty years old when he died. His eye was not dim, nor had he lost any of his natural strength.

⁷And the children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Mō'-āb thirty days. So the days of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended. ⁹And Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands upon him. And the children of Israel listened to him, and did as the LORD commanded Moses. ¹⁰And never since has a prophet like Moses arisen in Israel, whom the LORD knew face to face — ¹¹in all the signs and the wonders which the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land, ¹²and in all that mighty hand, and in all the great terror which Moses showed in the sight of all Israel.

The Book of JOSHUA

¹Now after the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, the LORD spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' minister, saying, ²My servant Moses is dead. Now therefore arise, go over this Jordan — you, and all this people, unto the land which I give to them, even to the children of Israel. ³Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, I have given that to you, as I said to Moses. ⁴From the wilderness and this Lēb'-ā-nōn even to the great river, the river Eū-phrā'-tēs, all the land of the Hittites, and unto the great sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your border. ⁵No man shall be able to stand before you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not fail you nor forsake you. ⁶Be strong and of good courage. For you shall divide the land for an inheritance to this people, the land which I swore unto their fathers, to give it to them. ⁷Only be strong and very courageous so that you may be careful to do according to all the law which My servant Moses commanded you. Do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, so that you may be blessed wherever you go. ⁸This book of the law shall not depart out of your hand, but you shall meditate in it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it. For then you shall make your way blessed, and then you shall have good success. ⁹Have not I commanded you? Be strong and of good courage. Do not be afraid, neither be dismayed. For the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.

¹⁰Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people saying, ¹¹Pass through the host, and command the people, saying, Prepare food for yourselves, for within three days you shall go over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess it. ¹²And Joshua spoke to the Reubenites and to the Gadites and to half the tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh, saying, ¹³Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you saying, The LORD your God has given you rest and has given you this land. ¹⁴Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle shall remain in the land which Moses gave you on this side Jordan. But you shall go armed before your brothers, all the mighty men of valor, and help them ¹⁵until the LORD has given your brothers rest, even as you, and they also have possessed the land which the LORD your God gives them — and then you shall return to the land of your possession and enjoy it — which Moses the LORD's servant gave you on this side Jordan, towards the sunrise.

¹⁶And they answered Joshua, saying, We will do all that you command us, and wherever you send us we will go. ¹⁷Just as we listened to Moses in all things, so we will listen to you. Only may the LORD your God be with you as He was with Moses. ¹⁸Whoever rebels against your commandment and will not listen to your words in all that you command him, he shall be put to death. Only be strong and of a good courage.

¹And Joshua the son of Nun sent out of Shīt'-tīm two men to spy secretly, saying, Go look over the land, even Jericho. And they went and came to the house of a harlot named Rā'-hāb. And they stayed there. ²And the king of Jericho was told about it, saying, Behold, men from the children of Israel came in here tonight, to search out the country. ³And the king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, Bring out the men that have come to you, those who have entered into your house. For they have come to search out all the country. ⁴And the woman took the two men and hid them. And she said, Two men came to me, but I did not know where they came from. ⁵And when it was dark, at the time of shutting the gate, the men went out. Where the men went I do not know. Go after them quickly, for you shall overtake them. ⁶But she had brought them up to the roof of the house, and had hidden them with the stalks of flax which she had laid in order upon the roof. ⁷And the men went after them on the way to Jordan, unto the fords. And as soon as they who went after them had gone out, they shut the gate.

⁸And before they had laid down, she came up to them upon the roof. ⁹And she said to the men, I know that the LORD has given you the land, and that your terror has fallen upon us, and that all those who live in the land faint because of you. ¹⁰For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea for you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites that were on the other side Jordan, Sī'-hōn and Og, whom you utterly destroyed. ¹¹And as soon as we had heard, our hearts melted, nor did any more courage remain in any man, because of you. For the LORD your God, He is God in heaven above and in earth beneath. ¹²Now therefore, I pray you, swear to me by the LORD, since I have shown you kindness, that you will also show kindness unto my father's house. And give me a true token, ¹³and say that you will save my father and my mother alive. And save my brothers and my sisters, and all that they have, and deliver our lives from death. ¹⁴And the men answered her, Our life shall be for yours, if you do not tell our business. And when the LORD has given us the land, we will deal kindly and truly with you. ¹⁵Then she let them go down by a cord through the window. For her house was upon the town wall, and she lived upon the wall. ¹⁶And she said to them, Get up into the mountain lest those who went after you meet you. And hide yourselves there three days until they have returned. And afterward you may go your way. ¹⁷And the men said to her, We desire to be blameless of this oath to you, which you have made us swear. ¹⁸Behold, when we come into the land, you shall set this line of scarlet thread in the window from which you let us down. And you shall bring your father and your mother, and your brothers, and all your father's household, home to you. ¹⁹And whoever shall go out of the doors of your house into the street, his blood shall be upon his head, and we will be blameless. And whoever shall be with you in the house, his blood shall be on our head if any hand is upon him. ²⁰And if you tell our business, then we will be free of the oath which you have made us swear to you. ²¹And she said, Let it be according to your word. And she sent them away, and they departed. And she set the scarlet line in the window. ²²And they went and came to the mountain, and stayed there three days until those who went after them had returned. And those who went after them looked for them throughout all the way, but did not find them. ²³So the two men returned. And they went down from the mountain, and passed over, and came to Joshua the son of Nun. And they told him all things that happened to them. ²⁴And they said to Joshua, Truly the LORD has delivered all the land into our hands, for even all those who live in the country faint because of us.

¹And Joshua rose early in the morning. And they moved from Shīt'-tim and came to Jordan, he and all the children of Israel, and lodged there before they passed over. ²And after three days the officers went through the host. ³And they commanded the people saying, When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and the priests the Levites bearing it, then you shall move from your place and go after it. ⁴Yet there shall be a space, about two thousand cubits by measure, between you and it. Do not come near it, so that you may know the way by which you must go. For you have not passed this way before now. ⁵And Joshua said to the people, Sanctify yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will do wonders among you. ⁶And Joshua spoke to the priests saying, Take up the ark of the covenant and pass over before the people. And they took up the ark of the covenant and went before the people.

⁷And the LORD said to Joshua, Today I will begin to magnify you in the sight of all Israel so that they may know that I will be with you, as I was with Moses. ⁸And you shall command the priests that carry the ark of the covenant, saying, When you have come to the brink of the water of Jordan, you shall stand still in Jordan. ⁹And Joshua said to the children of Israel, Come here and hear the words of the LORD your God. ¹⁰And Joshua said, By this you shall know that the living God is among you, and that He will without fail drive out from before you the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hī'-vites, and the Pě-rīz'-zītes, and the Gīr'-gā-sites, and the Amorites, and the Jēb'-ū-sītes. ¹¹Behold, the ark of the covenant of the LORD of all the earth passes over before you into Jordan. ¹²Now therefore take twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, a man out of every tribe. ¹³And as soon as the soles of the feet of the priests that carry the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, shall rest in the waters of Jordan, the waters of Jordan shall be cut off from the waters that come down from above. And they shall stand all in a heap.

¹⁴And when the people moved from their tents to pass over Jordan, and the priests carrying the ark of the covenant before the people, ¹⁵and as those who carried the ark had come to Jordan, and the feet of the priests that carried the ark were dipped in the edge of the water (for Jordan overflows all its banks, all the time of harvest) — ¹⁶it came to pass that the waters which came down from above stopped and rose up all in a heap, very far from the city Adam that is beside Zār'-ē-tān. And those that came down toward the sea of the plain, the salt sea, failed, and were cut off. And the people passed over right across from Jericho. ¹⁷And the priests who carry the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the middle of Jordan. And all the Israelites passed over on dry ground, until all the people had passed completely over Jordan.

¹And when all the people had completely passed over Jordan, the LORD spoke to Joshua saying, ²Take twelve men out of the people, a man out of every tribe, ³and command them saying, Take twelve stones from here, out of the middle of Jordan, out of the place where the priests' feet stood firm. And you shall carry them over with you, and leave them in the place where you shall stay tonight. ⁴Then Joshua called the twelve men whom he had prepared from the children of Israel, a man out of every tribe. ⁵And Joshua said to them, Pass over in front of the ark of the LORD your God into the middle of Jordan. And every man take a stone upon his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel — ⁶so that this may be a sign to you when your children ask in time to come, saying, What do you mean by these stones? ⁷Then you shall answer them, The waters of Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD. When it passed over Jordan, the waters of Jordan were cut off, and these stones shall be for a memorial unto the children of Israel forever. ⁸And the children of Israel did as Joshua commanded. And they took up twelve stones out of the middle of Jordan, as the LORD spoke to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and carried them over with them to the place where they stayed, and laid them down there. ⁹And Joshua set up twelve stones in the middle of Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests who carried the ark of the covenant, stood. And they are there unto this day.

¹⁰For the priests who carried the ark stood in the middle of Jordan until everything was finished, all that the LORD commanded Joshua to speak unto the people, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua. And the people hurried and passed over. ¹¹And when all the people had completely passed over, the ark of the LORD passed over, and the priests also, in the presence of the people. ¹²And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh, passed over armed in front of the children of Israel, as Moses spoke unto them. ¹³About forty thousand prepared for war passed over before the LORD to battle, to the plains of Jericho.

¹⁴On that day the LORD made Joshua great in the sight of all Israel. And they feared him, even as they feared Moses, all the days of his life. ¹⁵And the LORD spoke to Joshua, saying, ¹⁶Command the priests who carry the ark of the testimony, that they come up out of Jordan. ¹⁷Joshua therefore commanded the priests saying, Come up out of Jordan. ¹⁸And when the priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD had come up out of the midst of Jordan, and the soles of the feet of the priests had been lifted up to the dry land, the waters of Jordan returned to their place and flowed over all its banks, as before.

¹And when all the kings of the Amorites who were on the west side of Jordan, and all the kings of the Canaanites who were by the sea, heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of Jordan in front of the children of Israel until we had passed over, that their hearts melted. Neither was there spirit in them any more, because of the children of Israel.

²At that time the LORD said to Joshua, Make sharp knives for yourselves and circumcise the children of Israel again, the second time. ³And Joshua made sharp knives and circumcised the children of Israel at the hill of the foreskins. ⁴And this is the reason why Joshua circumcised. All the people that came out of Egypt who were males, all the men of war, died in the wilderness by the wayside, after they came out of Egypt. ⁵Now all the people who came out were circumcised. But all the people who were born in the wilderness by the wayside, as they came forth out of Egypt, had not been circumcised. ⁶For the children of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness — until all the people who were men of war, who came out of Egypt, were destroyed — because they did not obey the voice of the LORD. Unto them the LORD swore that He would not show them the land which the LORD swore unto their fathers that He would give us, a land that flows with milk and honey. ⁷And Joshua circumcised their children, whom He raised up in their place. For they were not circumcised, because they had not circumcised them by the wayside. ⁸And when they had finished circumcising all the people, it came to pass that they stayed in their places in the camp until they were well. ⁹And the LORD said to Joshua, Today I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from you. Therefore the name of the place is called Gil'-gāl unto this day.

¹⁰And the children of Israel camped in Gil'-gāl and kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month at evening in the plains of Jericho. ¹¹And they ate of the old grain of the land on the next day after the Passover, unleavened cakes and parched kernels in the same day.

¹²And the manna stopped on the next day after they had eaten the old grain of the land. Neither did the children of Israel have any more manna, but they ate the fruit of the land of Canaan that year. ¹³And when Joshua was beside Jericho, he lifted up his eyes and looked. And, behold, there stood a Man over against him with His sword drawn in His hand. And Joshua went to Him and said unto Him, Art Thou for us, or for our foes? ¹⁴And He said, No, but I have come as the Captain of the army of the LORD. And Joshua fell on his face to the earth. And he worshipped and said to Him, What does my Lord say unto His servant? ¹⁵And the Captain of the LORD's army said to Joshua, Take your shoe off your foot, for the place on which you stand is holy. And Joshua did so.

¹Now Jericho was completely shut up because of the children of Israel. None went out and none came in. ²And the LORD said to Joshua, See, I have given Jericho into your hand, and the king of it, and the mighty men of war. ³And you shall go around the city, all the men of war. Go around the city once. So you shall do for six days. ⁴And seven priests shall carry seven trumpets of rams' horns in front of the ark. ⁵And the seventh day you shall go around the city seven times, and the priests shall blow with the trumpets. And when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout. And the wall of the city shall fall down flat, and the people shall go up, each man straight before him.

⁶And Joshua the son of Nun called the priests and said to them, Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests carry seven trumpets of rams' horns in front of the ark of the LORD. ⁷And he said to the people, Pass on, and go around the city. And let him who is armed pass on in front of the ark of the LORD. ⁸And when Joshua had spoken unto the people, the seven priests carrying the seven trumpets of rams' horns passed on before the LORD, and blew with the trumpets. And the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them. ⁹And the armed men went before the priests who blew with the trumpets. And the gathering army came after the ark, as the priests were going on and blowing with the trumpets. ¹⁰And Joshua had commanded the people saying, You shall not shout nor make any noise with your voice, neither shall any word come out of your mouth until the day I tell you to shout. Then you shall shout. ¹¹So the ark of the LORD went around the city, going around it once. And they came into the camp and stayed in the camp.

¹⁷And the city shall be devoted to the LORD, it and all that are in it. Only Rā'-hāb the harlot shall live, she and all that are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent. ¹⁸And you in every way shall keep yourselves from the cursed thing, lest you make yourselves cursed when you take of the cursed thing, and make the camp of Israel a curse, and trouble it. ¹⁹But all the silver and gold, and vessels of brass and iron, are devoted to the LORD. They shall come into the treasury of the LORD. ²⁰So the people shouted when the priests blew with the trumpets. And when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, each man straight before him. And they took the city. ²¹And they completely destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox, and sheep, and ass, with the edge of the sword. ²²But Joshua had said unto the two men who had spied out the country, Go into the harlot's house, and bring the woman out from there, and all that she has, as you swore to her. ²³And the young men who were spies went in and brought Rā'-hāb out, and her father and her mother, and her brothers, and all that she had. And they brought out all her kindred and left them outside the camp of Israel. ²⁴And they burned the city with fire, and all that was in it. Only the silver and the gold, and the vessels of brass and iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD. ²⁵And Joshua saved Rahab the harlot alive, and her father's household, and all that she had. And she lives in Israel to this day, because she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

²⁶And Joshua charged them at that time saying, Cursed before the LORD is the man who rises up and builds this city of Jericho. He shall lay the foundation of it in his first-born, and in his youngest son he shall set up the gates of it. ²⁷So the LORD was with Joshua. And his fame was throughout all the country.

¹But the children of Israel committed a sin in the cursed thing. For Ā'-chān the son of Cār'-mī, the son of Zāb'-dī, the son of Zē'-rāh, of the tribe of Judah, took of the thing which was cursed. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against the children of Israel. ²And Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ā'-ī, which is beside Bēth-ā'-vēn, on the east side of Bethel. And he spoke to them, saying, Go up and look over the country. And the men went up and looked at Ā'-ī. ³And they returned to Joshua and said to him, Let not all the people go up. But let about two or three thousand men go up and strike Ā'-ī. Do not make all the people labor there, for they are few. ⁴So about three thousand men of the people went up there. And they fled before the men of Ā'-ī. ⁵And the men of Ā'-ī struck about thirty-six men of them, for they chased them from before the gate unto Shēb'-ā'-rīm, and struck them in the road going down. Therefore the hearts of the people melted and became as water.

⁶And Joshua tore his clothes and fell to the earth upon his face before the ark of the LORD until the eventide, he and the elders of Israel, and put dust upon their heads. ⁷And Joshua said, Alas, O Lord GOD, why hast Thou at all brought this people over Jordan to deliver us into the hands of the Amorites, to destroy us? Would to God we had been content and lived on the other side Jordan! ⁸O Lord, what shall I say when Israel turns their backs before their enemies? ⁹For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear, and shall surround us, and shall cut off our name from the earth. And what wilt Thou do unto Thy great name? ¹⁰And the LORD said to Joshua, Get up! Why do you lie upon your face this way? ¹¹Israel has sinned, and they have also broken My covenant which I commanded them. For they have even taken of the cursed thing, and have also stolen and pretended falsely. And they have even put it among their own stuff. ¹²Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, turning their backs before their enemies, because they were cursed. Neither will I be with you any more, unless you destroy the one who is cursed from among you.

¹³Up! Sanctify the people and say, Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow. For thus says the LORD God of Israel, A cursed thing is in the midst of you, O Israel. You cannot stand before your enemies until you take away the cursed thing from among you. ¹⁴Therefore in the morning you shall be brought according to your tribes. And the tribe which the LORD takes shall come, according to the families of it. And the family which the LORD shall take shall come by households. And the household which the LORD shall take shall come man by man. ¹⁵And he who is taken with the cursed thing shall be burned with fire, he and all he has — because he has broken the covenant of the LORD, and because he has done wickedness in Israel.

¹⁶So Joshua rose up early in the morning, and brought Israel by their tribes. And the tribe of Judah was taken. ¹⁷And he brought the families of Judah. And he took the family of the Zār'-hītes. And he took the family of the Zār'-hītes man by man. And Zāb'-dī was taken. ¹⁸And he brought his household man by man. And Ā'-chān, the son of Cār'-mī, the son of Zāb'-dī, the son of Zē'-rāh, of the tribe of Judah, was taken. ¹⁹And Joshua said to Ā'-chān, My son, I pray you, give glory to the LORD God of Israel, and make confession unto Him. And tell me now what you have done. Do not hide it from me. ²⁰And Ā'-chān answered Joshua and said, Indeed I have sinned against the LORD God of Israel, and this is what I have done. ²¹When I saw among the spoils a goodly Bāb-y-lō'-nī-ān garment and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them and took them. And behold, they are hidden in the earth in the middle of my tent, and the silver under it.

²²So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran into the tent. And behold, it was hidden in his tent, and the silver under it. ²³And they took them out of the middle of the tent, and brought them to Joshua, and to all the children of Israel. And they laid them out before the LORD. ²⁴And Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Ā'-chān the son of Zē'-rāh, and the silver, and the garment, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had. And they brought them unto the valley of Ā'-chôr. ²⁵And Joshua said, Why have you troubled us? The LORD shall trouble you this day. And all Israel stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire, after they had stoned them with stones. ²⁶And they raised over him a great heap of stones unto this day. So the LORD turned from the greatness of His anger. Therefore the name of that valley was called, The valley of Ā'-chôr, unto this day.

¹And the LORD said to Joshua, Do not fear, neither be dismayed. Take all the people of war with you, and arise, go up to Ā'-î. See, I have given into your hand the king of Ā'-î, and his people, and his city, and his land. ²And you shall do to Ā'-î and its king as you did unto Jericho and its king. Only the spoil of it, and the cattle of it, you shall take for a prize for yourselves. Lay an ambush for the city behind it. ³So Joshua and all the people of war arose to go up against Ā'-î.

And Joshua chose out thirty thousand men of war and sent them away by night. ⁴And he commanded them, saying, Behold, you shall lie in wait opposite the city, behind the city. Do not go very far from the city, but all of you be ready. ⁵And I, and all the people that are with me, shall go toward the city. And when they come out against us, as at the first, we will flee before them, ⁶(for they will come out after us,) until we have drawn them out of the city. For they will say, They flee before us, even as at the first. Therefore we will flee before them. ⁷Then you shall rise up from the ambush, and seize upon the city — for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand. ⁸And when you have taken the city, you shall set the city on fire — according to the commandment of the LORD you shall do. See, I have commanded you.

⁹Therefore Joshua sent them out. And they went to lie in ambush, and stayed between Bethel and Ā'-î, on the west side of Ā'-î. But Joshua stayed that night among the people. ¹⁰And Joshua rose up early in the morning and counted the people. And they went up, he and the elders of Israel, to Ā'-î. ¹¹And all the people of war who were with him went up and drew near. And they came before the city, and pitched on the north side of Ā'-î. Now there was a valley between them and Ā'-î. ¹²And he took about five thousand men, and set them to lie in ambush between Bethel and Ā'-î, on the west side of the city. ¹³And when they had set the people, all the army that was on the north of the city, and those of them who lay in wait on the west of the city, Joshua went that night into the middle of the valley.

¹⁴And when the king of Ā'-î saw it, they hurried and rose up early. And the men of the city went out to do battle against Israel, he and all his people, at the time appointed, before the plain. But he did not know that there were some lying in ambush against him behind the city. ¹⁵And Joshua and all Israel acted as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness. ¹⁶And all the people who were in Ā'-î were called together to run after them. And they ran after Joshua, and were drawn away from the city. ¹⁷And there was not a man left in Ai or Bethel, who did not go after Israel. And they left the city open, and ran after Israel. ¹⁸And the LORD said to Joshua, Stretch out the spear that is in your hand toward Ai, for I will give it into your hand. And Joshua stretched out the spear that he had in his hand toward the city. ¹⁹And the ambush arose quickly out of their place, and ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand. And they entered into the city, and took it, and hurried and set the city on fire. ²⁰And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw it. And, behold, the smoke of the city went up into the sky, and they had no power to flee this way or that way. And the people who fled to the wilderness turned back upon those who ran after them. ²¹And when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city went up, then they turned again and killed the men of Ai. ²²And the others came out of the city against them. So they were in the middle of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side. And they struck them so that they let none of them remain or escape. ²³And they took the king of Ai, and brought him to Joshua.

²⁴And when Israel had made an end of killing all those who lived in Ai, in the field and in the wilderness where they chased them, and when they had all fallen on the edge of the sword until they were gone, all the Israelites returned to Ai and struck it with the edge of the sword. ²⁵And so all who fell that day, both of men and women, were twelve thousand — all the men of Ai. ²⁶For Joshua did not draw his hand back, with which he stretched out the spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the people of Ai. ²⁷Only Israel took the cattle and the spoil of that city for a prize for themselves, according to the word of the LORD which He commanded Joshua. ²⁸And Joshua burned Ai, and made it a heap forever, a ruin unto this day. ²⁹And he hanged the king of Ai on a tree until evening. And as soon as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his body down from the tree and throw it down at the entrance to the gate of the city, and raise on it a great heap of stones, which remains unto this day.

³⁰Then Joshua built an altar unto the LORD God of Israel in Mount Ē'-bāl, ³¹as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, an altar of whole stones over which no man has lifted any iron. And they offered on it burnt offerings unto the LORD, and sacrificed peace offerings.

³²And he wrote there upon the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Israel. ³³And all Israel, and their elders and officers, and their judges, stood on this side of the ark, and on that side, before the priests the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, as well the stranger as he that was born among them — half of them over against Mount Gě-rī'-zīm, and half of them over against Mount Ē'-bāl, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded before that they should bless all the people of Israel. ³⁴And afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessings and cursings, according to all that is written in the book of the law. ³⁵There was not a word of all that Moses commanded, which Joshua did not read before all the congregation of Israel, with the women and the little ones, and the strangers that walked among them.

¹And when all the kings which were on this side Jordan, in the hills and in the valleys, and in all the coasts of the great sea over against Lēb'-ā-nōn — the Hittite, and the Ām'-ōr-īte, the Canaanite, the Pē-rīz'-zīte, the Hī'-vīte, and the Jēb'-ū-sīte, heard about it — ²they all, with one mind, gathered themselves together to fight with Joshua and with Israel.

³And when those who lived in Gīb'-ē-ōn heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai, ⁴they worked slyly. For they came and acted as if they were ambassadors. And they took old sacks upon their asses, and old and torn and bound up wineskins, ⁵and old and patched sandals upon their feet, and old clothes upon them. And all the bread they had taken was dry and moldy. ⁶And they went to Joshua unto the camp at Gil'-gāl, and said to him and to the men of Israel, We have come from a far country. Now therefore, make a treaty with us. ⁷And the men of Israel said unto the Hī'-vītes, Perhaps you are living among us — and how shall we make a treaty with you? ⁸And they said to Joshua, We are your servants. And Joshua said to them, Who are you, and where do you come from? ⁹And they said to him, Your servants have come from a very far country, because of the name of the LORD your God. For we have heard of His fame and all that He did in Egypt, ¹⁰and all that He did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond Jordan, to Sī'-hōn king of Hēsh'-bōn, and to Og king of Bā'-shān, who was at Āsh'-tā-rōth. ¹¹Therefore our elders and all those who live in our country spoke to us saying, Take provisions with you for the journey, and go to meet them, and say to them, We are your servants — therefore now make a treaty with us. ¹²We took this bread hot for our provision out of our houses on the day we came out to go unto you. But now, see, it is dry, and it is moldy. ¹³And these wineskins which we filled were new. And, see, they are torn. And these clothes and shoes of ours have become old because of the very long journey. ¹⁴And they received the men because of their provisions, and did not ask at the mouth of the LORD. ¹⁵And Joshua made peace with them, and made a treaty with them, to let them live. And the princes of the congregation swore unto them.

¹⁶And at the end of three days after they had made a treaty with them, they heard that they were their neighbors and that they lived among them. ¹⁷And the children of Israel journeyed and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gīb'-ē-ōn, and Chē-phī'- rāh, and Bēer'-ōth, and Kīr'-jāth-jē'-ā-rīm. ¹⁸And the children of Israel did not strike them, because the princes of the congregation had sworn to them by the LORD God of Israel. And all the congregation murmured against the princes. ¹⁹But all the princes said unto the congregation, We have sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel. Now therefore we may not touch them. ²⁰This we will do to them. We will even let them live, lest wrath be upon us because of the oath which we swore unto them. ²¹And the princes said unto them, Let them live, but let them be woodcutters and drawers of water unto all the congregation — as the princes had promised them.

²²And Joshua called for them, and he spoke to them, saying, Why have you fooled us saying, We are very far from you, when you dwell among us? ²³Now therefore you are cursed, and there shall none of you be freed from being slaves and woodcutters and drawers of water for the house of my God. ²⁴And they answered Joshua and said, Because it was certainly told your servants how the LORD your God commanded His servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all those who lived in the land from before you, therefore we were very much afraid of our lives because of you, and have done this thing. ²⁵And now, behold, we are in your hand. As it seems good and right unto you to do unto us, do it. ²⁶And so he did unto them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, so that they did not kill them. ²⁷And Joshua made them that day woodcutters and drawers of water for the congregation, and for the altar of the LORD, even unto this day, in the place which He should choose.

¹Now when Ād-ō-nī-zē'-dēk king of Jerusalem had heard how Joshua had taken Ai and had utterly destroyed it (as he had done to Jericho and its king, so he had done to Ai and its king) and how the inhabitants of Gīb'-ē-ōn had made peace with Israel and were among them, ²they feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, like one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all of its men were mighty. ³Therefore Ād-ō-nī-zē'-dēk king of Jerusalem sent to Hō'-hām king of Hē'-brōn, and to Pī'-rām king of Jār'-muth, and to Jā-phī'-ā king of Lā'-chīsh, and to Dē'-bīr king of Ēg'-lōn, saying, ⁴Come up to me, and help me, so that we may strike Gibeon. For it has made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel. ⁵Therefore the five kings of the Amorites — the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hē'-brōn, the king of Jār'-muth, the king of Lā'-chīsh, the king of Ēg'-lōn — gathered themselves together. And they went up, they and all their armies, and camped before Gibeon, and made war against it. ⁶And the men of Gibeon sent to Joshua to the camp to Gil'-gāl, saying, Do not withhold your hand from your servants. Come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us — for all the kings of the Amorites who dwell in the mountains have gathered together against us. ⁷So Joshua went up from Gil'-gāl, he and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of war.

⁸And the LORD said to Joshua, Do not fear them, for I have delivered them into your hands. There shall not a man of them stand before you. ⁹Joshua therefore came unto them suddenly, coming up from Gil'-gāl all night. ¹⁰And the LORD troubled them before Israel, and killed them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goes up to Bēth-hôr'-ōn, and struck them to Ā-zē'-kāh, and to Māk-kē'-dāh. ¹¹And as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down to Bēth-hôr'-ōn, the LORD cast down great stones from heaven on them to Ā-zē'-kāh, and they died. The ones who died from hail-stones were more than the ones whom the children of Israel killed with the sword.

¹²Then Joshua spoke to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun! Stand still upon Gibeon! and moon! stay in the valley of Āj'-ā-lōn! ¹³And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is this not written in the book of Jāsh'-ēr? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and did not hasten to go down about a whole day. ¹⁴And there was no day like that before it or after it, that the LORD listened to the voice of a man. For the LORD fought for Israel.

¹⁵And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp to Gil'-gāl. ¹⁶But these five kings fled and hid themselves in a cave at Māk-kē'-dāh. ¹⁷And it was told to Joshua, saying, The five kings have been found hidden in a cave at Māk-kē'-dāh. ¹⁸And Joshua said, Roll great stones upon the mouth of the cave, and set men by it in order to keep them. ¹⁹And do not stay, but run after your enemies and strike the ones who are behind. Do not allow them to enter into their cities. For the LORD your God has delivered them into your hand. ²⁰And when Joshua and the children of Israel had made an end of killing them with a very great slaughter until they were gone, the rest of those who remained entered into fenced cities. ²¹And all the people returned in peace to the camp to Joshua at Māk-kē'-dāh. None moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel.

²²Then Joshua said, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring those five kings out of the cave to me. ²³And they did so, and brought those five kings out of the cave to him — the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hē'-brōn, the king of Jār'-mūth, the king of Lā'-chīsh, the king of Eg'-lōn. ²⁴And when they brought out those kings to Joshua, he called for all the men of Israel. And he said to the captains of the men of war who went with him, Come here and put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came up and put their feet upon their necks.

²⁵And Joshua said to them, Do not fear nor be dismayed. Be strong and of good courage. For so shall the LORD do to all your enemies against whom you fight. ²⁶And afterward Joshua struck them and killed them, and hanged them on five trees. And they were hanging upon the trees until the evening. ²⁷And at the time of the going down of the sun, Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees and threw them into the cave in which they had been hidden, and laid great stones in the cave's mouth, which remain until this very day.

²⁸And that day Joshua took Māk-kē'-dāh and struck it with the edge of the sword, and he utterly destroyed the king of it, them, and all the souls that were in it. He let none remain. And he did to the king of Māk-kē'-dāh as he did to the king of Jericho. ²⁹Then Joshua passed from Māk-kē'-dāh, and all Israel with him, to Lib'-nāh, and fought against Lib'-nāh. ³⁰And the LORD delivered it also, and the king of it, into the hand of Israel. And he struck it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were in it. He let none remain in it, but did to the king of it as he did to the king of Jericho. ³¹And Joshua passed from Lib'-nāh, and all Israel with him, to Lā'-chīsh, and camped against it, and fought against it. ³²And the LORD delivered Lā'-chīsh into the hand of Israel, who took it on the second day, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were in it, according to all that he had done to Lib'-nāh.

³³Then Hôr'-ām king of Gē'-zēr came up to help Lā'-chīsh. And Joshua struck him and his people until he had left him none remaining. ³⁴And from Lā'-chīsh Joshua passed to Ēg'-lōn, and all Israel with him. And they camped against it and fought against it. ³⁵And they took it on that day, and struck it with the edge of the sword; and all the souls that were in it he completely destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lā'-chīsh. ³⁶And Joshua went up from Ēg'-lōn, and all Israel with him, to Hē'-brōn. And they fought against it. ³⁷And they took it, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and the king of it, and all the cities of it, and all the souls that were in it. He left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Ēg'-lōn, but destroyed it completely, and all the souls that were in it.

³⁸And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to Dē'-bīr, and fought against it. ³⁹And he took it, and the king of it, and all the cities of it. And they struck them with the edge of the sword, and completely destroyed all the souls that were in it. He left none remaining. As he had done to Hē'-brōn, so he did to Dē'-bīr, and to the king of it — as he had done also to Lib'-nāh, and to her king. ⁴⁰So Joshua struck all the country of the hills, and of the south, and of the valley, and of the springs, and all their kings. He left none remaining, but completely destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD God of Israel commanded. ⁴¹And Joshua struck them from Kā'-dēsh-bār'-nē-ā even to Gā'-zā, and all the country of Gō'-shēn, even to Gib'-ē-ōn. ⁴²And Joshua took all these kings and their land at one time, because the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel. ⁴³And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp to Gil'gāl.

¹And when Jā'-bīn king of Hā'-zôr had heard, he sent to Jō'-bāb king of Mā'-dōn, and to the king of Shīm'-rōn, and to the king of Āch'-shāph, ²and to the kings that were on the north of the mountains, and of the plains south of Chīn'-nē-rōth, and in the valley, and in the borders of Dor on the west, ³and to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and the Hit'-tīte, and the Pē-rīz'-zīte, and the Jēb'-ū-sīte in the mountains, and to the Hī'-vīte under Hēr'-mōn in the land of Mīz'-pēh. ⁴And they went out, they and all their armies with them, many people, even as the sand that is upon the seashore in multitude, with very many horses and chariots. ⁵And when all these kings had met together, they came and pitched together at the waters of Mē'-rōm, to fight against Israel.

¹⁰And Joshua at that time turned back and took Hā'-zôr, and struck the king of it with the sword. For Hā'-zôr beforetime was the head of all those kingdoms. ¹¹And they struck all the souls that were in it with the edge of the sword, completely destroying them. There was not any left to breathe. And he burned Hā'-zôr with fire. ¹²And Joshua took all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them. And he struck them with the edge of the sword. He completely destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded. ¹³But Israel did not burn any of them, the cities that stood still in their strength, except Hā'-zôr only. Joshua did burn it. ¹⁴And all the spoil of these cities and the cattle the children of Israel took for a prize to themselves. But they struck every man with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them — neither did they leave any to breathe.

¹⁵As the LORD commanded Moses His servant, so did Moses command Joshua, and so Joshua did. He left nothing undone of all that the LORD commanded Moses. ¹⁶So Joshua took all that land, the hills, and all the south country, and all the land of Gō'-shēn, and the valley, and the plain, and the mountain of Israel, and the valley of the same — ¹⁷*even* from the mount Hā'-lāk that goes up to Sē'-ir, even to Bā'-āl-gād in the valley of Lēb'-ā-nōn under Mount Hēr'-mōn. And he took all their kings, and struck them and killed them. ¹⁸Joshua made war a long time with all those kings. ¹⁹There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, except the Hī'-vītes, the inhabitants of Gīb'-ē-ōn. All others they took in battle. ²⁰For it was of the LORD to harden their hearts so that they should come against Israel in battle, so that He might destroy them completely, so that they might have no favor, but that He might destroy them, as the LORD commanded Moses.

²¹At that time Joshua came and cut off the Ān'-ā-kīms from the mountains, from Hē'-brōn, from Dē'-bīr, from Ān'-āb, and from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Israel. Joshua completely destroyed them with their cities. ²²There were none of the Ān'-ā-kīms left in the land of the children of Israel — only in Gā'-zā, in Gath, and in Āsh'-dōd there remained some. ²³So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD commanded Moses. And Joshua gave it for an inheritance unto Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. And the land rested from war.

¹Now these are the kings of the land, whom the children of Israel struck and whose land they possessed on the other side Jordan toward the rising of the sun, from the river Ār'-nōn to Mount Hēr'-mōn, and all the plain on the east — ²Sī'-hōn king of the Amorites, who lived in Hēsh'-bōn and ruled from Ā-rō'-ēr, which is upon the bank of the river Ār'-nōn, and from the middle of the river, and from half Gilead, even to the river Jāb'-bōk, which is the border of the children of Ammon — ³and from the plain to the sea of Chīn'-nē-rōth on the east, and to the sea of the plain, the salt sea on the east, the way to Bēth-jēsh'-ī-mōth, and from the south, under Āsh'-dōth-pīs-gāh. ⁴And they struck the coast of Og king of Bā'-shān, who was of the last of the giants, who lived at Āsh'-tā-rōth and at Ēd'-rē-ī ⁵and reigned in Mount Hermon and in Sāl'-cāh, and in all Bā'-shān, to the border of the Gē-shū'-rites and the Mā'-āch'-ā-thītes, and half Gilead, the border of Sī'-hōn king of Hēsh'-bōn. ⁶Moses the servant of the LORD and the children of Israel struck them. And Moses the servant of the LORD gave it for a possession to the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Mā'-nās'-sēh.

⁷And these are the kings of the country which Joshua and the children of Israel struck on this side Jordan, on the west, from Bā'-āl-gād in the valley of Lēb'-ā-nōn even unto the mount Hā'-lāk that goes up to Sē'-īr — which Joshua gave unto the tribes of Israel for a possession according to their divisions — ⁸in the mountains, and in the valleys, and in the plains, and in the springs, and in the wilderness, and in the south country — the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Canaanites, the Pē-rīz'-zītes, the Hī'-vītes, and the Jēb'-ū-sītes.

⁹The king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai, which is beside Bethel, one; ¹⁰the king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one; ¹¹the king of Jār'-mūth, one; the king of Lā'-chīsh, one; ¹²the king of Ēg'-lōn, one; the king of Gē'-zēr, one; ¹³the king of Dē'-bīr, one; the king of Gē'-dēr, one; ¹⁴the king of Hōr'-māh, one; the king of Ār'-ād, one; ¹⁵the king of Lib'-nāh, one; the king of Ā-dūl'-lām, one; ¹⁶the king of Māk-kē'-dāh, one; the king of Bethel, one; ¹⁷the king of Tāp'-pū-āh, one; the king of Hē'-phēr, one; ¹⁸the king of Ā'-phēk, one; the king of Lā-shār'-ōn, one; ¹⁹the king of Mā'-dōn, one; the king of Hā'-zōr, one; ²⁰the king of Shīm'-rōn-mē'-rōn, one; the king of Āch'-shāph, one; ²¹the king of Tā'-ā-nāch, one; the king of Mē-gīd'-dō, one; ²²the king of Kē'-dēsh, one; the king of Jōk'-nē-ām of Carmel, one; ²³the king of Dor in the coast of Dor, one; the king of the nations of Gil'-gāl, one; ²⁴the king of Tīr'-zāh, one. All the kings were thirty-one.

¹Now Joshua was old and far gone in years. And the LORD said to him, You are old and far gone in years, and there remains yet very much land to be possessed. ²This is the land that still remains — all the borders of the Phī-līs'-tīnes, and all Gē-shū'-rī, ³from Sī'-hōr, which is before Egypt, even unto the borders of Ēk'-rōn northward, which is counted to the Canaanite — five lords of the Phī-līs'-tīnes; the Gā'-zā-thītes, and the Āsh'-dō-thītes, the Ēsh'-kā-lōn-ītes, the Gīt'-tītes, and the Ēk'-rōn-ītes; also the Ā'-vītes. ⁴From the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and Mē-ār'-āh that is beside the Sī-dō'-nī-āns, unto Ā'-phēk, to the borders of the Amorites. ⁵And the land of the Gīb'-lītes, and all Lēb'-ā-non, toward the sunrise, from Bā'-āl-gād under Mount Hermon to the border of Hā'-māth. ⁶I will drive out all those who live in the hill country from Lēb'-ā-nōn to Mīs'-rē-phōth-mā'-īm, and all the Sī-dō'-nī-āns, from before the children of Israel. Only you divide it by lot to the Israelites for an inheritance, as I have commanded you.

⁷Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance unto the nine tribes and the half tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh, ⁸with whom the Reubenites and the Gadites have received their inheritance which Moses gave them beyond Jordan eastward, as Moses the servant of the LORD gave them — ⁹from Ā-rō'-ēr, that is upon the bank of the river Ār-nōn, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain of Mē'-dē-bā, unto Dī'-bōn, ¹⁰and all the cities of Sī'-hōn king of the Amorites, who reigned in Hēsh'-bōn, unto the border of the children of Ammon, ¹¹and Gilead, and the border of the Gě-shū'-rites and Mā-āch'-ā-thītes, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bā'-shān unto Sāl'-cāh, ¹²all the kingdom of Og in Bā'-shān (who reigned in Āsh'-tā-rōth and in Ēd'-rē-ī, who remained of the rest of the giants) — for these did Moses strike, and cast them out. ¹³Nevertheless the children of Israel did not put out the Gě-shū'-rites nor the Mā-āch'-ā-thītes, but the Gě-shū'-rites and the Mā-āch'-ā-thītes dwell among the Israelites until this day. ¹⁴Only he gave no inheritance to the tribe of Levi. The sacrifices of the LORD God of Israel made by fire are their inheritance, as He said to them.

¹⁵And Moses gave to the tribe of the children of Reuben inheritance according to their families. ¹⁶And their coast was from Ā-rō'-ēr that is on the bank of the river Ār'-nōn, and the city that is in the midst of the river, and all the plain by Mē'-dē-bā. ¹⁷*He gave them* Hēsh'-bōn and all its cities that are in the plain, Dī'-bōn, and Bā'-mōth-bā'-āl, and Bēth-bā'-āl-mē'-on, ¹⁸and Jā'-hā'-zāh, and Kē'-dē-mōth, and Mēph'-ā-āth, ¹⁹and Kīr-jā-thā'-īm, and Sib'-māh, and Zār'-ēth-shā'-hār in the mountain of the valley, ²⁰and Bēth-pē'-ōr, and Āsh'-dōth-pis'-gāh, and Bēth-jēsh'-ī-mōth, ²¹and all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sī'-hōn king of the Amorites, who reigned in Hēsh'-bōn (whom Moses struck with the princes of Mīd'-ī-ān, Ē'-vī, and Rē'-kēm, and Zur, and Hur, and Rē'-bā, princes of Sī'-hōn living in the country).

²²The children of Israel also killed Balaam the son of Bē'-ōr, the soothsayer, with the sword — among the ones that were killed by them. ²³And the border of the children of Reuben was Jordan, and the border of it. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben according to their families, and the cities and the villages of it. ²⁴And Moses gave inheritance unto the tribe of Gad, to the children of Gad according to their families. ²⁵And their coast was Jā'-zēr, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon, unto Ā-rō'-ēr that is before Rāb'-bāh, ²⁶and from Hēsh'-bōn unto Rā'-māth-miz'-pēh, and Bēt'-ō-nīm, and from Mā'-hā-nā'-īm unto the border of Dē'-bīr. ²⁷And in the valley he gave them Bēth-ār'-ām, and Bēth-nīm'-rāh, and Sūc'-cōth, and Zā'-phōn, the rest of the kingdom of Sī'-hōn king of Hēsh'-bōn, Jordan and its border, even to the edge of the Sea of Chīn'-nē-rēth on the east side Jordan eastward. ²⁸This is the inheritance of the children of Gad according to their families, the cities, and their villages.

²⁹And Moses gave inheritance to the half tribe of Mā'-nās'-sēh, and this was of the half tribe of the children of Mā'-nās'-sēh by their families. ³⁰And their border was from Mā'-hā-nā'-īm, all Bā'-shān, all the kingdom of Og king of Bā'-shān, and all the towns of Jā'-īr, which are in Bā'-shān, sixty cities. ³¹And half Gilead, and Āsh'-tā-rōth, and Ēd'-rē-ī, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bā'-shān, were given to the children of Mā'-chīr the son of Mā'-nās'-sēh, even to the half of the children of Mā'-chir by the families. ³²These are the countries which Moses gave out for inheritance in the plains of Moab, on the other side Jordan by Jericho, eastward. ³³But to the tribe of Levi Moses gave no inheritance. The LORD God of Israel was their inheritance, as He said unto them.

¹And these are the countries which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the priest and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, gave out for inheritance to them. ²Their inheritance was by lot, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half tribe. ³For Moses had given the inheritance of two tribes and a half tribe on the other side Jordan. But unto the Levites he gave no inheritance among them. ⁴For the children of Joseph were two tribes, Mā-nās'-sēh and E'-phrā-im. Therefore they gave no part to the Levites in the land, except cities to live in, with their suburbs for their cattle and for their substance. ⁵As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land.

⁶Then the children of Judah came to Joshua in Gīl'-gāl. And Caleb, the son of Jē-phūn'-nēh the Kē'-nēz-īte, said to him, You know the thing that the LORD said to Moses the man of God in Kā'-dēsh-bār'-nē-ā regarding you and me. ⁷I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kā'-dēsh-bār'-nē-ā to spy out the land. And I brought him word again as it was in my heart. ⁸Nevertheless my brothers that went up with me made the heart of the people melt. But I fully followed the LORD my God. ⁹And Moses swore on that day, saying, Surely the land on which your feet have trodden shall be your inheritance, and your children's forever, because you have fully followed the LORD my God. ¹⁰And now, behold, the LORD has kept me alive these forty-five years as He said, even since the LORD spoke this word to Moses, while Israel wandered in the wilderness. And now, lo, I am eighty-five years old today. ¹¹As yet I am as strong today as I was in the day that Moses sent me. As my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war, both to go out and to come in. ¹²Now therefore give me this mountain of which the LORD spoke on that day. For you heard in that day how the Ān'-ā-kīms were there, and that the cities were great and fenced. If the LORD will be with me, then I will be able to drive them out, as the LORD said. ¹³And Joshua blessed him, and gave Hebron to Caleb the son of Jē-phūn'-nēh for an inheritance. ¹⁴Therefore Hebron became the inheritance of Caleb, the son of Jē-phūn'-nēh the Kē'-nēz-īte, unto this day, because he fully followed the LORD God of Israel. ¹⁵And the name of Hebron before was Kīr'-jāth-ār'-bā. Ār'-bā was a great man among the Ān'-ā-kīms. And the land had rest from war.

¹This then was the lot of the tribe of the children of Judah by their families — to the border of Edom the wilderness of Zin southward was the outermost part of the south border. ²And their south border was from the shore of the salt sea, from the bay that looks southward. ³And it went out to the south side to Mā'-ā-lēh—āc-rāb'-bīm, and passed along to Zin, and went up on the south side to Kā'-dēsh-bār'-nē-ā, and passed along to Hēz'-rōn, and went up to Ā'-dār, and turned around to Kār'-kā-ā. ⁴From there it passed toward Āz'-mōn and went out to the river of Egypt. And the outer limits of that border were at the sea. This shall be your south border.

⁵And the east border was the salt sea unto the end of Jordan. ⁶And their border in the north quarter was from the bay of the sea at the uttermost part of Jordan. And the border went up to Bēth-hōg'-lā, and passed along by the north of Bēth-ār'-ā-bāh. And the border went up to the stone of Bō'-hān the son of Reū'-bēn. ⁷And the border went up toward Dē'-bīr from the valley of Ā'-chōr, and so northward, looking toward Gil'-gāl, that is before the going up to Ā'-dūm'-mīm, which is on the south side of the river. And the border passed toward the waters of En-shē'-mēsh, and the outer limits of it were at Ēn-rō'-gēl. ⁸And the border went up by the valley of the son of Hīn'-nōm to the south side of the Jēb'-ū-site. The same is Jerusalem. And the border went up to the top of the mountain that lies before the valley of Hīn'-nom westward, which is at the end of the valley of the giants northward. ⁹And the border was drawn from the top of the hill to the fountain of the water of Nēph-tō'-āh, and went out to the cities of Mount Ē'-phrōn. And the border was drawn to Bā'-ā-lāh, which is Kīr'-jāth-jē'-ā-rīm. ¹⁰And the border went around from Bā'-ā-lāh westward unto Mount Sē'-īr, and passed along to the side of Mount Jē'-ā-rīm, which is Chēs'-ā-lōn, on the north side, and went down to Bēth-shē'-mēsh, and passed on to Tīm'-nāh. ¹¹And the border went to the side of Ēk'-rōn northward, and the border was drawn to Shīc'-rōn, and passed along to Mount Bā'-ā-lāh, and went out to Jāb'-nēel. And the outer limits of the border were at the sea. ¹²And the west border was to the great sea, and the coast. This is the border of the children of Judah all around according to their families.

and takes it, I will give my daughter Āch'-sāh to him for a wife. ¹⁷And Ōth'-nī-ēl the son of Kē'-nāz, the brother of Caleb, took it. And he gave him Āch'-sāh his daughter for a wife. ¹⁸And as she came, she moved him to ask a field from her father. And she dismounted from her ass. And Caleb said to her, What do you desire? ¹⁹She answered, Give me a blessing, for you have given me a south land. Give me also springs of water. And he gave her the upper springs and the lower springs. ²⁰This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families.

³³In the valley, Ēsh'-tā-ōl, and Zōr'-ē-āh, and Āsh'-nāh, ³⁴and Zā-nō'-āh, and Ēn-gān'-nim, Tāp'-pū-āh, and Ē'-nām, ³⁵Jār'-mūth, and Ā-dūl'-lām, Sō'-cōh, and Ā-zē'-kāh, ³⁶and Shā-rā'-im, and Ād-ī-thā'-im, and Gē-dē'-rāh, and Gē-dē-rō-thā'-im — fourteen cities with their villages — ³⁷Zē'-nān, and Hā-dāsh'-āh, and Mīg'-dāl-gād, ³⁸and Dī'-lē-ān, and Mīz'-pēh, and Jōk'-thēel, ³⁹Lā'-chīsh, and Bōz'-kāth, and Ēg'-lōn, ⁴⁰and Cāb'-bōn, and Lāh'-mām, and Kīth'-lish, ⁴¹and Gē-dē'-rōth, Bēth-dā'-gōn, and Nā'-ā-māh, and Māk-kē-dāh — sixteen cities with their villages — ⁴²Lib'-nāh, and Ē'-thēr, and Āsh'-ān, ⁴³and Jīph'-tāh, and Āsh'-nāh, and Nē'-zīb, ⁴⁴and Kē-ī'-lāh, and Āch'-zīb, and Mā-rē'-shāh — nine cities with their villages — ⁴⁵Ēk'-rōn, with its town and its villages — ⁴⁶from Ēk'-rōn even to the sea, all that were near Āsh'-dōd, with their villages — ⁴⁷Āsh'-dōd with its towns and its villages — Gā'-zā with its towns and its villages, to the river of Egypt, and the great sea, and the border of it.

⁴⁸And in the mountains, Shā'-mīr, and Jāt'-tīr, and Sō'-cōh, ⁴⁹and Dān'-nāh, and Kīr'-jāth-sān'-nāh (which is Dē'-bir), ⁵⁰and Anab, and Ēsh'-tē-mōh, and Ā'-nim, ⁵¹and Gō'-shēn, and Hō'-lōn, and Gī'-lōh — eleven cities with their villages — ⁵²Arab, and Dū'-māh, and Ēsh'-ē-ān, ⁵³and Jān'-ūm, and Bēth-tāp'-pū-āh, and Ā-phē'-kāh, ⁵⁴and Hūm'-tāh, and Kīr'-jāth-ār'-bā (which is Hebron), and Zī'-ōr — nine cities with their villages — ⁵⁵Mā'-ōn, Carmel, and Ziph, and Jūt'-tāh, ⁵⁶and Jēz'-rēel, and Jōk'-dē-ām, and Zā-nō'-āh, ⁵⁷Cain, Gīb'-ē-āh, and Tim'-nāh — ten cities with their villages — ⁵⁸Hāl'-hūl, Bēth'-zūr, and Gē-dōr, ⁵⁹and Mā'-ā-rāth, and Bēth'-ā-nōth, and Ēl'-tē-kōn — six cities with their villages — ⁶⁰Kīr'-jāth-bā'-āl, which is Kīr'-jāth-jē'-ā-rīm, and Rāb'-bāh — two cities with their villages.

⁶¹In the wilderness, Bēth-ār'-ā-bāh, Mīd'-dīn, and Sē-cā'-cāh, ⁶²and Nīb'-shān, and the city of salt, and Ēn-gē'-dī — six cities with their villages.

⁶³As for the Jēb'-ū-sītes, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the children of Judah could not drive them out. But the Jēb'-ū-sītes live with the children of Judah at Jerusalem to this day.

¹And the lot of the children of Joseph fell from Jordan by Jericho, to the water of Jericho on the east, to the wilderness that goes up from Jericho through Mount Bethel, ²and goes out from Bethel to Luz, and passes along to the borders of Ār'-chī to Āt'-ā-rōth ³and goes down westward to the border of Jāph'-lē-tī to the border of Bēth-hōr'-ōn the lower, and to Gē'-zēr. And the outer limits of it are at the sea. ⁴So the children of Joseph, Mā-nās'-sēh and Ē'-phrā-īm, took their inheritance.

⁵And the border of the children of Ē'-phrā-īm, according to their families, was this — even the border of their inheritance on the east side was Āt'-ā-rōth-ād'-dār, unto Bēth-hōr'-ōn the upper. ⁶And the border went out toward the sea to Mīch-mē'-thāh on the north side. And the border went about eastward to Tā'-ā-nāth-shī'-lōh, and passed by it on the east to Jā-nō'-hāh. ⁷And it went down from Jā-nō'-hāh to Āt'-ā-rōth, and to Nā'-ā-rāth, and came again to Jericho, and went out at Jordan. ⁸The border went out from Tāp'-pū-āh westward to the river Kā'-nāh. And the outer limits of it were at the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ē'-phrā-īm by their families. ⁹And the separate cities for the children of Ē'-phrā-īm were among the inheritance of the children of Mā-nās'-sēh, all the cities with their villages. ¹⁰And they did not drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gē'-zēr. But the Canaanites live among the Ē'-phrā-īm-ites until this day, and serve under tribute.

¹There was also a lot for the tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh (for he was the first-born of Joseph) — for Mā'-chīr the first-born of Mā-nās'-sēh, the father of Gilead. Because he was a man of war, therefore he had Gilead and Bā'-shān. ²There was also a lot for the rest of the children of Mā-nās'-sēh by their families — for the children of Ā-bī-ē'-zēr, and for the children of Hē'-lēk, and for the children of Ās'-rī-ēl, and for the children of Shē'-chēm, and for the children of Hē'-phēr, and for the children of Shē-mī'-dā. These were the male children of Mā-nās'-sēh the son of Joseph by their families. ³But Zē-lōph'-ē-hād the son of Hē'-phēr, the son of Gilead, the son of Mā'-chīr, the son of Mā-nās'-sēh, had no sons, but daughters. And these are the names of his daughters: Mäh'-lāh, and Noah, Hōg'-lāh, Mīl'-cāh, and Tīr'-zāh. ⁴And they came near before Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the priest and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brothers. Therefore according to the commandment of the LORD he gave them an inheritance among the brothers of their father. ⁵And there fell ten portions to Mā-nās'-sēh, besides the land of Gilead and Bā'-shān, which were on the other side Jordan — ⁶because the daughters of Mā-nās'-sēh had an inheritance among his sons. And the rest of Mā-nās'-sēh's sons had the land of Gilead.

⁷And the border of Mā-nās'-sēh was from Asher to Mīch-mē'-thāh before Shē'-chēm. And the border went along on the right hand to the inhabitants of Ēn-tāp'-pū-āh. ⁸Mā-nās'-sēh had the land of Tāp'-pū-āh, but Tāp'-pū-āh on the border of Mā-nās'-sēh belonged to the children of Ē'-phrā-īm. ⁹And the border went down to the river Kā'-nāh, southward of the river. These cities of Ē'-phrā-īm are among the cities of Mā-nās'-sēh. The coast of Mā-nās'-sēh also was on the north side of the river, and the outer limits of it were at the sea. ¹⁰Southward it was Ē'-phrā-īm's, and northward it was Mā-nās'-sēh's. And the sea is its border. And they met together in Asher on the north, and in Īs'-sā-chār on the east. ¹¹And Mā-nās'-sēh had in Īs'-sā-chār and in Asher Bēth-shē'-ān and its towns, and Īb'-lē-ām and its towns, and those who lived in Dor and its towns, and those who lived in Endor and its towns, and those who lived in Tā'-ā-nāch and its towns, and those who lived in Mē-gīd'-dō and its towns, even three countries. ¹²Yet the children of Mā-nās'-sēh could not drive out those who lived in those cities, but the Canaanites wanted to live in that land. ¹³Yet when the children of Israel had become strong, they put the Canaanites to tribute. But they did not completely drive them out.

¹⁴The children of Joseph spoke to Joshua saying, Why have you given me one lot and one portion to inherit, since I am a great people, because the LORD has blessed me until now? ¹⁵And Joshua answered them, If you are a great people, and if Mount Ē'-phrā-īm is too narrow for you, get up to the wood country and cut down more for yourself there in the land of the Pē-rīz'-zītes and of the giants. ¹⁶And the children of Joseph said, The hill is not enough for us. And all the Canaanites who live in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, those who are of Bēth-shē'-ān and its towns, and those who are of the valley of Jēz'-rēel. ¹⁷And Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph, even to Ē'-phrā-īm and to Mā-nās'-sēh, saying, You are a great people and have great power. You shall not have one lot. ¹⁸But the mountain shall be yours, for it is a forest, and you shall cut it down. And the outer limits of it shall be yours. For you shall drive out the Canaanites, even though they have iron chariots and though they are strong.

¹And the whole congregation of the children of Israel gathered together at Shi'-löh, and set up the tabernacle of the congregation there. And the land was subdued before them. ²And there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes which had not yet received their inheritance. ³And Joshua said to the children of Israel, How long will you be weak in going to possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers has given you? ⁴Give from among you three men for each tribe. And I will send them, and they shall rise and go through the land and map it according to the inheritance of them. And they shall come to me. ⁵And they shall divide it into seven parts. Judah shall stay within their border on the south, and the house of Joseph shall stay within their borders on the north. ⁶You shall therefore map the land into seven parts and bring it here to me, so that I may cast lots here for you before the LORD our God. ⁷But the Levites have no part among you. For the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance. And Gad and Reuben and half the tribe of Mä-näs'-sêh have received their inheritance beyond Jordan on the east, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them.

⁸And the men arose and went away. And Joshua charged those who went to map the land, saying, Go and walk through the land, and map it, and come again to me so that I may here cast lots for you before the LORD in Shi'-löh. ⁹And the men went and passed through the land, and mapped it into seven parts in a book, and they came to Joshua, to the host at Shi'-löh. ¹⁰And Joshua cast lots for them in Shi'-löh before the LORD. And Joshua divided the land unto the children of Israel there, according to their divisions.

¹¹And the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came up according to their families. And the border of their lot came forth between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph. ¹²And their border on the north side was from Jordan. And the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north side, and went up through the mountains westward. And the outer limits of it were at the wilderness of Bêth-â'-vên. ¹³And the border went over from there toward Luz, to the side of Luz, which is Bethel, southward. And the border went down to Āt'-ä-rôth-ä'-där, near the hill that lies on the south side of the lower Bêth-hôr'-ôn. ¹⁴And the border was drawn from there, and went around the corner of the sea southward, from the hill that is in front of Bêth-hôr'-ôn southward. And the outer limits of it were at Kîr'-jâth-bâ'-äl, which is Kîr'-jâth-jê'-ä-rîm, a city of the children of Judah. This was the west quarter. ¹⁵And the south quarter was from the end of Kîr'-jâth-jê'-ä-rîm, and the border went out on the west, and went out to the well of waters of Nêph-tô'-ä. ¹⁶And the border came down to the end of the mountain which is before the valley of the son of Hîn'-nôm, which is in the valley of the giants on the north, and went down to the valley of Hīn'-nōm, to the side of Jēb'-ū-sī on the south, and went down to Ēn-rō'-gēl. ¹⁷And it was drawn from the north and went forth to Ēn-shē'-mēsh, and went forth toward Gē-lī'-lōth, which is over against the going up of Ā-dūm'-mīm, and went down to the stone of Bō'-hān the son of Reuben, ¹⁸and passed along toward the side over against Ār'-ā-bāh northward, and went down to Ār'-ā-bā. ¹⁹And the border passed along to the side of Bēth-hōg'-lāh northward. And the outer limits of the border were at the north tongue of the salt sea, at the south end of Jordan. This was the south border. ²⁰And Jordan was the border of it on the east side.

This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, by the borders of it, round about, according to their families. ²¹Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho, and Bēth-hōg'-lāh, and the valley of Kē'-ziz, ²²and Bēth-ār'-ā-bāh, and Zēm-ā-rā'-īm, and Bethel, ²³and Ā'-vīm, and Pār'-āh, and Ōph'-rāh, ²⁴and Chē'-phār-hā-ām'-mō-naī, and Ōph'-nī, and Gā-bā — twelve cities with their villages — ²⁵Gibeon, and Rā'-māh, and Bēer'-ōth, ²⁶and Mīz'-pēh, and Chē'-phī'-rāh, and Mō'-zāh, ²⁷and Rē'-kēm, and Īr'-pēel, and Tār'-ā-lāh, ²⁸and Zē'-lāh, Ē'-lēph, and Jēb'-ū-sī, which is Jerusalem, Gīb'-ē-āth, and Kīr'-jāth — fourteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin according to their families.

¹And the second lot came forth to Simeon, for the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families. And their inheritance was inside the inheritance of the children of Judah. ²And they had in their inheritance Bēer-shē'-bā, or Shē'-bā, and Mō-lā'-dāh, ³and Hā'-zār-shū'-āl, and Bā'-lāh, and Ā'-zēm, ⁴and Ēl-tō'-lād, and Bēth'-ul, and Hōr'-māh, ⁵and Zik'-lāg, and Bēth-mār'-cā-bōth, and Hā'-zār-sū'-sāh, ⁶and Bēth-lē-bā'-ōth, and Shā-rū'-hēn — thirteen cities and their villages — ⁷Ā'-īn, Rēm'-mōn, and Ē'-thēr, and Āsh'-ān — four cities and their villages — ⁸and all the villages that were round about these cities to Bā'-ā-lāth-bēer, Rā'-māth of the south. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families. ⁹The inheritance of the children of Simeon was out of the portion of the children of Judah. For the part of the children of Judah was too much for them; therefore the children of Simeon had their inheritance within their inheritance.

¹⁰And the third lot came up for the children of Zē-bū'-lūn according to their families. And the border of their inheritance was to Sār'-īd. ¹¹And their border went up toward the sea, and Mār'-ā-lāh, and reached to Dāb'-bā-shēth, and reached to the river that is before Jōk'-nē-ām, ¹²and turned from Sār'-īd eastward toward the sunrise unto the border of Chīs'-lōth-tā'-bōr, and then goes out to Dāb'-ē-rāth, and goes up to Jā-phī'-ā, ¹³and from there it passes on along on the east to Gīt'-tāh-hē'-phēr, to Ī'-tāh-kā'-zīn, and goes out to Rēm'-mōn-mē-thō'-ār to Nē'-āh. ¹⁴And the border compasses it on the north side to Hān'-nā-thōn. And the outer limits of it are in the valley of Jīph'-thāh-ēl, ¹⁵and Kāt'-tāth, and Nā-hāl'-lāl, and Shīm'-rōn, and Ī'-dā-lāh, and Bethlehem — twelve cities with their villages. ¹⁶This is the inheritance of the children of Zē-bū'-lūn according to their families, these cities with their villages.

³²The sixth lot came out to the children of Nāph'-tā-lī, for the children of Nāph'-tā-lī according to their families. ³³And their border was from Hē'-lēph, from Āl'-lōn to Zā-ā-nān'-nim, and Ād'-ā-mī, Nē'-kēb, and Jāb'-nēel, unto Lakum. And the outer limits of it were at Jordan. ³⁴And then the border turns westward to Āz'-nōth-tā'-bōr, and goes out from there to Hūk'-kōk, and reaches to Zē-bū'-lūn on the south side, and reaches to Asher on the west side, and to Judah upon Jordan toward the sunrise. ³⁵And the fenced cities are Zīd'-dīm, Zer, and Hām'-māth, Rāk'-kāth, and Chīn'-nē-rēth, ³⁶and Ād'-ā-māh, and Rā'-māh, ³⁷and Hā'-zōr, and Kē'-dēsh, and Ēd'-rē-ī, and Ēn-hā'-zōr, ³⁸and Iron, and Mīg'-dāl-ēl, Hōr'-ēm, and Bēth'-ā-nāth, and Bēth-shē'-mēsh — nineteen cities with their villages. ³⁹This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Nāph'-tā-lī according to their families, the cities and their villages.

⁴⁰The seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families. ⁴¹And the border of their inheritance was Zôr'-äh, and Esh'-tä-öl, and Īr-shē'-mēsh, ⁴²and Shā-ä-läb'-bin, and Āj'-ä-lön, and Jēth'-läh, ⁴³and Ē'-lön, and Thīm'-nä-thäh, and Ēk'-rön, ⁴⁴and El'-tē-kēh, and Gib'-bē-thön, and Bā'-ä-läth, ⁴⁵and Jē'-hüd, and Bēn-ē-bē'-rāk, and Gāth-rīm'-mön, ⁴⁶and Mē-jär'-kön, and Rāk'-kön, with the border before Jā'-phō. ⁴⁷And the border of the children of Dan came out too little for them. Therefore the children of Dan went up to fight against Lē'-shēm, and took it, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and possessed it, and lived in it. And they called Lē'-shēm Dan, after the name of Dan their father. ⁴⁸This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

⁴⁹When they had made an end of dividing the land for inheritance by their borders, the children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun among them. ⁵⁰According to the word of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked, Tīm'-näth-sē'-räh in Mount Ē'-phrā-īm. And he built the city and lived in it. ⁵¹These are the inheritances which Ēl-ē-ä'-zär the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, divided for an inheritance by lot in Shī'-löh before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. So they made an end of dividing the country.

¹The LORD also spoke to Joshua saying, ²Speak to the children of Israel saying, Choose out cities of refuge for you, of which I spoke unto you by the hand of Moses — ³so that the slayer who kills any person through error, in ignorance, may flee there. And they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood. ⁴And when he that flees into one of those cities shall stand at the entrance to the gate of the city, and shall declare his cause to the elders of the city, they shall take him unto themselves into the city, and give him a place so that he may live among them. ⁵And if the avenger of blood comes after him, then they shall not deliver the slayer up into his hands — because he struck his neighbor in ignorance, and did not hate him before. ⁶And he shall dwell in that city until he stands before the congregation for judgment, until the death of the high priest that shall be in those days. Then shall the slayer return and come to his own city, and to his own house, unto the city from where he fled.

⁷And they chose Kē'-dēsh in Galilee in Mount Nāph'-tä-li, and Shē'-chēm in Mount Ē'-phrā-īm, and Kīr'-jäth-är'-bā, which is Hebron, in the mountain of Judah. ⁸And on the other side Jordan by Jericho eastward, they chose Bē'-zēr in the wilderness upon the plain out of the tribe of Reuben, and Rā'-mōth in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad, and Gō'-lān in Bā'-shān out of the tribe of Mā'-nās'-sēh. ⁹These were the cities chosen for all the children of Israel, and for the stranger that lives among them, so that whoever kills a person through error might flee there, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood until he could stand before the congregation.

¹Then the heads of the fathers of the Levites came near to Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the priest, and to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel. ²And they spoke to them at Shī'-lōh in the land of Canaan, saying, The LORD commanded by the hand of Moses to give us cities to live in, with the suburbs of them for our cattle. ³And the children of Israel gave to the Levites out of their inheritance, at the commandment of the LORD, these cities and their suburbs. ⁴And the lot came out for the families of the Kō'-hāth-ites. And the children of Aaron the priest, who were of the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, thirteen cities. ⁵And the rest of the children of Kō'-hāth had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ē'-phrā-īm and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Mā'-nās'-sēh, in Bā'-shān, ten cities. ⁶And the children of Gershon had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Is'-sā-chār, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Nāph'-tā-lī, and out of the half tribe of Mā'-nās'-sēh, in Bā'-shān, thirteen cities. ⁷The children of Mē-rār'-ī by their families had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zē-bū'-lūn, twelve cities. ⁸And the children of Israel gave by lot to the Levites these cities with their suburbs, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

⁹And they gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, these cities which are called by name, ¹⁰which the children of Aaron had, being of the families of the Kō'-hāth-ites, who were of the children of Levi. For theirs was the first lot. ¹¹And they gave them the city of Ār'-bā the father of Anak, which is Hebron, in the hill of Judah, with the suburbs of it round about it. ¹²But the fields of the city, and the villages of it, they gave to Caleb the son of Jē-phūn'-nēh for his own.

²⁰And the families of the children of Kō'-hāth, the Levites who were left of the children of Kō'-hāth, even they had the cities of their lot out of the tribe of Ē'-phrā-īm. ²¹For they gave them Shē'-chēm with its suburbs in Mount Ē'-phrā-īm as a city of refuge for the slayer, and Gē'-zēr with its suburbs, ²²and Kīb'-zā-īm with its suburbs, and Bēth-hōr'-ōn with its suburbs — four cities. ²³And out of the tribe of Dan, Ēl'-tē-kēh with its suburbs, Gīb'-bē-thōn with its suburbs, ²⁴Aī'-jā-lōn with its suburbs, Gāth-rīm'-mōn with its suburbs — four cities. ²⁵And out of the half tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh, Tā'-nāch with its suburbs, and Gāth-rīm'-mōn with its suburbs — two cities. ²⁶All the cities were ten cities with their suburbs for the families of the children of Kō'-hāth that were left.

²⁷And to the children of Gēr'-shōn, of the families of the Levites, out of the half tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh they gave Gō'-lān in Bā'-shān with its suburbs as a city of refuge for the slayer, and Bē-ēsh'-tē-rāh with its suburbs — two cities. ²⁸And out of the tribe of Īs'-sā-chār they gave Kī'-shōn with its suburbs, Dāb'-ā-rēh with its suburbs, ²⁹Jār'-mūth with its suburbs, Ēn-gān'-nīm with its suburbs — four cities. ³⁰And out of the tribe of Asher, Mī'-shāl with its suburbs, Abdon with its suburbs, ³¹Hēl'-kāth with its suburbs, Rē'-hōb with its suburbs — four cities. ³²And out of the tribe of Nāph'-tā-lī, Kē'-dēsh in Galilee with its suburbs as a city of refuge for the slayer, and Hām'-mōth-dōr with its suburbs, and Kār'-tān with its suburbs — three cities. ³³All the cities of the Gēr'-shōn-ites according to their families were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

³⁴And to the families of the children of Mē-rār'-ī, the rest of the Levites, out of the tribe of Zē-bū'-lūn they gave Jōk'-nē-ām with its suburbs, and Kār'-tāh with its suburbs, ³⁵Dim'-nāh with its suburbs, Nā'-hā-lāl with its suburbs — four cities. ³⁶And out of the tribe of Reuben, Bē'-zēr with its suburbs, and Jā'-hā'-zāh with its suburbs, ³⁷Kē'-dē-mōth with its suburbs, and Mēph'-ā-āth with its suburbs — four cities. ³⁸And out of the tribe of Gad, Rā'-mōth in Gilead with its suburbs, as a city of refuge for the slayer, and Mā-hā-nā'-īm with its suburbs, ³⁹Hēsh'-bōn with its suburbs, Jā'-zēr with its suburbs — four cities in all. ⁴⁰So all the cities for the children of Mē-rār'-ī by their families, those who were left of the families of the Levites, were by their lot twelve cities. ⁴¹All the cities of the Levites within the possession of the children of Israel were forty-eight cities with their suburbs. ⁴²These cities were every one with their suburbs around them. So were all these cities.

⁴³And the LORD gave to Israel all the land which He swore to give to their fathers. And they possessed it and lived in it. ⁴⁴And the LORD gave them rest round about, according to all that He swore unto their fathers, and not a man of all their enemies stood before them. The LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand. ⁴⁵There did not fail any good thing which the LORD had spoken to the house of Israel. All came to pass.

¹Then Joshua called the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh, ²and said to them, You have done all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you. ³You have not left your brothers these many days unto this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of the LORD your God. ⁴And now the LORD your God has given rest unto your brothers, as He promised them. Therefore now you return and go to your tents, unto the land of your possession which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side Jordan. ⁵But be careful to do the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of the LORD charged you, to love the LORD your God, and to walk in all His ways, and to keep His commandments, and to cleave unto Him, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul. ⁶So Joshua blessed them and sent them away. And they went to their tents.

⁷Now to the half tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh Moses had given land in Bā'-shān. But Joshua gave the other half land among their brothers on this side Jordan westward. And when Joshua sent them away also to their tents, then he blessed them. ⁸And he spoke to them, saying, Return with much riches to your tents, and with very much cattle, with silver, and with gold, and with brass, and with iron, and with very much clothing. Divide the spoil of your enemies with your brothers.

⁹And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh returned. And they departed from the children of Israel out of Shī'-lōh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the country of Gilead, to the land of their possession, of which they were possessed, according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses. ¹⁰And when they came to the borders of Jordan that are in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh built an altar there by Jordan, a great altar to look at. ¹¹And the children of Israel heard, Behold, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh have built an altar over against the land of Canaan, in the borders of Jordan, at the passage of the children of Israel. ¹²And when the children of Israel heard, the whole congregation of the children of Israel gathered themselves together at Shī'-lōh to go to war against them. ¹³And the children of Israel sent Phīn'-ē-hās the son of Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the priest unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh, into the land of Gilead. ¹⁴And with him went ten princes, a prince from each of the chief houses throughout all the tribes of Israel. And each one was a head of the house of their fathers among the thousands of Israel.

¹⁵And they came to the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh, to the land of Gilead, and they spoke with them saying, ¹⁶Thus says the whole congregation of the LORD: What trespass is this that you have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following the LORD, in that you have built an altar for you so that you might rebel this day against the LORD? ¹⁷Is the iniquity of Pē'-ôr too little for us, from which we have not been made clean until this day, although there was a plague in the congregation of the LORD — ¹⁸but must you turn away this day from following the LORD? You rebel today against the LORD, and tomorrow He will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel. ¹⁹Notwithstanding, if the land of your possession is unclean, pass over unto the land of the possession of the LORD in which the LORD's tabernacle dwells, and take possession among us. But do not rebel against the LORD nor rebel against us in building an altar for yourselves besides the altar of the LORD our God. ²⁰Did not Ā'-chān the son of Zē'-rāh commit a sin in the cursed thing, and did not wrath fall on all the congregation of Israel? And that man did not perish alone in his iniquity.

²¹Then the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh answered and said to the heads of the thousands of Israel, ²²The LORD God of gods, the LORD God of gods knows, and Israel shall know if it is in rebellion or in transgression against the LORD (do not save us this day), ²³that we have built us an altar to turn from following the LORD. Or if we have built an altar to offer on it burnt offering or meal offering, or if to offer peace offerings on it, let the LORD Himself require it. ²⁴And if we have not done it for fear of this thing, saying, In time to come your children might speak to our children, saying, What have you to do with the LORD God of Israel? ²⁵For the LORD has made Jordan a border between us and you, you children of Reuben and children of Gad. You have no part in the LORD. So your children shall make our children stop fearing the LORD. ²⁶Therefore we said, Let us now prepare to build us an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice, ²⁷but that it may be a witness between us and you, and our generations after us, so that we might do the service of the LORD before Him with our burnt offerings and with our sacrifices and with our peace offerings — so that your children may not say to our children in time to come, You have no part in the LORD. ²⁸Therefore we said that when they should say so to us or to our generations in time to come, that we may say, Behold the pattern of the altar of the LORD which our fathers made, not for burnt offerings nor for sacrifices — but it is a witness between us and you. ²⁹God forbid that we should rebel against the LORD and turn this day from following the LORD, to build an altar for burnt offerings, for meal offerings, or for sacrifices, besides the altar of the LORD our God that is before His tabernacle.

³⁰And when Phīn'-ē-hās the priest, and the princes of the congregation and heads of the thousands of Israel who were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the children of Mā-nās'-sēh spoke, it pleased them. ³¹And Phīn'-ē-hās the son of Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the priest said unto the children of Reuben and to the children of Gad and to the half tribe of Manasseh, This day we see that the LORD is among us, because you have not committed this sin against the LORD. Now you have delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the LORD. ³²And Phīn'-ē-hās the son of Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the priest, and the princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, to the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them word again. ³³And the thing pleased the children of Israel. And the children of Israel blessed God and did not intend to go up against them in battle, to destroy the land in which the children of Reuben and Gad lived. ³⁴And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad called the altar Ed — for it shall be a witness between us that the LORD is God.

¹After the LORD had given rest to Israel from all their enemies round about, it came to pass that Joshua became old and far gone in age. ²And Joshua called for all Israel, for their elders and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and said to them, I am old and far gone in age. ³And you have seen all that the LORD your God has done to all these nations because of you. For the LORD your God is He who has fought for you. ⁴Behold, I have divided to you by lot these nations that are left to be an inheritance for your tribes, from Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even to the great sea westward. ⁵And the LORD your God shall put them out from before you, and drive them out of your sight. And you shall possess their land, as the LORD your God has promised to you. ⁶Therefore be very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, so that you do not turn aside from it to the right hand or to the left — ⁷so that you do not come among these nations, these that remain among you — neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow yourselves unto them. ⁸But cleave unto the LORD your God, as you have done unto this day. ⁹For the LORD has driven out from before you great and strong nations. But as for you, no man has been able to stand before you unto this day. ¹⁰One man of you shall chase a thousand. For the LORD your God is He who fights for you, as He has promised you. ¹¹Therefore take good heed to yourselves that you love the LORD your God. ¹²Otherwise if you go back in any way, and hold to those left of these nations, these that remain among you, and shall marry them and go in to them and they to you, ¹³know for a certainty that the LORD your God will no more drive out these nations from before you. But they shall be snares and traps to you, and whips in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from off this good land which the LORD your God has given you.

¹⁴And behold, this day I am going the way of all the earth. And you know in all your hearts and in all your souls that not one thing has failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spoke concerning you. All have come to pass unto you. Not one thing of it has failed. ¹⁵Therefore it shall come to pass, as all things which the LORD your God promised you have come upon you – so shall the LORD bring upon you all evil things until He has destroyed you from off this good land which the LORD your God has given you. ¹⁶When you have broken the covenant of the LORD your God, which He commanded you, and have gone and served other gods, and bowed yourselves to them – then shall the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and you shall perish quickly from off the good land which He has given to you.

¹And Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shē'-chēm, and called for the elders of Israel, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers. And they presented themselves before God. ²And Joshua said to all the people, Thus says the LORD God of Israel, Your fathers lived on the other side of the flood in old times, Tē'-rāh the father of Abraham, and the father of Nā'-hôr, and they served other gods. ³And I took your father Abraham from the other side of the flood, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed and gave him Isaac. ⁴And I gave to Isaac Jacob and Esau. And I gave Esau Mount Sē'-ir for his own, but Jacob and his children went down to Egypt. ⁵I sent Moses also, and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did among them. And afterward I brought you out. ⁶And I brought your fathers out of Egypt. And you came to the sea, and the Egyptians followed after your fathers with chariots and horsemen unto the Red Sea. ⁷And when they cried to the LORD, He put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them and covered them. And your eyes have seen what I have done in Egypt. And you lived in the wilderness a long time. ⁸And I brought you into the land of the Amorites who lived on the other side Jordan. And they fought with you, and I gave them into your hand so that you might possess their land. And I destroyed them from before you.

⁹Then Bā'-lāk the son of Zīp'-pôr, king of Moab, arose and warred against Israel, and sent and called Balaam the son of Bē'-ôr to curse you. ¹⁰But I would not listen to Balaam. Therefore he still blessed you.

So I delivered you out of his hand. ¹¹And you went over Jordan and came to Jericho. And the men of Jericho fought against you, the Amorites, and the Pě-rîz'-zîtes, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Gîr'-gā-shîtes, the Hî'-vîtes, and the Jēb'-û-sîtes. And I delivered them into your hand. ¹²And I sent the hornet before you, which drove them out from before you, the two kings of the Amorites — not with your sword, nor with your bow. ¹³And I have given you a land for which you did not labor, and cities which you did not build, and you live in them — and you now eat of the vineyards and olive-yards which you did not plant.

¹⁴Now therefore fear the LORD, and serve Him in sincerity and truth. And put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt, and serve the LORD. ¹⁵And if it seems evil to you to serve the LORD, choose this day whom you will serve — whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you live. But as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD. ¹⁶And the people answered and said, God forbid that we should forsake the LORD to serve other gods. ¹⁷For the LORD our God is He who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. And He did those great wonders in our sight, and kept us in all our way in which we went and among all the people through whom we passed. ¹⁸And the LORD drove out from before us all the people, even the Amorites who lived in the land. Therefore we will also serve the LORD, for He is our God. ¹⁹And Joshua said to the people, You cannot serve the LORD, for He is a holy God. He is a jealous God. He will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins. ²⁰If you forsake the LORD and serve strange gods, then He will turn and do you harm, and destroy you after He has done you good. ²¹And the people said to Joshua, No, but we will serve the LORD. ²²And Joshua said to the people, You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen the LORD, to serve Him. And they said, We are witnesses. ²³Now therefore put away the strange gods which are among you, and incline your heart to the LORD God of Israel. ²⁴And the people said to Joshua, We will serve the LORD our God, and His voice we will obey. ²⁵So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and set them a statute and an ordinance in Shē'-chēm.

²⁶And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God, and took a great stone and set it up there under an oak which was by the sanctuary of the LORD. ²⁷And Joshua said to all the people, Behold, this stone shall be a witness to us, for it has heard all the words of the LORD which He spoke to us. It shall therefore be a witness to you, lest you deny your God. ²⁸So Joshua let the people depart, every man to his inheritance.

³²And the bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, they buried in Shē'-chēm, in a piece of ground which Jacob bought from the sons of Hā'-môr the father of Shē'-chēm for a hundred pieces of silver. And it became the inheritance of the children of Joseph. ³³And Ĕl-ē-ā'-zār the son of Aaron died. And they buried him in a hill belonging to Phīn'-ě-hās his son, which was given him in Mount Ē'-phrā-īm.

The Book of JUDGES

¹Now after the death of Joshua the children of Israel asked the LORD, saying, Who shall go up first for us against the Canaanites to fight against them? ²And the LORD said, Judah shall go up. Behold, I have delivered the land into his hand. ³And Judah said to Simeon his brother, Come up with me into my lot so that we may fight against the Canaanites. And I likewise will go with you into your lot. So Simeon went with him. ⁴And Judah went up. And the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Pě-riz'-zites into their hand. And they killed ten thousand men of them in Bě'-zěk. ⁵And they found Ād'-ō-nī-bě'-zěk in Bě'-zěk. And they fought against him, and they killed the Canaanites and the Pě-riz'-zites. ⁶But Ād'-ō-nī-bě'-zěk fled. And they ran after him and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his big toes. ⁷And Ād'-ō-nī-bě'-zěk said, Seventy kings with their thumbs and big toes cut off have gathered under my table. As I have done, so God has requited me. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there.

⁸Now the children of Judah had fought against Jerusalem, and had taken it, and had struck it with the edge of the sword, and had set the city on fire. ⁹And afterward the children of Judah went down to fight against the Cā'-nāan-ites who lived in the mountain, and in the south, and in the valley. ¹⁰And Judah went against the Canaanites who lived in Hebron. (Now the name of Hebron before was Kīr'-jāth-ār'-bā.) And they killed Shē'-shaī, and Ā-hī'-mān, and Tāl'-māi. ¹¹And from there he went against those who lived in Dē'-bīr. And the name of Dē'-bīr before was Kīr'-jāth-sē'-phēr. ¹²And Caleb said, He who strikes Kīr'-jāth-sē'-phēr and takes it, I will give Āch'-sāh my daughter to him for a wife. ¹³And Ōth'-nī-ēl, the son of Caleb's younger brother Kē'-nāz, took it. And he gave him Āch'-sāh his daughter for a wife. ¹⁴And when she came, she moved him to ask for a field from her father. And she dismounted from her ass. And Caleb said to her, What do you desire? ¹⁵And she said to him, Give me a blessing. For you have given me a south land. Give me also springs of water. And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

those who lived in the valley, because they had chariots of iron. ²⁰And they gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses said. And he put out the three sons of Anak from there. ²¹And the children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jēb'-ū-sītes who lived in Jerusalem. But the Jēb'-ū-sītes live with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem unto this day.

²²And the house of Joseph also went up against Bethel, and the LORD was with them. ²³And the house of Joseph sent to spy out Bethel. Now the name of the city before was Luz. ²⁴And the spies saw a man come forth out of the city, and they said to him, We pray you, show us the gate into the city, and we will show you mercy. ²⁵And when he showed them the gate into the city, they struck the city with the edge of the sword. But they let the man and all his family go. ²⁶And the man went into the land of the Hittites and built a city, and called the name of it Luz, which is the name of it until this day.

²⁷Neither did Mā-nās'-sēh drive out those who lived in Bēth-shē'-ān and its towns, nor Tā'-ā-nāch and its towns, nor those who lived in Dor and its towns, nor those who lived in Īb'-lē-ām and its towns, nor those who lived in Mē-gīd'-dō and its towns. But the Canaanites desired to stay in that land. ²⁸And it came to pass, when Israel was strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute, and did not completely drive them out. ²⁹Neither did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gē'-zēr, but the Canaanites lived in Gē'-zēr among them. ³⁰Neither did Zē-bū'-lūn drive out those who lived in Kīt'-rōn, nor those who lived in Nā'-hā-lōl. But the Canaanites lived among them and came to pay taxes to them. ³¹Neither did Asher drive out those who lived in Āc'-chō, nor Zī'-dōn, nor of Āh'-lāb, nor of Ach'-zīb, nor of Hēl'-bāh, nor of Ā'-phīk, nor of Rē'-hōb – ³²but the Asherites lived among the Canaanites, those who lived in the land, for they did not drive them out.

³³Neither did Nāph'-tā-lī drive out those who lived in Bēth-shē'-mēsh, nor those who lived in Bēth'-ā-nāth. But lived among the Canaanites, those who lived in the land. Nevertheless those who lived in Bēth-shē'-mēsh and Bēth'-ā-nāth came to pay taxes to them.

³⁴And the Amorites forced the children of Dan into the mountain. For they would not allow them to come down to the valley. ³⁵But the Amorites desired to stay in Mount Hē'-rēs in Aī'-jā-lōn, and in Shā-āl'-bīm. Yet the hand of the house of Joseph won out so that they came to pay taxes. ³⁶And the border of the Amorites was from the going up to Āk-rāb'-bīm, from the rock and upward.

¹And an Angel of the LORD came up from Gīl'-gāl to Bō'-chīm, and said, I made you go up out of Egypt, and have brought you into the land which I swore unto your fathers. And I said, I will never break

My covenant with you. ²And you shall make no treaty with those who live in this land. You shall throw down their altars. But you have not obeyed My voice. Why have you done this? ³Therefore I also said, I will not drive them out from before you, but they shall be thorns in your sides, and their gods shall be a snare to you. ⁴And when the Angel of the LORD spoke these words to all the children of Israel, the people lifted up their voices and wept. ⁵And they called the name of that place Bō'-chīm. And they sacrificed there unto the LORD.

⁶And when Joshua had let the people go, the children of Israel left, each man to his inheritance, to possess the land. ⁷And the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works of the LORD that He did for Israel. ⁸And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being a hundred and ten years old. ⁹And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Tīm'-nāth-hē'-rēs, in the mount of Ē'-phrā-īm, on the north side of the hill Gā'-āsh. ¹⁰And also all that generation were gathered unto their fathers. And there arose another generation after them who did not know the LORD, nor even the works which He had done for Israel.

²⁰And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel. And He said, Because this people has broken My covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not listened to My voice, ²¹I also will not from now on drive out from before them any of the nations which Joshua left when he died, ²²so that through them I may prove Israel, whether they will keep the way of the LORD to walk in it, as their fathers kept it, or not. ²³Therefore the LORD left those nations, without driving them out quickly. Neither did He deliver them into the hand of Joshua.

¹Now these are the nations which the LORD left, to prove Israel by them, as many as had not known all the wars of Canaan — ²only that the generations of the children of Israel might know, to teach them war, at the least those who before knew nothing of it — ³five lords of the Phī-līs'-tines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sī-dō'-nī-āns, and the Hī'-vites that lived in Mount Lēb'-ā-nōn, from Mount Bā'-āl-hēr'-mon to the border of Hā'-māth. ⁴And they were to prove Israel by them, to know whether they would listen to the commandments of the LORD, which He commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses. ⁵And the children of Israel lived among the Canaanites, Hīt'-tites, and Amorites, and Pē-rīz'-zītes, and Hī'-vites, and Jēb'-ū-sites. ⁶And they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons, and served their gods. ⁷And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD and forgot the LORD their God, and served Bā'-ā-līm and the groves. ⁸Therefore the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and He sold them into the hands of Chū'-shān-rīsh-ā-thā'-īm, king of Mēs-ō-pō-tā'-mī-ā. And the children of Israel served Chū'-shān-rīsh-ā-thā'-īm eight years. ⁹And when the children of Israel cried to the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer to the children of Israel, who delivered them, Ōth'-nī-ēl, the son of Galeb's younger brother Kē'-nāz. ¹⁰And the spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel and went out to war. And the LORD delivered Chū'-shān-rīsh-ā-thā'-īm, king of Mēs-ō-pō-tā'-mī-ā, into his hand. And his hand prevailed against Chū'-shān-rīsh-ā-thā'-īm. ¹¹And the land had rest forty years. And Ōth'-nī-ēl the son of Kē'-nāz died.

¹²And the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD. And the LORD made Ēg'-lōn the king of Moab strong against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of the LORD. ¹³And he gathered unto him the children of Ammon and Ām'-ā-lēk. And he went forth and struck Israel, and took the city of palm trees. ¹⁴So the children of Israel served Ēg'-lōn the king of Moab eighteen years. ¹⁵But when the children of Israel cried to the LORD, the LORD raised them up a deliverer, Ē'-hūd the son of Gē'-rā, a Benjamite, a left-handed man. And the children of Israel sent a present to Ēg'-lōn the king of Moab by him. ¹⁶But Ē'-hūd made himself a dagger which had two edges, a cubit long. And he tied it under his clothing upon his right thigh. ¹⁷And he brought the present to Ēg'-lōn king of Moab. And Ēg'-lōn was a very fat man. ¹⁸And when he had finished offering the present, he sent away the people who carried the present. ¹⁹But he himself turned again from the graven images that were by Gīl'-gāl, and said, I have a secret message for you, O king. And he said, Keep silence. And all that stood by him went out from him. ²⁰And Ē'-hūd came to him. And he was sitting in a summer room which he had for himself alone. And Ē'-hūd said, I have a message from God to you. And he rose out of his seat. ²¹And Ē'-hūd put forth his left hand and took the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly. ²²And the haft also went in after the blade. And the fat closed upon the blade, so that he could not draw the dagger out of his belly. And the dung came out. ²³Then Ehud went forth through the porch, and shut the doors of the room upon him, and locked them. ²⁴When he had gone out, his servants came. And when they saw that, behold, the doors of the parlor were locked, they said, Surely he eases himself in his summer room. ²⁵And they stayed until they were ashamed. And, behold, he did not open the doors of the room. Therefore they took a key and opened them. And behold, their lord had fallen down dead on the earth.

²⁶And Ehud escaped while they waited, and passed beyond the graven images, and escaped to Sē-ī'-rāth. ²⁷And when he had come, he blew a trumpet in the mountain of Ē'-phrā-īm, and the children of Israel went down with him from the mountain, and he before them. ²⁸And he said to them, Follow after me. For the LORD has delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand. And they went down after him and took the fords of Jordan toward Moab, and did not allow a man to pass over. ²⁹And they killed about ten thousand of the men of Moab at that time, all lusty, and all men of might. And there did not escape a man. ³⁰So Moab was put under the hand of Israel that day. And the land had rest eighty years.

³¹And after him was Shām'-gār the son of Ā'-nāth, who killed six hundred men of the Phī-līs'-tīnes with an ox goad. And he also delivered Israel.

¹And the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD when Ehud was dead. ²And the LORD sold them into the hand of Jā'-bīn king of Canaan, who ruled in Hā'-zōr. The captain of his host was Sis'-ē-rā, who lived in Hā-rō'-shēth of the Gentiles. ³And the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, for he had nine hundred chariots of iron. And he strongly pressed down the children of Israel twenty years.

¹⁸And Jā'-ēl went out to meet Sīs'-ē-rā, and said to him, Turn in my lord, turn in to me. Do not fear. When he had turned in unto her into the tent, she covered him with a rug. ¹⁹And he said to her, I pray you, give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty. And she opened a bottle of milk and gave him a drink, and covered him. ²⁰Again he said to her, Stand in the door of the tent, and when any man comes asking of you, saying, Is there any man here? You shall say, No. ²¹Then Jā'-ēl, Hē'-bēr's wife, took a nail of the tent and put a hammer in her hand, and went softly to him, and struck the nail into his temples, and fastened it into the ground. For he was fast asleep and weary. So he died. ²²And behold, as Bâr'-āk followed Sīs'-ē-rā, Jā'-ēl came out to meet him and said to him, Come and I will show you the man whom you seek. And when he came into her tent, behold, Sīs'-ē-rā lay dead, and the nail was in his temples. ²³So on that day God subdued Jā'-bin the king of Canaan before the children of Israel. ²⁴And the hand of the children of Israel prospered, and prevailed against Jā'-bin the king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jā'-bin king of Canaan.

¹Then Dēb'-ō-rāh and Bâr'-āk the son of Ā-bīn'-ō-ām sang on that day, saying, ²Praise the LORD for the avenging of Israel, when the people willingly offered themselves. ³Hear, O kings. Give ear, O princes. I, even I, will sing unto the LORD I will sing to the LORD God of Israel. ⁴LORD, when Thou didst go out of Sē'-ir, when Thou didst march out of the field of Edōm, the earth trembled and the heavens dropped, the clouds also dropped water. ⁵The mountains melted from before the LORD, even that Sinai from before the LORD God of Israel. ⁶In the days of Shām'-gār the son of Ā'-nāth, in the days of Jā'-ēl, the highways were empty, and the travelers walked through crooked ways. ⁷*Those who lived in* the villages disappeared, they disappeared in Israel, until I Deborah arose, until I arose, a mother in Israel. ⁸They chose new gods; then war was in the gates. Was there a shield or spear seen among forty thousand in Israel? ⁹My heart is toward the governors of Israel who offered themselves willingly among the people. Bless the LORD. ¹⁰Speak, you who ride on asses, you who sit in judgment and walk by the way. ¹¹*They that are delivered* from the noise of archers in the places of drawing water, there shall they tell again the righteous acts of the LORD, the righteous acts toward those who live in His villages in Israel. Then shall the people of the LORD go down to the gates. ¹²Awake, awake, Deborah. Awake, awake, sing a song. Arise, Barak, lead your captivity captive, you son of Ā-bīn'-ō-ām. ¹³Then He made him who remains to have dominion over the nobles among the people. The LORD made me have dominion over the mighty. ¹⁴Out of Ē'-phrā-īm there was a root of them against Ām'-ā-lēk — after you, Benjamin, among your people. Out of Mā'-chir came down governors, and out of Zē-bū'-lūn came they who handle the pen of the writer.

¹⁵And the princes of Īs'-sā-chār were with Deborah — even Īs'-sā-chār, and also Barak. He was sent on foot into the valley. There were great thoughts of heart for the divisions of Reuben. ¹⁶Why did you stay among the sheep-folds to hear the bleating of the flocks? For in the divisions of Reuben there were great searchings of heart. ¹⁷Gilead stayed beyond Jordan. And why did Dan remain in ships? Asher continued on the sea-shore and remained in his creeks. ¹⁸Zē-bū'-lūn and Nāph'-tā-li were a people who put their lives in danger of death in the high places of the field. ¹⁹The kings came and fought. Then the kings of Canaan fought in Tā'-ā-nāch by the waters of Mē-gīd'-dō. They took no gain of money. ²⁰They fought from heaven; the stars in their courses fought against Sis'-ē-rā. ²¹The river of Kī'-shōn swept them away, that ancient river, the river Kī'-shōn. O my soul, go marching on with strength. ²²Then were the horse-hoofs broken by means of the gallopings, the gallopings of their mighty ones. ²³Curse Mē'-rōz, said the Angel of the LORD; curse the people of it bitterly, because they did not come to the help of the LORD, to the help of the LORD against the mighty. ²⁴Blessed among women shall Jā'-ēl the wife of Hē'-bēr the Kē'-nīte be. She shall be blessed above women in the tent. ²⁵He asked water, and she gave him milk. She brought forth butter in a lordly dish. ²⁶She put her hand to the nail, and her right hand to the workman's hammer. With the hammer she struck Sis'-ē-rā. She struck off his head, when she had pierced and struck through his temples. ²⁷He bowed between her feet, he fell, he lay down. Where he bowed, there he fell down dead. ²⁸The mother of Sis'-ē-rā looked out a window, and cried through the lattice, Why is his chariot so long in coming? Why do the wheels of his chariot wait? ²⁹Her wise ladies answered her, yea, she returned answer to herself, ³⁰Have they not found success? Have they not divided the spoil? To every man a girl or two, to Sis'-ē-rā a prize of many colors, a prize of many colors of needle-work, of many colors of needle-work on both sides, fit for the necks of those that take the spoil. ³¹So let all Thy enemies perish, O LORD. But let them that love Him be like the sun when He goes forth in His might.

And the land had rest forty years.

¹And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD. And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Midian seven years. ²And the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel. Because of the hand of the Midianites, the children of Israel made themselves the dens which are in the mountains, and caves and strong-holds. ³And so it was, when Israel had sown, that the Midianites came up, and the Ā-māl'-ēk-ītes, and the children of the east, even they came up against them. ⁴And they camped against them and destroyed the increase of the earth, until you come to Gā'-zā. And they left no food for Israel, neither sheep nor ox nor ass. ⁵For they came up with their cattle and their tents, and they came as grasshoppers for multitude — both they and their camels were without number. And they entered into the land to destroy it. ⁶And Israel was made very poor because of the Mīd'-i-ā-nītes. And the children of Israel cried unto the LORD.

⁷And when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD because of the Mīd'-i-ā-nītes, ⁸the LORD sent a prophet unto the children of Israel, who said unto them, Thus says the LORD God of Israel: I brought you up from Egypt and brought you forth out of the house of bondage. ⁹And I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all who oppressed you, and drove them out from before you and gave you their land. ¹⁰And I said unto you, I am the LORD your God — do not fear the gods of the Amorites in whose land you live. But you have not obeyed My voice.

¹¹And there came an Angel of the LORD and sat under an oak which was in Oph'-rah, which belonged to Jō'-āsh the Ā'-bī-ēz'-rite. And his son Gīd'-ē-ōn threshed wheat by the wine-press, to hide it from the Midianites. ¹²And the Angel of the LORD appeared to him, and said to him, The LORD is with you, you mighty man of power. ¹³And Gīd'-ē-ōn said to Him, O my Lord, if the LORD is with us, why then has all this happened to us? And where are all His miracles which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt? But now the LORD has forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Mīd'-ī-ā-nītes. ¹⁴And the LORD looked upon him and said, Go in your might, and you shall save Israel from the hand of the Mīd'-ī-ā-nītes. Have I not sent you? ¹⁵And he said to him, O my Lord, with what shall I save Israel? Behold, my family is poor in Mā-nās'-sēh, and I am the least in my father's house. ¹⁶And the LORD said to him, Surely I will be with you, and you shall strike the Mīd'-ī-ā-nītes as one man. ¹⁷And he said to Him, If now I have found grace in Thy sight, then show me a sign that Thou dost talk with me. ¹⁸Do not depart from here, I pray, until I come unto Thee, and bring forth my meal offering and set it before Thee. And He said, I will stay until you come again.

¹⁹And Gideon went in and made ready a kid and unleavened cakes of an ē'-phāh of flour. He put the flesh in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out to Him unto the oak, and presented it. ²⁰And the Angel of God said to him, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes and lay them on this rock, and pour out the broth. And he did so. ²¹Then the Angel of the LORD put forth the end of the staff that was in His hand and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes. And there rose up fire out of the rock and burned up the flesh and the unleavened cakes. Then the Angel of the LORD went away out of his sight. ²²And when Gideon saw that he was an Angel of the LORD, Gideon said, Alas, O Lord GOD! Because I have seen an Angel of the LORD face to face. ²³And the LORD said to him, Peace be unto you. Do not fear. You shall not die. ²⁴Then Gideon built an altar there unto the LORD, and called it Jehovah-shalom. It is yet in Oph'-rah of the Ā'-bī-ēz'-rites unto this day.

²⁵And the same night the LORD said to him, Take your father's young bull, even the second bull of seven years, and throw down the altar of Bā'-āl which your father has, and cut down the grove that is by it. ²⁶And build an altar unto the LORD your God upon the top of this rock, in an orderly manner, and take the second bull and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the grove which you shall cut down. ²⁷Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had said unto him. And so it was, because he feared his father's household and the men of the city, that he could not do it by day. So he did it by night. ²⁸And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was cast down, and the grove which was by it was cut down, and the second bull had been offered upon the altar that was built. ²⁹And they said to one another, Who has done this thing? And when they inquired and asked, they said, Gideon the son of Jō-āsh has done this thing. ³⁰Then the men of the city said to Joash, Bring out your son so that he may die, because he has cast down the altar of Baal, and because he had cut down the grove which was by it. ³¹And Joash said to all that stood against him, Will you plead for Baal? Will you save him? He that will plead for him, let him be put to death while it is still morning. If he is a god, let him plead for himself, because one has cast down his altar. ³²Therefore on that day he called him Jēr-üb-bā'-āl, saying, Let Baal plead against him because he has thrown down his altar.

³³Then all the Mid'-i-ā-nītes and the Ā-māl'-ēk-ītes and the children of the east were gathered together, and went over and pitched in the valley of Jēz'-rēel. ³⁴But the spirit of the LORD came unto Gideon, and he blew a trumpet. And Ā'-bī-ē'-zēr was gathered after him. ³⁵And he sent messengers throughout all Mā-nās'-sēh, who also were gathered after him. And he sent messengers to Asher, and to Zē-bū'-lūn, and to Nāph'-tā-lī. And they came up to meet them.

³⁶And Gideon said to God, If Thou wilt save Israel by my hand, as Thou hast said, ³⁷Behold, I will put a fleece of wool in the floor. And if the dew is on the fleece only, and dry upon all the earth, then I shall know that Thou wilt save Israel by my hand, as Thou hast said. ³⁸And it was so. For he rose up early in the morning and gathered the fleece together, and wrung the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water. ³⁹And Gideon said to God, Let not Thy anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once. I pray Thee, let me test but this once with the fleece. Let it now be dry only upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew. ⁴⁰And God did so that night. For it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

¹Then Jēr-üb-bā'-āl, who is Gideon, and all the people that were with him, rose up early and pitched beside the well of Hār'-ōd — so that the army of the Midianites was on the north side of them, by the hill of Mō'-rēh, in the valley. ²And the LORD said to Gideon, The people who are with you are too many for Me to give the Mīd'-ī-ā-nītes into their hands, lest Israel boast themselves against Me, saying, My own hand has saved me. ³Now therefore, speak in the ears of the people, saying, Whoever is fearful and afraid, let him return and go away early from Mount Gilead. And twenty-two thousand of the people returned. And there remained ten thousand. ⁴And the LORD said to Gideon, The people are still too many. Bring them down to the water, and I will separate them for you there. It shall be that of whom I say to you, This shall go with you, the same shall go with you. And of whomever I say to you, This shall not go with you, the same shall not go. ⁵So he brought down the people to the water. And the LORD said to Gideon, Everyone who laps the water with his tongue, like a dog laps, you shall set him by himself. Likewise everyone who bows down upon his knees to drink. ⁶And the number of them who lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, was three hundred men. But all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink water. ⁷And the LORD said unto Gideon, I will save you by the three hundred men who lapped, and will deliver the Mīd'-ī-ā-nītes into your hand. And let all the other people go, each man to his place. ⁸So the people took provisions in their hand, and their trumpets. And he sent away all the rest of Israel, each man to his tent, and kept those three hundred men. And the army of Midian was below him in the valley.

⁹And the same night the LORD said to him, Arise, go down to the army, for I have delivered it into your hand. ¹⁰But if you fear to go down, go with Phū'-rāh your servant down to the army. ¹¹And you shall hear what they shall say. And afterward your hands shall be strengthened to go down to the army. Then he went down with Phū'-rāh his servant to the outside of the armed men who were in the army. ¹²And the Midianites and the Ā-māl'-ēk-ites, and all the children of the east lay along in the valley like grasshoppers for multitude. And their camels were without number, like the sand by the seaside for multitude. ¹³And when Gideon had come, behold, there was a man who told a dream to his fellow, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and lo, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the host of Midian, and came to a tent, and struck it so that it fell, and overturned it, so that the tent lay along. ¹⁴And his fellow answered and said, This is nothing else except the sword of Gideon the son of Jō'-āsh, a man of Israel. For into his hand God has delivered Midian and all the army.

¹⁵And when Gideon heard the telling of the dream and the meaning of it, he worshipped. And he returned to the army of Israel, and said, Arise! For the LORD has delivered the host of Midian into your hand. ¹⁶And he divided the three hundred men into three companies. And he put a trumpet in every man's hand, with empty pitchers, and torches inside the pitchers. ¹⁷And he said to them, Look on me, and do likewise. And, behold, when I come to the outside of the camp, as I do, so you shall do. ¹⁸When I blow with a trumpet, I and all who are with me, then you blow the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, say, The sword of the LORD and of Gideon.

¹⁹So Gideon and the hundred men that were with him came to the outside of the camp in the beginning of the middle watch. And they had but newly set the watch. And they blew the trumpets and broke the pitchers that were in their hands. ²⁰And the three companies blew the trumpets and broke the pitchers and held the torches in their left hands and the trumpets in their right hands to blow. And they cried, The sword of the LORD and of Gideon! ²¹And they stood, each man in his place, all around the camp. And all the army ran, and cried, and fled. ²²And the three hundred blew the trumpets. And the LORD set every man's sword against his fellow, even throughout all the army. And the army fled to Bēth-shīt-tāh in Zēr'-ē-rāth, to the border of Ā'-bēl-mē-hō'-lāh, unto Tāb'-bāth. ²³And the men of Israel gathered themselves together out of Nāph'-tā-li, and out of Asher, and out of all Mā-nās'-sēh, and ran after the Midianites. ²⁴And Gideon sent messengers throughout all Mount Ē'-phrā-īm, saying, Come down against the Midianites, and take the waters to Bēth-bār'-āh and Jordan before them. Then all the men of Ē'-phrā-īm gathered themselves together and took the waters to Bēth-bār'-āh and Jordan. ²⁵Then they took two princes of the Midianites, Ōr'-ēb and Zēeb. And they killed Ōr'-ēb upon the rock Ōr'-ēb, and they killed Zēeb at the wine-press of Zēeb. And they pursued Midian and brought the heads of Ōr'-ēb and Zēeb to Gideon on the other side Jordan.

¹And the men of Ē'-phrā-īm said unto him, Why have you served us this way, that you did not call us when you went to fight with the Midianites? And they rebuked him sharply. ²And he said to them, What have I done now in comparison to you? Is not the gleaning of the grapes of Ē'-phrā-īm better than the vintage of Ā'-bī-ē'-zēr? ³God has delivered into your hands the princes of Midian, Ōr'-ēb and Zēeb. And what was I able to do in comparison to you? Then their anger toward him went away when he had said that.

⁴And Gideon came to Jordan and passed over, he and the three hundred men that were with him, faint, yet pursuing them. ⁵And he said to the men of Succoth, I pray you, give loaves of bread to the people who follow me. For they are faint, and I am running after Zē'-bāh and Zāl-mūn'-nā, kings of Midian. ⁶And the princes of Succoth said, Are the hands of Zē'-bāh and Zāl-mūn'-nā now in your hand, so that we should give bread to your army? ⁷And Gideon said, Therefore when the LORD has delivered Zē'-bāh and Zāl-mūn'-nā into my hand, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briars.

⁸And he went up from there to Pēn'-ū-ēl, and spoke to them likewise. And the men of Pēn'-ū-ēl answered him like the men of Succoth had answered him. ⁹And he spoke also to the men of Pēn'-ū-ēl, saying, When I come again in peace, I will break down this tower.

¹³And Gideon the son of Joash returned from battle before the sun was up. ¹⁴And he caught a young man of the men of Succoth and asked of him. And he described to him the princes of Succoth, and the elders of it, seventy-seven men. ¹⁵And he came to the men of Succoth and said, Behold, Zē'-bāh and Zāl-mūn'-nā, with whom you rebuked me, saying, Are the hands of Zē'-bāh and Zāl-mūn'-nā now in your hand so that we should give bread unto your men who are weary? ¹⁶And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he taught the men of Succoth. ¹⁷And he beat down the tower of Pēn'-ū-ēl, and killed the men of the city.

¹⁸Then he said to Zē'-bāh and Zāl-mūn'-nā, What kind of men were they who you slew at Tā'-bôr? And they answered, As you are, so they were. Each one resembled the children of a king. ¹⁹And he said, They were my brothers, the sons of my mother. As the LORD lives, if you had saved them alive, I would not kill you. ²⁰And he said to Jē'-thēr his first-born, Up! Kill them! But the youth did not draw his sword, for he feared, because he was still a youth. ²¹Then said Zē'-bāh and Zāl-mūn'-nā, Rise and fall upon us. For as the man is, so is his strength. And Gideon arose and slew Zē'-bāh and Zāl-mūn'-nā, and took away the ornaments which were on their camels' necks.

²²Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, Rule over us, both you and your son, and your son's son also. For you have delivered us from the hand of Midian. ²³And Gideon said to them, I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you. The LORD shall rule over you.

²⁴And Gideon said to them, I would desire a favor of you, that each man of you would give me the earrings of his prey. (For they had golden earrings, because they were Ish'-mā-ē-lites.) ²⁵And they answered, We will gladly give. And they spread a cloth, and each man threw the earrings of his prey in it. ²⁶And the weight of the golden earrings which he asked for was seventeen hundred shekels of gold, besides ornaments, and collars, and purple clothing that was on the kings of Midian, and besides the chains that were around their camels' necks. ²⁷And Gideon made an ē'-phōd of it, and put it in his city, in Ōph'-rāh. And all Israel went there lusting after it, which thing became a snare to Gideon and to his house.

²⁸So Midian was put down before the children of Israel, so that they lifted up their heads no more. And the country was in quietness forty years in the days of Gideon.

²⁹And Jēr-üb-bā'-āl the son of Jō'-āsh went and lived in his own house. ³⁰And Gideon had seventy sons, begotten of his body. For he had many wives. ³¹And his concubine, who was in Shechem, also bore him a son whose name he called Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch. ³²And Gideon the son of Jō'-āsh died in a good old age, and was buried in the tomb of Jō'-āsh his father, in Ōph'-rāh of the Ā'-bī-ēz'-rites. ³³And as soon as Gideon was dead, the children of Israel turned again and went lusting after Bā'-ā-līm, and made Bā'-āl-bē'-rīth their god. ³⁴And the children of Israel did not remember the LORD their God, who had delivered them out of the hands of all their enemies on every side. ³⁵Neither did they show kindness to the house of Jēr-üb-bā'-āl, Gideon, according to all the goodness which he had shown to Israel.

¹And Ā-bīm'-ē-lech the son of Jēr-üb-bā'-āl went to Shechem unto his mother's brothers. And he talked with them and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying, ²I pray you, speak in the ears of all the men of Shechem — which is better for you, either that all the sons of Jēr-üb-bā'-āl, seventy persons, reign over you, or that one reign over you? Remember also that I am your bone and your flesh. ³And his mother's brothers spoke of him in the ears of all the men of Shechem with all these words. And their hearts were bent toward Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch, for they said, He is our brother. ⁴And they gave him seventy pieces of silver out of the house of Bā'-āl-bē'-rīth, with which Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch hired vain and light persons who followed him. ⁵And he went to his father's house at Ōph'rāh, and killed his brothers the sons of Jēr-üb-bā'-āl, seventy persons, upon one stone. But Jō'-thām, the youngest son of Jēr-üb-bā'-āl, was still left—for he hid himself. And all the men of Shechem gathered together, and all the house of Mil'-lō. And they went forth and made Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch king beside the plain of the pillar that was in Shechem.

⁷And when they told it to Jō'-thām, he went and stood in the top of mount Gē-rī'-zīm. And he lifted up his voice and cried, and said to them, Listen to me, men of Shechem, so that God may listen to you. ⁸The trees went forth to anoint a king over them. And they said to the olive tree, Reign over us. ⁹But the olive tree said to them, Should I leave my fatness with which they honor God and man by me, and go to be promoted over the trees? ¹⁰And the trees said to the fig tree, You come and reign over us. ¹¹But the fig tree said to them, Should I forsake my sweetness and my good fruit, and go to be promoted over the trees? ¹²Then the trees said to the vine, You come and reign over us. ¹³And the vine said to them, Should I leave my wine, which cheers God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees? ¹⁴Then all the trees said to the bramble-bush, You come and reign over us. ¹⁵And the bramble-bush said to the trees, If you truly anoint me king over you, come put your trust in my shadow. And if not, let fire come out of the bramble and burn up the cedars of Lēb'-ā-nōn.

¹⁶Now then, if you have done truly and sincerely in that you have made Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch king, and if you have dealt well with Jēr-üb-bā'-āl and his house, and have done to him according to what his hands deserve — ¹⁷for my father fought for you and much endangered his life, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian. ¹⁸And you have risen up against my father's house today, and have killed his sons, seventy persons, upon one stone, and have made Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch, the son of his maid-servant, king over the men of Shē'-chēm, because he is your brother — ¹⁹if you then have dealt truly and sincerely with Jēr-üb-bā'-āl and with his house this day, then rejoice in Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch, and let him also rejoice in you. ²⁰But if not, let fire come out from Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch and burn up the men of Shechem and the house of Mīl'-lō. And let fire come out from the men of Shechem, and from the house of Mīl'-lō, and burn up Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch. ²¹And Jō'-thām ran away and fled, and went to Bēer, and lived there for fear of Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch his brother.

²²When Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch had reigned three years over Israel, ²³then God sent an evil spirit between Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch and the men of Shechem. And the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch — ²⁴so that the cruelty done to the seventy sons of Jēr-üb-bā'-āl might come, and their blood be laid upon Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch their brother, who killed them, and upon the men of Shechem who helped him in the killing of his brothers. ²⁵And the men of Shechem set men lying in wait for him in the top of the mountains, and they robbed all that came along that way by them. And it was told to Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch. ²⁶And Gā'-āl the son of Ē'-bēd came with his brothers, and went over to Shechem. And the men of Shechem put their confidence in him. ²⁷And they went out into the fields and gathered their vineyards and trod the grapes, and made merry, and went into the house of their god, and ate and drank, and cursed Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch. ²⁸And Gā'-āl the son of Ebed said, Who is Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is not he the son of Jēr-üb-bā'-āl? And is not Zē'būl his officer? Serve the men of Hā'-môr the father of Shechem: for why should we serve him? ²⁹And I wish this people were under my hand! Then I would remove Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch. And he said to Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch, Increase your army, and come out!

³⁰And when Zē'-būl the ruler of the city heard the words of Gā'-āl the son of Ebed, his anger was kindled. ³¹And he sent messengers to Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch secretly, saying, Behold, Gā'-āl the son of Ebed and his brothers have come to Shechem. And behold, they fortify the city against you. ³²Now therefore come up by night, you and the people who are with you, and lie in wait in the field. ³³And in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, it shall be that you shall rise early and set upon the city. And behold, when he and the people who are with him come out against you, you may do to them as you desire. ³⁴And Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch rose up, and all the people who were with him, by night, and they lay in wait against Shechem in four companies.

³⁵And Gā'-āl the son of Ebed went out and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city. And Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch rose up, and the people who were with him, from lying in wait. ³⁶And when Gā'-āl saw the people, he said to Zē'-būl, behold, there are people coming 'down from the top of the mountains. And Zē'-būl said to him, You are seeing the shadow of the mountains as if they were men. ³⁷And Gā'-āl spoke again and said, See, there are people coming down by the middle of the land, and another company coming along by the plain of Mē-ō'-nē-nīm. ³⁸Then Zē'-būl said to him, Where is your mouth now, with which you said, Who is Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch, that we should serve him? Is not this the people whom you have despised? I pray you, go out now and fight with them. ³⁹And Gā'-āl went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch. ⁴⁰And Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch chased him, and he fled before him, and many were overthrown and wounded, unto the entrance of the gate. ⁴¹And Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch lived at Ā-rú'-māh. And Zē'-būl put Gā'-āl and his brothers out, so that they should not live in Shechem. ⁴²And on the next day the people went out into the field. And they told Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch. ⁴³And he took the people and divided them into three companies, and lay in wait in the field. And they looked, and behold, the people came forth out of the city. And he rose up against them, and struck them. ⁴⁴And Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch and the company who were with him rushed forward and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city. And the two companies ran upon all the people who were in the field, and killed them. ⁴⁵And Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch fought against the city all that day. And he took the city and killed the people who were in it. And he beat down the city and sowed it with salt.

⁴⁶And when all the men of the tower of Shechem heard, they entered into a stronghold of the house of the god Bē'-rith. ⁴⁷And it was told Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together. ⁴⁸And Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch went up to Mount Zāl'-mōn, he and all the people that were with him. And Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch took an axe in his hand, and cut down a limb from the trees, and took it and laid it on his shoulder, and said to the people who were with him, What you have seen me do, hurry and do as I have done. ⁴⁹And all the people likewise cut down a limb for themselves, and followed Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch. And they put them to the stronghold, and set the hold on fire upon them — so that all the men of the tower of Shechem died also, about a thousand men and women.

⁵⁰Then Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch went to Thē'-bēz, and camped against Thē'-bēz, and took it. ⁵¹But there was a strong tower inside the city, and all the men and women, and all those of the city fled there, and shut it up to themselves, and got up to the top of the tower. ⁵²And Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch came to the tower and fought against it, and went hard to the door of the tower to burn it with fire. ⁵³And a certain woman threw a piece of a millstone upon Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch's head, and completely broke his skull. ⁵⁴Then he called hastily to the young man who was his armor-bearer, and said to him, Draw your sword and kill me, so that men may not say of me, A woman killed him! And his young man thrust him through, and he died. ⁵⁵And when the men of Israel saw that Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch was dead, each one of them left to go to his place.

⁵⁶So God repaid the wickedness of Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch which he did to his father in killing his seventy brothers. ⁵⁷And all the evil of the men of Shechem God sent back upon their heads. And upon them came the curse of Jō'-thām the son of Jēr-üb-bā'-āl.

¹And after Ā-bīm'-ē-lēch there arose to defend Israel Tō'-lā the son of Pū'-āh, the son of Dō'-dō, a man of Is'-sā-chär. And he lived in Shā'-mīr in Mount E'-phrā-īm. ²And he judged Israel twenty-three years, and died, and was buried in Shā'-mīr.

³And after him arose Jā'-īr, a Gileadite, and judged Israel twenty-two years. ⁴And he had thirty sons who rode on thirty ass colts, and they had thirty cities which are called Hā'-vōth-jā'-īr unto this day, which are in the land of Gilead. ⁵And Jā'-īr died and was buried in Cā'-mōn.

¹⁰And the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, saying, We have sinned against Thee, both because we have forsaken our God and also have served Bā'-āl-īm. ¹¹And the LORD said to the children of Israel, Did not I deliver you from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon, and from the Phī-lis'-tines? ¹²Also the Sī-dō'-nī-āns and the Ā-māl'-ĕk-ites and the Mā'-ōn-ites oppressed you — and you cried to Me, and I delivered you out of their hand. ¹³Yet you have forsaken Me and served other gods; therefore I will deliver you no more. ¹⁴Go and cry to the gods which you have chosen. Let them deliver you in the time of your tribulation. ¹⁵And the children of Israel said to the LORD, We have sinned. Do Thou unto us whatever seems good unto Thee — only deliver us, we pray Thee, this day. ¹⁶And they put away the strange gods from among them, and served the LORD. And His soul was moved by the misery of Israel. ¹⁷Then the children of Ammon were gathered together and camped in Gilead. And the children of Israel assembled themselves together and camped in Miz'-pēh. ¹⁸And the people and princes of Gilead said to one another, What man is there who will begin to fight against the children of Ammon? He shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

¹Now Jēph'-thāh, the man from Gilead, was a mighty man of war. And he was the son of a harlot. And Gilead fathered Jēph'-thāh. ²And Gilead's wife bore him sons. And his wife's sons grew up, and they threw Jēph'-thāh out and said to him, You shall not inherit in our father's house. For you are the son of a strange woman. ³Then Jēph'-thāh fled from his brothers and lived in the land of Tōb. And vain men were gathered to Jēph'-thāh, and went out with him.

⁴And in time the children of Ammon made war against Israel. ⁵And when the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to bring Jēph'-thāh out of the land of Tōb. ⁶And they said to Jēph'-thāh, Come and be our captain, so that we may fight with the children of Ammon. ⁷And Jēph'-thāh said to the elders of Gilead, Did you not hate me and throw me out of my father's house? Why have you come to me now when you are in trouble? ⁸And the elders of Gilead said to Jēph'-thāh, Therefore we turn again to you now, so that you may go with us and fight against the children of Ammon, and be our head over all the ones who live in Gilead. ⁹And Jēph'-thāh said to the elders of Gilead, If you bring me home again to fight against the children of Ammon, and the LORD delivers them before me, shall I be your head? ¹⁰And the elders of Gilead said to Jēph'-thāh, The LORD is witness between us if we do not do so according to your words. ¹¹Then Jēph'-thāh went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and captain over them. And Jēph'-thāh uttered all his words before the LORD in Miz'-pēh.

¹²And Jēph'-thāh sent messengers to the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What have you to do with me, that you have come against me to fight in my land? ¹³And the king of the children of Ammon answered to the messengers of Jēph'-thāh, Because Israel took away my land when they came up out of Egypt, from Ār'-nōn even to Jāb'-bōk, and to Jordan. Now therefore restore those lands again peaceably. ¹⁴And Jēph'-thāh sent messengers again to the king of the children of Ammon. ¹⁵And he said to him, Thus says Jēph'-thāh, Israel did not take away the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon. ¹⁶But when Israel came up from Egypt and walked through the wilderness to the Red Sea, and came to Kā'-dēsh, ¹⁷then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, I pray you, let me pass through your land. But the king of Edom would not listen. And in the same way they sent to the king of Moab, but he would not. And Israel stayed in Kā'-dēsh. ¹⁸Then they went along through the wilderness, and went around the land of Ē'-dom and the land of Moab, and came by the east side of the land of Moab and pitched on the other side of Ār'-nōn, but they did not come within the border of Moab — for Ār'-nōn was the border of Moab.

¹⁹And Israel sent messengers to Sī'-hōn king of the Ām'-ōr-ites, the king of Hēsh'-bōn. And Israel said to him, We pray you, let us pass through your land to my place. ²⁰But Sī'-hōn did not trust Israel to pass through his border. But Sī'-hōn gathered all his people together and pitched in Jā'-hāz, and fought against Israel. ²¹And the LORD God of Israel delivered Sī'-hōn and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they struck them. So Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, who lived in that country. ²²And they possessed all the borders of the Ām'-ōr-ites, from Ār'-nōn even to Jāb'-bōk, and from the wilderness even to Jordan. ²³So now the LORD God of Israel has put out the Amorites before His people Israel, and should you possess it? ²⁴Will you not possess that which Chē'-mōsh your god gives you to possess? So whomever the LORD our God shall drive out from before us, we will possess them.

²⁵And now are you any better than Bā'-lāk the son of Zīp'-pōr, king of Moab? Did he ever strive against Israel, or did he ever fight against them ²⁶while Israel lived in Hēsh'-bōn and its towns, and Ā-rō'-ēr and its towns, and in all the cities which are along by the borders of Ār'-nōn, for three hundred years? Why then did you not recover them in that time? ²⁷Therefore I have not sinned against you, but you do me wrong to war against me. May the LORD, the Judge, be judge this day between the children of Israel and the children of Ammon. ²⁸However, the king of the children of Ammon did not listen to the words of Jēph'-thāh which he sent to him.

²⁹Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jēph'-thāh, and he passed over Gilead and Mā-nās'-sēh, and passed over Miz'-pēh of Gilead, and from Mīz'-pēh of Gilead passed over to the children of Ammon. ³⁰And Jēph'-thāh vowed a vow to the LORD, and said, If Thou shalt without fail deliver the children of Ammon into my hands, ³¹then it shall come to pass that whatever comes forth out of the doors of my house to meet me when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, surely it shall belong to the LORD, or I will offer it up for a burnt offering.

³²So Jēph'-thāh passed over to the children of Ammon to fight against them. And the LORD delivered them into his hands. ³³And he struck them from Ā-rō'-ēr even until you come to Mīn'-nīth, twenty cities, and to the plain of the vineyards, with a very great slaughter. So were the children of Ammon subdued before the children of Israel.

³⁴And Jēph'-thāh came to Mīz'-pēh unto his house, and, behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and with dances. And she was his only child. Besides her he had neither son nor daughter. ³⁵And when he saw her, he tore his clothes and said, Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low, and you are one of those who trouble me. For I have opened my mouth to the LORD, and I cannot go back. ³⁶And she said to him, My father, if you have opened your mouth to the Lord, do to me according to that which has come out of your mouth, because the LORD has taken vengeance for you upon your enemies, even of the children of Ammon. ³⁷And she said to her father, Let this thing be done for me. Let me alone two months, so that I may go up and down upon the mountains and weep for my virginity, I and my companions. ³⁸And he said, Go. And he sent her away for two months. And she went with her companions and wept for her virginity upon the mountains. ³⁹And at the end of two months she returned to her father, who did to her according to his vow which he had vowed. And she knew no man. And it was a custom in Israel ⁴⁰*that* the daughters of Israel went yearly to tell again of the daughter of Jēph'-thāh the Gileadite, four days in a year.

¹And the men of Ē'-phrā-īm gathered themselves together and went northward, and said to Jēph'-thāh, Why did you go over to fight against the children of Ammon, and did not call us to go with you? We will burn your house upon you with fire. ²And Jēph'-thāh said to them, My people and I were at great strife with the children of Ammon. And when I called you, you did not deliver me out of their hands. ³When I saw that you did not deliver me, I took my life in my hands and passed over against the children of Ammon, and the LORD delivered them into my hand. Why then have you come up against me, to fight against me today? ⁴Then Jēph'-thāh gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ē'-phrā-īm. And the men of Gilead struck Ephraim, because they said, You Gileadites are fugitives of Ē'-phrā-īm among the Ē'-phrā-īm-ītes and among the Mā-nās'-sītes. ⁵And the Gileadites took the passages of Jordan before the Ē'-phrā-īm-ītes. And it happened that when one of those Ē'-phrā-īm-ītes who had escaped said, Let me go over, the men of Gilead said to him, Are you an Ē'-phrā-īm-īte? If he said, No, ⁶they said to him, Now say Šīb'-bō-lēth. And he said, Šīb'-bō-lēth, for he could not manage to pronounce it right. Then they took him and killed him at the passages of Jordan. And there fell at that time forty-two thousand of the Ē'-phrā-īm-ītes. ⁷And Jēph'-thāh judged Israel six years. Then Jēph'-thāh the Gileadite died, and was buried in one of the cities of Gilead.

⁸And after him Ib'-zān of Bēth'-lē-hēm judged Israel. ⁹And he had thirty sons and thirty daughters whom he sent abroad, and took in thirty daughters from abroad for his sons. And he judged Israel seven years. ¹⁰Then Ib'-zān died, and was buried at Bethlehem.

¹¹And after him Ē'-lōn, a Zē-bū'-lon-īte, judged Israel. And he judged Israel ten years. ¹²And Ē'-lōn the Zē-bū'-lon-īte died, and was buried in Aī'-jā-lōn in the country of Zē-bū'-lūn. ¹³And after him Āb'-dōn the son of Hīl'-lēl, a Pī-rā'-thōn-īte, judged Israel. ¹⁴And he had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy ass colts. And he judged Israel eight years. ¹⁵And Āb'-dōn the son of Hīl'-lēl the Pī-rā'-thōn-īte died, and was buried in Pī-rā'-thōn in the land of Ē'-phrā-īm, in the mount of the Ā-māl'-ēk-ītes.

¹And the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD. And the LORD delivered them into the hands of the Phī-lis'-tīnes forty years. ²And there was a certain man of Zōr'-āh, of the family of the Dān'-ītes, whose name was Mā-nō'-āh. And his wife was barren and did not bear. ³And the Angel of the LORD appeared to the woman and said to her, Behold now, you are barren and do not bear. But you shall conceive and bear a son. ⁴Now therefore be careful, I pray you, and do not drink wine nor strong drink, and do not eat any unclean thing. ⁵For lo, you shall conceive and bear a son. And no razor shall come upon his head. For the child shall be a Nāz'-ā-rite unto God from the womb. And he shall begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Phī-lis'-tīnes.

⁶Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, A man of God came to me, and His face was like the face of an Angel of God, very terrifying. But I did not ask Him where He came from, neither did He tell me His name. ⁷But He said to me, Behold, you shall conceive and bear a son. And now drink no wine nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing, for the child shall be a Nāz'-ā-rite to God from the womb to the day of his death. ⁸Then Mā-nō'-āh prayed to the LORD and said, O my Lord, let the Man of God, whom Thou didst send, come again to us and teach us what we shall do to the child that shall be born. ⁹And God listened to the voice of Mā-nō'-āh, and the Angel of God came again to the woman as she sat in the field. But Mā-nō'-āh her husband was not with her. ¹⁰And the woman hurried and ran, and showed her husband, and said to him, Behold, the Man has appeared to Me, the one who came to me the other day.

¹¹And Mā-nō'-āh arose and went after his wife, and came to the Man, and said to Him, Art Thou the Man who spoke to the woman? And He said, I am. ¹²And Mā-nō'-āh said, Now let Thy words come to pass. How shall we order the child, and what shall we do to him? ¹³And the Angel of the LORD turned to Mā-nō'-āh, Of all that I said to the woman let her be careful. ¹⁴She may not eat of anything that comes from the vine, neither let her drink wine nor strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing. Let her do all that I commanded her. ¹⁵And Mā-nō'-āh said to the Angel of the LORD, I pray Thee, let us keep Thee until we have made a kid ready for Thee. ¹⁶And the Angel of the LORD said to Mā-nō'-āh, Though you keep Me, I will not eat of your bread. And if you will offer a burnt offering, you must offer it to the LORD. For Mā-nō'-āh did not know that He was the Angel of the LORD. ¹⁷And Mā-nō'-āh said unto the Angel of the LORD, What is Thy name, so that when Thy sayings come to pass we may do Thee honor? ¹⁸And the Angel of the LORD said to him, Why do you ask after My name in this way, since it is Wonderful? ¹⁹So Mā-nō'-āh took a kid with a meal offering, and offered it upon a rock unto the LORD. And the Angel did wonderfully. And Mā-nō'-āh and his wife looked on. ²⁰For when the flame went up toward heaven from off the altar, the Angel of the LORD went up in the flame of the altar. And Mā-nō'-āh and his wife looked on it and fell on their faces to the ground. ²¹But the Angel of the LORD did not appear any more to Mā-nō'-āh and to his wife. Then Mā-nō'-āh knew that He was an Angel of the LORD. ²²And Mā-nō'-āh said unto his wife, We shall surely die because we have seen God. ²³But his wife said unto him, If the LORD were pleased to kill us, He would not have received a burnt offering and a meal offering at our hands, neither would He have showed us all these things, nor have told us such things as these at this time.

²⁴And the woman bore a son and called his name Sām'-sōn. And the child grew, and the LORD blessed him. ²⁵And the Spirit of the LORD began to move him at times in the camp of Dan between Zôr'-āh and Ēsh'-tā-ōl.

¹And Samson went down to Tīm'-nāth, and saw a woman in Tīm'-nāth of the daughters of the Phī-līs'-tīnes. ²And he came up and told his father and his mother, and said, I have seen a woman in Tim'-nāth of the daughters of the Philistines. Now therefore get her for me for a wife. ³Then his father and his mother said to him, Is there no woman among the daughters of your brothers, or among all my people, that you go to take a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines? And Samson said to his father, Get her for me, for she pleases me very much. ⁴But his father and his mother did not know that it was from the LORD, that he was looking for an occasion against the Philistines. For at that time the Philistines had the rule over Israel.

⁵Then Samson and his father and his mother went down to Tim'-nāth. And they came to the vineyards of Tim'-nāth. And behold, a young lion roared against him. ⁶And the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he tore it as he would have torn a kid; he had nothing in his hand. But he did not tell his father or his mother what he had done. ⁷And he went down and talked with the woman. And she pleased Samson very much.

⁸And after a time he returned to take her, and he turned aside to see the dead body of the lion. And behold! A swarm of bees and honey was in the dead body of the lion. ⁹And he took some of it in his hands, and went on eating, and came to his father and mother. And he gave to them, and they ate. But he did not tell them that he had taken the honey out of the dead body of the lion.

¹⁰So his father went down to the woman. And Samson made a feast there, for so the young men used to do. ¹¹And when they saw him, they brought thirty companions to be with him. ¹²And Samson said to them, I will now put forth a riddle to you. If you can certainly tell it to me within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty shirts and thirty changes of garments. ¹³But if you cannot tell it to me, then you shall give me thirty shirts and thirty changes of garments. And they said to him, Put forth your riddle so that we may hear it. ¹⁴And he said to them, Out of the eater came forth food, and out of the strong came forth sweetness. And in three days they could not tell what the riddle meant. ¹⁵And on the seventh day they said to Samson's wife, lure your husband so that he may tell the riddle to us, lest we burn you and your father's house with fire. Have you called us to take what we have? Is it not so?

¹⁶And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, You only hate me, and do not love me. You have put forth a riddle to the children of my people, and have not told it to me. And he said to her, Behold, I have not told it to my father nor to my mother, and shall I tell it to you? ¹⁷And she wept before him the seven days, while their feast lasted. And on the seventh day, he told her, because she pressed hard upon him. And she told the riddle to the children of her people. ¹⁸And the men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down,

What is sweeter than honey? and what is stronger than a lion? And he said to them, If you had not plowed with my heifer, you would not have found out my riddle.

¹⁹And the Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he went down to Āsh'-kē-lon and killed thirty men of them, and took their spoil, and gave changes of garments to them who told what the riddle meant. And his anger was kindled, and he went up to his father's house. ²⁰But Samson's wife was given to his companion, who had served as his friend.

¹But it came to pass within a little while, in the time of wheat harvest, that Samson visited his wife with a kid. And he said, I will go in to my wife into the room. But her father would not allow him to go in. ²And her father said, I truly thought that you utterly hated her, therefore I gave her to your companion. Is not her younger sister fairer than she is? I pray you, take her instead of her. ³And Samson said concerning them, Now I shall be more blameless than the Philistines, though I do what is not pleasing to them. ⁴And Samson went and caught three hundred foxes and took fire brands, and turned tail to tail, and put a fire brand in the middle between two tails. ⁵And when he had set the brands on fire, he let them go into the standing grain of the Philistines, and burned up both the shocks and also the standing grain, with the vineyards and olives. ⁶Then the Philistines said, Who has done this? And they answered, Samson, the son-in-law of the Tim'-nīte, because he had taken his wife and given her to his companion. And the Philistines came up and burned her and her father with fire.

⁷And Samson said to them, Though you have done this, yet I will be avenged of you, and after that I will stop. ⁸And he struck them hip and thigh with a great slaughter. And he went down and lived in the top of the rock Ē'-tām.

⁹Then the Philistines went up and pitched in Judah, and spread themselves in Le'-hī. ¹⁰And the men of Judah said, Why have you come up against us? And they answered, We have come up to bind Samson, to do to him as he has done to us. ¹¹Then three thousand men of Judah went to the top of the rock Ē'-tām, and said to Samson, Do you not know that the Philistines are rulers over us? What is this that you have done to us? And he said to them, As they have done to me, so I have done to them. ¹²And they said to him, We have come to bind you so that we may deliver you into the hands of the Philistines. And Samson said to them, Swear unto me that you will not fall upon me yourselves. ¹³And they spoke to him, saying, No, but we will tie you up and deliver you into their hand. But surely we will not kill you. And they bound him with two new cords and brought him up from the rock. ¹⁴And when he came to Lē'-hī, the Philistines shouted against him. And the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and the cords that were upon his arms became as flax that has been burned with fire, and his bands loosed from off his hands. ¹⁵And he found a new jawbone of an ass, and put forth his hand and took it, and killed a thousand men with it. ¹⁶And Samson said, With the jawbone of an ass, heaps upon heaps, with the jaw of an ass I have killed a thousand men. ¹⁷And when he had made an end of speaking, he threw away the jawbone out of his hand, and called that place Rā'-māth-lē'-hī.

¹⁸And he was very thirsty and called upon the LORD and said, Thou hast given this great deliverance into the hand of Thy servant. And now shall I die forever, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised? ¹⁹But God cut open a hollow place that was in the jaw, and water came out there. And when he had drunk, his spirit came again, and he revived. Therefore he called the name of it Ēn-hāk-kôr'-ē, which is in Lē'-hī unto this day. ²⁰And he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

¹Then Samson went to Gā'-zā. And he saw a harlot there, and went in to her. ²And it was told the Gā'-zītes saying, Samson has come here. And they surrounded him and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were quiet all the night, saying, In the morning when it is day, we shall kill him. ³And Samson lay till midnight, and arose at midnight, and took the doors of the gate of the city and the two posts, and went away with them, with the bar, and put them on his shoulders and carried them up to the top of a hill that is before Hebron.

⁴And afterwards he loved a woman in the valley of Sôr'-ēk, whose name was Dē-lī'-lāh. ⁵And the lords of the Philistines came up to her, and said to her, Lure him and see where his great strength lies, and by what means we may prevail against him, so that we may tie him to afflict him. And each one of us will give you eleven hundred pieces of silver.

⁶And Dē-lī'-lāh said to Samson, I pray you, tell me where your great strength lies, and with what you may be bound to afflict you. ⁷And Samson said to her, If they bind me with seven green cords that were never dried, then I shall be weak and be as another man. ⁸Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven green cords which had not been dried, and she bound him with them. ⁹Now there were men lying in wait, staying with her in the room. And she said to him, The Philistines are upon you, Samson! And he broke the cords like a thread of tow is broken when it touches the fire. So his strength was not known. ¹⁰And Dē-lī'-lāh said to Samson, Behold, you have mocked me and told me lies. Now tell me, I pray you, with what you may be bound. ¹¹And he said to her, If they bind me fast with new ropes that have never been used, then I shall be weak and be as another man. ¹²Dē-lī'-lāh therefore took new ropes and bound him with them, and said to him, The Philistines are upon you, Samson! And there were men lying in wait, staying in the room. And he broke them from off his arms like a thread. ¹³And Delilah said to Samson, You have mocked me until now, and told me lies. Tell me with what you may be bound. And he said to her, If you weave the seven locks of my head with the web. ¹⁴And she fastened it with the pin, and said to him, The Philistines are upon you, Samson! And he woke out of his sleep and went away with the pin of the beam, and with the web.

¹⁵And she said to him, How can you say, I love you, when your heart is not with me? You have mocked me these three times, and have not told me where your great strength lies. ¹⁶And when she pressed him daily with her words and urged him, it came to pass that his soul was vexed unto death, ¹⁷so that he told her all his heart, and said to her, There has not come a razor upon my head, for I have been a Nāz'-ā-rīte unto God from my mother's womb. If I am shaven, then my strength will go from me, and I will become weak and be like any other man. ¹⁸And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come this once, for he has showed me all his heart. Then the lords of the Philistines came up to her, and brought money in their hand. ¹⁹And she made him sleep upon her knees. And she called for a man, and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head. And she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him. ²⁰And she said, The Philistines are upon you, Samson! And he awoke out of his sleep and said, I will go out as at other times before, and shake myself. And he did not know that the LORD had departed from him.

²¹But the Philistines took him and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gā'-zā, and bound him with fetters of brass. And he ground in the prison house. ²²However the hair of his head began to grow again after he had been shaven. ²³Then the lords of the Philistines gathered themselves together in order to offer a great sacrifice unto Dā'-gōn their god, and to rejoice. For they said, Our god has delivered Samson our enemy into our hand. ²⁴And when the people saw him, they praised their god. For they said, Our god has delivered our enemy into our hands, and the destroyer of our country, who killed many of us. ²⁵And when their hearts were merry, it came to pass that they said, Call for Samson so that he may make sport for us. And they called for Samson out of the prison house. And he made sport for them, and they set him between the pillars. ²⁶And Samson said to the lad who held him by the hand, Allow me to feel the pillars upon which the house stands, so that I may lean upon them. ²⁷Now the house was full of men and women. And all the lords of the Philistines were there. And there were upon the roof about three thousand men and women who watched while Samson made sport.

²⁸And Samson called unto the LORD and said, O Lord GOD, remember me, I pray Thee, and strengthen me, I pray Thee, only this once, O God, so that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes. ²⁹And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the house stood, and on which it was held up, of the one with his right hand, and of the other with his left. ³⁰And Samson said, Let me die with the Philistines. And he bowed himself with all his might, and the house fell upon the lords and upon all the people that were in it. So the dead whom he killed at his death were more than they whom he killed in his life. ³¹Then his brothers and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought him up and buried him between Zôr'-âh and Êsh'-tâ-ôl in the burying-place of Mâ-nô'-âh his father. And he judged Israel twenty years.

¹And there was a man of Mount Ê'-phrâ-îm, whose name was Mî'-câh, ²And he said to his mother, The eleven hundred shekels of silver which were taken from you, about which you cursed, and spoke of also in my ears, behold, the silver is with me. Behold, I took it. And his mother said, Be blessed of the LORD, my son. ³And when he had given back the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, his mother said, I had wholly given the silver to the LORD from my hand for my son, to make a graven image and a molten image. Now therefore I will give it to you. ⁴Yet he gave the money back to his mother. And his mother took two hundred shekels of silver and gave them to the founder, who made of it an engraved image and a melted image. And they were in the house of Micah. ⁵And the man Micah had a house of gods, and made an ephod and tēr'-â-phîm, and anointed one of his sons, who became his priest.

⁶In those days there was no king in Israel, but every man did that which was right in his own eyes. ⁷And there was a young man out of Bethlehem-judah of the family of Judah, who was a Levite. And he stayed there. ⁸And the man went out of the city from Bethlehem-judah to live where he could find a place. And he came to Mount Ê'-phrâ-îm to the house of Micah, as he journeyed. ⁹And Micah said to him, Where do you come from? And he said to him, I am a Levite of Bethlehem-judah, and I go to live where I may find a place. ¹⁰And Micah said to him, Live with me and be a father and a priest to me, and I will give you ten shekels of silver by the year, and a suit of clothes, and your food. So the Levite went in. ¹¹And the Levite was content with the man, and the young man was to him as one of his sons. ¹²And Micah consecrated the Levite. And the young man became his priest, and was in the house of Micah. ¹³Then Micah said, Now I know that the LORD will do me good, since I have a Levite as my priest.

¹In those days there was no king in Israel. And in those days the tribe of the Dān'-ites looked for an inheritance for them to live in, for unto that day all their inheritance had not fallen to them among the tribes of Israel. ²And the children of Dan sent from their family five men from their borders, men of war, from Zôr'-āh and from Ēsh'-tā-ōl, to spy out the land and to search it. And they said to them, Go, search the land. And when they came to Mount Ē'-phrā-īm to the house of Micah, they stayed there. ³When they were at the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite. And they turned in there, and said to him, Who brought you here? And what are you doing in this place? And what have you here? ⁴And he said to them, This is how Micah deals with me, and has hired me, and I am his priest. ⁵And they said to him, We pray you, Ask counsel of God so that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous. ⁶And the priest said to them, Go in peace. Your way in which you go is before the LORD. ⁷Then the five men departed and came to Lā'-ish, and saw the people that were in it, how they lived carelessly, as the Sī-dō'-nī-āns do, quiet and secure. And there was no judge, in the land who might put them to shame in anything. And they were far from the Sī-dō'-nī-āns, and had no business with any man.

⁸And they came to their brothers, to Zôr'-āh and Ēsh'-tā-ōl. And their brothers said to them, What do you say? ⁹And they said, Arise, so that we may go up against them. For we have seen the land, and, behold, it is very good. And will you sit quietly? Do not be too lazy to go and enter to possess the land. ¹⁰When you go, you shall come to a people feeling safe, and to a large land. For God has given it into your hands, a place where there is no lack of anything that is in the earth.

¹¹And there went from there six hundred men of the family of the Danites, with weapons of war, out of Zôr'-āh and out of Ēsh'-tā-ōl. ¹²And they went up and pitched in Kīr'-jāth-jē'-ā-rīm, in Judah. Therefore they called that place Mā'-hā-nēh-dān unto this day. Behold, it is behind Kīr'-jāth-jē'-ā-rīm. ¹³And they passed from there to Mount Ē'-phrā-īm, and came to the house of Micah. ¹⁴Then the five men who went to spy out the country of Lā'-ish answered and said to their brothers, You know that there is in these houses an ephod, and tēr'-ā-phim, and an engraved image and a melted image? Now therefore consider what you have to do. ¹⁵And they turned in that way, and came to the house of the young man the Levite, unto the house of Micah, and greeted him. ¹⁶And the six hundred men, with their weapons of war, who were of the children of Dan, stood by the entrance of the gate. ¹⁷And the five men who went up to spy out the land went up, and came in there, and took the engraved image and the ephod and the tēr'-ā-phīm and the melted image. And the priest stood in the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men who were dressed with weapons of war. ¹⁸And these went into Micah's house and brought out the carved image, the ephod, and the tēr'-ā-phīm, and the melted image. Then the priest said to them, What are you doing? ¹⁹And they said to him, Hold your peace, lay your hand upon your mouth and go with us, and be to us a father and a priest. Is it better for you to be a priest to the house of one man, or that you be a priest to a tribe and a family in Israel? ²⁰And the priest's heart was glad, and he took the ephod and the tēr'-ā-phīm and the carved image, and went in the midst of the people. ²¹So they turned and departed, and put the little ones and the cattle and the baggage before them.

²²And when they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men that were in the houses near Micah's house had gathered together and had overtaken the children of Dan. ²³And they cried to the children of Dan. And they turned their faces and said to Micah, What ails you, that you come with such a company? ²⁴And he said, You have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and you have gone away. And what more do I have? And what is this that you say to me, What ails you? ²⁵And the children of Dan said to him, Do not let your voice be heard among us, lest angry fellows run upon you and you lose your life with the lives of your household. ²⁶And the children of Dan went their way. And when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house. ²⁷And they took the things which Micah had made, and the priest whom he had, and came to Lā'-ish, to a people that were quiet and feeling safe. And they struck them with the edge of the sword and burned the city with fire. ²⁸And there was no deliverer, because it was far from Sī'-dōn, and they had no business with any man. And it was in the valley that lies by Bēth-rē'-hōb. And they built a city and lived in it. ²⁹And they called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born to Israel. However the name of the city was Lā'-ish at the first.

¹And in those days when there was no king in Israel, it came to pass that there was a certain Levite living on the side of Mount Ē'-phrā-im, who took to him a cōn'-cū-bīne out of Bethlehem-judah. ²And his concubine played the harlot against him, and went away from him to her father's house to Bethlehem-judah, and was there four whole months. ³And her husband arose and went after her, to speak friendly to her and to bring her again—having his servant with him and a couple of asses. And she brought him into her father's house. And when the father of the girl saw him, he rejoiced to meet him. ⁴And his father-in-law, the girl's father, kept him. And he stayed with him three days. So they ate and drank and stayed there.

⁵And on the fourth day when they arose early in the morning, he rose up to leave. And the girl's father said to his son-in-law, Comfort your heart with a piece of bread, and afterward go your way. ⁶And they sat down and ate and drank, both of them together, for the girl's father had said to the man, Be content, I pray you, and stay all night, and let your heart be merry. ⁷And when the man rose up to leave, his father-in-law urged him. Therefore he stayed there again. ⁸And he rose early in the morning on the fifth day to leave. And the girl's father said, I pray you, comfort your heart. And they stayed till afternoon, and both of them ate. ⁹And when the man rose up to leave, he and his concubine, and his servant, his father-in-law, the girl's father said to him, Behold, now the day draws toward evening. I pray you, stay all night. Behold, the day grows to an end — stay here so that your heart may be merry. And tomorrow go early on your way, so that you may go home. ¹⁰But the man would not stay that night, but he rose up and left, and came over against Jē'-būs, which is Jerusalem. And there were with him two saddled asses. His concubine also was with him. ¹¹And when they were beside Jē'-būs, the day was far gone. And the servant said to his master, Come, I pray you, and let us turn in unto this city of the Jēb'-ū-sites and stay in it. ¹²And his master said to him, We will not turn aside here into the city of a stranger who is not of the children of Israel. We will pass over to Gīb'-ē-āh. ¹³And he said to his servant, Come and let us draw near one of these places to stay all night, in Gīb'-ē-āh or in Rā'-māh. ¹⁴And they passed on and went their way. And the sun went down upon them when they were by Gīb'-ē-āh, which is of Benjamin. ¹⁵And they turned aside there, to go in and to lodge in Gīb'-ē-āh. And when he went in, he sat down in a street of the city. For there was no man who took them into his house to stay the night.

ě-āh, but the men of the place were of Benjamin. ¹⁷And when he had lifted up his eyes, he saw a traveler in the streets of the city. And the old man said, Where do you go, and where do you come from? ¹⁸And he said to him, We are passing from Bethlehem-judah to the side of Mount Ephraim. I am from there, and I went to Bethlehem-judah, but I am now going to the house of the LORD. And there is no man who receives me into his house. ¹⁹Yet here is both straw and food for our asses. And there is bread and wine also for me, and for your handmaid, and for the young man who is with your servants. There is no lack of anything. ²⁰And the old man said, Peace be with you. However, let all that is lacking lie upon me. Only do not stay in the street. ²¹So he brought him into his house and gave food to their asses. And they washed their feet, and ate and drank.

²²Now as they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, certain sons of Bě'-lī-āl, set upon the house all around and beat at the door and spoke to the master of the house, the old man, saying, Bring out the man that came to your house so that we may know him. ²³And the man, the master of the house, went out to them and said to them, No, my brothers, I pray you, do not do wickedly, since this man has come into my house. Do not do this folly. ²⁴Behold, here is my daughter, a maiden, and his concubine. I will bring them out now, and you humble them and do with them what seems good to you. But do not do so vile a thing to this man. ²⁵But the men would not listen to him. So the man took his concubine, and brought her out to them. And they knew her and abused her all night until the morning. And when the day began to spring, they let her go. ²⁶Then the woman came, in the dawning of the day, and fell down at the door of the man's house where her lord was, until it was light. ²⁷And her lord rose up in the morning and opened the doors of the house and went out to go his way. And behold, the woman, his concubine, had fallen down at the door of the house, and her hands were upon the threshold. ²⁸And he said to her, Up, and let us be going. But there was no answer. Then the man took her upon an ass, and the man rose up and went to his place.

²⁹And when he had come into his house, he took a knife and laid hold on his concubine, and divided her, with her bones, into twelve pieces and sent her into all the borders of Israel. ³⁰And it was so that all that saw it said, There was no such deed done nor seen from the day that the children of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt unto this day. Think of it, take advice and speak.

¹Then all the children of Israel went out, and the congregation was gathered together as one man, from Dan even to Bēer-shē'-bā, with the land of Gilead, to the LORD in Mīz'-pēh. ²And the chief of all the people, of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen that drew sword. ³Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel had gone up to Mīz'-pēh. Then said the children of Israel, Tell us, how was this wickedness done? ⁴And the Levite, the husband of the woman who was slain, answered and said, I came into Gīb'-ē-āh of Benjamin to stay the night, my concubine and I. ⁵And the men of Gīb'-ē-āh rose against me and set upon the house all around me by night, and thought to have killed me. And they have forced my concubine, so that she is dead. ⁶And I took my concubine and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Israel. For they have committed lewdness and folly in Israel.

⁷Behold, you are all children of Israel. Give here your advice and counsel. ⁸And all people rose as one man saying, We will not any of us go to his tent, neither will we any of us turn to his house. ⁹But now this shall be the thing which we will do to Gīb'-ē-āh. We will go up by lot against it, ¹⁰and we will take ten men of a hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to bring food for the people, so that when they come to Gīb'-ē-āh of Benjamin, they may do according to all the folly which they have done in Israel. ¹¹So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, all together as one man.

¹²And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin saying, What wickedness is this that is done among you? ¹³Now therefore deliver us the men, the children of Bē'-lī-āl, who are in Gīb'-ē-āh, so that we may put them to death and put away evil from Israel. But the children of Benjamin would not listen to the voice of their brothers the children of Israel. ¹⁴But the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities to Gibeah, to go out to battle against the children of Israel. ¹⁵And the children of Benjamin were numbered at that time out of the cities twenty-six thousand men who drew sword, besides the inhabitants of Gīb'-ē-āh, who were numbered seven hundred chosen men. ¹⁶Among all this people there were seven hundred chosen men, left-handed. Every one could sling stones at a hair's breadth, and not miss. ¹⁷And the men of Israel, besides Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men who drew sword. All these were men of war.

¹⁸And the children of Israel rose and went up to the house of God and asked counsel of God, and said, Which of us shall go up first to the battle against the children of Benjamin? And the LORD said, Judah shall go up first. ¹⁹And the children of Israel rose up early in the morning, and camped against Gīb'-ē-āh. ²⁰And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin. And the men of Israel put themselves in order, ready to fight against them at Gĭb'-ĕ-āh. ²¹And the children of Benjamin came forth out of Gĭb'-ĕ-āh and struck down to the ground twenty-two thousand men of the Israelites that day. ²²And the people, the men of Israel, encouraged themselves and set their battle in order again in the place where they put themselves in order the first day. ²³(And the children of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until evening, and asked counsel from the LORD saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And the LORD said, Go up against him.) ²⁴And the children of Israel came near against the children of Benjamin the second day. ²⁵And Benjamin went forth against them out of Gĭb'-ĕ-āh the second day and struck down to the ground again eighteen thousand men of the children of Israel. All these drew the sword.

²⁶Then all the children of Israel, and all the people, went up and came into the house of God, and wept, and sat there before the LORD and fasted that day until evening, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. ²⁷And the children of Israel inquired of the LORD (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, ²⁸and Phĭn'-ĕ-hās the son of Ēl-ĕ-ā'-zār the son of Aaron stood before it in those days,) saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I stop? And the LORD said, Go up, for tomorrow I will deliver them into your hand. ²⁹And Israel set men lying in wait all around Gĭb'-ĕ-āh. ³⁰And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in order against Gĭb'-ĕ-āh, as at other times. ³¹And the children of Benjamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city. And they began to strike some of the people and to kill, as at other times, in the highways — one of which goes up to the house of God, and the other to Gĭb'-ĕ-āh in the fie'd — about thirty men of Israel. ³²And the children of Benjamin said, They are stricken down before us as at the first. But the children of Israel said, Let us flee and draw them from the city to the highways.

³³And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place and put themselves in order at Bā'-āl-tā'-mār. And the men lying in wait from Israel came forth out of their places, out of the meadows of Gĭb'-ĕ-āh. ³⁴And there came against Gĭb'-ĕ-āh ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was heavy. But they did not know that evil was near them. ³⁵And the LORD struck Benjamin before Israel. And the children of Israel destroyed twenty-five thousand and a hundred men of the Benjamites that day. All these drew the sword. ³⁶So the children of Benjamin saw that they were stricken. For the men of Israel gave place to the Benjamites because they trusted to the men lying in wait which they had set beside Gĭb'-ĕ-āh. ³⁷And the liers in wait hurried and rushed upon Gĭb'-ĕ-āh. And the men lying in wait marched along and struck all the city with the edge of the sword.

³⁸Now there was a set sign between the men of Israel and the men lying in wait, that they should make a great flame with smoke rise up out of the city. ³⁹And when the men of Israel retired in the battle, Benjamin began to strike and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons. For they said, Surely they are stricken down before us as in the first battle. ⁴⁰But when the flame began to rise up out of the city with a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and behold, the flame of the city went up toward heaven. ⁴¹And when the men of Israel turned again, the men of Benjamin were amazed. For they saw that evil had come upon them. ⁴²Therefore they turned before the men of Israel, to the way of the wilderness. But the battle overtook them. And those who came out of the cities they destroyed in the midst of them. ⁴³So they enclosed the Benjamites round about, and chased them, and trod them down with ease over against Gĭb'-ĕ-āh toward the sunrise. ⁴⁴And there fell from Benjamin eighteen thousand. All these were men of war. ⁴⁵And they turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon. And they gleaned of them in the highways five thousand men, and pursued hard after them to Gĭ-dōm and killed two thousand men of them. ⁴⁶So that all who fell that day of Benjamin were twenty-five thousand men who drew the sword. All of these were men of war. ⁴⁷But six hundred men turned and fled to the wilderness, to the rock Rimmon, and they stayed in the rock Rimmon four months. ⁴⁸And the children of Israel turned again upon the children of Benjamin and struck them with the edge of the sword — the men of every city as well as the beast, and all that came to hand. Also they set all the cities that they came to on fire.

¹Now the men of Israel had sworn in Mĭz'-pĕh, saying, There shall not any of us give his daughter to Benjamin for a wife. ²And the people came to the house of God and stayed there until evening before God, and lifted up their voice and wept grievously, ³and said, O LORD God of Israel, Why has this come to pass in Israel, that there should be today one tribe lacking in Israel? ⁴And on the next day the people rose early and built there an altar, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. ⁵And the children of Israel said, Who is there among all the tribes of Israel that did not come up with the congregation unto the LORD? For they had made a great oath concerning him who did not come up to the LORD to Mĭz'-pĕh, saying, He shall surely be put to death. ⁶And the children of Israel repented themselves for Benjamin their brother, and said, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day. ⁷What shall we do for wives for those who are left, since we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them of our daughters for wives?

⁸And they said, What one is there of the tribes of Israel that did not come up to Mĭz'-pĕh to the LORD? And, behold, there came none to the camp from Jā'-bēsh-gīl'-ē-ād to the assembly. ⁹For the people were numbered, and behold, none of the inhabitants of Jā'-bēsh-gīl'-ē-ād were there. ¹⁰And the congregation sent there twelve thousand men of the most valiant, and commanded them, saying, Go and smite the inhabitants of Jā'-bēsh-gīl'-ē-ād with the sword, with the women and the children. ¹¹And this is the thing that you shall do. You shall utterly destroy every male and every woman who has lain with man. ¹²And they found among the inhabitants of Jā'-bēsh-gīl'-ē-ād four hundred young virgins who had known no man by lying with any male. And they brought them to the camp to Shī'-lōh, which is in the land of Canaan. ¹³And the whole congregation sent to speak to the children of Benjamin who were in the rock Rimmon, and to call peaceably to them. ¹⁴And Benjamin came again at that time. And they gave them wives whom they had saved alive of the women of Jā'-bēsh-gīl'-ē-ād. And yet so they were not enough for them. ¹⁵And the people repented themselves for Benjamin, because the LORD had made a break in the tribes of Israel.

¹⁶When the elders of the congregation said, What shall we do for wives for those who are left, since the women are destroyed out of Benjamin? ¹⁷And they said, There must be an inheritance for those of Benjamin who have escaped, so that a tribe may not be destroyed out of Israel. ¹⁸However, we may not give them wives of our daughters. For the children of Israel have sworn, saying, Cursed is he who gives a wife to Benjamin. ¹⁹Then they said, Behold, there is a feast of the LORD in Shī'-lōh early on the north side of Bethel, on the east side of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and on the south of Lē-bō'-nāh. ²⁰Therefore they commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, Go and lie in wait in the vineyards, ²¹and see, and behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then you come out of the vineyards and catch you a wife for every man from the daughters of Shī'-lōh, and go to the land of Benjamin. ²²And it shall be, when their fathers or their brothers come to us to complain, that we will say to them, Be favorable to them for our sakes, because we did not reserve each man a wife in the war — for if you did not give to them at this time, you should be guilty. ²³And the children of Benjamin did so, and took wives according to their number, from those that danced, whom they caught. And they went and returned to their inheritance, and repaired the cities and lived in them. ²⁴And the children of Israel departed from there at that time, each man to his tribe and to his family. And they went out from there every man to his inheritance. ²⁵In those days there was no king in Israel. Every man did right in his own eyes.

¹Now in the days when the judges ruled, there was a famine in the land. And a certain man of Bethlehem-judah went to live in the country of Moab, he and his wife and his two sons. ²And the name of the man was Ē-līm'-ē-lēch, and the name of his wife Nā'-ō-mī, and the name of his two sons Māh'-lōn and Chī'-lī-ōn, Ēph'-rā-thītes of Bethlehem-judah. And they came to the country of Moab and stayed there. ³And Ē-līm'-ē-lēch, Naomi's husband, died. And she was left, and her two sons. ⁴And they took wives for themselves from the women of Moab. The name of the one was Ōr'-pāh, and the name of the other Ruth. And they lived there about ten years. ⁵And Māh'-lōn and Chī'-lī-ōn also died, both of them. And the woman was left without her two sons and her husband.

⁶Then she arose with her daughters-in-law so that she might return from the country of Moab. For she had heard in the country of Moab how the LORD had visited His people in giving them bread. ⁷Therefore she went forth out of the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her, and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah. ⁸And Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, Go, return each one to her mother's house. May the LORD deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead and with me. ⁹May the LORD grant you that you may find rest, each in the house of her husband. Then she kissed them, and they lifted up their voice and wept.

¹⁰And they said to her, Surely we will return with you to your people. ¹¹And Naomi said, Turn again, my daughters. Why will you go with me? Are there still any more sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands? ¹²Turn again, my daughters, go. For I am too old to have a husband. If I should say, I have hope, if I should have a husband also tonight, and should also bear sons, would you wait for them until they were grown? ¹³Would you wait for them from having husbands? No, my daughters, for it makes me very sad for your sakes that the hand of the LORD has gone out against me. ¹⁴And they lifted up their voice and wept again. And Ōr'-pāh kissed her mother-in-law. But Ruth clung to her. ¹⁵And she said, Behold, Your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods. Return after your sister-in-law. ¹⁶And Ruth said, Do not beg me to leave you or to return from following after you. For where you go, I will go. Where you stay, I will stay. Your people shall be my people, and your God my God. ¹⁷Where you die, I will die, and there I will be buried. May the LORD do so to me, and more also, if anything but death parts you and me. ¹⁸When she saw that she was determined to go with her, then she quit speaking to her.

¹⁹So the two of them went until they came to Bethlehem. And when they had come to Bethlehem, all the city was moved about them, and they said, Is this Naomi? ²⁰And she said to them, Do not call me Naomi, call me Mara. For the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me. ²¹I went out full, and the LORD has brought me home again empty. Why then do you call me Naomi, since the LORD has testified against me and the Almighty has afflicted me? ²²So Naomi returned; and Ruth, who was of Moab, her daughter-in-law, was with her — returning out of the country of Moab. And they came to Bethlehem in the beginning of barley harvest.

¹And Naomi had a kinsman of her husband's, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Ē-līm'-ē-lēch. And his name was Bō'-āz. ²And Ruth of Moab said to Naomi, Let me now go to the field and glean ears of grain after him in whose sight I shall find grace. And she said to her, Go, my daughter. ³And she went. And she came and gleaned in the field after the reapers. And she happened to come upon a part of the field of Boaz, who was of the kindred of Ē-līm'-ē-lēch.

⁴And behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem and said to the reapers, The LORD be with you. And they answered him, The LORD bless you. ⁵Then Boaz said to his servant who was set over the reapers, Whose girl is this? ⁶And the servant who was set over the reapers answered and said, It is the girl from Moab who came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab. ⁷And she said, I pray you, let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves. So she came, and has kept on even from the morning until now, but that she stayed a little in the house. ⁸Then Boaz said to Ruth, Do you not hear, my daughter? Do not go to glean in another field, neither go away from here, but stay here close by my maidens. ⁹Let your eyes be on the field that they reap, and go after them. Have I not commanded the young men that they shall not touch you? And when you are thirsty, go to the vessels and drink of that which the young men have drawn. ¹⁰Then she fell on her face and bowed herself to the ground, and said to him, Why have I found grace in your eyes, that you should take notice of me, since I am a stranger? ¹¹And Boaz answered and said to her, It has been fully shown to me all that you have done to your mother-in-law since the death of your husband, and how you have left your father and your mother and the land of your birth, and have come to a people whom you did not know before now. ¹²May the LORD repay your work, and may a full reward be given you from the LORD God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to trust.

¹³Then she said, Let me find favor in your sight, my lord, for you have comforted me; for you have spoken kindly to your handmaid, though I am not like one of your handmaidens. ¹⁴And Boaz said to her,

At mealtime come here and eat of the bread and dip your bit in the vinegar. And she sat beside the reapers. And he handed her parched grain, and she ate and was satisfied, and left. ¹⁵And when she had risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men saying, Let her glean even among the sheaves, and do not rebuke her. ¹⁶And also let some of the handfuls fall on purpose for her, and leave them so that she may glean them, and do not rebuke her. ¹⁷So she gleaned in the field until the evening, and beat out what she had gleaned. And it was about an ephah of barley.

¹⁸And she took it up and went into the city. And her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. And she brought it forth, and gave to her what she had kept after she was satisfied. ¹⁹And her mother-in-law said to her, Where have you gleaned today? And where did you work? Blessed is he who took notice of you. And she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and said, The man's name with whom I worked today is Boaz. ²⁰And Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, Blessed is he of the LORD, who has not left off his kindness to the living and to the dead. And Naomi said to her, The man is near of kin to us, one of our near kinsman. ²¹And Ruth of Moab said, He said to me also, You shall keep close by my young men until they have ended all my harvest. ²²And Naomi said to her daughter-in-law Ruth, Good, my daughter. You go out with his maidens so that they do not fall upon you in any other field. ²³So she kept close by the maidens of Boaz to glean until the end of barley harvest and of wheat harvest. And she lived with her mother-in-law.

¹Then her mother-in-law Naomi said to her, My daughter, shall I not seek rest for you so that it may be well with you? ²And now is not Boaz of our kindred, he with whose maidens you were? Behold, he winnows barley tonight in the threshing-floor. ³Therefore wash yourself, and anoint yourself, and put your clothing upon you, and go down to the floor. Do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. ⁴And when he lies down, you mark the place where he lies, and you shall go in and uncover his feet and lie down. And he will tell you what you shall do. ⁵And she said to her, All that you say to me I will do.

⁶And she went down to the floor and did according to all that her mother-in-law had told her. ⁷And when Boaz had eaten and had drunk, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the heap of grain. And she came softly and uncovered his feet and lay down. ⁸And at midnight the man was afraid and turned himself. And behold, a woman lay at his feet. And he said, Who are you? ⁹And she answered, I am Ruth your handmaid. Therefore spread your skirt over your handmaid, for you are a near kinsman. ¹⁰And he said, Blessed are you of the LORD, my daughter, for you have shown more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning, in that you did not follow young men, whether poor or rich. ¹¹And now, my daughter, do not fear. I will do to you all that you ask. For all the city of my people knows that you are a woman of virtue. ¹²And now it is true that I am your near kinsman. However, there is a kinsman nearer than I am. ¹³Stay tonight, and in the morning if he will perform to you the part of a kinsman, it shall be good. Let him do the kinsman's part. But if he will not do the part of a kinsman to you, then I will do the part of a kinsman to you, as the LORD lives. Lie down until the morning.

¹⁴And she lay at his feet until the morning. And she rose up before one could know another. And he said, Do not let it be known that a woman came to the floor. ¹⁵Also he said, Bring the veil that you have upon you, and hold it. And when she held it, he measured six measures of barley and laid it on her. And she went to the city. ¹⁶And when she came to her mother-in-law, she said, Who are you, my daughter? And she told her all that the man had done to her. ¹⁷And she said, These six measures of barley he gave to me. For he said to me, Do not go empty to your mother-in-law. ¹⁸Then she said, Sit still, my daughter, until you know how the matter will fall. For the man will not rest until he has finished the thing this day.

¹Then Boaz went up to the gate and sat down there. And behold, the kinsman of whom Boaz spoke came by — and unto him he said, Ho, such a one! Turn aside, sit down here. And he turned aside and sat down. ²And he took ten men of the elders of the city and said, Come sit down here. And they sat down. ³And he said to the kinsman, Naomi, who has come again out of the country of Moab, sells a parcel of land which was our brother Ē-lim'-ĕ-lĕch's. ⁴And I said I will tell it in your ear, saying, Buy it before those who live here, and before the elders of my people. If you will redeem it, redeem it. But if you will not redeem it, then tell me so that I may know. For there is none to redeem it besides you. And I am after you. And he said, I will redeem it. ⁵Then Boaz said, That day you buy the field from the hand of Naomi, you must buy it also from the hand of Ruth of Moab, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance. ⁶And the kinsman said, I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I mar my own inheritance. You redeem my right to yourself, for I cannot redeem it. ⁷Now this was the custom in former times in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning changing, in order to make all things sure. A man plucked off his shoe and gave it to his neighbor. And this was a testimony in Israel. ⁸Therefore the kinsman said to Boaz, Buy it for yourself. So he drew off his shoe.

⁹And Boaz said to the elders and to all the people, You are witnesses this day that I have bought all that was Ē-līm'-ě-lěch's and all that was Chī'-lī-ōn's and Mäh'-lōn's, from the hand of Naomi. ¹⁰Moreover Ruth of Moab, the wife of Mäh'-lōn, I have purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, so that the name of the dead may not be cut off from among his brothers and from the gate of his place. You are witnesses this day. ¹¹And all the people that were in the gate, and the elders, said, We are witnesses. May the LORD make the woman who has come into your house like Rachel and like Leah, for these two built the house of Israel. And may you be blessed in Ēph'-rā-tāh, and be famous in Bethlehem. ¹²And let your house be like the house of Phār'-ěz, whom Tā'-mār bore to Judah, of the seed which the LORD shall give you of this young woman.

¹³So Boaz took Ruth, and she was his wife. And when he went in to her, the LORD made her conceive. And she bore a son. ¹⁴And the women said to Naomi, Blessed be the LORD, who has not left you this day without a redeemer, so that his name may be famous in Israel. ¹⁵And he shall be to you as one who gives you back your life, and one who cheers your old age. For your daughter-in-law who loves you, who is better to you than seven sons, has borne him. ¹⁶And Naomi took the child and laid it in her bosom, and became nurse to it. ¹⁷And the women, her neighbors, gave it a name, saying, There is a son born to Naomi. And they called his name Ō'-bēd. He is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

The FIRST Book of SAMUEL

¹Now there was a certain man of Rā-mā-thā'-im-zō'-phīm, of Mount Ē'-phrā-im, and his name was Ēl-kā'-nāh, the son of Jē-rō'-hām, the son of Ē-lī'-hū, the son of Tō'-hū, the son of Zuph, an Ēph'-rā-thīte. ²And he had two wives. The name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other was Pē-nīn'-nāh. And Pē-nīn'-nāh had children, but Hannah had no children. ³And this man went up out of his city from year to year, to worship and to sacrifice to the LORD of hosts in Shī'-lōh. And the two sons of Eli, Hōph'-nī and Phīn'-ē-hās, the priests of the LORD, were there.

⁴And when the time came that Ēl-kā'-nāh offered, he gave portions to Pē-nīn'-nāh his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters. ⁵But to Hannah he gave a worthy portion, for he loved Hannah. But the LORD had shut up her womb. ⁶And her foe also provoked her grievously, in order to make her fret, because the LORD had shut up her womb. ⁷And as he did so year by year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked her. Therefore she wept, and did not eat. ⁸Then Ēl-kā'-nāh her husband said to her, Hannah, why do you weep? And why do you not eat? And why is your heart grieved? Am I not better to you than ten sons?

⁹So Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shī'-lōh and after they had drunk. Now Eli the priest sat upon a seat by a post of the temple of the LORD. ¹⁰And she was in bitterness of soul, and prayed to the LORD, and wept sorely. ¹¹And she vowed a vow and said, O Lord of hosts, if Thou wilt indeed look upon the affliction of Thy handmaid and remember me, and not forget Thy handmaid, but will give unto Thy handmaid a man-child, then I will give him to the LORD all the days of his life, and there shall no razor come upon his head.

¹⁹And they rose up in the morning early, and worshipped before the LORD, and returned, and came to their house to Rā'-māh. And Ēl-kā'-nāh knew Hannah his wife, and the LORD remembered her. ²⁰Therefore when the time had come after Hannah had conceived, she bore a son and called his name Samuel, saying, Because I have asked him of the LORD. ²¹And the man Ēl-kā'-nāh and all his house went up to offer to the LORD the yearly sacrifice and his vow. ²²But Hannah did not go up. For she said to her husband, I will not go up until the child is weaned, and then I will bring him so that he may appear before the LORD and stay there forever. ²³And Ēl-kā'-nāh her husband said to her, Do what seems good to you. Stay until you have weaned him. Only the LORD establish His word. So the woman stayed and gave her son suck until she weaned him.

²⁴And when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bulls and one ephah of flour, and a bottle of wine, and brought him to the house of the LORD in Shiloh. And the child was young. ²⁵And they killed a bull, and brought the child to Eli. ²⁶And she said, O my lord, as your soul lives, my lord, I am the woman who stood by you here, praying to the LORD. ²⁷For this child I was praying, and the LORD has given me my petition which I asked of Him. ²⁸Therefore I have returned him to the LORD. As long as he lives he shall be given to the LORD. And he worshipped the LORD there.

¹And Hannah prayed and said, My heart rejoices in the LORD, my horn is exalted in the LORD. My mouth is enlarged over my enemies, because I rejoice in Thy salvation. ²*There is none* holy as the LORD, for there is none beside Thee. Neither is there any rock like our God. ³Talk no more so very proudly. Remove arrogancy out of your mouth, for the LORD is a God of knowledge, and by Him actions are weighed. ⁴The bows of the mighty men are broken, and they that stumbled are girded with strength. ⁵*They that were* full have hired themselves out for bread, and they that were hungry ceased — so that the barren has borne seven, and she that has many children has become feeble. ⁶The LORD kills and makes alive. He brings down to the grave, and brings up. ⁷The LORD makes poor, and makes rich. He brings low, and lifts up. ⁸He raises up the poor out of the dust, and lifts up the beggar from the dunghill to set them among princes and to make them inherit the throne of glory — for the pillars of the earth are the LORD's, and He has set the world upon them. ⁹He will keep the feet of his saints, and the wicked shall be silent in darkness, for by strength shall no man prevail. ¹⁰The foes of the LORD shall be broken to pieces. Out of heaven He shall thunder upon them. The LORD shall judge the ends of the earth. And he shall give strength to the horn of His king, and exalt the horn of His anointed.

¹¹And Ēl-kā'-nāh went to Rā'-māh to his house. And the child served the LORD before Eli the priest.

¹²Now the sons of Eli were sons of Bē'-lī-āl. They did not know the LORD. ¹³And the priests' custom with the people was, that, when any man offered sacrifice, the priest's servant came while the flesh was boiling, with a flesh-hook of three teeth in his hand. ¹⁴And he stuck it into the pan or kettle or caldron or pot. All that the flesh-hook brought up the priest took for himself. So they did in Shī'-lōh unto all the Israelites that came there. ¹⁵Also before they burned the fat, the priest's servant came and said to the man who sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priest. For he will not have boiled flesh from you, but raw! ¹⁶And if any man said to him, Let them not fail to burn the fat at once, and then take as your soul desires – then he would answer him, No! But you shall give it to me now! And if not, I will take it by force. ¹⁷Therefore the sin of the young men was very great before the LORD. For men hated the offering of the LORD.

¹⁸But Samuel served before the LORD, a child girded with a linen ephod. ¹⁹Moreover his mother made him a little coat, and brought it to him from year to year when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice. ²⁰And Eli blessed Ēl-kā'-nāh and his wife, and said, May the LORD give you seed of this woman for the loan which is loaned to the LORD. And they went to their own home. ²¹And the LORD visited Hannah so that she conceived, and she bore three sons and two daughters. And the child Samuel grew before the LORD.

²²Now Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons did to all Israel, and how they lay with the women who gathered at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ²³And he said to them, Why do you do such things? For I hear of your evil dealings by all the people. ²⁴No, my sons, for it is no good report that I hear. You make the LORD's people to cry out. ²⁵If one man sins against another, the judge shall judge him. But if a man sins against the LORD, who shall plead for him? But they did not listen to the voice of their father, because the LORD desired to kill them. ²⁶And the child Samuel grew on, and was in favor both with the LORD and also with men.

²⁷And there came a man of God to Eli, and said to him, Thus says the LORD: Did I plainly appear to the house of your father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh's house? ²⁸And did I choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be My priest, to offer upon My altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before Me? And did I give to the house of your father all the offerings made by fire from the children of Israel? ²⁹Why therefore do you kick at My sacrifices and My offerings, which I have commanded in My house? Do you honor your sons above Me, to make yourselves fat with the best of all the offerings of Israel My people? ³⁰Therefore the LORD God of Israel says, I said indeed that your house and the house of your father should walk before Me forever. But now the LORD says, Be it far from Me. For those who honor Me I will honor, and those that think little of Me shall be lightly regarded. ³¹Behold, the days come when I will cut off your arm and the arm of your father's house, so that there shall not be an old man in your house. ³²And you shall see a rival in My house, in all the good which shall be done to Israel. And there shall not be an old man in your house forever. ³³And that man of yours whom I shall not cut off from My altar, shall be left in order to make your eyes fail, and to grieve your heart. And all the increase of your house shall die in the flower of their age.

³⁴And this shall be a sign to you, which shall come upon your two sons, on Höph'-nī and Phīn'-ē-hās — in one day both of them shall die. ³⁵And I will raise up a faithful priest unto Myself, one who shall do according to that which is in My heart and in My mind. And I will build him a sure house, and he shall walk before My anointed forever. ³⁶And everyone who is left in your house shall come and bow down to him for a piece of silver and a piece of bread. And they shall say, I pray you, put me into one of the priests' offices so that I may eat a piece of bread.

¹And the child Samuel served the LORD before Eli. And the word of the LORD was precious in those days. There was no open vision. ²And at that time, when Eli had lain down in his place, and his eyes began to become dim so that he could not see — ³and before the lamp of God went out in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was, and Samuel had lain down — ⁴the LORD called Samuel. And he answered, Here am I. ⁵And he ran to Eli, and said, Here am I. For you called me. And he said, I did not call — lie down again. And he went to lie down. ⁶And the LORD called still again, Samuel! And Samuel arose and went to Eli and said, Here am I, for you called me. And he answered, I did not call, my son. Lie down again. ⁷Now Samuel did not know the LORD, neither was the word of the LORD revealed to him. ⁸And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. And he arose and went to Eli and said, Here am I, for you called me. And Eli saw that the LORD had called the child. ⁹Therefore Eli said to Samuel, Go lie down, and if He calls you, you shall say, Speak, LORD, for Thy servant hears. So Samuel went to lie down in his place. ¹⁰And the LORD came and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel! Then Samuel answered, Speak, for Thy servant hears.

¹¹And the LORD said to Samuel, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel at which both the ears of everyone who hears it shall tingle. ¹²In that day I will do against Eli all that which I have spoken as to his house. When I begin, I will also make an end. ¹³For I have told him that I will judge his house forever for the iniquity which he knows, because his sons made themselves vile and he did not hold them back. ¹⁴And therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering forever.

¹⁵And Samuel lay until morning, and opened the doors of the house of the LORD. And Samuel feared to show Eli the vision. ¹⁶Then Eli called Samuel and said, Samuel, my son. And he answered, Here am I. ¹⁷And he said, What is the thing that the LORD has said to you? I pray you, do not hide it from me. God do so to you, and more also, if you hide anything from me of all the things that He said to you. ¹⁸And Samuel told him all the things, and hid nothing from him. And he said, It is the LORD; let Him do what seems good to Him.

¹⁹And Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him and let none of his words fall to the ground. ²⁰And all Israel, from Dan even to Bēer-shē-bā, knew that Samuel was established to be a prophet of the LORD. ²¹And the LORD appeared again in Shiloh. For the LORD revealed himself to Samuel in Shī-lōh by the word of the LORD.

¹And the word of Samuel came to all Israel. Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and pitched beside Ēb-ēn-ē-zēr. And the Philistines pitched in Ā'-phēk. ²And the Philistines put themselves in order against Israel. And when they joined battle, Israel was beaten before the Philistines. And they killed about four thousand men of the army in the field.

³And when the people had come to the camp, the elders of Israel said, Why has the LORD beaten us today before the Philistines? Let us bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of Shiloh to us, so that when it comes among us it may save us out of the hand of our enemies. ⁴So the people sent to Shiloh in order to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts from there, the ark which dwells between the chēr'-ū-bīms. And the two sons of Eli, Hōph'-nī and Phīn'-ē-hās, were there with the ark of the covenant of God. ⁵And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again. ⁶And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What does the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews mean? And they understood that the ark of the LORD had come into the camp. ⁷And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, God has come into the camp. And they said, Woe unto us! For there has not been such a thing until now. ⁸Woe unto us! Who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty Gods? These are the Gods that struck the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness. ⁹Be strong and fight like men, O Philistines, so that you may not be servants to the Hebrews, as they have been to you. Be men and fight! ¹⁰And the Philistines fought, and Israel was beaten, and each one of them fled into his tent. And there was a very great slaughter, for there fell thirty thousand footmen of Israel. ¹¹And the ark of God was taken. And Hōph'-nī and Phīn'-ē-hās, the two sons of Eli, were slain.

¹²And a man of Benjamin ran out of the army. And he came to Shiloh the same day with his clothes torn and with earth upon his head. ¹³And when he came, lo, Eli sat upon a seat by the wayside watching. For his heart trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city and told it, all the city cried out. ¹⁴And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What does the noise of this tumult mean? And the man hurried in and told Eli. ¹⁵Now Eli was ninety-eight years old, and his eyes were dim so that he could not see. ¹⁶And the man said to Eli, I am he who came out of the army, and I fled today out of the army. And he said, What is done there, my son? ¹⁷And the messenger answered and said, Israel has fled before the Philistines, and there has been a great slaughter among the people also. And also your two sons, Hōph'-nī and Phīn'-ē-hās, are dead, and the ark of God is taken. ¹⁸And when he spoke of the ark of God, he fell backward off the seat, by the side of the gate. And his neck broke, and he died, for he was an old man, and heavy. And he had judged Israel forty years.

¹⁹And his daughter-in-law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, ready to be delivered. And when she heard the tidings that the ark of God was taken, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and travailed, for her pains came upon her. ²⁰And about the time of her death the women that stood by her said to her, Do not fear, for you have borne a son. But she did not answer, neither did she pay attention to it. ²¹And she named the child Ich'-ā-bōd, saying, The glory has departed from Israel — because the ark of God had been taken, and because of her father-in-law and her husband. ²²And she said, The glory is departed from Israel — for the ark of God is taken.

¹And the Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it from Ēb-ēn-ē'-zēr to Āsh'-dōd. ²When the Philistines took the ark of God, they brought it into the house of Dā'-gōn, and set it beside Dā'-gōn. ³And when those of Āsh'-dōd arose early on the next day, behold, Dā'-gōn had fallen upon his face to the earth before the ark of the LORD. And they took Dā'-gōn and set him in his place again. ⁴And when they arose early on the next morning, behold, Dā'-gōn had fallen upon his face to the earth before the ark of the LORD. And the head of Dā'-gōn, and both the palms of his hands, were cut off upon the threshold. Only the stump of Dā'-gōn was left to him. ⁵Therefore neither the priests of Dā'-gōn, nor any that come into Dā'-gōn's house, tread on the threshold of Dā'-gōn in Āsh'-dōd unto this day. ⁶But the hand of the LORD was heavy upon the people of Āsh'-dōd, and He destroyed them and struck them with hemorrhoids [hēm'-ôr-rhoids], Āsh'-dōd and the borders of it. ⁷And when the men of Āsh'-dōd saw that it was so, they said, The ark of the God of Israel shall not stay with us. For His hand is sore upon us and upon Dā'-gōn our god. ⁸Therefore they sent and gathered all the lords of the Philistines to them. And they said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried around to Gath. And they carried the ark of the God of Israel around. ⁹And it was so, that after they had carried it around, the hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great destruction. And He struck the men of the city, both small and great, and they had hēm'-ôr-rhoids in their secret parts.

¹⁰Therefore they sent the ark of God to Ēk'-rōn. And as the ark of God came to Ēk'-rōn, the Ēk'-rōn-ites cried out, saying, They have brought around the ark of the God of Israel to us in order to kill us and our people. ¹¹So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to its own place, so that it does not kill us and our people. For there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city. The hand of God was very heavy there. ¹²And the men that did not die were stricken with the hēm'-ôr-rhoids. And the cry of the city went up to heaven.

¹And the ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philistines seven months. ²And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, What shall we do to the ark of the LORD? Tell us what we shall send with it to its place. ³And they said, If you send away the ark of the God of Israel, do not send it empty. But in any case return Him a trespass offering. Then you shall be healed, and it shall be known to you why His hand is not removed from you. ⁴Then they said, What shall be the trespass offering which we shall return to Him? And they answered, Five golden hēm'-ôr-rhoids, and five golden mice, for the number of the lords of the Philistines. For one plague was upon you all, and upon your lords — ⁵therefore you shall make images of your hēm'-ôr-rhoids, and images of your mice which mar the land. And you shall give glory to the God of Israel. Perhaps He will lighten His hand from off you, and from off your gods, and from off your land. ⁶Why then do you harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When He had worked wonderfully among them, did they not let the people go, and did they not depart? ⁷Now therefore make a new cart, and take two milk cows on which there has come no yoke, and tie the cows to the cart, and bring their calves home from them. ⁸And take the ark of the LORD and lay it upon the cart. And put the jewels of gold which you return to Him for a trespass offering in a box beside it. And send it away so that it may go. ⁹And watch – if it goes up by the way of its own border to Bēth-shē'-mēsh, then He has done us this great evil. But if not, then we shall know that it is not His hand that struck us. It was a chance that happened to us.

¹⁰And the men did so. And they took two milk cows and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home. ¹¹And they laid the ark of the LORD upon the cart, and the box with the mice of gold and the images of their hēm'-ôr-rhoids. ¹²And the cows took the straight way to the way of Bēth-shē'-mēsh, going along the highway, lowing as they went. And they did not turn aside to the right or to the left. And the lords of the Philistines went after them unto the border of Bēth-shē'-mēsh. ¹³And the people of Bēth-shē'-mēsh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley. And they lifted up their eyes and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it. ¹⁴And the cart came into the field of Joshua, a Bēth-shē'-mīte, and stood there beside a great stone. And they cut the wood of the cart and offered the cows as a burnt offering unto the LORD. ¹⁵And the Levites took down the ark of the LORD and the box that was in it, in which the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone. And the men of Bēth-shē'-mēsh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices the same day unto the LORD. ¹⁶And when the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ēk'-rōn the same day. ¹⁷And these are the golden hēm'-ôr-rhoids which the Philistines returned for a trespass offering unto the LORD – for Āsh'-dōd one, for Gā'-zā one, for Ās'-kē-lōn one, for Gath one, for Ēk'-rōn one. ¹⁸And the golden mice were according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, of fenced cities and of country villages, even to the great stone of Abel, on which they set down the ark of the LORD. This stone remains unto this day in the field of Joshua the Bēth-she'-mīte.

¹⁹And He struck the men of Bēth-shē'-mēsh because they had looked into the ark of the LORD. He even struck fifty-three thousand and ten men of the people. And the people lamented because the LORD had struck many of the people with a great slaughter. ²⁰And the men of Bēth-shē'-mēsh said, Who is able to stand before this holy LORD God? And to whom shall He go up from us? ²¹And they sent messengers to the people of Kīr-jāth-jē'-ā-rīm, saying, The Philistines have brought again the ark of the LORD. Come down and bring it up to yourselves.

¹And the men of Kīr-jāth-jē'-ā-rīm came and brought up the ark of the LORD, and brought it into the house of Ā-bīn'-ā-dāb in the hill. And they sanctified Ēl-ē-ā'-zār his son to keep the ark of the LORD. ²And the ark remained in Kīr-jāth-jē'-ā-rīm a long time — for it was twenty years. And all the house of Israel yearned after the LORD.

³And Samuel spoke to all the house of Israel saying, If you do return to the LORD with all your hearts, then put away the strange gods and Āsh'-tā-rōth from among you, and prepare your hearts to the LORD, and serve Him only. And He will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines. ⁴Then the children of Israel did put away Bā'-ā-līm and Āsh'-tā-rōth, and served the LORD only. ⁵And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Miz'-pēh, and I will pray for you unto the LORD. ⁶And they came together to Miz'-pēh, and drew water, and poured it out before the LORD, and fasted on that day. And they said there, We have sinned against the LORD. And Samuel judged the children of Israel in Miz'-pēh. ⁷And when the Philistines heard that the children of Israel had come together to Miz'-pēh, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard, they were afraid of the Philistines. ⁸And the children of Israel said to Samuel, Do not cease from crying unto the LORD our God for us, so that He will save us out of the hand of the Philistines.

⁹And Samuel took a suckling lamb, and offered it for a burnt offering wholly unto the LORD. And Samuel cried unto the LORD for Israel, and the LORD heard him. ¹⁰And as Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel. But the LORD thundered with a great thunder on that day upon the Philistines, and troubled them. And they were beaten before Israel. ¹¹And the men of Israel went out of Miz'-pēh, and pursued the Philistines, and struck them until they came under Bēth'-cār. ¹²Then Samuel took a stone and set it between Miz'-pēh and Shen, and called the name of it Ēb-ēn-ē'-zēr, saying, The LORD has helped us until now.

¹³So the Philistines were beaten, and they did not come any more into the border of Israel. And the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel. ¹⁴And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were given back to Israel, from Ek'-rōn even unto Gath. And Israel delivered the borders of it out of the hands of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

¹⁵And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life. ¹⁶And he went from year to year in a circuit to Bethel and Gīl'-gāl and Miz'-pēh, and judged Israel in all those places. ¹⁷And his return was to Rā'-māh, for his house was there. And he judged Israel there. And he built an altar there unto the LORD.

⁶But the thing was evil in the eyes of Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us. And Samuel prayed unto the LORD. ⁷And the LORD said unto Samuel, Listen to the voice of the people in all that they say to you. For they have not rejected you, but they have rejected Me, that I should not reign over them. ⁸According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even until this day — works with which they have forsaken Me and served other gods — so they do also to you. ⁹Now therefore listen to their voice. However, still protest solemnly to them, and show them the kind of king who shall reign over them.

¹⁰And Samuel told all the words of the LORD to the people who asked a king of him. ¹¹And he said, This will be the kind of king who shall reign over you. He shall take your sons and appoint them for himself, for his chariots, and to be his horsemen. And some shall run before his chariots. ¹²And he will appoint him captains over thousands, and captains over fifties. And some will have to plow his ground and reap his harvest, and make his weapons of war and things for his chariots. ¹³And he will take your daughters to be perfumers and cooks and bakers. ¹⁴And he will take your fields and your vineyards and your olive-yards, the best, and give them to his servants. ¹⁵And he will take the tenth of your seed and of your vineyards, and give it to his officers and to his servants. ¹⁶And he will take your men-servants and your maid-servants, and your finest young men, and your asses, and put them to his work. ¹⁷He will take the tenth of your sheep, and you shall be his servants. ¹⁸And you shall cry out in that day because of your king whom you have chosen, and the LORD will not hear you in that day.

¹⁹Nevertheless the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel. And they said, No, but we will have a king over us, ²⁰so that we also may be like all the nations, so that our king may judge us and go out before us and fight our battles. ²¹And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he repeated them in the ears of the LORD. ²²And the LORD said to Samuel, Listen to their voice, and make them a king. And Samuel said to the men of Israel, Every man go to his city.

¹Now there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was Kish, the son of Ā-bī'-ēl, the son of Zē'-rôr, the son of Bě-chō'-rāth, the son of Ā-phī'-āh, a Benjamite, a mighty man of power. ²And he had a son whose name was Saul, a choice young man and a goodly one. And there was not a more handsome one than he among all the children of Israel. From his shoulders and upward he was taller than any of the people. ³And the asses of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. And Kish said to Saul his son, Now take one of the servants with you and rise, and go look for the asses. ⁴And he passed through Mount Ephraim, and passed through the land of Shāl'-ī-shā, but they did not find them. Then they passed through the land of Shā'-līm, and did not. And he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they did not find them. ⁵And when they had come to the land of Zûph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, Come and let us return — lest my father quit caring for the asses, and be anxious about us. ⁶And he said to him, Behold now, in this city is a man of God, and an honorable man. All that he says surely comes to pass. Now let us go there. Perhaps he can show us our way that we should go. ⁷Then Saul said to his servant, But behold, if we go, what shall we bring the man? For the bread in our vessels is gone, and there is no present to bring to the man of God. What do we have? ⁸And the servant answered Saul again, and said, Behold, I have here at hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver. I will give it to the man of God to tell us our way. ⁹(In the old days in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, he spoke in this way — Come, let us go to the seer — for a prophet was in the old days called a seer.) ¹⁰Then Saul said to his servant, Your word is good. Come, let us go. So they went into the city where the man of God was.

¹¹And as they went up the hill to the city, they found young maidens going out to draw water. And they said to them, Is the seer here? ¹²And they answered them and said, He is. Behold, he is before you. Hurry now, for he came today to the city, for there is a feast of the people today in the high place. ¹³As soon as you have come to the city, you shall immediately find him before he goes up to the high place to eat. For the people will not eat until he comes, because he blesses the feast. Afterwards those who have been invited eat. Now therefore go up, for about this time you shall find him. ¹⁴And they went up into the city. When they had come into the city, behold, Samuel came out across from them to go up to the high place.

¹⁵Now the LORD had told Samuel in his ear a day before Saul came, saying, ¹⁶Tomorrow about this time I will send you a man out of the land of Benjamin. And you shall anoint him to be captain over My people Israel, so that he may save My people out of the hand of the Philistines. For I have looked upon My people because their cry has come to Me. ¹⁷And when Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said to him, Behold the man whom I spoke to you of! This one shall reign over My people.

¹⁸Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate and said, I pray you, tell me where the seer's house is. ¹⁹And Samuel answered Saul and said, I am the seer. Go up before me to the high place. For you shall eat with me today, and tomorrow I will let you go, and will tell you all that is in your heart. ²⁰And as for your asses that were lost three days ago, do not set your mind on them. For they are found. And on whom is all the desire of Israel? Is it not on you and on all your father's house? ²¹And Saul answered and said, Am I not a Benjamite, of the smallest of all the tribes of Israel? And is not my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? Why then do you speak so to me? ²²And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the parlor, and made them sit in the chief place among those who had been invited, about thirty persons. ²³And Samuel said to the cook, Bring that part which I gave you, of which I said to you, Set it beside you. ²⁴And the cook took up the shoulder and that which was upon it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, Behold that which is reserved! Set it before you and eat. For until this time it has been kept for you, since I said, I have invited the people. So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

²⁵And when they had come down from the high place into the city, Samuel talked with Saul upon the top of the house. ²⁶And they arose early. And it came to pass about the spring of the day that Samuel called Saul to the top of the house, saying, Up! so that I may send you away. And Saul arose, and both of them went out, he and Samuel, outside. ²⁷And as they were going down to the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Tell the servant to pass on before us (and he passed on), but you stand still awhile, so that I may show you the word of God.

¹Then Samuel took a vial of oil and poured it upon his head, and kissed him, and said, Is it not because the LORD has anointed you to be captain over His inheritance? ²When you have departed from me today, then you shall find two men by Rachel's tomb in the border of Benjamin at Zēl'-zāh. And they will say to you, The asses which you went to seek are found. And lo, your father has quit caring for the asses and sorrows for you, saying, What shall I do for my son? ³Then you shall go forward from there, and you shall come to the plain of Tabor. And there you shall meet three men going up to God to Bethel, one carrying three kids, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine. ⁴And they will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you shall take from their hands.

⁵After that you shall come to the hill of God, where the garrison of the Philistines is. And when you have come there to the city, you shall meet a company of prophets coming down from the high place with a psaltery and a tāb'-rēt and a pipe and a harp before them. And they shall prophesy. ⁶And the spirit of the LORD will come upon you, and you shall prophesy with them, and shall be turned into another man. ⁷And when these signs have come unto you, you will do as you shall find occasion, for God is with you. ⁸And you shall go down before me to Gil'-gāl. And behold, I will come down to you to offer burnt offerings and to sacrifice sacrifices of peace offerings. You shall stay seven days until I come to you and show you what you shall do.

⁹And it was so, that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God gave him another heart. And all those signs came to pass that day. ¹⁰And when they came there to the hill, behold, a company of prophets met him. And the Spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among them. ¹¹And when all who knew him before saw that, behold, he prophesied among the prophets, then the people said to one another, What is this that has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets? ¹²And one from the same place answered and said, But who is their father? Therefore it became a proverb, Is Saul also among the prophets? ¹³And when he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place.

¹⁴And Saul's uncle said to him and to his servant, Where did you go? And he said, To look for the asses. And when we saw that they were nowhere to be found, we came to Samuel. ¹⁵And Saul's uncle said, Tell me, I pray you, what Samuel said to you. ¹⁶And Saul said to his uncle, He told us plainly that the asses were found. But he did not tell him of the matter of the kingdom of which Samuel spoke.

¹⁷And Samuel called the people together to the LORD to Miz'-pēh. ¹⁸And he said to the children of Israel, Thus says the LORD God of Israel, I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all kingdoms, and of those who oppressed you. ¹⁹And you have this day rejected your God, who Himself saved you out of all your adversities and your tribulations. And you have said to Him, you shall set a king over us. Now therefore present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and by your thousands. ²⁰And when Samuel had caused all the tribes of Israel to come near, the tribe of Benjamin was taken. ²¹When he had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Mā'-trī was taken, and Saul the son of Kish was taken.

And when they looked for him, he could not be found. ²²Therefore they inquired of the LORD further, if the man would still come to that place. And the LORD answered, Behold, he has hidden himself among the stuff. ²³And they ran and brought him from there. And when he stood among the people, he was higher than any of the people from his shoulders and upward. ²⁴And Samuel said to all the people, Do you see him whom the LORD has chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, and said, Let the king live! ²⁵Then Samuel told the people what kind of kingdom it was to be, and wrote it in a book and laid it up before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.

²⁶And Saul also went home to Gīb'-ē-āh. And a band of men went with him, whose hearts God had touched. ²⁷But the children of Bē'-lī-āl said, How shall this man save us? And they despised him and brought him no presents. But he held his peace.

¹Then Nā'-hāsh the Ammonite came up and camped against Jā'-bēsh-gīl'-ē-ād. And all the men of Jā'-bēsh said to Nā'-hāsh, Make a covenant with us, and we will serve you. ²And Nā'-hāsh the Ammonite answered them, By this I will make a covenant with you, that I may put out all your right eyes and lay it for a reproach upon all Israel. ³And the elders of Jā'-bēsh said to him, Bear with us seven days, so that we may send messengers to all the coasts of Israel. And then if there is no man to save us, we will come out to you.

⁴Then the messengers came to Gīb'-ē-āh of Saul, and told the tidings in the ears of the people. And all the people lifted up their voices and wept. ⁵And behold, Saul came after the herd out of the field. And Saul said, What is wrong with the people that they weep? And they told him the tidings of the men of Jā'-bēsh. ⁶And the Spirit of God came upon Saul when he heard those tidings, and his anger was kindled greatly. ⁷And he took a yoke of oxen and cut them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the coasts of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, Whoever does not come forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done to his oxen. And the fear of the LORD fell upon the people, and they came out with one consent. ⁸And when he numbered them in Bē'-zēk, the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand. ⁹And they said to the messengers that came, So shall you say to the men of Jā'-bēsh-gīl'-ē-ād, Tomorrow by the time the sun is hot, you shall have help. And the messengers came and showed it to the men of Jā'-bēsh, and they were glad.

¹⁰Therefore the men of Jā'-bēsh said, Tomorrow we will come out to you, and you shall do with us all that seems good to you. ¹¹And it was so on the next day, that Saul put the people in three companies, and they came into the middle of the army at the morning watch. And they killed the Amorites until the heat of the day. And the ones who remained were scattered, so that two of them were not left together. ¹²And the people said to Samuel, Who is he that said, Shall Saul reign over us? Bring the men so that we may put them to death. ¹³And Saul said, There shall not a man be put to death this day – for today the LORD has worked salvation in Israel. ¹⁴Then Samuel said to the people, Come and let us go to Gīl'-gāl and renew the kingdom there. ¹⁵And all the people went to Gīl'-gāl. And there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gīl'-gāl, and there they sacrificed sacrifices of peace offerings before the LORD. And there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

¹And Samuel said to all Israel, Behold, I have listened to your voice in all that you said to me, and have made a king over you. ²And now, behold, the king walks before you. And I am old and gray-headed, and, behold, my sons are with you. And I have walked before you from my childhood unto this day. ³Behold, here I am. Witness against me before the LORD and before His anointed. Whose ox have I taken? Or whose ass have I taken? Or whom have I defrauded? Whom have I oppressed? Or from whose hand have I received a bribe, to blind my eyes with it? And I will restore it to you. ⁴And they said, You have not defrauded us nor oppressed us, neither have you taken anything from any man's hand. ⁵And he said to them, The LORD is witness against you, and His anointed is witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand. And they answered, He is witness.

⁶And Samuel said to the people, It is the LORD who made Moses and Aaron, and who brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt. ⁷Now therefore stand still, so that I may reason with you before the LORD of all the righteous acts of the LORD which He did to you and to your fathers. ⁸When Jacob had come into Egypt, and your fathers cried unto the LORD, then the LORD sent Moses and Aaron, who brought forth your fathers out of Egypt and made them live in this place. ⁹And when they forgot the LORD their God, He sold them into the hand of Sis'-ē-rā, captain of the army of Hā'-zôr, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought against them. ¹⁰And they cried unto the LORD, and said, We have sinned because we have forsaken the LORD, and have served Bā'-ā-līm and Āsh'-tā-rôth. But now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve Thee. ¹¹And the LORD sent Jēr-üb-bā'-āl, and Bē'-dān, and Jēph'-thāh, and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side, and you lived safely. ¹²And when you saw that Nā'-hāsh the king of the children of Ammon came against you, you said unto me, No, but a king shall reign over us – when the LORD your God was your King. ¹³Now therefore, behold the king whom you have chosen, whom you have desired! And behold, the LORD has set a king over you! ¹⁴If you will fear the LORD, and serve him, and obey His voice, and not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then both you and also the king who reigns over you shall continue following the LORD your God. ¹⁵But if you will not obey the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then the hand of the LORD shall be against you as it was against your fathers.

¹⁶Now therefore stand and see this great thing which the LORD shall do before your eyes. ¹⁷Is it not wheat harvest today? I will call unto the LORD, and He shall send thunder and rain, so that you may perceive and see that your wickedness is great — your wickedness which you have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking a king for you. ¹⁸So Samuel called unto the LORD. And the LORD sent thunder and rain that day. And all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel. ¹⁹And all the people said unto Samuel, Pray for your servants unto the LORD your God, so that we will not die. For we have added this evil to all our sins, to ask a king for us. ²⁰And Samuel said to the people, Do not fear. You have done all this wickedness. Yet do not turn aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart. ²¹And do not turn aside after vanities, which cannot profit nor deliver. For they are vain. ²²For the LORD will not forsake His people for His great name's sake — because it has pleased the LORD to make you His people. ²³Moreover, as for me, God forbid that I should sin against the LORD in ceasing to pray for you. But I will teach you the good and the right way. ²⁴Only fear the LORD, and serve Him in truth with all your heart. For consider what great things He has done for you. ²⁵But if you shall still do wickedly, you shall be consumed, both you and your king.

¹Saul reigned one year. And when he had reigned two years over Israel, ²Saul chose three thousand men of Israel for himself — two thousand of these were with Saul in Mich'-māsh and in Mount Bethel, and a thousand were with Jōn'-ā-thān in Gīb'-ē-āh of Benjamin. And of the rest of the people he sent each man to his tent. ³And Jonathan struck the company of the Philistines that was in Gē'-bā, and the Philistines heard of it. And Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Let the Hebrews hear. ⁴And all Israel heard say that Saul had struck a garrison of the Philistines, and that Israel also did stink in the nostrils of the Philistines. And the people were called together to Gil'-gāl after Saul.

is on the seashore in multitude. And they Mīch'-māsh, eastward from Bēth-ā'-vën. ⁶And that they were in a tight place (for the men the people hid themselves in caves, rocks, and in high places, and in pits. ⁷And over Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. Gīl'-gāl, and all the people followed him seven days, according to the time that did not come to Gīl'-gāl. And the people and Saul said, Bring a burnt offering here. And he offered the burnt offering. ¹⁰And and of offering the burnt offering, behold, let him so that he might greet him. ¹¹And you done? And Saul said, Because I saw fled from me, and that you did not come and that the Philistines gathered themselves, ¹²therefore I said, The Philistines will to Gīl'-gāl, and I have not made supplication. ¹³For I forced myself and offered a burnt offering to Saul, You have done foolishly. You contempt of the LORD your God, which He the LORD would have established your kingdom. ¹⁴But now your kingdom shall not go with Him a man after His own heart, and the LORD will not be captain over His people, because the LORD commanded you. ¹⁵And Jonathan went from Gīl'-gāl to Gīb'-ē-āh of Benjamin. About six hundred men present with him, about six hundred men his son, and the people present with Jonathan of Benjamin. But the Philistines camped at the camp of the Philistines in three companies. ¹⁶And one company turned to the way to Ōph'-rāh, unto the other company turned to the way to Bēth-lehem. ¹⁷And the third company turned to the way of the border that is toward the wilderness. ¹⁹Now throughout all the land of Israel. For the Philistines make swords or spears. ²⁰But all the Philistines, each one to sharpen his sword, and his mattock. ²¹Yet they had no plow, and no coulter, and for the forks, and for the goads. ²²So in the day of battle there was no sword in the hand of any of the people that was in Israel. But with Saul and with Jonathan his son there was found sword and spear. ²³And the garrison of the Philistines went out to the passage of Mich'-māsh.

¹Now there was a day that Jonathan the son of Saul said to the young man who bore his armor, Come and let us go over to the Philistines' troop which is on the other side. But he did not tell his father. ²And Saul stayed in the furthest part of Gib'-ē-āh under a pomegranate [pōm'-grān-āte] tree which is in Mig'-rōn. And the people who were with him were about six hundred men. ³And Ā-hī'-āh, the son of Ā-hī'-tūb, Ich'-ā-bōd's brother, the son of Phīn'-ē-hās, the son of Eli, the LORD's priest in Shī'-lōh, was wearing an ephod. And the people did not know that Jonathan was gone.

⁴And between the passages by which Jonathan sought to go over to the Philistines' troop there was a sharp rock on the one side and a sharp rock on the other side. And the name of the one was Bō'-zēz, and the name of the other Sēn'-ēh. ⁵The front of the one was north over against Mich'-māsh, and the other southward over against Gib'-ē-āh. ⁶And Jonathan said to the young man who bore his armor, Come, and let us go over to the troop of these uncircumcised. It may be that the LORD will work for us. For there is no restraint to the LORD, to save by many or by few. ⁷And his armor-bearer said to him, Do all that is in your heart. Turn, for behold, I am with you according to your heart. ⁸Then Jonathan said, Behold, we will go over to these men, and we will show ourselves to them. ⁹If they say to us, stay until we come to you, then we will stand still in our place and will not go up to them. ¹⁰But if they say this, Come up to us — then we will go up, for the LORD has delivered them up into our hand. And this shall be a sign to us.

¹¹And both of them showed themselves to the troop of the Philistines. And the Philistines said, Behold, the Hebrews come forth out of the holes where they have hidden themselves. ¹²And the men of the troop answered Jonathan and his armor-bearer and said, Come up to us, and we will show you a thing. And Jonathan said to his armor-bearer, Come up after me, for the LORD has delivered them into the hand of Israel. ¹³And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands and feet, and his armor-bearer after him. And they fell before Jonathan, and his armor-bearer killed after him. ¹⁴And that first slaughter which Jonathan and his armor-bearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were a half acre of land which a yoke of oxen might plow. ¹⁵And there was trembling in the army, in the field, and among all the people. The troop and the spoilers also trembled, and the earth quaked — so it was a very great trembling. ¹⁶And the watchmen of Saul in Gib'-ē-āh of Benjamin looked, and behold, the multitude melted away, and they went on beating down one another. ¹⁷Then said Saul to the people who were with him, Number now and see who is gone from us. And when they had counted, behold, Jonathan and his armor-bearer were not there. ¹⁸And Saul said to Ā-hī'-āh, Bring the ark of God here. For the ark of God was at that time with the children of Israel.

¹⁹And while Saul talked to the priest, the noise that was in the army of the Philistines went on and grew greater. And Saul said to the priest, Withdraw your hand. ²⁰And Saul and all the people that were with him gathered themselves together. And they came to the battle. And, behold, every man's sword was against his fellow. There was a very great destruction. ²¹Moreover the Hebrews that were with the Philistines before that time, who went up with them into the camp all around, even they also turned to be with the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan. ²²Likewise all the men of Israel who had hidden themselves in Mount Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle. ²³So the LORD saved Israel that day, and the battle passed over to Bēth-ā'-vēn.

²⁴And the men of Israel were distressed that day. For Saul had commanded the people, saying, Cursed is the man that eats any food until evening, so that I may be avenged on my enemies. So none of the people tasted any food. ²⁵And all the men of the land came to a woods, and there was honey on the ground. ²⁶And when the people had come into the woods, behold, the honey dropped. But no man put his hand to his mouth, for the people feared the oath. ²⁷But Jonathan did not hear when his father commanded the people with the oath. Therefore he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand and dipped it in a honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth. And his eyes were lightened. ²⁸Then one from the people answered and said, Your father strictly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed is the man who eats any food this day. And the people were weary. ²⁹Then Jonathan said, My father has troubled the land. I pray you, see how my eyes have been lightened because I tasted a little of this honey. ³⁰How much more if the people had happened to eat freely today of the spoil of their enemies which they found? For would not there have been a much greater slaughter among the Philistines? ³¹And they struck the Philistines that day from Mīch'-māsh to Aī'-jā-lōn, and the people were very faint. ³²And the people flew upon the spoil, and took sheep and oxen and calves, and killed them on the ground. And the people ate them with the blood.

³³Then they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sin against the LORD in that they eat meat with the blood. And he said, You have transgressed. Roll a great stone to me this day. ³⁴And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people and say to them, Let each man bring his ox here, and each man his sheep, and kill them here, and eat. And do not sin against the LORD in eating with the blood. And each man of all the people brought his ox in his hand that night, and killed them there. ³⁵And Saul built an altar unto the LORD. The same was the first altar that he built unto the LORD.

³⁶And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night and spoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatever seems good to you. Then the priest said, Let us draw near here unto God. ³⁷And Saul asked counsel of God: Shall I go down after the Philistines? Wilt Thou deliver them into the hand of Israel? But He answered him not that day. ³⁸And Saul said, Draw near here, all the chief of the people, and know and see what this sin has been this day. ³⁹For, as the LORD lives, He who saves Israel, though it is in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die. But there was not a man among all the people who answered him. ⁴⁰Then he said to all Israel, You be on one side, and Jonathan my son and I will be on the other side. And the people said to Saul, Do what seems good to you. ⁴¹Therefore Saul said to the LORD God of Israel, Give a perfect lot.

And Saul and Jonathan were taken, but the people escaped. ⁴²And Saul said, Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken. ⁴³Then Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what you have done. And Jonathan told him and said, I did but taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in my hand, and, lo, I must die. ⁴⁴And Saul answered, God do so and more also, for you shall surely die, Jonathan. ⁴⁵And the people said to Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who has worked out this great salvation in Israel? God forbid! As the LORD lives, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground, for he has worked with God this day. So the people rescued Jonathan, so that he did not die. ⁴⁶Then Saul went up from following the Philistines. And the Philistines went to their own place.

⁴⁷So Saul took the kingdom over Israel and fought against all his enemies on every side — against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of Zō'-bāh, and against the Philistines. And wherever he turned himself, he troubled them. ⁴⁸And he gathered an army and struck the Ā-māl'-ĕk-ītes, and delivered Israel out of the hands of those who spoiled them. ⁴⁹Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and Īsh'-ū-ī, and Mēl-chī-shū'-ā. And the names of his two daughters: the name of the first-born was Mē'-rāb, and the name of the younger was Mī'-chāl. ⁵⁰And the name of Saul's wife was Ā-hīn'-ō-ām, the daughter of Ā-hī'-mā-āz. And the name of the captain of his army was Abner, the son of Ner, Saul's uncle. ⁵¹And Kīsh was the father of Saul. And Ner the father of Abner was the son of Ā-bī'-ĕl. ⁵²And there was heavy war against the Philistines all the days of Saul. And when Saul saw any strong man, or any brave man, he took him to himself.

¹Samuel also said to Saul, The LORD sent me to anoint you to be king over His people, over Israel. Now therefore listen to the voice of the words of the LORD. ²Thus says the LORD of hosts, I remember that which Ām'-ā-lēk did to Israel, how he laid wait for him in the way when he came up from Egypt. ³Now go and strike Ām'-ā-lēk, and completely destroy all that they have, and do not spare them. But kill both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass. ⁴And Saul gathered the people together and numbered them in Tē-lā'im, two hundred thousand footmen and ten thousand men of Judah. ⁵And Saul came to a city of Ām'-ā-lēk and laid wait in the valley.

⁶And Saul said to the Kē'nītes, Go! Depart! Get down from among the Ā-māl'-ēk-ītes, lest I destroy you with them. For you showed kindness to all the children of Israel when they came up out of Egypt. So the Kē'nītes departed from among the Ā-māl'-ēk-ītes. ⁷And Saul struck the Ā-māl'-ēk-ītes from Hāv'-ī-lāh, until you come to Shūr, which is over across from Egypt. ⁸And he took Ā'-gāg the king of the Ā-māl'-ēk-ītes alive. And he completely destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword. ⁹But Saul and the people spared Agag and the best of the sheep and of the oxen and of the fatlings and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not completely destroy them. But everything that was vile and refuse they completely destroyed.

¹⁰Then the word of the LORD came to Samuel saying, ¹¹It repents Me that I have set up Saul to be king. For he has turned back from following Me and has not done My commandments. And it grieved Samuel, and he cried out unto the Lord all night. ¹²And when Samuel rose up early in the morning to meet Saul, it was told to Samuel, saying, Saul came to Cār'-mēl, and behold, he set up a place for himself, and has gone around and passed on and gone down to Gil'-gāl. ¹³And Samuel came to Saul. And Saul said to him, You are blessed of the LORD. I have done the commandment of the LORD. ¹⁴And Samuel said, What then does this bleating of the sheep in my ears mean? And what is the lowing of the oxen which I hear? ¹⁵And Saul said, They have brought them from the Ā-māl'-ēk-ītes. For the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen to sacrifice unto the LORD your God. And the rest we have completely destroyed.

¹⁶Then Samuel said to Saul, Wait, and I will tell you what the LORD has said to me this night. And he said to him, Say on. ¹⁷And Samuel said, When you were little in your own sight, were you not made the head of the tribes of Israel? And the LORD anointed you king over Israel. ¹⁸And the LORD sent you on a journey and said, Go and completely destroy the sinners, the Ā-māl'-ēk-ītes, and fight against them until they have been destroyed. ¹⁹Why then did you not obey the voice of the LORD? Why did you fly upon the spoil and do evil in the sight of the LORD? ²⁰And Saul said to Samuel, Yes, I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and have gone the way which the LORD sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Ām'-ā-lēk, and have completely destroyed the Ā-māl'-ēk-ites. ²¹But the people took sheep and oxen from the spoil, the best of the things which should have been completely destroyed, to sacrifice to the LORD your God in Gil'-gāl. ²²And Samuel said, Does the LORD have as much delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice! To listen is better than the fat of rams! ²³For rebellion is like the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is like iniquity and idol-worship. Behold! You have rejected the LORD! He has also rejected you from being king!

²⁴And Saul said to Samuel, I have sinned. For I have disobeyed the commandment of the LORD, and your words, because I feared the people and obeyed their voice. ²⁵Now therefore I pray you, pardon my sin and turn again with me so that I may worship the LORD. ²⁶And Samuel said to Saul, I will not return with you, for you have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel. ²⁷And as Samuel turned around to go away, he laid hold upon the skirt of his mantle, and it tore. ²⁸And Samuel said to him, The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you this day, and has given it to a neighbor of yours who is better than you. ²⁹And also the Strength of Israel will not lie nor repent, for He is not a man that He should repent. ³⁰Then he said, I have sinned. Yet honor me now, I pray you, before the elders of my people and before Israel, and turn again with me so that I may worship the LORD your God. ³¹So Samuel turned again after Saul, and Saul worshipped the LORD.

³²Then Samuel said, Bring here to me Agag the king of the Ā-māl'-ēk-ites. And Agag came to him daintily. And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past. ³³And Samuel said, As your sword has made women childless, so shall your mother be childless among women. And Samuel cut Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gil'-gāl.

³⁴Then Samuel went to Rā'-māh. And Saul went up to his house to Gīb'-ē-āh of Saul. ³⁵And Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death. Nevertheless Samuel mourned for Saul. And the LORD repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.

¹And the LORD said to Samuel, How long will you mourn for Saul, since I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go. I will send you to Jesse of Bethlehem. For I have provided a king for Me among his sons. ²And Samuel said, How can I go? If Saul hears, he will kill me. And the LORD said, Take a heifer with you and say, I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. ³And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do. And you shall anoint unto Me him whom I name to you. ⁴And Samuel did that which the LORD spoke, and came to Bethlehem. And the elders of the town trembled at his coming and said, Do you come peaceably? ⁵And he said, Peaceably — I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. Sanctify yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

⁶And when they had come, he looked upon Ē-lī'-āb and said, Surely the LORD's anointed is before Him. ⁷But the LORD said to Samuel, Do not look upon his face, nor upon his height, because I have refused him. For the LORD does not see as man sees. For man looks upon the outward appearance, but the LORD looks upon the heart. ⁸Then Jesse called Ā-bin'-ē-dāb and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, Neither has the LORD chosen this one. ⁹Then Jesse made Shām'-māh to pass by. And he said, Neither has the LORD chosen this one. ¹⁰Again, Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel. And Samuel said to Jesse, The LORD has not chosen these. ¹¹And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are all your children here? And he said, There remains yet the youngest, and behold, he keeps the sheep. And Samuel said to Jesse, Send and bring him, for we will not sit down until he comes here. ¹²And he sent and brought him in. Now he was ruddy and altogether of a beautiful face, and goodly to look upon. And the LORD said, Arise, anoint him. For this is the one.

¹³Then Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers. And the spirit of the LORD came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel rose up and went to Rā'-māh.

¹⁹Therefore Saul sent messengers to Jesse and said, Send me your son David, who is with the sheep. ²⁰And Jesse took an ass loaded with bread and a bottle of wine and a kid, and sent them by David his son to Saul. ²¹And David came to Saul and stood before him. And he loved him greatly, and he became his armor-bearer. ²²And Saul sent to Jesse saying, I pray you, let David stand before me, for he has found favor in my sight. ²³And it came to pass, when the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, that David took a harp and played with his hand. So Saul was refreshed and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him.

⁴And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named Gō-lī'-āth, from Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span. ⁵And he had a helmet of brass upon his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail. And the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of brass. ⁶And he had greaves of brass upon his legs and a buckler of brass between his shoulders. ⁷And the staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam. And his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron. And one went in front of him, carrying a shield. ⁸And he stood and cried to the armies of Israel, and said to them, Why have you come out to set your battle in order? Am I not a Philistine, and are you not servants to Saul? Choose a man for you, and let him come down to me. ⁹If he is able to fight with me and kill me, then we will be your servants. But if I prevail against him and kill him, then you shall be our servants and serve us. ¹⁰And the Philistine said, I defy the armies of Israel this day. Give me a man, so that we may fight together. ¹¹When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed and greatly afraid.

¹²Now David was the son of that Ēph'-rā'-thite of Bethlehem-judah whose name was Jesse. And Jesse had eight sons. And the man was an old man in the days of Saul. ¹³And the three oldest sons of Jesse went and followed Saul to the battle. And the names of his three sons that went to the battle were Ē-lī'-āb the first-born, and next to him Ā-bin'-ā-dāb, and the third Shām'-māh. ¹⁴And David was the youngest. And the three oldest followed Saul. ¹⁵And David went and returned from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Bethlehem. ¹⁶And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days. ¹⁷And Jesse said to David his son, Now take for your brothers an ē'-phāh of this parched grain, and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to your brothers. ¹⁸And carry these ten cheeses of milk to the captain of their thousand, and see how your brothers are faring, and take their pledge. ¹⁹Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of E'-lāh fighting with the Philistines.

²⁸And E'-li'-āb his oldest brother heard when he spoke to the man. And E'-li'-āb's anger was kindled against David, and he said, Why did you come down here? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your pride and the naughtiness of your heart. For you have come down so that you might see the battle. ²⁹And David said, What have I done now? Is there not a cause? ³⁰And he turned from him toward another, and spoke in the same way. And the people answered him again in the same way. ³¹And when the words which David spoke were heard, they told them before Saul. And he sent for him.

³²And David said to Saul, Let no man's heart fail because of him. Your servant will go and fight with this Philistine. ³³And Saul said to David, You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him. For you are but a youth, and he is a man of war from his youth. ³⁴And David said to Saul, Your servant kept his father's sheep, and there came a lion and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock. ³⁵And I went out after it and struck it, and delivered the lamb out of its mouth. And when it rose against me, I caught it by the beard, and struck it and killed it. ³⁶Your servant killed both the lion and the bear. And this uncircumcised Philistine shall be like one of them, since he has defied the armies of the living God. ³⁷And David said moreover, The LORD who delivered me out of the paw of the lion and out of the paw of the bear, He will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said to David, Go, and may the LORD be with you.

³⁸And Saul armed David with his armor, and he put a helmet of brass upon his head. He also armed him with a coat of mail. ³⁹And David girded his sword on his armor, and he tried to go. But he had not tested it. And David said to Saul, I cannot go with these, for I have tested them. And David put them off him. ⁴⁰And he took his staff in his hand, and chose five smooth stones out of the brook for himself, and put them in a shepherd's vessel which he had, even in a bag. And his sling was in his hand. And he drew near the Philistine.

⁴¹And the Philistine came on and drew near David. And the man who bore the shield went in front of him. ⁴²And when the Philistine looked around and saw David, he disdained him. For he was only a youth, and ruddy, and of a beautiful face. ⁴³And the Philistine said to David, Am I a dog that you come to me with sticks? And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. ⁴⁴And the Philistine said to David, Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the air and to the beasts of the field. ⁴⁵And David said to the Philistine, You come to me with a sword and with a spear and with a shield. But I come to you in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. ⁴⁶The LORD will deliver you into my hand today, and I will strike you and take your head from you. And I will give the bodies of the army of the Philistines to the birds of the air today, and to the wild beasts of the earth, so that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel. ⁴⁷And all this multitude shall know that the LORD does not save with sword and spear; for the battle is the LORD'S, and He will give you into our hands.

⁴⁸And when the Philistine rose and came and drew near to meet David, David hurried and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine. ⁴⁹And David put his hand into his bag and took a stone from there, and threw it with his sling and struck the Philistine in his forehead, so that the stone sank into his forehead. And he fell upon his face to the earth. ⁵⁰So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and struck the Philistine, and killed him.

But there was no sword in the hand of David. ⁵¹Then David ran and stood upon the Philistine, and took out his sword and drew it out of its sheath, and killed him, and cut off his head with it. And when the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled. ⁵²And the men of Israel and Judah pursued the Philistines until you come to the valley, and to the gates of Ĕk'-rōn. And the wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to Shā-ā-rā'-īm, even to Gath and to Ĕk'-rōn. ⁵³And the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they spoiled their tents. ⁵⁴And David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem. But he put his armor in his tent.

⁵⁵And when Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the captain of the army, Abner, whose son is this young man? And Abner said, As your soul lives, O king, I cannot tell. ⁵⁶And the king said, You go ask whose son the young man is. ⁵⁷And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul, with the head of the Philistine in his hand. ⁵⁸And Saul said to him, Whose son are you, young man? And David answered, I am the son of your servant Jesse of Bethlehem.

¹And when he had finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was joined with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as he did his own soul. ²And Saul took him that day and would not let him go home to his father's house any more. ³Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul. ⁴And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him and gave it to David, it and all his clothing, even to his sword and to his bow and to his girdle.

⁵And David went out wherever Saul sent him, behaving himself wisely. And Saul set him over the men of war, and it was good in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants. ⁶And when David had returned from the slaughter of the Philistines, as they came the women came out of all cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul with tabrets, with joy, and with instruments of music. ⁷And the women answered as they played, and said, Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands. ⁸And Saul was very angry, and the saying made him angry. And he said, They have given David ten thousands, and to me they have given only thousands. And what more can he have but the kingdom? ⁹And Saul eyed David from that day and forward.

¹⁰And on the next day the evil spirit from God came upon Saul, and he prophesied in the midst of the house. And David played with his hand, as at other times. And there was a javelin in Saul's hand. ¹¹And Saul threw the javelin. For he said, I will strike David even to the wall. And David drew back out of his presence twice.

¹²And Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him and had departed from Saul. ¹³Therefore Saul moved him away from himself, and made him his captain over a thousand. And he went out and came in before the people. ¹⁴And David behaved himself wisely in all his ways. And the LORD was with him. ¹⁵Therefore when Saul saw that he behaved himself very wisely, he was afraid of him. ¹⁶But all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and came in before them.

¹⁷And Saul said to David, Behold I will give you my older daughter Mē'-rāb for a wife. Only you must be brave for me, and fight the LORD's battles. For Saul said, Let not my hand be on him, but let the hand of the Philistines be on him. ¹⁸And David said to Saul, Who am I, and what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king? ¹⁹But at the time when Mē'-rāb, Saul's daughter, should have been given to David, she was given to Ā'-drī-ēl the Mē-hō'-lā-thīte to be his wife. ²⁰And Saul's daughter Mī'-chāl loved David. And they told Saul, and the thing pleased him. ²¹And Saul said, I will give her to him, so that she may be a trap to him, and so that the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Therefore Saul said to David, Today you shall be my son-in-law the second time.

²²And Saul commanded his servants, saying, Talk with David secretly and say, Behold, the king delights in you, and all his servants love you. Now therefore be the king's son-in-law. ²³And Saul's servants spoke these words in the ears of David. And David said, Does it seem to you a light thing to be a king's son-in-law, since I am a poor man and of little worth? ²⁴And the servants of Saul told him saying, This is the way David spoke. ²⁵And Saul said, You shall say this to David, The king does not desire any dowry except a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king's enemies. But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

²⁸And Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that Michal, Saul's daughter, loved him. ²⁹And Saul was still more afraid of David. And Saul became David's enemy continually. ³⁰Then the princes of the Philistines came forth. And after they came forth, David behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul, so that his name was very precious.

¹And Saul said to Jonathan his son and to all his servants, that they should kill David. ²But Jonathan, Saul's son, loved David very much. And Jonathan told David, saying, My father Saul seeks to kill you. Now therefore, I pray you, be careful until morning, and stay in a secret place, and hide yourself. ³And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will talk about you with my father. And I will tell you what I see.

⁸And there was war again. And David went out and fought with the Philistines, and killed them with a great slaughter. And they fled from him. ⁹And the evil spirit from the LORD was upon Saul as he sat in his house with his javelin in his hand. And David played with his hand. ¹⁰And Saul thought to strike David even to the wall with the javelin. But he slipped away out of Saul's presence, and he struck the javelin into the wall. And David ran and escaped that night. ¹¹Saul also sent messengers to David's house to watch him and to kill him in the morning. And David's wife Michal told him saying, If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you shall be killed.

¹²So Michal let David down through a window. And he left and hurried away, and escaped. ¹³And Michal took an image and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats' hair at its head, and covered it with a cloth. ¹⁴And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, He is sick. ¹⁵And Saul sent the messengers again to see David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed so that I may kill him. ¹⁶And when the messengers had come in, behold, there was an image in the bed with a pillow of goats' hair at its head. ¹⁷And Saul said to Michal, Why have you deceived me so, and sent away my enemy so that he has escaped? And Michal answered Saul, He said to me, Let me go — why should I kill you?

¹⁸So David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Rā'-māh, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and lived in Nai'-ōth. ¹⁹And it was told Saul saying, Behold, David is at Nai'-ōth in Rā'-māh. ²⁰And Saul sent messengers to take David. And when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as appointed over them, the Spirit of God was upon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied. ²¹And when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise. And Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they prophesied also. ²²Then he also went to Rā'-māh, and came to a great wall that is in Sē'-chū. And he asked and said, Where are Samuel and David? And one said, Behold they are at Nai'-ōth in Rā'-māh. ²³And he went there to Nai'-ōth in Rā'-māh. And the Spirit of God was upon him also, and he went on and prophesied, until he came to Naï'-ōth in Rā'-māh. ²⁴And he stripped off his clothes also, and prophesied before Samuel in the same way, and lay down naked all that day and all that night. Therefore they say, Is Saul also among the prophets?

¹And David fled from Naï'-ōth in Rā'-māh, and came and said before Jonathan, What have I done? What is my iniquity? And what is my sin before your father, that he seeks my life? ²And he said to him, God forbid. You shall not die! Behold, my father will do nothing either great or small that he will not show to me. And why should my father hide this thing from me? It is not so. ³And David swore moreover, and said, Your father certainly knows that I have found grace in your eyes. And he said, Do not let Jonathan know this, lest he be full of sorrow. But truly as the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, there is only a step between me and death. ⁴Then Jonathan said to David, Whatever your soul desires, I will even do it for you. ⁵And David said to Jonathan, Behold, tomorrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to sit at table with the king. But let me go so that I may hide myself in the field until the third day at evening. ⁶If your father misses me at all, then say, David earnestly asked permission from me that he might run to his city Bethlehem. For there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family. ⁷If he says, It is well, your servant shall have peace — but if he is very angry, be sure that evil is determined by him. ⁸Therefore you shall deal kindly with your servant, for you have brought your servant into a covenant of the LORD with you. But if there is any iniquity in me, kill me yourself. For why should you bring me to your father? ⁹And Jonathan said, Far be it from you. For if I knew certainly that evil was determined by my father to come upon you, then would I not tell you? ¹⁰Then David said to Jonathan, Who shall tell me? Or what if your father answers you roughly?

¹¹And Jonathan said to David, Come, and let us go into the field. And both of them went out into the field. ¹²And Jonathan said to David, By the LORD, the God of Israel, when I have sounded out my father about this time tomorrow or the third day, behold, if there is good toward David, then shall I not send to you and show it to you? ¹³If it pleases my father to do you evil, then may the LORD do so and much more to Jonathan if I do not show it to you and send you away so that you may go in peace. And may the LORD be with you, as He has been with my father. ¹⁴And you shall not only show me the kindness of the LORD while I still live, so that I do not die, ¹⁵but you shall not cut off your kindness from my house forever, no, not when the LORD has cut off the enemies of David, every one, from the face of the earth. ¹⁶So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, Let the LORD even require it at the hand of David's enemies. ¹⁷And Jonathan caused David to swear again, because he loved him. For he loved him as he loved his own soul.

¹⁸Then Jonathan said to David, Tomorrow is the new moon. And you shall be missed, because your seat will be empty. ¹⁹And when you have stayed three days, then you shall go down quickly and come to the place where you hid yourself when the business was in hand, and shall remain by the stone Ē'-zēl. ²⁰And I will shoot three arrows on the side, as though I shot at a mark. ²¹And behold, I will send a lad saying, Go find the arrows. If I carefully say to the lad, Behold, the arrows are on this side of you, take them — then you may come, for there is peace to you, and no hurt, as the LORD lives. ²²But if I say this to the young man, Behold, the arrows are beyond you — go your way, for the LORD has sent you away. ²³And as to the matter which you and I have spoken of, behold, may the LORD be between you and me forever.

²⁴So David hid himself in the field. And when the new moon had come, the king sat down to eat meat. ²⁵And the king sat upon his seat as at other times, upon a seat by the wall. And Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Saul's side, and David's place was empty. ²⁶Nevertheless Saul did not speak anything that day. For he thought, Something has befallen him so that he is not clean. Surely he is not clean. ²⁷And on the next day, the second of the month, David's place was empty. And Saul said to his son Jonathan, Why does the son of Jesse not come to eat, neither yesterday nor today? ²⁸And Jonathan answered Saul, David earnestly asked of me to go to Bethlehem — ²⁹and he said, Let me go, I pray you, for our family has a sacrifice in the city. And my brother has commanded me to be there. And now, if I have found favor in your eyes, I pray you let me get away and see my brothers. Therefore he does not come to the king's table.

³⁰Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said to him, You son of a perverse, rebellious woman, do I not know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your own confusion, and to the shame of your mother's nakedness? ³¹For as long as the son of Jesse lives upon the earth, you shall not be established, nor your kingdom. Therefore now send and bring him to me, for he shall surely die. ³²And Jonathan answered Saul his father and said to him, Why shall he be killed? What has he done? ³³And Saul threw a javelin at him to strike him, and by this Jonathan knew that his father was determined to kill David.

³⁴So Jonathan rose from the table in fierce anger, and ate no meat the second day of the month. For he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame. ³⁵And in the morning Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David. And a little lad was with him. ³⁶And he said to this lad, Run now, find the arrows which I shoot. As the lad ran, he shot an arrow beyond him. ³⁷And when the lad had come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the lad and said, Is not the arrow beyond you? ³⁸And Jonathan cried after the lad, Make speed and hurry, do not wait. And Jonathan's lad gathered up the arrows and came to his master. ³⁹But the lad did not know anything. Only Jonathan and David knew the matter. ⁴⁰And Jonathan gave his weapons to his lad and said to him, Go, carry them to the city.

⁴¹And as soon as the lad had gone, David rose out of a place toward the south, and fell upon his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times. And they kissed one another, and wept with one another, until David checked himself. ⁴²And Jonathan said to David, Go in peace because we have both sworn in the name of the LORD, saying, The Lord be between me and you, and between my seed and your seed, forever. And he rose and went away. And Jonathan went into the city.

¹Then David came to Nob to Ā-hīm'-ē-lēch the priest. And Ā-hīm'-ē-lēch was afraid at the meeting of David, and said to him, Why are you alone, and no man with you? ²And David said to Ā-hīm'-ē-lēch the priest, The king has commanded me a business and has said to me, Let no man know of the business about which I send you, and what I have commanded you. And I have sent servants to such and such a place. ³Now therefore, what is under your hand? Give me five loaves of bread in my hand, or what there is to be found. ⁴And the priest answered David and said, There is no common bread under my hand, but there is holy bread if the young men have kept themselves at least from women. ⁵And David answered the priest and said to him, Truly women have been kept from us for about three days, since I came out, and the vessels of the young men are holy, and in a way the bread is common—the more so since today there are other loaves to be made holy in the vessel. ⁶So the priest gave him holy bread. For there was no bread there but the showbread that was taken from before the LORD, in order to put hot bread in on the day when it was taken away. ⁷Now a certain man from the servants of Saul was there that day, held there before the LORD. And his name was Dō'-ēg, an Ē'-dōm-ite, the chief of Saul's herdmen.

⁸And David said to Ā-hīm'-ē-lēch, And is there not here under your hand spear or sword? For I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business needed haste. ⁹And the priest said, The sword of Gō-lī'-āth the Philistine, whom you killed in the valley of Ē'-lāh — behold, it is wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod. If you will take that, take it, for there is no other except that one here. And David said, There is none like that. Give it to me.

¹⁰And David arose and fled that day for fear of Saul, and went to Ā'-chīsh the king of Gath. ¹¹And the servants of Ā'-chīsh said to him, Is not this David the king of the land? Did they not sing to one another of him in dances, saying, Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands? ¹²And David laid up these words in his heart, and was very much afraid of Ā'-chīsh the king of Gath. ¹³And he changed his behavior before them, and pretended himself to be mad in their hands, and marked on the doors of the gate and let his spittle fall down upon his beard. ¹⁴Then Ā'-chīsh said to his servants, Lo, you see the man is mad — why then have you brought him to me? ¹⁵Do I have need of mad men, that you have brought this one to play the madman in my presence? Shall this fellow come into my house?

¹David therefore left there and escaped to the cave Ā'-dūl'-lām. And when his brothers and all his father's house heard it, they went down there to him. ²And everyone who was in distress, and everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was bitter of soul, gathered themselves to him. And he became a captain over them. And there were about four hundred men with him.

³And David went from there to Mīz'-pēh of Moab. And he said to the king of Moab, I pray you, let my father and my mother come forth and be with you until I know what God will do for me. ⁴And he brought them before the king of Moab. And they lived with him all the time that David was in the hold.

¹¹Then the king sent to call Ā-hīm'-ē-lēch the priest, the son of Ā-hī'-tüb, and all his father's house, the priests that were in Nob. And they came, all of them, to the king. ¹²And Saul said, Hear now, you son of Ā-hī'-tüb. And he answered, Here I am, my lord. ¹³And Saul said to him, Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, in that you have given him bread and a sword, and have asked of God for him, that he should rise against me to lie in wait as at this day? ¹⁴Then Ā-hīm'-ē-lēch answered the king and said, And who is so faithful among all your servants as David, who is the king's son-in-law, and who goes at your bidding, and who is honorable in your house? ¹⁵Did I then begin to ask of God for him? Be it far from me. Do not let the king charge anything to his servant, nor to all the house of my father. For your servant knew nothing of all this, more or less. ¹⁶And the king said, Ā-hīm'-ē-lēch, you shall surely die, you and all your father's house.

¹⁷And the king said to the guard that stood around him, Turn and kill the priests of the LORD, because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled, and did not show it to me. But the servants of the king would not put forth their hand to fall upon the priests of the LORD. ¹⁸And the king said to Dō'-ēg, You turn and fall upon the priests. And Dō'-ēg the Ē'-dōm-ite turned, and he fell upon the priests, and on that day he killed eighty-five persons who wore a linen ephod. ¹⁹And he struck Nob, the city of the priests, with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and babes, and oxen, and asses, and sheep, with the edge of the sword.

²⁰And one of the sons of Ā-hīm'-ē-lēch the son of Ā-hī'-tüb, named Ā-bī'-ā-thär, escaped and fled after David. ²¹And Ā-bī'-ā-thär showed David that Saul had slain the LORD's priests. ²²And David said to Ā-bī'-ā-thär, I knew that day, when Dō'-ēg the Ē'-dōm-ite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I have caused the death of all the persons of your father's house. ²³You stay with me, and do not fear. For he who seeks my life seeks your life. But you shall be in safekeeping with me.

¹Then they told David, saying, Behold, the Philistines fight against Kē-ī'-läh, and they rob the threshing-floors. ²Therefore David asked of the LORD, saying, Shall I go and strike these Philistines? And the LORD said to David, Go and strike the Philistines, and save Kē-ī'-läh. ³And David's men said to him, Behold, we are afraid here in Judah. How much more then if we come to Kē-ī'-läh against the armies of the Philistines? ⁴Then David inquired of the LORD still again. And the LORD answered him and said, Arise, go down to Kē-ī'-läh. For I will deliver the Philistines into your hand. ⁵So David and his men went to Kē-ī'-lāh and fought with the Philistines. And they brought away their cattle and struck them with a great slaughter. So David saved the people of Kē-ī'-lāh. ⁶And when Ā-bī'-ā-thār the son of Ā-him'-ē-lēch fled to David to Kē-ī'-lāh, he came down with an ephod in his hand.

⁷And it was told Saul that David had come to Kē-ī'-lāh. And Saul said, God has delivered him into my hands, for he is shut in by entering into a town that has gates and bars. ⁸And Saul called all the people together to war, to go down to Kē-ī'-lāh to besiege David and his men.

⁹And David knew that Saul secretly planned evil against him. And he said to Ā-bī'-ā-thār the priest, Bring the ephod here. ¹⁰Then David said, O Lord God of Israel, Thy servant has surely heard that Saul seeks to come to Kē-ī'-lāh, to destroy the city for my sake. ¹¹Will the men of Kē-ī'-lāh deliver me up into his hand? Will Saul come down as Thy servant has heard? O LORD God of Israel, I beg of Thee, tell Thy servant. And the LORD said, He will come down. ¹²Then David said, Will the men of Kē-ī'-lāh deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul? And the LORD said, They will deliver you up. ¹³Then David and his men, about six hundred, arose and departed out of Kē-ī'-lāh and went wherever they could go. And it was told to Saul that David had escaped from Kē-ī'-lāh. And he did not go forth. ¹⁴And David stayed in the wilderness in strongholds, and remained in a mountain in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul looked for him every day, but God did not deliver him into his hand. ¹⁵And David saw that Saul had come out to seek his life. And David was in the wilderness of Ziph in a woods. ¹⁶And Jonathan, Saul's son, arose and went to David into the woods, and strengthened his hand in God. ¹⁷And he said to him, Do not fear, for the hand of Saul my father shall not find you. And you shall be king over Israel, and I shall be next to you. And my father Saul knows that also. ¹⁸And the two of them made a covenant before the LORD. And David stayed in the woods, and Jonathan went to his house.

¹⁹Then the men of Ziph came up to Saul to Gīb'-ē-āh, saying, Does not David hide himself with us in strongholds in the woods, in the hill of Hā-chī'-lāh, which is on the south of Jē-shī'-mōn? ²⁰Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of your soul to come down. And our part is to deliver him into the king's hand. ²¹And Saul said, Blessed are you from the LORD, for you have pity on me. ²²I pray you, go prepare still more, and know and see the place where his foot is, and who has seen him there. For I am told that he deals very wisely. ²³Watch therefore and take knowledge of all the lurking-places where he hides himself, and come to me again with the certainty. And I will go with you. And if he is in the land, I will search him out throughout all the thousands of Judah. ²⁴And they arose and went to Ziph before Saul. But David and his men were in the wilderness of Mā'-ōn, in the plain on the south of Jē-shī'-mōn. ²⁵Saul and his men also went to look for him. And they told David. Therefore he came down from the rock and stayed in the wilderness of Mā'-ōn. And when Saul heard, he followed after David in the wilderness of Mā'-ōn. ²⁶And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain. And David hurried to get away for fear of Saul. For Saul and his men surrounded David and his men round about to take them.

²⁷But there came a messenger to Saul, saying, Hurry and come! For the Philistines have invaded the land. ²⁸Therefore Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines. Therefore they called that place Sē'-lā-hām-māh'-lē-kōth.

²⁹And David went up from there and lived in strongholds at Ēn-gē'-dī.

¹And when Saul had returned from following the Philistines, it was told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of Ēn-gē'-dī. ²Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men upon the rocks of the wild goats. ³And he came to the sheepcotes by the way, where there was a cave. And Saul went in to cover his feet. And David and his men remained in the sides of the cave. ⁴And the men of David said to him, Behold, this is the day of which the LORD said to you, Behold, I will deliver your enemy into your hand so that you may do to him as it shall seem good to you. Then David arose and cut off the skirt of Saul's robe secretly. ⁵And afterward David's heart struck him because he had cut off Saul's skirt. ⁶And he said to his men, The LORD forbid that I should do this thing unto my master, the LORD's anointed, to stretch forth my hand against him, since he is the anointed of the LORD. ⁷So David cut off his servants with these words, and did not allow them to rise against Saul. But Saul rose up out of the cave and went on his way.

⁸David also arose afterward and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, My lord the king! And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth and bowed himself. ⁹And David said to Saul, Why do you hear man's words, saying, Behold, David seeks your hurt? ¹⁰Behold, your eyes have seen this day how the LORD had delivered you today into my hand in the cave. And some urged me to kill you. But my eye spared you. And I said, I will not put forth my hand against my lord, for he is the LORD's anointed. ¹¹Moreover, my father, see, yes, see the skirt of your robe in my hand. For in that I cut off the skirt of your robe and did not kill you, you know and see that there is neither evil nor transgression in my hand, and I have not sinned against you. Yet you hunt my soul to take it. ¹²May the LORD judge between me and you, and may the LORD avenge me of you. But my hand shall not be upon you. ¹³As the proverb of the ancients says, Wickedness comes forth from the wicked. But my hand shall not be upon you. ¹⁴After whom has the king of Israel come out? After whom do you pursue? After a dead dog? After a flea? ¹⁵May the LORD therefore be judge, and judge between you and me, and see, and plead my cause, and deliver me out of your hand.

¹⁶And when David had made an end of speaking these words to Saul, it came to pass that Saul said, Is this your voice, my son David? And Saul lifted up his voice and wept. ¹⁷And he said to David, You are more righteous than I, for you have rewarded me with good, but I have rewarded you evil. ¹⁸And you have shown this day how you have dealt well with me, because when the LORD had delivered me into your hand, you did not kill me. ¹⁹For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him go completely away? Therefore may the LORD reward good for what you have done to me this day. ²⁰And now, behold, I know well that you shall surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in your hand. ²¹Now swear therefore to me before the LORD that you will not cut off my seed after me, and that you will not destroy my name out of my father's house. ²²And David swore to Saul. And Saul went home, but David and his men went up into the hold.

¹And Samuel died. And all the Israelites were gathered together, and lamented him and buried him in his house at Rā'-māh. And David arose and went down to the wilderness of Pār'-ān. ²And there was a man of Mā'-ōn whose possessions were in Carmel. And the man was very great, and had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats. And he was shearing his sheep in Carmel. ³Now the name of the man was Nā'-bāl, and the name of his wife was Āb'-ī-gāil. And she was a woman of good understanding, and of a beautiful form. But the man was churlish and evil in his doings. And he was of the house of Caleb.

⁴And David heard in the wilderness that Nā'-bāl was shearing his sheep. ⁵And David sent out ten young men. And David said to the young men, Go up to Carmel and go to Nā'-bāl, and greet him in my name. ⁶And you shall say this to him who lives prosperously, Peace be unto you, and peace be unto your house, and peace be unto all that you have. ⁷And now I have heard that you have shearers. Now we did not hurt your shepherds who were with us; neither was there anything missing to them all the while they were in Carmel. ⁸Ask your young men, and they will tell you. Therefore let the young men find favor in your eyes, for we come in a good day. I pray you, give whatever comes to your hand to your servants and to your son David. ⁹And when David's young men came, they spoke to Nā'-bāl according to all those words in the name of David, and stopped.

¹⁰And Nā'-bāl answered David's servants and said, Who is David? And who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants nowadays who break away, each one from his master. ¹¹Shall I then take my bread and my water and my meat that I have killed for my shearers, and give it to men about whom I know not where they come from? ¹²So David's young men turned their way and went again, and came and told him all those things. ¹³And David said to his men, Let each man put on his sword. And they each one put on his sword, and David also put on his sword. And about four hundred men went up after David, and two hundred stayed by the stuff.

¹⁴But one of the young men told Āb'-ī-gāil, Nā'-bāl's wife, saying, Behold! David sent messengers out of the wilderness to greet our master, and he flew upon them. ¹⁵But the men were very good to us, and we were not hurt, neither did we miss anything as long as we were going to and fro among them, when we were in the fields. ¹⁶They were a wall to us both by night and day all the while we were with them keeping the sheep. ¹⁷Now then, know and consider what you will do, for evil is determined against our master and against all his household. For he is a son of Bē'-lī-āl, so that a man cannot speak to him.

¹⁸Then Āb'-ī-gāil made haste and took two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched grain, and a hundred clusters of raisins, and laid them on asses. ¹⁹And she said to her servants, Go on before me. Behold, I am coming after you. But she did not tell her husband Nā'-bāl. ²⁰And it was so, as she rode on the ass, that she came down under cover of the mountain. And behold, David and his men came down across from her. And she met them. ²¹Now David had said, Surely in vain I have kept all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that belonged to him. And he has requited me evil for good. ²²So and more also may God do to the enemies of David, if I leave by the morning light of all that belongs to him any that waters against the wall.

²³When Āb'-ī-gāil saw David, she hurried and dismounted from the ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground. ²⁴And she fell at his feet and said, Upon me, my lord, upon me let this iniquity be. And, I pray you, let your handmaid speak in your ears, and hear the words of your handmaid. ²⁵I pray you, do not let my lord regard this man of Bē'-lī-āl, Nā'-bāl. For as his name is, so he is. Nā'-bāl is his name, and foolishness is with him. But your handmaid did not see the young men of my lord, whom you sent. ²⁶Now therefore, my lord – as the LORD lives and as your soul lives, since the LORD has withheld you from coming to shed blood, and from avenging yourself with your own hand – now let your enemies, and those that seek to do evil to my lord, be as Nā'-bāl. ²⁷Now this present which your handmaid has brought to my lord, let it even be given to the young men who follow my lord. ²⁸I beg you to forgive the trespass of your handmaid. For the LORD will certainly make a sure house for my lord, because my lord fights the battles of the LORD, and evil has not been found in you all your days. ²⁹Yet a man has risen to pursue you and to seek your soul. But the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of life with the LORD your God. And the souls of your enemies, them shall He sling out, as out of the middle of a sling. ³⁰And when the LORD has done to my lord according to all the good that He has spoken concerning you, and shall have made you ruler over Israel, ³¹this shall be no stumbling to you, nor offence of heart to my lord, either that you have shed blood without cause or that my lord has avenged himself. But when the LORD shall have dealt well with my lord, then remember your handmaid.

³²And David said to Āb'-ī-gāil, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who sent you this day to meet me. ³³And blessed is your advice, and blessed are you who have kept me from coming this day to shed blood, and from avenging myself of my own hand. ³⁴For truly, as the LORD God of Israel lives, who has kept me back from hurting you – unless you had hurried and come to meet me, surely there would not have been left to Nā'-bāl by the morning light any that waters against the wall. ³⁵So David received from her hand that which she had brought him, and said to her, Go up in peace to your house. See, I have listened to your voice and have accepted your person.

³⁶And Āb'-ī-gāil came to Nā'-bāl. And behold, he held a feast in his house like the feast of a king. And Nā'-bāl's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunk. Therefore she did not tell him anything, more or less, until the morning light. ³⁷But in the morning, when the wine had gone out of Nabal and his wife had told him these things, his heart died within him and he became like a stone. ³⁸And about ten days afterward the LORD struck Nā'-bāl so that he died.

³⁹And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed is the LORD who has pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and has kept His servant from evil. For the LORD has returned the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head. And David sent and spoke with Āb'-ī-gāil, to take her to him for a wife. ⁴⁰And when the servants of David had come to Āb'-ī-gāil, at Carmel, they spoke to her, saying, David sent us to you to take you to him for a wife. ⁴¹And she arose and bowed herself on her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let your handmaid be a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord. ⁴²And Abigail hurried and arose, and rode upon an ass, with five of her maidens who went after her. And she followed the messengers of David and became his wife. ⁴³David also took Ā-hīn'-ō-ām of Jēz'-rēel. And they were also, both of them, his wives. ⁴⁴But Saul had given his daughter Michal, David's wife, to Phāl'-tī the son of Lā'-ish, who was of Gāl'-lim.

⁵And David arose and came to the place where Saul had pitched. And David looked at the place where Saul lay, and upon Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his army. And Saul lay in the trench with the people pitched around him. ⁶Then David answered and said to Ā-hīm'-ē-lēch the Hittite, and to Āb'-ī-shaī the son of Zēr-ū-ī'-āh, the brother of Jō'-āb, saying, Who will go down with me to the camp unto Saul? And Āb'-ī-shaī said, I will go down with you. ⁷So David and Āb'-ī-shaī came to the people by night. And behold, Saul lay sleeping in the tent, and his spear stuck in the ground at his head. But Abner and the people lay around him. ⁸Then Āb'-ī-shaī said to David, God has shut up your enemy into your hand this day. Now therefore, I pray you, let me strike him with the spear even to the earth at once, and I will not strike the second time. ⁹And David said to Āb'-ī-shaī, Do not destroy him. For who can stretch forth his hand against the LORD's anointed and be guiltless? ¹⁰David said furthermore, As the LORD lives, the LORD shall strike him — or his day shall come to die — or he shall go down to battle and perish. ¹¹*But* the LORD forbid that I should stretch forth my hand against the LORD's anointed. But now, I pray you, take the spear that is at his head and the cruse of water, and let us go. ¹²So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's head. And they got away, and no man saw nor knew, neither did they awake. For they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from the LORD had fallen upon them.

¹³Then David went over to the other side and stood on the top of a hill afar off, a great space between them. ¹⁴And David cried to the people and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Do you not answer, Abner? Then Abner answered and said, Who are you that cries to the king? ¹⁵And David said to Abner, Are you not a man? And who is like you in Israel? Why then have you not kept your lord the king? For there came one of the people in to destroy your lord the king. ¹⁶This thing that you have done is not good. As the LORD lives, because you have not kept your master, the LORD's anointed, you are worthy to die. And now see where the king's spear is, and the cruse of water that was at his head. ¹⁷And Saul knew David's voice and said, Is this your voice, my son David? And David said, It is my voice, my lord, O king. ¹⁸And he said, Why does my lord pursue after his servant this way? For what have I done? Or what evil is in my hand? ¹⁹Now therefore, I pray you, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If the LORD has stirred you up against me, let Him accept an offering. But if it is the children of men, they are cursed before the LORD. For they have driven me out today from living within the inheritance of the LORD, saying, Go, serve other gods. ²⁰Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the LORD. For the king of Israel has come out to seek a flea, as when one hunts a partridge in the mountains.

²¹Then Saul said, I have sinned. Return, my son David, for I will never do you harm any more, because my life was precious in your eyes this day. Behold, I have played the fool, and have greatly erred. ²²And David answered and said, Behold the king's spear! And let one of the young men come over and get it. ²³May the LORD give to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness. For the LORD delivered you into my hand today, but I would not stretch forth my hand against the LORD's anointed. ²⁴And behold, as your life was precious in my eyes this day, so let my life be precious in the eyes of the LORD, and let Him deliver me out of all tribulation. ²⁵Then Saul said to David, Blessed are you, my son David. You shall both do great things and also shall still prevail. So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

¹And David said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul. There is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape into the land of the Philistines. And Saul shall despair of seeking me any more in any border of Israel, and so I shall escape out of his hand. ²And David arose. And he passed over with the six hundred men that were with him to Achish [Ā'-kîsh] the son of Mā'-ōch, king of Gath. ³And David lived with Ā'-chîsh of Gath, he and his men, every man with his household — David with his two wives, Ā-hîn'-ō-ām of Jēz'-rēel, and Āb'-i-gāil of Cār'-mēl, Nā'-bāl's wife. ⁴And Saul was told that David had fled to Gath. And he never again looked for him.

⁵And David said to Achish, If I have now found grace in your eyes, let them give me a place in some town in the country so that I may live there. For why should your servant live in the royal city with you? ⁶Then Achish gave him Zik'-låg that day. Therefore Zik'-låg belongs to the kings of Judah to this day. ⁷And the time that David lived in the country of the Philistines was a full year and four months. ⁸And David and his men went up and invaded the Gē-shū'-rites, and the Gēz'-rites, and the Ā-māl'-ĕk-ites. For those nations were of old the people of the land, as you go to Shūr, even to the land of Egypt. ⁹And David struck the land, and left neither man nor woman alive, and took away the sheep and the oxen and the asses and the camels and the clothing, and returned and came to Achish. ¹⁰And Achish said, Where have you made a raid today? And David said, Against the south of Judah, and against the south of the Jē-rāh'-mēel-ites, and against the south of the Kē'-nites. ¹¹And David saved neither man nor woman alive to bring tidings to Gath, saying, Lest they should tell on us, saying, This is what David did, and so will be his manner all the while he lives in the country of the Philistines. ¹²And Achish believed David, saying, He has made his people Israel utterly hate him — therefore he shall be my servant forever.

¹And in those days the Philistines gathered their armies together for war, to fight with Israel. And Achish said to David, You surely know that you shall go with me to battle, you and your men. ²And David said to Achish, Surely you shall know what your servants can do. And Achish said to David, Therefore I will make you keeper of my head forever.

³Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had mourned him and buried him in Rā'-māh, even in his own city. And Saul had put away those that had familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land. ⁴And the Philistines gathered themselves together and came and pitched in Shū'-nēm. And Saul gathered all Israel together, and they pitched in Gil-bō'-ā. ⁵And when Saul saw the army of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart greatly trembled. ⁶And when Saul inquired of the LORD, the LORD did not answer him, neither by dreams, nor by Ū'-rīm, nor by prophets.

⁷Then Saul said to his servants, Seek me a woman who has a familiar spirit, so that I may go to her and inquire of her. And his servant said to him, Behold, there is a woman who has a familiar spirit at En'-dōr. ⁸And Saul disguised himself and put on other clothing. And he went. And two men went with him. And they came to the woman by night. And he said, I pray you, divine to me by the familiar spirit, and bring me up the man whom I shall name to you. ⁹And the woman said,

You know what Saul has done — how he has cut off those that have familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land. Why then do you lay a snare for my life, to cause me to die? ¹⁰And Saul swore to her by the LORD, saying, As the LORD lives, there shall no punishment happen to you for this thing. ¹¹Then the woman said, Whom shall I bring up to you? And he said, Bring me up Samuel.

¹²And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice. And the woman spoke to Saul, saying, Why have you deceived me? For you are Saul! ¹³And the king said to her, Do not be afraid. For what did you see? And the woman said to Saul, I saw gods coming up out of the earth. ¹⁴And he said to her, What is his form? And she said, An old man comes up, and he is covered with a cloak. And Saul saw that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground and bowed himself.

¹⁵And Samuel said to Saul, Why have you disturbed me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, I am grievously distressed, for the Philistines are warring against me. And God has left me and does not answer me any more, neither by prophets nor by dreams. Therefore I have called you so that you may make known to me what I should do. ¹⁶Then Samuel said, Why then do you ask me, since the LORD has left you and has become your enemy? ¹⁷And the LORD has done for Himself as He spoke by me. For the LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hand and has given it to your neighbor, to David. ¹⁸Because you did not obey the voice of the LORD, nor execute his fierce wrath upon Ām'-ā-lēk, therefore the LORD has done this thing to you now. ¹⁹Moreover, the LORD will also deliver Israel with you into the hand of the Philistines. And tomorrow you and your sons shall be with me. The LORD also shall deliver the army of Israel into the hand of the Philistines. ²⁰Then Saul immediately fell headlong upon the earth, and was sorely afraid because of the words of Samuel. And there was no strength in him, for he had eaten no bread all day nor all night.

²¹And the woman came to Saul and saw that he was sorely troubled, and said to him, Behold, your handmaid has obeyed your voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and have listened to your words which you spoke unto me. ²²Now therefore, I pray you, listen also to the voice of your handmaid, and let me set a bit of bread before you, and eat, so that you may have strength when you go on your way. ²³But he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants, together with the woman, urged him. And he listened to their voice. So he arose from the earth and sat upon the bed. ²⁴And the woman had a fat calf in the house. And she hurried and killed it, and took flour and kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread with it. ²⁵And she brought it before Saul, and before his servants. And they ate. Then they rose up and went away that night.

¹Now the Philistines gathered together all their armies to Ā'-phĕk. And the Israelites pitched by a fountain which is in Jĕz'-rĕel. ²And the lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds and by thousands. But David and his men passed on in the rear with Achish. ³Then the princes of the Philistines said, What are these Hebrews doing here? And Achish said to the princes of the Philistines, Is this not David the servant of Saul the king of Israel, who has been with me these days, or these years — and I have found no fault in him since he fell to me until this day? ⁴And the princes of the Philistines were angry with him. And the princes of the Philistines said to him, Make this fellow return so that he may go again to his place which you have marked out for him. And do not let him go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he become an enemy to us. For with what should he reconcile himself to his master? Should it not be with the heads of these men? ⁵Is not this David, of whom they sang to one another in dances, saying, Saul killed his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

⁶Then Achish called David and said to him, Surely, as the LORD lives, you have been upright, and your going out and your coming in with me in the army is good in my sight. For I have not found evil in you since the day of your coming to me until this day. Nevertheless the lords do not favor you. ⁷Therefore return now, and go in peace so that you do not displease the lords of the Philistines.

⁸And David said to Achish, But what have I done? And what have you found in your servant so long as I have been with you to this day, that I may not go fight against the enemies of my lord the king? ⁹And Achish answered and said to David, I know that you are good in my sight, like an angel of God. But the princes of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us to the battle. ¹⁰Therefore now, rise up early in the morning with your master's servants who have come with you. And as soon as you are up early in the morning, and have light, depart. ¹¹So David and his men rose up early to leave in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jĕz'-rĕel.

¹And when David and his men had come to Zik'-lāg on the third day, it came to pass that the Ā-māl'-ĕk-ites had invaded the south and Zik'-lāg, and had struck Zik'-lāg and burned it with fire. ²And they had taken captive the women who were in it. They did not kill any, either small or great, but carried them away and went on their way. ³So David and his men came to the city, and behold, it was burned with fire, and their wives and their sons and their daughters had been taken captives. ⁴Then David and the people who were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep. ⁵And David's two wives had been taken captive, Ā-hīn'-ō-ām of Jēz'-rēel, and Āb'-ī-gāil the wife of Nā'-bāl of Cār'-mēl. ⁶And David was greatly distressed, for the people spoke of stoning him — because the soul of all the people was grieved, each one for his sons and for his daughters. But David encouraged himself in the LORD his God. ⁷And David said to Ā-bī'-ā-thār the priest, Ā-hīm'-ē-lēch's son, I pray you, bring the ephod here to me. And Ā-bī'-ā-thār brought the ephod there to David. ⁸And David inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go after this troop? Shall I overtake them? And He answered him, Go! For you shall surely overtake them, and will without fail recover all. ⁹So David went, he and the six hundred men that were with him, and came to the brook Bē'-sôr, where those who were left behind stayed. ¹⁰But David pursued, he and four hundred men. For two hundred stayed behind, who were so faint that they could not go over the brook Bē'-sôr.

¹¹And they found an Egyptian in the field and brought him to David and gave him bread, and he ate. And they made him drink water. ¹²And they gave him a piece of a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins. And when he had eaten, his spirit came again to him. For he had eaten no bread nor drunk water for three days and three nights. ¹³And David said to him, To whom do you belong? And where do you come from? And he said, I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Ā-māl'-ēk-īte. And my master left me because three days ago I fell sick. ¹⁴We made an invasion upon the south of the Chēr'-ē-thītes, and upon that which belongs to Judah, and upon the south of Caleb. And we burned Zik'-lāg with fire. ¹⁵And David said to him, Can you bring me down to this company? And he said, Swear to me by God that you will neither kill me nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring you down to this company.

¹⁶And when he had brought him down, behold, they were spread abroad upon all the earth, eating and drinking and dancing, because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines and out of the land of Judah. ¹⁷And David struck them from the twilight even to the evening of the next day. And not a man of them escaped, except four hundred young men who rode upon camels and fled. ¹⁸And David recovered all that the Ā-māl'-ēk-ītes had carried away. And David rescued his two wives. ¹⁹And there was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil nor anything that they had taken unto themselves. David recovered all. ²⁰And David took all the flocks and the herds which they drove before those other cattle. And he said, This is David's spoil.

²¹And David came to the two hundred who were so faint that they could not follow David, whom they had made also to stay at the brook Bē'-sôr. And they went forth to meet David, and to meet the people who were with him. And when David came near the people, he greeted them. ²²Then all the wicked men and men of Bē'-lī-āl among the men who went with David answered and said, Because they did not go with us, we will not give them anything of the spoil that we have recovered, except to every man his wife and his children, so that they may lead them away and depart. ²³Then David said, My brothers, you shall not do so with that which the LORD has given us. For he has kept us alive, and has delivered into our hand the company that came against us. ²⁴For who will listen to you in this matter? But as his part is that goes down to the battle, so shall be his part that stays by the stuff. They shall divide alike. ²⁵And from that day forward he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel unto this day.

²⁶And when David came to Zīk'-lāg, he sent some of the spoil to the elders of Judah, to his friends, saying, Behold, a present for you from the spoil of the enemies of the LORD — ²⁷to the ones who were in Bethel, and to the ones who were in south Rā'-mōth, and to the ones who were in Jāt'-tīr, ²⁸and to the ones who were in Ā-rō'-ēr, and to the ones who were in Sīph'-mōth, and to the ones who were in Ēsh-tē-mō'-ā, ²⁹and to the ones who were in Rā'-chāl, and to the ones who were in the cities of the Jē-rāh'-mēel-ītes, and to the ones who were in the cities of the Kē'-nītes, ³⁰and to the ones who were in Hōr-māh, and to the ones who were in Chōr-āsh'-ān, and to the ones who were in Ā'-thāch, ³¹and to the ones who were in Hē'-brōn, and to all the places where David himself and his men had been among them.

¹Now the Philistines fought against Israel. And the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down wounded in Mount Gil-bō'-ā. ²And the Philistines followed hard upon Saul and upon his sons. And the Philistines killed Jonathan and Ā-bīn'-ā-dāb and Māl'-chī-shū'-ā, Saul's sons. ³And the battle went sore against Saul. And the archers hit him, and he was sorely wounded by the archers. ⁴Then Saul said to his armor-bearer, Draw your sword and thrust me through with it — lest these uncircumcised ones come and thrust me through, and abuse me. But his armor-bearer would not, for he was very much afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword and fell upon it. ⁵And when his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise upon his sword and died with him. ⁶So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armor-bearer, and all his men, that same day together.

⁷And when the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley, and those who were on the other side Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned the cities and fled. And the Philistines came and lived in them. ⁸And on the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, they found Saul and his three sons fallen in Mount Gil-bō'-ā. ⁹And they cut off his head and stripped off his armor, and sent into the land of the Philistines all around, to publish it in the house of their idols and among the people. ¹⁰And they put his armor in the house of Āsh'-tā-rōth, and they fastened his body to the wall of Bēth'-shān.

¹¹And when the people of Jā'-bēsh in Gilead heard of what the Philistines had done to Saul, ¹²all the brave men arose and traveled all night. And they took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Bēth'-shān, and came to Jā'-bēsh and burned them there. ¹³And they took their bones and buried them under a tree at Jā'-bēsh, and fasted seven days.

The SECOND Book of SAMUEL

¹Now after the death of Saul, when David had returned from the slaughter of the Ā-māl'-ĕk-ites, and after David had stayed two days in Zik'-lāg, ²on the third day, behold, a man came out of the camp from Saul with his clothes torn and earth upon his head. And when he came to David, he fell to the earth and bowed to him. ³And David said to him, Where do you come from? And he said to him, I have escaped out of the camp of Israel. ⁴And David said to him, How did the matter go? I pray you, tell me. And he answered, The people have fled from the battle, and many of the people also have fallen and are dead. And Saul and his son Jonathan are dead also.

⁵And David said to the young man who told him, How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan are dead? ⁶And the young man who told him said, As I happened by chance upon Mount Gīl-bō'-ā, behold, Saul leaned upon his spear. And, lo, the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him. ⁷And when he looked behind him, he saw me, and called to me. And I answered, Here am I. ⁸And he said to me, Who are you? And I answered him, I am an Ā-māl'-ĕk-ite. ⁹He said to me again, I pray you, stand over me and kill me, for anguish has come upon me, because my life is still whole in me. ¹⁰So I stood over him, and killed him, because I was sure that he could not live after he had fallen. And I took the crown that was upon his head, and the bracelet that was upon his arm, and have brought them here to my lord. ¹¹Then David took hold on his clothes, and tore them. And likewise all the men who were with him. ¹²And they mourned and wept and fasted until evening, for Saul and for his son Jonathan, and for the people of the LORD, and for the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

¹³And David said to the young man who told him, Where are you from? And he answered, I am the son of a stranger, an Ā-māl'-ĕk-ite. ¹⁴And David said, Why were you not afraid to stretch forth your hand to destroy the LORD's anointed? ¹⁵And David called one of the young men and said, Go near and fall upon him. And he struck him so that he died. ¹⁶And David said to him, Your blood shall be upon your head, for your mouth has testified against you, saying, I have slain the LORD's anointed.

¹⁷And David mourned with this mourning over Saul and over his son Jonathan. ¹⁸(Also he told them to teach the children of Judah the use of the bow. Behold, it is written in the book of Jāsh'-ēr.) ¹⁹The beauty of Israel is slain upon your high places! How are the mighty fallen! ²⁰Tell it not in Gath, do not let it be known in the streets of Ās'-kē-lōn, lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph. ²¹You mountains of Gīl-bō'-ā, let there be no dew, neither let there be rain, upon you, nor fields of offerings. For there the shield of the mighty has been evilly cast away, the shield of Saul, as though he had not been anointed with oil. ²²From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan did not turn back, and the sword of Saul did not return empty. ²³Saul and Jonathan were lovely and pleasant in their lives, and in their death they were not divided. They were swifter than eagles; they were stronger than lions. ²⁴You daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you in scarlet and with other delights, who put on ornaments of gold upon your clothes. ²⁵How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle! O Jonathan, you were slain in your high places. ²⁶I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan. Very pleasant you have been to me. Your love to me was wonderful, more than the love of women. ²⁷How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished!

¹And after this David inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah? And the LORD said to him, Go up! And David said, Where shall I go? And He said, To Hebron. ²So David went up there, and his two wives also, Ā-hīn'-ō-ām of Jēz'-rēel and Āb'-ī-gāil of Cār'-mēl, Nabal's wife. ³And David brought up his men that were with him, each man with his household. And they lived in the cities of Hebron. ⁴And the men of Judah came, and they anointed David king over the house of Judah there. And they told David, saying, The men of Jā'-bēsh-gīl'-ē-ād were the ones who buried Saul. ⁵And David sent messengers to the men of Jā'-bēsh-gīl'-ē-ād. And he said to them, Blessed are you of the LORD, that you have shown this kindness to your lord, unto Saul, and have buried him. ⁶And now may the LORD show kindness and truth to you. And I also will repay you this kindness, because you have done this thing. ⁷Therefore now let your hands be strengthened, and be brave. For your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah have anointed me king over them.

⁸But Abner the son of Ner, captain of Saul's army, took Ish-bōsh'-ēth the son of Saul, and brought him over to Mā-hā-nā'-īm. ⁹And he made him king over Gilead, and over the Āsh'-ū-rītes, and over Jēz'-rēel, and over Ē'-phrā-īm, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel. ¹⁰Ish-bōsh'-ēth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and reigned two years. But the house of Judah followed David. ¹¹And the time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

¹²And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ish-bōsh'-ēth the son of Saul, went out from Mā-hā-nā'-īm to Gīb'-ē-ōn. ¹³And Joab the son of Zēr-ū-ī'-āh, and the servants of David, went out and met together by the pool of Gīb'-ē-ōn. And they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool and the other on the other side of the pool. ¹⁴And Abner said to Jō'-āb, Let the young men now arise and play before us. And Joab said, Let them arise. ¹⁵Then there arose and went over twelve from Benjamin, who belonged to Ish-bōsh'-ēth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David. ¹⁶And each one caught his fellow by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellow's side, so that they fell down together. Therefore that place was called Hēl'-kāth-hāz-zū'-rīm, which is in Gīb'-ē-ōn. ¹⁷And there was a very grievous battle that day. And Abner and the men of Israel were beaten before the servants of David.

¹⁸And there were three sons of Zēr-ū-ī'-āh there, Joab and Āb'-ī-shai and Ās'-ā-hēl. And Ās'-ā-hēl was as light of foot as a wild roe. ¹⁹And Ās'-ā-hēl ran after Abner, and in going he did not turn to the right hand nor to the left from following Abner. ²⁰Then Abner looked behind him and said, Are you Ās'-ā-hēl? And he answered, I am. ²¹And Abner said to him, Turn aside to your right hand or to your left, and lay hold on one of the young men, and take his armor. But Ās'-ā-hēl would not turn aside from following him. ²²And Abner said again to Ās'-ā-hēl, Turn aside from following me — why should I strike you to the ground? How then should I hold up my face to Joab your brother? ²³However he refused to turn aside. Therefore Abner struck him with the blunt end of the spear under the fifth rib, so that the spear came out behind him. And he fell down there, and died in the same place. And everyone who came to the place where Ās'-ā-hēl fell down and died, stood still. ²⁴Joab and Āb'-ī-shai also ran after Abner. And the sun went down when they had come to the hill of Ām'-māh, which lies before Gī'-āh by the way of the wilderness of Gīb'-ē-ōn.

²⁵And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one troop, and stood on the top of a hill. ²⁶Then Abner called to Joab and said, Shall the sword devour forever? Do you not know that it will be bitterness in the latter end? How long shall it be then before you command the people to return from chasing their brothers? ²⁷And Joab said, As God lives, unless you had spoken, surely then in the morning the people would have gone up each one from following his brother. ²⁸So Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still and did not pursue after Israel any more — neither did they fight any more. ²⁹And Abner and his men walked all that night through the plain and passed over Jordan and went through all Bith'-rōn, and they came to Mā-hā-nā'-īm. ³⁰And Joab returned from following Abner. And when he had gathered all the people together, nineteen men and Ās'-ā-hēl were missing from David's servants. ³¹But the servants of David had stricken three hundred and sixty men of Benjamin, and of Abner's men, who died.

³²And they took up Ās'-ă-hēl and buried him in the tomb of his father, which was in Bethlehem. And Joab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at the break of day.

¹Now there was long war between the house of Saul and the house of David. But David became stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul became weaker and weaker.

⁶And while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner made himself strong for the house of Saul. ⁷And Saul had a concubine whose name was Rīz'-pāh, the daughter of Aī'-ăh. And Ishbosheth said to Abner, Why have you gone in to my father's concubine? ⁸Then Abner was very angry for the words of Īsh-bōsh'-ēth, and said, Am I a dog's head, who shows kindness against Judah this day to the house of Saul your father, to his brothers, and to his friends, and have not delivered you into the hand of David? Am I a dog's head that you charge me today with a fault concerning this woman? ⁹So may God do to Abner, and more also, unless, as the LORD has sworn to David, even so I do to him — ¹⁰to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan even to Bēer-shē'-bā. ¹¹And he could not answer Abner a word again, because he feared him.

¹²And Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, Whose is the land? — saying also, Make your covenant with me, and, behold, my hand shall be with you, to bring about all Israel to you. ¹³And he said, Good! I will make a league with you, but one thing I ask of you. That is, that you shall not see my face unless you first bring Michal, Saul's daughter, when you come to see my face. ¹⁴And David sent messengers to Īsh-bōsh'-ēth, Saul's son, saying, Deliver my wife Michal, whom I betrothed to me for a hundred foreskins of the Philistines. ¹⁵And Īsh-bōsh'-ēth sent and took her from her husband, from Phāl'-tī-ēl the son of Lā'-ish. ¹⁶And her husband went along with her, weeping behind her, to Bā-hū'-rīm. Then Abner said to him, Go, return! And he returned.

¹⁷And Abner had a talk with the elders of Israel, saying, You sought for David in times past to be king over you. ¹⁸Now then do it, for the LORD has spoken of David, saying, By the hand of my servant David I will save My people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies. ¹⁹And Abner also spoke in the ears of Benjamin. And Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and all that seemed good to the whole house of Benjamin. ²⁰So Abner came to David at Hebron, and twenty men came with him. And David made a feast for Abner and the men who were with him. ²¹And Abner said to David, I will arise and go, and will gather all Israel unto my lord the king, so that they may make a covenant with you, and so that you may reign over all that your heart desires. And David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

²²And behold, the servants of David and Joab came from pursuing a troop, and brought in a great spoil with them. But Abner was not with David in Hebron, for he had sent him away, and he had gone in peace. ²³When Joab and all the army that was with him had come, they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he has sent him away, and he has gone in peace. ²⁴Then Joab came to the king and said, What have you done? Behold, Abner came to you. Why is it that you have sent him away, and he has completely gone? ²⁵You know Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive you, and to know your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you do. ²⁶And when Joab had come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, who brought him again from the well of Sī'-rāh. But David did not know it. ²⁷And when Abner had returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate to speak with him quietly. And he struck him there under the fifth rib, so that he died, for the blood of Ās'-ā-hēl his brother.

²⁸And afterward when David heard, he said, My kingdom and I are guiltless before the LORD forever from the blood of Abner the son of Ner. ²⁹Let it rest upon the head of Joab, and on all his father's house. And let there not fail from the house of Joab one who has an issue, or who is a leper, or who leans on a staff, or who falls on the sword, or who lacks bread. ³⁰So Joab and Āb'-ī-shaī his brother killed Abner, because he had slain their brother Ās'-ā-hēl at Gīb'-ē-ōn in the battle.

³¹And David said to Joab and to all the people who were with him, Tear your clothes and gird yourselves with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. And king David followed the bier. ³²And they buried Abner in Hebron. And the king lifted up his voice and wept at the grave of Abner. And all the people wept. ³³And the king mourned over Abner and said, Did Abner die like a fool dies? ³⁴Your hands were not bound, nor your feet put into fetters — as a man falls before wicked men, so you fell. And all the people wept again over him. ³⁵And when all the people came to David to eat food while it was still day, David swore, saying, So let God do to me, and more also, if I taste bread or anything else until the sun is down. ³⁶And all the people took notice, and it pleased them, as whatever the king did pleased all the people. ³⁷For all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not of the king to kill Abner the son of Ner. ³⁸And the king said to his servants, Do you not know that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel? ³⁹And I am weak this day, though anointed king. And these men, the sons of Zēr-ū-ī-āh, are too hard for me. The LORD shall reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

¹And when Saul's son heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, his hands were feeble, and all the Israelites were troubled. ²And Saul's son had two men that were captains of bands. The name of the one was Bā'-ā-nāh, and the name of the other was Rē'-chāb, the sons of Rīm'-mōn of Bēer'-ōth, of the children of Benjamin. For Bēer'-ōth also was counted to Benjamin, ³and the men of Bēer'-ōth fled to Gīt-tā'im and were strangers there until this day.

⁴(And Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son who was lame in his feet. He was five years old when the news of Saul and Jonathan came out of Jēz'-rēel, and his nurse took him up and fled. And as she made haste to flee he fell and became lame. And his name was Mě-phīb'-ō-shēth.)

⁵And the sons of Rimmon of Bēer'-ōth, Rē'-chāb and Bā'-ā-nāh, went and came about noon to the house of Īsh-bōsh'-ēth, who lay in a bed at noon. ⁶And they came there into the midst of the house, as though they would have brought wheat. And they struck him under the fifth rib. And Rē'-chāb and Bā'-ā-nāh his brother escaped. ⁷For when they came to the house, he lay in his bed in his bedroom. And they struck him and killed him, and beheaded him and took his head and got away through the plain all night.

⁸And they brought the head of Īsh-bōsh'-ēth to David at Hebron, and said to the king, Behold the head of Īsh-bōsh'-ēth the son of Saul, your enemy who sought your life. And the LORD has avenged my lord the king this day of Saul and of his seed. ⁹And David answered Rē'-chāb and Bā'-ā-nāh his brother, the sons of Rīm'-mōn of Bēer'-ōth, and said to them, As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all adversity, ¹⁰when one told me, saying, Behold, Saul is dead, thinking to have brought good news, I took hold of him and killed him in Zik'-lāg — which was the reward I gave him for his news. ¹¹How much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house upon his bed? Shall I not therefore now require his blood of your hand, and take you away from the earth? ¹²And David commanded his young men, and they killed them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up over the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-bōsh'-ēth and buried it in the tomb of Abner in Hebron.

¹Then all the tribes of Israel came to David unto Hebron, and spoke, saying, Behold, we are your bone and your flesh. ²Also in time past, when Saul was king over us, you were he who led Israel out and brought them in. And the LORD said to you, You shall feed My people Israel, and you shall be a captain over Israel. ³So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron. And king David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD. And they anointed David king over Israel.

⁴David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years. ⁵In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.

¹¹And Hī'-rām king of Tyre sent messengers, and cedar trees, and carpenters, and masons to David. And they built David a house. ¹²And David saw that the LORD had established him king over Israel, and that He had made his kingdom sure for His people Israel's sake.

¹³And David took more concubines and wives out of Jerusalem, after he had come from Hebron. And there were still more sons and daughters born to David. ¹⁴These are the names of those who were born to him in Jerusalem — Shām'-mū-ā, and Shō'-bāb, and Nā'-thān, and Sōl'-ō-mōn, ¹⁵also Ib'-hār, and Ē-lī-shū-ā, and Nēph'-ēg, and Jā-phī'-ā, ¹⁶and Ē-lī-shā-mā, and Ē-lī'-ā-dā, and Ē-līph'-ā-lēt.

¹⁷But when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines came up to seek David. And David heard, and went down to the hold. ¹⁸The Philistines also came and spread themselves in the valley of Rēph'-ā-īm. ¹⁹And David inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up to the Philistines? Wilt Thou deliver them into my hand? And the LORD said to David, Go up! For I will surely deliver the Philistines into your hand. ²⁰And David came to Bā-āl-pē-rā'-zīm, and David struck them there, and said, The LORD has broken forth upon my enemies before me, like the breaking forth of waters. Therefore he called the name of that place Bā-āl-pē-rā'-zīm. ²¹And there they left their images, and David and his men burned them.

²²And the Philistines came up still again, and spread themselves in the valley of Rēph'-ā-īm. ²³And when David inquired of the LORD, He said, You shall not go up, but go around behind them and come upon them over across from the mulberry trees. ²⁴And when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, then you shall stir yourself — for then the LORD shall go out before you to strike the army of the Philistines. ²⁵And David did so, as the LORD had commanded him. And he struck the Philistines from Gē'-bā until you come to Gā'-zēr.

¹Again David gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand. ²And David arose and went with all the people that were with him from beyond Bā'-ā-lē of Judah, to bring up the ark of God from there, whose name is called by the name of the LORD of hosts who dwells between the chēr'-ū-bīms. ³And they set the ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Ā-bīn'-ā-dāb that was in Gīb'-ē-āh. And Ūz'-zāh and Ā-hī'-ō, the sons of Ā-bīn'-ā-dāb, drove the new cart. ⁴And they brought it out of the house of Ā-bīn'-ā-dāb which was at Gīb'-ē-āh, going with the ark of God. And Ā-hī'-ō went before the ark. ⁵And David and all the house of Israel played before the LORD on all kinds of instruments made of fir wood, even on harps, and on psalteries [sālt'-ēr-ēēs], and on timbrels, and on cornets, and on cymbals.

⁶And when they came to Nā'-chōn's threshing-floor, Ūz'-zāh put forth his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it — for the oxen stumbled. ⁷And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Ūz'-zāh. And God struck him there for his error. And he died there by the ark of God. ⁸And David was displeased because the LORD had broken forth upon Ūz'-zāh. And he called the name of the place Pē'-rēz-ūz'-zāh to this day. ⁹And David was afraid of the LORD that day, and said, How shall the ark of the LORD come to me? ¹⁰So David would not remove the ark of the LORD to him into the city of David. But David carried it aside into the house of Ō'-bēd-ē'-dōm the Gīt'-tīte. ¹¹And the ark of the LORD stayed in the house of Ō'-bēd-ē'-dōm the Gīt'-tīte three months. And the LORD blessed Ō'-bēd-ē'-dōm and all his household.

¹²And they told king David, saying, The LORD has blessed the house of Ō'-bēd-ē'-dōm, and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God. So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Ō'-bēd-ē'-dōm into the city of David with gladness. ¹³And it happened that when those who bore the ark of the LORD had gone six steps, he sacrificed oxen and fatlings. ¹⁴And David danced before the LORD with all his might. And David was girded with a linen ephod. ¹⁵So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet. ¹⁶And as the ark of the LORD came to the city of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, looked through a window and saw king David leaping and dancing before the LORD. And she despised him in her heart.

¹⁷And they brought in the ark of the LORD and set it in its place in the midst of the tabernacle that David had pitched for it. And David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. ¹⁸And as soon as David had made an end of offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts. ¹⁹And he gave out among all the people, among the whole multitude of Israel, to the women as well as men, to everyone a cake of bread and a good piece of meat, and a flagon of wine. So all the people departed, each one to his house.

²⁰Then David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David and said, How glorious was the king of Israel today, who uncovered himself today in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the vain fellows shamelessly uncovers himself! ²¹And David said to Michal, It was before the LORD, who chose me before your father, and before all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of the LORD, over Israel. Therefore I will play before the LORD. ²²And I will be still lower than this, and will be base in my own sight. And of the maidservants of whom you have spoken of them I shall be had in honor. ²³Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no child unto the day of her death.

¹And when the king sat in his house, and when the LORD had given him rest round about from all his enemies, ²the king said unto Nā'-thān the prophet, See now, I live in a house of cedar, but the ark of God dwells within curtains. ³And Nathan said to the king, Go, do all that is in your heart, for the LORD is with you.

⁴And that night the word of the LORD came to Nathan saying, ⁵Go and tell My servant David, Thus says the LORD, Shall you build Me a house for Me to dwell in? ⁶For I have not lived in any house since the day that I brought up the children out of Egypt until this day, but have walked in a tent and in a tabernacle. ⁷In all the places in which I have walked with all the children of Israel, did I speak a word with any of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to feed My people Israel, saying, Why do you not build Me a house of cedar? ⁸Now therefore, so shall you say to My servant David, Thus says the LORD of hosts: I took you from the sheepcote, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people, over Israel. ⁹And I was with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies out of your sight, and have made you a great name like the name of the great men who are in the earth. ¹⁰Moreover I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will plant them so that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more. Neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more, as before. ¹¹And even from the time that I commanded judges to be over My people of Israel, so will I cause you to rest from all your enemies. Also the LORD tells you that He will make you a house.

¹²And when your days are fulfilled, and you shall sleep with your fathers, I will set up your seed after you, who shall come out of your bowels. And I will make his kingdom sure. ¹³He shall build a house for My name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. ¹⁴I will be his Father, and he shall be My son. If he commits iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men. ¹⁵But My mercy shall not leave him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before you. ¹⁶And your house and your kingdom shall be made sure forever before you. Your throne shall be established forever. ¹⁷According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

¹⁸Then king David went in and sat before the LORD. And he said, Who am I, O Lord GOD? And what is my house, that Thou hast brought me this far? ¹⁹And this was yet a small thing in Thy sight, O Lord GOD. But Thou hast spoken also of Thy servant's house for a great while to come. And is this the manner of men, O Lord GOD? ²⁰And what can David say more unto Thee? For Thou, Lord GOD, dost know Thy servant. ²¹For Thy word's sake, and according to Thy own heart, Thou hast done all these great things to make Thy servant know. ²²Therefore Thou are great, O LORD God. For there is none like Thee, neither is there any God besides Thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears. ²³And what one nation in the earth is like Thy people, like Israel, whom God went to redeem for a people to Himself, and to make Him a name, and to do for you great things and terrible, for Thy land, before Thy people, whom Thou didst redeem to Thee from Egypt, from the nations and their gods? ²⁴For Thou hast confirmed to Thyself Thy people Israel to be a people unto Thee forever. And Thou, LORD, hast become their God. ²⁵And now, O LORD God, the word that Thou hast spoken concerning Thy servant, and concerning his house: establish it forever, and do as Thou hast said. ²⁶And let Thy name be magnified forever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God over Israel. And let the house of Thy servant David be established before Thee. ²⁷For Thou, O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, hast revealed to Thy servant, saying, I will build you a house. Therefore Thy servant has found in his heart to pray this prayer unto Thee. ²⁸And now, O Lord GOD, Thou art that God, and Thy words are true, and Thou hast promised this goodness unto Thy servant. ²⁹Therefore now, let it please Thee to bless the house of Thy servant, so that it may continue forever before Thee. For Thou, O Lord GOD, hast spoken it. And with Thy blessing let the house of Thy servant be blessed forever.

¹And after this David struck the Philistines and humbled them. And David took Méth-ég-ám'-māh out of the hand of the Philistines. ²And he struck Moab, and measured them with a line, casting them down to the ground. Even with two lines he measured to put to death, and with one full line to keep alive. And so the Moabites became David's servants, bringing gifts.

³David also struck Hād-ā-dē'-zēr, the son of Rē'-hōb, king of Zō'-bāh, as he went to recover his border at the river Eū-phrā'-tēs. ⁴And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen. And David hamstrung all the chariot horses but kept enough of them for a hundred chariots. ⁵And when the Syr'-ī-āns of Dā-mās'-cūs came to rescue Hād-ā-dē'-zēr king of Zō'-bāh, David killed twenty-two thousand men of the Syr'-ī-āns. ⁶Then David put troops in Syria of Dā-mās'-cūs. And the Syrians became servants to David, bringing gifts. And the LORD preserved David wherever he went. ⁷And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. ⁸And from Bē'-tāh, and from Bē-rō'-thaī, cities of Hād-ā-dē'-zēr, king David took very much brass.

⁹When Tō'-ī king of Hā'-māth heard that David had struck all the army of Hād-ā-dē'-zēr, then Tō'-ī sent Jōr'-ām his son to king David, to greet him and bless him, because he had fought against Hād-ā-dē'-zēr and had struck him. For Hād-ā-dē'-zēr had wars with Tō'-ī. And Jōr'-ām brought with him vessels of silver and vessels of gold, and vessels of brass — ¹¹which also king David dedicated unto the LORD, with the silver and gold that he had dedicated from all nations which he subdued — ¹²of Syria, and of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Ām'-ā-lēk, and of the spoil of Hād-ā-dē'-zēr, son of Rē'-hōb, king of Zō'-bāh. ¹³And David got a name for himself when he returned from striking the Syrians in the valley of salt, eighteen thousand men.

¹⁴And he put garrisons in Edom. He put garrisons throughout all Edom, and all the men of Edom became David's servants. And the LORD preserved David wherever he went. ¹⁵And David reigned over all Israel. And David did judgment and justice unto all his people. ¹⁶And Joab the son of Zēr-ū-ī-āh was over the army. And Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt the son of Ā-hī'-lūd was recorder. ¹⁷And Zā'-dōk the son of Ā-hī'-tūb, and Ā-hīm'-ē-lēch the son of Ā-bī'-ā-thār, were the priests. And Sē-raī'-āh was the scribe. ¹⁸And Bē-naī'-āh the son of Jē-hoi'-ā-dā was over both the Chēr'-ē-thītes and the Pēl'-ē-thītes. And David's sons were chief rulers.

¹And David said, Is there still any that is left from the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake? ²And there was of the house of Saul a servant whose name was Zī'-bā. And when they had called him to David, the king said to him, Are you Zī'-bā? And he said, Your servant is he. ³And the king said, Is there not still any of the house of Saul, so that I may show the kindness of God to him? And Zī'-bā said to the king, Jonathan still has a son, who is lame in his feet. ⁴And the king said to him, Where is he? And Zī'-bā said to the king, Behold, he is in the house of Mā'-chīr, the son of Ām'-mī-ēl, in Lō'-dē-bār.

⁵Then king David sent and brought him out of the house of Mā'-chīr the son of Ām'-mī-ēl, from Lō'-dē-bār. ⁶Now when Mē-phīb'-ō-shēth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, had come to David, he fell on his face and bowed to him. And David said, Mē-phīb'-ō-shēth! And he answered, Behold your servant! ⁷And David said to him, Do not fear, for I will surely show you kindness for Jonathan your father's sake, and will restore you all the land of Saul your father. And you shall eat bread at my table forever. ⁸And he bowed himself and said, What is your servant, that you should look upon such a dead dog as I am?

⁹Then the king called to Zī'-bā, Saul's servant, and said to him, I have given to your master's son all that belonged to Saul and to all his house. ¹⁰You therefore, and your sons, and your servants, shall till the land for him, and you shall bring in the fruits, so that your master's son may have food to eat. But Mē-phīb'-ō-shēth your master's son shall eat bread always at my table. Now Zī'-bā had fifteen sons and twenty servants. ¹¹Then Zī'-bā said to the king, According to all that my lord the king has commanded his servant, so shall your servant do. As for Mē-phīb'-ō-shēth, said the king, he shall eat at my table like one of the king's sons. ¹²And Mē-phīb'-ō-shēth had a young son, whose name was Mī'-chā. And all that lived in the house of Zī'-bā were servants to Mē-phīb'-ō-shēth. ¹³So Mē-phīb'-ō-shēth lived in Jerusalem. For he always sat at the king's table. And he was lame in both his feet.

¹And after this the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son Hā'-nūn reigned in his stead. ²Then said David, I will show kindness to Hā'-nūn the son of Nā'-hāsh, as his father showed kindness to me. And David sent to comfort him for his father, by the hand of his servants. And David's servants came to the land of the children of Ammon. ³And the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hā'-nūn their lord, Do you think that David honors your father, that he has sent comforters to you? Has not David rather sent his servants to you to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it? ⁴Therefore Hā'-nūn took David's servants and shaved off half their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, to their buttocks, and sent them away. ⁵When they told it to David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Stay at Jericho until your beards are grown, and then return.

⁶And when the children of Ammon saw that they had begun to stink before David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Bēth-rē'-hōb, and the Syrians of Zō'-bā, twenty thousand footmen, and from king Mā'-ā-cāh a thousand men, and from Ish'-tōb twelve thousand men. ⁷And when David heard, he sent Joab and all the army of the mighty men. ⁸And the children of Ammon came out and put the battle in order at the entering in of the gate. And the Syrians of Zō'-bā, and of Rē'-hōb, and Ish'-tōb, and Mā'-ā-cāh, were by themselves in the field. ⁹When Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind, he chose from all the choice men of Israel, and put them in order against the Syrians. ¹⁰And the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of Āb'-ī-shaī his brother, so that he might put them in order against the children of Ammon. ¹¹And he said, If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me. But if the children of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will come and help you. ¹²Be of good courage, and let us play the men for our people and for the cities of our God. And may the LORD do that which seems good to Him.

¹³And Joab and the people who were with him drew near to the battle against the Syrians. And they fled before him. ¹⁴And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians had fled, then they fled also before Āb'-ī-shaī, and entered into the city. So Joab returned from the children of Ammon and came to Jerusalem. ¹⁵And when the Syrians saw that they were beaten before Israel, they gathered themselves together. ¹⁶And Hād-ā-rē'-zēr sent and brought out the Syrians who were beyond the river. And they came to Hē'-lām. And Shō'-bāch the captain of the host of Hād-ā-rē'-zēr went before them. ¹⁹And when David was told, he gathered all Israel together and passed over Jordan, and came to Hē'-lām. And the Syrians set themselves in order against David and fought with him. ¹⁸And the Syrians fled before Israel. And David killed the men of seven hundred chariots of the Syrians, and forty thousand horsemen, and struck Shō'-bāch the captain of their host, who died there. ¹⁹And when all the kings who were servants of Hād-ā-rē'-zēr saw that they were beaten before Israel, they made peace with Israel and served them. So the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more.

¹And after the year had passed, at the time when kings go forth to battle, David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel. And they destroyed the children of Ammon and circled Rāb'-bāh. But David remained at Jerusalem. ²And one evening David arose from his bed and walked upon the roof of the king's house. And from the roof he saw a woman washing herself. And the woman was very beautiful to look upon. ³And David sent and asked about the woman. And one said, Is not this Bāth'-shē-bā, the daughter of Ē-lī-ām, the wife of Ū-rī-āh the Hittite? ⁴And David sent messengers and took her. And she came in to him, and he lay with her. And when she had purified herself from her uncleanness, she returned to her house. ¹⁵And the woman conceived, and sent and told David, and said, I am with child.

⁶And David sent to Joab, saying Send me Ū-rī-āh the Hittite. And Jō'-āb sent Ū-rī-āh to David. ⁷And when Ū-rī-āh had come to him, David asked how Joab did, and how the people did, and how the war went. ⁸And David said to Uriah, Go down to your house and wash your feet. And Uriah left the king's house. And a gift from the king went out after him. ⁹But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and did not go down to his house. ¹⁰And when they told David, saying, Uriah did not go down to his house — David said to Uriah, Did you not come from your journey? Why then do you not go down to your house? ¹¹And Uriah said to David, The ark and Israel and Judah abide in tents. And my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are camped in the open fields. Shall I then go to my house to eat and to drink and to lie with my wife? As you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing. ¹²And David said to Uriah, Stay here today also, and tomorrow I will let you go. So Uriah stayed in Jerusalem that day and the next day. ¹³And when David had called him, he ate and drank before him. And he made him drunk. And at evening he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but he did not go down to his house.

¹⁴And in the morning David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it by the hand of Uriah. ¹⁵And he wrote in the letter, saying, Set Uriah in the forefront of the hottest battle, and draw back from him so that he may be stricken and die. ¹⁶And when Joab observed the city, he sent Uriah to a place where he knew brave men were. ¹⁷And the men of the city went out and fought with Joab. And some of the people of the servants of David fell. And Uriah the Hittite also died.

¹⁸Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war. ¹⁹And he commanded the messenger saying, When you have made an end of telling the matters of the war to the king, ²⁰and if it be so that the king's wrath arise, and he say unto you, Why did you approach so near to the city when you fought? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall? ²¹Who struck Ā-bīm'-ě-lěch the son of Jě-rüb'-bě-shěth? Did not a woman cast a piece of a millstone upon him from the wall, so that he died in Thě'-běz? Why did you go near the wall? — then you shall say, Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

²²So the messenger departed, and came and showed David all that Joab had sent him for. ²³And the messenger said to David, Surely the men prevailed against us, and came out to us unto the field, and we were upon them even to the entering of the gate. ²⁴And the shooters shot from off the wall upon your servants, and some of the king's servants are dead, and your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also. ²⁵Then David said to the messenger, So you shall say to Joab, Do not let this thing displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another. Make your battle stronger against the city and overthrow it. And you encourage him.

²⁶And when the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she mourned for her husband. ²⁷And when her mourning was past, David sent and brought her to his house, and she became his wife and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done was evil in the eyes of the LORD.

¹And the LORD sent Nathan to David. And he came to him and said to him, There were two men in one city, the one rich and the other poor. ²The rich man had exceeding many flocks and herds, ³but the poor man had nothing except one little ewe lamb which he had bought and nourished up. And it grew up together with him and with his children. It ate of his own food and drank from his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was to him like a daughter. ⁴And there came a traveler to the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd to dress for the wayfaring man that had come to him. But he took the poor man's lamb and dressed it for the man who had come to him. ⁵And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man. And he said to Nathan, As the LORD lives, the man who has done this thing shall surely die. ⁶And he shall restore the lamb four-fold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity.

⁷And Nathan said to David, You are the man! Thus says the LORD God of Israel, I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you out of the hand of Saul. ⁸And I gave you your master's house and your master's wives into your bosom, and gave you the house of Israel and of Judah. And if that was too little, I would have given unto you such and such things besides. ⁹Why have you despised the commandment of the LORD, to do evil in His sight? You have killed Ū-rī'-āh the Hīt'-tīte with the sword, and have taken his wife to be your wife, and have killed him with the sword of the children of Ammon. ¹⁰Now therefore, the sword shall never depart from your house, because you have despised Me and have taken the wife of Ū-rī'-āh the Hīt'-tīte to be your wife. ¹¹Thus says the LORD, Behold, I will raise up evil against you out of your own house, and I will take your wives before your eyes and give them to your neighbor. And he shall lie with your wives in the sight of this sun. ¹²For you did it secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel and before the sun. ¹³And David said to Nathan, I have sinned against the LORD. And Nathan said to David, The LORD also has put away your sin — you shall not die. ¹⁴However, because by this deed you have given great occasion to the enemies of the LORD to blaspheme, this child that is born to you shall surely die.

¹⁵And Nathan left to go to his house. And the LORD struck the child that Ū-rī'-āh's wife bore to David, and it was very sick. ¹⁶David therefore prayed to God for the child. And David fasted, and went in and lay all night upon the earth. ¹⁷And the elders of his house arose and went to him, to raise him up from the earth. But he would not, neither did he eat bread with them. ¹⁸And on the seventh day the child died. And the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead. For they said, Behold, while the child was still alive we spoke to him, and he would not listen to our voice. How then will he trouble himself if we tell him that the child is dead? ¹⁹But when David saw that his servants whispered, David perceived that the child was dead. Therefore David said to his servants, Is the child dead? And they said, He is dead. ²⁰Then David arose from the earth and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his clothing, and came into the house of the LORD and worshipped. Then he came to his house. And when he asked, they set bread before him and he ate. ²¹Then his servants said to him, What is this that you have done? You fasted and wept for the child while it was alive, but when the child was dead you arose and ate bread! ²²And he said, While the child was still alive, I fasted and wept; for I said, Who can tell if GOD will be gracious to me so that the child may live? ²³But now he is dead — why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me.

²⁴And David comforted his wife Bāth'-shē-bā. And he went in to her and lay with her. And she bore a son. And he called his name Sōl-ō-mōn. And the LORD loved him. ²⁵And he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet, and he called his name Jēd-ī-dī'-āh, because of the LORD.

²⁶And Joab fought against Rāb-bāh of the children of Ammon, and took the royal city. ²⁷And Joab sent messengers to David and said, I have fought against Rāb'-bāh, and have taken the city of waters. ²⁸Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and camp against the city and take it — lest I take the city and it be called after my name. ²⁹And David gathered all the people together, and went to Rabbah, and fought against it and took it. ³⁰And he took the king's crown from off his head, the weight of which was a talent of gold with the precious stones. And it was set on David's head. And he brought forth the spoil of the city in great abundance. ³¹And he brought forth the people that were in it, and put them to laboring with saws and harrows of iron, and under axes of iron. And he made them labor around the brick-kiln. And so he did to all the cities of the children of Ammon. So David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

¹And after this Āb'-sā-lōm the son of David had a beautiful sister whose name was Tā'-mār. And Ām'-nōn the son of David loved her. ²And Ām-nōn was so troubled that he fell sick for his sister Tā'-mār — for she was a virgin. And Ām'-nōn thought it hard for him to do anything to her. ³But Ām'-nōn had a friend, whose name was Jōn'-ā-dāb, the son of David's brother Shim'-ē-āh. And Jōn'-ā-dāb was a very crafty man. ⁴And he said to him, Why are you, the king's son, lean from day to day? Will you not tell me? And Ām'-nōn said to him, I love Tamar, my brother Āb'-sā-lōm's sister. ⁵And Jōn'-ā-dāb said to him, Lay down on your bed and make yourself sick. And when your father comes to see you, say to him, I pray you, Let my sister Tamar come and give me food, and prepare the food in my sight so that I may see and eat it at her hand.

⁶So Ām'-nōn lay down and made himself sick. And when the king had come to see him, Ām'-nōn said to the king, I pray you, let my sister Tamar come and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, so that I may eat at her hand. ⁷Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to your brother Ām'-nōn's house, and prepare food for him. ⁸So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house. And he had lain down. And she took flour and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and baked the cakes. ⁹And she took a pan and poured them out before him. But he refused to eat. And Amnon said, Have all the men go out from me. And every man went out, away from him. ¹⁰And Amnon said to Tamar, Bring the food into the room so that I may eat out of your hand.

And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the room to Amnon her brother. ¹¹And when she had brought them to him to eat, he took hold of her and said to her, Come lie with me, my sister. ¹²And she answered him, No, my brother, do not humble me. For no such thing ought to be done in Israel. Do not do this folly. ¹³And I — where shall I cause my shame to go? And as for you — you shall be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, I pray you, speak to the king. For he will not withhold me from you. ¹⁴However, he would not listen to her voice; but being stronger than she, he forced her and lay with her.

¹⁵Then Amnon hated her with a great hatred: So that the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, Get up and go. ¹⁶And she said to him, There is no cause — this evil in sending me away is greater than the other that you did to me. But he would not listen to her. ¹⁷Then he called his servant who waited on him and said, Now put this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her. ¹⁸And she had a robe of many colors upon her, for the king's virgin daughters were clothed with such robes. Then his servant brought her out and bolted the door after her.

²¹And when king David heard of all these things, he was very angry. ²²And Āb'-sā-lōm did not speak to his brother Amnon, neither good nor bad, for Āb'-sā-lōm hated Amnon because he had forced his sister Tamar.

²³And after two full years Absalom had sheepshearers in Bā'-āl-hā'-zōr, which is beside Ephraim. And Absalom invited all the king's sons. ²⁴And Absalom came to the king and said, Behold now, your servant has sheepshearers — I beg you, let the king and his servants go with your servant. ²⁵And the king said to Absalom, No, my son, let us not all go now, lest we be too heavy upon you. And he pressed him. He would not go, however, but blessed him. ²⁶Then Absalom said, If not, I pray you, let my brother Amnon go with us? And the king said to him, Why should he go with you? ²⁷But Absalom pressed him, so that he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.

²⁸Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, Now watch when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say to you, Strike Amnon! — then kill him, do not fear. Have I not commanded you? Be courageous, and be brave. ²⁹And the servants of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose. And every man got on his mule and fled.

³⁴But Absalom fled. And the young man that kept the watch lifted up his eyes and looked. And, behold, many people came by the way of the hillside behind him. ³⁵And Jōn'-ā-dāb said to the king, Behold, the king's sons come — as your servant said, so it is. ³⁶And as soon as he had made an end of speaking, behold, the king's sons came. And they lifted up their voice and wept. And the king also and all his servants wept with a great weeping.

³⁷But Absalom fled and went to Tāl'-maī, the son of Ām'-mī-hüd, king of Gē'-shūr. And David mourned for his son every day. ³⁸So Absalom fled and went to Gē'-shūr, and was there three years. ³⁹And king David longed to go forth to Absalom, for he was comforted about Amnon, since he was dead.

¹Now Joab the son of Zēr-ū-ī'-āh saw that the king's heart was toward Absalom. ²And Joab sent to Tē-kō'-āh and brought a wise woman from there. And he said to her, I pray you, pretend yourself to be a mourner, and put on mourning clothes now, and do not anoint yourself with oil. But be like a woman who has mourned for the dead a long time. ³And come to the king, and speak in this way to him. So Joab put the words in her mouth.

⁴And when the woman of Tē-kō'-āh came to the king, she fell on her face to the ground and bowed to him. She said, Help, O King! ⁵And the king said to her, What ails you? And she answered, I am indeed a widow woman, and my husband is dead. ⁶And your hand-maid had two sons, and the two of them fought together in the field. And there was no deliverer to part them, but the one struck the other and killed him. ⁷And behold, the whole family has risen against your handmaid. And they said, Deliver him who struck his brother so that we may kill him for the life of his brother whom he killed. And we will destroy the heir also. And so they shall put out my coal which is left, and shall leave to my husband neither name nor remainder upon the face of the earth.

⁸And the king said to the woman, Go to your house, and I will give command concerning you. ⁹And the woman of Tě-kō'-āh said to the king. My lord, O king, may the guilt be on me and on my father's house. And may the king and his throne be without guilt. ¹⁰And the king said, Whoever says anything to you, bring him to me, and he shall not touch you any more. ¹¹Then she said, I pray you, let the king remember the LORD your God, that you would not allow the revengers of blood to destroy any more, lest they should destroy my son. And he said, As the LORD lives, there shall not one hair of your son fall to the earth.

¹²Then the woman said, I beg you, let your handmaid speak one more word to my lord the king. And he said, Say on! ¹³And the woman said, Why then have you thought such a thing against the people of God? For the king speaks this thing as one who is at fault, in that the king does not bring his banished one home again. ¹⁴For we must all die, and we are as water spilled on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again. Neither does God respect any person. Yet He does devise means so that His banished one may not be cast out from Him. ¹⁵Now therefore I have come to speak of this thing to my lord the king, because the people have made me afraid. And your handmaid said, I will now speak to the king. It may be that the king will do what his handmaid has asked. ¹⁶For the king will hear, to deliver his handmaid out of the hand of the man who would destroy me and my son together out of the inheritance of God. ¹⁷Then your handmaid said, The word of my lord the king shall now be comforting. For as an angel of God, so is my lord the king, to see what is good and bad. Therefore the LORD your God will be with you.

¹⁸Then the king answered and said to the woman, I pray you, do not hide from me the thing that I shall ask you. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak. ¹⁹And the king said, Is the hand of Joab with you in all this? And the woman answered and said, As your soul lives, my lord the king, none can turn to the right hand or to the left from anything which my lord the king has spoken. For your servant Joab commanded me. And he put all these words in the mouth of your handmaid. ²⁰Your servant Joab has done this thing to change the face of the matter. And my lord is wise according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth.

²¹And the king said to Joab, Behold now, I have done this thing. Go therefore and bring the young man Absalom again. ²²And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself, and thanked the king. And Joab said, Today your servant knows that I have found grace in your sight, my lord, O king, in that the king has done what your servant has asked. ²³So Joab arose and went to Gē'-shūr, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. ²⁴And the king said, Let him turn to his own house, and let him not see my face. So Absalom returned to his own house, and did not see the king's face. ²⁵But in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Absalom for his beauty. From the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him. ²⁶And when he trimmed his head (for it was at every year's end that he trimmed it, because it was heavy on him — therefore he trimmed it), he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels, according to the king's weight. ²⁷And there were born three sons to Absalom, and one daughter, whose name was Tā'-mār. She was a woman with a beautiful face.

²⁸So Absalom lived two full years in Jerusalem and did not see the king's face. ²⁹Therefore Absalom sent to Joab, to send him to the king. But he would not come to him. And when he sent again a second time, he would not come. ³⁰Therefore he said to his servants, See, Joab's field is near mine, and he has barley there. Go and set it on fire! And Absalom's servants set the field on fire. ³¹Then Joab arose and came to Absalom's house, and said to him, Why have your servants set my field on fire? ³²And Absalom answered Joab, Behold, I sent to you, saying, Come here so that I may send you to the king, to say, Why have I come from Gē'-shūr? It had been good for me to be there still. Now therefore let me see the king's face, and if there is any iniquity in me, let him kill me. ³³So Joab came to the king and told him. And when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king. And the king kissed Absalom.

¹And after this Absalom prepared himself chariots and horses and fifty men to run before him. ²And Absalom rose up early and stood beside the way of the gate. And when any man who had a suit to come before the king for judgment, then Absalom called to him and said, What city are you from? And he said, Your servant is of one of the tribes of Israel. ³And Absalom said to him, See! Your matters are good and right. But no man from the king will hear you. ⁴Absalom said moreover, Oh that I might be made judge in the land, so that every man who has any suit or cause might come to me, and I would do him justice! ⁵And when any man came near to bow down to him, he put forth his hand and took him and kissed him. ⁶And in this way Absalom did to all Israel that came to the king for judgment. So Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

⁷And at the end of forty years, Absalom said to the king, I pray you, let me go and pay my vow which I have vowed to the LORD in Hebron. ⁸For your servant vowed a vow while I lived at Gē'-shūr in Syria, saying, If the LORD will indeed bring me again to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD. ⁹And the king said to him, Go in peace. So he arose and went to Hebron. ¹⁰But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then you shall say, Absalom reigns in Hebron! ¹¹And with Absalom went two hundred called men out of Jerusalem. And they went in their honesty, and did not know anything about Absalom's plans. ¹²And Absalom sent for Ā-hīth'-ō-phēl of Gī'-lōh, David's counsellor, from his city Gī'-lōh, while he offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong, for the people with Absalom grew more and more.

¹³And there came a messenger to David saying, The hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom. ¹⁴And David said to all his servants who were with him at Jerusalem, Arise, and let us flee! For otherwise we shall not escape from Absalom. Make haste to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly and bring evil upon us, and strike the city with the edge of the sword. ¹⁵And the king's servants said to the king, Behold, your servants will do whatever my lord the king shall choose. ¹⁶And the king went forth, and all his household after him. And the king left ten women who were concubines to keep the house. ¹⁷And the king went forth, and all the people after him, and stayed in a place that was far off. ¹⁸And all his servants passed on beside him. And all the Chēr'-ē-thītes, and all the Pēl'-ē-thītes, and all the Gīt'-tites, six hundred men who came after him from Gath, passed on before the king.

¹⁹Then the king said to Īt-tā'-ī the Gīt'-tite, Why do you also go with us? Return to your place, and stay with the king. For you are a stranger, and also an exile. ²⁰Since you came only yesterday, should I make you go up and down with us today? Since I go where I may, you may return and take back your brothers. May mercy and truth be with you. ²¹And Īt-tā'-ī answered the king and said, As the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, surely in whatever place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also will your servant be. ²²And David said to Īt-tā'-ī, Go and pass over. And Īt-tā'-ī the Gīt'-tite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones that were with him. ²³And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over. The king himself also passed over the brook Kī'-drōn, and all the people passed over, toward the way of the wilderness.

²⁴And lo, Zā'-dōk came also, and all the Levites were with him, carrying the ark of the covenant of God. And they set down the ark of God. And Ā-bī'-ā-thār went up until all the people had finished passing out of the city. ²⁵And the king said to Zā'-dōk, Carry the ark of God back into the city. If I shall find favor in the eyes of the LORD, He will bring me again and show it to me, and its dwelling place also. ²⁶But if He says this, I have no delight in you — behold me, and let Him do to me as seems good to Him. ²⁷The king also said to Zā'-dōk the priest, Are you a seer? Then return to the city in peace, and your two sons with you. Ā-hī'-mā-āz your son, and Jonathan the son of Ā-bī'-ā-thār. ²⁸See! I will wait in the plain of the wilderness until there comes word from you to tell me. ²⁹Then Zā'-dōk and Ā-bī'-ā-thār carried the ark of God again to Jerusalem. And they remained there.

³⁰And David went up by the ascent of Mount Olivet. And he wept as he went up, and had his head covered, and he went barefoot. And of all the people who were with him, each man covered his head. And they went up, weeping as they went. ³¹And one told David, saying, Ā-hīth'-ō-phēl is among the conspirators with Absalom. And David said, O LORD, I pray Thee, turn the advice of Ā-hīth'-ō-phēl to foolishness.

³²And when David had come to the top, where he worshipped God, behold, Hū'-shaī the Ā'-chīte came to meet him with his coat torn and earth upon his head. ³³David said to him, If you pass on with me, then you shall be a burden to me. ³⁴But if you return to the city and say to Absalom, I will be your servant, O king — I have been your father's servant until now, and now I also will be your servant — then you may defeat the advice of Ā-hīth'-ō-phēl for me. ³⁵Do you not have there with you Zā'-dōk and Ā-bī'-ā-thār the priests? Then whatever you shall hear out of the king's house, you shall tell it to Zā'-dōk and Ā-bī'-ā-thār the priests. ³⁶Behold, they have their two sons, there with them, Ā-hī'-mā-āz, Zā'-dōk's son, and Jonathan, Ā-bī'-ā-thār's son. And you shall send to me everything that you hear by them. ³⁷So David's friend Hū'-shaī came to the city. And Absalom came into Jerusalem.

¹And when David was a little past the top, behold, Zi'-bā the servant of Mē-phīb'-ō-shēth met him with a couple of asses saddled, and upon them two hundred loaves of bread, and a hundred bunches of raisins, and a hundred of summer fruits, and a bottle of wine. ²And the king said to Zi'-bā, What do you mean by these? And Zi'-bā said, The asses are for the king's household to ride upon. And the bread and summer fruit are for the young men to eat. And the wine is so that the ones who are faint in the wilderness may drink. ³And the king said, And where is your master's son? And Zi'-bā said to the king, Behold, he remains at Jerusalem. For he said, Today the house of Israel shall restore to me the kingdom of my father. ⁴Then the king said to Zi'-bā, Behold, All that belonged to Mē-phīb'-ō-shēth is yours. And Zi'-bā said, I humbly beg you that I may find grace in your sight, my lord, O king.

⁵And when king David came to Bā-hū'-rīm, behold, a man of the house of Saul came out from there, whose name was Shīm'-ē-ī, the son of Gē'-rā. He came forth and still cursed as he came. ⁶And he threw stones at David and at all the servants of king David. And all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left. ⁷And so said Shīm'-ē-ī when he cursed, Come out, come out, you bloody man, and you man of Bē'-li-āl. ⁸The LORD has returned upon you all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned. And the LORD has delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom your son. And look at you in your mischief, because you are a bloody man!

⁹Then Āb'-ī-shaī the son of Zēr-ū-ī'-āh said to the king, Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? I pray you, let me go over and take off his head. ¹⁰And the king said, What have I to do with you, you sons of Zēr-ū-ī'-āh? Let him curse, because the LORD has said to him, Curse David. Who then shall say, Why have you done so? ¹¹And David said to Āb'-ī-shaī and to all his servants, Behold, my son, who came forth from my bowels, seeks my life — how much more now should this Benjamite? Let him alone and let him curse, for the LORD has bidden him. ¹²It may be that the LORD will look on my affliction, and that the LORD will repay me with good for his cursing this day. ¹³And as David and his men went by the way, Shīm'-ē-ī went along on the hillside over across from him, and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him, and threw dust. ¹⁴And the king, and all the people who were with him, arrived weary. And they refreshed themselves there.

¹⁵And Absalom and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem. And Ā-hīth'-ō-phēl went with him. ¹⁶And when Hū'-shaī the Ār'-chīte, David's friend, had come to Absalom, Hū'-shaī said to Absalom, Let the king live, let the king live! ¹⁷And Absalom said to Hū'-shaī, Is this your kindness to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend? ¹⁸And Hū'-shaī said to Absalom, No, but whom the LORD and this people, and all the men of Israel choose, his will I be, and I will stay with him. ¹⁹And again, whom should I serve? Should I not serve in the presence of his son? As I have served in your father's presence, so I will be in your presence. ²⁰Then Absalom said to Ā-hīth'-ō-phēl, Give advice among you as to what we shall do. ²¹And Ā-hīth'-ō-phēl said to Absalom, Go in to your father's concubines whom he has left to keep the house. And all Israel shall hear that you are abhorred by your father. Then shall the hands of all who are with you be strong. ²²So they spread Absalom a tent upon the top of the house, and Absalom went in to his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel. ²³And the advice of Ā-hīth'-ō-phēl, which he advised in those days, was as if a man had inquired at the oracle of God. So was all the advice of Ā-hīth'-ō-phēl, both with David and with Absalom.

¹Moreover Ā-hīth'-ō-phēl said to Absalom, Now let me choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David this night. ²And I will come upon him while he is weary and weak-handed, and I will make him afraid. And all the people who are with him shall flee. And I will strike the king only. ³And I will bring back all the people to you. The man whom you seek is as if all returned — so all the people shall be in peace. ⁴And the saying pleased Absalom very much, and all the elders of Israel. ⁵Then Absalom said, Now call Hū'-shaī the Ār'-chīte also, and let us hear likewise what is in his mouth.

⁶And when Hū'-shaī had come to Absalom, Absalom spoke to him saying, Ā-hīth'-ō-phēl has spoken in this way — shall we do his word? If not, you speak. ⁷And Hū'-shaī said to Absalom, The advice which Ā-hīth'-ō-phēl has given is not good at this time. ⁸For, Hū'-shaī said, you know your father and his men, that they are mighty men, and they are chafed in their minds, like a bear robbed of her whelps in the field. And your father is a man of war, and will not stay the night with the people. ⁹Behold, he is hidden now in some pit, or in some place. And when some of them are overthrown at the first, it will come to pass that whoever hears it will say, There is a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom. ¹⁰And also he who is strong, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, shall utterly melt. For all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and they who are with him are mighty men. ¹¹Therefore I advise that all Israel be generally gathered to you, from Dan even to Bēer-shē'-bā, like the sand that is by the sea for multitude — and then that you go to battle in your own person. ¹²So we shall come upon him in some place where he shall be found, and we will light upon him like the dew falls upon the ground — and of him and of all the men that are with him there shall not be left so much as one. ¹³Moreover, if he has gotten into a city, then all Israel shall bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river until there is not one small stone found there. ¹⁴And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hū'-shaī the Ār'-chīte is better than the counsel of Ā-hīth'-ō-phēl. For the LORD had appointed to defeat the good counsel of Ā-hīth'-ō-phēl, to the intent that the LORD might bring evil upon Absalom.

¹⁵Then Hū'-shai said to Zā'-dōk and to Ā-bī'-ā-thār the priests, This and this Ā-hīth'-ō-phēl advised Absalom and the elders of Israel, and this and this I have advised. ¹⁶Now therefore send quickly and tell David, saying, Do not stay in the plains of the wilderness tonight, but speedily pass over, lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people who are with him. ¹⁷Now Jonathan and Ā-hī'-mā-āz stayed by Ēn-rō'-gēl, for there they might not be seen to come into the city. And a girl went and told them, and they went and told king David. ¹⁸But a lad saw them and told Absalom. But both of them went away quickly, and came to a man's house in Bā-hū'-rīm, who had a well in his court, into which they went down. ¹⁹And the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground grain on it, and the thing was not known. ²⁰And when Absalom's servants came to the woman of the house, they said, Where are Ā-hī'-mā-āz and Jonathan? And the woman said to them, They have gone over the brook of water. And when they had searched and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem. ²¹And after they had departed, they came up out of the well, and went and told King David. And they said to David, Arise and pass quickly over the water, for this is what Ā-hīth'-ō-phēl has advised against you. ²²Then David and all the people who were with him arose. And they passed over Jordan. By the morning light there was not one of them that had not gone over Jordan.

²³And when Ā-hīth'-ō-phēl saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his ass and arose, and went home to his house, to his city, and put his household in order. And he hanged himself and died, and was buried in the tomb of his father. ²⁴Then David came to Mā-hā-nā'-im. And Absalom passed over Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him. ²⁵And Absalom made Ā-mā'-sā captain of the army instead of Joab. This Ā-mā'-sā was the son of a man whose name was Ith'-rā, an Israelite, who went in to Āb'-ī-gail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zēr-ū-ī'-āh, Joab's mother. ²⁶So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.

²⁷And when David had come to Mā-hā-nā'-im, it came to pass that Shō'-bī the son of Nā'-hāsh of Rāb'-bāh, of the children of Ammon, and Mā'-chir the son of Ām'-mī-ēl of Lō'-dē-bār, and Bār-zil-lā'-ī the Gileadite of Rō'-gē-līm, ²⁸brought beds and basins and earthen vessels, and wheat and barley and flour and parched grain, and beans and lentils and other parched food, ²⁹and honey and butter and sheep and cheese from cows, for David and for the people who were with him to eat. For they said, The people are hungry and weary and thirsty in the wilderness.

¹And David numbered the people who were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them. ²And David sent forth a third of the people under the hand of Joab, and a third under the hand of Āb'-ī-shaī the son of Zēr-ū-ī-āh, Joab's brother, and a third under the hand of Īt-tā'-ī the Gīt'-tīte. And the king said to the people, I will also surely go forth with you myself. ³But the people answered, You shall not go forth. For if we run away, they will not care for us. Neither if half of us die, will they care for us. But now you are worth ten thousand of us. Therefore now it is better that you remain to help us from the city. ⁴And the king said to them, I will do what seems best to you. And the king stood by the side of the gate, and all the people came out by hundreds and by thousands. ⁵And the king commanded Joab and Āb'-ī-shaī and Īt-tā'-ī, saying, For my sake be gentle with the young man, with Absalom. And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom.

⁶So the people went out into the field against Israel. And the battle was in the woods of Ephraim, ⁷where the people of Israel were killed before the servants of David. And there was a great slaughter that day of twenty thousand men. ⁸For the battle was scattered there over the face of all the country. And the woods devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

⁹And Absalom met the servants of David. And Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak. And his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the heaven and the earth. And the mule which was under him went away. ¹⁰And a certain man saw it and told Joab, and said, Behold, I saw Absalom hanged in an oak. ¹¹And Joab said to the man who told him, And, behold, you saw him, and why did you not strike him there to the ground? And I would have given you ten shekels of silver and a girdle. ¹²And the man said to Joab, though I should receive a thousand shekels of silver in my hand, yet I would not put forth my hand against the king's son. For in our hearing the king charged you and Āb'-ī-shaī and Īt-tā'-ī, saying, Beware that none touches the young man Absalom. ¹³Otherwise I should have dealt falsely with my own life, for there is no matter hidden from the king, and you yourself would have set yourself against me.

¹⁴Then Joab said, I cannot stay here with you this way! And he took three darts in his hand and thrust them through the heart of Absalom while he was still alive in the midst of the oak. ¹⁵And ten young men who bore Joab's armor surrounded and struck Absalom, and killed him. ¹⁶And Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing Israel. For Joab held back the people. ¹⁷And they took Absalom and threw him into a great pit in the woods. And they laid a very great heap of stones upon him. And all Israel fled, each one to his tent.

¹⁸Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself a pillar, which is in the king's valley — for he said, I have no son to keep my name in remembrance. And he called the pillar after his own name. And it is called until this day, Absalom's place.

¹⁹Then Ā-hī'-mā-āz the son of Zā'-dōk said, Now let me run and bear the news to the king, how the LORD has avenged him of his enemies. ²⁰And Joab said to him, You shall not bear news today, but you shall bear good news some other day. But today you shall bear no tidings, because the king's son is dead. ²¹Then Joab said to Cū'-shī, Go tell the king what you have seen. And Cū'-shī bowed himself to Joab, and ran. ²²Then Ā-hī'-mā-āz the son of Zā'-dōk said yet again to Joab, I pray you, come what may, let me also run after Cū'-shī. And Joab said, Why will you run, my son, since you have no good news ready? ²³But he said, Come what may, let me run! And he said to him, Run. Then Ā-hī'-mā-āz ran by the way of the plain, and ran past Cū'-shī.

²⁴And David sat between the two gates. And the watchman went up to the roof over the gate to the wall, and lifted up his eyes and looked. And behold, a man ran alone. ²⁵And the watchman cried and told the king. And the king said, If he is alone, there is news in his mouth. And he came apace and drew near. ²⁶And the watchman saw another man running. And the watchman called to the porter and said, Behold another man running alone. And the king said, He also brings news. ²⁷And the watchman said, I see the running of the first is like the running of Ā-hī'-mā-āz the son of Zā'-dōk. And the king said, He is a good man, and comes with good news. ²⁸And Ā-hī'-mā-āz called and said to the king, Peace be unto you! And he fell down upon his face before the king, and said, Blessed be the LORD your God, who has delivered up the men who lifted up their hand against my lord the king. ²⁹And the king said, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Ā-hī'-mā-āz answered, When Joab sent the king's servant, and your servant, I saw a great uproar, but I did not know what it was. ³⁰And the king said, Turn aside, stand here. And he turned aside and stood still.

³¹And, behold, Cū'-shī came. And Cū'-shī said, Good news, my lord the king — for the LORD has avenged you this day of all those who rose up against you. ³²And the king said to Cū'-shī, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Cū'-shī answered, May the enemies of my lord the king, and all who rise against you to do you hurt, be as that young man is. ³³And the king was much moved, and went up to the room over the gate and wept. And as he went, he said this — O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! Would God I had died for you, O Absalom, my son, my son!

¹And it was told Joab, Behold, the king weeps and mourns for Absalom. ²And the victory that day was turned into mourning to all the people. For the people heard it said that day how the king was grieved for his son. ³And the people went up secretly into the city that day, as people who are ashamed steal away when they flee in battle. ⁴But the king covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, O my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son! ⁵And Joab came into the house to the king and said, You have today shamed the faces of all your servants — for they have saved your life and the lives of your sons and your daughters today, the lives of your wives, and the lives of your concubines — ⁶in that you love your enemies and hate your friends! For you have shown today that you neither regard princes nor servants. For today I see that if Absalom had lived and all of us had died today, then it would have pleased you very much! ⁷Now therefore get up and go forth. Speak comfortably to your servants. For I swear by the LORD if you do not go forth, there will not one stay with you this night. And that will be worse to you than all the evil which befell you from your youth until now.

¹¹And King David sent to Zā'-dök and to Ā-bī'-ā-thär the priests, saying, Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, Why are you the last to bring the king back to his house, since the speech of all Israel has come to the king, to his house. ¹²You are my brothers, and my flesh. Why then are you the last to bring back the king? ¹³And you say to Ā-mā'-sä, Are you not of my bone and of my flesh? May God do so to me, and more also, if you are not captain of the army before me continually instead of Joab. ¹⁴And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even as one man, so that they sent to the king, saying, Return, you and all your servants. ¹⁵So the king returned and came to Jordan. And Judah came to Gīl'-gāl to go to meet the king, to conduct the king over Jordan. ¹⁶And Shīm'-ē-ī the son of Gē'-rā, a Benjamite, who was of Bā-hū'-rīm, hurried and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David. ¹⁷And there were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Zī'-bā the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him. And they went over Jordan before the king.¹⁸ And a ferryboat went over to carry the king's household over, and to do what he thought good. And Shīm'-ē-i the son of Gē'-rā fell down before the king as he had come over Jordan.¹⁹ And he said to the king, Let not my lord charge iniquity to me. Do not remember the perverse way your servant acted in the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, so that the king should take it to his heart.²⁰ For your servant knows that I have sinned. Therefore, behold, I have come today, the first of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king.²¹ But Āb'-ī-shaī the son of Zēr-ū-ī'-āh answered and said, Shall not Shīm'-ē-i be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD's anointed? ²²And David said, What do I have to do with you, you sons of Zēr-ū-ī'-āh, that you should be my foes today? Shall there be any man put to death today in Israel? For do I not know that I am king over Israel today? ²³Therefore the king said to Shīm'-ē-i, You shall not die. And the king swore to him.

²⁴And Mē-phīb'-ō-shēth the son of Saul came down to meet the king. And he had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until he came in peace.²⁵ And when he had come to Jerusalem to meet the king, the king said to him, Why did you not go with me, Mē-phīb'-ō-shēth? ²⁶And he answered, My lord, O king, my servant deceived me. For your servant said, I will saddle me an ass so that I may ride on it and go to the king — because your servant is lame.²⁷ And he has been backbiting your servant to my lord the king. But my lord the king is as an angel of God. Therefore do what is good in your eyes.²⁸ For all of my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king. Yet you set your servant among those who ate at your own table. What right then have I to cry to the king any more? ²⁹And the king said to him, Why do you speak any more of your matters? I have said, You and Zī'-bā divide the land.³⁰ And Mē-phīb'-ō-shēth said to the king, Yes, let him take all, because my lord the king has come in peace to his own house.

³¹And Bār-zil-lā'-ī of Gīl'-ē-ād came down from Rō'-gē-līm, and went over Jordan with the king to conduct him over Jordan.³² Now Bār-zil-lā'-ī was a very aged man, eighty years old. And he had provided food for the king while he was lying at Mā-hā-nā'-īm — for he was a very great man.³³ And the king said to Bār-zil-lā'-ī, Come over with me and I will feed you with me in Jerusalem.³⁴ And Bār-zil-lā'-ī said to the king, How long do I have to live, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem? ³⁵I am eighty years old today, and can I discern between good and evil? Can your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Can I any more hear the voice of singing men and singing women? Why then should your servant be still a burden to my lord the king? ³⁶Your servant will go a little way over Jordan with the king. And why should the king repay me for it with such a reward? ³⁷I pray you, let your servant turn back again so that I may die in my own city, and be buried by the grave of my father and of my mother. But behold your servant Chīm'-hām, let him go over with my lord the king. And do to him what shall seem good to you. ³⁸And the king answered, Chīm'-hām shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good to you. And whatever you shall ask of me, that I will do for you. ³⁹And all the people went over Jordan. And when the king had come over, the king kissed Bār-zīl-lā'-ī, and blessed him. And he returned to his own place. ⁴⁰Then the king went on to Gil'-gāl, and Chīm'-hām went on with him. And all the people of Judah were bringing the king, and also half the people of Israel.

⁴¹And behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said to the king, Why have our brothers the men of Judah stolen you away, and have brought the king and his household, and all David's men with him, over Jordan? ⁴²And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is near of kin to us. Why then are you angry for this matter? Have we eaten at all at the king's cost? Or has he given us any gift? ⁴³And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah and said, We have ten parts in the king, and we also have more right in David than you. Why then did you despise us, so that our advice should not be sought first in bringing back our king? And the words of the men of Judah were more fierce than the words of the men of Israel.

¹And there happened to be there a man of Bē'-li-āl whose name was Shē'-bā, the son of Bīch'-rī, a Benjamite. And he blew a trumpet and said, We have no part in David, neither do we have any inheritance in the son of Jesse. Every man to his tents, O Israel! ²So every man of Israel went up from after David, and followed Shē'-bā the son of Bīch'-rī. But the men of Judah clung to their king, from Jordan even to Jerusalem. ³And David came to his house at Jerusalem. And the king took the ten women, his concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in ward, and fed them but did not go in unto them. So they were shut up till the day of their death, living in widowhood. ⁴Then the king said to Ā-mā'-sā, gather unto me the men of Judah within three days, and you be present here. ⁵So Ā-mā'-sā went to gather Judah. But he stayed longer than the set time which he had appointed him. ⁶And David said to Āb'-ī-shaī, Now Shē'-bā the son of Bīch'-rī shall do us more harm than Absalom. You take your lord's servants and pursue after him, lest he get himself into fenced cities and escape us. ⁷And Joab's men went out after him, and the Chēr'-ē-thītes, and the Pēl'-ē-thītes, and all the mighty men. And they went out of Jerusalem to pursue after Shē'-bā the son of Bīch'-rī. ⁸When they were at the great stone which is in Gīb'-ē-ōn, Ā-mā'-sā came to meet them.

And Joab was girded with his war-coat, which he had put on. And upon it was a girdle with a sword fastened upon his loins, in the sheaf of it. And as he went forth, it fell out. ⁹And Joab said to Ā-mā'-sā, Are you well, my brother? And Joab took Ā-mā'-sā by the beard with the right hand to kiss him. ¹⁰But Ā-mā'-sā took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand. So he struck him with it in the fifth rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground. And he did not strike him again. And he died. So Joab and Āb'-i-shāi his brother pursued after Shē'-bā the son of Bich'-rī.

¹¹And one of Joab's men stood by him and said, He who favors Joab, and he who is for David, go after Joab! ¹²And Ā-mā'-sā wallowed in blood in the middle of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he moved Ā-mā'-sā out of the highway into the field, and threw a cloth over him—when he saw that everyone who came by him stood still. ¹³When he was moved out of the highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Shē'-bā the son of Bich'-rī.

¹⁴And he went through all the tribes of Israel to Ā'-bēl, and to Bēth-mā'-ā-chāh, and all the Bē'-rites. And they were gathered together, and went after him too. ¹⁵And they came and besieged him in Abel of Bēth-mā'-ā-chāh. And they threw up a bank against the city. And it stood in the trench. And all the people who were with Joab battered the wall to throw it down. ¹⁶Then a wise woman cried out of the city, Hear, hear! I pray you, say to Joab: Come near here so that I may speak with you. ¹⁷And when he had come near her, the woman said, Are you Joab? And he answered, I am. Then she said to him, Hear the words of your hand-maid. And he answered, I hear. ¹⁸Then she spoke, saying, They plainly spoke in the beginning, saying, Surely they will ask of Abel, and so make an end of the matter. ¹⁹I am peaceable and faithful in Israel. You seek to destroy a city and a mother in Israel. Why will you swallow up the inheritance of the LORD? ²⁰And Joab answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy. ²¹The matter is not so. But a man of Mount Ephraim, Shē'-bā the son of Bich'-rī by name, has lifted up his hand against the king, against David. Only deliver him, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said to Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to you over the wall. ²²Then the woman went to all the people in her wisdom. And they cut off the head of Shē'-bā the son of Bich'-rī, and threw it out to Joab. And he blew a trumpet, and they scattered from the city, every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king.

²³Now Joab was over all the army of Israel. And Bē-naī'-āh the son of Jē-hoi'-ā-dā was over the Chēr'-ē-thītes and over the Pēl'-ē-thītes. ²⁴And Ā-dōr'-ām was over the tribute. And Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt the son of Ā-hī'-lūd was recorder. ²⁵And Shē'-vā was scribe. And Zā'-dōk and Ā-bī'-ā-thār were the priests. ²⁶And also Ī-rā the Jā'-īr-ite was a chief ruler around David.

¹Then there was a famine in the days of David three years, year after year. And David inquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he killed the Gīb'-ē-ōn-ites. ²And the king called the Gīb'-ē-ōn-ites and spoke to them. Now the Gīb'-ē-ōn-ites were not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites. And the children of Israel had sworn to them. And Saul sought to kill them in his zeal to the children of Israel and Judah. ³Therefore David said to the Gīb'-ē-ōn-ites, What shall I do for you? And with what shall I atone for this, so that you may bless the inheritance of the LORD?

⁴And the Gibeonites said to him, We will have no silver nor gold from Saul, nor from his house. Neither shall you kill any man in Israel for us. And he said, What you shall say, that I will do for you. ⁵And they answered the king, The man who destroyed us, and who devised against us, that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the border's of Israel — ⁶let seven men of his sons be delivered to us, and we will hang them up to the Lord in Gīb'-ē-āh of Saul, chosen of the LORD. And the king said, I will give them. ⁷But the king spared Mē-phīb'-ō-shēth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of the LORD's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul. ⁸But the king took the two sons of Rīz'-pāh the daughter of Aī'-āh, whom she bore to Saul, Ār-mō'-nī and Mē-phīb'-ō-shēth — and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she brought up for Ā'-dri-ēl the son of Bār-zil-lā'-i the Mē-hō'-lā-thite — ⁹and he delivered them into the hands of the Gīb'-ē-ōn-ites. And they hanged them in the hill before the LORD. And they fell, all seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the beginning of barley harvest.

¹⁰And Rīz'-pāh the daughter of Aī'-āh took sackcloth and spread it for herself upon the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water dropped upon them out of heaven. And she did not allow either the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night. ¹¹And it was told David what Rīz'-pāh the daughter of Aī'-āh, the concubine of Saul, had done. ¹²And David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jā-bēsh-gīl'-ē-ād, who had stolen them from the street of Bēth'-shān, where the Philistines had hanged them when the Philistines had slain Saul in Gil-bō-ā. ¹³And he brought the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son up from there. And they gathered the bones of those who were hanged. ¹⁴And they buried the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son in the country of Benjamin in Zē'-lāh, in the tomb of his father Kish. And they did all that the king commanded. And after that, God heeded prayer for the land.

¹⁵Moreover the Philistines had war still again with Israel. And David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines. And David became faint. ¹⁶And Ish'-bī-bē'-nōb, who was of the sons of the giant, the weight of whose spear was three hundred shekels of brass in weight, he being girded with a new sword thought to kill David. ¹⁷But Āb'-ī-shaī the son of Zēr-ū-i'-āh came to his aid, and struck the Philistine and killed him. Then the men of David swore to him, saying, You shall not go out to battle with us any more, so that you do not put out the light of Israel. ¹⁸And after this there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob. Then Sīb'-bē-chaī the Hū'-shā-thīte killed Sīp'-pā-i, who was of the sons of the giant. ¹⁹And there was again a battle with the Philistines in Gob, where Ēl-hā'-nān of Bēth'-lē-hēm, the son of Jā'-ā-rē-ōr'-ē-gīm, killed the brother of Gō-lī-āth the Gīt'-tīte, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam. ²⁰And there was yet again a battle in Gath, where there was a man of great stature who had six fingers on each hand, and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number. And he also was born to the giant. ²¹And when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shīm'-ē-ā, the brother of David, killed him. ²²These four were born to the giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

¹And David spoke to the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul. ²And he said,

The LORD is my Rock, and my Fortress, and my Deliverer. ³The God who is my Rock, in Him will I trust. He is my Shield, and the Horn of my salvation, my High Tower, and my Refuge, my Saviour. Thou dost save me from violence. ⁴I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised. So shall I be saved from my enemies. ⁵When the waves of death encircled me, the floods of ungodly men made me afraid. ⁶The sorrows of hell hemmed me in. The snares of death went in front of me. ⁷In my distress I called upon the LORD and cried to my God. And he heard my voice out of His Temple, and my cry entered into His ears. ⁸Then the earth shook and trembled. The foundations of heaven moved and shook because He was angry. ⁹Smoke went up out of His nostrils, and fire out of His mouth devoured. Coals were kindled by it. ¹⁰He bowed the heavens also, and came down. And darkness was under His feet. ¹¹And He rode upon a chēr'-ūb and did fly. And he was seen upon the wings of the wind. ¹²And He made darkness coverings around Him, dark waters, thick clouds of the skies. ¹³Through the brightness before Him were coals of fire kindled. ¹⁴The LORD thundered from heaven, and the Most High uttered His voice. ¹⁵And He sent out arrows, and scattered them — lightning, and troubled them. ¹⁶And the channels of the sea appeared, the foundations of the world were uncovered, at the rebuking of the LORD, at the blast of the breath of His nostrils.

¹⁷He sent from above, He took me. He drew me out of many waters. ¹⁸He delivered me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me — for they were too strong for me. ¹⁹They went before me in the day of my calamity, but the LORD was my stay. ²⁰He brought me forth also into a large place. He delivered me because He delighted in me. ²¹The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands He has rewarded me. ²²For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God. ²³For all His judgments were before me. And as for His statutes, I did not depart from them. ²⁴I was also upright before Him, and have kept myself from my iniquity. ²⁵Therefore the LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to my cleanness in His eyes. ²⁶With the merciful Thou wilt show Thyself merciful; with the upright man Thou wilt show Thyself upright. ²⁷With the pure Thou wilt show Thyself pure; and with the perverse Thou wilt show thyself perverse. ²⁸And Thou wilt save the afflicted people, but Thine eyes are upon the proud so that Thou mayest bring them down. ²⁹For Thou art my lamp, O LORD. And the LORD will lighten my darkness. ³⁰For by Thee I have run through a troop. By my God I have leaped over a wall.

³¹*As for* God, His way is perfect. The word of the LORD is tried. He is a shield to all those who trust in Him. ³²For who is God, except Jē-hó'-vāh? And who is a rock except our God? ³³God is my strength and power, and He makes my way perfect. ³⁴He makes my feet like hinds' feet, and sets me upon my high places. ³⁵He teaches my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by my arms. ³⁶Thou hast also given me the shield of Thy salvation, and Thy gentleness has made me great. ³⁷Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, so that my feet did not slip. ³⁸I have pursued my enemies and destroyed them, and turned not again until I had finished them. ³⁹And I have crushed them and wounded them so that they could not rise. Yea, they have fallen under my feet. ⁴⁰For Thou hast girded me with strength to battle. Thou hast subdued under me those who rose up against me. ⁴¹Thou hast also given me the necks of my enemies, so that I might destroy those who hate me. ⁴²They looked, but there was none to save. They looked to the LORD, but He did not answer them. ⁴³Then I beat them as small as the dust of the earth, I stamped them like the mire of the street and spread them abroad. ⁴⁴Thou hast also delivered me from the strivings of my people, Thou hast kept me the head of the heathen. A people I knew not shall serve me. ⁴⁵Strangers shall submit themselves to me. As soon as they hear, they shall obey me. ⁴⁶Strangers shall fade away, and they shall be afraid out of their strongholds. ⁴⁷The LORD lives! And blessed be my Rock, and exalted be the God, the Rock of my salvation. ⁴⁸It is God who avenges me and who brings down the people under me, ⁴⁹and who brings me forth from my enemies. Thou also hast lifted me up on high above those who rose up against me. Thou hast delivered me from the violent man. ⁵⁰Therefore I will give thanks unto Thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and I will sing praises unto Thy name. ⁵¹*He is* the Tower of salvation for His king, and He shows mercy to His anointed, to David and to his seed, forevermore.

¹Now these are the last words of David. David the son of Jesse said, and the man who was raised up on high, the anointed of the God of Jacob, and the sweet psalmist of Israel, said, ²The Spirit of the LORD spoke by me, and His word was in my tongue. ³The God of Israel said, The Rock of Israel spoke to me — he who rules over men must be just, ruling in the fear of God. ⁴And he shall be like the light of the morning, when the sun rises, even a morning without clouds — like the tender grass springing out of the earth by clear shining after rain. ⁵Although my house is not so with God, yet He has made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things, and sure. For this is all my salvation, and all my desire, although He does not make it grow.

⁶But the sons of Bē'-li-āl shall all of them be like thorns thrust away, because they cannot be taken with hands. ⁷But the man who shall touch them must be fenced with iron and the staff of a spear. And they shall be utterly burned with fire in the same place.

⁸These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: The Tāch'-mō-nīte who sat in the seat, chief among the captains — the same was Ād'-i-nō the Ēz'-nīte. He lifted up his spear against eight hundred, whom he killed at one time. ⁹And after him was Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the son of Dodo the Ā-hō'-hīte, one of the three mighty men with David. When they defied the Philistines who were gathered together there to battle, and the men of Israel had gone away, ¹⁰he arose and struck the Philistines until his hand was weary, and until his hand clung to the sword. And the LORD wrought a great victory that day. And the people returned after him only to spoil. ¹¹And after him was Shām'-māh the son of Ā'-gēe the Hār'-ā-rite. And the Philistines were gathered together into a troop, where there was a piece of ground full of lentils. And the people fled from the Philistines. ¹²But he stood in the middle of the ground and defended it, and killed the Philistines. And the LORD wrought a great victory.

¹³And three of the thirty chief men went down and came to David in the harvest time into the cave of Ā-dūl'-lām. And the troop of the Philistines pitched in the valley of Rēph'-ā-im. ¹⁴And David was then in a hold, and the fort of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem. ¹⁵And David longed and said, Oh that someone would give me a drink from the water of the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate! ¹⁶And the three mighty men broke through the army of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, which was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David. Nevertheless he would not drink of it, but poured it out unto the LORD. ¹⁷And he said, Be it far from me, O LORD, that I should do this — is this not the blood of the men who went in danger of their lives? Therefore he would not drink it. These three mighty men did these things.

¹⁸And Āb'-ī-shaī the brother of Joab, the son of Zēr-ū-ī'-āh, was chief among three. And he lifted up his spear against three hundred and killed them, and had the name among three. ¹⁹Was he not most honorable of three? Therefore he was their captain. However he did not attain to the first three. ²⁰And also Bē-naī'-āh the son of Jē-hoi'-ā-dā, the son of a mighty man, of Kāb'-zēel, who had done many acts. He killed two lion-like men of Moab. He went down also and killed a lion in the middle of a pit in time of snow. ²¹And he killed an Egyptian, a goodly man. And the Egyptian had a spear in his hand, but he went down to him with a staff and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand. And he killed him with his own spear. ²²These things did Bē-naī'-āh the son of Jē-hoi'-ā-dā, and had the name among three mighty men. ²³He was more honorable than the thirty, but he did not attain to the first three. And David set him over his guard.

²⁴Ās'-ā-hēl the brother of Joab was one of the thirty. So were Ēl-hā'-nān the son of Dodo of Bethlehem — ²⁵Shām'-māh the Hār'-ōd-īte — Ē-lī'-kā the Hār'-ōd-īte — ²⁶Hē'-lēz the Pāl'-īte — Ī'-rā the son of Ik'-kēsh the Tē-kō'-īte — ²⁷Ā-bī-ē'-zēr the Ān-ē-thō'-thīte — Mē-būn'-naī the Hū-shā'-thīte — ²⁸Zāl'-mōn the Ā-hō'-hīte — Mā'-hā-raī the Nē-tōph'-ā-thīte — ²⁹Hē'-lēb the son of Bā'-ā-nāh, a Nē-tōph'-ā-thīte — Īt-tā'-ī the son of Rī-bā'-ī out of Gīb'-ē-āh of the children of Benjamin — ³⁰Bē-naī'-āh the Pī-rā'-thōn-īte — Hid-dā'-ī of the brooks of Gā'-āsh — ³¹Ā'-bī-āl'-bōn the Ār'-bā'-thīte, Āz-mā'-vēth the Bār-hū'-mīte — ³²Ē-lī-āh'-bā the Shā-āl-bō'-nīte, of the sons of Jāsh'-ēn — Jonathan — ³³Shām'-māh the Hār'-ā-rīte — Ā-hī'-ām the son of Shār'-ār the Hār'-ā-rīte — ³⁴Ē-liph'-ē-lēt the son of Ā-hās'-baī, the son of the Mā-āch'-ā-thīte — Ē-lī'-ām the son of Ā-hīth'-ō-phēl the Gī'-lō-nīte — ³⁵Hēz'-rā-ī the Carmelite — Pā'-ā-raī the Ār'-bīte — ³⁶Y'-gāl the son of Nathan of Zō'-bāh — Bā'-nī the Gadite — ³⁷Zē'-lēk the Ammonite — Nā'-hā-raī the Bēer'-ō-thīte, armor-bearer to Joab the son of Zēr-ū-ī'-āh — ³⁸Y'-rā an Ith'-rīte — Gār'-ēb an Ith'-rīte — ³⁹Ū-rī'-āh the Hit'-tīte — thirty-seven in all.

¹And again the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and He moved David against them to say, Go count Israel and Judah. ²For the king said to Joab the captain of the army, who was with him, Go around through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Bēer-shē'-bā, and count the people so that I may know the number of the people. ³And Joab said to the king, Now may the LORD your God add to the people however many they be, a hundred times as many, and may it be that the eyes of my lord the king may see. But why does my lord the king delight in this thing? ⁴But the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the army. And Joab and the captains of the army went out from the presence of the king to number the people of Israel.

¹⁰And David's heart struck him after he had numbered the people. And David said to the LORD, I have sinned greatly in what I have done. And now, I beseech Thee, O LORD, take away the iniquity of Thy servant, for I have done very foolishly. ¹¹For when David was up in the morning, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying, ¹²Go and say to David, Thus says the LORD, I offer you three things. Choose one of them, so that I may do it to you. ¹³So Gad came to David, and told him, and said to him, Shall seven years of famine come upon you and upon your land? Or will you flee three months before your enemies while they pursue you? Or shall there be three days' plague in your land? Now advise, and see what answer I shall return to Him who sent me. ¹⁴And David said to Gad, I am in great distress. Let us fall now into the hand of the LORD, for His mercies are great. And do not let me fall into the hand of man.

¹⁵So the LORD sent a plague upon Israel from the morning even till the time appointed. And there died from the people, from Dan to Bēer-shē'-bā, seventy thousand men. ¹⁶And when the angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD turned from the evil, and said to the angel who destroyed the people, It is enough. Now stay your hand. And the angel of the LORD was by the threshing-place of Ā-räu'-näh the Jëb'-û-sîte. ¹⁷And David spoke to the LORD when he saw the angel who struck the people, and said, Lo, I have sinned, and I have done wickedly. But these sheep, what have they done? I pray Thee, let Thy hand be against me and against my father's house.

¹⁸And Gad came that day to David, and said to him, Go up! Rear an altar to the LORD in the threshing-floor of Ā-räu'-näh the Jëb'-û-sîte. ¹⁹And David went up, according to the saying of Gad, as the LORD commanded. ²⁰And Ā-räu'-näh looked, and saw the king and his servants coming on toward him. And Ā-räu'-näh went out and bowed himself before the king, with his face upon the ground. ²¹And Ā-räu'-näh said, Why has my lord the king come to his servant? And David said, To buy the threshing-floor from you, to build an altar to the LORD, so that the plague may be stayed from the people. ²²And Ā-räu'-näh said to David, Let my lord the king take and offer up what seems good to him. Behold, here are oxen for burnt sacrifice, and threshing instruments and other instruments of the oxen for wood. ²³All these things did Ā-räu'-näh, like a king, give to the king. And Ā-räu'-näh said to the king, May you be good in the sight of the LORD your God. ²⁴And the king said to Ā-räu'-näh, No, but I will surely buy it from you at a price. Neither will I offer burnt offerings unto the LORD my God of that which does not cost me anything. So David bought the threshing-floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver. ²⁵And David built there an altar to the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So the LORD was entreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel.

The FIRST Book of the KINGS

¹Now king David was old, far gone in years. And they covered him with clothes, but he got no heat. ²Therefore his servants said to him, Let there be sought for my lord the king a young virgin. And let her stand before the king, and let her nurse him, and let her lie in your bosom, so that my lord the king may get heat. ³So they looked for a fair girl throughout all the borders of Israel, and found Āb'-ī-shāg, a Shû-nâm'-mīte. And they brought her to the king. ⁴And the girl was very beautiful. And she nursed the king and served him. But the king did not know her.

⁵Then Ād-ō-nī'-jāh the son of Hāg'-gīth exalted himself, saying, I will be king. And he prepared himself chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him. ⁶And his father had not displeased him at any time by asking, Why have you done so? And he also was a very handsome man, and his mother bore him after Absalom. ⁷And he talked with Joab the son of Zēr-ū-ī'-āh, and with Ā-bī'-ā-thār the priest. And they helped Ād-ō-nī'-jāh, following him. ⁸But Zā'-dōk the priest, and Bē-naī'-āh the son of Jē-hoi'-ā-dā, and Nathan the prophet, and Shīm'-ē-ī, and Rē'-ī, and the mighty men who belonged to David, were not with Ād-ō-nī'-jāh. ⁹And Ād-ō-nī'-jāh killed sheep and oxen and fat cattle by the stone of Zō'-hē-lēth, which is by Ēn-rō'-gēl, and called all his brothers the king's sons, and all the men of Judah, the king's servants. ¹⁰But he did not call Nā'-thān the prophet and Bē-naī'-āh and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother.

¹¹Therefore Nathan spoke to Bāth'-shē-bā the mother of Solomon, saying, Have you not heard that Ād-ō-nī'-jāh the son of Hāg'-gīth reigns, and David our lord does not know it? ¹²Now therefore come, I pray you, and let me give you counsel, so that you may save your own life and the life of your son Solomon. ¹³Go and get in unto king David, and say to him, My lord, O king, did you not swear to your handmaid, saying, Surely your son Solomon shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? Why then does Ād-ō-nī'-jāh reign? ¹⁴Behold, while you are still talking with the king, I also will come in after you and confirm your words.

¹⁵And Bāth'-shē-bā went in unto the king into the room. And the king was very old, and Āb'-ī-shāg the Shû-nām'-mīte served the king. ¹⁶And Bāth'-shē-bā bowed and honored the king. And the king said, What would you have? ¹⁷And she said to him, My lord, you swore by the LORD your God to your handmaid, saying, Surely your son Solomon shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne. ¹⁸And now, behold, Ād-ō-nī'-jāh reigns. And now, my lord, you do not know it. ¹⁹And he has slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and has called all the sons of the king, and Ā-bī'-ā-thār the priest, and Joab the captain of the army. But he has not called your servant Solomon. ²⁰And, my lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel are upon you, that you should tell them who shall sit upon the throne of my lord the king after him. ²¹Otherwise, when my lord the king shall sleep with his fathers, my son Solomon and I shall be counted offenders.

²²And lo, while she was still talking with the king, Nathan the prophet also came in. ²³And they told the king, saying, Behold Nathan the prophet. And when he had come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground. ²⁴And Nathan said, My lord, O king, have you said, Ād-ō-nī'-jāh shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? ²⁵For he has gone down this day, and has killed a great many of oxen and fat cattle and sheep, and has called all the king's sons and the captains of the army, and Ā-bī'-ā-thār the priest. And behold, they eat and drink before him, and say, Let king Ād-ō-nī'-jāh live. ²⁶But he has not called me, your servant, and Zā'-dōk the priest, and Bē-naī'-āh the son of Jē-hoi'-ā-dā, and your servant Solomon. ²⁷Is this thing done by my lord the king, and have you not shown your servant who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?

²⁸Then David answered and said, Call Bāth'-shē-bā. And she came into the king's presence, and stood before the king. ²⁹And the king swore, and said, As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all distress — ³⁰even as I swore to you by the LORD God of Israel, saying, Surely Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead — even so I will certainly do this day. ³¹Then Bāth'-shē-bā bowed with her face to the earth, and honored the king, and said, Let my lord king David live forever.

³²And king David said, Call Zā'-dōk the priest to me, and Nathan the prophet, and Bē-naī'-āh the son of Jē-hoi'-ā-dā. And they came before the king. ³³The king also said to them, Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon my own mule, and bring him down to Gī'-hōn. ³⁴And let Zā'-dōk the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him king over Israel there. And blow with the trumpet, and say, God save king Solomon. ³⁵Then you shall come up after him, so that he may come and sit upon my throne. For he shall be king in my stead. And I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah. ³⁶And Bē-naī'-āh the son of Jē-hoi'-ā-dā answered the king, and said, Amen. May the LORD God of my lord the king say so. ³⁷As the LORD has been with my lord the king, even so may He be with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David. ³⁸So Zā'-dōk the priest, and Nā'-thān the prophet, and Bē-naī'-āh the son of Jē-hoi'-ā-dā, and the Chēr'-ē-thītes and the Pēl'-ē-thītes, went down and caused Solomon to ride upon king David's mule, and brought him to Gī-hōn. ³⁹And Zā-dōk the priest took a horn of oil out of the tabernacle and anointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet, and all the people said, God save king Solomon. ⁴⁰And all the people came up after him, and the people piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth was torn with their sound.

⁴¹And Ād-ō-nī'-jāh and all the guests who were with him heard it as they had made an end of eating. And when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, What is this noise of the city in an uproar? ⁴²And while he was still speaking, behold, Jonathan the son of Ā-bī'-ā-thār the priest came. And Ād-ō-nī'-jāh said to him, Come in, for you are a mighty man and you bring good news. ⁴³And Jonathan answered and said to Ād-ō-nī'-jāh, Verily our lord king David has made Solomon king. ⁴⁴And the king has sent with him Zā'-dōk the priest, and Nā'-thān the prophet, and Bē-naī'-āh the son of Jě-hoi'-ā-dā, and the Chěr'-ē-thītes, and the Pēl'-ē-thītes, and they have caused him to ride upon the king's mule. ⁴⁵And Zā'-dōk the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gī'-hōn. And they have come up from there rejoicing, so that the city rang again. This is the noise that you have heard. ⁴⁶And also Solomon sits on the throne of the kingdom. ⁴⁷And moreover the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, May God make the name of Solomon better than your name, and make his throne greater than your throne. And the king bowed himself upon the bed. ⁴⁸And also the king said, Blessed is the LORD God of Israel, who has given one to sit on my throne this day, my eyes even seeing it. ⁴⁹And all the guests who were with Ād-ō-nī'-jāh were afraid, and rose up. And every man went his way.

⁵⁰And Ād-ō-nī'-jāh feared because of Solomon, and arose and went and caught hold on the horns of the altar. ⁵¹And it was told to Solomon, saying, Behold, Ād-ō-nī'-jāh fears king Solomon. For, lo, he has caught hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let king Solomon swear to me today that he will not kill his servant with the sword. ⁵²And Solomon said, If he will show himself a worthy man, there shall not a hair of him fall to the earth. But if wickedness shall be found in him, he shall die. ⁵³So king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and bowed himself to king Solomon. And Solomon said to him, Go to your house.

¹Now the days of David drew near that he should die. And he charged Solomon his son, saying, ²I go the way of all the earth. Therefore you be strong and show yourself a man. ³And keep the charge of the LORD your God, to walk in His ways, to keep His statutes, and His commandments, and His judgments, and His testimonies, as it is written in the law of Moses, so that you may prosper in all that you do and wherever you turn yourself — ⁴so that the LORD may continue His word which He spoke concerning me, saying, If your children take heed to their way, to walk before Me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not fail you (said He) a man on the throne of Israel. ⁵Moreover, you know also what Joab the son of Zēr-ū-ī'-āh did to me, what he did to the two captains of the armies of Israel, to Abner the son of Ner, and to Ā-mā'-sā the son of Jē'-thēr, whom he killed, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle that was around his loins, and in his shoes that were on his feet. ⁶Therefore do according to your wisdom, and do not let his gray head go down to the grave in peace. ⁷But show kindness to the sons of Bār-zīl-lā'-ī the Gileadite, and let them be of those that eat at your table. For so they came to me when I fled because of Absalom your brother.

⁸And, behold, you have with you Shīm'-ē-ī the son of Gē'-rā, a Benjamite of Bā-hū'-rīm, who cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mā-hā-nā'-īm. But he came down to meet me at Jordan, and I swore to him by the LORD, saying, I will not put you to death with the sword. ⁹Now therefore, do not hold him guiltless. For you are a wise man, and you know what you ought to do to him. But bring his gray head down to the grave with blood. ¹⁰So David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David. ¹¹And the days that David reigned over Israel were forty years. He reigned seven years in Hebron, and he reigned thirty-three years in Jerusalem.

¹²Then Solomon sat upon the throne of David his father. And his kingdom was firmly established. ¹³And Ād-ō-nī'-jāh the son of Hāg'-gīth came to Bāth'-shē-bā the mother of Solomon. And she said, Do you come peacefully? And he said, Peacefully. ¹⁴He said moreover, I have something to say to you. And she said, Say on. ¹⁵And he said, You know that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me that I should reign. However, the kingdom is turned around, and has become my brother's. For it was his from the LORD. ¹⁶And now I ask one favor of you; do not deny me. And she said to him, Say on. ¹⁷And he said, I pray you, speak to Solomon the king (for he will not deny you) that he give me Āb'-ī-shāg the Shû-nām'-mīte for my wife. ¹⁸And Bāth'-shē-bā said, Very well; I will speak for you to the king.

¹⁹Bāth'-shē-bā therefore went to king Solomon, to speak to him for Ād-ō-nī'-jāh. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself to her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a seat to be set for the king's mother. And she sat on his right hand. ²⁰Then she said, I desire one small favor of you. Do not deny me. And the king said to her, Ask on, my mother, for I will not deny you. ²¹And she said, Let Āb'-ī-shāg the Shû-nām'-mīte be given to Ād-ō-nī'-jāh your brother for a wife. ²²And king Solomon answered and said to his mother, And why do you ask Āb'-ī-shāg the Shû-nām'-mīte for Ād-ō-nī'-jāh? Ask the kingdom also for him! For he is my older brother! Even for him, and for Ā-bī'-ā-thār the priest, and for Joab the son of Zēr-ū-ī'-āh! ²³Then king Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, May God do so to me, and more also, if Ād-ō-nī'-jāh has not spoken this word against his own life. ²⁴Now therefore, as the LORD lives, who has established me and set me on the throne of David my father, and who has made me a house, as He promised — Ād-ō-nī'-jāh shall be put to death this day. ²⁵And king Solomon sent by the hand of Bē-naī'-āh the son of Jē-hoi'-ā-dā. And he fell upon him so that he died.

²⁶And the king said to Ā-bī'-ā-thār the priest, Go to Ān'-ā-thōth, to your own fields, for you are worthy of death. But I will not put you to death at this time, because you carried the ark of the Lord God before David my father, and because you have been afflicted in all that in which my father was afflicted. ²⁷So Solomon thrust out Ā-bī'-ā-thār from being priest to the LORD, so that he might fulfil the word of the LORD which He spoke concerning the house of Ē'-lī in Shī'-lōh.

And Bē-naī'-āh brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and so he answered me. ³¹And the king said to him, Do as he has said, and fall upon him, and bury him — so that you may take away the innocent blood, which Joab shed, from me and from the house of my father. ³²And the LORD shall return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two men more righteous and better than he, and killed them with the sword, my father David not knowing of it — Abner the son of Ner, captain of the army of Israel, and Ā-mā'-sā the son of Jē'-thēr, captain of the army of Judah. ³³Their blood shall therefore return upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed forever. But upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace forever from the LORD. ³⁴So Bē-naī'-āh the son of Jē-hoi'-ā-dā went up and fell upon him and killed him. And he was buried in his own house in the wilderness. ³⁵And the king put Bē-naī'-āh the son of Jē-hoi'-ā-dā over the army in his stead. And the king put Zā'-dōk the priest in the place of Ā-bī'-ā-thār.

³⁶And the king sent and called for Shīm'-ē-ī, and said to him, Build a house at Jerusalem and live there, and do not go forth from there anywhere. ³⁷For it shall be, on the day you go out and pass over the Kī'-drōn, you shall know for certain that you shall surely die. Your blood shall be upon your own head. ³⁸And Shīm'-ē-ī said to the king, Your saying is good — as my lord the king has said, so will your servant do. And Shīm'-ē-ī lived in Jerusalem many days. ³⁹And at the end of three years, two of the servants of Shīm'-ē-ī ran away to Ā'-chīsh son of Mā'-ā-chāh, king of Gath. And they told Shīm'-ē-ī, saying, Behold, your servants are in Gath. ⁴⁰And Shīm'-ē-ī arose and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Ā'-chīsh to seek his servants. And Shīm'-ē-ī went and brought his servants from Gath. ⁴¹And it was told Solomon that Shīm'-ē-ī had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and had come again. ⁴²And the king sent and called for Shīm'-ē-ī and said to him, Did I not make you swear by the LORD, and warn you, saying, Know for certain that on the day you go out and walk abroad anywhere, that you shall surely die? And you said to me, The word that I have heard is good. ⁴³Why then have you not kept the oath of the LORD and the commandment that I have charged you with? ⁴⁴The king said moreover to Shīm'-ē-ī, You know all the wickedness that your heart knows, what you did to David my father. Therefore the LORD shall return your wickedness upon your own head. ⁴⁵And king Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD forever. ⁴⁶So the king commanded Bě-naī'-āh the son of Jě-hoi'-ā-dā — who went out and fell upon him so that he died. And the kingdom was made sure in the hand of Solomon.

¹And Solomon made an alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter and brought her into the city of David until he had made an end of building his own house, and the house of the LORD, and the wall around Jerusalem. ²Only the people sacrificed in high places because there was no house built to the name of the LORD until those days. ³And Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of David his father. Only he sacrificed and burnt incense in high places. ⁴And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there. For that was the great high place. Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar.

⁵In Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night. And God said, Ask what I shall give you! ⁶And Solomon said Thou hast showed to Thy servant David my father great mercy, according as he walked before Thee in truth and in righteousness and in uprightness of heart with Thee. And Thou hast kept this great kindness for him, that Thou hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day. ⁷And now, O LORD my God, Thou hast made Thy servant king instead of David my father. And I am only a little child — I do not know even how to go out or come in! ⁸And Thy servant is in the midst of Thy people whom Thou hast chosen, a great people who cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude. ⁹Therefore give Thy servant an understanding heart to judge Thy people, so that I may tell between good and bad — for who is able to judge this, Thy so great people?

¹⁰And the speech pleased the LORD, that Solomon had asked this thing. ¹¹And God said unto him, Because you have asked this thing, and have not asked for yourself long life, neither have asked riches for yourself, nor have asked the life of your enemies — but have asked for yourself understanding to judge justly, — ¹²behold, I have done according to your words. Lo, I have given you a wise and an understanding heart, so that there was none like you before you, neither after you shall any arise like you. ¹³And I also have given you that which you have not asked, both riches and honor — so that there shall not be any among the kings like you all your days. ¹⁴And if you will walk in My ways, to keep My statutes and My commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your days. ¹⁵And Solomon awoke, and, behold, it was a dream. And he came to Jerusalem and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD and offered up burnt offerings, and offered peace offerings, and made a feast to all his servants.

¹⁶Then there came two women, harlots, to the king, and stood before him. ¹⁷And the one woman said, O my lord, this woman and I live in one house. And I was delivered of a child with her in the house. ¹⁸And the third day after I was delivered, this woman was delivered also. And we were together — there was no stranger with us in the house, except the two of us in the house. ¹⁹And this woman's child died in the night, because she lay upon it. ²⁰And she arose at midnight and took my son from beside me, while your servant was sleeping, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom. ²¹When I arose in the morning to give my child suck, behold, it was dead. And when I had looked at it in the morning, behold, it was not my son whom I bore. ²²And the other woman said, No, but the living is my son, and the dead is your son. And this one said, No, but the dead is your son, and the living is my son. So they spoke before the king. ²³Then said the king, The one says, This is my son who lives, and your son is the dead. And the other says, No, but your son is the dead, and my son is the living. ²⁴And the king said, Bring me a sword. And they brought a sword before the king. ²⁵And the king said, Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one and half to the other. ²⁶Then the woman to whom the living child belonged spoke to the king, for her bowels yearned over her son. And she said, O my lord, give her the living child, and in no way kill it. But the other said, Let it be neither mine nor yours — divide it! ²⁷Then the king answered and said, Give her the living child, and in no way kill it. She is the mother of it. ²⁸And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged. And they feared the king, for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to do judgment.

¹So king Solomon was king over all Israel. ²And these were the princes which he had — Äz-ä-rî'-äh the son of Zä'-dök the priest, ³Ë-lîhôr'-ëph and Ā-hī'-āh, the sons of Shī'-shā, scribes, Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt the son of Ā-hī'-lūd, the recorder. ⁴And Bē-naī'-āh the son of Jē-hoi'-ā-dā was over the army. And Zā'-dōk and Ā-bī'-ā-thār were the priests. ⁵And Āz-ā-rī'-āh the son of Nathan was over the officers, and Zā'-būd the son of Nathan was principal officer, the king's friend. ⁶And Ā-hī'-shār was over the household, and Ad-ō-nī'-rām the son of Abda was over the tribute.

⁷And Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, who provided food for the king and his household. Each man had his month in a year to provide food. ⁸These are their names: the son of Hur in Mount Ephraim; ⁹the son of Dē'-kār in Mā'-kāz and in Shā-āl'-bīm, and Bēth-shē'-mēsh, and Ē'-lōn-bēth-hā'-nān; ¹⁰the son of Hē'-sēd, in Ā-rū'-bōth (to him belonged Sō'-cōh and all the land of Hē'-phēr); ¹¹the son of Ā-bīn'-ā-dāb in all the region of Dor, who had Tā'-phāth the daughter of Solomon for a wife; ¹²Bā'-ā-nā the son of Ā-hī'-lūd (to whom belonged Tā'-ā-nāch and Mē-gīd'-dō, and all Bēth-shē'-ān, which is by Zār-tā'-nāh beneath Jēz'-rēel, from Bēth-shē'-ān to Ā'-bēl-mē-hō'-lāh, to the place that is beyond Jōk'-nē-ām); ¹³the son of Gē'-bēr in Rā'-mōth-gīl'-ē-ād (to him belonged the towns of Jā'-īr the son of Mā-nās'-sēh, which are in Gilead — to him also belonged the region of Ār'-gōb, which is in Bā'-shān, seventy great cities with walls and brass bars); ¹⁴Ā-hīn'-ā-dāb the son of Īd'-dō had Mā-hā-nā'-īm; ¹⁵Ā-hī'-mā-āz was in Nāph'-tā-lī (he also took Bās'-ē-māth the daughter of Solomon for a wife); ¹⁶Bā'-ā-nāh the son of Hū'-shaī was in Asher and in Ā'-lōth; ¹⁷Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt the son of Pā'-rū-āh, in Īs'-sā-chār; ¹⁸Shīm'-ē-ī the son of Ē'-lāh, in Benjamin; ¹⁹Gē'-bēr the son of Ū'-rī in the country of Gilead, the country of Sī'-hōn king of the Amorites and of Og the king of Bā'-shān — and he was the only officer who was in the land.

²⁰Judah and Israel were many, as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking and making merry. ²¹And Solomon reigned over all kingdoms from the river to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt. They brought presents and served Solomon all the days of his life. ²²And Solomon's food for one day was thirty measures of fine flour and sixty measures of meal, ²³ten fat oxen and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and a hundred sheep, besides harts and roebucks, and fallow deer, and fattened fowl. ²⁴For he had the rule over all on this side of the river, from Tīph'-sāh even to Āz'-zāh, over all the kings on this side the river. And he had peace on all sides round about him. ²⁵And Judah and Israel lived safely, every man under his vine and under his fig-tree, from Dan even to Bēer-shē'-bā, all the days of Solomon.

²⁶And Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen. ²⁷And those officers provided food for king Solomon and for all who came to king Solomon's table, every man in his month. They did not lack anything. ²⁸They also brought barley and straw for the horses and mules, to the place where the officers were, every man according to his charge.

²⁹And God gave Solomon exceeding great wisdom and understanding, and largeness of heart, even as the sand that is on the seashore. ³⁰And Solomon's wisdom was greater than the wisdom of all the children of the east country, and all the wisdom of Egypt. ³¹For he was wiser than all men — than Ē'-thăn the Ĕz'-ră-hîte, and Hē'-măn, and Chăl'-cöl, and Dăr'-dă, the sons of Mă'-höl. And his fame was in all nations round about. ³²And he spoke three thousand proverbs, and his songs were a thousand and five. ³³And he spoke of trees, from the cedar tree that is in Lēb'-ă-non even to the hyssop that springs out of the wall. He spoke also of beasts and of birds, and of creeping things, and of fish. ³⁴And there came some from all people to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all the kings of the earth, who had heard of his wisdom.

¹And Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon, for he had heard that they had anointed him king instead of his father — for Hiram was always a lover of David. ²And Solomon sent to Hiram, saying, ³You know how David my father could not build a house to the name of the LORD his God because of the wars which were around him on every side, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet. ⁴But now the LORD my God has given me rest on every side. There is neither foe nor evil happening. ⁵And behold, I purpose to build a house to the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spoke to David my father, saying, Your son whom I will set upon your throne in your room, he shall build a house to My name. ⁶Now therefore command that they cut me cedar trees out of Lēb'-ă-non, and my servants shall be with your servants. And I will give you hire for your servants according to all that you shall say. For you know that there is not among us any who has the skill to cut timber like the Si-dō'-nī-ăns.

⁷And when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, he rejoiced greatly and said, Blessed be the LORD this day, who has given David a wise son over this great people. ⁸And Hiram sent to Solomon saying, I have considered the things which you sent to me for. I will do all your desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of fir. ⁹My servants shall bring them down from Lēb'-ă-non to the sea. And I will bring them by sea in floats to the place that you shall name. And I will cause them to be left there, and you shall receive them. And you shall fulfil my desire in giving food for my household. ¹⁰So Hiram gave Solomon cedar trees and fir trees according to all his desire. ¹¹And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand measures of wheat for food for his household, and twenty measures of pure oil. So Solomon gave to Hiram year by year. ¹²And the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as He promised him. And there was peace between Hiram and Solomon. And the two of them made a treaty together.

¹³And king Solomon raised a levy out of all Israel. And the levy was thirty thousand men. ¹⁴And he sent them to Lēb'-ā-non, ten thousand a month, by courses. They were a month in Lēb'-ā-non, and two months at home. And Ad-ō-nī-rām was over the levy. ¹⁵And Solomon had seventy thousand who bore burdens, and eighty thousand woodcutters in the mountains —¹⁶besides the chief of Solomon's officers who were over the work, thirty-three hundred, who ruled over the people who labored in the work. ¹⁷And the king commanded, and they brought great stones, costly stones, cut stones, to lay the foundation of the house. ¹⁸And Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders and the stone-squarers cut them. So they prepared timber and stones to build the house.

¹And in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Zif, which is the second month, he began to build the house of the LORD. ²And the house which king Solomon built for the LORD, the length of it was sixty cubits and the breadth of it was twenty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits. ³And the porch before the temple of the house was twenty cubits in length, according to the breadth of the house. Ten cubits was the length of it before the house. ⁴And for the house he made windows of narrow lights.

⁵And against the wall of the house he built floors round about, against the walls of the house round about, of the temple and of the holy of holies. And he made rooms round about. ⁶The lowest story was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad. For around the outside of the house he made offsets so that the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the house. ⁷And when it was being built, the house was built of stone made ready before it was brought there — so that there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house while it was being built. ⁸The door for the middle story was in the right side of the house. And they went up with winding stairs into the middle story, and out of the middle into the third. ⁹So he built the house and finished it. And he covered the house with beams and boards of cedar. ¹⁰And he built the gallery against all the house, five cubits high. And they rested on the house with timber of cedar.

¹¹And the word of the LORD came to Solomon saying, ¹²As to this house which you are building, if you will walk in My statutes and do My judgments and keep all My commandments, to walk in them, then I will perform My work with you which I spoke to David your father.

¹³And I will live among the children of Israel, and will not forsake My people Israel. ¹⁴So Solomon built the house and finished it. ¹⁵And he built the walls of the house inside with boards of cedar, both the floor of the house and the walls of the ceiling. He covered them on the inside with wood, and covered the floor of the house with planks of fir. ¹⁶And he built twenty cubits on the sides of the house, both the floor and the walls with boards of cedar. He even built them for it inside, for the holy of holies, for the most holy place. ¹⁷And the house, that is, the temple before it, was forty cubits long. ¹⁸And the cedar of the house inside was carved with gourds and open flowers. All was cedar — there was no stone seen. ¹⁹And he prepared the holy of holies in the house inside, to set there the ark of the covenant of the LORD. ²⁰And the holy of holies in the front part was twenty cubits in length and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height of it. And he overlaid it with pure gold, and covered the altar of cedar. ²¹So Solomon overlaid the house inside with pure gold. And he drew chains of gold across before the holy place. And he overlaid it with gold. ²²And he overlaid the whole house with gold, until he had finished all the house. Also the whole altar which was by the holy place, he overlaid with gold:

²³And inside the holy place he made two chēr'-ū-bīms of olive wood, ten cubits high. ²⁴And the one wing of the cherub was five cubits, and the other wing of the cherub was five cubits. From the outermost part of the one wing to the outermost part of the other were ten cubits. ²⁵And the other cherub was ten cubits. Both the cherubims were of one measure and one size. ²⁶The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was the other cherub. ²⁷And he set the chēr'-ū-bīms inside the inner house. And they stretched forth the wings of the cherubims so that the wing of the one touched the one wall and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall. And their wings touched one another in the midst of the house. ²⁸And he overlaid the cherubims with gold. ²⁹And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of chēr'-ū-bīms and palm trees and open flowers, inside and out. ³⁰And the floor of the house was overlaid with gold inside and out.

³¹And for the entering of the holy place he made doors of olive wood. The lintel and side posts were a fifth part of the wall. ³²The two doors also were of olive wood. And he carved upon them carvings of cherubims and palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold and spread gold upon the cherubims and upon the palm trees. ³³So he also made for the door of the temple posts of olive wood, a fourth part of the wall. ³⁴And the two doors were of fir tree. The two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding. ³⁵And he carved on them cherubims and palm trees and open flowers. And he covered them with gold fitted upon the carved work. ³⁶And he built the inner court with three rows of cut stone, and a row of cedar beams.

³⁷In the fourth year, in the month Zif, the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid. ³⁸And in the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which is the eighth month, the house was finished as to all the parts of it, and as to all the plans of it. So he was seven years in building it.

¹But Solomon was thirteen years building his own house. And he finished all his house. ²He also built the house of the forest of Lěb'-ā-non. The length of it was a hundred cubits, and the breadth of it was fifty cubits, and the height of it was thirty cubits, upon four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars. ³And it was covered with cedar above upon the beams which lay upon forty-five pillars, fifteen in a row. ⁴And there were windows in three rows, and light was against light in three rows. ⁵And all the doors and posts were square, with the windows. And light was against light in three rows.

⁶And he made a porch of pillars. The length of it was fifty cubits, and the breadth of it thirty cubits. And the porch was according to them, and the other pillars and the thick beam were according to them. ⁷Then he made a porch for the throne where he might judge, even the porch of judgment. And it was covered with cedar from one side of the floor to the other. ⁸And his house where he lived had another court inside the porch, which was of the same kind of wood. Solomon also made a house for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken, like this porch.

¹³And King Solomon sent and brought Hiram out of Tyre. ¹⁴He was the son of a widow of the tribe of Nāph'-tā-lī, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass. And he was filled with wisdom and understanding and cunning to work all works in brass. And he came to king Solomon and did all his work. ¹⁵For he cast two pillars of brass, each of eighteen cubits high. And a line of twelve cubits went around both of them. ¹⁶And he made two capitals of melted brass to set upon the tops of the pillars. The height of the one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other capital was five cubits. ¹⁷And he made nets of checker work, and wreaths of chain work, for the capitals which were upon the top of the pillars — seven for the one capital, and seven for the other capital. ¹⁸And he made the pillars and two rows round about upon the one network, to cover the capitals which were on the top with pōme'-grān-ātes. And so he did for the other capital. ¹⁹And the capitals which were on the top of the pillars were of lily work in the porch, four cubits. ²⁰And the capitals upon the two pillars also had pomegranates above, over against the network. And the pomegranates were two hundred in rows round about upon the other capital. ²¹And he set up the pillars in the porch of the temple. And he set up the right pillar and called the name of it Jā'-chīn. And he set up the left pillar and called its name Boaz. ²²And upon the top of the pillars was lily work. So the work of the pillars was finished.

²³And he made a molten sea, ten cubits from the one brim to the other. It was round, and its height was five cubits, and a line of thirty cubits went around it. ²⁴And under the brim of it were knobs going all around it, ten in a cubit, going all around the sea. The knobs were cast in two rows when it was cast. ²⁵It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east. The sea was set on top of them, and all their hinder parts were inward. ²⁶And it was a hand-breadth thick, and the brim of it was made like the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies. It contained two thousand bāths.

²⁷And he made ten bases of brass. Four cubits was the length of the one base, and four cubits the breadth of it, and three cubits was the height of it. ²⁸And the work of the bases was this way: they had borders, and the borders were between the ledges. ²⁹And on the borders that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubims. And upon the ledges there was a base above. And beneath the lions and oxen were certain wreaths made of thin work. ³⁰And every base had four brass wheels and plates of brass. And the four corners of it had supports. Under the laver were molded supports at the side of each wreath. ³¹And the mouth of it inside the capital and above was a cubit. But the mouth of it was round like the work of the base, a cubit and a half. And also upon the mouth of it were engravings with their borders, square, not round. ³²And under the borders were four wheels. And the axle-trees of the wheels were in the base. And the height of a wheel was a cubit and a half. ³³And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel — their axle-trees, and their rims, and their hub, and their spokes, were all cast. ³⁴And there were four supports to the four corners of one base, and the supports were of the very base itself. ³⁵And in the top of the base there was a round band of a half a cubit high. And on the top of the base the ledges of it and the borders of it were of the same. ³⁶For on the surfaces of the handles, and on the borders of it, he engraved cherubims, lions, and palm trees, according to the space of each one in wreaths round about. ³⁷In this way he made the ten bases. All of them had one casting, one measure, one size .

³⁸Then he made ten lavers of brass. One laver contained forty bāths. Every laver was four cubits. Upon every one of the ten bases was one laver. ³⁹And he put five bases on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house. And he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward over against the south.

⁴⁰And Hiram made the lavers and the shovels and the basins. So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he made king Solomon for the house of the LORD. ⁴¹*He made* the two pillars, and the bowls of the capitals which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were upon the top of the pillars, ⁴²and four hundred pomegranates for the two networks (two rows of pomegranates for one network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were upon the face of the pillars), ⁴³and the ten bases, and ten lavers on the bases, ⁴⁴and one sea, and twelve oxen under the sea, ⁴⁵and the pots, and the shovels, and the basins. All these vessels which Hiram made for king Solomon for the house of the LORD were of bright brass. ⁴⁶The king cast them in the plain of Jordan, in the clay ground between Sūc'-cōth and Zār'-e-thān. ⁴⁷And Solomon left all the vessels unweighed because they were exceeding many, neither was the weight of the brass found out. ⁴⁸And Solomon made all the vessels that belonged to the house of the LORD — the altar of gold, and the table of gold on which the showbread was, ⁴⁹and the lampstands of pure gold, five on the right and five on the left, in front of the holy of holies, with the flowers and the lamps and the tongs of gold, ⁵⁰and the bowls, and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the fire-pans of pure gold, and the hinges of gold for the doors of the inner house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, the temple. ⁵¹So all the work that king Solomon made for the house of the LORD was finished. And Solomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated — the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, he put among the treasures of the house of the LORD.

¹²Then Solomon said, The LORD said that He would live in the thick darkness. ¹³I have surely built Thee a house to live in, a settled place for Thee to live in forever. ¹⁴And the king turned his face around and blessed all the congregation of Israel. And all the congregation of Israel stood. ¹⁵And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who spoke with His mouth to David my father, and has fulfilled it with His hand, saying, ¹⁶Since the day that I brought forth My people Israel out of Egypt, I did not choose any city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house, so that My name might be in it. But I chose David to be over My people Israel. ¹⁷And it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. ¹⁸And the LORD said to David my father, Because it was in your heart to build a house to My name, you did well that it was in your heart. ¹⁹Nevertheless you shall not build the house, but your son who shall come forth out of your loins, he shall build the house to My name. ²⁰And the LORD has performed His word which He spoke, and I have risen up instead of David my father. And I sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised. And I have built a house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. ²¹And I have set there a place for the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD which He made with our fathers when He brought them out of the land of Egypt.

²²And Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven. ²³And he said, LORD God of Israel, there is no God like Thee, in Heaven above or on earth beneath, who dost keep covenant and mercy with Thy servants who walk before Thee with all their heart – ²⁴who hast kept with Thy servant David my father what Thou didst promise him. Thou didst also speak with Thy mouth, and hast fulfilled with Thy hand, as it is this day. ²⁵Therefore now, LORD God of Israel, keep with Thy servant David my father what Thou didst promise him, saying, There shall not fail you a man in My sight to sit on the throne of Israel — if your children take heed to their way so that they walk before Me as you have walked before Me. ²⁶And now, O God of Israel, I pray Thee, let Thy word be proved to be true — the word which Thou didst speak to Thy servant David my father.

²⁷But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold! The heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain Thee. How much less this house which I have built? ²⁸Yet, O LORD my God, Thou hast had respect to the prayer of Thy servant and to his request, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which Thy servant prays before Thee today, ²⁹so that Thy eyes may be open toward this house night and day, toward the place of which Thou hast said, My name shall be there — so that Thou mayest listen to the prayer which Thy servant shall make toward this place. ³⁰And listen to the cry of Thy servant, and of Thy people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place, and hear in Heaven Thy dwelling-place, and when Thou dost hear, forgive!

³¹If any man trespass against his neighbor, and if an oath is laid upon him to cause him to swear, and if the oath comes before Thy altar in this house — ³²then hear in Heaven, and do, and judge Thy servants, condemning the wicked, to bring his way upon his head, and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

³³When Thy people Israel are crushed before the enemy because they have sinned against Thee, and shall turn again to Thee and confess Thy name, and pray, and cry unto Thee in this house — ³⁴then hear in Heaven and forgive the sin of Thy people Israel, and bring them again into the land which Thou didst give unto their fathers.

³⁵When the sky is shut up, and there is no rain because they have sinned against Thee, if they pray toward this place and confess Thy name, and turn from their sin when Thou dost afflict them — ³⁶then hear in Heaven and forgive the sin of Thy servants, and of Thy people Israel, that they might be taught by Thee the good way in which they should walk, and give rain upon Thy land which Thou hast given to Thy people for an inheritance.

³⁷If there is famine in the land, if there is plague, blasting, mildew, locust, or if there are caterpillars — if their enemy encircles them in the land of their cities — whatever plague, whatever sickness, ³⁸whatever prayer and cry is made by any man, or by all thy people Israel, every man of whom shall know the plague of his own heart, and shall spread forth his hands toward this house — ³⁹then hear in Heaven Thy dwelling-place, and forgive, and do, and give to every man according to his ways, whose heart Thou dost know. For Thou, Thou only, dost know the hearts of all the children of men. ⁴⁰*Do this* so that they may fear Thee all the days that they live in the land which Thou hast given to our fathers. ⁴¹Moreover concerning a stranger who is not of Thy people

Israel, but who comes out of a far country for Thy name's sake — ⁴²for they shall hear of Thy great name and of Thy strong hand and of Thy stretched-out arm — when he shall come and pray toward this house, ⁴³hear in Heaven Thy dwelling-place, and do according to all that the stranger calls unto Thee for — so that all the people of the earth may know Thy name, to fear Thee, as Thy people Israel do, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by Thy name.

⁴⁴If Thy people go out to battle against their enemy, wherever Thou shalt send them, and shall pray unto the LORD toward the city which Thou hast chosen, and the house that I have built for Thy name, ⁴⁵then hear in Heaven their prayer and their cry, and maintain their cause. ⁴⁶If they sin against thee (for there is no man who does not sin), and if Thou art angry with them and they are delivered by thee to the enemy so that they carry them away captive to the land of the enemy, far or near — ⁴⁷*yet* if they shall think within themselves in the land where they are carried captives, and repent, and pray unto Thee in the land of them who carried them away captives, saying, We have sinned and have done perversely, we have committed wickedness — ⁴⁸and so return to Thee with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies who led them away captive, and if they pray unto Thee toward their land which Thou didst give to their fathers, to the city which Thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for Thy name — ⁴⁹then hear their prayer and their cry in Heaven Thy dwelling-place, and maintain their cause, ⁵⁰and forgive Thy people who have sinned against Thee, and forgive all their sins which they have done against Thee, and give them pity before them who carried them away captive, so that they may have pity on them. ⁵¹For they are Thy people, and Thy inheritance, which Thou didst bring forth out of Egypt, from the middle of the furnace of iron — ⁵²so that Thy eyes may be open to the prayer of Thy servant, and to the prayer of Thy people Israel, to listen to them in all that they call for unto Thee. ⁵³For Thou didst separate them from among all the people of the earth to be Thy inheritance, as Thou didst speak by the hand of Moses Thy servant, when Thou didst bring our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord GOD.

⁵⁴And it was so, that when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and petition unto the LORD, he rose from before the altar of the LORD, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven. ⁵⁵And he stood and blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying, ⁵⁶Blessed be the LORD, who has given rest to His people Israel, according to all that He promised. There has not failed one word of all His good promise which He promised by the hand of Moses His servant. ⁵⁷May the LORD our God be with us as He was with our fathers. Let Him not leave us nor forsake us, ⁵⁸so that He may make our hearts go toward Him, to walk in all His ways and to keep His commandments and His statutes and His judgments which He commanded our fathers. ⁵⁹And let these my words, with which I have prayed before the LORD, be near the LORD our God day and night, so that He may maintain the cause of His servant, and the cause of His people Israel at all times, as any need arises, ⁶⁰so that all the people of the earth may know that the LORD is God, and there is none else. ⁶¹Therefore let your heart be perfect with the LORD our God, to walk in His statutes, and to keep His commandments, as at this day.

⁶²And the king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before the LORD. ⁶³And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered to the LORD, twenty-two thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD. ⁶⁴The same day the king made the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD holy. For there he offered burnt offerings and meal offerings and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brazen altar that was before the LORD was too little to receive the burnt offerings and meal offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings. ⁶⁵And at that time Solomon held a feast, and all Israel with him, a great congregation — from the entering in of Hā'-māth to the river of Egypt — before the LORD our God, seven days and seven days, fourteen days. ⁶⁶On the eighth day he sent the people away. And they blessed the king and went to their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that the LORD had done for David His servant, and for Israel His people.

¹And when Solomon had finished the building of the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all Solomon's desire which he was pleased to do, ²the LORD appeared to Solomon the second time, as He had appeared to him at Gīb'-ē-ōn. ³And the LORD said to him, I have heard your prayer and your cry which you have made before Me. I have made this house which you have built holy, to put My name there forever. And My eyes and My heart shall be there forever. ⁴And if you will walk before Me as David your father walked, in integrity of heart and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded you — and if you will keep My statutes and My judgments, ⁵then I will set the throne of your kingdom upon Israel forever, as I promised to David your father, saying, There shall not fail you a man upon the throne of Israel. ⁶*But* if you shall at all turn from following Me, you or your children, and will not keep My commandments and My statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods and worship them — ⁷then I will cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them. And this house which I have made holy for My name I will cast out of My sight. And Israel shall be a proverb and a byword among all people. ⁸And at this house which has been famous, everyone who passes by it shall be amazed and shall hiss. And they shall say, Why has the LORD done this to this land and to this house? ⁹And they shall answer, Because they left the LORD their God who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have taken hold upon other gods and have worshipped them and served them. Therefore the LORD has brought upon them all this evil.

¹⁰And at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD and the king's house ¹¹(Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar trees and fir trees, and with gold, according to all his desires) then king Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee. ¹²And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him. And they did not please him. ¹³And he said, What cities are these which you have given me, my brother? And he called them the land of Cā'-bûl unto this day. ¹⁴And Hiram sent to the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold.

¹⁵And this is the reason of the labor-levy which king Solomon raised – to build the house of the LORD and his own house, and Mil'-lō, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hā'-zôr, and Mē-gîd'-dō, and Gē'-zēr. ¹⁶For Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up and had taken Gē'-zēr, and had burned it with fire, and had slain the Canaanites who lived in the city. And he had given it for a present to his daughter, Solomon's wife. ¹⁷And Solomon built Gē'-zēr, and Bēth-hôr'-ōn the lower, ¹⁸and Bā'-ā-lāth, and Tād'-môr in the wilderness, in the land. ¹⁹And he built all the cities of store which Solomon had, and cities for his chariots, and cities for his horsemen, and that which Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lēb'-ā-non, and in all the land of his dominion. ²⁰And all the people who were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Pē-rîz'-zîtes, Hî'-vîtes, and Jēb'-û-šîtes, who were not of the children of Israel ²¹(their children who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel also were not able to destroy completely) – upon those Solomon laid a tribute of bond-service unto this day. ²²But Solomon did not make any bondmen out of the children of Israel. But they were men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horsemen. ²³These were the chief of the officers who were over Solomon's work, five hundred and fifty who ruled over the people who labored in the work.

²⁴But Pharaoh's daughter came up from the city of David to her house which had been built for her. Then he built Mil'-lō. ²⁵And three times in a year Solomon offered burnt offerings and peace offerings upon the altar which he had built unto the LORD, and he burned incense upon the altar which was before the LORD. So he finished the house.

²⁶And king Solomon made a navy of ships in Ē'-zī-ōn-gē'-bēr, which is beside Ē'-lōth, on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Ē'-dom. ²⁷And Hiram sent in the navy his servants, shipmen who had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon. ²⁸And they came to Ō'-phīr, and brought gold from there, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon.

¹And when the queen of Sheba heard of Solomon's fame concerning the name of the LORD, she came to test him with hard questions. ²And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bore spices, and very much gold, and precious stones. And when she had come to Solomon, she told him all that was in her heart. ³And Solomon answered all her questions for her. There was not anything hidden from the king, which he did not tell her. ⁴And when the queen of Sheba had seen all Solomon's wisdom, and the house which he had built, ⁵and the food of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their clothing, and his cupbearers, and his ascent by which he went up to the house of the LORD — there was no more spirit in her.

⁶And she said to the king, It was a true report which I heard in my own land of your acts and of your wisdom. ⁷However, I did not believe the words until I came and my eyes had seen. And behold! The half was not told me. Your wisdom and blessings are more than the fame which I heard. ⁸Happy are your men, happy are these who are your servants, who stand always before you, and who hear your wisdom. ⁹Blessed is the LORD your God, who delighted in you, to set you on the throne of Israel. Because the LORD loved Israel forever, therefore He made you king to do judgment and justice. ¹⁰And she gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, a very great store of spices, and precious stones. Never any more came such an abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon. ¹¹And also the navy of Hiram which brought gold from Ō'-phīr, brought in from Ō'-phīr great abundance of āl'-mūg trees and precious stones. ¹²And the king made of the āl'-mūg trees pillars for the house of the LORD, and for the king's house, also harps and psāl'-tēr-ies for singers. No such āl'-mūg wood has come or been seen, to this day. ¹³And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatever she asked, besides what Solomon gave her of his royal bounty. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

¹⁴Now the weight of gold which came to Solomon in one year was six hundred sixty-six talents of gold, ¹⁵besides what came from the merchantmen, and from the trade of the spice merchants, and from all the kings of Ā-rā'-bī-ā, and from the governors of the country.

²⁴And all the earth sought Solomon, to hear his wisdom which God had put in his heart. ²⁵And every man brought his presents, vessels of silver and vessels of gold, and clothing and armor, and spices, horses and mules, so much year by year.

²⁶And Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen. And he had fourteen hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he stationed in the cities for chariots, and with the king at Jerusalem. ²⁷And the king made silver like stones in Jerusalem, and he made cedars like the sycamore trees in the valley for abundance. ²⁸And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and out of Kū'-ē. The king's merchants received them from Kū'-ē at a price. ²⁹And a chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty. And so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, they brought them out by their means.

¹But king Solomon loved many strange women, together with the daughter of Pharaoh — women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Ē'-domites, Sī-dō'-nī-āns, and Hīt'-tites — ²of the nations which the LORD had said to the children of Israel, You shall not go in to them, neither shall they come in to you, for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods. Solomon clung to these in love. ³And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines. And his wives turned away his heart. ⁴For when Solomon was old, his wives turned away his heart after other gods. And his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as was the heart of David his father. ⁵For Solomon went after Āsh'-tō-rēth of the goddess of the Sī-dō'-nī-ans, and after Mil'-cōm the abomination of the Ammonites. ⁶And Solomon did evil in the sight of the LORD, and did not go fully after the LORD, as did David his father. ⁷Then Solomon built a high place for Chē'-mōsh, the abomination of Moab, in the hill which is before Jerusalem, and for Mō'-lēch, the abomination of the children of Ammon. ⁸And he did likewise for all his strange wives, and burned incense and sacrificed unto their gods.

⁹And the LORD was angry with Solomon because his heart was turned from the LORD God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice ¹⁰and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods — but he did not keep that which the LORD commanded. ¹¹Therefore the LORD said to Solomon, Since this is done by you, and since you have not kept My covenant and My statutes which I have commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom from you and will give it to your servant. ¹²But I will not do it in your days, for David your father's sake, but I will tear it out of the hand of your son. ¹³However I will not tear away all the kingdom, but will give one tribe to your son for David My servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen.

¹⁴And the LORD stirred up a foe to Solomon, Hā'-dād the Ē'-dom-ite. He was of the king's seed in Ē'-dom. ¹⁵For when David was in Ē'-dom, and Joab the captain of the host had gone up to bury the slain, after he had stricken every male in Ē'-dom — ¹⁶for Joab remained there six months with all Israel, until he had cut off every male in Edom — ¹⁷it came to pass that Hā'-dād fled, he and certain Ē'-dom-ites of his father's servants with him, to go to Egypt, Hā'-dād being still a little child. ¹⁸And they arose out of Mid'-ī-ān and came to Pār'-ān. And they took men with them out of Pār'-ān, and they came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house and appointed food for him, and gave him land. ¹⁹And Hā'-dād found great favor in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him the sister of his own wife for a wife, the sister of Tāh'-pēn-ēs the queen. ²⁰And the sister of Tāh'-pēn-ēs bore him Gē-nū'-bāth his son, whom Tāh'-pēn-ēs weaned in Pharaoh's house. And Gē-nū'-bāth was in Pharaoh's household among the sons of Pharaoh. ²¹And when Hā'-dād heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the army was dead, Hā'-dād said to Pharaoh, Let me depart so that I may go to my own country. ²²Then Pharaoh said to him, But what have you lacked with me that, behold, you seek to go to your own country? And he answered, Nothing — however let me go in any case.

²³And God stirred him up another foe, Rē'-zōn the son of Ē-lī'-ā-dāh, who fled from his lord Hād'-ā-dē'-zēr king of Zō'-bāh. ²⁴And he gathered men to him, and became captain over a band when David killed the ones from Zō'-bāh. And they went to Damascus and lived in it, and reigned in Damascus. ²⁵And he was a foe to Israel all the days of Solomon, besides the mischief which Hā'-dād did. And he hated Israel and reigned over Syria.

²⁶And Jēr-ō-bō'-ām the son of Nē'-bāt, an Ēph'-rā-thīte of Zēr'-ē-dā, Solomon's servant, whose mother's name was Zē-rū'-āh, a widow, he too lifted up his hand against the king. ²⁷And this was the cause that he lifted up his hand against the king. Solomon built Mil'-lō and repaired the breaks of the city of David his father. ²⁸And the man Jēr-ō-bō'-ām was a mighty man of war. And Solomon, seeing that the young man was industrious, he made him ruler over all the charge of the house of Joseph.

²⁹And at that time, when Jēr-ō-bō'-ām went out of Jerusalem, the prophet Ā-hī'-jāh from Shiloh found him in the way. And he had clothed himself with a new garment. And the two of them were alone in the field. ³⁰And Ā-hī'-jāh caught hold of the new robe that was on him, and tore it in twelve pieces. ³¹And he said to Jēr-ō-bō'-ām, You take ten pieces. For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, I will tear the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon and will give ten tribes to you — ³²but he shall have one tribe for My servant David's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel — ³³because they have forsaken me, and have worshipped Āsh'-tō-rēth the goddess of the Sī-dō'-nī-āns, Chē'-mōsh the god of the Moabites, and Mil'-cōm the goddess of the children of Ammon, and have not walked in My ways, to do what is right in My eyes, and to keep My statutes and My judgments, as David his father did. ³⁴However I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand, but I will make him prince all the days of his life for the sake of David My servant, whom I chose, because he kept My commandments and My statutes. ³⁵But I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it to you, ten tribes. ³⁶And to his son I will give one tribe, so that David My servant may have a light always before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen for Me to put My name there. ³⁷And I will take you, and you shall reign according to all that your soul desires, and shall be king over Israel. ³⁸And if you will listen to all that I command you, and will walk in My ways, and do what is right in My sight, to keep My statutes and My commandments, as David My servant did, it shall happen that I will be with you and build you a sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel to you. ³⁹And for this I will afflict the seed of David, but not forever. ⁴⁰Therefore Solomon sought to kill Jēr-ō-bō'-ām. And Jēr-ō-bō'-ām arose and fled to Egypt, to Shī'-shāk king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

¹And Rē-hō-bō'-ām went to Shē'-chēm. For all Israel had come to Shē'-chēm to make him king. ²And when Jēr-ō-bō'-ām the son of Nē'-bāt, who was still in Egypt heard (for he had fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jēr-ō-bō'-ām lived in Egypt), ³they sent and called him. And Jēr-ō-bō'-ām and all the congregation of Israel came and spoke to Rē-hō-bō'-ām, saying, ⁴Your father made our yoke hard. Now therefore make the hard service and the heavy yoke which he put upon us lighter, and we will serve you. ⁵And he said to them, Go away again for three days, and then come back to me. And the people went away.

⁶And king Rē-hō-bō'-ām talked with the old men who had stood before Solomon his father while he still lived, and said, How do you advise that I answer this people? ⁷And they spoke to him, saying, If you will be a servant to this people today, and will serve them and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever. ⁸But he left the counsel of the old men which they had given him, and talked with the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him. ⁹And he said to them, What advice do you give that we may answer this people who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke which your father put upon us lighter? ¹⁰And the young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, Thus shall you speak to this people who spoke to you, saying, Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter for us — you shall say this to them — My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins. ¹¹Now my father loaded you with a heavy yoke, and I will add to your yoke. My father has whipped you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

¹²So Jēr-ō-bō'-ām and all the people came to Rē-hō-bō'-ām the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, Come to me again the third day. ¹³And the king answered the people roughly, and left the old men's advice which they gave him, ¹⁴and spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke. My father whipped you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. ¹⁵Therefore the king did not listen to the people, for the cause was from the LORD, that He might perform His saying which the LORD spoke by Ā-hī'-jāh of Shiloh to Jēr-ō-bō'-ām the son of Nē'-bāt.

¹⁶So when all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king, saying, What part do we have in David? Neither do we have inheritance in the son of Jesse. To your tents, O Israel! Now see to your own house, David! So Israel went to their own tents. ¹⁷But as for the children of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rē-hō-bō'-ām reigned over them. ¹⁸Then king Rē-hō-bō'-ām sent Ā-dōr'-ām, who was over the tribute. And all Israel stoned him with stones so that he died. Therefore king Rē-hō-bō'-ām made speed to go up to get to his chariot to flee to Jerusalem. ¹⁹So Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day. ²⁰And when all Israel heard that Jēr-ō-bō'-ām had come again, they sent and called him to the congregation, and made him king over all Israel. There was none who followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.

²¹And when Rē-hō-bō'-ām had come to Jerusalem, he gathered all the house of Judah together with the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand chosen men, who were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rē-hō-bō'-ām the son of Solomon. ²²But the word of God came to Shēm-aī'-āh the man of God, saying, ²³Speak to Rē-hō-bō'-ām the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people, saying, ²⁴Thus says the LORD, You shall not go up, nor fight against your brothers the children of Israel. Every man return to his house. For this thing is from Me. Therefore they listened to the word of the LORD and turned to go back, according to the word of the LORD.

²⁵Then Jēr-ō-bō'-ām built Shē'-chēm in Mount Ephraim and lived in it. And he went out from there and built Pēn'-ū-ēl. ²⁶And Jēr-ō-bō'-ām said in his heart, Now the kingdom shall return to the house of David! ²⁷If this people goes up to do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again to their lord, to Rē-hō-bō'-ām king of Judah, and they shall kill me and go again to Rē-hō-bō'-ām king of Judah. ²⁸For this reason the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold and said to them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Behold your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt! ²⁹And he set the one in Bethel, and he put the other in Dan. ³⁰And this thing became a sin, for the people went to worship before the one, even to Dan. ³¹And he made a house of high places, and made priests of the lowest of the people, who were not the sons of Levi. ³²And Jēr-ō-bō'-ām ordered a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast that is in Judah. And he offered upon the altar. So he did in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he had made. And he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places which he had made. ³³So he offered upon the altar which he had made in Bethel the fifteenth day of the eighth month, in the month which he had devised out of his own heart. And he ordered a feast for the children of Israel. And he offered upon the altar, and burned incense.

²And he cried against the altar in the word of the LORD and said, O altar, altar, thus says the LORD. Behold, a child shall be born to the house of David, Jō-sī'-āh by name, and upon you he shall offer the priests of the high places who burn incense upon you, and men's bones shall be burned upon you. ³And he gave a sign the same day, saying, This is the sign which the LORD has spoken. Behold, the altar shall be torn apart, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured out. ⁴And when king Jēr-ō-bō'-ām heard the saying of the man of God who had cried against the altar in Bethel, he put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him! And his hand, which he put forth against him, dried up so that he could not pull it in again to himself. ⁵The altar also was torn apart, and the ashes poured out from the altar according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD. ⁶And the king answered and said to the man of God, Seek now the face of the LORD your God, and pray for me so that my hand may be given back to me again. And the man of God prayed to the LORD, and the king's hand was given back to him again, and became as it was before. ⁷And the king said to the man of God, Come home with me and refresh yourself, and I will give you a reward. ⁸And the man of God said to the king, If you will give me half your house, I will not go in with you, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place. ⁹For so was it commanded me by the word of the LORD, saying, Eat no bread nor drink water, nor return again by the same way that you came. ¹⁰So he went another way, and did not return by the way he came to Bethel.

¹¹Now there lived an old prophet in Bethel, and his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Bethel. The words which he had spoken to the king they also told to their father. ¹²And their father said to them, What way did he go? For his sons had seen what way the man of God, who came from Judah, had gone. ¹³And he said to his sons, Saddle me the ass. So they saddled the ass for him, and he rode on it, ¹⁴and went after the man of God and found him sitting under an oak. And he said to him, Are you the man of God who came from Judah? And he said, I am. ¹⁵Then he said to him, Come home with me and eat bread. ¹⁶And he said, I may not return with you nor go in with you, neither will I eat bread nor drink water with you in this place. ¹⁷For it was said to me by the word of the LORD, You shall eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that you came. ¹⁸He said to him, I am a prophet also as you are. And an angel spoke to me by the word of the LORD, saying, Bring him back with you into your house, so that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied to him. ¹⁹So he went back with him and ate bread in his house, and drank water.

came from Judah, saying, Thus says the LORD, Because you have not obeyed the mouth of the LORD and have not kept the commandment which the LORD your God commanded you, ²²but came back and have eaten bread and have drunk water in the place which the LORD said to you, Eat no bread and drink no water — your body shall not come to the tomb of your fathers.

²³And after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, he saddled the ass for him — for the prophet whom he had brought back. ²⁴And when he had gone, a lion met him by the way and killed him. And his dead body was thrown in the highway, and the ass stood by it, and the lion also stood by the body. ²⁵And behold, men passed by and saw the body thrown in the way, and the lion standing by the body. And they came and told it in the city where the old prophet lived. ²⁶And when the prophet who brought him back from the way heard, he said, It is the man of God who did not obey the word of the LORD. Therefore the LORD has delivered him to the lion, which has torn him and killed him, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke to him. ²⁷And he spoke to his sons, saying, Saddle the ass for me. And they saddled it. ²⁸And he went and found his body thrown in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the body. The lion had not eaten the body nor torn the ass. ²⁹And the prophet took up the dead body of the man of God, and laid it on the ass and brought it back. And the prophet came to the city to mourn and to bury him. ³⁰And he laid his body in his own grave. And they mourned over him, saying, Alas, my brother! ³¹And after he had buried him, he spoke to his sons, saying, When I am dead, then bury me in the tomb in which the man of God is buried. Lay my bones beside his bones — ³²for the saying which he cried by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Sā-mâr'-î-ā, shall surely come to pass.

³³After this thing Jēr-ō-bō'-ām did not turn from his evil way, but again made priests of the high places from the lowest of the people. He made a priest of anyone who asked, and he became one of the priests of the high places. ³⁴And this thing became sin to the house of Jēr-ō-bō'-ām, even to cut it off, and to destroy it from off the face of the earth.

¹At that time Ā-bī'-jāh the son of Jēr-ō-bō'-ām fell sick. ²And Jēr-ō-bō'-ām said to his wife, Arise, I pray you, and disguise yourself so that you will not be known to be the wife of Jēr-ō-bō'-ām. And go to Shī'-lōh, Behold, there is Ā-hī'-jāh the prophet, who told me about being king over this people. ³And take ten loaves, and cakes, and a jar of honey with you, and go to him. And he will tell you what shall become of the child. ⁴And Jēr-ō-bō'-ām's wife did so, and arose and went to Shī'-lōh. And she came to the house of Ā-hī'-jāh. But Ā-hī'-jāh could not see, for his eyes were set because of his age.

⁵And the LORD said to Ā-hī'-jāh, Behold, the wife of Jeroboam comes to ask a thing of you for her son, for he is sick. This and this you shall say to her, for when she comes in, she shall pretend to be another woman. ⁶And when Ā-hī'-jāh heard the sound of her feet as she came in at the door, he said, Come in, wife of Jeroboam! Why do you pretend to be another? For I am sent to you with heavy tidings. ⁷Go tell Jeroboam, Thus says the LORD God of Israel, I lifted you up from among the people, and made you prince over My people Israel, ⁸and tore the kingdom away from the house of David and gave it to you. And you have not been as My servant David who kept My commandments, and who followed Me with all his heart, to do that only which was right in My eyes. ⁹But you have done evil above all who were before you (for you have gone and made yourself other gods, and molded images, to provoke Me to anger, and have cast Me behind your back) – ¹⁰therefore, behold, I will bring evil upon the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam everyone who waters against the wall, and everyone who is shut up and left in Israel, and will take away the rest of the house of Jeroboam, as a man takes away dung, until it is all gone. ¹¹Those of Jeroboam who die in the city, the dogs shall eat. And those who die in the field, the fowls of the air shall eat. For the LORD has spoken.

¹²Therefore arise, get down to your own house. When your feet enter into the city, the child shall die. ¹³And all Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him. For he only of Jeroboam shall come down to the grave, because in him there is found some good thing toward the LORD God of Israel in the house of Jeroboam. ¹⁴Moreover the LORD shall raise up a king over Israel for Himself, a king who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam that day. But what? Even now! ¹⁵For the LORD shall strike Israel like a reed is shaken in the water, and He shall root up Israel out of this good land which He gave to their fathers, and shall scatter them beyond the river, because they have made their groves, provoking the LORD to anger. ¹⁶And he shall give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, who sinned and who made Israel to sin.

²¹And Rē-hō-bō'-ām the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rē-hō-bō'-ām was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD chose out of all the tribes of Israel to put His name there. And his mother's name was Nā'-ā-māh, an Ammonitess. ²²And Judah did evil in the sight of the LORD, and they provoked Him to jealousy with their sins which they had committed, above all that their fathers had done. ²³For they also built high places for themselves, and images, and groves, on every high hill and under every green tree. ²⁴And there were also sōd'-ōm-ites in the land. They did according to all the hateful things of the nations which the LORD cast out before the children of Israel.

²⁹Now the rest of the acts of Rē-hō-bō'-ām, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ³⁰And there was war between Rē-hō-bō'-ām and Jeroboam all their days. ³¹And Rē-hō-bō'-ām slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And his mother's name was Nā'-ā-māh, an Ammonitess. And his son Ā-bī'-jām reigned in his stead.

¹Now in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam the son of Nē'-bāt, Ā-bī'-jām reigned over Judah. ²He reigned three years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Mā'-ā-chāh, the daughter of Ā-bī'-shā-lōm. ³And he walked in all the sins of his father which he had done before him. And his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father. ⁴Nevertheless for David's sake the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem — ⁵because David did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, and did not turn aside from anything that He commanded him all the days of his life, except only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite. ⁶And there was war between Rē-hō-bō'-ām and Jeroboam all the days of his life. ⁷Now the rest of the acts of Ā-bī'-jām, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And there was war between Ā-bī'-jām and Jēr-ō-bō'-ām. ⁸And Ā-bī'-jām slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David. And his son Ā'-sā reigned in his stead.

¹⁶And there was war between Asa and Bā-āsh'-ā king of Israel, all their days. ¹⁷And Bā-āsh'-ā king of Israel went up against Judah and built Rā'-mäh, so that he might not allow any to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. ¹⁸Then Asa took all the silver and the gold left in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants. And king Asa sent them to Bēn-hā'-dād, the son of Tāb-rīm'-on, the son of Hé'-zī-ön, king of Syria, who lived at Damascus, saying, ¹⁹*There is a treaty between you and me, between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent to you a present of silver and gold. Come and break your treaty with Bā-āsh'-ā king of Israel, so that he may depart from me.* ²⁰So Bēn-hā'-dād listened to king Asa, and sent the captains of the armies which he had against the cities of Israel, and struck Ī'-jön, and Dan, and Ā'-bēl-bēth — mā'-ā-chäh, and all Cīn'-nē-röth, with all the land of Nāph'-tä-li. ²¹And when Bā-āsh'-ā heard, he left off building Rā'-mäh and lived in Tīr'-zäh.

²²Then king Asa made a proclamation throughout all Judah. None was free from it. And they took away the stones of Rā'-mäh, and the timber of it, with which Bā-āsh'-ā had built. And king Asa built Gē'-bā of Benjamin and Mizpah with them. ²³The rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? Nevertheless in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet. ²⁴And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father. And his son Jē-hösh'-ā-phät reigned in his stead.

²⁵And Nā'-dāb the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned over Israel two years. ²⁶And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin. ²⁷And Bā-āsh'-ā the son of Ā-hī'-jäh, of the house of Is'-sä-chär, conspired against him. And Bā-āsh'-ā struck him at Gīb'-bē-thön, which belonged to the Philistines. For Nā'-dāb and all Israel laid siege to Gīb'-bē-thōn. ²⁸Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah did Bā-āsh'-ā kill him and reign in his stead. ²⁹And when he reigned, he struck all the house of Jeroboam. He did not leave Jeroboam any who breathed, until he had destroyed him, according to the saying of the LORD which He spoke by His servant Ā-hī'-jāh the man of Shiloh, ³⁰because of the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and which he made Israel sin, by his provocation with which he provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger.

³¹Now the rest of the acts of Nā'-dāb, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ³²And there was war between Asa and Bā-āsh'-ā king of Israel all their days. ³³In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Bā-āsh'-ā the son of Ā-hī'-jāh began to reign over all Israel in Tīr'-zāh, twenty-four years. ³⁴And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin.

¹Then the word of the LORD came to Jē'-hū the son of Hā-nā'-nī against Bā-āsh'-ā, saying, ²Since I exalted you out of the dust, and made you prince over My people Israel – and since you have walked in the way of Jeroboam, and have made My people Israel to sin, to provoke Me to anger with their sins – ³behold, I will take away the children of Bā-āsh'-ā, and the posterity of his house. And I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat. ⁴Those of Bā-āsh'-ā who die in the city shall the dogs eat. And those of his who die in the fields, the fowls of the air shall eat. ⁵Now the rest of the acts of Bā-āsh'-ā, and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ⁶So Bā-āsh'-ā slept with his fathers, and was buried in Tīr'-zāh. And Ē'-lāh his son reigned in his stead. ⁷And also by the hand of the prophet Jē'-hū the son of Hā-nā'-nī came the word of the LORD against Bā-āsh'-ā, and against his house, even for all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, in provoking Him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and because he killed him.

destroyed all the house of Bā-āsh'-ā, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke against Bā-āsh'-ā by Jē'-hû the prophet — ¹³for all the sins of Bā-āsh'-ā, and the sins of Ē'-lāh his son, by which they sinned and by which they made Israel to sin, in provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities. ¹⁴Now the rest of the acts of Ē'-lāh, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

¹⁵In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zīm'-rī reigned seven days in Tīr'-zāh. And the people were camped against Gib'-bē-thōn, which belonged to the Philistines. ¹⁶And the people that were camped heard it said that Zīm'-rī had plotted and had also slain the king. Therefore all Israel made Ōm'-rī, the captain of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp. ¹⁷And Ōm'-rī went up from Gib'-bē-thōn, and all Israel with him, and they laid siege to Tīr'-zāh. ¹⁸And when Zīm'-rī saw that the city was taken, he went into the palace of the king's house and burned the king's house over him with fire, and died ¹⁹for his sins which he sinned in doing evil in the sight of the LORD, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did to make Israel sin. ²⁰Now the rest of the acts of Zīm'-rī, and his treason which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

²¹Then the people of Israel were divided into two parts. Half the people followed Tīb'-nī the son of Gī'-nāth, to make him king. And half followed Omri. ²²But the people who followed Omri won out over the people who followed Tīb'-nī the son of Gī'-nāth. So Tīb'-nī died and Omri reigned.

²³In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri began to reign over Israel. He reigned twelve years, six years in Tīr'-zāh. ²⁴And he bought the hill Sā-mār'-ī-ā of Shē'-mēr for two talents of silver, and built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built after the name of Shē'-mēr, the owner of the hill, Sā-mār'-ī-ā. ²⁵But Omri did evil in the eyes of the LORD, and did worse than all who were before him. ²⁶For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities. ²⁷Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he showed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ²⁸So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria. And Ā'-hāb his son reigned in his stead.

²⁹And in the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, Ahab the son of Omri began to reign over Israel. And Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Sā-mār'-ī-ā twenty-two years. ³⁰And Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD above all who were before him. ³¹And as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, he also took Jēz'-ē-bēl, the daughter of Ēth-bā'-āl king of the Sī-dō'-nī-āns, for a wife. And he went and served Bā'-āl, and worshipped him. ³²And he reared up an altar for Bā'-āl in the house of Bā'-āl, which he had built in Samaria. ³³And Ahab made a grove. And Ahab did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him.

³⁴In his days Hī'-ēl the man of Bethel built Jericho. He laid the foundation of it in Ā-bī'-rām his first-born, and set up the gates of it in his youngest son Sē'-gūb, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke by Joshua the son of Nun.

¹And Ē-lī'-jāh the Tish'-bite, who was of the inhabitants of Gilead, said to Ahab, As the LORD God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, except according to my word. ²And the word of the LORD came to him, saying, ³Get away from here and turn eastward, and hide yourself by the brook Chē'-rīth that is before Jordan. ⁴And you shall drink of the brook. And I have commanded the ravens to feed you there. ⁵So he went and did according to the word of the LORD. For he went and lived by the brook Chē'-rīth that is before Jordan. ⁶And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening. ⁷And he drank of the brook. And after a while the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land.

⁸And the word of the LORD came to him, saying, ⁹Arise, go to Zār'-ē-phāth which belongs to Sī'-dōn, and live there. Behold, I have commanded a widow-woman to keep you there. ¹⁰So he arose and went to Zār'-ē-phāth. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, the widow-woman was there gathering sticks. And he called to her and said, I pray you, bring me a little water in a vessel so that I may drink. ¹¹And as she was going to bring it, he called to her and said, I pray you, bring me a piece of bread in your hand. ¹²And she said, As the LORD your God lives, I do not have a cake, but only a handful of meal in a barrel and a little oil in a jar. And behold, I am gathering two sticks, so that I may go in and dress it for me and my son, so that we may eat it and die. ¹³And Ē-lī'-jāh said to her, Do not fear. Go and do as you have said. But first make me a little cake of it, and bring it to me. And then make for you and for your son. ¹⁴For thus says the LORD God of Israel, The barrel of meal shall not be emptied, neither shall the jar of oil fail, until the day that the LORD sends rain upon the earth. ¹⁵And she went and did according to the saying of Elijah. And she and he and her house ate many days. ¹⁶And the barrel of meal did not empty, neither did the jar of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke by Elijah.

¹⁷And after these things the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick. And his sickness was so sore that there was no breath left in him. ¹⁸And she said to Elijah, What do I have to do with you, O man of God? Have you come to me to call my sin to remembrance and to kill my son? ¹⁹And he said to her, Give me your son. And he took him out of her bosom and carried him up into a loft, where he stayed, and laid him upon his own bed. ²⁰And he cried to the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, hast Thou also brought evil upon the widow with whom I am staying, by slaying her son? ²¹And he stretched himself upon the child three times and cried to the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, I pray Thee, let this child's soul come to him again. ²²And the LORD heard the voice of Elijah, and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived. ²³And Elijah took the child and brought him down out of the room into the house and delivered him to his mother. And Elijah said, See! Your son lives! ²⁴And the woman said to Elijah, Now by this I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is truth.

¹And after many days the word of the LORD came to Elijah in the third year saying, Go, show yourself to Ahab. And I will send rain upon the earth. ²And Elijah went to show himself to Ahab. And there was a great famine in Samaria. ³And Ahab called Ō-bā-dī'-āh, who was the governor of his house. (Now Ō-bā-dī'-āh feared the LORD greatly — ⁴for when Jēz'-ē-bēl cut off the prophets of the LORD, Ō-bā-dī'-āh took a hundred prophets and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.) ⁵And Ahab said to Ō-bā-dī'-āh, Go into the land, to all fountains of water, and to all brooks. Perhaps we may find grass to save the horses and mules alive, so that we do not lose all the animals. ⁶So they divided the land between them to pass throughout it. Ahab went one way by himself, and Ō-bā-dī'-āh went another way by himself.

⁷And as Ō-bā-dī'-āh was in the way, behold, Elijah met him. And he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, Are you my lord Elijah? ⁸and he answered him, I am. Go, tell your lord, behold, Elijah is here. ⁹And he said, What have I sinned that you would deliver your servant into the hand of Ahab to kill me? ¹⁰As the LORD your God lives, there is no nation nor kingdom where my lord has not sent to seek you. And when they said, He is not there, he took an oath of the kingdom and nation that they did not find you. ¹¹And now you say, Go, tell your lord, Behold, Elijah is here! ¹²And as soon as I have gone from you, the Spirit of the LORD shall carry you where I know not. And when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find you, he shall kill me. But I, your servant, have feared the LORD from my youth. ¹³Was it not told my lord what I did when Jēz'-ē-bēl killed the prophets of the LORD, how I hid a hundred men of the LORD's prophets by fifty in a cave and fed them with bread and water? ¹⁴And now you say, Go, tell your lord, Behold, Elijah is here! And he shall kill me! ¹⁵And Elijah said, As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself to him today. ¹⁶So Ō-bā-dī'-āh went to meet Ahab and told him. And Ahab went to meet Elijah.

¹⁷And when Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said to him, Are you he that troubles Israel? ¹⁸And he answered, I have not troubled Israel — but you and your father's house have, in that you have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and you have followed Bā'-ā-lim. ¹⁹Now therefore send and gather to me all Israel to Mount Carmel, and four hundred and fifty of the prophets of Baal, and four hundred of the prophets of the groves, who eat at Jezebel's table.

²⁰So Ahab sent to all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together to Mount Carmel. ²¹And Elijah came to all the people and said, How long will you hesitate between two opinions? If Jehovah is God, follow Him. But if Baal is God, then follow him. And the people did not answer him a word. ²²Then Elijah said to the people, I, I alone, remain a prophet of the LORD. But Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men. ²³Therefore let them give us two bulls, and let them choose one bull for themselves, and cut it in pieces and lay it on wood. But put no fire under it. And I will dress the other bull and lay it on wood, and put no fire under it. ²⁴And you call on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of Jehovah. And the God that answers by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said, It is well spoken. ²⁵And Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, Choose one bull for yourselves, and dress it first. For you are many. And call on the name of your gods, but put no fire under it. ²⁶And they took the bull which was given them, and they dressed it and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, O Baal, hear us. But there was no voice, nor any who answered. And they leaped upon the altar which was made. ²⁷And at noon Elijah mocked them and said, Cry with a great voice, for he is a god. Either he is meditating, or he is pursuing, or he is in a journey, or perhaps he is asleep and must be awakened! ²⁸And they cried with a great voice and cut themselves with knives and spears until the blood gushed out upon them, as is their way. ²⁹And when mid-day was past, and when they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, it came to pass that there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor anyone who paid attention.

³⁰And Elijah said to all the people, Come near to me. And all the people came near him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down. ³¹And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, unto whom the word of the LORD came, saying, Israel shall be your name. ³²And with stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD. And he made a trench around the altar big enough to contain two measures of seed. ³³And he put the wood in order, and cut the bull in pieces and laid it on the wood, and said, Fill four barrels with water and pour it on the burnt sacrifice and on the wood. ³⁴And he said, Do it the second time. And they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third time. And they did it the third time. ³⁵And the water ran round about the altar. And he filled the trench also with water. ³⁶And at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, Elijah the prophet came near and said, LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that Thou art God in Israel, and that I am Thy servant, and that I have done all these things at Thy word. ³⁷Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that Thou art the LORD God, and that Thou hast turned their heart back again. ³⁸Then the fire of the LORD fell and burned up the burnt sacrifice and the wood, and the stones and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench. ³⁹And when all the people saw, they fell on their faces. And they said, Jehovah, He is the God! Jehovah, He is the God! ⁴⁰And Elijah said to them, Take the prophets of Baal. Do not let one of them escape. And they took them. And Elijah brought them down to the brook Kī'-shōn and killed them there.

⁴¹And Elijah said to Ahab, Go up, eat and drink. For there is a sound of plenty of rain. ⁴²So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel. And he threw himself down upon the earth and put his face between his knees. ⁴³And he said to his servant, Go up now, look toward the sea. And he went up and looked and said, There is nothing. And he said, Go again seven times. ⁴⁴And at the seventh time, he said, Behold, there arises a little cloud out of the sea, like a man's hand. And he said, Go up and say to Ahab, Prepare your chariot, and go down, so that the rain does not stop you. ⁴⁵And in the meantime the heaven was black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rose and went to Jēz'-rēel. ⁴⁶And the hand of the LORD was on Elijah. And he girded up his loins and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jēz'-rēel.

¹And Ahab told Jēz'-ē-bēl all that Elijah had done, and with it all how he had slain all the prophets with the sword. ²Then Jēz'-ē-bēl sent a messenger to Elijah saying, So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I do not make your life like the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time. ³And when he saw that, he rose and went for his life, and came to Bēer-shē'-bā, which belongs to Judah, and left his servant there.

⁴But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree. And he begged for his life, that he might die. And he said, It is enough. Now, O LORD, take away my life. For I am no better than my fathers. ⁵And as he lay and slept under a juniper tree, behold, then an angel touched him and said to him, Arise and eat. ⁶And he looked, and, behold, there was a cake baked on the coals, and a jug of water at his head. And he ate and drank, and lay down again. ⁷And the angel of the LORD came to him the second time and touched him, and said, Arise and eat, because the journey is too great for you. ⁸And he arose, and ate and drank, and went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Hôr-ëb the mount of God.

⁹And he came there to a cave and stayed there. And behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and He said to him, What are you doing here, Elijah? ¹⁰And he said, I have been very jealous for the LORD God of hosts. For the children of Israel have forsaken Thy covenant, thrown down Thy altars, and have slain Thy prophets with the sword. And I, I alone, am left. And they seek to take my life away. ¹¹And he said, Go forth and stand upon the mountain before the LORD. And, behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind tore the mountains, and broke the rocks in pieces before the LORD. But the LORD was not in the wind. And after the wind was an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake. ¹²And after the earthquake was a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire. And after the fire was a still, small voice.

¹³And when Elijah heard, it happened that he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out, and stood in the entering in of the cave. And behold, a voice came to him and said, What are you doing here, Elijah? ¹⁴And he said, I have been very jealous for the LORD God of hosts, because the children of Israel have forsaken Thy covenant, have thrown down Thy altars, and have slain Thy prophets with the sword. And I, I alone, am left. And they seek to take my life away.

¹⁵And the LORD said to him, Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus. And when you come, anoint Hā-zā'-ël to be king over Syria. ¹⁶And you shall anoint Jehu the son of Nīm'-shī to be king over Israel. And Elisha the son of Shā'-phāt of Ā'-bēl-mē-hō'-lāh shall you anoint to be prophet in your stead. ¹⁷And whoever escapes the sword of Hā-zā'-ël, Jehu shall kill. And whoever escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha shall kill. ¹⁸Yet I have left for Myself seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth which has not kissed him.

¹⁹So he went away from there, and found Elisha the son of Shā'-phāt, who was plowing twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he was with the twelfth. And Elijah passed by him and threw his mantle upon him. ²⁰And he left the oxen and ran after Elijah, and said, I pray you, let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you. And he said to him, Go back again — for what have I done to you? ²¹And he turned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen and killed them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he arose and went after Elijah, and ministered to him.

¹And Bēn-hā'-dād the king of Syria gathered all his army together. And there were thirty-two kings with him, and horses and chariots. And he went up and laid siege to Samaria, and warred against it. ²And he sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel, and to the city, and said to him, Bēn-hā'-dād says this: ³Your silver and your gold is mine, your wives also and your children, the best are mine. ⁴And the king of Israel answered and said, My lord, O King, according to your saying I am yours and all that I have. ⁵And the messengers came again and said, Bēn-hā'-dad speaks in this way, saying, Although I have sent to you saying, You shall deliver me your silver and your gold and your wives and your children, ⁶yet I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, and they shall search your house and the houses of your servants. And whatever is pleasant in your eyes, they shall put it in their hand and take it away.

⁷Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land and said, I pray you, mark and see how this man seeks mischief. For he sent to me for my wives and for my children, and for my silver and for my gold. And I did not keep them back from him. ⁸And all the elders and all the people said to him, Do not listen nor consent! ⁹Therefore he said to the messengers of Bēn-hā'-dād, Tell my lord the king, All that you sent for to your servant at the first I will do, but this thing I may not do. And the messengers left and brought him word again. ¹⁰And Bēn-hā'-dād sent to him and said, May the gods do so to me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall be enough for handfuls for all the people who follow me. ¹¹And the king of Israel answered and said, Tell him, Do not let him who girds on his armor boast himself like the one who takes it off. ¹²And when Bēn-hā'-dād heard this message, as he was drinking, he and the kings in the pavilions, he said to his servants, Place the engines. And they placed the engines against the city.

¹³And behold, there came a prophet to Ahab king of Israel, saying, Thus says the LORD, Have you seen all this great multitude? Behold, I will deliver it into your hand this day, and you shall know that I am the LORD. ¹⁴And Ahab said, By whom? And he said, Thus says the LORD, By the young men of the princes of the provinces. Then he said, Who shall order the battle? And he answered, You. ¹⁵Then he numbered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty-two. And after them he numbered all the people, all the children of Israel, seven thousand. ¹⁶And they went out at noon. But Bēn-hā'-dād was drinking himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty-two kings who helped him. ¹⁷And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first. And Bēn-hā'-dād sent out, and they told him, saying, There are men coming out of Samaria. ¹⁸And he said, If they have come out for peace, take them alive; or if they have come out for war, take them alive. ¹⁹So these young men of the princes of the provinces came out of the city, and the army which followed them. ²⁰And they each one killed his man. And the Syrians fled. And Israel pursued them. And Bēn-hā'-dād the king of Syria escaped on a horse with the horsemen. ²¹And the king of Israel went out and struck the horses and chariots, and killed the Syrians with a great slaughter.

²²And the prophet came to the king of Israel and said to him, Go, strengthen yourself, and watch and see what you do. For at the return of the year the king of Syria will come up against you. ²³And the servants of the king of Syria said to him, Their gods are gods of the hills — therefore they were stronger than we were. But let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they are. ²⁴And do this thing, take the kings away, each man out of his place, and put captains in their places — ²⁵and number an army like the army that you have lost, horse for horse and chariot for chariot. And we will fight against them in the plain. Surely we shall be stronger than they are. And he listened to their voice and did so. ²⁶And at the return of the year Bēn-hā'-dād numbered the Syrians that went up to Ā'-phēk to fight against Israel. ²⁷And the children of Israel were numbered, and were all present, and went against them. And the children of Israel pitched before them like two little flocks of kids. But the Syrians filled the country.

²⁸And there came a man of God and spoke to the king of Israel, and said, Thus says the LORD, Because the Syrians have said, Jehovah is God of the hills, but He is not God of the valleys, therefore I will deliver all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am the LORD. ²⁹And they pitched over against one another seven days. And so it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined. And the children of Israel killed a hundred thousand footmen of the Syrians in one day. ³⁰But the rest fled to Ā'-phēk, into the city. And there a wall fell upon twenty-seven thousand of the men who were left. And Bēn-hā'-dād fled and came into the city, into an inner room.

³¹And his servants said to him, Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. I pray you, let us put sackcloth on our loins and ropes upon our heads, and go out to the king of Israel. Perhaps he will save your life. ³²So they bound sackcloth on their loins and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel and said, Your servant Bēn-hā'-dād says, I pray you, let me live. And he said, Is he still alive? He is my brother. ³³Now the men carefully observed whether anything would come from him, and quickly caught it. And they said, Your brother Bēn-hā'-dād. Then he said, Go and bring him. Then Bēn-hā'-dād came forth to him, and he caused him to come up into the chariot. ³⁴And Bēn-hā'-dād said to him, The cities which my father took from your father, I will restore. And you shall make streets for you in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria. Then Ahab said, I will send you away with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him and sent him away.

³⁵And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his neighbor in the word of the LORD, I pray you, strike me! And the man refused to strike him. ³⁶Then he said to him, Because you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as you have departed from me, a lion shall kill you. And as soon as he had departed from him, a lion found him and killed him. ³⁷Then he found another man and said, I pray you, strike me. And the man struck him, so that he wounded him in striking him. ³⁸So the prophet went away and waited for the king by the wayside, and disguised himself with ashes upon his face. ³⁹And as the king passed by, he cried unto the king. And he said, Your servant went out into the middle of the battle, and, behold, a man turned aside and brought a man to me and said, Keep this man. If he is missing by any means, then your life shall be for his life, or else you shall pay a talent of silver. ⁴⁰And as your servant was busy here and there, he was gone! And the king of Israel said to him, So shall your judgment be — you yourself have decided it. ⁴¹And he hurried and took the ashes away from his face. And the king of Israel saw that he was one of the prophets. ⁴²And he said to him, Thus says the LORD, Because you have let go out of your hand a man whom I marked out for utter destruction, therefore your life shall be for his life, and your people for his people. ⁴³And the king of Israel went to his house heavy and displeased, and came to Samaria.

¹And it came to pass after these things that Nā'-bōth of Jēz'-rēel had a vineyard which was in Jēz'-rēel, close by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria. ²And Ahab spoke to Nā'-bōth, saying, Give me your vineyard so that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near my house. And I will give you a better vineyard than it. Or, if it seems good to you, I will give you the worth of it in money. ³And Nā'-bōth said to Ahab, The LORD forbid me to do it, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers to you. ⁴And Ahab came to his house heavy and displeased because of the word which Nā'-bōth the Jēz'-rēel-ite had spoken to him. For he had said, I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers. And he laid himself down upon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread.

⁵But his wife Jēz'-ē-bēl came to him and said to him, Why is your spirit so sad that you will not eat any bread? ⁶And he said to her, Because I spoke to Nā'-bōth of Jēz'-rēel and said to him, Give me your vineyard for money. Or else, if it pleases you, I will give you another vineyard for it. And he answered, I will not give you my vineyard. ⁷And his wife Jezebel said to him, Do you now govern the kingdom of Israel? Arise and eat bread, and let your heart be merry. I will give you the vineyard of Naboth of Jēz'-rēel. ⁸So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to the elders and to the nobles that were in his city, dwelling with Naboth. ⁹And she wrote in the letter, saying, Proclaim a fast and set Naboth on high among the people. ¹⁰And set two men, sons of Bē'-lī-āl, before him to bear witness against him, saying, You blasphemed God and the king. And then carry him out and stone him so that he may die. ¹¹And the men of his city, the elders and the nobles who were the inhabitants in his city, did as Jezebel had sent to them, as it was written in the letters which she had sent to them. ¹²They proclaimed a fast and set Naboth on high among the people. ¹³And there came in two men, children of Bē'-lī-āl, and sat before him. And the men of Bē'-lī-āl witnessed against him, against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did blaspheme God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city and stoned him with stones so that he died. ¹⁴Then they sent to Jēz'-ē-bel, saying, Naboth is stoned and is dead.

¹⁵And when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned and was dead, it came to pass that Jezebel said to Ahab, Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth of Jēz'-rēel, which he refused to give you for money. For Naboth is not alive, but dead. ¹⁶And when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth of Jēz'-rēel, to take possession of it.

¹⁷And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tish'-bīte, saying, ¹⁸Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who is in Samaria. Behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone to possess it. ¹⁹And you shall speak to him, saying, Thus says the LORD, Have you killed and also taken possession? And you shall speak to him saying, Thus says the LORD, In the place where the dogs licked the blood of Naboth, dogs shall lick your blood, even yours. ²⁰And Ahab said to Elijah, Have you found me, O my enemy? And he answered, I have found you – because you have sold yourself to work evil in the sight of the LORD. ²¹Behold, I will bring evil upon you and will take away your children forever, and will cut off from Ahab everyone who waters against the wall, and everyone who is shut up and left in Israel. ²²And I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Bā-āsh'-ā the son of Ā-hī'-jāh, for the provocation with which you have provoked Me to anger, and made Israel to sin. ²³And the LORD also spoke of Jezebel saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the wall of Jēz'-rēel. ²⁴*Everyone* of Ahab who dies in the city, the dogs shall eat. And everyone who dies in the field, the birds of the air shall eat.

²⁵But there was none like Ahab, who sold himself to work wickedness in the sight of the LORD, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up. ²⁶And he did very abominably in following idols, according to all things like the Amorites did, whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel. ²⁷And when Ahab heard these words, he tore his clothes and put sackcloth upon his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth and walked softly. ²⁸And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, ²⁹Do you see how Ahab humbles himself before Me? Because he humbles himself before Me, I will not bring the evil in his days. But in his son's days I will bring the evil upon his house.

¹And they continued three years without war between Syria and Israel. ²And it came to pass in the third year that Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt the king of Judah came down to see the king of Israel. ³And the king of Israel said to his servants, Do you not know that Rā'-mōth in Gilead is ours, and we are quiet and do not take it out of the hand of the king of Syria? ⁴And he said to Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt, Will you go with me to battle to Rā'-mōth in Gil'-ē-ād? And Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt said to the king of Israel, I am as you are, my people are as your people, my horses are as your horses. ⁵And Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt said to the king of Israel, I pray you, inquire at the word of the LORD today.

⁶Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, Shall I go against Rā'-mōth in Gil'-ē-ād to battle, or shall I hold back? And they said, Go up! For the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king. ⁷And Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might inquire of him? ⁸And the king of Israel said to Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt, There is still one man, Mī-caī'-āh the son of Im'-lāh, by whom we may inquire of the LORD. But I hate him, for he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. And Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt said, Let not the king say so. ⁹Then the king of Israel called an officer and said, Hurry and bring Mī-caī'-āh the son of Im'-lāh here. ¹⁰And the king of Israel and Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt the king of Judah each sat on his throne, having put on their robes, in a floor in the entrance of the gate of Samaria. And all the prophets prophesied before them. ¹¹And Zēd-ē-kī'-āh the son of Chē-nā'-ā-nāh made horns of iron for himself. And he said, Thus says the LORD, With these you shall push the Syrians until you have crushed them. ¹²And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Rā'-mōth in Gil'-ē-ād and be blessed, for the LORD shall deliver it into the king's hands. ¹³And the messenger that had gone to call Mī-caī'-āh spoke to him, saying, Behold now, the words of the prophets declare good to the king with one mouth. I pray you, let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak that which is good. ¹⁴And Mī-caī'-āh, said, As the LORD lives, what the LORD says to me, that I will speak.

¹⁵So he came to the king. And the king said to him, Mī-caī'-āh, Shall we go against Rā'-mōth in Gīl'-ē-ād to battle, or shall we hold off? And he answered him, Go and be blessed. For the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king. ¹⁶And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure you that you tell me nothing but what is true, in the name of the LORD? ¹⁷And he said, I saw all Israel scattered upon the hills, like sheep that have no shepherd. And the LORD said, These have no master. Let each man return to his house in peace. ¹⁸And the king of Israel said to Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt, Did I not tell you that he would prophesy no good concerning me, but evil? ¹⁹And he said, Hear therefore the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing by Him on His right hand and on His left. ²⁰And the LORD said, Who shall persuade Ahab that he may go up and fall at Rā'-mōth in Gīl'-ē-ād? And one said this way, and another said that way. ²¹And there came forth a spirit and stood before the LORD and said, I will deceive him. ²²And the LORD said to him, With what? And he said, I will go forth and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And He said, You shall persuade him and succeed also. Go forth and do so. ²³Now therefore, behold, the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these your prophets, and the LORD has spoken evil concerning you. ²⁴But Zēd-ē-kī'-āh the son of Chē-nā'-ā-nāh went near and struck Mī-caī'-āh on the cheek, and said, Which way did the Spirit of the LORD go from me to speak to you? ²⁵And Mī-caī'-āh said, Behold, you shall see in that day when you shall go into an inner room to hide yourself. ²⁶And the king of Israel said Take Mī-caī'-āh and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Jō'-āsh the king's son — ²⁷and say, Thus says the king, Put this fellow in the prison and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction until I come in peace. ²⁸And Mī-caī'-āh said, If you return at all in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me. And he said, Listen, O people, every one of you!

²⁹So the king of Israel and Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt the king of Judah went up to Rā'-mōth in Gīl'-ē-ād. ³⁰And the king of Israel said to Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt, I will disguise myself and enter into the battle. But you put on your robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself and went into the battle. ³¹But the king of Syria commanded his thirty-two captains who had rule over his chariots, saying, Do not fight with small nor great, except only with the king of Israel. ³²And when the captains of the chariots saw Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt, they said, Surely it is the king of Israel. And they turned aside to fight against him. And Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt cried out. ³³And when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him. ³⁴And a man drew a bow at random and struck the king of Israel between the joints of the harness. Therefore he said to the driver of his chariot, Turn your hand and carry me out of the army, for I am wounded. ³⁵And the battle increased that day. And the king was stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians, and died at evening. And the blood ran out of the wound into the midst of the chariot. ³⁶And there went a cry throughout the army around the going down of the sun, saying, Every man to his city, and every man to his own country.

³⁷So the king died and was brought to Samaria. And they buried the king in Samaria. ³⁸And one washed the chariot in the pool of Samaria, and the dogs licked up his blood, and they washed his armor, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke. ³⁹Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house which he built, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ⁴⁰So Ahab slept with his fathers. And his son Ā-hā-zī'āh reigned in his stead.

⁴¹And Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel. ⁴²Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt was thirty-five years old when he began to reign. And he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Ā-zū'bāh the daughter of Shīl'hī. ⁴³And he walked in all the ways of Asa his father. He did not turn aside from it, doing what was right in the eyes of the LORD. Nevertheless the high places were not taken away, for the people offered and burnt incense yet in the high places. ⁴⁴And Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt made peace with the kings of Israel. ⁴⁵Now the rest of the acts of Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt, and his might which he showed, and how he warred, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ⁴⁶And the rest of the sodomites which remained in the days of his father Asa, he took out of the land. ⁴⁷*There was* then no king in Edom — a deputy was king. ⁴⁸Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt made ships of Tār-shīsh to go to Ō-phīr for gold. But they did not go, for the ships were broken at Ē'-zī-ōn-gē'-bēr. ⁴⁹Then Ā-hā-zī'āh the son of Ahab said to Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt, Let my servants go with your servants in the ships. But Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt would not. ⁵⁰And Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father. And his son Jē-hōr'-ām reigned in his stead.

⁵¹Ā-hā-zī'āh the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the seventeenth year of Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt king of Judah. And he reigned two years over Israel. ⁵²And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. ⁵³For he served Baal and worshipped him, and provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger, according to all that his father had done.

The SECOND Book of the KINGS

¹Then Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab. ²And Ā-hā-zī-āh fell down through a lattice in his upper room that was in Samaria, and was sick. And he sent messengers and said to them, Go, ask of Bā'-āl-zē'-būb the god of Ēk'-rōn whether I shall recover of this disease. ³But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, Arise! Go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria and say to them, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel that you go to ask of Bā'-āl-zē'-būb the god of Ēk'-rōn? ⁴Now therefore thus says the LORD, You shall not come from that bed on which you have gone up, but shall surely die. And Elijah departed.

⁵And when the messengers turned back to him, he said, Why have you now turned back? ⁶And they said to him, There came a man up to meet us and said to us, Go, turn again to the king who sent you, and say to him, Thus says the LORD, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel that you go to ask of Bā'-āl-zē'-būb the god of Ēk'-rōn? Therefore you shall not come down from that bed on which you have gone up, but shall surely die. ⁷And he said to them, What kind of man was he who came up to meet you and told you these words? ⁸And they answered him, He was a hairy man and was bound with a girdle of leather around his loins. And he said, It is Elijah the Tishbite. ⁹Then the king sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him. And, behold, he sat on the top of a hill. And he spoke to him, Man of God! The king has said, Come down. ¹⁰And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, If I am a man of God, then let fire come down from heaven and burn up you and your fifty. And there came down fire from heaven and burned up him and his fifty. ¹¹Again also he sent to him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he answered and said to him, O man of God, thus says the king, Come down quickly. ¹²And Elijah answered and said to him, If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and burn up you and your fifty. And the fire of God came down from heaven and burned up him and his fifty.

¹³And he sent again a captain of the third fifty with his fifty men. And the third captain of fifty came up and fell on his knees before Elijah, and begged him, and said to him, O man of God, I pray you, let my life and the life of these fifty, your servants, be precious in your sight. ¹⁴Behold, there came down fire from heaven and burned up the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties. Therefore let my life now be precious in your sight. ¹⁵And the Angel of the LORD said to Elijah, Go down with him. Do not be afraid of him. And he arose and went down with him to the king. ¹⁶And he said to him, Thus says the LORD, Because you have sent messengers to ask of Bā'-āl-zē'-būb the god of Ēk'-rōn, is it not because there is no God in Israel to seek His word? Therefore you shall not come down off that bed on which you have gone up, but shall surely die. ¹⁷So he died according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. And Jē-hôr'-ām reigned in his stead in the second year of Jē-hôr'-ām the son of Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt king of Judah, because he had no son. ¹⁸Now the rest of the acts of Ā-hā-zī'-āh which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

¹And when the LORD desired to take Elijah up into Heaven by a whirlwind, Elijah went with Elisha from Gīl'-gāl. ²And Elijah said to Elisha, Stay here, I pray you, for the LORD has sent me to Bethel. And Elisha said, As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. So they went down to Bethel. ³And the sons of the prophets who were at Bethel came forth to Elisha, and said to him, Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from your head today? And he said, Yes, I know it. Ho'd your peace. ⁴And Elijah said to him, Elisha, I pray you, stay here. For the LORD has sent me to Jericho. And he said, As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. So they came to Jericho. ⁵And the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho came to Elisha and said to him, Do you know that the LORD will take your master away from your head today? And he answered, Yes, I know it. Hold your peace. ⁶And Elijah said to him, I pray you, stay here, for the LORD has sent me to Jordan. And he said, As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. And the two of them went on. ⁷And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went and stood to look afar off. And the two of them stood afar off. ⁸And Elijah took his mantle and wrapped it together, and struck the waters, and they were divided here and there, so that the two of them went over on dry ground.

⁹And when they had gone over, Elijah said to Elisha. Ask what I shall do for you before I am taken away from you. And Elisha said, I pray you, let a double portion of your spirit be upon me. ¹⁰And he said, You have asked a hard thing, but if you see me when I am taken from you, it shall be so to you — but if not, it shall not be. ¹¹And as they still went on and talked, behold, a chariot of fire appeared, and horses of fire, and separated the two of them. And Elijah went by a whirlwind into Heaven.

¹²And Elisha saw it, and he cried, My father, my father, the chariot of Israel and the horsemen of it! And he saw him no more. And he took hold of his own clothes and tore them in two pieces. ¹³He also took up the mantle of Elijah which had fallen from him, and went back and stood by the bank of Jordan. ¹⁴And he took the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and struck the waters, and said, Where is the LORD God of Elijah? And when he also hit the waters, they parted here and there. And Elisha went over. ¹⁵And when the sons of the prophets who had come to watch at Jericho saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah rests upon Elisha! And they came to meet him and bowed themselves to the ground before him. ¹⁶And they said to him, Behold now, there are with your servants fifty strong men. We pray you, let them go and seek your master, lest perhaps the Spirit of the LORD has taken him up and cast him upon some mountain, or into some valley. And he said, You shall not send. ¹⁷And when they urged him until he was ashamed, he said, Send. They therefore sent fifty men. And they looked for three days, but did not find him. ¹⁸And when they had come again to him — for he remained at Jericho — he said to them, Did I not say to you, Do not go?

¹⁹And the men of the city said to Elisha, Behold, I pray you, the location of this city is pleasant, as my lord sees. But the water is bad, and the ground is barren. ²⁰And he said, Bring me a new jar and put salt in it. And they brought it to him. ²¹And he went forth to the spring of the waters and threw the salt in there, and said, Thus says the LORD, I have healed these waters. There shall not be any more death or barrenness from there. ²²So the waters were healed unto this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spoke.

²³And he went up from there to Bethel. And as he was going up by the way, there came forth little children out of the city, and mocked him and said to him, Go up, you bald head! Go up, you bald head! ²⁴And he turned back and looked upon them, and cursed them in the name of the LORD. And there came forth two she-bears out of the woods and tore forty-two children of them. ²⁵And he went from there to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

¹Now Jē-hôr'-ām the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the eighteenth year of Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt king of Judah, and reigned twelve years. ²And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, but not like his father and his mother — for he put away the image of Baal that his father had made. ³Nevertheless he clung to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. He did not depart from them.

has rebelled against me — will you go with me against Moab to battle? And he said, I will go up. I am as you are, my people are as your people, my horses are as your horses. ⁸And he said, Which way shall we go up? And he answered, The way through the wilderness of Edom. ⁹So the king of Israel and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom went. And they went around behind for seven days' journey.

And there was no water for the army, and for the cattle that followed them. ¹⁰And the king of Israel said, Alas! that the LORD has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab! ¹¹But Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD, that we may ask of the LORD by him? And one of the king of Israel's servants answered and said, Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, who poured water on the hands of Elijah. ¹²And Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt said, The word of the LORD is with him. So the king of Israel and Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt and the king of Edom went down to him. ¹³And Elisha said to the king of Israel, What do I have to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father and to the prophets of your mother. And the king of Israel said to him, No, for the LORD has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab. ¹⁴And Elisha said, As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, surely if it were not that I regard the presence of Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt the king of Judah, I would not look toward you nor see you. ¹⁵But now bring me a minstrel. And when the minstrel played, the hand of the LORD came upon him. ¹⁶And he said, Thus says the LORD, Make this valley full of ditches. ¹⁷For thus saith the LORD, You shall not see wind, neither shall you see rain. Still that valley shall be filled with water, so that you may drink, both you and your cattle, and your animals. ¹⁸And this is but a light thing in the sight of the LORD. He will also deliver the Moabites into your hand. ¹⁹And you shall strike every fenced city, and every choice city. And you shall cut down every good tree and stop all wells of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones. ²⁰And in the morning when the meal offering was offered, behold, water came by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.

²¹And when all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, they gathered all that were able to put on armor, and upward, and stood in the border. ²²And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side red like blood. ²³And they said, This is blood. The kings are surely slain, and they have stricken one another. Now therefore, Moab, to the spoil!

²⁴And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and struck the Moabites, so that they fled before them. But they went forward striking the Moabites, even in their country. ²⁵And they beat down the cities, and each man cast his stone on every good piece of land, and filled it. And they stopped all the wells of water, and cut down all the good trees. Only in Kīr-hār'-ā-sēth did they leave the stones of it. However, the slingers went around it and struck it.

²⁶And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men who drew swords, in order to break through to the king of Edom. But they could not. ²⁷Then he took his oldest son, who should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt offering upon the wall. And there was great anger against Israel. And they left him, and returned to their own land.

¹Now a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets cried to Elisha, saying, Your servant my husband is dead. And you know that your servant feared the LORD. And the creditor has come to take my two sons to be bondmen to him. ²And Elisha said to her, What shall I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house? And she said, Your handmaid has not a thing in the house except a pot of oil. ³Then he said, Go out and borrow vessels from all your neighbors, empty vessels. Do not borrow just a few. ⁴And when you have come in, you shall shut the door upon you and your sons, and shall pour out into all those vessels. And you shall set aside that which is full. ⁵So she went from him and shut the door upon her and upon her sons who had brought the vessels to her. And she poured out. ⁶And when the vessels were full, she said to her son, Bring me still another vessel. And he said to her, There is not a vessel left. And the oil stopped. ⁷Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, Go, sell the oil and pay your debt, and you and your children live from the rest.

⁸And there came a day when Elisha passed over to Shû'-nēm, where there was a great woman. And she laid hold on him to eat bread. And so it was that, as often as he passed by, he turned in there to eat bread. ⁹And she said to her husband, Behold now, I see that this is a holy man of God who passes by us continually. ¹⁰I pray you, let us make a little room on the wall. And let us set a bed for him there, and a table, and a stool, and a lampstand. And when he comes to us, he shall turn in there. ¹¹And there came a day when he came in there, and he turned into the room and lay there. ¹²And he said to Gē-hā'-zī his servant, Call this Shû-nām'-mīte. And when he had called her, she stood before him. ¹³And he said to him, Say now to her, Behold, you have been thoughtful for us with all this care. What is to be done for you? Would you be spoken for to the king or to the captain of the army? And she answered, I dwell among my own people. ¹⁴And he said, What then is to be done for her? And Gē-hā'-zī answered, Verily she has no child, and her husband is old. ¹⁵And he said, Call her! And when he had called her, she stood in the door. ¹⁶And he said, About this time, according to the time of life, you shall embrace a son. And she said, No, my lord, O man of God, do not lie to your handmaid. ¹⁷And the woman conceived and bore a son at that time that Elisha had said to her, according to the time of life.

¹⁸And when the child had grown, there came a day when he went out to his father to the reapers. ¹⁹And he said to his father, My head, my head! And he said to a lad, Carry him to his mother. ²⁰And when he had taken him and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees until noon and then died. ²¹And she went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door upon him and went out. ²²And she called to her husband and said, I pray you, send me one of the young men and one of the asses so that I may run to the man of God and come again. ²³And he said, Why will you go to him today? It is neither new moon nor sabbath. And she said, Yet it shall be well. ²⁴Then she saddled an ass and said to her servant, Drive and go forward! Do not hold back your riding for me unless I tell you.

²⁵So she went and came to the man of God, to Mount Carmel. And when the man of God saw her afar off, it came to pass that he said to Gě-hā'-zī his servant, Behold, there is that Shû-nām'-mīte. ²⁶I pray you, run now to meet her, and say to her, Is it well with you? and well with your husband? and well with the child? And she answered, It is well. ²⁷And when she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught him by the feet. But Gě-hā'-zī came near to push her away. And the man of God said, Let her alone, for her soul is troubled within her. And the LORD has hidden it from me and has not told me. ²⁸Then she said, Did I desire a son from my lord? Did I not say, Do not deceive me? ²⁹Then he said to Gě-hā'-zī, Bind up your loins and take my staff in your hand, and go your way. If you meet any man, do not greet him. And if any greet you, do not answer him again. And lay my staff upon the face of the child. ³⁰And the mother of the child said, As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. And he arose and followed her.

³¹And Gě-hā'-zī passed on before them and laid the staff upon the face of the child. But there was neither voice nor hearing. Therefore he went again to meet him and told him, saying, The child has not awakened. ³²And when Elisha had come to the house, behold, the child was dead, and lay upon his bed. ³³He therefore went in and shut the door upon the two of them, and prayed unto the LORD. ³⁴And he went up and lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands. And he stretched himself upon the child. And the flesh of the child became warm. ³⁵Then he returned and walked in the house to and fro. And then he went up and stretched himself upon him. And the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes. ³⁶And he called Gě-hā'-zī and said, Call this Shû-nām'-mīte. So he called her. And when she had come in unto him, he said, Take up your son! ³⁷Then she went in and fell at his feet and bowed herself to the ground, and took up her son, and went out.

³⁸And Elisha came again to Gīl-gāl. And there was a drouth in the land. And the sons of the prophets were sitting before him. And he said to his servant, Set on the great pot and boil pottage for the sons of the prophets. ³⁹And one went out into the field to gather herbs. And he found a wild vine and gathered his lap full of wild gourds from it, and came and cut them up into the pot of pottage. For they did not know them. ⁴⁰So they poured out pottage for the men to eat. And as they were eating of the pottage, they cried out and said, O man of God, there is death in the pot! And they could not eat of it. ⁴¹But he said, Then bring meal. And he cast it into the pot. And he said, Pour out for the people, so that they may eat. And there was no evil thing in the pot.

⁴²And there came a man from Bā'-āl-shāl'-ī-shā, and brought the man of God bread from the first-fruits, twenty loaves of barley and full ears of grain in the husk of it. And he said, Give to the people that they may eat. ⁴³And his servant said, What? Should I set this before a hundred men? He said again, Give to the people so that they may eat — for thus says the LORD, They shall eat and shall leave some of it. ⁴⁴So he set it before them, and they did eat, and left some of it, according to the word of the LORD.

¹Now Nā'-ā-mān, captain of the army of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master. And he was in high favor because the LORD had given deliverance to Syria by him. He was also a mighty man, but he was a leper. ²And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought away a little maid as a captive out of the land of Israel. And she waited on Nā'-ā-mān's wife. ³And she said to her mistress, I wish my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! For he would recover him from his leprosy. ⁴And one went in and told his lord, saying, This and this said the maid who is from the land of Israel. ⁵And the king of Syria said, Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel. And he departed and took with him ten talents of silver and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of clothing. ⁶And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, Now when this letter has come to you, behold, I have sent Nā'-ā-mān my servant to you so that you may recover him of his leprosy. ⁷And when the king of Israel had read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man sends to me to recover a man from his leprosy? Therefore, I pray you, consider and see how he seeks a quarrel against me.

⁸And when Elisha the man of God had heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent to the king, saying, Why have you torn your clothes? Let him now come to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel. ⁹So Nā'-ā-mān came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha. ¹⁰And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, Go and wash in Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall come to you, and you shall be clean. ¹¹But Nā'-ā-mān was angry, and went away. And he said, Behold, I said within myself, He will surely come out to me and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, and strike his hand over the place and recover the leper. ¹²Are not Ab'-ā-nā and Phār'-pār, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? May I not wash in them, and be clean? So he turned and went away in a rage. ¹³And his servants came near and spoke to him and said, My father, if the prophet had told you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much rather then, when he says to you, Wash and be clean? ¹⁴Then he went down and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God. And his flesh came again like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.

¹⁵And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company. And he came and stood before him. And he said, Behold, now I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel. Now therefore I pray you, take a blessing from your servant. ¹⁶But he said, As the LORD lives, before whom I stand, I will receive none. And he urged him to take it, but he refused. ¹⁷And Nā'-ā-mān said, I pray you, shall there not then be given to your servant two mules' burden of earth? For your servant will from now on offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice unto other gods, but unto the LORD. ¹⁸In this thing may the LORD pardon your servant, that when my master was bowing in the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leaned upon my hand, and I bowed myself in the house of Rimmon — for my bowing down in the house of Rimmon, may the LORD pardon your servant in this thing. ¹⁹And he said to him, Go in peace. So he went away from him a little way.

²⁰But Gē-hā'-zī, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, Behold, my master has spared Nā'-ā-mān the Syrian, in not receiving at his hand that which he brought. But, as the LORD lives, I will run after him and take something from him. ²¹So Gē-hā'-zī followed after Nā'-ā-mān. And when Nā'-ā-mān saw him running after him, he lighted down from the chariot to meet him. And he said, Is all well? ²²And he said, All is well. My master has sent me, saying, Behold, even now there have come to me from Mount Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets. I pray you, give them a talent of silver and two changes of clothing. ²³And Nā'-ā-mān said, Be content, take two talents. And he urged him and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of clothing. And he laid them upon two of his servants. And they carried them before him. ²⁴And when he had come to the tower, he took them from their hand and stowed them in the house. And he let the men go, and they departed. ²⁵But he went in and stood before his master. And Elisha said to him, Where do you come from, Gě-hā'-zī? And he said, Your servant did not go anywhere. ²⁶And he said to him, Did not my heart go with you when the man turned again from his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to receive money and to receive clothing and olive-yards and vineyards and sheep and oxen and menservants and maidservants? ²⁷Therefore the leprosy of Nā'-ā-mān shall cling to you and to your seed forever. And he went out from his presence as a leper white as snow.

¹And the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, Behold now, the place where we live with you is too small for us. ²We pray you, let us go unto Jordan. And let each man take a beam from there. And let us make us a place there, where we may dwell. And he answered, Go. ³And one said, Be content, I pray you, and go with your servants. And he answered them, I will go. ⁴So he went with them. And when they came to Jordan, they cut down wood. ⁵But as one was felling a log, the axe-head fell into the water. And he cried and said, Alas, master! For it was borrowed. ⁶And the man of God said, Where did it fall? And he showed him the place. And he cut down a stick and threw it in there. And the iron swam. ⁷Then he said, take it up unto you. And he put out his hand and took it.

⁸Then the king of Syria warred against Israel, and took counsel with his servants, saying, In such and such a place shall be my camp. ⁹And the man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, Beware that you do not pass such a place—for the Syrians have come down there. ¹⁰And the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told him and warned him of, and saved himself there, not once nor twice. ¹¹Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was full of trouble for this thing. And he called his servants and said to them, Will you not show me which of us is for the king of Israel? ¹²And one of his servants said, None, my lord, O king — but Elisha the prophet, who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom. ¹³And he said, Go and spy where he is so that I may send and bring him. And it was told him, saying, Behold, he is in Dō'-thān. ¹⁴Therefore he sent there horses and chariots and a great army. And they came by night and surrounded the city. ¹⁵And when the servant of the man of God had risen early, and had gone forth, behold, an army surrounded the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant said to him, Alas my master! What shall we do? ¹⁶And he answered, Do not fear — for those who are with us are more than those who are with them. ¹⁷And Elisha prayed and said, I pray Thee, LORD, open his eyes so that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw. And behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha. ¹⁸And when they had come down to him, Elisha prayed to the LORD and said,

I pray Thee, strike this people with blindness. And He struck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.

¹⁹And Elisha said to them, This is not the way, neither is this the city. Follow me and I will bring you to the man whom you seek. But he led them to Samaria. ²⁰And when they had come into Samaria, it came to pass that Elisha said, LORD, open the eyes of these men so that they may see. And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw. And behold, they were in the middle of Samaria. ²¹And when he saw them, the king of Israel said to Elisha, My father, shall I strike them? Shall I strike them? ²²And he answered, You shall not strike them. Would you strike those whom you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? Set bread and water before them so that they may eat and drink, and go to their master. ²³And he prepared a great feast for them. And when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. So the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.

²⁴And after this Bēn-hā'-dād king of Syria gathered all his army and went up and lay siege to Samaria. ²⁵And there was a great famine in Samaria. And, behold, they besieged it until an ass's head was sold for eighty pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a cab of dove's dung for five pieces of silver. ²⁶And as the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, there cried a woman to him, saying, Help, my lord, O king! ²⁷And he said, if the LORD does not help you, from where shall I help you? Out of the barn-floor, or out of the wine-press? ²⁸And the king said to her, What ails you? And she said, This woman said to me, Give your son so that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow. ²⁹So we boiled my son and ate him. And I said to her on the other day, Give your son so that we may eat him. And she has hidden her son. ³⁰And when the king heard the words of the woman, he tore his clothes. And he passed by upon the wall, and the people looked, and, behold, he had sackcloth inside upon his flesh. ³¹Then he said, May God do so, and more also, to me, if the head of Elisha the son of Shā'-phāt shall stand on him this day. ³²But Elisha sat in his house, and the elders sat with him. And the king sent a man from before him. But before the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, Do you see how this son of a murderer has sent to take away my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door and hold him fast at the door — is not the sound of his master's feet behind him? ³³And while he still talked with them, behold, the messenger came down to him. And he said, Behold, this evil is from the LORD. Why should I wait for the LORD any longer?

¹Then Elisha said, Hear the word of the LORD! Thus says the LORD, Tomorrow about this time a measure of fine flour shall be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria. ²Then a lord upon whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God, and said, Behold, if the LORD would make windows in heaven, then this thing might be. And he said, Behold, you shall see it with your eyes, but you shall not eat of it.

³And there were four men who were lepers at the entering in of the gate. And they said to one another, Why do we sit here until we die? ⁴If we say, We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there. And if we still sit here, we also shall die. Now therefore come and let us fall to the army of the Syrians. If they save us alive, we shall live. And if they kill us, we shall only die. ⁵And they rose up in the twilight to go to the camp of the Syrians. And when they had come to the outermost part of the camp of Syria, behold, no man was there! ⁶For the LORD had made the army of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots and a noise of horses, the noise of a great army. And they said to one another, Lo, the king of Israel has hired the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Egyptians against us, to come upon us. ⁷Therefore they arose and fled in the twilight and left their tents and their horses and their asses, even the camp, as it was, and fled for their life. ⁸And when these lepers came to the outermost part of the camp, they went into one tent and ate and drank, and carried silver and gold and clothing from there, and went and hid it. And they came again and entered into another tent and carried from there, and went and hid it. ⁹Then they said to one another, We are not doing right. This day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace. If we stay until the morning light, some punishment will come upon us. Now therefore come, so that we may go and tell the king's household. ¹⁰So they came and called unto the porter of the city. And they told them, saying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but horses tied, and asses tied, and the tents as they were. ¹¹And he called the porters. And they told it to the king's house inside.

¹²And the king arose in the night and said to his servants, I will now show you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we are hungry. Therefore they have gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive and get into the city. ¹³And one of his servants answered and said, I pray you, let some take five of the horses which remain, which are left in the city (behold, they are like all the multitude of Israel that are left in it – behold, they are even as all the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed) and let us send and see. ¹⁴They therefore took two chariot horses. And the king sent after the army of the Syrians, saying, Go and see. ¹⁵And they went after them to Jordan. And, lo, all the way was full of clothing and vessels which the Syrians had thrown away in their haste. And the messengers returned and told the king. ¹⁶And the people went out and spoiled the tents of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD.

¹⁷And the king appointed the lord upon whose hand he leaned to have the charge of the gate. And the people trampled upon him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king came down to him. ¹⁸And the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel — it shall be tomorrow about this time in the gate of Samaria. ¹⁹And that lord answered the man of God and said, Now, behold, if the LORD should make windows in heaven, then such a thing might be. And he said, Behold, you shall see it with your eyes, but you shall not eat of it. ²⁰So it happened to him, for the people trampled upon him in the gate, and he died.

¹Then Elisha spoke to the woman whose son he had restored to life, saying, Arise and go, you and your household, and live wherever you can live. For the LORD has called for a famine. And it shall also come upon the land seven years. ²And the woman arose and did what the saying of the man of God was. And she went with her household, and lived in the land of the Philistines seven years. ³And at the end of seven years, the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines. And she went forth to cry to the king for her house and for her land. ⁴And the king talked with Gē-hā'-zī the servant of the man of God, saying, I pray you, tell me all the great things which Elisha has done. ⁵And as he was telling the king how he had restored a dead body to life, behold, the woman whose son he had restored to life cried to the king for the house and for her land. And Gē-hā'-zī said, My lord O king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life. ⁶And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed to her a certain officer saying, Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day when she left the land, even until now.

⁷And Elisha came to Damascus. And Bēn-hā'-dād the king of Syria was sick. And they told him, saying, The man of God has come here. ⁸And the king said unto Hā-zā'-ēl, Take a present in your hand and go to meet the man of God, and ask of the LORD by him, saying, Shall I recover of this disease. ⁹So Hā-zā'-ēl went to meet him and took a present with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden, and came and stood before him, and said, Your servant Bēn-hā'-dād, king of Syria, has sent me to you, saying, Shall I recover from this disease? ¹⁰And Elisha said to him, Go and say to him, You may certainly recover. However, the LORD has showed me that he shall surely die. ¹¹And he settled his face steadfastly until he was ashamed.

And the man of God wept. ¹²And Hā-zā'-ēl said, Why does my lord weep? And he answered, Because I know the evil that you will do to the children of Israel – you will set their strongholds on fire, and you will kill their young men with the sword, and will dash their children, and rip up their women with child. ¹³And Hā-zā'-ēl said, What, is your servant a dog, that he should do this great thing? And Elisha answered, The LORD has showed me that you shall be king over Syria. ¹⁴So he departed from Elisha and came to his master, who said to him, What did Elisha say to you? And he answered, He told me that you would surely recover. ¹⁵And on the next day he took a thick cloth and dipped it in water, and spread it upon his face so that he died. And Hā-zā'-ēl reigned in his stead.

¹⁶And in the fifth year of Jē-hôr'-ām the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt being then king of Judah, Jē-hôr'-ām the son of Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt king of Judah began to reign. ¹⁷He was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. ¹⁸And he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, as the house of Ahab did – for the daughter of Ahab was his wife. And he did evil in the sight of the LORD. ¹⁹Yet the LORD would not destroy Judah for David His servant's sake, as He promised him to give him always a light, and to his children.

²⁰In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves. ²¹So Jē-hôr'-ām went over to Zā'-īr, and all the chariots with him. And he rose by night and struck the Edomites who were all around him, and the captains of the chariots. And the people fled into their tents. ²²Yet Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. Then Līb'-nāh revolted at the same time. ²³And the rest of the acts of Jē-hôr'-ām, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ²⁴And Jē-hôr'-ām slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Ā-hā-zī'-āh his son reigned in his stead.

²⁵In the twelfth year of Jē-hôr'-ām the son of Ahab king of Israel Ā-hā-zī'-āh the son of Jē-hôr'-ām king of Judah began to reign. ²⁶Ā-hā-zī'-āh was twenty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Āth-ā-lī'-āh, the daughter of Omri king of Israel. ²⁷And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the LORD, as did the house of Ahab. ²⁸For he was the son-in-law of the house of Ahab. And he went with Jē-hôr'-ām the son of Ahab to the war against Hā-zā'-ēl king of Syria in Rā'-mōth of Gil'-ē-ād. And the Syrians wounded Jē-hôr'-ām. ²⁹And king Jē-hôr'-ām went back to be healed in Jēz'-rēel from the wounds which the Syrians had given him in Rā'-māh, when he fought against Hā-zā'-ēl king of Syria. And Ā-hā-zī'-āh the son of Jē-hôr'-ām king of Judah went down to see Jē-hôr'-ām the son of Ahab in Jēz'-rēel, because he was sick.

¹And Elisha the prophet called one of the children of the prophets, and said to him, Bind up your loins and take this box of oil in your hand, and go to Rā'-mōth in Gil'-ē-ād. ²And when you come there, find Jehu the son of Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt the son of Nīm'-shī, and go in and make him rise up from among his brothers, and take him to an inner room. ³Then take the box of oil and pour it upon his head, and say, Thus says the LORD, I have anointed you king over Israel. Then open the door, and flee, and do not stay.

⁴So the young man, even the young man the prophet, went to Rā'-mōth in Gil'-ē-ād. ⁵And when he came, behold, the captains of the army were sitting. And he said, I have an errand to you, O captain. And Jehu said, Unto which one of us all? And he said, To you, O captain. ⁶And he arose and went into the house. And he poured the oil upon his head and said unto him, Thus says the LORD God of Israel, I have anointed you king over the people of the LORD, over Israel. ⁷And you shall strike the house of Ahab your master, so that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD at the hand of Jēz'-ē-bēl. ⁸For the whole house of Ahab shall perish. And I will cut off from Ahab everyone that waters against the wall, and everyone that is shut up and left in Israel. ⁹And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Bā-āsh'-ā the son of Ā-hī'-jāh. ¹⁰And the dogs shall eat Jezebel in a part of Jēz'-rēel, and none shall be there to bury her. And he opened the door and fled.

¹¹Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord. And one said to him, Is all well? Why did this mad fellow come to you? And he said to them, You know the man and what he had to say. ¹²And they said, It is false. Tell us now! And he said, This and this he spoke to me, saying, Thus says the LORD, I have anointed you king over Israel. ¹³Then they hurried and each man took his garment and put it under him on the top of the stairs, and blew with trumpets, saying, Jehu is king. ¹⁴So Jehu the son of Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt the son of Nīm'-shī plotted against Jē-hōr'-ām. (Now Jē-hōr'-ām was watching Rā'-mōth in Gil'-ē-ād, he and all Israel, because of Hā-zā'-ēl king of Syria. ¹⁵But king Jē-hōr'-ām had returned to be healed in Jēz'-rēel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him when he fought with Hā-zā'-ēl the king of Syria.) And Jehu said, If it is your minds, then let no one go forth nor escape out of the city to go to tell it in Jēz'-rēel. ¹⁶So Jehu rode in the chariot and went to Jēz'-rēel. For Jē-hōr'-ām lay there. And Ā-hā-zī'-āh king of Judah had come down to see Jē-hōr'-ām.

¹⁷And there stood a watchman on the tower in Jēz'-rēel. And he saw the company of Jehu as he came, and said, I see a company. And Jē-hòr'-ām said, Take a horseman and send to meet them, and let him say, Is it peace? ¹⁸So there went one on horseback to meet him and said, Thus says the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said, What do you have to do with peace? Turn behind me! And the watchman reported, saying, The messenger came to them, but he does not come again. ¹⁹Then he sent out a second man on horseback, who came to them and said, Thus says the king, Is it peace? And he answered, What do you have to do with peace? Turn behind me! ²⁰And the watchman reported, saying, He came up to them, but does not come again. And the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nīm'-shī, for he drives furiously.

²⁷But when Ā-hā-zī'-āh the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden-house. And Jehu followed after him and said, Strike him also in the chariot! And they did so at the going up to Gur, which is by Īb'-lē-ām. And he fled to Mē-gīd'-dō, and died there. ²⁸And his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the city of David. ²⁹And in the eleventh year of Jē-hòr'-ām the son of Ahab, Ā-hā-zī'-āh began to reign over Judah.

³⁰And when Jehu had come to Jēz'-rēel, Jezebel heard. And she painted her face and adorned her head, and looked out at a window. ³¹And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, Did Zīm'-rī, who slew his master, have peace? ³²And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? Who? And two or three eū'-nūchs looked out at him. ³³And he said, Throw her down! So they threw her down. And some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall and on the horses. And he trampled her under foot. ³⁴And when he had come in, he ate and drank, and said, Go, now see this cursed woman and bury her. For she is a king's daughter. ³⁵And they went to bury her, but they found no more of her than the skull and the feet and the palms of her hands. ³⁶Therefore they came again and told him. And he said, This is the word of the LORD which He spoke by His servant Elijah the Tish'-bīte, saying, In the portion of Jēz'-rēel the dogs shall eat the flesh of Jezebel. ³⁷And the dead body of Jezebel shall be as dung upon the face of the field in the portion of Jēz'-rēel — so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel.

¹And Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria to the rulers of Jēz'-rēel, to the elders, and to those who brought up Ahab's children, saying, ²Now as soon as this letter comes to you, since your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, also a fenced city and armor, ³even look for the best and fittest of your master's sons, and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house. ⁴But they were exceedingly afraid and said, Behold, two kings did not stand before him — how then shall we stand? ⁵And he who was over the house, and he who was over the city, the elders also, and the guardians, sent to Jehu saying, We are your servants and will do all that you shall bid us — we will not make any king. Do what is good in your eyes. ⁶Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, If you are mine, and if you will listen to my voice, take the heads of the men who are your master's sons, and come to me to Jēz'-rēel by this time tomorrow. Now the king's sons, seventy persons, were with the great men of the city who brought them up. ⁷And when the letter came to them, they took the king's sons and killed them, seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets and sent them to him in Jēz'-rēel.

⁸And there came a messenger and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Lay them in two heaps at the entering in of the gate until the morning. ⁹And in the morning it came to pass that he went out and stood, and said to all the people, You are righteous. Behold, I plotted against my master and killed him. But who killed all these? ¹⁰Now know that there shall fall to the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spoke concerning the house of Ahab. For the LORD has done that which He spoke by His servant Elijah. ¹¹So Jehu killed all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jēz'-rēel, and all his great men, and his familiar friends, and his priests, until he left him none remaining.

¹²And he arose and departed, and came to Samaria. As he was at the shearing-house in the way, ¹³Jehu met with the brothers of Ā-hā-zī'-āh king of Judah, and said, Who are you? And they answered, We are the brothers of Ā-hā-zī'-āh. And we go down to greet the children of the king and the children of the queen. ¹⁴And he said, Take them alive! And they took them alive and killed them at the pit of the shearinghouse, forty-two men. Neither did he leave any of them. ¹⁵And when he had departed from there, he found Jē-hōn'-ā-dāb the son of Rē'-chāb coming to meet him. And he greeted him and said to him, Is your heart right, as my heart is with your heart? And Jē-hōn'-ā-dāb answered, It is. If it is so, give me your hand. And he gave him his hand. And he took him up to him into the chariot. ¹⁶And he said, Come with me and see my zeal for the LORD. So they made him ride in his chariot. ¹⁷And when he came to Samaria, he killed all that remained to Ahab in Samaria, until he had destroyed him, according to the saying of the LORD which he spoke to Elijah.

¹⁸And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said to them, Ahab served Baal a little, but Jehu shall serve him much. ¹⁹Now therefore call to me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants and all his priests. Let no one be lacking. For I have a great sacrifice to do to Baal. Whoever shall be lacking, he shall not live. But Jehu did it in subtlety, to the end that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal. ²⁰And Jehu said, Call a solemn feast for Baal. And they called it. ²¹And Jehu sent through all Israel. And all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left who did not come. And they came into the house of Baal. And the house of Baal was full from one end to another. ²²And he said to him who was over the robe-room, Bring out robes for all the worshippers of Baal. And he brought them out. ²³And Jehu went, and Jē-hōn'-ā-dāb the son of Rē'-chāb, into the house of Baal. And he said to the worshippers of Baal, Search and look, that there may not be here with you any of the servants of the LORD, but only the worshippers of Baal. ²⁴And when they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings, Jehu appointed eighty men outside, and said, If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escapes, his life shall be for the life of him. ²⁵And as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, Go in and kill them! Do not let any come out! And they struck them with the edge of the sword. And the guard and the captains threw them out. And they went to the city, to the house of Baal. ²⁶And they brought forth the images out of the house of Baal and burned them. ²⁷And they broke down the image of Baal, and broke down the house of Baal and made it a sewer-house until this day. ²⁸So Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

²⁹However Jehu did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, going after them, the golden calves which were in Bethel and in Dan. ³⁰And the LORD said to him, Jehu, because you have done well in doing what is right in My eyes, and have done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in My heart, your children of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel. ³¹But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart, for he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam, who made Israel to sin.

³²In those days the LORD began to cut Israel short. And Hā-zā'-ēl struck them in all the coasts of Israel, ³³from Jordan toward the rising of the sun, all the land of Gilead, the men of Gad and of Reuben and of Mā-nās'-sēh, from Ā-rō'-ēr, which is by the river Arnon, even Gilead and Bā'-shān. ³⁴Now the rest of the acts of Jehu and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ³⁵And Jehu slept with his fathers. And they buried him in Samaria. And Jē-hō'-ā-hāz his son reigned in his stead. ³⁶And the time that Jehu reigned over Israel and Samaria was twenty-eight years.

⁴And the seventh year Jē-hoi'-ā-dā sent and brought the rulers over hundreds, with the captains and the guards, and brought them to him into the house of the LORD. And he made a covenant with them and took an oath from them in the house of the LORD, and showed them the king's son. ⁵And he commanded them, saying, This is the thing that you shall do. A third part of you who enter in on the sabbath shall be keepers of the watch of the king's house. ⁶And a third part shall be at the gate of Sur. And a third part shall be at the gate behind the guard. So you shall keep the watch of the house, so that it may not be broken down. ⁷And two parts of you who go forth on the sabbath, even they shall keep the watch of the house of the LORD around the king. ⁸And you shall surround the king, every man with his weapons in his hand. And he who comes inside the ranks, let him be killed. And you be with the king as he goes out and as he comes in.

⁹And the captains over the hundreds did according to all that Jē-hoi'-ā-dā the priest commanded. And each one of them took his man that was to come in on the sabbath with them that should go out on the sabbath, and came to Jē-hoi'-ā-dā the priest. ¹⁰And the priest gave king David's spears and shields, which were in the temple of the LORD, to the captains over hundreds. ¹¹And the guard stood, each man with his weapons in his hand, around the king, from the right corner of the temple to the left corner of the temple, by the altar and the temple. ¹²And he brought forth the king's son, and put the crown upon him. And he gave him the testimony. And they made him king and anointed him. And they clapped their hands and said, Let the king live! ¹³And when Āth-ā-lī'-āh heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people into the temple of the LORD. ¹⁴And when she looked, behold, the king stood by a pillar as usually was done, and the princes and the trumpeters were by the king. And all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew with trumpets. And Āth-ā-lī'-āh tore her clothes, and cried, Treason! Treason! ¹⁵But Jē-hoi'-ā-dā the priest commanded the captains of the hundreds, the officers of the army, and said to them, Take her out between the ranks, and let the one who follows her kill her with the sword. For the priest had said, Let her not be slain in the house of the LORD. ¹⁶And they laid hands on her, and she went by the way which the horses came into the king's house. And she was killed there.

¹⁷And Jē-hoi'-ā-dā made a covenant between the LORD and the king and the people, that they should be the LORD's people — also between the king and the people. ¹⁸And all the people of the land went into the house of Baal and broke it down. They broke his altars and his images completely in pieces. And they killed Māt'-tān the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed officers over the house of the LORD. ¹⁹And he took the rulers over hundreds, and the captains, and the guard, and all the people of the land. And they brought the king down from the house of the LORD and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the king's house. ²⁰And he sat on the throne of the kings. And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. And they killed Āth-ā-lī'-āh with the sword beside the king's house. ²¹Joash was seven years old when he began to reign.

¹And in the seventh year of Jehu, Joash began to reign. And he reigned in Jerusalem forty years. And his mother's name was Zī'-bī-āh of Bēer-shē'-bā. ²And Joash did that which was right in the sight of the LORD all his days in which Jē-hoi'-ā-dā the priest instructed him. ³But the high places were not taken away. The people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places.

⁴And Joash said to the priests, All the money from the things given unto God, which is brought into the house of the LORD, the money from everyone who passes, the money from the persons for whom each man is taxed, and all the money that comes into any man's heart to bring to the house of the LORD — ⁵let the priests take it to themselves, each man from those he knows. And let them repair the breaks in the house, wherever any break shall be found. ⁶But it happened in the twenty-third year of king Joash, the priests had not repaired the breaks of the house. ⁷Then king Joash called for Jē-hoi'-ā-dā the priest, and the other priests, and said to them, Why are you not repairing the breaks of the house? Now therefore take no money from those you know, but deliver it for the breaks of the house. ⁸And the priests agreed to take no money from the people, neither to repair the breaks of the house. ⁹But Jē-hoi'-ā-dā the priest took a chest and bored a hole in the lid of it. And he set it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into the house of the LORD. And the priests who kept the door put in it all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD. ¹⁰And when they saw that there was much money in the chest, it happened that the king's scribe and the high priest came up. And they put it up in bags, and counted the money that was found in the house of the LORD. ¹¹And they gave the money which was counted into the hands of those who did the work, who had the oversight of the house of the LORD. They laid it out to the carpenters and builders who worked upon the house of the LORD, ¹²and to masons and cutters of stone, and to buy timber and cut stone to repair the breaks of the house of the LORD, and for all that went forth for the house, to repair it.

¹³However there were no bowls of silver, snuffers, basins, trumpets, or any vessels of gold or vessels of silver, made for the house of the LORD from the money which was brought into the house of the LORD. ¹⁴But they gave that to the workmen, and repaired the house of the LORD with it. ¹⁵Moreover, they did not make an accounting with the men into whose hands they delivered the money to be given to the workmen. For they dealt faithfully. ¹⁶The trespass money and sin money was not brought into the house of the LORD. It was the priests'.

¹⁹And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ²⁰And his servants arose and made a plot. And they killed Joash in the house of Mīl'-lō, which goes down to Sil'-lā. ²¹For Jō'-zā-chār the son of Shīm'-ē-āth, and Jē-hō'-zā-bād the son of Shō'-mēr, his servants, struck him, and he died. And they buried him with his fathers in the city of David. And Ām-ā-zī'-āh his son reigned in his stead.

¹In the twenty-third year of Joash the son of Ā-hā-zī'-āh king of Judah, Jē-hō'-ā-hāz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned seventeen years. ²And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. And he did not depart from them.

³And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and He delivered them into the hand of Hā-zā'-ēl king of Syria, and into the hand of Bēn-hā'-dād the son of Hā-zā'-ēl, all their days. ⁴And Jē-hō'-ā-hāz sought the LORD, and the LORD listened to him. For He saw the oppression of Israel, because the king of Syria oppressed them. ⁵And the LORD gave Israel a deliverer, so that they went out from under the Syrians. And the children of Israel lived in their tents, as before. ⁶Nevertheless they did not depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who made Israel to sin, but walked in them. And also the grove in Samaria stood. ⁷For He had not left a people remaining to Jē-hō'-ā-hāz, but only fifty horsemen and ten chariots and ten thousand footmen — for the king of Syria had destroyed them and had made them like the dust at threshing-time.

⁸Now the rest of the acts of Jē-hō'-ā-hāz, and all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ⁹And Jē-hō'-ā-hāz slept with his fathers. And they buried him in Samaria. And Jē-hō'-āsh his son reigned in his stead.

¹⁰In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jē-hō'-āsh the son of Jē-hō'-ā-hāz began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixteen years. ¹¹And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. He did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, but he walked in them. ¹²And the rest of the acts of Jē-hō'-āsh, and all that he did, and his might which he fought against Ām-ā-zī'-āh king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ¹³And Jē-hō'-āsh slept with his fathers, and Jeroboam sat upon his throne. And Jē-hō'-āsh was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

¹⁴Now Elisha had fallen sick of his sickness of which he was about to die. And Jē-hō'-āsh the king of Israel came down to him and wept over his face. And he said, O my father, my father, the chariot of Israel and the horsemen of it! ¹⁵And Elisha said to him, Take bow and arrows. ¹⁶And he took bow and arrows to himself. And he said to the king of Israel, Put your hand upon the bow. And he put his hand upon it. And Elisha put his hands upon the king's hands. ¹⁷And he said, Open the window eastward. And he opened it. Then Elisha said, Shoot! And he shot. And he said, The arrow of the LORD's deliverance, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria. For you shall strike the Syrians in Ā-phēk until you have crushed them. ¹⁸And he said, Take the arrows. And he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, Strike upon the ground. And he struck three times and stopped. ¹⁹And the man of God was angry with him, and said, You should have stricken five or six times, then you would have stricken Syria until you had crushed it. But now you shall strike Syria only three times.

²⁰And Elisha died, and they buried him. And the bands of the Moabites invaded the land at first of the year. ²¹And as they were burying a man, it came to pass that, behold, they spied a band. And they threw the man into the grave of Elisha. And when the man went down and touched the bones of Elisha, he revived and stood up on his feet.

²²But Hā-zā'-ēl crushed Israel all the days of Jē-hō'-ā-hāz. ²³And the LORD was gracious to them, and had pity on them, and had respect to them, because of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. And He would not destroy them, neither did He cast them from His presence as yet. ²⁴So Hā-zā'-ēl king of Syria died. And his son Bēn-hā'-dād reigned in his stead. ²⁵And Jē-hō'-āsh the son of Jē-hō'-ā-hāz returned and took out of the hand of Bēn-hā'-dād the son of Hā-zā'-ēl the cities which he had taken out of the hand of Jē-hō'-ā-hāz his father by war. Jē-hō'-āsh beat him three times and recovered the cities of Israel.

⁵And as soon as the kingdom was confirmed in his hand, it came to pass that he killed his servants who had slain his father the king. ⁶But he did not kill the children of the servants — according to that which is written in the book of the law of Moses, in which the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor shall the children be put to death for the fathers, but every man shall be put to death for his own sin. ⁷He killed ten thousand of Edom in the valley of salt, and took Sē'-lāh by war, and called the name of it Jōk'-thēel until this day.

⁸Then Ām-ā-zī'-āh sent messengers to Jē-hō'-āsh the son of Jē-hō'-ā-hāz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in the face. ⁹And Jē-hō'-āsh the king of Israel sent to Ām-ā-zī'-āh king of Judah, saying, The thistle which was in Lēb'-ā-non sent to the cedar which was in Lēb'-ā-non, saying, Give your daughter to my son for a wife. And there passed by a wild beast which was in Lēb'-ā-non, and trampled the thistle down. ¹⁰You have indeed stricken Edom, and your heart has lifted you up. Rejoice and stay at home — for why should you meddle to your harm, so that you should fall, you and Judah with you?

¹¹But Ām-ā-zī'-āh would not hear. Therefore Jē-hō'-āsh king of Israel went up. And he and Ām-ā-zī'-āh king of Judah looked one another in the face at Bēth-shē'-mēsh, which belongs to Judah. ¹²And Judah was put to the worse before Israel. And every man fled to his tent. ¹³And Jē-hō'-āsh king of Israel took Ām-ā-zī'-āh king of Judah, the son of Joash the son of Ā-hā-zī'-āh, at Bēth-shē'-mēsh, and he came to Jerusalem and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits. ¹⁴And he took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels which were found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

¹⁵Now the rest of the acts of Jē-hō'-āsh which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Ām-ā-zī'-āh king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ¹⁶And Jē-hō'-āsh slept with his fathers and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. And Jeroboam his son reigned in his stead.

²¹And all the people of Judah took Ūz-zī'-āh, who was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Ām-ā-zī'-āh. ²²He built Ē'-lāth, and restored it to Judah, after the king slept with his fathers.

²³In the fifteenth year of Ām-ā-zī'-āh the son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Jē-hō'-āsh king of Israel began to reign in Samaria. And he reigned forty-one years. ²⁴And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. He did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat who made Israel to sin. ²⁵He restored the coast of Israel from the entering of Hā'-māth to the sea of the plain, according to the word of the LORD God of Israel which He spoke by the hand of his servant Jonah, the son of Ā-mīt'-taī, the prophet, who was from Gāth-hē'-phēr. ²⁶For the LORD saw that the affliction of Israel was very bitter. For there was not any shut up, nor any left, nor any helper for Israel. ²⁷And the LORD did not say that He would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven, but He saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Jē-hō'-āsh. ²⁸Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his might, how he warred, and how he recovered Damascus and Hā'-māth, which belonged to Judah, for Israel, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ²⁹And Jeroboam slept with his fathers, with the kings of Israel. And his son Zäch-ä-rī-äh reigned in his stead.

¹In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Ūz-zī-äh son of Ām-ä-zī-äh king of Judah began to reign. ²He was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jēch-ō-lī-äh of Jerusalem. ³And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Ām-ä-zī-äh had done — ⁴except that the high places were not removed. The people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

⁵And the LORD struck the king, so that he was a leper until the day of his death, and lived in a separate house. And the king's son, Jō'-thām, was over the house, judging the people of the land. ⁶And the rest of the acts of Ūz-zī-äh, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ⁷So Ūz-zī-äh slept with his fathers. And they buried him with his fathers in the city of David. And his son Jō'-thām reigned in his stead.

⁸In the thirty-eighth year of Ūz-zī-äh king of Judah, Zäch-ä-rī-äh the son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in Samaria, six months. ⁹And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done. He did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. ¹⁰And Shāl'-lūm the son of Jā'-bēsh plotted against him. And he struck him before the people, and killed him, and reigned in his stead. ¹¹And the rest of the acts of Zäch-ä-rī-äh, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. ¹²This was the word of the LORD which He spoke to Jehu, saying, Your sons shall sit on the throne of Israel until the fourth generation. And so it came to pass.

¹³Shāl'-lūm the son of Jā'-bēsh began to reign in the thirty-ninth year of Ūz-zī-äh king of Judah. And he reigned in Samaria only one month. ¹⁴For Mēn'-ä-hēm the son of Gā'-dī went up from Tīr'-zäh, and came to Samaria and struck Shāl'-lūm the son of Jā'-bēsh in Samaria. And he killed him and reigned in his stead. ¹⁵And the rest of the acts of Shāl'-lūm, and the plot which he made, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

¹⁶Then Mēn'-ä-hēm struck Tīph'-säh, and all that were in it, and the borders of it from Tīr'-zäh. Because they did not open to him, therefore he struck it. He ripped up in it all the women who were with child. ¹⁷In the thirty-ninth year of Āz-ä-rī-äh king of Judah, Mēn'-ä-hēm the son of Gā'-dī began to reign over Israel. And he reigned ten years in Samaria. ¹⁸And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. He did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, all his days. ¹⁹And Pul the king of Ās-syr'-ī-ā came against the land. And Mēn'-ā-hēm gave Pul a thousand talents of silver so that his hand might be with him to confirm the kingdom in his hand. ²⁰And Mēn'-ā-hēm exacted the money from Israel, from all the mighty men of wealth (fifty shekels of silver from each man) to give to the king of Ās-syr'-ī-ā. So the king of Ās-syr'-ī-ā turned back and did not stay there in the land.

²¹And the rest of the acts of Mēn'-ā-hēm, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ²²And Mēn'-ā-hēm slept with his fathers. And Pēk-ā-hī'-āh his son reigned in his stead.

²³In the fiftieth year of Ūz-zī'-āh king of Judah, Pēk-ā-hī'-āh the son of Mēn'-ā-hēm began to reign over Israel in Samaria. And he reigned two years. ²⁴And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. He did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. ²⁵But Pē'-kāh the son of Rēm-ā-lī'-āh, a captain of his, conspired against him and struck him in Samaria, in the palace of the king's house, with Ār'-gōb and Ār'-ī-ēh, and fifty men from Gilead with him. And he killed him and reigned in his stead. ²⁶And the rest of the acts of Pēk-ā-hī'-āh, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

²⁷In the fifty-second year of Ūz-zī'-āh king of Judah, Pē'-kāh the son of Rēm-ā-lī'-āh began to reign over Israel in Samaria. And he reigned twenty years. ²⁸And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. He did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. ²⁹In the days of Pē'-kāh king of Israel, Tig'-lāth-pī-lē'-šēr king of Ās-syr'-ī-ā came and took Ī'-jōn, and Ā'-bēl-bēth-mā'-ā-chāh, and Jā-nō'-āh, and Kē'-dēsh, and Hā'-zōr, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Nāph'-tā-li. And he carried them away captive to Assyria. ³⁰And Hō-shē'-ā the son of Ē'-lāh made a plot against Pē'-kāh the son of Rēm-ā-lī'-āh. And he struck him and killed him and reigned in his stead, in the twentieth year of Jō'-thām the son of Ūz-zī'-āh. ³¹And the rest of the acts of Pē'-kāh (and all that he did, behold, they are written in the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

³²In the second year of Pē'-kāh the son of Rēm-ā-lī'-āh king of Israel, Jō'-thām the son of Ūz-zī'-āh, king of Judah, began to reign. ³³He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jē-rû'-shā, the daughter of Zā'-dōk. ³⁴And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD. He did according to all that his father Ūz-zī'-āh had done.

³⁵However the high places were not removed. The people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. He built the higher gate of the house of the LORD. ³⁶Now the rest of the acts of Jō'-thām, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ³⁷In those days the LORD began to send Rē'-zīn the king of Syria against Judah, and also Pē'-kāh the son of Rēm-ā-lī'-āh. ³⁸And Jō'-thām slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father. And his son Ahaz reigned in his stead.

¹In the seventeenth year of Pē'-kāh the son of Rēm-ā-lī'-āh, Ahaz the son of Jō'-thām king of Judah began to reign. ²Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And he did not do that which was right in the sight of the LORD his God, like David his father. ³But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel. Yes, and he made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel. ⁴And he sacrificed and burned incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

⁵Then Rē'-zīn king of Syria and Pē'-kāh son of Rēm-ā-lī'-āh king of Israel came up to Jerusalem for war. And they besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome him. ⁶At that time Rē'-zīn king of Syria recovered Ē'-lāth to Syria, and drove the Jews from Ē'-lāth. And the Syrians came to Ē'-lāth and lived there until this day. ⁷So Ahaz sent messengers to Tīg'-lāth-pī-lē'-šēr king of Ās-syr'-ī-ā, saying, I am your servant and your son. Come up and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, who rise up against me. ⁸And Ahaz took the silver and gold which was found in the house of the LORD and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent a present to the king of Ās-syr'-ī-ā. ⁹And the king of Assyria listened to him, for the king of Assyria went up against Damascus and took it. And he carried it away captive to Kīr, and killed Rē'-zīn.

¹⁰And king Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tīg'-lāth-pī-lē'-šēr king of Assyria. And he saw an altar which was at Damascus. And king Ahaz sent to Ū-rī'-jāh the priest the pattern of the altar, and the form of it, according to all the workmanship of it. ¹¹And Ū-rī'-jāh the priest built an altar according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus. So Ū-rī'-jāh the priest made it for the time when king Ahaz came from Damascus. ¹²And when the king had come from Damascus, the king saw the altar. And the king approached to the altar and offered on it. ¹³And he burned his burnt offering and his meal offering, and poured his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings, upon the altar. ¹⁴And he also brought the brass altar which was before the LORD, from the forefront of the house, from between the altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of the altar. ¹⁵And king Ahaz commanded Ū-rī'-jāh the priest, saying, Upon the great altar burn the morning offering and the evening meal offering, and the king's burnt sacrifice and his meal offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meal offerings, and their drink offerings. And sprinkle all the blood of the burnt offerings upon it, and all the blood of the sacrifice. And the brass altar shall be for me to inquire by. ¹⁶So Ū-rī'-jäh the priest did, according to all that king Ahaz commanded.

¹⁷And king Ahaz cut off the borders of the bases, and removed the laver from off them. And he took down the sea from off the brass oxen which were under it, and put it upon a pavement of stones. ¹⁸And the covered way for the sabbath which they had built in the house, and the king's entry outside, he turned from the house of the LORD for the king of Assyria. ¹⁹Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ²⁰And Ahaz slept with his fathers in the city of David. And his son Hëz-ë-kī'-äh reigned in his stead.

¹In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah Hō-shë'-ä the son of Ē'-läh began to reign over Israel in Samaria. And he reigned nine years. ²And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, but not like the kings of Israel who were before him.

⁶In the ninth year of Hō-shë'-ä, the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away into Assyria. And he placed them in Hā'-läh and in Hā'-bôr by the river of Gō'-zän, and in the cities of the Mëdës. ⁷And so it was, that the children of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods, ⁸and walked in the statutes of the heathen whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which the heathen had made. ⁹And the children of Israel secretly did things that were not right against the LORD their God. And they built high places in all their cities for themselves, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city. ¹⁰And they set up images and groves for themselves in every high hill, and under every green tree. ¹¹And they burned incense in all the high places, as the heathen whom the LORD carried away from before them had done. And they worked wicked things to provoke the LORD to anger. ¹²For they served idols, of which the LORD had said to them, You shall not do this thing.

¹³Yet the LORD testified against Israel, and against Judah, by all the prophets and all the seers, saying, Turn from your evil ways and keep My commandments, and My statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by My servants the prophets. ¹⁴But they would not hear, but hardened their necks, like the neck of their fathers who did not believe in the LORD their God. ¹⁵And they rejected His statutes and His covenant which He made with their fathers, and His testimonies which He testified against them. And they followed vanity and became vain. And they went after the heathen who were round about them, concerning whom the LORD had charged them that they should not do like them. ¹⁶And they left all the commandments of the LORD their God, and made molten images, two calves, for themselves. And they made a grove and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal. ¹⁷And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire. And they used fortune-telling and enchantments, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.

¹⁸Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of His sight. There was none left but the tribe of Judah only. ¹⁹Also Judah did not keep the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes which Israel made. ²⁰And the LORD turned away from all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until He had cast them out of His sight. ²¹For He tore Israel from the house of David. And they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king. And Jeroboam drove Israel away from following the LORD, and made them sin a great sin. ²²For the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did. They did not depart from them ²³until the LORD removed Israel out of His sight, as He had said by all His servants the prophets. So Israel was carried away out of their own land to Assyria until this day.

²⁴And the king of Assyria brought men from Bāb'-y-lōn, and from Cū'-thāh, and from Ā'-vā, and from Hā'-māth, and from Sē-phār-vā'-īm, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel. And they possessed Samaria and lived in the cities of it. ²⁵And so it was at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they did not fear the LORD. Therefore the LORD sent lions among them, who killed them. ²⁶Therefore they spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which you have removed and placed in the cities of Samaria do not know the manner of the God of the land. Therefore He has sent lions among them, and, behold, they kill them because they do not know the way of the God of the land. ²⁷Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry there one of the priests whom you brought from there. And let them go and live there, and let him teach them the way of the God of the land. ²⁸Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and lived in Bethel. And he taught them how they should fear the LORD.

²⁹However, every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities in which they lived. ³⁰And the men of Babylon made Sūc'-cōth-bē'-nōth, and the men of Cūth made Nēr'-gāl, and the men of Hā'-māth made Ā-shī'-mā, ³¹and the Ā'-vītes made Nīb'-hāz and Tartak, and the Sē-phār'-vītes burned their children in fire to Ā-drām'-mē-lēch and Ā-nām'-mē-lēch, the gods of Sē-phār'-vā'-īm. ³²So they feared the LORD, and made unto themselves, of the lowest of them, priests of the high places, who sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places. ³³They feared the LORD and served their own gods, according to the custom of the nations whom they carried away from there.

³⁴Until this day they do according to their former ways. They do not fear the LORD, neither do they follow after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, whom He named Israel— ³⁵with whom the LORD had made a covenant and charged them, saying, You shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them. ³⁶But the LORD, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and a stretched-out arm, you shall fear Him, and you shall worship Him, and you shall do sacrifice to Him. ³⁷And the statutes, and the ordinances, and the law, and the commandment, which He wrote for you, you shall be careful to do forever. And you shall not fear other gods. ³⁸And the covenant that I have made with you, you shall not forget. Neither shall you fear other gods. ³⁹But you shall fear the LORD your God. And He shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies. ⁴⁰However, they did not listen, but they followed after their former way. ⁴¹So these nations feared the LORD and served their graven images, both their children and their children's children. As their fathers did, so they do until this day.

¹Now in the third year of Hō-shē'-ā son of Ē'-lāh king of Israel, Hēz-ē-kī'-āh the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign. ²He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abi, the daughter of Zāch-ā-rī'-āh. ³And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father did. ⁴He removed the high places, and broke the images, and cut down the groves. And he broke in pieces the brass serpent which Moses had made— for until those days the children of Israel burned incense to it. And he called it Nē-hūsh'-tān. ⁵He trusted in the LORD God of Israel, so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any who were before him. ⁶For he clung to the LORD, and did not depart from following Him, but kept His commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses. ⁷And the LORD was with him. He was blessed wherever he went. And he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and did not serve him. ⁸He struck the Philistines to Gá'-zâ, and the borders of it, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

¹⁷And the king of Assyria sent Tartan and Râb'-sâ-rîs and Râb'-shâ-kêh from Lâ'-chîsh to king Hezekiah with a great army against Jerusalem. And they went up and came to Jerusalem. And when they had come up, they came and stood by the water pipe of the upper pool, which is in the highway of the Fuller's Field. ¹⁸And when they had called to the king, there came out to them Ê-lî'-â-kîm the son of Hîl-kî'-âh, who was over the household, and Shêb'-nâ the scribe, and Jô'-âh the son of Ā'-sâph the recorder. ¹⁹And Râb'-shâ-kêh said to them, Speak now to Hezekiah, Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria, What hope is this in which you trust? ²⁰Do you say that a mere word of the lips is wisdom and strength for the war? Now on whom do you trust that you rebel against me? ²¹Now, behold, you trust upon the staff of this bruised reed, upon Egypt, on which if a man leans, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust on him. ²²But if you say to me, We trust in Jehovah our God — is He not the one whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and Jerusalem, You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem? ²³Now therefore, I pray you, give pledges to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will deliver two thousand horses to you if you are able on your part to set riders upon them. ²⁴How then will you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust in Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? ²⁵Have I now come up against this place to destroy it without Jehovah? Jehovah said to me, Go up against this land and destroy it.

²⁶Then Ē-lī'-ā-kīm the son of Hil-kī'-āh, and Shēb'-nā, and Jō'-āh, said to Rāb'-shā-kēh, I pray you, Speak to your servants in the Syrian language, for we understand. And do not talk with us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people who are on the wall. ²⁷But Rāb'-shā-kēh said to them, Has my master sent me to your master and to you, to speak these words? Has he not sent me to the men who sit on the wall, so that they may eat their own dung and drink the water of their feet with you?

²⁸Then Rāb'-shā-kēh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language. And he spoke, saying, Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria — ²⁹thus says the king, Do not let Hezekiah fool you. For he shall not be able to deliver you out of his hand. ³⁰Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in Jehovah, saying, Jehovah will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be delivered into the hands of the king of Assyria. ³¹Do not listen to Hezekiah. For thus says the king of Assyria, Seek my favor by a present, and come out to me, and every man of you shall eat of his vine, and everyone from his own fig-tree, and everyone shall drink the waters of his own cistern — ³²until I come and take you away to a land like your own, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive oil and of honey, so that you may live and not die. And do not listen to Hezekiah when he deceives you, saying, Jehovah will deliver us. ³³Has any of the gods of the nations at all delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? ³⁴Where are the gods of Hā'-māth and of Ār'-pād? Where are the gods of Sē-phār-vā'-im, Hē'-nā, and I'-vāh? Have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? ³⁵Who are they among all the gods of the countries, who have delivered their country out of my hand, that Jehovah should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand? ³⁶But the people held their peace and did not answer him a word. For the king's commandment was, saying, Do not answer him. ³⁷Then Ē-lī'-ā-kīm the son of Hil-kī'-āh, who was over the household, and Shēb'-nā the scribe, and Jō'-āh the son of Ā'-sāph the recorder, came to Hēz-ē-kī'-āh with their clothes torn. And they told him the words of Rāb'-shā-kēh.

¹And when king Hezekiah heard, he tore his clothes and covered himself with sackcloth. And he went into the house of the LORD.

⁶And Ī-sā'-iāh said to them, So you shall say to your master, Thus says the LORD, Do not be afraid of the words which you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me. ⁷Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumor and shall return to his own land. And I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

⁸So Rāb'-shā-kēh returned. And he found the king of Assyria warring against Līb'-nāh — for he had heard that he had departed from Lā'-chīsh. ⁹And when he heard it said of Tīr-hā'-kāh king of Ē-thī-ō'-pī-ā, Behold, he has come out to fight against you, he sent messengers again to Hezekiah, saying, ¹⁰So you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. ¹¹Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by completely destroying them. And shall you be delivered? ¹²Have the gods of the nations delivered them, nations which my fathers have destroyed — Gō'-zān, and Hār'-ān, and Rē'-zēph, and the children of Eden who were in Thēl'-ā-sār? ¹³Where is the king of Hā'-māth, and the king of Ār'-pād, and the king of the city of Sē-phār-vā'-īm, of Hē'-nā, and of Ī'-vāh?

¹⁴And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it. And Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. ¹⁵And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD and said, O LORD God of Israel, who lives between the chēr'-ū-bīm, Thou art the God, Thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. Thou hast made heaven and earth. ¹⁶LORD, bow down Thy ear and hear. O LORD, open Thy eyes and see, and hear the words of Sēn-nāch'-ēr-īb, who has sent him to taunt the living God. ¹⁷Truly, LORD, the kings of Assyria have destroyed the nations and their lands, ¹⁸and have thrown their gods into the fire — for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone. Therefore they have destroyed them. ¹⁹Now therefore, O LORD our God, I beseech Thee, save us out of his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that Thou art the LORD God, and Thou only.

²⁰Then Ī-sā'-iäh the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus says the LORD God of Israel, I have heard that which you have prayed to Me against Sën-näch'-ër-ib king of Assyria. ²¹This is the word that the LORD has spoken concerning him. The virgin, the daughter of Zion, has despised you and laughed you to scorn. The daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. ²²Whom have you mocked and blasphemed? And against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? Even against the Holy One of Israel! ²³You have mocked the LORD by your messengers, and have said, With the multitude of my chariots I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lëb'-ä-non, and will cut down the tall cedar trees of it, the choice fir trees of it. And I will enter into the lodgings of its borders, into the forest and its fruitful field. ²⁴I have dug and drunk strange waters, and with the sole of my feet I have dried up all the rivers of fenced places. ²⁵Have you not heard? Long ago I have made it, in ancient times I fashioned it! Now I have brought it to pass, yea, it is done — that fortified cities should be laid waste into heaps of ruins. ²⁶Therefore their people were of small power, they were fearful and put to shame. They were like the grass of the field, and like the green herb, like the grass on the house-tops, and like grain blasted before it was grown up. ²⁷But I know your sitting down, and your going out, and your coming in, and your rage against Me. ²⁸Because your rage against Me and your noise has come up into My ears, therefore I will put My hook in your nose, and My bridle in your lips. And I will turn you back by the way by which you came. ²⁹And this shall be a sign to you — you shall eat this year such things as grow of themselves, and in the second year that which springs up of the same. And in the third year, sow and reap and plant vineyards and eat the fruits of them. ³⁰And the remnant that has escaped of the house of Judah shall yet again take root downward and bear fruit upward. ³¹For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they who escape out of Mount Zion. The zeal of the LORD shall do this. ³²Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria. He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor throw up a bank against it. ³³By the way that he came, by the same he shall return, and shall not come into this city, says the LORD. ³⁴For I will defend this city, to save it for My own sake and for My servant David's sake.

³⁵And that night it came to pass that the Angel of the LORD went out and struck a hundred and eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians. And when men arose early in the morning, behold, these were all dead bodies. ³⁶So Sën-näch'-ër-ib king of Assyria departed. And he went and returned and lived at Nïn'-ë-vëh. ³⁷And as he was worshipping in the house of Nis'-röch his god, it came to pass that Ä-dräm'-më-lëch and Shä-rë'-zër his sons struck him with the sword. And they escaped into the land of Ār-mē'-nī-ă. And Ē-sār-hād'-dōn his son reigned in his stead.

¹In those days Hezekiah was sick unto death. And the prophet Ī-sā'-iäh the son of Amoz came to him and said to him, Thus says the LORD, Set your house in order, for you shall die and not live. ²Then he turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD, saying, ³O LORD, I pray Thee, remember now how I have walked before Thee in truth and with a sincere heart, and have done good in Thy sight. And Hezekiah wept with a great weeping. ⁴And before Isaiah had gone out into the middle of the court, the word of the LORD came to him saying, ⁵Return again and tell Hezekiah the captain of My people, Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father, I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears. Behold, I will heal you. On the third day you shall go up to the house of the LORD. ⁶And I will add fifteen years to your days. And I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria. And I will defend this city for My own sake, and for My servant David's sake. ⁷And Isaiah said, Take a lump of figs. And they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.

⁸And Hezekiah said to Ī-sā'-iäh, What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the LORD the third day? ⁹And Ī-sā'-iäh said, You shall have this sign from the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing which He has spoken. Shall the shadow go forward ten steps, or go back ten steps? ¹⁰And Hezekiah answered, It is a light thing for the shadow to go down ten steps. No, but let the shadow go backward ten steps. ¹¹And Isaiah the prophet cried unto the LORD. And He brought the shadow ten steps backward, by which it had gone down on the steps of Ahaz.

¹²At that time Bēr-ō'-däch-bäl'-ă-dän, the son of Bäl'-ă-dän, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah. For he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick. ¹³And Hezekiah listened to them, and showed them all the house of his precious things — the silver and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his jewels, and all that was found in his treasures. There was nothing in his house nor in all his dominion which Hezekiah did not show them. ¹⁴Then Ī-sā'-iäh the prophet came to king Hezekiah and said to him, What did these men say? And where did they come to you from? And Hezekiah said, They have come from a far country, from Babylon. ¹⁵And he said, What have they seen in your house? And Hezekiah answered, They have seen all that is in my house. There is nothing among my treasures which I have not shown to them. ¹⁶And Isaiah said to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD. ¹⁷Behold, the days come when all that is in your house, and which your fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried into Babylon. Nothing shall be left, says the LORD.¹⁸ And of your sons which shall issue from you, which you shall father, they shall take away. And they shall be eunuchs [you'- nūcks] in the palace of the king of Babylon.¹⁹ Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which you have spoken. And he said, Shall there not be peace and truth in my days?

²⁰And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made a pool and a water pipe, and brought water into the city, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

²¹And Hezekiah slept with his fathers. And Mā-nās'-sēh his son reigned in his stead.

¹Mā-nās'-sēh was twelve years old when he began to reign. And he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hēph'-zī-bāh.² And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, after the abominations of the heathen whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel.³ For he built up again the high places which his father Hezekiah had destroyed. And he reared up altars for Baal, and made a grove, as Ahab king of Israel did. And he worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them.⁴ And he built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD said, In Jerusalem I will put My name.⁵ And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.⁶ And he made his son pass through the fire, and observed times and used fortune-tellers. And he dealt with familiar spirits and wizards. He worked much wickedness in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.⁷ And he set a graven image of the grove which he had made in the house, of which the LORD had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever.⁸ Neither will I make the feet of Israel move any more out of the land which I gave their fathers — only if they will be careful to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that My servant Moses commanded them.⁹ But they did not listen. And Mā-nās'-sēh seduced them to do more evil than the nations ever did, whom the LORD destroyed before the children of Israel.

¹⁰And the LORD spoke by His servants the prophets, saying, ¹¹Because Mā-nās'-sēh king of Judah has done these abominations, and has done wickedly above all that the Amorites who were before him did, and has made Judah also to sin with his idols — ¹²therefore thus says the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, so that whoever hears of it, both his ears shall tingle.¹³ And

I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the measuring line of the house of Ahab. And I will wipe Jerusalem like a dish is wiped, wiping it and turning it upside down. ¹⁴And I will forsake the remnant of My inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies. And they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies, ¹⁵because they have done that which was evil in My sight, and have provoked Me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt even until this day. ¹⁶Moreover Mă-nās'-sēh shed very much innocent blood, until he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another — besides his sin with which he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

¹⁹Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Mē-shūl'-lē-mēth, the daughter of Hār'-ūz of Jōt'-bāh. ²⁰And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father Mă-nās'-sēh did. ²¹And he walked in all the way that his father walked in, and served the idols which his father served, and worshipped them. ²²And he left the LORD God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of the LORD.

²³And the servants of Amon plotted against him and killed the king in his own house. ²⁴And the people of the land killed all those who had plotted against king Amon. And the people of the land made his son Jō-sī'-āh king in his stead. Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the books of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ²⁶And he was buried in his tomb in the garden of Ūz'-zā. And his son Jō-sī'-āh reigned in his stead.

¹Jō-sī'-āh was eight years old when he began to reign. And he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jē-dī'-dāh, the daughter of Ā-dāī'-āh of Bōs'-cāth. ²And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in all the way of David his father, and did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

³And in the eighteenth year of Jō-sī'-āh, the king sent Shā'-phān the son of Āz-ā-lī'-āh, the son of Mē-shūl'-lām the scribe, to the house of the LORD, saying, ⁴Go up to Hil-kī'-āh the high priest, so that he may count the silver which is brought into the house of the LORD, which the doorkeepers have gathered from the people. ⁵And let them deliver it into the hand of the workers who have the oversight of the house of the Lord. And let them give it to the workers who are in the house of the LORD, in order to repair the breaks of the house — ⁶to carpenters, and builders, and masons, and to buy timber and cut stone to repair the house. ⁷However there was no accounting made with them of the money which was delivered into their hand, because they dealt faithfully.

⁸And Hil-kī-āh the high priest said to Shā'-phān the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hil-kī-āh gave the book to Sha'-phān, and he read it. ⁹And Shā'-phān the scribe came to the king and brought the king word again, and said, Your servants have gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of the workers, who have the oversight of the house of the LORD. ¹⁰And Shā'-phān the scribe showed the king, saying, Hil-kī-āh the priest has delivered me a book. And Shā'-phān read it before the king. ¹¹And when the king had heard the words of the book of the law, he tore his clothes. ¹²And the king commanded Hil-kī-āh the priest, and Ā-hī-kām the son of Shā'-phān, and Āch'-bôr the son of Mī-chai'-āh, and Shā'-phān the scribe, and Ās-ā-hī'-āh a servant of the king, saying, ¹³Go inquire of the LORD for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book which is found. For great is the wrath of the LORD which is kindled against us, because our fathers have not listened to the words of this book, to do according to all which is written concerning us. ¹⁴So Hil-kī-āh the priest, and Ā-hī-kām, and Āch'-bôr, and Shā'-phān, and Ās-ā-hī'-āh, went to Hül'-dāh the prophetess, the wife of Shāl'-lüm the son of Tik'-vāh, the son of Hār'-hās, keeper of the wardrobe. Now she lived in Jerusalem in the second part. And they talked with her.

¹⁵And she said to them, Thus says the LORD God of Israel, Tell the man who sent you to me, ¹⁶Thus says the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place and upon the people of it, all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read — ¹⁷because they have forsaken Me, and have burned incense to other gods, so that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands. Therefore My wrath shall be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched. ¹⁸But to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of the LORD, so you shall say to him, Thus says the LORD God of Israel regarding the words which you have heard — ¹⁹because your heart was tender and you have humbled yourself before the LORD, when you heard what I spoke against this place, and against the people of it (that they should become a waste and a curse) and have torn your clothes and wept before Me, I have heard you, says the LORD. ²⁰Behold therefore, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace. And your eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place. And they brought the king word again.

¹And the king sent. And they gathered to him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem. ²And the king went up into the house of the LORD. And all the men of Judah and all the people of Jerusalem were with him, and the priests and the prophets, and all the people, from the small even to the great. And he read all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house of the LORD in their ears. ³And the king stood by a pillar and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of this covenant which was written in this book. And all the people stood to the covenant.

⁴And the king commanded Hil-kī-āh the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the doorkeepers, to bring forth out of the temple of the LORD all the vessels which were made for Baal, and for the grove, and for all the host of heaven. And he burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of Kī-drōn, and carried the ashes of them to Bethel. ⁵And he put down the idol-worshipping priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places around Jerusalem. He also put down those who burned incense to Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the planets, and to all the host of heaven. ⁶And he brought out the grove from the house of the LORD outside Jerusalem, to the brook Kī-drōn, and burned it at the brook Kī-drōn, and stamped it to powder, and threw the powder of it upon the graves of the children of the people. ⁷And he broke down the houses of the sodomites, which were by the house of the LORD, where the women wove coverings for the grove. ⁸And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Gē-bā to Bēer-shē-bā. And he broke down the high places of the gates which were in the entering in of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city. ⁹But the priests of the high places did not come up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they ate of the unleavened bread among their brothers.

¹⁰And he defiled Tō-phēth, which is in the valley of the children of Hīn-nom, so that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Molech. ¹³And he took away the horses which the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entering in of the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nā-thān-mē-lēch the chamberlain, which was in the suburbs. And he burned the chariots of the sun with fire. ¹²And the altars which were on the top of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Mā-nās-sēh had made, and the two courts of the house of the LORD, the king beat them down, and broke them down from there. And he threw the dust of them into the brook Kī'-drōn. ¹³And the high places which were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of the mount of Olives, which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Āsh'-tō-rēth the abomination of the Sī-dō'-nī-āns, and for Chē'-mōsh the abomination of the Moabites, and for Mil'-cōm the abomination of the children of Ammon, the king defiled. ¹⁴And he broke the images in pieces, and cut down the groves, and filled their places with the bones of men.

¹⁵Moreover the altar which was at Bethel, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made — both that altar and the high place he broke down. And he burned the high place and stamped it to powder, and burned the grove. ¹⁶And as Jō-sī'-āh turned, he spied the tombs which were there in the mountain. And he sent and took the bones out of the tombs, and burned them upon the altar and defiled it, according to the word of the LORD which the man of God had spoken, who spoke these words. ¹⁷Then he said, What title is that which I see? And the men of the city told him, It is the grave of the man of God who came from Judah and spoke these things which you have done against the altar of Bethel. ¹⁸And he said, Let him alone — let no man move his bones. So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet who came out of Samaria. ¹⁹And also all the houses of the high places which were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the LORD to anger, Jō-sī'-āh took away, and did to them according to all the acts which he had done in Bethel. ²⁰And he killed all the priests of the high places which were there upon the altars, and burned men's bones upon them, and returned to Jerusalem.

²⁴Moreover Jō-sī'-āh put away those with familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the images, and the idols, and all the hateful things which were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, so that he might perform the words of the law which were written in the book which Hīl-kī'-āh the priest found in the house of the LORD. ²⁵And there was no king like him before him, who turned to the LORD with all his heart and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses. Neither did any like him arise after him. ²⁶Nevertheless the Lord did not turn from the heat of His great wrath, with which His anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocations which Mā-nās'-sēh had provoked Him with. ²⁷And the LORD said, I will also remove Judah out of My sight, as I have removed Israel, and will cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and the house of which I said, My name shall be there. ²⁸Now the rest of the acts of Jō-sī'-āh, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

²⁹In his days Phâr'-āōh-nē'-chōh king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria to the river Eû-phrā'-tēs. And king Jō-sī'-āh went against him. And he killed him at Mē-gīd'-dō, when he had seen him. ³⁰And his servants carried him away dead in a chariot from Mē-gīd'-dō, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own tomb. And the people of the land took Jē-hō'-ā-hāz the son of Jō-sī'-āh, and anointed him, and made him king in his father's stead.

³¹Jē-hō'-ā-hāz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign. And he reigned three months in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hā-mū'-tāl, the daughter of Jeremiah of Lib'-nāh. ³²And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done. ³³And Phâr'-āōh-nē'-chōh put him in bonds at Rib'-lāh in the land of Hā'-māth, so that he might not reign in Jerusalem. And he put the land to a tax of a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. ³⁴And Phâr'-āōh-nē'-chōh made Ē-lī'-ā-kīm the son of Jō-sī'-āh king instead of Jō-sī'-āh his father. And he changed his name to Jē-hoi'-ā-kīm, and took Jē-hō'-ā-hāz away. And he came to Egypt and died there. ³⁵And Jē-hoi'-ā-kīm gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh. But he taxed the land to give the money according to the commandment of Pharaoh. He exacted the silver and the gold from the people of the land, from everyone according to his taxation, in order to give it to Phâr'-āōh-nē'-chōh.

³⁶Jē-hoi'-ā-kīm was twenty-five years old when he began to reign. And he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zē-bū'-dāh, the daughter of Pē-daī'-āh of Rū'-māh. ³⁷And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

⁸Jě-hoi'-ă-chīn was eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. And his mother's name was Nē-hūsh'-tā, the daughter of Ēl-nā'-thān of Jerusalem.

⁹And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had done. ¹⁰At that time the servants of Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the city was besieged. ¹¹And Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon came against the city, and his servants besieged it. ¹²And Jě-hoi'-ă-chīn the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his officers. And the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign. ¹³And he carried out from there all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the LORD, as the LORD had said. ¹⁴And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of war, ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and smiths. None remained except the poorest sort of the people of the land. ¹⁵And he carried away Jě-hoi'-ă-chīn to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his officers. And the mighty of the land he carried into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon. ¹⁶And the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon all the men of might, seven thousand of them, and a thousand craftsmen and smiths, all who were strong and able for war.

¹⁷And the king of Babylon made Măt-tā-nī'-ăh, his father's brother, king in his stead. And he changed his name to Zēd-ē-kī'-ăh. ¹⁸Zēd-ē-kī'-ăh was twenty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hā-mū'-tāl, the daughter of Jeremiah of Lib'-nāh. ¹⁹And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jě-hoi'-ă-kīm had done. ²⁰For it was through the anger of the LORD that Zēd-ē-kī'-ăh happened to rebel against the king of Babylon in Jerusalem and in Judah — until God had put them out of His presence.

¹And in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon came. He and all his army came against Jerusalem and pitched against it. And they built forts against it round about. ²And the city was besieged until the eleventh year of king Zēd-ē-kī'-āh. ³And on the ninth day of the fourth month the famine reigned in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land. ⁴And the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled by night by the way of the gate between two walls, which is by the king's garden. Now the Chāl'-dēēs were against the city all round. And the king went the way toward the plain. ⁵And the army of the Chāl'-dēēs pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho. And all his army were scattered from him. ⁶So they took the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon, unto Rīb'-lāh. And they gave judgment upon him. ⁷And they killed the sons of Zēd-ē-kī'-āh before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zēd-ē-kī'-āh, and bound him with chains of brass and carried him to Babylon.

⁸And in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, which is the nineteenth year of king Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon, Nēb-ū'-zār-ād'-ān, captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem. ⁹And he burned the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem. And every great man's house he burned with fire. ¹⁰And all the army of the Chāl'-dēēs who were with the captain of the guard broke down the walls of Jerusalem all around. ¹¹Now the rest of the people who were left in the city, and the runaways who fell away to the king of Babylon, with the rest of the multitude, Nēb-ū'-zār-ād'-ān the captain of the guard carried away. ¹²But the captain of the guard left a few of the poor of the land to be vinedressers and husbandmen. ¹³And the pillars of brass which were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and brass sea which was in the house of the LORD, the Chāl'-dēēs broke into pieces and carried the brass from them to Babylon. ¹⁴And the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass with which they ministered, they also took away. ¹⁵And the captain of the guard took away the fire-pans, and the bowls, such things as were of gold, in gold, and of silver, in silver — ¹⁶*also* the two pillars, the one sea, and the bases which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD. The brass of all these vessels was without weight. ¹⁷The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and the capital upon it was brass. And the height of the capital was three cubits. And the lattice-work and the pomegranates upon the capital all around, were all of brass. And the second pillar had lattice-work like these.

¹⁸And the captain of the guard took Sē-raī'-āh the chief priest, and Zēph-ā-nī'-āh the second priest, and the three doorkeepers. ¹⁹And he took an officer, who was set over the men of war, out of the city, and five men of those who were in the king's presence, who were found in the city, and the chief scribe of the army (who called the people of the land together), and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the city. ²⁰And Nēb-ū'-zār-ād'-ān captain of the guard took these and brought them to the king of Babylon to Rīb'-lāh. ²¹And the king of Babylon struck them and killed them at Rib'-lāh in the land of Hā'-māth. So Judah was carried away out of their land.

²²And he made Gēd-ā-lī'-āh the son of Ā-hī'-kām, the son of Shā'-phān, ruler over the people who remained in the land of Judah, whom Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon had left. ²³And when all the captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gēd-ā-lī'-āh governor, there came to Gēd-ā-lī'-āh unto Mizpah Ish'-mā-ēl the son of Nēth-ā-nī'-āh, and Jō-hā'-nān the son of Cā-rē'-āh, and Sē-raī'-āh the son of Tān-hū'-mēth the Nē-tōph'-ā-thīte, and Jā-āz-ā-nī'-āh the son of a Mā-āch'-ā-thīte, they and their men. ²⁴And Gēd-ā-lī'-āh swore to them and to their men, and said to them, Do not fear to be the servants of the Chāl'-dēēs. Dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. ²⁵But in the seventh month Ish'-mā-ēl the son of Nēth-ā-nī'-āh, the son of Ē-lī'-shā-mā, of the seed of the kingdom, and ten men with him, came and struck Gēd-ā-lī'-āh so that he died — and also the Jews and the Chāl'-dēēs who were with him at Mizpah. ²⁶And all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the armies, arose and came to Egypt. For they were afraid of the Chāl'-dēēs.

²⁷And in the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jē-hoi'-ā-chīn king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh of the month, Ē'-vīl-mēr'-ō-dāch king of Babylon — in the year that he began to reign — lifted up the head of Jē-hoi'-ā-chīn king of Judah out of prison. ²⁸And he spoke kindly to him and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon. ²⁹And he changed his prison clothes. And he always ate bread before him all the days of his life. ³⁰And his allowance was a regular allowance given him from the king, a daily ration for every day, all the days of his life.

The FIRST Book of CHRONICLES

¹Adam, Seth, Ē'-nōsh, ²Kē'-nān, Mā-hāl'-ā-lēel, Jē'-rēd, ³Hē'-nōch, Mē-thū'-sē-lāh, Lā'-mēch, ⁴Noah, Shem, Ham, and Jā'phēth.

⁵The sons of Jā'-phēth were Gō'-mēr, and Mā'-gōg, and Mā'-daī, and Jā'-vān, and Tū'-bāl, and Mē'-shēch, and Tī'-rās. ⁶And the sons of Gō'-mēr were Āsh-chē'-nāz, and Rī'-phāth, and Tō-gār'-māh. ⁷And the sons of Jā'-vān were Ē-lī'-shāh, and Tār'-shish, Kit'-tīm, and Dō'-dā-nim.

⁸The sons of Ham were Cūsh, and Mīz'-rā-īm, Pūt, and Cā'-nā-ān. ⁹And the sons of Cūsh were Sē'-bā, and Hāv'-ī-lāh, and Sāb'-tā, and Rā'-ā-māh, and Sāb-tē'-chā. And the sons of Rā'-ā-māh were Shē'-bā and Dē-dān. ¹⁰And Cūsh fathered Nim'-rōd. He began to be mighty upon the earth. ¹¹And Mīz'-rā-īm fathered Lū'-dīm, and Ān'-ā-mīm, and Lē-hā'-bīm, and Nāph-tū'-hīm, ¹²and Pāth-rū'-sīm, and Cās-lū'-hīm (from whom came the Philistines), and Cāph'-thō-rīm. ¹³And Cā'-nā-ān fathered Zī'-dōn his first-born, and Heth, ¹⁴the Jēb'-ū-sīte also, and the Ām'-ōr-īte, and the Gīr'-gā-shīte, ¹⁵and the Hī'-vīte, and the Ār'-kīte, and the Sī'-nīte, ¹⁶and the Ār'-vā-dīte, and the Zēm'-ā-rite, and the Hā'-māth-ite.

¹⁷The sons of Shem were Ē'-lām, and Āssh'-ur, and Ār-phāx'-ād, and Lud, and Ār'-ām, and Uz, and Hul, and Gē'-thēr, and Mē'-shēck. ¹⁸And Ār-phāx'-ād fathered Shē'-lāh, and Shē'-lāh fathered Ē'-bēr. ¹⁹And to Ē'-bēr were born two sons. The name of the one was Pē'-lēg (because in his days the earth was divided), and his brother's name was Jōk'-tān. ²⁰And Jōk'-tān fathered Āl-mō'-dād, and Shē'-lēph, and Hā-zār-mā'-vēth, and Jē'-rāh, ²¹Hā-dōr'-ām also, and Ū'-zāl, and Dik'-lāh, ²²and Ē'-bāl, and Ā-bīm'-ā-ēl, and Shē'-bā, ²³and Ō'-phīr, and Hāv'-ī-lāh, and Jō'-bāb. All these were the sons of Jōk'-tān.

²⁴Shem, Ār-phāx'-ād, Shē'-lāh, ²⁵Ē'-bēr, Pē'-lēg, Rē'-ū, ²⁶Sē'-rūg, Nā'-hōr, Tē'-rāh, ²⁷Ā'-brām (the same is Abraham). ²⁸The sons of Abraham were Isaac and Īsh'-mā-ēl.

²⁹These are their generations. The first-born of Īsh'-mā-ēl was Nē-baī'-ōth, then Kē'-dār, and Ād'-bēel, and Mīb'-sām, ³⁰Mīsh'-mā, and Dū'-māh, Mās'-sā, Hā'-dād, and Tē'-mā, ³¹Jē'-tur, Nā'-phīsh, and Kē'-dē-māh. These are the sons of Īsh'-mā-ēl.

³²Now these are the sons of Kē-tū'-rāh, Abraham's concubine. She bore Zimran, and Jōk'-shān, and Mē'-dān, and Mīd'-ī-ān, and Īsh'-bāk, and Shū'-āh. And the sons of Jōk'-shān were Shē'-bā and Dē'-dān. ³³And the sons of Mīd'-ī-ān were Ē'-phāh, and Ē'-phēr, and Hē'-nōch, and Ā-bī'-dā, and Ēl-dā'-āh. All these are the sons of Kē-tū'-rāh. ³⁴And Abraham fathered Isaac. The sons of Isaac were Esau and Israel.

³⁵The sons of Esau were Ê-lî'-phāz, Reū'-ēl, and Jē'-ūsh, and Jā'-ā-lām, and Kôr'-āh. ³⁶The sons of Ê-lî'-phāz were Tē'-mān, and Ō'-mār, Zē'-phī, and Gā'-tām, Kē'-nāz, and Tīm'-nā, and Ām'-ā-lēk. ³⁷The sons of Reū'-ēl were Nahath, Zē'-rāh, Shām'-māh, and Mīz'-zāh. ³⁸And the sons of Sē'-ir were Lō'-tān, and Shō'-bāl, and Zīb'-ē-on, and Ā'-nāh, and Dī'-shōn, and Ê'-zēr, and Dī'-shān. ³⁹And the sons of Lō'-tān were Hōr'-ī and Hō'-mām. And Tīm'-nā was Lō'-tān's sister. ⁴⁰The sons of Shō'-bāl were Āl'-ī-ān, and Mān'-ā-hāth, and Ê'-bāl, Shē'-phī, and Ō'-nām. And the sons of Zīb'-ē-on were Aī'-āh and Ā'-nāh. ⁴¹The son of Ā'-nāh was Dī'-shōn. And the sons of Dī'-shōn were Ām'-rām, and Êsh'-bān, and Īth'-rān, and Chē'-rān. ⁴²The sons of Ê'-zēr were Bīl'-hān, and Zā'-vān, and Jā'-kān. The sons of Dī'-shān were Uz and Ār'-ān.

⁴³Now these are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the children of Israel — Bē'-lā the son of Bē'-ōr, and the name of his city was Dīn'-hā-bāh. ⁴⁴And when Bē'-lā was dead, Jō'-bāb the son of Zē'-rāh of Bōz'-rāh reigned in his stead. ⁴⁵And when Jō'-bāb was dead, Hū'-shām of the land of the Tē'-mān-ites reigned in his stead. ⁴⁶And when Hū'-shām was dead, Hā'-dād the son of Bē'-dād, who struck Mīd'-ī-ān in the field of Moab, reigned in his stead. And the name of his city was Ā'-vīth. ⁴⁷And when Hā'-dād was dead, Sām'-lāh of Mās-rē'-kāh reigned in his stead. ⁴⁸And when Sām'-lāh was dead, Shā'-ūl of Rē'-hō-bōth by the river reigned in his stead. ⁴⁹And when Shā'-ūl was dead, Bā'-āl-hā'-nān the son of Āch'-bōr reigned in his stead. ⁵⁰And when Bā'-āl-hā'-nān was dead, Hā'-dād reigned in his stead. And the name of his city was Pā'-ī. And his wife's name was Mē'-hēt'-ā-bēl, the daughter of Mā'-trēd, the daughter of Mē'-zā-hāb.

⁵¹Hā'-dād also died. And the princes of Edom were: prince Tīm'-nāh, prince Āl'-ī-āh, prince Jē'-hēth, ⁵²prince Ā-hōl'-ī-bā'-māh, prince Ê'-lāh, prince Pī'-nōn, ⁵³prince Kē'-nāz, prince Tē'-mān, prince Mīb'-zār, ⁵⁴prince Māg'-dī-ēl, prince Ī'-rām. These are the princes of Edom.

¹These are the sons of Israel: Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah, Īs'-sā-chār, and Zē'-bū'-lūn, ²Dan, Joseph, and Benjamin, Nāph'-tā-li, Gad, and Asher.

³The sons of Judah were Er and Ō'-nān, and Shē'-lāh. These three were born to him from the daughter of Shū'-ā the Canaanitess. And Er, the first-born of Judah, was evil in the sight of the LORD, and He killed him. ⁴And Tā'-mār his daughter-in-law bore him Phār'-ēz and Zē'-rāh. All the sons of Judah were five. ⁵The sons of Phār'-ēz were Hēz'-rōn and Hām'-ūl. ⁶And the sons of Zē'-rāh were Zīm'-rī, and Ê'-thān, and Hē'-mān, and Cāl'-cōl, and Dār'-ā — five of them in all. ⁷And the sons of Cār'-mī were Ā'-chān, the troubler of Israel, who sinned in the cursed thing. ⁸And the son of Ê'-thān was Āz'-ā-rī'-āh.

¹⁸And Caleb the son of Hēz'-rōn fathered children of Ā-zū'-bāh his wife, and of Jēr'-ī-ōth. Her sons are these, Jē'-shēr, and Shō'-bāb, and Ār'-dōn. ¹⁹And when Ā-zū'-bāh was dead, Caleb took Ē'-phrāth to himself, who bore him Hur. ²⁰And Hur fathered Ū'-rī, and Ū'-rī fathered Bēz'-ā-lēel.

²¹And afterward Hēz'-rōn went in to the daughter of Mā'-chīr the father of Gilead, whom he married when he was sixty years old. And she bore him Sē'-gūb. ²²And Sē'-gūb fathered Jā'-īr, who had twenty-three cities in the land of Gilead. ²³And he took Gē'-shur, and Ār'-ām, with the towns of Jā'-īr, from them, with Kē'-nāth, and the towns of it, sixty cities. All these belonged to the sons of Mā'-chīr the father of Gilead. ²⁴And after Hēz'-rōn was dead in Cā'-lēb-ēph'-rā-tāh, then Ā-bī'-āh Hēz'-rōn's wife bore him Ashur the father of Tē'-kō'-ā.

²⁵And the sons of Jē-rāh'-mēel the first-born of Hēz'-rōn were, Ram the first-born, and Bū'-nāh, and Ō'-rēn, and Ō'-zēm, and Ā-hī'-jāh. ²⁶Jē-rāh'-mēel also had another wife, whose name was Āt'-ā-rāh. She was the mother of Ō'-nām. ²⁷And the sons of Ram the first-born of Jē-rāh'-mēel were Mā'-āz, and Jā'-mīn, and Ē'-kēr. ²⁸And the sons of Ō'-nām were Shām'-mā-ī and Jā'-dā. And the sons of Shām'-mā-ī were Nadab and Ā-bī'-shur. ²⁹And the name of the wife of Ā-bī'-shur was Āb'-ī-hāil, and she bore him Āh'-bān and Mō'-līd. ³⁰And the sons of Nadab were Sē'-lēd and Āp'-pā-īm. But Sē'-lēd died without children. ³¹And the son of Āp'-pā-īm was Ish'-ī. And the son of Ish'-ī was Shē'-shān. And the child of Shē'-shān was Āh'-lā-ī. ³²And the sons of Jā'-dā the brother of Shām'-mā-ī were Jē'-thēr and Jonathan, and Jē'-thēr died without children. ³³And the sons of Jonathan were Pē'-lēth and Zā'-zā. These were the sons of Jē-rāh'-mēel.

³⁴Now Shē'-shān had no sons, but daughters. And Shē'-shān had a servant, an Egyptian, whose name was Jār'-hā. ³⁵And Shē'-shān gave his daughter to Jār'-hā his servant for a wife, and she bore him Āt'-tā-ī. ³⁶And Āt'-tā-ī fathered Nathan, and Nathan fathered Zā'-bād, ³⁷and Zā'-bād fathered Ēph'-lāl, and Ēph'-lāl fathered Ō'-bēd, ³⁸and Ō'-bēd fathered Jehu, and Jehu fathered Āz'-ā-rī'-āh, ³⁹and Āz'-ā-rī'-āh fathered

Hē'-lēz, and Hē'-lēz fathered Ēl-ē-ā'-sāh, ⁴⁰and Ēl-ē-ā'-sāh fathered Sis'-ā-māi, and Sis'-ā-māi fathered Shāl'-lūm, ⁴¹and Shāl'-lūm fathered Jēk-ā-mī'-āh, and Jēk-ā-mī'-āh fathered Ē-lī'-shā-mā.

⁴²Now the sons of Caleb the brother of Jē-rāh'-mēel were, Mē'-shā his first-born, who was the father of Ziph, and the sons of Mā-rē'-shāh the father of Hebron. ⁴³And the sons of Hebron were Kōr'-āh, and Tāp'-pū-āh, and Rē'-kēm, and Shē'-mā. ⁴⁴And Shē'-mā fathered Rā'-hām, the father of Jōr'-kō-ām. And Rē'-kēm fathered Shām'-mā-i. ⁴⁵And the son of Shām'-mā-i was Mā'-ōn. And Mā'-ōn was the father of Bēth'-zur. ⁴⁶And Ē'-phāh, Caleb's concubine, bore Hār'-ān, and Mō'-zā, and Gā'-zēz. And Hār'-ān fathered Gā'-zēz. ⁴⁷And the sons of Jāh'-dā-i were Rē'-gēm and Jō'-thām and Gē'-shān and Pē'-lēt and Ē'-phāh and Shā'-āph. ⁴⁸Mā'-ā-chāh, Caleb's concubine, bore Shē'-bēr, and Tīr-hā'-nāh. ⁴⁹She also bore Shā'-āph the father of Mād-mān'-nāh, Shē'-vā the father of Māch-bē'-nāh, and the father of Gib'-ē-ā. And the daughter of Caleb was Āch'-sāh.

⁵⁰These were the sons of Caleb the son of Hur, the first-born of Eph'-rā-tāh — Shō'-bāl the father of Kīr'-jāth-jē'-ā-rīm, ⁵¹Sāl'-mā the father of Bethlehem, Hār'-ēph the father of Bēth-gā'-dēr. ⁵²And Shō'-bāl the father of Kīr'-jāth-jē'-ā-rīm had sons — Hā-rō'-ēh, and half of the Mān-ā-hē'-thītes. ⁵³And the families of Kīr'-jāth-jē'-ā-rīm were the Ith'-rītes, and the Pū'-hītes, and the Shū'-mā-thītes, and the Mīsh'-rā-ītes. From them came the Zā-rē'-ā-thītes, and the Ēsh-tā-ū'-lītes. ⁵⁴The sons of Sāl'-mā were Bethlehem, and the Nē-tōph'-ā-thītes, Āt'-ā-rōth, the house of Joab, and half the Mān-ā-hē'-thītes, the Zōr'-ītes. ⁵⁵And the families of the scribes who lived at Jā'-bēz were the Tī'-rā-thītes, the Shīm'-ē-ā-thītes, and Sū'-chā-thītes. These are the Kē'-nītes who came from Hē'-māth, the father of the house of Rē'-chāb.

¹Now these were the sons of David, who were born to him in Hebron. The first-born was Amnon, of Ā-hīn'-ō-ām of Jēz'-rēel. The second was Daniel, of Āb'-ī-gāil of Carmel. ²The third was Absalom the son of Mā'-ā-chāh the daughter of Tāl'-māi king of Gē'-shur. The fourth was Ād-ō-nī'-jāh the son of Hāg'-gīth. ³The fifth was Shēph-ā-tī'-āh of Ā-bī'-tāl. The sixth was Ith'-rē-ām by Ēg'-lāh his wife. ⁴These six were born to him in Hebron. And there he reigned seven years and six months. And he reigned in Jerusalem thirty-three years. ⁵And these were born to him in Jerusalem — Shīm'-ē-ā, and Shō'-bāb, and Nathan, and Solomon, four of Bāth'-shē-bā the daughter of Ām'-mī-ēl — ⁶Ib'-hār also, and Ē-lī'-shā-mā, and Ē-līph'-ē-lēt, ⁷and Nō'-gāh, and Nēph'-ēg, and Jā-phī'-ā, ⁸and Ē-lī'-shā-mā, and Ē-lī'-ā-dā, and Ē-līph'-ē-lēt, nine. ⁹These were all the sons of David, besides the sons of the concubines and Tā'-mār their sister.

¹⁰And Solomon's son was Rē-hō-bō'-ām, Ā-bī'-ā his son, Asa his son, Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt his son, ¹¹Jē-hōr'-ām his son, Ā-hā-zī'-āh his son, Jō'-āsh his son, ¹²Am-ā-zī'-āh his son, Āz-ā-rī'-āh his son, Jō'-thām his son, ¹³Ahaz his son, Hēz-ē-kī'-āh his son, Mā-nās'-sēh his son, ¹⁴Amon his son, Jō-sī'-āh his son. ¹⁵And the sons of Jō-sī'-āh were Jō-hā'-nān the first-born, Jē-hoi'-ā-kim the second, Zēd-ē-kī'-āh the third, Shāl'-lūm the fourth. ¹⁶And the sons of Jē-hoi'-ā-kim were Jēc-ō-nī'-āh his son, and Zēd-ē-kī'-āh his son.

¹⁷And the sons of Jēc-ō-nī'-āh were Ās'-sīr, Sā-lā'-thī-ēl his son, ¹⁸Māl-chī'-rām also, and Pē-dai'-āh, and Shēn-ā'-zār, Jēc-ā-mī'-āh, Hō'-shā-mā, and Nēd-ā-bī'-āh. ¹⁹And the sons of Pē-dai'-āh were Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl and Shīm'-ē-i. And the sons of Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl were Mē-shūl'-lām and Hān-ā-nī'-āh, and Shē-lō'-mīth their sister, ²⁰and Hā-shū'-bāh, and Ō'-hēl, and Bēr-ē-chī'-āh, and Hās-ā-dī'-āh, Jū-shāb-hēs'-ēd, five. ²¹And the sons of Hān-ā-nī'-āh were Pēl-ā-tī'-āh, and Jē-sai'-āh. They were the sons of Rē-phaī'-āh, the sons of Ār'-nān, the sons of Ō-bā-dī'-āh, the sons of Shēch-ā-nī'-āh. ²²And the sons of Shēch-ā-nī'-āh were Shēm-aī'-āh. And the sons of Shēm-aī'-āh were Hāt'-tūsh, and Ī'-gē-āl, and Bā-rī'-āh, and Nē-ā-rī'-āh, and Shā'-phāt, six. ²³And the sons of Nē-ā-rī'-āh were Ēl-ī-ō-ē'-naī, and Hēz-ē-kī'-āh, and Āz-rī'-kām, three. ²⁴And the sons of Ēl-ī-ō-ē'-naī were Hō-dai'-āh, and Ē-lī-āsh'-ib, and Pē-lai'-āh, and Āk'-kūb, and Jō-hā'-nān, and Dā-lai'-āh, and Ā-nā'-nī, seven.

¹The sons of Judah were Phār'-ēz, Hēz'-rōn, and Cār'-mī, and Hur, and Shō'-bāl. ²And Rē-aī'-āh the son of Shō'-bāl fathered Jā'-hāth. And Jā'-hāth fathered Ā-hū'-maī, and Lā'-hād. These are the families of the Zōr'-ā-thites. ³And these were of the father of Ē'-tām — Jēz'-rēel, and Īsh'-mā, and Īd'-bāsh — and the name of their sister was Hāz-ēl-ēl-pō'-nī — ⁴and Pēn'-ū-ēl the father of Gē'-dōr, and Ē'-zēr the father of Hū'-shāh. These are the sons of Hur, the first-born of Ēph'-rā-tāh, the father of Bethlehem.

⁹And Jā'-bēz was more honorable than his brothers. And his mother called his name Jā'-bēz, saying, Because I bore him with sorrow. ¹⁰And Jā'-bēz called on the God of Israel, saying, O that Thou wouldst bless me indeed, and make my border larger, and that Thy hand might be with me, and that Thou wouldst keep me from evil, so that it may not grieve me! And God granted him that which he asked.

¹¹And Chē'-lūb the brother of Shū'-āh fathered Mē'-hīr, who was the father of Ēsh'-tōn. ¹²And Ēsh'-tōn fathered Bēth-rā'-phā, and Pā-sē'-āh, and Tē-hīn'-nāh the father of Īr-nā'-hāsh. These are the men of Rē'-chāh. ¹³And the sons of Kē'-nāz were Ōth'-nī-ēl and Sē-raī'-āh. And the son of Ōth'-nī-ēl was Hā'-thāth. ¹⁴And Mē'-ō'-nō-thaī fathered Ōph'-rāh. And Sē-raī'-āh fathered Joab, the father of the valley of Chā-rā'-shīm. For they were craftsmen. ¹⁵And the sons of Caleb the son of Jē-phūn'-nēh were Ī'-rū, Ē'-lāh, and Nā'-ām. And the son of Ē'-lāh was Kē'-nāz. ¹⁶And the sons of Jē-hāl'-ē-lēel were Ziph, and Zī'-phāh, Tī'-rī-ā, and Ās'-ā-rēel. ¹⁷And the sons of Ezra were Jē'-thēr, and Mē'-rēd, and Ē'-phēr, and Jā'-lōn. And she bore Mīr'-ī-ām, and Shām'-mā-ī, and Ish'-bāh the father of Ēsh-tē-mō'-ā. ¹⁸And his wife Jē-hū-dī'-jāh bore Jē'-rēd the father of Gē'-dōr, and Hē'-bēr the father of Sō'-chō, and Jē-kū'-thī-ēl the father of Zā-nō'-āh. And these are the sons of Bīth'-ī-āh the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mē'-rēd took. ¹⁹And the sons of his wife were Hō-dī'-āh the sister of Nā'-hām, the father of Kē'-ī-lāh the Gār'-mite, and Ēsh-tē-mō'-ā the Mā-āch'-ā-thīte. ²⁰And the sons of Shī'-mōn were Ām'-nōn and Rin'-nāh, Bēn-hā'-nān, and Tī'-lōn. And the sons of Īsh'-ī were Zō'-hēth and Bēn-zō'-hēth.

²¹The sons of Shē'-lāh the son of Judah were Er the father of Lē'-cāh, and Lā'-ā-dāh the father of Mā-rē'-shāh, and the families of the house of them who worked fine linen, from the house of Āsh-bē'-ā, ²²and Jō'-kīm, and the men of Chō-zē'-bā, and Jō'-āsh, and Sār'-āph, who had the rule over Moab, and Jē-shū'-bī-lē'-hēm. And these are ancient things. ²³These were the potters and those who lived among plants and hedges. They lived there with the king for his work.

²⁴The sons of Simeon were Nēm'-ū-ēl, and Jā'-mīn, Jār'-īb, Zē'-rāh, Shā'-ūl — ²⁵Shāl'-lūm his son, Mīb'-sām his son, Mīsh'-mā his son. ²⁶And the sons of Mīsh'-mā were Hām'-ū-ēl his son, Zāc-chur his son, Shīm'-ē-ī his son. ²⁷And Shīm'-ē-ī had sixteen sons and six daughters. But his brothers did not have many children, neither did all their family multiply like the children of Judah. ²⁸And they lived at Bēer-shē'-bā, and Mō-lā'-dāh, and Hā'-zār-shū'-āl, ²⁹and at Bīl'-hāh, and at Ē'-zēm, and at Tō'-lād, ³⁰and at Bē-thū'-ēl, and at Hōr'-māh, and at Zīk'-lāg, ³¹and at Bēth-mār'-cā-bōth, and Hā'-zār-sū'-sīm, and at Bēth-bīr'-ē-ī, and at Shā-ā-rā'-īm. These were their cities until the reign of David. ³²And their villages were Ē'-tām, and Ā'-īn, Rimmon, and Tō'-chēn, and Āsh'-ān, five cities, ³³and all their villages that were all around the same cities, to Baal. These were their homes and their family line. ³⁴And Mē-shō'-bāb, and Jām'-lēch, and Jō'-shāh the son of Ām'-ā-zī'-āh, ³⁵and Jō'-ēl, and Jehu the son of Jōs'-ī-bī'-āh, the son of Sē-raī'-āh, the son of Ās'-ī-ēl, ³⁶and Ēl'-ī-ō-ē'-naī, and Jā'-ā-kō'-bāh, and Jēsh-ō-haī'-āh, and Ā-saī'-āh, and Ād'-ī-ēl, and Jē-sīm'-ī-ēl, and Bē-naī'-āh, ³⁷and Zī'-zā the son of Shī'-phī, the son of Āl'-lōn, the son of Jē-dai'-āh, the son of Shīm'-rī, the son of Shēm-aī'-āh. ³⁸These mentioned by name were princes in their families. And the house of their fathers increased greatly.

³⁹And they went to the entrance of Gē'-dôr, to the east side of the valley, to look for pasture for their flocks. ⁴⁰And they found fat pasture and good, for the land was wide and quiet and peaceable. For some of the children of Ham had lived there of old. ⁴¹And these written by name came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and struck their tents, and the homes that were found there, and completely destroyed them until this day, and lived in their places — because there was pasture there for their flocks. ⁴²And some of them, of the sons of Simeon — five hundred men — went to Mount Sē'-ir, having for their captains Pēl-ā-tī'-āh, and Nē-ā-rī'-āh, and Rē-phaī'-āh, and Ūz'-zī-ēl, the sons of Ish'-ī. ⁴³And they struck the rest of the Ā-māl'-ēk-ites who had escaped, and lived there until this day.

¹Now the sons of Reuben the first-born of Israel (for he was the first-born. But, since he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph the son of Israel, and the genealogy is not to be counted according to the birth-right. ²For Judah became mighty above his brothers, and from him came the chief ruler — but the birth-right was Joseph's), ³the sons of Reuben the first-born of Israel were Hā'-nōch, and Pāl'-lū, Hēz'-rōn, and Cār-mī. ⁴The sons of Joel were Shēm-aī'-āh his son, Gog his son, Shīm'-ē-ī his son, ⁵Mī'-cāh his son, Rē-aī'-ā his son, Bā'-āl his son, ⁶Bēer'-āh his son, whom Til'-gāth-pīl-nē'-šēr king of Assyria carried away captive. He was prince of the men of Reuben. ⁷And his brothers by their families, when the genealogy of their generations was counted, were Jē'-ī-ēl the chief, and Zēch-ā-rī'-āh, ⁸and Bē'-lā the son of Ā'-zāz, the son of Shē'-mā, the son of Joel, who lived in Ā-rō'-ēr, even to Nebo and Bā'-āl-mē'-on. ⁹And he lived as far to the east as the entrance of the wilderness from the river Eû-phrā'-tēs, because their cattle were multiplied in the land of Gilead. ¹⁰And in the days of Saul they made war with the Hāg'-ā-rites, who fell by their hand. And they lived in their tents throughout all the east land of Gilead.

¹¹And the children of Gad lived over against them, in the land of Bā'-shān to Sāl'-chāh — ¹²Joel the chief, and Shā'-phām the next, and Jā'-ā-naī, and Shā'-phāt in Bā'-shān. ¹³And their brothers from the house of their fathers were Mī'-chāel, and Mē-shūl'-lām, and Shē'-bā, and Jō'-rā-ī, and Jā'-chān, and Zī'-ā, and Hē'-bēr, seven. ¹⁴These are the children of Āb'-ī-hāil the son of Hū'-rī, the son of Jā'-rō'-āh, the son of Gilead, the son of Mī'-chāel, the son of Jē-shīsh'-aī, the son of Jāh'-dō, the son of Buz, ¹⁵Ā'-hī the son of Āb'-dī-ēl, the son of Gū'-nī, chief of the house of their fathers. ¹⁶And they lived in Gilead in Bā'-shān, and in her towns, and in all the suburbs of Shâr'-on, upon their borders. ¹⁷All these were counted by genealogies in the days of Jô'-thâm king of Judah, and in the days of Jêr-ö-bö'-âm king of Israel.

¹⁸The sons of Reuben, and the sons of Gad, and half the tribe of Mă-năs'-sêh, (sons of valor, men able to carry shield and sword, and to shoot with bow, and skillful in war), were four hundred forty-seven thousand, seven hundred and sixty who went out to the war. ¹⁹And they made war with the Hăg'-ă-rites, with Jê'-tur, and Nêph'-ish, and Nô'-dăb. ²⁰And they were helped against them, and the Hăg'-ă-rites were delivered into their hand, and all who were with them. For they cried to God in the battle, and He was pleased to hear them, because they put their trust in Him. ²¹And they took away their cattle — of their camels fifty thousand, and of sheep two hundred fifty thousand, and of assessm two thousand, and of men a hundred thousand. ²²For many fell down slain, because the war was of God. And they lived in their places until the captivity.

²³And the children of the half tribe of Mă-năs'-sêh lived in the land. They increased from Bă'-shăn to Bă'-ăl-hêr'-mon and Sê'-nîr, and to Mount Hêr'-mon. ²⁴And these were the heads of the house of their fathers, even Ê'-phêr, and Ish'-î, and Ê-lî'-êl, and Ăz'-rî-êl, and Jeremiah, and Hô-dă-vî'-ăh, and Jăh'-dî-êl, mighty men of war, famous men, heads of the house of their fathers.

²⁵And they sinned against the God of their fathers, and went lusting after the gods of the people of the land, whom God destroyed before them. ²⁶And the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pül king of Assyria, and the spirit of Tîl'-găth-pîl-nê'-șêr king of Assyria. And he carried them away, even the people of Reuben and the people of Gad, and the half tribe of Mă-năs'-sêh, and brought them to Hă'-lăh, and Hă'-bôr, and Hâr'-ă, and to the river Gô'-zăn, unto this day.

¹The sons of Levi were Gêr'-shôn, Kô'-hăth, and Mě-râr'-î. ²And the sons of Kô'-hăth were Ăm'-răm, İz'-hăr, and Hê'-brôn, and Ūz'-zî-êl. ³And the children of Ăm'-răm were Aaron and Moses and Mîr'-î-ăm. The sons also of Aaron were Nă'-dăb and Ă-bî'-hû, Êl-ê-ă'-zăr and İth'-ă-măr.

⁴Êl-ê-ă'-zăr fathered Phîn'-ê-hăs. Phîn'-ê-hăs fathered Ă-bî'-shù-ă. ⁵And Ă-bî'-shù-ă fathered Bük'-kî. And Bük'-kî fathered Ūz'-zî. ⁶And Ūz'-zî fathered Zêr'-ă-hî'-ăh. And Zêr'-ă-hî'-ăh fathered Mě-raî'-ôth. ⁷Mě-raî'-ôth fathered Ăm-ă-rî'-ăh. And Ăm-ă-rî'-ăh fathered A-hî'-tüb. ⁸And A-hî'-tüb fathered Ză'-dök. And Ză'-dök fathered Ă-hî'-mă-ăz. ⁹And Ă-hî'-mă-ăz fathered Ăz-ă-rî'-ăh. And Ăz-ă-rî'-ăh fathered Jô-hă'-năn. ¹⁰And Jô-hă'-năn fathered Ăz-ă-rî'-ăh — he who acted in the priest's office in the temple that Solomon built in Jerusalem — ¹¹and Ăz-ă-rî'-ăh fathered Ām-ā-rī'-āh. And Ām-ā-rī'-āh fathered A-hī'-tūb. ¹²And A-hī'-tūb fathered Zā'-dōk. And Zā'-dōk fathered Shāl'-lūm. ¹³And Shāl'-lūm fathered Hil-kī'-āh. And Hil-kī'-āh fathered Āz-ā-rī'-āh. ¹⁴And Āz-ā-rī'-āh fathered Sē-raī'-āh. And Sē-raī'-āh fathered Jē-hō'-zā-dāk. ¹⁵And Jē-hō'-zā-dāk went into captivity when the LORD carried away Judah and Jerusalem by the hand of Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār.

¹⁶The sons of Levi were Gēr'-shōm, Kō'-hāth and Mē-rār'-ī. ¹⁷And these are the names of the sons of Gēr'-shōm — Lib'-nī and Shīm'-ē-ī. ¹⁸And the sons of Kō'-hāth were Ām'-rām, and Īz'-hār, and Hē'-brōn, and Ūz'-zī-ēl. ¹⁹The sons of Mē-rār'-ī were Mäh'-lī and Mū'-shī. And these are the families of the Levites according to their fathers. ²⁰The sons of Gēr'-shōm were Lib'-nī his son, Jā'-hāth his son, Zim'-māh his son, ²¹Jō'-āh his son, Id'-dō his son, Zē'-rāh his son, Jē-āt'-ē-rai his son. ²²The sons of Kō'-hāth were Ām-mīn'-ā-dāb his son, Kōr'-āh his son, Ās'-sīr his son, ²³Ēl-kā'-nāh his son, and Ē-bī'-ā-sāph his son, and Ās'-sīr his son, ²⁴Tā'-hāth his son, Ū'-rī-ēl his son, Ūz-zī'-āh his son, and Shā'-ūl his son. ²⁵And the sons of Ēl-kā'-nāh were Ā-mā'-saī and Ā-hī'-mōth. ²⁶Ēl-kā'-nāh, the sons of Ēl-kā'-nāh — Zō'-phaī his son, and Nā'-hāth his son, ²⁷Ē-lī'-āb his son, Jē-rō'-hām his son, Ēl-kā'-nāh his son. ²⁸And the sons of Samuel were Joel Vāsh'-nī, the first-born, and Ā-bī'-jāh.

²⁹The sons of Mē-rār'-ī were Mäh'-lī, Lib'-nī his son, Shīm'-ē-ī his son, Ūz'-zā his son, ³⁰Shīm'-ē-ā his son, Hāg-gī'-āh his son, Ā-saī'-āh his son. ³¹And these are the men whom David set over the service of song in the house of the LORD, after the ark had rest. ³²And they ministered before the dwelling-place of the tabernacle of the congregation with singing, until Solomon had built the house of the LORD in Jerusalem. And they waited on their office according to their order. ³³And these are the ones who waited with their children. Of the sons of the Kō'-hāth-ites — Hē'-mān a singer, the son of Jō'-ēl, the son of Samuel, ³⁴the son of Ēl-kā'-nāh, the son of Jē-rō'-hām, the son of Ē-lī'-ēl, the son of Tō'-āh, ³⁵the son of Zuph, the son of Ēl-kā'-nāh, the son of Mā'-hāth, the son of Ā-mā'-saī, ³⁶the son of Ēl-kā'-nāh, the son of Jō'-ēl, the son of Āz-ā-rī'-āh, the son of Zēph-ā-nī'-āh, ³⁷the son of Tā'-hāth, the son of Ās'-sīr, the son of Ē-bī'-ā-sāph, the son of Kōr'-āh, ³⁸the son of Iz'-hār, the son of Kō'-hāth, the son of Levi, the son of Israel. ³⁹And his brother Ā'-sāph, who stood on his right hand, even Ā'-sāph the son of Bēr-ā-chī'-āh, the son of Shīm'-ē-ā, ⁴⁰the son of Michael, the son of Bā-ā-seī'-āh, the son of Māl-chī'-āh, ⁴¹the son of Ēth'-nī, the son of Zē'-rāh, the son of Ā-dai'-āh, ⁴²the son of Ē'-thān, the son of Zim'-māh, the son of Shīm'-ē-ī, ⁴³the son of Jā'-hāth, the son of Gēr'-shōm, the son of Levi. ⁴⁴And their brothers the sons of Mē-rār'-ī stood on the left hand — Ē'-thān the son of Kīsh'-ī, the son of Āb'-dī, the son of Māl'-lūch, ⁴⁵the son of Hāsh-ā-bī'-āh, the son of Ām-ā-zī'-āh, the son of Hil-kī'-āh, ⁴⁶the son of Ām'-zī, the son of Bā'-nī, the son of Shā'-mēr, ⁴⁷the son of Mäh'-lī, the son of Mū'-shī, the son of Mě-râr'-ī, the son of Levi. ⁴⁸Their brothers also, the Levites, were appointed for all kinds of service of the tabernacle of the house of God.

⁴⁹But Aaron and his sons offered upon the altar of the burnt offering, and on the altar of incense, and were appointed for all the work of the place most holy, and to make an atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded. ⁵⁰And these are the sons of Aaron — El-ē-ā'-zâr his son, Phîn'-ê-häs his son, Ā-bī'-shû-ā his son, ⁵¹Bük'-kī his son, Ūz'-zī his son, Zēr-ā-hī'-äh his son, ⁵²Mě-raī'-ōth his son, Ām-ä-rī'-äh his son, Ā-hī'-tüb his son, ⁵³Zä'-dök his son, Ā-hī'-mā-āz his son.

⁵⁴Now these are their dwelling-places throughout their camps, within their borders, of the sons of Aaron, of the families of the Kō'-hāth-ites — for the lot was theirs. ⁵⁵And they gave them Hē'-brōn in the land of Judah, and its suburbs all around it. ⁵⁶But the fields of the city, and the villages of it, they gave to Caleb the son of Jē-phūn'-nēh. ⁵⁷And to the sons of Aaron they gave the cities of Judah — Hebron, a city of refuge, and Lib'-nāh with its suburbs, and Jāt'-tīr, and Ēsh-tē-mō'-ā with their suburbs, ⁵⁸and Hī'-lēn with its suburbs, Dē'-bīr with its suburbs, ⁵⁹and Āsh'-ān with its suburbs, and Bēth-shē'-mēsh with its suburbs. ⁶⁰And out of the tribe of Benjamin — Gē'-bā with its suburbs, and Āl'-ē-mēth with its suburbs, and Ān'-ā-thōth with its suburbs. All their cities throughout their families were thirteen cities. ⁶¹And to the sons of Kō'-hāth, who were left of the family of that tribe, cities were given out of the half tribe, the half of Mā-nās'-sēh, by lot, ten cities. ⁶²And to the sons of Gēr'-shōm throughout their families out of the tribe of Is'-sä-chär, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Nāph'-tä-lī, and out of the tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh in Bā'-shän, thirteen cities. ⁶³And to the sons of Mě-râr'-ī were given by lot, throughout their families, out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zē-bū'-lūn, twelve cities. ⁶⁴And the children of Israel gave these cities to the Levites, with their suburbs. ⁶⁵And they gave these cities which are called by their names, out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, and out of the tribe of the children of Benjamin.

⁶⁶And the rest of the families of the sons of Kō'-hāth had cities of their borders out of the tribe of Ē'-phrā-īm. ⁶⁷And they gave to them, for the cities of refuge, Shē'-chēm in Mount Ē'-phrā-īm, with its suburbs, also Gē'-zēr with its suburbs, ⁶⁸and Jök'-mē-ām with its suburbs, and Bēth-hōr'-ōn with its suburbs, ⁶⁹and Aī'-jä-lōn with its suburbs, and Gāth-rīm'-mon with its suburbs. ⁷⁰And out of the half tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh they gave Aner with its suburbs, and Bī'-lē-ām with its suburbs, for the family of the rest of the sons of Kō'-hāth. ⁷¹To the sons of Gēr'-shōm were given out of the family of the half tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh, Gō'-län in Bā'-shän with its suburbs, and Āsh'-tä-rōth with its suburbs. ⁷²And out of the tribe of Is'-sā-chār, Kedesh with its suburbs, Dāb'-ē-rāth with its suburbs, ⁷³and Rā'-mōth with its suburbs, and Anem with its suburbs were given. ⁷⁴And out of the tribe of Asher they gave Mā'-shāl with its suburbs, and Āb'-dōn with its suburbs, ⁷⁵and Hū'-kōk with its suburbs, and Rē'-hōb with its suburbs. ⁷⁶And out of the tribe of Nāph'-tā-lī, Kē'-dēsh in Galilee with its suburbs, and Hām'-mōn with its suburbs, and Kīr-jā-thā'-īm with its suburbs.

⁷⁷To the rest of the children of Mē-rār'-ī were given out of the tribe of Zē-bū'-lūn, Rimmon with its suburbs, Tā'-bōr with its suburbs. ⁷⁸And on the other side Jordan by Jericho, on the east side of Jordan they gave them out of the tribe of Reuben, Bē'-zēr in the wilderness, with its suburbs, and Jāh'-zāh with its suburbs, ⁷⁹Kē'-dē-mōth also with its suburbs, and Mēph'-ā-āth with its suburbs. ⁸⁰And out of the tribe of Gad they gave Rā'-mōth in Gilead with its suburbs, and Mā-hā-nā'-īm with its suburbs, ⁸¹and Hēsh'-bōn with its suburbs, and Jā'-zēr with its suburbs.

¹Now the sons of Is'-sā-chār were Tō'-lā, and Pū'-āh, and Jāsh'-ūb, and Shīm'-rōn, four. ²And the sons of Tō'-lā were Ūz'-zī, and Rē-pahā'-āh, and Jēr'-ī-ēl, and Jāh'-mā-ī, and Jīb'-sām, and Shē-mū'-ēl, heads of their father's house, that is, of Tō'-lā — great men of might in their generations. Their number in the days of David was twenty-two thousand and six hundred. ³And the son of Ūz'-zī was Īz-rā-hī'-āh. And the sons of Īz-rā-hī'-āh were Mī'-chāel, and Ō-bā-dī'-āh, and Joel, Īsh-ī'-āh, five. All of them were chief men. ⁴And with them, by their generations, after the house of their fathers, were bands of soldiers for war, thirty-six thousand men. For they had many wives and sons. ⁵And their brothers among all the families of Is'-sā-chār were great men of might, numbering in all, by their genealogies, eighty-seven thousand.

⁶*The sons* of Benjamin were Bē'-lā, and Bē'-chēr, and Jēd-ī-ā'-ēl, three. ⁷And the sons of Bē'-lā were Ēz'-bōn, and Ūz'-zī, and Ūz'-zī-ēl, and Jēr'-ī-mōth, and Ī'-rī, five — heads of the house of their fathers, mighty men of valor. And they were counted by their genealogies twenty-two thousand and thirty-four. ⁸And the sons of Bē'-chēr were Zē-mī'-rā, and Jō'-āsh, and Ēl-ī-ē'-zēr, and Ēl-ī-ō-ē'-nai, and Omri, and Jēr'-ī-mōth, and Ā-bī'-āh, and Ān'-ā-thōth, and Āl'-ā-mēth. All these are the sons of Bē'-chēr. ⁹And the number of them, after their genealogy by their generations, heads of the house of their fathers, mighty men of valor, was twenty thousand and two hundred. ¹⁰The son also of Jēd-ī-ā'-ēl was Bil'-hān. And the sons of Bil'-hān were Jē'-ūsh, and Benjamin, and Ē'-hūd, and Chē-nā'-ā-nāh, and Zē'-thān, and Tār'-shish, and Ā-hī'-shā-hār. ¹¹All these the sons of Jēd-ī-ā'-ēl, by the heads of their fathers, mighty men of valor, were seventeen thousand and two hundred men, fit to go out for war and battle. ¹²Shūp'-pīm also, and Hūp'-pīm, the children of Ir, and Hū'-shīm, the sons of Ā'-hēr.

¹³The sons of Nāph'-tā-lī were Jāh'-zī-ēl, and Gū'-nī, and Jē'-zēr, and Shāl'-lūm, the sons of Bil'-hāh.

²⁰And the sons of Ephraim were Shū-thē'-lāh, and Bē'-rēd his son, and Tā'-hāth his son, and Ēl'-ā-dāh his son, and Tā'-hāth his son, ²¹and Zā'-bād his son, and Shū-thē'-lāh his son, and Ē'-zēr, and Ēl'-ē-ād, whom the men of Gath who were born in that land killed, because they came down to take away their cattle. ²²And Ephraim their father mourned many days, and his brothers came to comfort him.

²³And when he went in to his wife, she conceived and bore a son, and he called his name Bē-rī'-āh, because it went evil with his house. ²⁵And his daughter was Shē'-rāh, who built Bēth-hōr'-ōn the lower, and the upper, and Ūz'-zēn-shē'-rāh. ²⁵And Rē'-phāh was his son, also Rē'-shēph, and Tē'-lāh his son, and Tā'-hān his son, ²⁶Lā'-ā-dān his son, Am'-mī-hūd his son, Ē-lī'-shā-mā his son, ²⁷Non his son, Jē-hōsh'-ū-ā his son.

²⁸And their possessions and habitations were: Bethel and the towns of it, and eastward to Nā'-ā-rān, and westward to Gē'-zēr, with the towns of it — Shē'-chēm also and the towns of it, to Gā'-zā and the towns of it. ²⁹And by the borders of the children of Mā-nās'-sēh their possessions were Bēth-shē'-ān and its towns, Tā'-ā-nāch and its towns, Mē-gīd'-dō and its towns, Dor and its towns. In these lived the children of Joseph the son of Israel.

³⁰The sons of Asher were Īm'-nāh, and Is'-ū-āh, and Ish'-ū-aī, and Bē-rī'-āh, and Sē'-rāh their sister. ³¹And the sons of Bē-rī'-āh were Hē'-bēr, and Māl'-chī-ēl, who is the father of Bīr-zā'-vīth. ³²And Heber fathered Jāph'-lēt, and Shō'-mēr, and Hō'-thām, and Shū'-ā their sister. ³³And the sons of Jāph'-lēt were Pā'-sāch, and Bīm'-hāl, and Āsh'-vāth. These are the children of Jāph'-lēt. ³⁴And the sons of Shā'-mēr were Ā'-hī, and Rōh'-gāh, Jē-hūb'-bāh, and Ār'-ām. ³⁵And the sons of his brother Hē'-lēm were Zō'-phāh, and Īm'-nā, and Shē'-lēsh, and Ā'-māl.

³⁶The sons of Zō'-phāh were Sū'-āh, and Hār'-ně-phēr, and Shū'-āl, and Bē'-rī, and Im'-rāh, ³⁷Bē'-zēr, and Hod, and Shām'-mā, and Shīl'-shāh, and Ith'-rān, and Bēer'-ā. ³⁸And the sons of Jē'-thēr were Jē-phūn'-nēh, and Pis'-pāh, and Ār'-ā. ³⁹And the sons of Ūl'-lā were Ār'-āh, and Hān'-i-ēl, and Rē'-zī-ā. ⁴⁰All these were the children of Asher, heads of their father's house, choice and mighty men of valor, chief of the princes. And the number throughout the generation of those who were able for war, for battle, was twenty-six thousand men.

¹Now Benjamin fathered Bē'-lā his first-born, Āsh'-bēl the second, and Ā-hār'-āh the third, ²Nō'-hāh the fourth, and Rā'-phā the fifth. ³And the sons of Bē'-lā were Ād'-dār, and Gē'-rā, and Ā-bī'-hūd, ⁴and Ā-bī'-shū-ā, and Nā'-ā-mān, and Ā-hō'-āh, ⁵and Gē'-rā, and Shē-phū'-phān, and Hū'-rām. ⁶And these are the sons of Ē'-hūd (these are the heads of the fathers of the people of Gē'-bā, and they carried them captive to Mān'-ā-hāth). ⁷And as for Nā'-ā-mān and Ā-hī'-āh and Gē'-rā, they carried them away. And Ehud fathered Ūz'-zā and Ā-hī'-hūd. ⁸And Shā-hā-rā'-īm fathered children in the country of Moab, after he had sent them away. Hū'-shīm and Bā'-ā-rā were his wives. ⁹And by Hō'-dēsh his wife he had Jō'-bāb, and Zī'-bī-ā, and Mē'-shā, and Māl'-chām, ¹⁰and Jē'-ūz, and Shā-chī'-ā, and Mīr'-mā. These were his sons, heads of the fathers. ¹¹And by Hū'-shīm he had Ā-bī'-tūb, and Ēl-pā'-āl. ¹²The sons of Ēl-pā'-āl were Ē'-bēr, and Mī'-shām, and Shā'-mēd, who built Ō'-nō and Lod, with their towns — ¹³Bē-rī'-āh also, and Shē'-mā, who were heads of the fathers of the people of Aī'-jā-lōn, who drove away the people of Gath — ¹⁴and Ā-hī'-ō, Shā'-shāk, and Jēr'-ē-mōth, ¹⁵and Zēb-ā-dī'-āh, and Ār'-ād, and Ā'-dēr, ¹⁶and Mī'-chāel, and Īs'-pāh, and Jō'-hā, the sons of Bē-rī'-āh, ¹⁷and Zēb-ā-dī'-āh, and Mē-shūl'-lām, and Hēz'-ē-kī, and Hē'-bēr, ¹⁸Ish'-mē-raī also, and Jēz-lī'-āh, and Jō'-bāb, the sons of Ēl-pā'-āl; ¹⁹and Jā'-kīm, and Zīch'-rī, and Zāb'-dī, ²⁰and Ēl-i-ē'-nāī, and Zīl'-thai, and Ē-lī'-ēl, ²¹and Ā-dai'-āh, and Bē-raī'-āh, and Shīm'-rāth, the sons of Shīm'-hī; ²²and Īsh'-pān, and Hē'-bēr, and Ē-lī'-ēl, ²³and Āb'-dōn, and Zīch'-rī, and Hā'-nān, ²⁴and Hān-ā-nī'-āh, and Ē'-lām, and Ān-tō-thī'-jāh, ²⁵and Īph-ē-deī'-āh, and Pēn'-ū-ēl, the sons of Shā'-shāk; ²⁶and Shām'-shē-raī, and Shē-hā-rī'-āh, and Āth-ā-lī'-āh, ²⁷and Jār-ē-sī'-āh, and Ē-lī'-āh, and Zīch'-rī, the sons of Jē-rō'-hām. ²⁸These were heads of the fathers, by their generations, chief men. These lived in Jerusalem. ²⁹And at Gīb'-ē-ōn lived the father of Gīb'-ē-ōn, whose wife's name was Mā'-ā-chāh. ³⁰And his first-born son was Āb'-dōn, and Zūr, and Kish, and Bā'-āl, and Nā'-dāb, ³¹and Gē'-dōr, and Ā-hī'-ō, and Zā'-chēr. ³²And Mīk'-lōth fathered Shīm'-ē-āh. And these also lived with their brothers in Jerusalem, across from them.

³³And Ner fathered Kish, and Kish fathered Saul. And Saul fathered Jonathan, and Māl'-chī-shū'-ā, and Ā-bīn'-ā-dāb, and Ēsh-bā'-āl. ³⁴And the son of Jonathan was Mēr'-īb-bā'-āl. And Mēr'-īb-bā'-āl fathered Mī'-cāh. ³⁵And the sons of Mī'-cāh were Pī'-thōn, and Mē'-lēch, and Tār'-ē-ā, and Ahaz. ³⁶And Ahaz fathered Jē-hō'-ā-dāh. And Jē-hō'-ā-dāh fathered Āl'-ē-mēth, and Āz-mā'-vēth, and Zim'-rī. And Zim'-rī fathered Mō'-zā. ³⁷And Mō'-zā fathered Bī'-nē-ā — Rā'-phā was his son, Ēl-ē-ā'-sāh his son, Ā'-zēl his son. ³⁸And Ā'-zēl had six sons, whose names are these — Āz-rī'-kām, Bō'-chē-rù, and Īsh'-mā-ēl, and Shē-ā-rī'-āh, and Ō-bā-dī'-āh, and Hā'-nān. All these were the sons of Ā'-zēl. ³⁹And the sons of Ē'-shēk his brother were Ū'-lām his first-born, Jē'-hūsh, the second, and Ē-liph'-ē-lēt the third. ⁴⁰And the sons of Ū'-lām were mighty men of valor, archers, and had many sons, and sons' sons, a hundred and fifty. All these are the sons of Benjamin.

¹So all Israel was counted by genealogies. And behold, they were written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah, who were carried away to Babylon for their sins.

²Now the first people who lived in their possessions in their cities were the Israelites, the priests, Levites, and the Nēth'-ī-nīmš. ³And in Jerusalem lived of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of Ephraim, and Mā-nās'-sēh — ⁴Ū'-thaī the son of Ām'-mī-hūd, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bā'-nī, of the children of Phār'-ēz the son of Judah. ⁵And of the Shī'-lō-nītes, Ā-saī'-āh the first-born and his sons. ⁶And of the sons of Zē'-rāh, Jēū'-ēl, and their brothers, six hundred and ninety. ⁷And of the sons of Benjamin — Sāl'-lū the son of Mē-shūl' lām, the son of Hō-dā-vī'-āh, the son of Hās-ē-nū'-āh, ⁸and Īb-neī'-āh the son of Jē-rō'-hām, and Ē'-lāh the son of Ūz'-zī, the son of Mīch'-rī, and Mē-shūl'-lām the son of Shēph-ā-thī'-āh, the son of Reū'-ēl, the son of Īb-nī'-jāh, ⁹and their brothers, according to their generations, nine hundred and fifty-six. All these men were chief of the fathers in the house of their fathers.

thūn, and Bēr-ē-chī'-āh the son of Asa, the son of Ēl-kā'-nāh, who lived in the villages of the Nē-tōph'-ā-thītes. ¹⁷And the porters were Shāl'lūm, and Āk'-kūb, and Tāl'-mōn, and Ā-hī'-mān, and their brothers. Shāl'lūm was the chief, ¹⁸who had waited in the king's gate eastward before. They were porters in the companies of the children of Levi. ¹⁹And Shāl'lūm the son of Kōr'-ē, the son of Ē-bī'-ā-sāph, the son of Kōr'-āh, and his brothers, of the house of his father, the Kōr'-ā-hītes, were over the work of the service, keepers of the gates of the tabernacle. And their fathers, who were over the army of the LORD, were keepers of the entry. ²⁰And Phīn'-ē-hās the son of Ēl-ē-ā'-zār was the ruler over them in time past, and the LORD was with him. ²¹And Zēch-ā-rī'-āh the son of Mē-shēl-ē-mī'-āh was porter of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. ²²All these who were chosen to be porters in the gates were two hundred and twelve. These were counted by their genealogies in their villages, whom David and Samuel the seer ordained in their set office. ²³So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of the LORD, the house of the tabernacle, by wards. ²⁴The porters were in four quarters, toward the east, west, north, and south. ²⁵And their brothers, who were in their villages, were to come after seven days from time to time with them. ²⁶For these Levites, the four chief porters, were in their set office, and were over the storehouses and treasuries of the house of God.

²⁷And they lived all around the house of God, because the duty was upon them. And the opening of it every morning belonged to them. ²⁸And certain of them had the charge of the ministering vessels, that they should bring them in and out by count. ²⁹*Some* of them also were appointed to oversee the vessels and all the instruments of the sanctuary, and the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices. ³⁰And some of the sons of the priests made the ointment of the spices. ³¹And Māt-tī-thī'-āh, one of the Levites, who was the first-born of Shāl'lūm the Kōr'-ā-hīte, had the set office over the things that were made in the pans. ³²And others from their brothers, of the sons of the Kō'-hāth-ītes, were over the showbread, to prepare it every sabbath. ³³And these are the singers, chief of the fathers of the Levites, in the chambers free of duty, for they were employed in that work day and night. ³⁴These chief fathers of the Levites were chief throughout their generations. These lived at Jerusalem.

³⁵And Jē-hī'-ēl, the father of Gīb'-ē-ōn, lived in Gīb'-ē-ōn. His wife's name was Mā'-ā-chāh. ³⁶And his first-born son was Āb'-dōn, then Zūr, and Kish, and Bā'-āl, and Ner, and Nā'-dāb, ³⁷and Gē'-dōr, and Ā-hī'-ō, and Zēch-ā-rī'-āh, and Mīk'-lōth. ³⁸And Mīk'-lōth fathered Shīm'-ē-ām. And they also dwelt with their brothers at Jerusalem, across from their brothers. ³⁹And Ner fathered Kish. And Kish fathered Saul. And Saul fathered Jonathan, and Māl'-chī-shū'-ā, and Ā-bīn'-ā-dāb, and Ēsh-bā'-āl. ⁴⁰And the son of Jonathan was Mēr'-īb-bā'-āl. And Mēr'-īb-bā'-āl fathered Mī'-cāh. ⁴¹And the sons of Mī'-cāh were Pī'-thōn, and Mē'-lēch, and Tāh'-rē-ā, ⁴²and Ahaz who fathered Jār'-āh. And Jār'-āh fathered Āl'-ē-mēth, and Āz-mā'-vēth, and Zīm'-rī. And Zīm'-rī fathered Mō'-zā. ⁴³And Mō'-zā fathered Bī'-nē-ā, and Rē-phaī'-āh his son, Ēl-ē-ā'-sāh his son, Ā'-zēl his son. ⁴⁴And Ā'-zēl had six sons, whose names are these — Āz-rī'-kām, Bō'-chē-rū, and Iśh'-mā-ēl, and Shē-ā-rī'-āh, and Ō-bā-dī'-āh, and Hā'-nān. These were the sons of Ā'-zēl.

¹Now the Philistines fought against Israel. And the men of Israel fled in front of the Philistines, and fell down dead in Mount Gil-bō'-ā. ²And the Philistines followed hard after Saul and after his sons. And the Philistines killed Jonathan and Ā-bīn'-ā-dāb, and Māl'-chī-shū'-ā, the sons of Saul. ³And the battle went sorely against Saul. And the archers lit him, and he was wounded by the archers. ⁴Then Saul said to his armor-bearer, Draw your sword and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised ones come and mock me. But his armor-bearer would not, for he was very much afraid. So Saul took a sword and fell upon it. ⁵And when his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell on the sword and died. ⁶So Saul and his three sons died, and all his house died together. ⁷And when all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, then they left their cities and fled. And the Philistines came and lived in them.

⁸And on the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, they found Saul and his sons fallen in Mount Gil-bō'-ā. ⁹And when they had stripped him, they took his head and his armor. And they sent into the land of the Philistines all around, to carry news to their idols and to the people. ¹⁰And they put his armor in the house of their gods, and fastened his head in the temple of Dā'-gōn.

¹¹And when all Jā'-bēsh—gīl'-ē-ād heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, ¹²they arose, all the mighty men, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jā'-bēsh. And they buried their bones under the oak in Jā'-bēsh, and fasted seven days.

¹³So Saul died for his sin which he committed against the LORD, against the word of the LORD, which he did not keep, and also for asking of a familiar spirit, to inquire of it — and inquired not of the LORD. Therefore He killed him and turned the kingdom to David the son of Jesse.

¹Then all Israel gathered themselves to David to Hebron, saying, Behold, we are your bone and your flesh. ²And moreover, in times past, even when Saul was king, you were the one who led out and brought in Israel. And the LORD your God said to you, You shall feed My people Israel, and you shall be ruler over My people Israel. ³Therefore all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron. And David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD. And they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by Samuel.

⁴And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, which is Jē'-būs, where the Jēb'-ū-sites were the people of the land. ⁵And the people of Jē'-būs said to David, You shall not come here. Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion, which is the city of David. ⁶And David said, Whoever strikes the Jēb'-ū-sites first shall be chief and captain. So Joab the son of Zēr-ū-ī'-āh went up first and was chief. ⁷And David lived in the stronghold. Therefore they called it the city of David. ⁸And he built the city round about, even from Mīl'-lō round about. And Joab repaired the rest of the city. ⁹So David became greater and greater, for the LORD of hosts was with him.

¹⁰These also are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who made themselves strong with him in his kingdom, with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel. ¹¹And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had – Jā-shōb'-ē-ām, a Hāch'-mō-nīte, the chief of the captains. He lifted up his spear against three hundred, who were killed by him at one time. ¹²And after him was Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the son of Dō'-dō, the Ā-hō'-hīte, who was one of the three mighties. ¹³He was with David at Pās-dām'-mīm. And there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, where there was a piece of ground full of barley. And the people fled from before the Philistines. ¹⁴And they set themselves in the midst of that place, and delivered it, and killed the Philistines. And the LORD saved them by a great deliverance.

¹⁵Now three of the mighty captains went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Ā-dūl'-lām. And the army of the Philistines camped in the valley of Rēph'-ā-īm. ¹⁶And David was then in the stronghold, and the Philistines' troop was then at Bethlehem. ¹⁷And David longed and said, O that someone would give me drink from the water of the well of Bethlehem which is by the gate! ¹⁸And the three broke through the army of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, which was by the gate. And they took it, and brought it to David. But David would not drink of it, but poured it out to the LORD. ¹⁹And he said, May my God forbid me to do this thing. Shall I drink the blood of these men who have put their lives in danger? For they brought it with their lives. Therefore he would not drink it. These three mighty ones did these things.

²⁰And Āb'-ī-shāi the brother of Joab was chief of the three. For lifting up his spear against three hundred, he killed them, and had a name among the three. ²¹Of the three, he was more honorable than the two — for he was their captain. However, he did not come into the first three. ²²Bē-naī'-āh the son of Jē-hoi'-ā-dā, the son of a mighty man of Kāb'-zēel, had done many acts. He killed two lion-like men of Moab. He also went down and killed a lion in a pit on a snowy day. ²³And he killed an Egyptian, a man of great stature, five cubits high. And in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam, and he went down to him with a staff and pulled the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear. ²⁴These things Bē-naī'-āh the son of Jē-hoi'-ā-dā did, and had the name among the three mighty ones. ²⁵Behold, he was honorable among the thirty, but did not come into the first three. And David set him over his guard.

²⁶Also the mighty men of the armies were: Ās'-ā-hēl the brother of Joab, Ēl-hā'-nān the son of Dō'-dō of Bethlehem, ²⁷Shām'-mōth the Hār'-ō-rīte, Hē'-lēz the Pē'-lō-nīte, ²⁸Ī'-rā the son of Īk'-kēsh the Tē-kō'-īte, Ā'-bī-ē'-zēr the Ān'-tō-thīte, ²⁹Sīb'-bē-caī the Hū'-shā-thīte, Ī'-lā-ī the Ā-hō'-hīte, ³⁰Mā'-hā-raī the Nē-tōph'-ā-thīte, Hē'-lēd the son of Bā'-ā-nāh the Nē-tōph'-ā-thīte, ³¹Ī-thā'-ī a son of Rī-bā'-ī of Gib'-ē-āh which belonged to the children of Benjamin, Bē-naī'-āh the Pī-rā'-thōn-īte, ³²Hū-rā'-ī of the brooks of Gā'-āsh, Ā-bī'-ēl the Ār'-bā-thīte, ³³Āz-mā'-vēth the Bā-hā-rū'-mīte, Ē-li-āh'-bā the Shā-āl-bō'-nīte — ³⁴the sons of Hāsh'-ēm the Gī'-zōn-īte — Jonathan the son of Shā'-gē the Hār'-ā-rīte, ³⁵Ā-hī'-ām the son of Sā'-cār the Hār'-ā-rīte, Ē-lī'-phāl the son of Ur, ³⁶Hē'-phēr the Mē-chē'-rā-thīte, Ā-hī'-jāh the Pē'-lō-nīte, ³⁷Hēz'-rō of Cār'-mēl, Nā'-ā-raī the son of Ēz'-bāi, ³⁸Joel the brother of Nā'-thān, Mīb'-hār the son of Hāg-gē'-rī, ³⁹Zē'-lēk the Ām'-mōn-īte, Nā'-hā-raī the Bē'-rō-thīte, the armor-bearer of Joab the son of Zēr-ū-ī'-āh, ⁴⁰Ī'-rā the Īth'-rīte, Gār'-ēb the Īth'-rīte, ⁴¹Ū-rī'-āh the Hīt'-tīte, Zā'-bād the son of Āh'-lā-ī, ⁴²Ād'-ī-nā the son of Shī'-zā the Reubenite, a captain of the Reubenites, and thirty with him, ⁴³Hā'-nān the son of Mā'-ā-chāh, and Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt the Mīth'-nīte, ⁴⁴Ūz-zī'-ā the Āsh-tē'-rā-thīte, Shā'-mā and Jē-hī'-ēl the sons of Hō'-thān the Ā-rō'-ēr-īte. ⁴⁵Jēd-ī-ā'-ēl the son of Shīm'-rī, and Jō'-hā his brother, the Tī'-zīte. ⁴⁶Ē-lī'-ēl the Mā-hā'-vīte, and Jēr-ī-bā'-ī, and Jōsh'-ā-vī'-āh, sons of Ēl-nā'-ām, and Īth'-māh the Moabite, ⁴⁷Ē-lī'-ēl, and Ō'-bēd, and Jās'-ī-ēl the Mē-sōb'-ā-īte.

Bē-rā'-chāh, and Jehu of Ān'-ā-thōth ⁴and Is-māi'-āh the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty, and Jeremiah, and Jā-hā'-zī-ēl, and Jō-hā'-nān, and Jōs'-ā-bād the Gē-dē'-rā-thīte, ⁵Ē-lū'-zai, and Jēr'-ī-mōth, and Bē-ā-lī'-āh, and Shēm-ā-rī'-āh, and Shēph-ā-tī'-āh the Hā-rū'-phīte, ⁶Ēl-kā'-nāh, and Jē-sī'-āh, and Az'-ā-rēel, and Jō-ē'-zēr, and Jā-shōb'-ē-ām, the Kōr'-hites, ⁷and Jō-ē'-lāh, and Zēb-ādī'-āh, the sons of Jē-rō'-hām of Gē'-dōr. ⁸And mighty men from Gad separated themselves to David into the stronghold in the wilderness, men of war fit for the battle, who could handle shield and buckler, whose faces were the faces of lions, and were as swift as the roes upon the mountains — ⁹Ē'-zēr the first, Ō-bā-dī'-āh the second, Ē-lī'-āb the third, ¹⁰Mish-mān'-nāh the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth, ¹¹Āt-tā'-ī the sixth, Ē-lī'-ēl the seventh, ¹²Jō-hā'-nān the eighth, El-zā'-bād the ninth, ¹³Jeremiah the tenth, Māch-bā'-naī the eleventh. ¹⁴These were the sons of Gad, captains of the army. One of the least was over a hundred, and the greatest over a thousand. ¹⁵These are they who went over Jordan in the first month, when it had overflowed all its banks. And they put all those of the valleys to flight, toward the east and toward the west.

¹⁶And there came some from the children of Benjamin and Judah to the stronghold unto David. ¹⁷And David went out to meet them, and answered and said to them, If you have come to me in peace, to help me, my heart shall be knit to you. But if you come to betray me to my enemies, since there is no wrong in my hands, let the God of our fathers look upon it and rebuke it. ¹⁸Then the Spirit came upon Ā-mā'-saī, chief of the captains. And he said, We are yours, David, and on your side, O son of Jesse. Peace, peace be upon you, and peace be upon your helpers. For your God helps you. Then David received them and made them captains of the band. ¹⁹And there fell some from Mā-nās'-sēh to David, when he came with the Philistines to battle against Saul. (But they did not help them. For the lords of the Philistines sent him away upon advice, saying, He will fall to his master Saul with our heads.) ²⁰As he went to Zik'-lāg, there fell to him these from Mā-nās'-sēh — Ād'-nāh, and Jō'-zā-bād, and Jēd-ī-ā'-ēl, and Mī'-chāel, and Jō'-zā-bād, and Ē-lī'-hū, and Zil'-thai, captains of the thousands who were from Mā-nās'-sēh. ²¹And they helped David against the band, for they were all mighty men of power, and were captains in the army. ²²For at that time there came many to David day by day to help him, until it was a great army, like the army of God.

²³And these are the numbers of the bands who were ready armed for war, and came to David to Hē'-brōn, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the Lord. ²⁴The children of Judah who bore shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred, ready armed for war. ²⁵From the children of Simeon the mighty men of power for the war were seven thousand and one hundred. ²⁶From the children of Levi were four thousand and six hundred. ²⁷And Jē-hoi'-ā-dā was the leader of the Aaronites, and with him were three thousand and seven hundred, ²⁸and Zā'-dōk, a young man mighty in power, and of his father's house were twenty-two captains. ²⁹And the children of Benjamin, the kindred of Saul, were three thousand. For until now the greatest part of them had kept the ward of the house of Saul. ³⁰And from the children of Ephraim twenty thousand and eight hundred mighty men of power, famous throughout the house of their fathers. ³¹And from the half tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh were eighteen thousand, who were chosen by name to come and make David king.

³²And from the children of Īs'-sā-chär, men who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do — the heads of them were two hundred. And all their brothers were at their command. ³³From Zē-bū'-lün, such as went forth to battle, expert in war, with all the weapons of war, were fifty thousand who could keep rank. They were not of a double heart. ³⁴And from Nāph'-tä-li were a thousand captains. And with them with shield and spear were thirty-seven thousand. ³⁵And from the men of Dan, expert in war, were twenty-eight thousand and six hundred. ³⁶And from Asher, such as went forth to battle, expert in war, were forty thousand. ³⁷And on the other side of Jordan, from the men of Reuben and of Gad, and from the half tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh, with all kinds of weapons of war for the battle, were a hundred and twenty thousand. ³⁸All these men of war, who could keep rank, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over Israel. And also all the rest of Israel were of one heart to make David king. ³⁹And they were with David three days, eating and drinking. For their brothers had prepared food for them. ⁴⁰Moreover, those who were near them, even to Īs'-sā-chär and Zē-bū'-lün and Nāph'-tä-li, brought bread on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen. And they brought food, meal, cakes of figs and bunches of raisins, and wine and oil, and oxen and sheep plentifully. For there was joy in Israel.

¹And David consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, with every leader. ²And David said to all the congregation of Israel, If it seems good to you, and of the LORD our God, let us send abroad to our brothers everywhere, those who are left in all the land of Israel, and with them to the priests and Levites who are in their cities and suburbs, so that they may gather themselves to us. ³And let us bring again the ark of our God to us. For we did not inquire at it in the days of Saul. ⁴And all the congregation said that they would do so, for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people. ⁵So David gathered all Israel together, from Shī'-hōr of Egypt even to the entering of Hā'-māth, to bring the ark of God from Kīr'-jäth-jē'-ä-rīm. ⁶And David and all Israel went up to Bā'-ä-läh, to Kīr'-jäth-jē'-ä-rīm, which belonged to Judah, to bring up the ark of God the LORD from there, He who lives between the chēr'-ū-bīms, whose name is called upon it. ⁷And they carried the ark of God in a new cart out of the house of Ā-bin'-ā-dāb. And Ūz'-zā and Ā-hī'-ō drove the cart. ⁸And David and all Israel played before God with all their might, and with singing, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.

⁹And when they came to the threshing-floor of Chī'-dōn, Ūz'-zā put forth his hand to hold the ark — for the oxen stumbled. ¹⁰And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Ūz'-zā, and He struck him because he put his hand to the ark. And he died there before the LORD. ¹¹And David was displeased because the LORD had made a break upon Ūz'-zā. Therefore that place is called Pē'-rēz-ūz'-zā to this day. ¹²And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God to me? ¹³So David did not bring the ark to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Ō'bēd-ē'-dom the Gīt'-tīte. ¹⁴And the ark of God remained with the family of Ō'bēd-ē'-dom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed the house of Ō'bēd-ē'-dom and all that he had.

¹Now Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and timbers of cedars, with masons and carpenters, to build him a house. ²And David saw that the LORD had confirmed him king over Israel, for his kingdom was lifted upon high, because of His people Israel.

³And David took more wives at Jerusalem. And David fathered more sons and daughters. ⁴Now these are the names of his children whom he had in Jerusalem — Shām'-mū-ā, and Shō'-bāb, Nā'-thān, and Solomon, ⁵and Ib'-hār, and Ē-lī'-shū-ā, and Ē'l'-pā-lēt, ⁶and Nō'-gāh, and Nēph'-ēg, and Jā-phī'-ā, ⁷and Ē-lī'-shā-mā, and Bēe-lī'-ā-dā, and Ē-līph'-ā-lēt.

⁸And when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David. And David heard, and went out against them. ⁹And the Philistines came and spread themselves in the valley of Rēph'-ā-īm. ¹⁰And David asked of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? And wilt Thou deliver them into my hand? And the LORD said to him, Go up, for I will deliver them into your hand. ¹¹So they came up to Bā'-āl-pē-rā'-zīm. And David struck them there. Then David said, God has broken in upon my enemies by my hand like the breaking forth of waters. Therefore they called the name of that place Bā'-āl-pē-rā'-zīm. ¹²And when they had left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burned with fire. ¹³And the Philistines still again spread themselves abroad in the valley. ¹⁴Therefore David asked again of God. And God said to him, Do not go up after them. Turn away from them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees. ¹⁵And when you shall hear a sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, then you shall go out to battle. For God has gone forth before you to strike the army of the Philistines. ¹⁶David therefore did as God commanded him. And they struck the army of the Philistines from Gib'-ë-ôn even to Gá'-zër. ¹⁷And the fame of David went out into all lands. And the LORD brought the fear of him upon all nations.

¹And David made houses for himself in the city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched a tent for it. ²Then David said, No one ought to carry the ark of God except the Levites, for God has chosen them to carry the ark of God, and to minister to Him forever. ³And David gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD unto its place which He had prepared for it. ⁴And David gathered the children of Aaron, and the Levites. ⁵From the sons of Kō'-hâth were Ū'-rī-ël the chief, and a hundred and twenty of his brothers. ⁶From the sons of Mē-râr'-ī were Ā-saī'-âh the chief, and two hundred and twenty of his brothers. ⁷From the sons of Gēr'-shōm were Jō'-ël the chief, and a hundred and thirty of his brothers. ⁸From the sons of Ē-lī-zā'-phān were Shēm-aī'-âh the chief and two hundred of his brothers. ⁹From the sons of Hebron were Ē-lī'-ël the chief and eighty of his brothers. ¹⁰From the sons of Ūz'-zī-ël were Ām-mīn'-ā-dāb the chief and a hundred and twelve of his brothers.

¹¹And David called for Zā'-dōk and Ā-bī'-ā-thār the priests, and for the Levites, for Ū'-rī-ël, Ā-saī'-âh, and Jō'-ël, Shē-maī'-âh, and Ē-lī'-ël, and Ām-mīn'-ā-dāb. ¹²And he said to them, You are the chief of the fathers of the Levites. Sanctify yourselves, you and your brothers, so that you may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel to the place which I have prepared for it. ¹³For because you did not do it at the first, the LORD our God made a break upon us, since we did not seek Him in due order. ¹⁴So the priests and the Levites made themselves pure in order to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel. ¹⁵And the children of the Levites carried the ark of God upon their shoulders, with the staves on it, as Moses commanded according to the word of the LORD. ¹⁶And David spoke to the chief of the Levites to choose their brothers to be the singers with instruments of music, psalteries and harps and cymbals, sounding by lifting the voice with joy. ¹⁷So the Levites chose Hē'-mān the son of Joel, and of his brothers, Ā'-sāph the son of Bēr-ē-chī'-âh. And from the sons of Mē-râr'-ī their brothers, was Ē'-thān the son of Kū-shaī'-âh. ¹⁸And with them were their brothers of the second degree, Zēch-ā-rī'-âh, Ben, and Jā'-ā-zī-ël, and Shē-mī'-rā-mōth, and Jē-hī'-ël, and Ūn'-nī, Ē-lī'-âb, and Bē-naī'-âh, and Mā'-ā-seī'-âh, and Māt-ti-thī'-âh, and Ē-liph'-ē-lēh, and Mik-neī'-âh, and Ō'-bēd-ē'-dom, and Jē-ī-ēl, the porters. ¹⁹So the singers, Hē'-mān, Ā'-sāph, and Ē'-thān, were chosen to sound with cymbals of brass — ²⁰and Zēch-ā-rī'-āh, and Ā'-zī-ēl, and Shē-mī'-rā-mōth, and Jē-hī'-ēl, and Ūn'-nī, and Ē-lī'-āb, and Mā-ā-seī'-āh, and Bē-naī'-āh, with psalteries on Āl'-ā-mōth. ²¹And Māt-tī-thī'-āh, and Ē-liph'-ē-lēh, and Mik-neī'-āh, and Ō'-bēd-ē'-dom, and Jē-ī-ēl, and Āz-ā-zī'-āh, were to lead with harps on the Shēm'-in-ith. ²²And Chēn-ā-nī'-āh, chief of the Levites, was for song. He instructed about the song, because he was skillful. ²³And Bēr-ē-chī'-āh and Ēl-kā'-nāh were door-keepers for the ark. ²⁴And Shēb-ā-nī'-āh, and Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt, and Nēth'-ā-nēel, and Ā-mā'-saī, and Zēch-ā-rī'-āh, and Bē-naī'-āh, and Ēl-ī-ē'-zēr, the priests, blew with the trumpets before the ark of God. And Ō'-bēd-ē'-dom and Jē-hī'-āh were door-keepers for the ark.

²⁵So David and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of Ō'-bēd-ē'-dom with joy. ²⁶And when God helped the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, they offered seven bulls and seven rams. ²⁷And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites who carried the ark, and the singers, and Chēn-ā-nī'-āh the master of the song with the singers. David also had upon him an ē'-phōd of linen. ²⁸So all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps.

²⁹And as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, Mī'-chāl the daughter of Saul, looking out a window, saw king David dancing and playing. And she despised him in her heart.

¹So they brought the ark of God and set it in the middle of the tent which David had pitched for it. And they offered burnt sacrifices and peace offerings before God. ²And when David had made an end of offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD. ³And he divided to every one of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.

⁴And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, and to record, and to thank and praise the LORD God of Israel — ⁵Ā'-sāph the chief, and next to him Zēch-ā-rī'-āh, Jē-ī-ēl, and Shē-mī'-rā-mōth, and Jē-hī'-ēl, and Māt-tī-thī'-āh, and Ē-lī'-āb, and Bē-naī'-āh, and Ō'-bēd-ē'-dom. And Jē-ī-ēl praised with psalteries and harps, but Ā'-sāph made a sound with cymbals. ⁶Also Bē-naī'-āh and Jā-hā'-zī-ēl the priests praised with trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

⁷Then on that day David first delivered this psalm into the hand of Ā'-sāph and his brothers in order to thank the LORD.

⁸Give thanks unto the LORD, call upon His name, make known His deeds among the people. ⁹Sing unto Him, sing psalms unto Him, talk of all His wondrous works. ¹⁰Glory in His holy name, let the heart of those who seek the LORD rejoice. ¹¹Seek the LORD and His strength, seek His face continually. ¹²Remember His marvelous works which He had done, His wonders, and the judgments of His mouth, ¹³O seed of Israel His servant, children of Jacob, His chosen ones. ¹⁴He is the LORD our God. His judgments are in all the earth. ¹⁵Be always mindful of His covenant, the word which He commanded to a thousand generations, ¹⁶which He made with Abraham, and of His oath unto Isaac. ¹⁷And He has confirmed the saying to Jacob for a law, to Israel for an everlasting covenant, ¹⁸saying, Unto you will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance, ¹⁹when you were but few, even a few, and strangers in it. ²⁰And when they went from nation to nation, and from one kingdom to another people, ²¹He did not allow any man to do them wrong. Yea, He reproveth kings for their sakes, ²²saying, Touch not My anointed, and do My prophets no harm. ²³Sing unto the LORD, all the earth. Show forth from day to day His salvation. ²⁴Declare His glory among the heathen, His marvelous works among all nations. ²⁵For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised. He also is to be feared above all gods. ²⁶For all the gods of the people are idols, but the LORD made the heavens. ²⁷Glory and honor are in His presence, strength and gladness are in His place. ²⁸Give to the LORD, you kindreds of the people, give to the LORD glory and strength. ²⁹Give to the LORD the glory due to His name, bring an offering and come before Him, worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness. ³⁰Fear before Him, all the earth. The world also shall be steadfast, so that it may not be moved. ³¹Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice. And let men say among the nations, The LORD reigns. ³²Let the sea roar, and the fulness of it. Let the fields rejoice, and all that are in them. ³³Then shall the trees of the wood sing out at the presence of the LORD, because He comes to judge the earth. ³⁴O give thanks unto the LORD, for He is good, for His mercy endures forever. ³⁵And say, Save us, O God of our salvation, and gather us together, and deliver us from the heathen, so that we may give thanks to Thy holy name, and glory in Thy praise. ³⁶Blessed be the LORD God of Israel forever and ever. And all the people said, Amen, and praised the LORD.

³⁷So he left there Ā'-sāph and his brothers before the ark of the covenant of the LORD to minister before the ark continually, as every day's work required. ³⁸And also Ō'-bēd-ē'-dom, with their brothers, sixty-eight. He left there also Ō'-bēd-ē'-dom, the son of Jē-dū'-thūn and Hō'-sāh to be keepers of the gate. ³⁹And he left Zā'-dōk the priest and his brothers the priests before the tabernacle of the LORD in the high place which was at Gīb'-ě-ōn, ⁴⁰to offer burnt offerings unto the LORD upon the altar of the burnt offering morning and evening without end, and to do according to all that is written in the law of the LORD which He commanded Israel. ⁴¹And he left with them Hē'-mān and Jē-dū'-thūn, and the rest who were chosen, who were called by name, to give thanks to the LORD, because His mercy endures forever. ⁴²And with them were Hē'-mān and Jē-dū'-thūn with trumpets and cymbals for those who should make a sound, and with musical instruments of God. And the sons of Jē-dū'-thūn were gatekeepers. ⁴³And all the people departed, each man to his house. And David returned to bless his house.

¹And as David sat in his house, David said to Nathan the prophet, Lo, I dwell in a house of cedars, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under curtains. ²Then Nathan said to David, Do all that is in your heart, for God is with you. ³And the same night the word of God came to Nathan, saying, ⁴Go and tell David My servant, Thus says the LORD, You shall not build Me a house to live in. ⁵For I have not lived in a house since the day that I brought up Israel until this day, but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another. ⁶Wherever I have walked with all Israel, did I speak a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed My people, saying, Why have you not built Me a house of cedars? ⁷Now therefore you shall say this to My servant David, Thus says the LORD of hosts, I took you from the shepcote, from following the sheep, so that you should be ruler over My people Israel. ⁸And I have been with you wherever you have walked, and have cut off all your enemies from before you, and have made you a name like the name of the great men who are in the earth. ⁹Also I will set a place for My people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall live in their place and shall be moved no more. Neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, as at the beginning, ¹⁰and since the time that I commanded judges to be over My people Israel. Moreover I will subdue all your enemies. Furthermore I tell you that the LORD will build you a house.

¹¹And when your days have ended so that you must go to be with your fathers, I will raise up your seed after you, who shall be from your sons. And I will make his kingdom sure. ¹²He shall build Me a house, and I will establish his throne forever. ¹³I will be his Father, and he shall be My son. And I will not take My mercy away from him as I took it from him who was before you. ¹⁴But I will settle him in My house, and in My kingdom forever. And his throne shall be made sure forevermore. ¹⁵According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

¹⁶And David the king came and sat before the LORD and said, Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my house, that Thou hast brought me here? ¹⁷And this was a small thing in Thy eyes, O God, for Thou hast also spoken of Thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O LORD God. ¹⁸What can David speak more unto Thee for the honor of Thy servant? For Thou knowest Thy servant! ¹⁹O LORD, for Thy servant's sake, and according to Thy own heart, Thou hast done all this greatness, in making known all these great things. ²⁰O LORD, there is none like Thee, neither is there any God besides Thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears. ²¹And what one nation in the earth is like Thy people Israel, whom God went to redeem to be His own people, to make Thee a name of greatness and terribleness, by driving out nations from before Thy people whom Thou hast redeemed out of Egypt? ²²For Thy people Israel didst Thou make Thy own people forever. And Thou, LORD, didst become their God. ²³Therefore now, O LORD, let the thing which Thou hast spoken concerning Thy servant and concerning his house be established forever, and do as Thou hast said. ²⁴Let it even be established, so that Thy name may be magnified forever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God of Israel, a God to Israel. And let the house of David Thy servant be established before Thee. ²⁵For Thou, O my God, hast told Thy servant that Thou wilt build him a house. Therefore Thy servant has found in his heart to pray before Thee. ²⁶And now, LORD, Thou art God, and hast promised this goodness unto Thy servant. ²⁷Now therefore let it please Thee to bless the house of Thy servant so that it may be before Thee forever. For Thou hast blessed, O LORD, and it is blessed forever.

¹Now after this David struck the Philistines and humbled them. And he took Gath and its towns out of the hand of the Philistines. ²And he struck Moab. And the people of Moab became David's servants and brought gifts. ³And David struck Hād-ā-rē'-zēr king of Zō'-bāh unto Hā'-māth, as he went to establish his dominion by the river Eū-phrā'-tēs. ⁴And David took from him a thousand chariots and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen. David also hamstrung all the chariot horses, but kept from them a hundred chariots. ⁵And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hād-ā-rē'-zēr king of Zō'-bāh, David killed twenty-two thousand men of the Syrians. ⁶Then David put soldiers in Syria of Damascus. And the Syrians became David's servants, bringing gifts. Thus the LORD preserved David wherever he went. ⁷And David took the shields of gold which were on the servants of Hād-ā-rē'-zēr, and brought them to Jerusalem. ⁸Likewise David brought very much brass from Tib'-hāth, and from Chūn, cities of Hādă-rē'-zēr, with which Solomon made the brass sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass.

⁹Now when Tō'-ū king of Hā'-māth heard how David had stricken all the army of Hād-ă-rē'-zēr king of Zō'-bāh, ¹⁰he sent Hā-dôr'-ām his son to king David to ask of his welfare, and to praise him because he had fought against Hād-ă-rē'-zēr and had beaten him. For Hād-ă-rē'-zēr had war with Tō'-ū. And he sent all kinds of vessels of gold and silver and brass. ¹¹King David also dedicated them unto the LORD, with the silver and the gold which he brought from all the nations—from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Ām'-ă-lēk. ¹²Moreover Āb'-ī-shai the son of Zēr-ū-i'-āh killed eighteen thousand of the men of Edom in the valley of salt. ¹³And he put guards in Edom. And all the men of Edom became David's servants. So the LORD kept David safe wherever he went.

¹⁴So David reigned over all Israel, and did judgment and justice among all his people. ¹⁵And Joab the son of Zēr-ū-i'-āh was over the army. And Jē-hōsh'-ă-phāt the son of Ā-hī'-lūd was recorder. ¹⁶And Zā'-dōk the son of Ā-hī'-tūb, and Ā-bīm'-ĕ-lēch the son of Ā-bī'-ă-thār were the priests. And Shāv'-shā was scribe. ¹⁷And Bē-nai'-āh the son of Jē-hoi'-ă-dā was over the Chēr'-ĕ-thītes and the Pēl'-ĕ-thītes. And the sons of David were chief at the hand of the king.

¹Now after this Nā'-hāsh the king of the children of Ammon died. And his son reigned in his stead. ²And David said, I will show kindness to Hā'-nūn the son of Nā'-hāsh, because his father showed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hā'-nūn, in order to comfort him. ³But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hā'-nūn, Do you think that David does honor to your father, that he has sent comforters to you? Have not his servants come to you in order to search and to overthrow and to spy out the land? ⁴Therefore Hā'-nūn took David's servants and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the middle, close to their buttocks, and sent them away. ⁵And certain ones came and told David how the men were treated. And he sent some to meet them, for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Stay at Jericho until your beards are grown, and then return.

⁶And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves stink before David, Hā'-nūn and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire chariots and horsemen out of Mēs-ō-pō-tā'-mī-ă and out of Mā'-ă-chāh of Syria, and out of Zō'-bāh. ⁷So they hired thirty-two thousand chariots, and the king of Mā'-ă-chāh and his people, who came and pitched before Mē'-dē-bā. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities and came to battle. ⁸And when David heard, he sent Joab and all the army of the mighty men. ⁹And the children of Ammon came out and put the battle in order before the gate of the city. And the kings who had come were by themselves in the field. ¹⁰Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose out of all the choice young men of Israel and put them in order against the Syrians. ¹¹And he delivered the rest of the people into the hand of Āb'-ī-shaī his brother. And they set themselves in order against the children of Ammon. ¹²And he said, If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me. But if the children of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will help you. ¹³Be of good courage and let us behave ourselves bravely for our people, and for the cities of our God. And let the LORD do what is good in His sight. ¹⁴So Joab and the people who were with him drew near before the Syrians to the battle. And they fled before him. ¹⁵And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians had fled, they likewise fled before Āb'-ī-shaī his brother. And they entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

¹⁶And when the Syrians saw that they were beaten before Israel, they sent messengers and drew forth the Syrians who were beyond the river. And Shō'-phāch the captain of the army of Hād-ā-rē'-zēr went before them. ¹⁷And it was told to David. And he gathered all Israel and passed over Jordan and came upon them. And he set in order against them. So when David had put the battle in order against the Syrians, they fought with him. ¹⁸But the Syrians fled before Israel. And David killed seven thousand of the Syrians in chariots, and forty thousand footmen, and killed Shō'-phāch the captain of the army. ¹⁹And when the servants of Hād-ā-rē'-zēr saw that they were beaten before Israel, they made peace with David and became his servants. Neither would the Syrians help the children of Ammon any more.

¹And after the year had ended, at the time kings go forth, Joab led forth the power of the army and wasted the country of the children of Ammon. And he came and besieged Rāb'-bāh. But David stayed at Jerusalem. And Joab struck Rāb'-bāh and destroyed it. ²And David took the crown of their king from off his head and found the weight of it a talent of gold. And precious stones were in it. And it was set upon David's head, and he also brought exceeding much spoil out of the city. ³And he brought out the people who were in it, and made them sawers of stone, diggers of iron, and cutters of wood. Even so David dealt with all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

⁴And after this there arose war at Gē'-zēr with the Philistines, at which time Sīb'-bē-chaī the Hū'-shā-thīte killed Sīp'-pā-ī, of the children of the giant. And they were humbled. ⁵And there was war again with the Philistines. And Ēl-hā'-nān the son of Jā'-īr slew Lāh'-mī the brother of Gō-lī'-āth the Gīt'-tīte, whose spear shaft was like a weaver's beam. ⁶And still again there was war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were twenty-four, six on each hand and six on each foot. And he also was the son of the giant. ⁷But when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shīm'-ē-ā, David's brother, killed him. ⁸These were born to the giant in Gath. And they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

¹And Satan stood up against Israel and moved David to take a census of Israel. ²And David said to Joab and to the rulers of the people, Go count Israel from Bēer-shē'-bā to Dan. And bring the number of them to me so that I may know. ³And Joab answered, May the LORD make His people a hundred times as many more as they are. But, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? Why then does my lord ask this thing? Why will he be a cause of guilt to Israel? ⁴But the king's word held against Joab. Therefore Joab departed and went throughout all Israel, and came again to Jerusalem.

⁵And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people to David. And in all Israel there were one million and a hundred thousand men who drew sword. And in Judah were four hundred and seventy thousand men who drew sword. ⁶But Levi and Benjamin he did not count among them; for the king's word was hateful to Joab. ⁷And God was displeased with this thing. Therefore He struck Israel. ⁸And David said to God, I have sinned greatly because I have done this thing. But now, I beg Thee, remove the iniquity of Thy servant — for I have done very foolishly.

⁹And the LORD spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying, ¹⁰Go and tell David, saying, Thus says the LORD: I offer you three things. Choose one of them so that I may do it to you. ¹¹So Gad came to David and said to him, Thus says the LORD, Choose ¹²either three years' famine, or three months to be destroyed before your foes, while the sword of your enemies overtakes you, or else three days of the sword of the LORD, even the plague in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the border of Israel. Now therefore say what word I shall bring again to Him who sent me.

¹³And David said to Gad, I am in great distress. Let me fall now into the hand of the LORD, for His mercies are very great. But do not let me fall into the hand of man.

¹⁴So the LORD sent a plague upon Israel. And there fell seventy thousand men of Israel. ¹⁵And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it. And as he was destroying, the LORD looked. And He repented of the evil and said to the angel who destroyed, It is enough — stay your hand now! And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshing-floor of Ōr'-nān the Jēb'-ū-site. ¹⁶And David lifted up his eyes and saw the angel of the LORD stand between the earth and the sky, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces. ¹⁷And David said to God, Did not I command the people to be numbered? I am the one who has sinned and done evil indeed. But these sheep, what have they done? I pray Thee, let Thy hand be upon me, O LORD my God, and upon my father's house, but not upon Thy people, that they should be plagued.

¹⁸Then the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David that David should go up and set up an altar unto the LORD in the threshing-floor of Ōr'-nān the Jēb'-ū-site. ¹⁹And David went up at the word of Gad which he spoke in the name of the LORD. ²⁰And Ōr'-nān turned back and saw the angel. And his four sons who were with him hid themselves. Now Ōr'-nān was threshing wheat. ²¹And as David came to Ōr'-nān, Ōr'-nān looked and saw David. And he went out of the threshing-floor and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground. ²²Then David said to Ōr'-nān, Give me the place of this threshing-floor, so that I may build an altar in it to the LORD. You shall give it to me for the full price, so that the plague may be stayed from the people. ²³And Ōr'-nān said to David, Take it unto yourself, and let my lord the king do what is good in his eyes. Lo, I give the oxen for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meal offering. I give it all. ²⁴And king David said to Ōr'-nān, No, but I will truly buy it for the full price. For I will not take what is yours for the LORD, nor offer burnt offerings without cost. ²⁵So David gave to Ōr'-nān for the place six hundred shekels of gold by weight. ²⁶And David built an altar there unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called upon the LORD. And He answered him from Heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt offering. ²⁷And the LORD commanded the angel, and he put up his sword again into its sheath.

²⁸At that time when David saw that the LORD had answered him in the threshing-floor of Ōr'-nān the Jēb'-ū-site, then he sacrificed there. ²⁹For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of the burnt offering, were at that time in the high place at Gīb'-ē-ōn. ³⁰But David could not go before it to ask of God, for he was afraid because of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

¹Then David said, This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of the burnt offering for Israel. ²And David commanded to gather together the strangers who were in the land of Israel. And he set masons to cut squared stones to build the house of God. ³And David prepared iron in great plenty for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the joinings, and brass in great plenty without weight, ⁴and plenty of cedar trees, for the Si-dō'-ni-āns and those of Tyre brought much cedar wood to David. ⁵And David said, Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be built for the LORD must be unspeakably magnificent, of fame and of glory throughout all countries. I will now prepare for it. So David prepared very much before his death.

⁶Then he called for Solomon his son, and commanded him to build a house for the LORD God of Israel. ⁷And David said to Solomon, My son, as for me, it was in my mind to build a house to the name of the LORD my God. ⁸But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, You have shed much blood and have made great wars. You shall not build a house unto My name because you have shed much blood upon the earth in My sight. ⁹Behold, a son shall be born to you who shall be a man of rest. And I will give him rest from all his enemies all around. For his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel in his days. ¹⁰He shall build a house for My name. And he shall be My son, and I will be his Father. And I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever. ¹¹Now, my son, may the LORD be with you and bless you, and build the house of the LORD your God as He has said of you. ¹²Only may the LORD give you wisdom and understanding, and direct you concerning Israel, so that you may keep the law of the LORD your God. ¹³Then you shall be blessed, if you take heed to fulfil the statutes and judgments which the LORD charged Moses with, concerning Israel. Be strong and of good courage. Do not fear, nor be dismayed. ¹⁴Now, behold, in my trouble I have prepared for the house of the LORD a hundred thousand talents of gold, and a million talents of silver, and of brass and iron without weight, for it is in great plenty. I have prepared timber also, and stone, and you may add to it. ¹⁵Moreover there are very many workmen with you, cutters and workers of stone and timber, and all kinds of skillful men for every kind of work. ¹⁶Of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is no number. Arise and be doing, and may the LORD be with you.

¹⁷David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying, ¹⁸Is not the LORD your God with you? And has He not given you rest on every side? For He has given the people of the land into my hand. And the land is humbled before the LORD and before His people. ¹⁹Now set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God. Arise therefore and build the sanctuary of the LORD God, to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built to the name of the LORD.

¹So when David was old and full of days, he made his son Solomon king over Israel. ²And he gathered together all the princes of Israel, with the priests and the Levites. ³Now the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years and upward. And their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty-eight thousand. ⁴Of these, twenty-four thousand were to set forward the work of the house of the LORD, and six thousand were officers and judges. ⁵Moreover four thousand were porters, and four thousand praised the LORD with the instruments which David made for praising. ⁶And David divided them into courses among the sons of Levi, Gēr'-shōn, Kō'-hāth, and Mē-rār'-ī.

¹²The sons of Kō'-hāth were Ām'-rām, Īz'-hār, Hē'-brōn, and Ūz'-zī-ēl, four. ¹³The sons of Ām'-rām were Aaron and Moses. And Aaron was separated so that he should sanctify the most holy things, he and his sons forever, to burn incense before the LORD, to minister unto Him, and to bless in His name forever. ¹⁴Now as to Moses the man of God, his sons were named of the tribe of Levi. ¹⁵The sons of Moses were Gēr'-shōm and Ēl-ī-ē'-zēr. ¹⁶Of the sons of Gēr'-shōm, Shē-bū'-ēl was the chief. ¹⁷And the sons of Ēl-ī-ē'-zēr were Rē-hā-bī'-āh the chief. And Ēl-ī-ē'-zēr had no other sons, but the sons of Rē-hā-bī'-āh were very many. ¹⁸Of the sons of Īz'-hār, Shē-lō'-mīth was the chief. ¹⁹Of the sons of Hē'-brōn, Jē-rī'-āh was the first. Ām'-ā-rī'-āh the second, Jā-hā'-zī-ēl the third, and Jē-kām'-ē-ām the fourth. ²⁰Of the sons of Ūz'-zī-ēl, Mī'-chāh was the first and Jē-sī'-āh the second.

LORD, from the age of twenty years and upward. ²⁵For David said, The LORD God of Israel has given rest to His people so that they may dwell in Jerusalem forever, ²⁶and also to the Levites, so that they shall no more carry the tabernacle, nor any vessels of it for the service of it. ²⁷For by the last words of David the Levites were numbered from twenty years old and above, ²⁸because their office was to wait on the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, and the work of the service of the house of God — ²⁹both for the showbread, and for the fine flour for meal offering, and for the unleavened cakes, and for the pan, and for that which is fried, and for all kinds of measure and size, ³⁰and to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD, and likewise at evening. ³¹And they were to offer all burnt sacrifices unto the LORD in the sabbath, in the new moons, and on the set feasts, by number, according to the order commanded to them, continually before the LORD — ³²and that they should keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the holy place, and the charge of the sons of Aaron their brothers, in the service of the house of the LORD.

¹Now these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron. The sons of Aaron were Nā'-dāb and Ā-bī'-hū, Ēl-ē-ā'-zār, and Īth'-ā-mār. ²But Nadab and Ā-bī'-hū died before their father and had no children. Therefore Ēl-ē-ā'-zār and Īth'-ā-mār executed the priest's office. ³And David gave them duties according to their offices in their service, both Zā'-dōk of the sons of Ēl-ē-ā'-zār, and Ā-him'-ē-lēch of the sons of Īth'-ā-mār. ⁴And there were more chief men found of the sons of Ēl-ē-ā'-zār than of the sons of Īth'-ā-mār. And so they were divided. Among the sons of Ēl-ē-ā'-zār were sixteen chief men of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Īth'-ā-mār according to the house of their fathers. ⁵So they were divided by lot, one sort with another. For the governors of the sanctuary, and governors of the house of God, were of the sons of Ēl-ē-ā'-zār, and of the sons of Īth'-ā-mār. ⁶And Shēm-aī'-āh the son of Nēth'-ā-nēel the scribe, one of the Levites, wrote them before the king, and the princes, and Zā'-dōk the priest, and Ā-him'-ē-lēch the son of Ā-bī'-ā-thār, and before the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites. One principal household was taken for Ēl-ē-ā'-zār, and one taken for Īth'-ā-mār. ⁷Now the first lot came forth to Jē-hoi'-ā-rib, the second to Jē-dai'-āh, ⁸the third to Hā'-im, the fourth to Sē-ōr'-im, ⁹the fifth to Māl-chī'-jāh, the sixth to Mī'-jā-min, ¹⁰the seventh to Hāk'-kōz, the eighth to Ā-bī'-jāh, ¹¹the ninth to Jēsh'-ū-ā, the tenth to Shēc-ā-nī'-āh, ¹²the eleventh to Ē-lī-āsh'-īb, the twelfth to Jakim, ¹³the thirteenth to Hūp'-pāh, the fourteenth to Jē-shēb'-ē-āb, ¹⁴the fifteenth to Bīl'-gāh, the sixteenth to Im'-mēr, ¹⁵the seventeenth to Hē'-zīr, the eighteenth to Āph'-sēs, ¹⁶the nineteenth to Pēth-ā-hī'-āh, the twentieth to Jē-hēz'-ēk-ēl, ¹⁷the twenty-first to Jā'-chīn, the twenty-second to Gām'-ūl, ¹⁸the twenty-third to Dēl-aī'-āh, the twenty-fourth to Mā-ā-zī'-āh. ¹⁹These were the orderings of them in their service to come into the house of the LORD, according to their manner, unto Aaron their father, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

²⁷The sons of Mē-rār'-ī by Jā-ā-zī'-āh were Bē'-nō, and Shō'-hām, and Zāc'-cūr, and Īb'-rī. ²⁸Of Māh'-lī came Ēl-ē-ā'-zār, who had no sons. ²⁹Of Kish, the son of Kish was Jē-rāh'-mēel. ³⁰The sons of Mū'-shī were Māh'-lī, and Ē'-dēr, and Jēr'-ī-mōth. These were the sons of the Levites according to the house of their fathers. ³¹These likewise cast lots over against their brothers the sons of Aaron in the presence of David the king, and Zā'-dōk, and Ā-hīm'-ē-lēch, and the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites, even the principal fathers over against their younger brothers.

¹Moreover David and the captains of the army separated to the service those of the sons of Ā'-sāph, and of Hē'-mān, and of Jē-dū'-thūn, who were to prophesy with harps, with psalteries, and with cymbals. And the number of the workmen according to their service was — ²of the sons of Ā'-sāph, Zāc'-cūr, and Joseph, and Nēth-ā-nī'-āh, and Ās-ā-rē'-lāh, the sons under the hands of Ā'-sāph, who prophesied according to the order of the king. ³Of Jē-dū'-thūn were the sons of Jē-dū'-thūn, Gēd-ā-lī'-āh, and Zē'-rī, and Jē-shaī'-āh, Hāsh-ā-bī'-āh, and Māt-tī-thī'-āh, six, under the hands of their father Jē-dū'-thūn, who prophesied with a harp to give thanks and to praise the LORD. ⁴Of Hē'-mān were the sons of Hē'-mān, Būk-kī'-āh, Māt-tā-nī'-āh, Ūz'-zī-ēl, Shē-bū'-ēl, and Jēr'-ī-mōth, Hān-ā-nī'-āh, Hā-nā'-nī, Ē-lī'-ā-thāh, Gīd-dāl'-tī, and Rō-mām'-tī-ē'-zēr, Jōsh-bē-kāsh'-āh, Māl-lō'-thī, Hō'-thīr, Mā-hā'-zī-ōth. ⁵All these were the sons of Hē'-mān the king's seer in the words of God, to lift up the horn. And God gave to Hē'-mān fourteen sons and three daughters. ⁶All these were under the hands of their father for song in the house of the LORD, with cymbals, psalteries, and harps, for the service of the house of God, according to the king's order to Ā'-sāph, Jě-dū'-thūn, and Hē'-mān. ⁷So the number of them, with their brothers who were instructed in the songs of the LORD, all that were skillful, was two hundred and eighty-eight.

⁸And they cast lots, ward against ward, the small as well as the great, the teacher as the pupil. ⁹Now the first lot came forth for Ā'-sāph to Joseph. The second was to Gěd-ā-lī'-āh, with his brothers and sons; twelve men. ¹⁰The third was to Zāc'-cūr, his sons and his brothers; they were twelve. ¹¹The fourth was to Iz'-rī, his sons and his brothers; they were twelve. ¹²The fifth was to Nēth-ā-nī'-āh, his sons and his brothers; they were twelve. ¹³The sixth was to Būk-kī'-āh, his sons and his brothers; they were twelve. ¹⁴The seventh was to Jěsh-ā-rē'-lāh, his sons and his brothers; they were twelve. ¹⁵The eighth was to Jě-shai'-āh, his sons and his brothers; they were twelve. ¹⁶The ninth was to Māt-tā-nī'-āh, his sons and his brothers; they were twelve. ¹⁷The tenth was to Shīm'-ē-ī, his sons and his brothers; they were twelve. ¹⁸The eleventh was to Āz'-ā-rēel, his sons and his brothers; they were twelve. ¹⁹The twelfth was to Hāsh-ā-bī'-āh, his sons and his brothers; they were twelve. ²⁰The thirteenth was to Shū-bā'-ēl, his sons and his brothers; they were twelve. ²¹The fourteenth was to Māt-tī-thī'-āh, his sons and his brothers; they were twelve. ²²The fifteenth was to Jēr'-ē-mōth, his sons and his brothers; they were twelve. ²³The sixteenth was to Hān-ā-nī'-āh, his sons and his brothers; they were twelve. ²⁴The seventeenth was to Jōsh-bē-kāsh'-āh, his sons and his brothers; they were twelve. ²⁵The eighteenth was to Hā-nā'-nī, his sons and his brothers; they were twelve. ²⁶The nineteenth was to Māl-lō'-thī, his sons and his brothers; they were twelve. ²⁷The twentieth was to Ē-lī'-ā-thāh, his sons and his brothers; they were twelve. ²⁸The twenty-first was to Hō'-thīr, his sons and his brothers; they were twelve. ²⁹The twenty-second was to Gīd-dāl'-tī, his sons and his brothers; they were twelve. ³⁰The twenty-third was to Mā-hā'-zī-ōth, his sons and his brothers; they were twelve. ³¹The twenty-fourth was to Rō-mām'-tī-ē'-zēr, his sons and his brothers; they were twelve.

¹Concerning the divisions of the gatekeepers: Of the Kōr'-hites was Mě-shēl-ē-mī'-āh the son of Kōr'-ē, of the sons of Ā'-sāph. ²And the sons of Mě-shēl-ē-mī'-āh were Zěch-ā-rī'-āh the first-born, Jěd-ī-ā'-ēl the second, Zēb-ā-dī'-āh the third, Jāth'-nī-ēl the fourth, ³Ē'-lām the fifth, Jē-hō-hā'-nān the sixth, Ēl-ī-ō-ē'-naī the seventh. ⁴Moreover the sons of Ō'-bēd-ē'-dōm were Shēm-aī'-āh the first-born, Jē-hō'-zā-bād the second, Jō'-āh the third, and Sā'-cār the fourth, and Nēth'-ā-nēel the fifth, ⁵Ām'-mī-ēl the sixth, Is'-sā-chār the seventh, Pē-ūl'-thaī the eighth — for God blessed him. ⁶Also to Shēm-aī'-āh his son were sons born, who ruled throughout the house of their father, for they were mighty men of valor. ⁷The sons of Shēm-aī'-āh were Ōth'-nī, and Rēph'-ā-ēl, and Ō'-bēd, Ēl-zā'-bād, whose brothers were strong men, Ē-lī'-hū, and Sēm-ā-chī'-āh. ⁸All these were the sons of Ō'-bēd-ē'-dōm. They and their sons and their brothers were able men for strength for the service, and there were six of Ō'-bēd-ē'-dōm. ⁹And Mē-shēl-ē-mī'-āh had sons and brothers, strong men, eighteen. ¹⁰Also Hō'-sāh, of the children of Mē-rār'-ī, had sons. Sīm'-rī was the chief (for though he was not the first-born, yet his father made him the chief), ¹¹Hil-kī'-āh the second, Tēb-ā-lī'-āh the third, Zēch-ā-rī'-āh the fourth. All the sons and brothers of Hō'-sāh were thirteen. ¹²Among these were the divisions of the porters, among the chief men, having wards one against another, to minister in the house of the LORD.

¹³And they cast lots, the small as well as the great, according to the house of their fathers, for every gate. ¹⁴And the lot eastward fell to Shēl-ē-mī'-āh. Then for Zēch-ā-rī'-āh his son, a wise adviser, they cast lots. And his lot came out northward. ¹⁵To Ō'-bēd-ē'-dōm southward; and to his sons the house of Ā-sūp'-pīm. To Shūp'-pīm and Hō'-sāh westward, with the gate Shāl'-lē-chēth, by the causeway of the going up, ward against ward. ¹⁶Eastward were six Levites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and toward Ā-sūp'-pīm two and two. ¹⁷For the precinct westward, four at the causeway, and two at the precinct. ¹⁸These are the divisions of the gatekeepers among the sons of Kōr'-ē, and among the sons of Mē-rār'-ī.

²⁰And of the Lē'-vītes, Ā-hī'-jāh was over the treasures of the house of God and over the treasures of the holy things. ²¹As to the sons of Lā'-ā-dān, chief fathers of Lā'-ā-dān the Gēr'-shōn-īte, were Jē-hī-ē'-lī; ²²the sons of Jē-hī-ē'-lī were Zē'-thām and Joel his brother, who were over the treasures of the house of the LORD, ²³for the Ām'-rām-ītes, and the Īz-hār'-ītes, the Hē'-brōn-ītes, and the Ūz'-zī-ēl-ītes. ²⁴And Shē-bū'-ēl the son of Gēr'-shōm, the son of Moses, was ruler of the treasures. ²⁵And his brothers by Ēl-ī-ē'-zēr were Rē-hā-bī'-āh his son, and Jē-shaī'-āh his son, and Joram his son, and Zīch'-rī his son, and Shē-lō'-mīth his son. ²⁶This Shē-lō'-mīth and his brothers were over all the treasures of the holy things, which David the king, and the chief fathers, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the army, had given. ²⁷They had given part of the spoils won in battles, to maintain the house of the LORD, ²⁸and all that Samuel the seer, and Saul the son of Kish, and Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zēr-ū-ī'-āh had given. Whoever had given anything, it was under the hand of Shē-lō'-mīth and of his brothers.

²⁹Of the Īz-hār'-ītes, Chēn-ā-nī'-āh and his sons were for the outward business over Israel, for officers and judges. ³⁰Of the men of Hē'-brōn, Hāsh-ā-bī'-āh and his brothers, men of valor, a thousand and seven hundred, were officers among them of Israel on this side Jordan westward in all the business of the LORD, and in the service of the king. ³¹Jē-rī'-jāh was the chief among the men of Hē'-brōn. He was of the Hē'-brōnites, according to the generations of his fathers. In the fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought for, and there were found among them mighty men of valor at Jā'-zēr of Gilead. ³²And his brothers, mighty men, were two thousand and seven hundred chief fathers whom king David made rulers over the men of Reuben, of Gad, and the half tribe of Mā-nās'-sēh, for every matter having to do with God and the affairs of the king.

¹Now the children of Israel as to their number, the chief fathers and captains of thousands and hundreds, and their officers who served the king in any matter of the courses, who came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year, were twenty-four thousand of every course.

²Over the first course for the first month was Jā-shōb'-ē-ām the son of Zāb'-dī-ēl. And in his course were twenty-four thousand. ³Of the children of Pē'-rēz was the chief of all the captains of the army for the first month. ⁴And over the course of the second month was Dō'-daī an Ā-hō'-hīte, and of his course Mik'-lōth was also the ruler. In his course likewise were twenty-four thousand. ⁵The third captain of the army for the third month was Bē-naī'-āh the son of Jē-hoi'-ā-dā, a chief priest. And in his course were twenty-four thousand. ⁶This is that Bē-naī'-āh who was mighty among the thirty, and above the thirty. And in his course was Ām-mī'-zā-bād his son. ⁷The fourth captain for the fourth month was Ās'-ā-hēl the brother of Joab, and Zēb-ā-dī'-āh his son after him. And in his course were twenty-four thousand. ⁸The fifth captain for the fifth month was Shām'-hūth the Iz'-rā-hīte. And in his course were twenty-four thousand. ⁹The sixth captain for the sixth month was Y'-rā the son of Ik'-kēsh the Tē-kō'-īte. And in his course were twenty-four thousand. ¹⁰The seventh captain for the seventh month was Hē'-lēz the Pē'-lō-nīte, of the children of Ephraim. And in his course were twenty-four thousand. ¹¹The eighth captain for the eighth month was Sib'-bē-caī the Hū'-shā-thīte, of the Zār'-hītes. And in his course were twenty-four thousand. ¹²The ninth captain for the ninth month was Ā-bī-ē'-zēr the Ān-ē-tō'-thīte, of the Benjamites. And in his course were twenty-four thousand. ¹³The tenth captain for the tenth month was Mā'-hā-raī of Nē-tōph'-ā, of the Zār'-hītes. And in his course were twenty-four thousand. ¹⁴The eleventh captain for the eleventh month was Bē-naī'-āh the son of Pī-rā'-thōn, of the children of Ephraim. And in his course were twenty-four thousand. ¹⁵The twelfth captain for the twelfth month was Hēl'-daī of Nē-tōph'-ā, of Oth'-nī-ēl. And in his course were twenty-four thousand.

¹⁶Furthermore, over the tribes of Israel, the ruler of the Reubenites was Ēl-i-ē'-zēr the son of Zīch'-rī. The ruler of the Simeonites was Shēph-ā-tī'-āh the son of Mā'-ā-chāh. ¹⁷*The ruler* of the Levites was Hāsh-ă-bī'-ăh the son of Kĕ-mū'-ĕ-l. The ruler of the Aaronites was Zā'-dōk. ¹⁸*The ruler* of Judah was Ē-lī'-hū, one of the brothers of David. The ruler of Īs'-sā-chār was Ōm'-rī the son of Michael. ¹⁹*The ruler* of Zĕ-bū'-lūn was Ish-maī'-ăh the son of Ō-bā-dī'-ăh. The ruler of Nāph'-tā-lī was Jĕr'-ī-mōth the son of Āz'-rī-ĕl. ²⁰*The ruler* of the children of Ephraim was Hō-shĕ'-ă the son of Āz-ă-zī'-ăh. The ruler of the half tribe of Mā-nās'-sĕh was Joel the son of Pĕ-dai'-ăh. ²¹*The ruler* of the half tribe of Mā-nās'-sĕh in Gilead was Īd'-dō the son of Zĕch-ă-rī'-ăh. The ruler of Benjamin was Jā-ăs'-ī-ĕl the son of Abner. ²²*The ruler* of Dan was Āz'-ă-rĕel the son of Jĕ-rō'-hām. These were the princes of the tribes of Israel.

²³But David did not take the number of those from twenty years old and under, because the LORD had said He would increase Israel like the stars of the heavens. ²⁴Joab the son of Zĕr-ū-ī'-ăh began to number, but he did not finish because wrath fell against the children of Israel because of it. Neither was the number put in the account of the chronicles of king David.

²⁵And over the king's treasures was Āz-mā'-vĕth the son of Ād'-ī-ĕl. And over the storehouses in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the strongholds, was Jĕ-hōn'-ă-thān the son of Ūz-zī'-ăh. ²⁶And over those who did the work of the field for farming the ground was Ēz'-rī the son of Chĕ'-lūb. ²⁷And over the vineyards was Shīm'-ĕ-ī of Rā'-māh. Over the increase of the vineyards for the wine cellars was Zāb'-dī of Shĕ'-phām. ²⁸And over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the low plains was Bā-āl-hā'-nān of Gĕ'-dĕr. And over the cellars of oil was Jō'-ăsh. ²⁹And over the herds that fed in Shār'-ōn was Shit-rā'-ī of Shār'-ōn. And over the herds in the valleys was Shā'-phāt the son of Ād-lā'-ī. ³⁰Over the camels also was Ō'-bīl the Īsh'-mā-ĕl-īte. And over the asses was Jĕh-deī'-ăh the Mĕ-rō'-nō-thīte. ³¹And over the flocks was Jā'-zīz the son of Hagar. All these were the rulers of the substance which was king David's. ³²Also Jonathan, David's uncle, was an adviser, a wise man and a scribe. And Jĕ-hī'-ĕl the son of Hāch-mō'-nī was with the king's sons. ³³And Ā-hīth'-ō-phĕl was the king's counsellor. And Hū'-shī the Ār'-chite was the king's companion. ³⁴And after Ā-hīth'-ō-phĕl was Jĕ-hoi'-ă-dā the son of Bĕ-naī'-ăh, and Ā-bī'-ă-thār. And the general of the king's army was Joab.

¹And David gathered unto Jerusalem all the princes of Israel, the princes of the tribes, and the captains of the companies that ministered to the king by course, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and the stewards over all the substance and possession of the king, and of his sons, with the officers, and with the mighty men, and with all the mighty men. ²Then David the king stood up upon his feet and said, Hear me, my brothers and my people. I had in my heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and for the footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building. ³But God said to me, You shall not build a house for My name, because you have been a man of war and have shed blood. ⁴However, the LORD God of Israel chose me before all the house of my father to be king over Israel forever. For He has chosen Judah to be the ruler, and of the house of Judah the house of my father. And among the sons of my father He liked me to make me king over all Israel. ⁵And of all my sons (for the LORD has given me many sons), He has chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the Lord over Israel. ⁶And He said to me, Solomon your son shall build My house and My courts, for I have chosen him to be My son, and I will be his Father. ⁷Moreover I will establish his kingdom forever if he will always do My commandments and My judgments, as at this day. ⁸Now therefore in the sight of all Israel, the congregation of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the LORD your God, so that you may possess this good land and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you forever.

⁹And you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father and serve Him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind. For the LORD searches all hearts and understands all the imaginations of the thoughts. If you seek Him, He will be found by you. But if you forsake Him, He will cast you off forever. ¹⁰Take heed now, for the LORD has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary. Be strong and do it.

¹¹Then David gave to his son Solomon the pattern of the porch, and of its houses, and of its treasures, and of its upper rooms, and of its inner parlors, and of the place of the mercy-seat, ¹²and the pattern of all that He had by the Spirit — of the courts of the house of the LORD, and of all the rooms round about — of the treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries of the holy things. ¹³Also for the courses of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the vessels of service in the house of the LORD, ¹⁴*he gave* of gold by weight for things of gold, for all instruments of every kind of service; also silver for all instruments of silver by weight, for all instruments of every kind of service, ¹⁵even the weight for the lampstands of gold, and for their lamps of gold, by weight for every lampstand, and for the lamps of it. And he gave for the lampstands of silver by weight, for the lampstand and for the lamps of it, according to the use of every lampstand. ¹⁶And he gave gold by weight for the tables of showbread, for every table, and silver for the tables of silver — ¹⁷also pure gold for the flesh-hooks, and the bowls, and the cups. And he gave for the golden basins by weight for every basin, and by weight for every basin of silver. ¹⁸And he gave for the altar of incense refined gold by weight, and gold for the pattern of the chariot of the cherubims, who spread out their wings, and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD. ¹⁹All this, said David, the LORD made me understand in writing by His hand upon me, even all the works of this pattern.

²⁰And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and of good courage, and do it. Do not fear, nor be dismayed, for the LORD God, my God, will be with you. He will not fail you nor leave you until you have finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD. ²¹And behold, the courses of the priests and the Levites are for all the service of the house of God. And there shall be with you every willing skillful man for every kind of workmanship, for any kind of service. Also the princes and all the people will be wholly at your command.

¹Furthermore David the king said to all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom alone God has chosen, is young and tender, and the work is great. For the palace is not for man, but for the LORD God. ²Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the brass for things of brass, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood, onyx stones, and stones to be set, glistening stones, and stones of many colors, and all kinds of precious stones, and very many marble stones. ³Moreover, because I have set my affection to the house of my God, out of my own treasure of gold and silver I have given to the house of my God over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house — ⁴three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ō'-phīr, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses; ⁵the gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all kinds of work by the hands of skillful workers. And who is willing to give his service this day unto the LORD?

¹⁰Therefore David blessed the LORD before all the congregation. And David said, Blessed be Thou, LORD God of Israel our father, forever and ever. ¹¹O LORD, Thine is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty. For all that is in the heaven and in the earth is Thine. Thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and Thou art exalted as Head above all. ¹²Both riches and honor come from Thee, and Thou dost reign over all. And in Thy hand is power and might. And it is in Thy hand to make great and to give strength unto all. ¹³Now therefore, our God, we thank Thee and praise Thy glorious name. ¹⁴But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly after this sort? For all things come from Thee, and we have given unto Thee that which is Thine. ¹⁵For we are strangers before Thee, and pilgrims, as our fathers were. Our days on the earth are like a shadow, and there is no hope. ¹⁶O LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared to build Thee a house for Thy holy name comes from Thy hand, and is all Thine own. ¹⁷I know also, my God, that Thou dost try the heart, and dost have pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things. And now I have seen with joy Thy people who are present here to offer willingly unto Thee. ¹⁸O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this forever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of Thy people, and prepare their heart unto Thee. ¹⁹And give unto Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep Thy commandments, Thy testimonies, and Thy statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the house for which I have made ready.

²⁰And David said to all the congregation, Now bless the LORD your God! And all the congregation blessed the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads and worshipped the LORD, and the king. ²¹And they sacrificed sacrifices unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings unto the LORD on the next day after that day — a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and very many sacrifices for all Israel. ²²And they ate and drank before the LORD on that day with great gladness. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him unto the LORD to be the chief governor, and Zā'-dök to be priest.

²³Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father. And he was blessed, and all Israel obeyed him. ²⁴And all the princes and the mighty men, and also all the sons of king David submitted themselves to Solomon the king. ²⁵And the LORD made Solomon very great in the sight of all Israel, and placed upon him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

²⁶So David the son of Jesse ruled over all Israel. ²⁷And the time that he ruled over Israel was forty years. He ruled seven years in Hebron and thirty-three years in Jerusalem. ²⁸And he died in a good old age, full of days, riches, and honor. And Solomon his son ruled in his stead. ²⁹Now the acts of David the king, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of Samuel the seer, and in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer, ³⁰with all his reign and his might, and the times that went over him, and over Israel, and over all the kingdoms of the countries.

The SECOND Book of CHRONICLES

¹And Solomon the son of David was made strong in his kingdom, and the LORD his God was with him and made him very great. ²Then Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, the chief of the fathers. ³So Solomon and all the congregation with him went to the high place that was at Gib'-ě-ōn. For there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness. ⁴But the ark of God David had brought up from Kīr-jāth-jē'-ā-rīm to the place which David had prepared for it, for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem. ⁵Moreover he put the brass altar which Bēz'-ā-lēel the son of Ū'-rī, the son of Hur, had made before the tabernacle of the LORD. And Solomon and the congregation of the LORD sought unto it. ⁶And Solomon went up there to the brass altar before the LORD, which was at the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered a thousand burnt offerings upon it.

⁷In that night God appeared to Solomon and said unto him, Ask what I shall give you. ⁸And Solomon said to God, Thou hast showed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me to reign in his stead. ⁹Now, O LORD God, Thy promise unto David my father has been fulfilled. For Thou hast made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude. ¹⁰Give me now wisdom and knowledge that I may go out and come in before this people. For who can judge this Thy great people? ¹¹And God said to Solomon, Because this was in your heart, and you have not asked riches, wealth, nor honor, nor the life of your enemies, neither yet have asked for long life – but have asked wisdom and knowledge for yourself that you may judge My people, over whom I have made you king – ¹²wisdom and knowledge is granted to you. And I will give you riches and wealth and honor, such as none of the kings have had that have been before you, neither shall any after you have the like.

¹³Then Solomon came from the high place that was at Gib'-ě-ōn to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Israel. ¹⁴And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen. And he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen which he placed in the chariot-cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. ¹⁵And the king made silver and gold at Jerusalem like stones, and he made cedar trees as plentiful as the sycamore trees which are in the valley. ¹⁶And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt and Kū'-ē. The king's merchants received them from Kū'-ē at a price. ¹⁷And they carried up, and brought forth out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty. And so they brought out horses for all the kings of the Hit'-tites, and for the kings of Syria, by their hands.

¹And Solomon purposed to build a house for the name of the LORD, and a house for his kingdom. ²And Solomon counted out seventy thousand men to bear burdens, and eighty thousand as cutters in the mountains, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.

³And Solomon sent to Hiram the king of Tyre, saying, As you dealt with David my father, and sent him cedars to build him a house to dwell in, so deal with me. ⁴Behold, I build a house to the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to Him, and to burn before Him sweet incense, and for the continual showbread, and for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance forever to Israel. ⁵And the house which I build is great. For our God is great above all gods. ⁶But who is able to build Him a house, since the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain Him? Who am I then, that I should build Him a house, except only to burn sacrifice before Him? ⁷Therefore send me now a man skillful to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and one who is skillful to engrave with the skillful men who are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father provided. ⁸Also send me cedar trees, fir trees, and algum trees out of Lëb'-ä-nön. For I know that your servants are skillful to cut timber in Lëb'-ä-nön. And, behold, my servants shall be with your servants ⁹in order to prepare plenty of timber for me. For the house which I am about to build shall be great and wonderful. ¹⁰And behold, I will give to your servants, those who cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand bätths of wine, and twenty thousand bätths of oil.

¹¹Then Hiram the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because the LORD has loved His people, He has made you king over them. ¹²Hiram said moreover, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel who made heaven and earth, who has given to David the king a wise son blessed with judgment and understanding, who might build a house for the LORD and a house for his kingdom. ¹³And now I have sent a skillful man blessed with understanding, of Hiram my father's, ¹⁴the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre — skillful to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson. He also can engrave any kind of engraving, and can invent every device which shall be put to him, with your skillful men, and with the skillful men of my lord David your father. ¹⁵Now therefore the wheat, and the barley, the oil, and the wine, which my lord has spoken of, let him send to his servants. ¹⁶And we will cut wood out of Lēb'-ā-nōn, as much as you shall need. And we will bring it to you in floats by sea to Joppa. And you shall carry it up to Jerusalem.

¹⁷And Solomon numbered all the strangers who were in the land of Israel, according to the numbering with which David his father had numbered them. And they were found to be a hundred and fifty-three thousand and six hundred. ¹⁸And he set seventy thousand of them to be bearers of burdens, and eighty thousand to be cutters in the mountains, and three thousand and six hundred overseers to set the people to work.

¹Then Solomon began to build the house of the LORD at Jerusalem in Mount Mō-rī'-āh, where the LORD appeared to David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshing-floor of Ōr'-nān the Jēb'-ū-sīte. ²And he began to build in the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

³Now these are the things in which Solomon was instructed for the building of the house of God. The length by cubits after the first measure was sixty cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits. ⁴And the porch that was in the front, the length was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was a hundred and twenty. And he overlaid it inside with pure gold. ⁵And he made the ceiling of the greater house with fir wood, which he overlaid with fine gold. And he set palm trees and chains on it. ⁶And he covered the house with precious stones for beauty. And the gold was gold of Pār-vā'-īm. ⁷He also overlaid the house, the beams, the posts, and the walls of it, and the doors of it, with gold. And he engraved chēr'-ū-bīms on the walls. ⁸And he made the most holy house, the length of which was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth of it twenty cubits. And he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents. ⁹And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the upper rooms with gold. ¹⁰And in the most holy house he made two chēr'-ū-bīms of carved work, and overlaid them with gold.

¹¹And the wings of the chēr'-ū-bīms were twenty cubits long. One wing was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house. And the other wing was five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other chēr'-ūb. ¹²And one wing of the other chēr'-ūb was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other chēr'-ūb. ¹³The wings of these chēr'-ū-bīms spread themselves forth twenty cubits. And they stood on their feet, and their faces were inward.

¹⁴And he made the veil of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and worked chēr'-ū-bīms on it. ¹⁵He also made two pillars of thirty-five cubits high in front of the house, and the capital that was on the top of each of them was five cubits. ¹⁶And he made chains, as in the holy place, and put them on the heads of the pillars. And he made a hundred pōme-grān'-ātes and put them on the chains. ¹⁷And he reared up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand and the other on the left. And he called the name of the one on the right Jā'-chīn, and the name of the one on the left Bō'-āz.

¹Moreover he made an altar of brass. Twenty cubits was the length of it, and twenty cubits was the breadth of it, and ten cubits was the height of it. ²He also cast a sea of melted brass, ten cubits from brim to brim. It was round, and five cubits was the height of it. And a line of thirty cubits went around it. ³And under it was the likeness of oxen, which went around it — ten in a cubit, going all around the sea. Two rows of oxen were cast when it was cast. ⁴It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east. And the sea was set above on them, and all their hinder parts were inward. ⁵And the thickness of it was a handbreadth, and the brim of it like the work of the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies. It received and held three thousand bāths.

⁶He also made ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them. They washed in them such things as they offered for the burnt offering. But the sea was for the priests to wash in. ⁷And he made ten lampstands of gold according to their form, and set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left. ⁸He also made ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right hand and five on the left. And he made a hundred basins of gold.

⁹Furthermore he made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors of them with brass. ¹⁰And he set the sea on the right side of the east end, over against the south. ¹¹And Hī'-rām made the pots, and the shovels, and the basins. And Hī'-rām finished the work that he was to make for king Solomon for the house of God — ¹²the two pillars, and the bowls, and the capitals on the top of the two pillars, and the two wreaths to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were on the top of the pillars, ¹³and four hundred pomegranates on the two wreaths, two rows of pomegranates on each wreath, to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were upon the pillars. ¹⁴He also made bases, and he made lavers upon the bases. ¹⁵Also one sea, and twelve oxen under it. ¹⁶Hī'-rām also made the pots, and the shovels, and the flesh-hooks, and all their instruments of bright brass for king Solomon for the house of the LORD. ¹⁷In the plain of Jordan the king cast them, in the clay ground between Sūc'-cōth and

¹⁹And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the house of God, the golden altar also, and the tables on which the showbread was set. ²⁰Moreover he made the lampstands of pure gold with their lamps, so that they should burn according to the law before the holy place. ²¹And he made the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs of gold, of perfect gold — ²²and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the censers, of pure gold. And the entrance of the house, the inner doors of it for the most holy place, and the doors of the house of the temple were of gold.

¹So all the work that Solomon made for the house of the LORD was finished. And Solomon brought in the things that David his father had dedicated. And he put the silver and the gold, and all the instruments, among the treasures of the house of God. ²Then Solomon gathered the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion. ³Therefore all the men of Israel gathered themselves unto the king in the feast which was in the seventh month. ⁴And all the elders of Israel came. And the Levites took up the ark. ⁵And they brought up the ark, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle. The priests and the Levites brought these up. ⁶Also king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel that were gathered to him before the ark, sacrificed sheep and oxen which could not be counted nor numbered for multitude. ⁷And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, to the holy of holies in the house, into the most holy place, under the wings of the cherubims. ⁸For the cherubims spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the staves of it above. ⁹And they drew out the staves so that the ends of the staves were seen from the ark before the oracle. But they were not seen outside. And there it is until this day. ¹⁰Nothing was in the ark except the two tables which Moses put in it at Hôr-ěb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel when they came out of Egypt.

¹¹And when the priests had come out of the holy place, (for all the priests present were sanctified, and did not wait by course. ¹²Also the Levites who were the singers, all of them of Ā'-sāph, of Hē'-mān, of Jē-dū'-thūn, with their sons and their brothers, being clothed in white linen, having cymbals and psalteries and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them were a hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets,) ¹³as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD — and as they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised the LORD, saying, For He is good, for His mercy endures forever — the house was filled with a cloud, the house of the LORD, ¹⁴so that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud — for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of God!

¹Then Solomon said, The LORD has said that He would dwell in the thick darkness. ²But I have built a house for Thee to live in, and a place for Thy dwelling forever. ³And the king turned his face and blessed the whole congregation of Israel. And all the congregation of Israel stood. ⁴And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who has with His hands fulfilled that which He spoke with His mouth to my father David, saying, ⁵Since the day that I brought My people out of the land of Egypt I have not chosen any city among all the tribes of Israel to build a house in, so that My name might be there. Neither have I chosen any man to be a ruler over My people Israel. ⁶But now I have chosen Jerusalem, so that My name might be there, and now I have chosen David to be over My people Israel. ⁷Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. ⁸But the LORD said to David my father, Because it was in your heart to build a house for My name, you did well in that it was in your heart. ⁹But you shall not build the house; but your son, who shall come forth out of your loins, shall build the house for My name. ¹⁰The LORD therefore has performed His word that He has spoken. For I have risen up in place of David my father, and am set on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and I have built the house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. ¹¹And I have put the ark in it, in which is the covenant of the LORD which He made with the children of Israel.

¹²And he stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands. ¹³For Solomon had made a brass scaffold, five cubits long and five cubits broad and three cubits high. And he had set it in the midst of the court. And he stood upon it, and kneeled down upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward Heaven. ¹⁴And he said, O LORD God of Israel, there is no God like Thee in Heaven or in earth. Thou dost keep Thy covenant and show mercy unto Thy servants who walk before Thee with all their hearts. ¹⁵Thou hast kept with Thy servant David my father that which Thou hast promised him. And Thou didst speak with Thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with Thy hand, as it is this day. ¹⁶Now therefore, O LORD God of Israel, keep with Thy servant David my father that which Thou hast promised him, saying, There shall not fail you a man in My sight to sit upon the throne of Israel, if only your children take heed to their way to walk in My law, as you have walked before Me.

¹⁷Now then, O LORD God of Israel, let Thy word be proven true, which Thou hast spoken unto Thy servant David. ¹⁸But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? Behold, Heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain Thee! How much less this house which I have built? ¹⁹Therefore have respect to the prayer of Thy servant, and to his cry, O LORD my God, to listen to the cry and the prayer which Thy servant prays before Thee. ²⁰*I pray* that Thy eyes may be open upon this house day and night, upon the place of which Thou hast said that Thou wouldst put Thy name there, to listen to the prayer which Thy servant prays toward this place. ²¹Therefore listen to the cries of Thy servant, and of Thy people Israel, which they shall make toward this place. Hear Thou from Thy dwelling-place, from Heaven. And when Thou dost hear, forgive.

²⁴And if Thy people Israel be put to the worse before the enemy because they have sinned against Thee, and if they shall return and confess Thy name, and shall pray and cry before Thee in this house, ²⁵then hear from Heaven, and forgive the sin of Thy people Israel, and bring them again into the land which Thou didst give to them and to their fathers.

²⁶When the sky is shut up, and there is no rain because they have sinned against Thee, if they pray toward this place, and confess Thy name, and turn from their sin when Thou dost afflict them, ²⁷then hear Thou from Heaven and forgive the sin of Thy servants and of Thy people Israel, when Thou hast taught them the good way in which they should walk. And send rain upon Thy land which Thou hast given to Thy people for an inheritance.

²⁸If there is drought in the land, if there is a plague, if there is blasting or mildew, locusts or caterpillars — if their enemies besiege them in the cities of their land — whatever sore or whatever sickness there is, ²⁹then whatever prayer or whatever cry shall be made by any man, or by all Thy people Israel, when everyone shall know his own sore and his own grief, and shall spread forth his hands in this house, ³⁰then hear from Heaven, Thy dwelling-place, and forgive, and give unto every man according to all his ways, whose heart Thou knowest. For Thou only dost know the hearts of the children of men. ³¹*Do this* so that they may fear Thee, to walk in Thy ways, as long as they live in the land which Thou didst give to our fathers.

³²Moreover concerning the stranger who is not of Thy people Israel, but has come from a far country for Thy great name's sake, and Thy mighty hand, and Thy stretched out arm, if they come and pray in this house, ³³then hear from Heaven, even from Thy dwelling-place, and do according to all that the stranger calls unto Thee for — so that all people of the earth may know Thy name, and fear Thee, as Thy people Israel, and may know that this house which I have built is called by Thy name. ³⁴If Thy people go out to war against their enemies by the way that Thou shalt send them, and if they pray unto Thee toward this city which Thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for Thy name, ³⁵then hear from Heaven their prayer and their cry and maintain their cause. ³⁶If they sin against Thee (for there is no man who does not sin), and if Thou art angry with them and dost deliver them over before their enemies, and they carry them away captives unto a land far off or near, ³⁷yet if they think within themselves in the land where they are carried captive, and turn and pray unto Thee in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done wrong and have dealt wickedly — ³⁸if they return unto Thee with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity where they have carried them captives, and if they pray toward their land which Thou didst give unto their fathers and toward the city which Thou hast chosen, and toward the house which I have built for Thy name — ³⁹then hear from Heaven, from Thy dwelling-place, their prayer and their cries, and maintain their cause, and forgive Thy people who have sinned against Thee.

⁴⁰Now, my God, I beseech Thee, let Thy eyes be open and let Thy ears hear the prayer made in this place. ⁴¹Now therefore arise, O LORD God, into Thy resting-place, Thou, and the ark of Thy strength. Let Thy priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation, and let Thy saints rejoice in goodness. ⁴²O LORD God, do not turn away the face of Thy anointed. Remember the mercies of David Thy servant.

¹Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices. And the glory of the LORD filled the house. ²And the priests could not enter into the house of the LORD because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD's house. ³And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped and praised the LORD, saying, For He is good, for His mercy endures forever.

⁴Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD. ⁵And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God. ⁶And the priests waited on their offices. The Levites waited also with instruments of music of the LORD, which David the king had made to praise the LORD, because His mercy endures forever, when David praised by their ministry. And the priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel stood. ⁷Moreover Solomon made the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD holy. For there he offered burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brass altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, and the meal offerings, and the fat.

⁸Also at the same time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hā'-māth unto the river of Egypt. ⁹And in the eighth day they made a solemn assembly. For they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days. ¹⁰And on the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people away into their tents, glad and merry in heart for the goodness that the LORD had showed to David, and to Solomon, and to Israel His people.

¹¹So Solomon finished the house of the LORD, and the king's house. And all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of the LORD, and in his own house, he did with success.

¹²And the LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and said to him, I have heard your prayer, and have chosen this place to Myself for a house of sacrifice. ¹³If I shut up the sky so that there is no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send a plague among My people — ¹⁴if My people, who are called by My name, shall humble themselves and pray, and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from Heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land. ¹⁵Now My eyes shall be open, and My ears shall be open to the prayer in this place. ¹⁶For now I have chosen and sanctified this house, so that My name may be there forever. And My eyes and My heart shall be there forever. ¹⁷And as for you, if you will walk before me, as David your father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you, and shall observe My statutes and My judgments, ¹⁸then I will make the throne of your kingdom sure, as I have covenanted with David your father, saying, There shall not fail you a man to be ruler in Israel. ¹⁹But if you turn away and forsake My statutes and My commandments which I have set before you, and if you shall go and serve other gods and worship them, ²⁰then I will pluck them up by the roots out of My land which I have given them. And this house which I have sanctified for My name, I will cast out of My sight, and will make it to be a proverb and a byword among all nations. ²¹And this house, which is high, shall be a wonder to everyone who passes by it — so that he shall say, Why has the LORD done this to this land and to this house? ²²And it shall be answered, Because they forsook the LORD God of their fathers who brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods and worshipped them and served them. Therefore He has brought all this evil upon them.

¹And at the end of twenty years, in which Solomon had built the house of the LORD and his own house, ²Solomon built the cities which Hī'-rām had given back to him and caused the children of Israel to live there. ³And Solomon went to Hā'-māth-zō'-bāh, and prevailed against it. ⁴And he built Tād'-môr in the wilderness, and all the store cities which he built in Hā'-māth. ⁵And he built Bêth-hôr'-ôn the upper and Bêth-hôr'-ôn the lower, fenced cities with walls, gates, and bars. ⁶And he built Bā'-ā-lāth, and all the store cities which Solomon had, and all the chariot cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lēb'-ā-nōn, and throughout all the land of his dominion.

⁷As for all the people who were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Pē-riz'-zītes, and the Hī'-vītes, and the Jēb'-ū-sites, who were not of Israel — ⁸of their children who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel did not destroy, Solomon made them pay taxes until this day. ⁹But of the children of Israel Solomon did not make any servants for his work. But they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and captains of his chariots and horsemen. ¹⁰And these were the chief of king Solomon's officers, two hundred and fifty who bore rule over the people.

¹¹And Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David to the house which he had built for her. For he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places into which the ark of the LORD has come are holy.

¹²Then Solomon offered burnt offerings unto the LORD on the altar of the LORD which he had built before the porch, ¹³even following a certain amount every day, offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the sabbaths and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts, three times in the year, even in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles.

¹⁴And according to the order of David his father, he appointed the courses of the priests to their service, and the Levites to their charges, to praise and minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required — the porters also by their courses at every gate — for so David the man of God had commanded. ¹⁵And they did not depart from the commandment of the king unto the priests and Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures. ¹⁶Now all the work of Solomon was prepared until the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD, and until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was complete.

¹⁷Then Solomon went to Ē'-zī-ōn-gē'-bēr, and to Ē'-lōth, at the sea-side in the land of Ē'-dōm. ¹⁸And Hiram sent ships to him by the hands of his servants, and servants who had knowledge of the sea. And they went with the servants of Solomon to Ō'-phīr, and took four hundred and fifty talents of gold from there, and brought them to king Solomon.

¹And when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to test Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great company, and camels that carried spices, and gold in great plenty, and precious stones. And when she had come to Solomon, she told him of all that was in her heart. ²And Solomon told her all her questions. And there was nothing hid from Solomon which he did not tell her. ³And when the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, ⁴and the food of his table, and the sitting of his servants, the attendance of his ministers, and their dress, also his cupbearers and their dress, and the way by which he went up into the house of the LORD, there was no more spirit in her. ⁵And she said to the king, It was a true report which I heard in my own land of your acts and of your wisdom. ⁶However, I did not believe their words until I came, and my eyes have seen. And behold, the one half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told me, for you are greater than the fame which I heard. ⁷Happy are your men, and happy are these your servants who stand always before you and hear your wisdom. ⁸Blessed be the LORD your God, who delighted in you to set you on His throne to be king for the LORD your God. Because your God loved Israel to establish them forever, therefore He made you king over them to do judgment and justice.

¹³Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold, ¹⁴besides that which traders and merchants brought. And all the kings of Arabia and governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

¹⁵And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold. Six hundred shekels of gold went to one target. ¹⁶And he made three hundred shields of beaten gold. Three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield. And the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. ¹⁷Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory and overlaid it with pure gold. ¹⁸And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne. And there were stays on each side of the sitting-place, and two lions standing by the stays. ¹⁹And twelve lions stood there on the one side, and on the other, upon the six steps. There was not the like made in any kingdom.

²⁰And all the drinking vessels of king Solomon were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold. None were of silver. It was not prized in the days of Solomon. ²¹For the king's ships went to Tär'-shish with the servants of Hiram. Once every three years the ships of Tär'-shish came bringing gold and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. ²²And king Solomon was greater than all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

²³And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom that God had put in his heart. ²⁴And each man brought his present, vessels of silver and vessels of gold, and clothing, harness, and spices, horses, and mules, a ration year by year.

²⁵And Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he put in the chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem. ²⁶And he reigned over all the kings from the river even to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt. ²⁷And the king made silver in Jerusalem like stones, and he made cedar trees as plentiful as the sycamore trees which are in the low plains. ²⁸And they brought to Solomon horses out of Egypt and out of all lands.

²⁹Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, are they not written in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of A-hī'-jäh of Shiloh, and in the visions of Id'-dō the seer against Jēr-ō-bō'-ām the son of Nē'-bāt? ³⁰And Solomon reigned forty years in Jerusalem over all Israel. ³¹And Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David his father. And his son Rē-hō-bō'-ām reigned in his stead.

Nē'-bāt, who was in Egypt where he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king, heard it, Jeroboam returned out of Egypt. ³And they sent and called him. So Jeroboam and all Israel came and spoke to Rē-hō-bō'-ām, saying, ⁴Your father made our yoke heavy. Now therefore ease somewhat the heavy service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put upon us, and we will serve you. ⁵And he said to them, Come again to me after three days. And the people departed.

⁶And king Rē-hō-bō'-ām talked it over with the old men who had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What advice do you give me to return answer to this people? ⁷And they spoke to him saying, If you are kind to this people and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be your servants forever. ⁸But he departed from the advice which the old men gave him and listened to the young men who were brought up with him, who stood before him. ⁹And he said to them, What advice do you give that we may return answer to this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke which your father put upon us? ¹⁰And the young men who were brought up with him spoke to him saying, In this way shall you answer the people who spoke to you, saying, Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it somewhat lighter — this you shall say to them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins. ¹¹For whereas my father put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke. My father whipped you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. ¹²So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rē-hō-bō'-ām on the third day as the king commanded, saying, Come again to me on the third day. ¹³And the king answered them roughly. And king Rē-hō-bō'-ām departed from the advice of the old men, ¹⁴and answered them after the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it. My father whipped you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. ¹⁵So the king did not listen to the people, for the cause was from God so that the LORD might perform His word which He spoke by the hand of Ā-hī'-jāh of Shiloh to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

¹⁶And when all Israel saw that the king would not listen to them, the people answered the king saying, What part do we have in David? And we have no inheritance in the son of Jesse! Every man to your tents, O Israel! Now, David, see to your own house. So all Israel went to their tents. ¹⁷But as for the children of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rē-hō-bō'-ām reigned over them. ¹⁸Then king Rē-hō-bō'-ām sent Hā-dōr'-ām, who was over the tax-money. And the children of Israel stoned him with stones so that he died. But king Rē-hō-bō'-ām made himself strong, to get up to his chariot to flee to Jerusalem. ¹⁹And Israel rebelled against the house of David until this day.

¹And when Rē-hō-bō'-ām had come to Jerusalem, he gathered a hundred and eighty thousand chosen men from the house of Judah, who were warriors, to fight against Israel so that he might bring the kingdom again to Rē-hō-bō'-ām. ²But the word of the LORD came to Shēm-ai'-āh the man of God, saying, ³Speak to Rē-hō-bō'-ām the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying, ⁴Thus says the LORD, You shall not go up nor fight against your brothers. Let every man return to his house. For this thing is done by Me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

¹³And the priests and the Levites who were in all Israel presented themselves to him out of all their borders. ¹⁴For the Levites left their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem. For Jeroboam and his sons had cast them off from executing the priest's office unto the LORD. ¹⁵And he ordained priests for himself for the high places, and for the devils, and for the calves which he had made. ¹⁶And such as set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel, out of all the tribes of Israel, came after them to Jerusalem to sacrifice to the LORD God of their fathers. ¹⁷So they made the kingdom of Judah stronger, and made Rē-hō-bō'-ām the son of Solomon strong for three years. For three years they walked in the way of David and Solomon.

¹⁸And Rē-hō-bō'-ām took Mā'-hā-lāth the daughter of Jēr'-ī-mōth the son of David as a wife for himself, and Ab'-i-hāil the daughter of Ē-lī'-āb the son of Jesse, ¹⁹who bore him children, Jē'-ūsh, and Shām-ā-rī'-āh, and Zā'-hām. ²⁰And after her he took Mā'-ā-chāh the daughter of Āb'-sā-lōm, who bore Ā-bī'-jāh to him, and Āt-tā'-ī, and Zī'-zā, and Shē-lō'-mīth. ²¹And Rē-hō-bō'-ām loved Mā'-ā-chāh the daughter of Āb'-sā-lōm above all his wives and his concubines (for he took eighteen wives and sixty concubines, and had twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters). ²²And Rē-hō-bō'-ām made Ā-bī'-jāh the son of Mā'-ā-chāh the chief, to be ruler among his brothers, in order to make him king. ²³And he dealt wisely and dispersed all his children throughout all the countries of Judah and Benjamin, unto every fenced city. And he gave them plenty of food. And he desired many wives.

¹And when Rē-hō-bō'-ām had established the kingdom, and had made himself strong he departed from the law of the LORD, and all Israel with him. ²And in the fifth year of king Rē-hō-bō'-ām, Shī'-shāk king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had sinned against the LORD. ³*He came* with twelve hundred chariots and sixty thousand horsemen. And the people who came with him out of Egypt were without number — the Lū'-bīms, the Sūk'-kī-īms, and the Ē-thī-ō'-pī-āns. ⁴And he took the fenced cities which belonged to Judah, and came to Jerusalem.

⁵Then Shēm-aī'-āh the prophet came to Rē-hō-bō'-ām, and to the princes of Judah who were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shī'-shāk. And he said to them, Thus saith the LORD, You have forsaken Me, and therefore I also have left you in the hand of Shī'-shāk. ⁶Therefore the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves. And they said, The LORD is righteous. ⁷And when the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shēm-aī'-āh, saying, They have humbled themselves. I will not destroy them, but I will give them some deliverance. And My wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shī'-shāk. ⁸Nevertheless they shall be his servants, so that they may know My service, and the service of the kings of the countries. ⁹So Shī'-shāk king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house. He took all. He carried away also the shields of gold which Solomon had made. ¹⁰Instead of these king Rē-hō-bō'-ām made shields of brass, and gave them into the hands of the chief of the guard who kept the entrance of the king's house. ¹¹And when the king entered into the house of the LORD, the guard came and carried them and brought them again into the guard-chamber. ¹²And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him so that He would not destroy him altogether. And also things went well in Judah.

¹³So king Rē-hō-bō'-ām made himself strong at Jerusalem, and reigned. For Rē-hō-bō'-ām was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put His name there. And his mother's name was Nā'-ā-māh an Ammonitess. ¹⁴And he did evil because he did not prepare his heart to seek the LORD. ¹⁵Now the acts of Rē-hō-bō'-ām, first and last, are they not written in the book of Shēm-aī'-āh the prophet, and Id'-dō the seer concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Rē-hō-bō'-ām and Jēr-ō-bō'-ām continually. ¹⁶And Rē-hō-bō'-ām slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David. And his son Ā-bī'-jāh reigned in his stead.

¹Now in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam Ā-bī'-jāh began to reign over Judah. ²He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Mī-chai'-āh the daughter of Ū-rī-ēl of Ġib'-ē-āh. And there was war between Ā-bī'-jāh and Jēr-ō-bō'-ām. ³And Ā-bī'-jāh set the battle in order with an army of mighty men of war, four hundred thousand chosen men. Jeroboam also set the battle in order against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, mighty men of power.

⁴And Ā-bī'-jāh stood up upon Mount Zēm-ā-rā'-īm, which is in Mount Ephraim, and said, Hear me, Jeroboam and all Israel. ⁵Should you not know that the LORD God of Israel gave the kingdom over Israel to David forever, to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt? ⁶Yet Jeroboam the son of Nē'-bāt, the servant of Solomon the son of David, has risen up and has rebelled against his lord. ⁷And there are gathered unto him vain men, the children of Bē'-li-āl, and have made themselves strong against Rē-hō-bō'-ām the son of Solomon, when Rē-hō-bō'-ām was young and tender-hearted and could not withstand them. ⁸And now you think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD in the hands of the sons of David. And you are a great multitude, and there are with you golden calves which Jeroboam made you for gods. ⁹Have you not cast out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have made priests after the manner of the nations of other lands for yourselves? So that whoever comes to make himself holy with a young bull and seven rams, he may be a priest of those who are no gods. ¹⁰But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken Him. And the priests who minister unto the LORD are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites wait upon their business. ¹¹And they burn unto the Lord every morning and every evening burnt sacrifices and sweet incense, also setting the showbread upon the pure table, and the lampstand of gold with the lamps of it, to burn every evening. For we keep the charge of the LORD our God. But you have forsaken Him. ¹²And behold, God Himself is with us as our Captain, and His priests with sounding trumpets to cry alarm against you. O children of Israel, do not fight against the LORD God of your fathers, for you shall not win!

¹³But Jeroboam caused an ambush to come around behind them, so that they were in front of Judah, and the ambush was behind them. ¹⁴And when Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind. And they cried unto the LORD, and the priests sounded with the trumpets. ¹⁵Then the men of Judah gave a shout. And as the men of Judah shouted, God struck Jeroboam and all Israel before Ā-bī'-jäh and Judah. ¹⁶And the children of Israel fled before Judah. And God delivered them into their hand. ¹⁷And Ā-bī'-jäh and his people killed them with a great slaughter. So there fell down dead five hundred thousand chosen men of Israel. ¹⁸So the children of Israel were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah won because they relied upon the LORD God of their fathers. ¹⁹And Ā-bī'-jäh pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Bethel with the towns of it, and Jē-shā'-näh with the towns of it, and Ē'-phrā-in with the towns of it. ²⁰Neither did Jeroboam recover strength again in the days of Ā-bī'-jäh. And the LORD struck him and he died.

²¹But Ā-bī'-jäh became mighty, and married fourteen wives, and begot twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters. ²²And the rest of the acts of Ā-bī'-jäh, and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the story of the prophet Id'-dō.

¹So Ā-bī'-jäh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David. And his son Ā'-sā reigned in his stead. In his days the land was quiet ten years. ²And Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God. ³For he took away the altars of the strange gods, and the high places, and broke down the images, and cut down the groves. ⁴And he commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment. ⁵He also took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the images. And the kingdom was quiet before him.

⁶And he built fenced cities in Judah. For the land had rest, and he had no war in those years, because the LORD had given him rest. ⁷Therefore he said to Judah, Let us build these cities and make walls around them, and towers, gates and bars, while the land is still before us. Because we have sought the LORD our God, we have sought and He has given us rest on every side. So they built and were blessed. ⁸And Asa had an army which bore targets and spears, three hundred thousand out of Judah. And out of Benjamin there were two hundred and eighty thousand who bore shields and drew bows. All these were mighty men of power.

⁹And there came out against them Zē'-räh the Ē-thī-ō'-pī-än with an army of a million men, and three hundred chariots. And they came to Mā-rē'-shäh. ¹⁰Then Asa went out against him, and they set the battle in order in the valley of Zēph'-ä-thäh at Mā-rē'-shäh. ¹¹And Asa cried unto the LORD his God and said, LORD, it is nothing with Thee to help, whether with many or with those who have no power. Help us, O LORD our God, for we rest upon Thee, and in Thy name we go against this multitude. O LORD, Thou art our God. Do not let man prevail against Thee. ¹²So the LORD struck the Ē-thī-ō'-pī-āns before Asa and before Judah. And the Ē-thī-ō'-pī-āns fled. ¹³And Asa and the people who were with him pursued them to Gē'-rār. And the Ē-thī-ō'-pī-āns were overthrown so that they could not recover themselves. For they were destroyed before the LORD and before His army. And they carried away very much spoil. ¹⁴And they struck all the cities round about Gē'-rār, for the fear of the LORD came upon them. And they spoiled all the cities, for there was very much spoil in them. ¹⁵They also struck the tents of cattle, and carried away a great many sheep and camels, and returned to Jerusalem.

¹And the Spirit of God came upon Āz-ā-rī'-āh the son of Ō'-dēd. ²And he went out to meet Asa, and said to him, Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin. The LORD is with you while you are with Him. And if you seek Him, He will be found by you. But if you forsake Him, He will forsake you. ³Now for a long time Israel had been without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law. ⁴But when they turned in their trouble to the LORD God of Israel, and sought Him, He was found by them. ⁵And in those times there was no peace to him who went out, nor to him who came in, but great troubles were upon all the people of the lands. ⁶And nation was beaten by nation, and city by city — for God troubled them with all kinds of adversity. ⁷Therefore be strong and do not let your hands be weak, for your work shall be rewarded. ⁸And when Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Ō'-dēd the prophet, he took courage and put away the hateful idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from Mount Ephraim. And he renewed the altar of the LORD which was before the porch of the LORD. ⁹And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the strangers with them out of Ephraim and Mā-nās'-sēh, and out of Simeon. For they fell to him out of Israel in great numbers, when they saw that the LORD his God was with him. ¹⁰So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa. ¹¹And they offered unto the LORD in that day part of the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep. ¹²And they entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul, ¹³and that whoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman. ¹⁴And they swore unto the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets. ¹⁵And all Judah rejoiced at the oath, for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought Him with their whole desire. And He was found by them, and the LORD gave them rest round about.

¹⁸And he brought into the house of God the things which his father had dedicated, and which he himself had dedicated, silver and gold and vessels. ¹⁹And there was no more war unto the thirty-fifth year of the reign of Asa.

⁷And at that time Hā-nā'-nī the seer came to Asa king of Judah and said to him, Because you have relied on the king of Syria, and have not relied on the LORD your God, therefore the army of the king of Syria has escaped out of your hand. ⁸Were not the Ē-thī-ō'-pī-āns and the Lū'-bims a huge army with many chariots and horsemen? Yet, because you relied upon the LORD, he delivered them into your hand. ⁹For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth to show Himself strong on behalf of those whose heart is perfect toward Him. You have done foolishly in this; therefore from now on you shall have wars. ¹⁰Then Asa was angry with the seer and put him in a prison-house. For he was in a rage with him because of this. And Asa oppressed some of the people at the same time.

¹¹And behold, the acts of Asa, first and last, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. ¹²And in the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa was diseased in his feet, until his disease was very grievous. Yet in his disease he did not seek to the LORD, but to the physicians.

¹And Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt his son reigned in his stead. And he made himself strong against Israel. ²And he placed troops in all the fenced cities of Judah, and set troops in the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim which Asa his father had taken. ³And the LORD was with Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt because he walked in the first ways of his father David and did not seek to Bā'-ā-līm. ⁴But he looked unto the God of his father, and walked in His commandments, and not after the doings of Israel. ⁵Therefore the LORD made the kingdom sure in his hand. And all Judah brought presents to Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt. And he had great riches and honor. ⁶And his heart was lifted up in the ways of the LORD. Moreover he took away the high places and groves out of Judah.

⁷Also in the third year of his reign he sent to his princes, to Bēn'-hāil, and to Ō-bā-dī'-āh, and to Zēch-ā-rī'-āh, and to Nēth'-ā-nēel, and to Mī-chai'-āh, to teach in the cities of Judah. ⁸And with them he sent Levites, Shēm-aī'-āh, and Nēth-ā-nī'-āh, and Zēb-ā-dī'-āh, and Ās'-ā-hēl, and Shē-mī'-rā-mōth, and Jē-hōn'-ā-thān, and Ād-ō-nī'-jāh, and Tō-hī'-jāh, and Tōb-ād-ō-nī'-jāh, Levites. And with them he sent Ē-lī-shā-mā and Jē-hōr'-ām the priests. ⁹And they taught in Judah and had the book of the law of the LORD with them, and went around throughout all the cities of Judah and taught the people.

¹⁰And the fear of the LORD fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were around Judah, so that they did not make war against Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt. ¹¹Also some of the Philistines brought Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt presents and silver for tribute. And the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred he-goats.

¹²And Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt became exceedingly great. And he built palaces in Judah, and cities of store. ¹³And he had much business in the cities of Judah. And the men of war, mighty men of power, were in Jerusalem. ¹⁴And these are the numbers of them according to the house of their fathers — from Judah, the captains of thousands — Ād'-nāh the chief, and with him were three hundred thousand mighty men of power. ¹⁵And next to him was Jē-hō-hā'-nān the captain, and with him were two hundred and eighty thousand. ¹⁶And next to him was Ām-ā-sī'-āh the son of Zīch'-rī, who willingly offered himself unto the LORD, and with him were two hundred thousand mighty men of power. ¹⁷And from Benjamin was Ē-lī'-ā-dā a mighty man of power, and with him were two hundred thousand men armed with bow and shield. ¹⁸And next to him was Jē-hō'-zā-bād, and with him were a hundred and eighty thousand ready and prepared for war. ¹⁹These waited on the king, besides those whom the king put in the fenced cities throughout all Judah.

¹Now Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt had plenty of riches and honor, and he joined himself with Ā'-hāb. ²And after some years he went down to Ahab to Samaria. And Ahab killed many, many sheep and oxen for him, and for the people that were with him. And he persuaded him to go up with him to Rā'-mōth-gīl'-ē-ād. ³And Ahab king of Israel said to Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt king of Judah, Will you go with me to Rā'-mōth-gīl'-ē-ād? And he answered him, I am as you are, and my people are as your people. And we will be with you in the war.

⁴And Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt said to the king of Israel, I pray you, inquire at the word of the LORD today. ⁵Therefore the king of Israel gathered together four hundred men of the prophets. And he said to them, Shall we go to Rā'-mōth-gīl'-ē-ād to battle, or shall I wait? And they said, Go up, for God will deliver it into the king's hand. ⁶But Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt said, Is there not a prophet of the LORD here besides, so that we might ask of Him? ⁷And the king of Israel said to Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt, There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD. But I hate him, for he never prophesied good unto me, but always evil. The same is Mī-caī'-āh the son of Īm'-lā. And Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt said, Let not the king say so. ⁸And the king of Israel called for one of his officers and said, Bring quickly Mī-caī'-āh the son of Īm'-lā.

¹⁴And when he had come to him, the king said to him, Mī-caī'-āh, shall we go to Rā'-mōth-gīl'-ē-ād to battle, or shall I wait? And he said, Go up and be blessed. And they shall be delivered into your hand.

¹⁵And the king said to him, How many times shall I warn you that you say nothing but the truth to me in the name of the LORD? ¹⁶Then he said, I saw all Israel scattered upon the mountains, like sheep that have no shepherd. And the LORD said, These have no master; let them return, each man to his own house in peace. ¹⁷And the king of Israel said to Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt, Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil? ¹⁸Again he said, Therefore hear the word of the LORD. I saw the LORD sitting upon His throne, and all the host of Heaven were standing on His right hand and on His left. ¹⁹And the LORD said, Who shall tempt Ahab king of Israel so that he may go up and fall at Rā'-mōth-gīl'-ē-ād? And one spoke saying in one way, and another saying in another way. ²⁰Then a spirit came out and stood before the LORD and said, I will tempt him. And the LORD said, With what? ²¹And he said, I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the LORD said, You shall tempt him, and you shall also succeed. Go out and do so. ²²Now therefore, behold, the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these your prophets, and the LORD has spoken evil against you.

²³Then Zēd-ē-kī'-āh the son of Chē-nā'-ā-nāh came near and struck Mī-cai'-āh upon the cheek. And he said, Which way did the Spirit of the LORD go from me to speak to you? ²⁴And Mī-cai'-āh said, Behold, you shall see on that day when you shall go into an inner room to hide yourself. ²⁵Then the king of Israel said, Take Mī-cai'-āh, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son. ²⁶And say, Thus says the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction until I return in peace. ²⁷And Mī-cai'-āh said, If you certainly return in peace, then the LORD has not spoken by me. And he said, Listen, all you people.

²⁸So the king of Israel and Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt the king of Judah went up to Rā'-mōth-gīl'-ē-ād. ²⁹And the king of Israel said to Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt, I will disguise myself and will go to the battle. But you put on your robes. So the king of Israel disguised himself. And they went to the battle. ³⁰Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots who were with him, saying, Do not fight with small or great, but only with the king of Israel. ³¹And when the captains of the chariots saw Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt, they said, It is the king of Israel. Therefore they surrounded him to fight. But Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt cried out, and the LORD helped him. And God moved them to leave him. ³²For when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back again from pursuing him. ³³And a certain man drew a bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of the harness. Therefore he said to his chariot man, Turn your hand so that you may carry me out of the army, for I am wounded. ³⁴And the battle increased that day. However, the king of Israel stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians until the evening. And about the time of the sunset he died.

¹And Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt the king of Judah returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem. ²And Jehu the son of Hā-nā'-nī the seer went out to meet him. And he said to king Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt, Should you help the ungodly and love those who hate the LORD? Therefore wrath has come upon you from before the LORD. ³Nevertheless there are good things found in you, in that you have taken away the groves out of the land and have prepared your heart to seek God. ⁴And Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt lived at Jerusalem. And he went out again through the people from Bēer-shē'-bā to Mount Ephraim, and brought them back to the LORD God of their fathers.

⁵And he set judges in the land throughout all the fenced cities of Judah, city by city. ⁶And he said to the judges, Take heed what you do. For you do not judge for man, but for the LORD, who is with you in the judgment. ⁷Therefore now let the fear of the LORD be upon you. Be careful and act wisely, for there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of gifts.

⁸Moreover Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt set some of the Levites and of the priests and of the chief of the fathers of Israel in Jerusalem for the judgment of the LORD, and for controversies, when they returned to Jerusalem. ⁹And he charged them, saying, So you shall do in the fear of the LORD, faithfully, and with a perfect heart. ¹⁰And whatever cause shall come to you from your brothers that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, you shall even warn them so that they do not sin against the LORD, and wrath come upon you and your brothers. Do this and you shall not sin. ¹¹And behold, Ām-ā-rī'-āh the chief priest is over you in all matters of the LORD. And Zēb-ā-dī'-āh the son of Īsh'-mā-ēl is the ruler of the house of Judah for all the king's matters. Also the Levites shall be officers before you. Take courage and act, and the LORD shall be with the good.

⁵And Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court, ⁶and said, O LORD God of our Fathers, art Thou not God in Heaven? And dost Thou not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations? And is there not power and might in Thy hand, so that none is able to withstand Thee? ⁷Art Thou not our God? Didst Thou not drive out the people of this land before Israel, and didst give it to the seed of Thy friend Abraham forever? ⁸And they lived in it. And they have built Thee a temple in it for Thy name, saying, ⁹If evil comes upon us, such as the sword, judgment, or plague, or famine, and we stand before this house and in Thy presence (for Thy name is in this house) and cry unto Thee in our affliction, then Thou wilt hear and help. ¹⁰And now, behold, the children of Ammon and Moab and Mount Sē'-īr, whom Thou wouldest not let Israel invade when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them and did not destroy them — ¹¹behold, they reward us by coming to cast us out of Thy possession, which Thou hast given us to inherit. ¹²O our God, wilt Thou not judge them? For we have no might against this great company which comes against us. Neither do we know what to do, but our eyes are upon Thee. ¹³And all Judah stood before the LORD with their little ones, their wives, and their children.

¹⁴Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jā-hā'-zī-ēl the son of Zēch-ā-rī'-āh, the son of Bē-naī'-āh, the son of Jē-ī'-ēl, the son of Māt-tā-nī'-āh, a Levite of the sons of Ā'-sāph, in the midst of the congregation. ¹⁵And he said, Listen, all Judah, and you people of Jerusalem, and king Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt! Thus says the LORD to you, Do not be afraid nor dismayed because of this great multitude. For the battle is not yours, but God's. ¹⁶Tomorrow go down against them. Behold, they come up by the cliff of Ziz. And you shall find them at the end of the valley, before the wilderness of Jē-rū'-ēl. ¹⁷You shall not need to fight in this battle. Set yourselves and stand, and see the salvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem. Do not fear nor be dismayed. Tomorrow go out against them, for the LORD will be with you. ¹⁸And Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt bowed his head with his face to the ground. And all Judah and the people of Jerusalem fell before the LORD, worshipping the LORD. ¹⁹And the Levites, of the children of the Kō'-hāth-ites and of the children of the Kō'-hītes, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

²⁰And they rose early in the morning and went forth into the wilderness of Tē-kō'-ā. And as they went forth, Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and you people of Jerusalem. Believe in the LORD your God, and so you shall be established. Believe His prophets, and so you shall be blessed. ²¹And when he had talked with the people, he appointed singers unto the LORD and praisers to praise the beauty of holiness as they went out before the army, and to say, Praise the LORD, for His mercy endures forever.

²²And when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushes against the children of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Sē'-ir, who had come against Judah. And they were beaten. ²³For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the people of Mount Sē'-ir to completely kill and destroy. And when they had made an end of the people of Sē'-ir, everyone helped to destroy another. ²⁴And when Judah came toward the watchtower in the wilderness, they looked at the multitude. And behold! They were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and none escaped. ²⁵And when Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt and his people came to take away the spoil from them, they found among them both riches and precious jewels in great number with the dead bodies, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away. And they were three days in gathering of the spoil, it was so much. ²⁶And on the fourth day they gathered themselves in the valley of Bē-rā'-chāh. For there they blessed the LORD. Therefore the name of the same place was called the valley of Bē-rā'-chāh until this day.

²⁷Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt in front of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy. For the LORD had made them to rejoice over their enemies. ²⁸And they came to Jerusalem with psalteries and harps and trumpets unto the house of the LORD. ²⁹And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries, when they had heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel. ³⁰So the kingdom of Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt was quiet. For his God gave him rest round about.

³¹And Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt reigned over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Ā-zū'-bāh the daughter of Shīl'-hī. ³²And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and did not depart from it, doing that which was right in the sight of the LORD. ³³However, the high places were not taken away, for as yet the people had not prepared their hearts unto the God of their fathers. ³⁴Now the rest of the acts of Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of Jehu the son of Hā-nā'-nī, which has been added to the book of the kings of Israel.

³⁵And after this Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt king of Judah joined himself with Ā-hā-zī'-āh king of Israel, who did very wickedly. ³⁶And he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tār'-shish. And they made the ships in Ē'-zī-ōn-gē'-bēr. ³⁷Then Ēl-ī-ē'-zēr the son of Dō'-dā-vāh of Mā-rē'-shāh prophesied against Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt, saying, Because you have joined yourself with Ā-hā-zī'-āh, the LORD has broken your works. And the ships were broken so that they were not able to go to Tār'-shish.

¹Now Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Jē-hōr'-ām his son reigned in his stead. ²And he had brothers, the sons of Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt, Āz-ā-rī'-āh, and Jē-hī'-ēl, and Zēch-ā-rī'-āh, and Āz-ā-rī'-āh, and Mī'-chāel, and Shēph-ā-tī'-āh. All these were the sons of Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt king of Israel. ³And their father gave them great gifts of silver and of gold and of precious things, with fenced cities in Judah. But the kingdom he gave to Jē-hōr'-ām, because he was the first-born. ⁴Now when Jē-hōr'-ām had risen up to the kingdom of his father, he made himself strong and killed all his brothers with the sword, and also many of the princes of Israel.

⁵Jē-hōr'-ām was thirty-two years old when he began to reign. And he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. ⁶And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like the house of Ahab – for he had the daughter of Ahab for a wife. And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD. ⁷However, the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that He had made with David, and as He promised to give a light to him and to his sons forever.

⁸In his days the Ē'-dom-ites revolted from under the rule of Judah, and made themselves a king. ⁹Then Jē-hōr'-ām went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him. And he rose up by night and struck the Ē'-dom-ites who surrounded him, and the captains of the chariots. ¹⁰So the Ē'-dom-ites revolted from under the hand of Judah until this day. The same time Lib'-nāh revolted from under his hand, because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers. ¹¹Besides he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the people of Jerusalem to commit fōr-nī-cā'-tion, and forced Judah also.

¹²And there came a writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus says the LORD God of David your father, Because you have not walked in the ways of Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt your father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah, ¹³but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have made Judah and the people of Jerusalem to go lusting like the fōr-nī-cā'-tions of the house of Ahab, and also have killed your brothers of your father's house (who were better than you), ¹⁴behold, the LORD will strike your people with a great plague, and your children, and your wives, and all your goods. ¹⁵And you shall have great sickness by disease in your bowels, until your bowels fall out because of the sickness day by day.

¹⁶Moreover the LORD stirred up the spirit of the Philistines against Jē-hōr'-ām, and of the Arabians who were near the Ē-thī-ō'-pī-āns. ¹⁷And they came up into Judah and broke into it, and carried away all the stuff that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives – so that there was not a son left with him except Ā-hā-zī'-āh, the youngest of his sons.

¹⁸And after all this the LORD struck him in his bowels with a disease that could not be cured. ¹⁹And in time, after the end of two years, his bowels fell out because of his sickness. So he died of sore diseases. And his people made no burning for him like the burning of his fathers. ²⁰He was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and departed without being desired. However, they buried him in the city of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

¹And the people of Jerusalem made Ā-hā-zī'-āh his youngest son king in his stead. For the band of men that came with the Ā-rā'-bī-āns to the camp had killed all the older ones. So Ā-hā-zī'-āh the son of Jē-hôr'-ām king of Judah reigned. ²Ā-hā-zī'-āh's dynasty was forty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Āth-ā-lī'-āh the daughter of Omri. ³He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab. For his mother was his adviser to do wickedly. ⁴Therefore he did evil in the sight of the LORD like the house of Ahab. For they were his advisers after the death of his father, to his ruin. ⁵He also walked after their advice and went with Jē-hôr'-ām the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hā-zā'-ēl king of Syria at Rā'-mōth-gil'-ē-ād. And the Syrians struck Jē-hôr'-ām. ⁶And he returned to be healed in Jēz'-rēel because of the wounds which were given him at Rā'-māh, when he fought with Hā-zā'-ēl king of Syria. And Ā-hā-zī'-āh the son of Jē-hôr'-ām king of Judah went down to see Jē-hôr'-ām the son of Ahab at Jēz'-rēel, because he was sick. ⁷And by coming to Jē-hôr'-ām, the putting down of Ā-hā-zī'-āh was of God. He went out with Jē-hôr'-ām against Jehu the son of Nīm'-shī, whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab. ⁸And when Jehu was executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah and the sons of the brothers of Ā-hā-zī'-āh who served Ā-hā-zī'-āh, he killed them. ⁹And he looked for Ā-hā-zī'-āh. And they caught him (for he was hidden in Samaria), and brought him to Jehu. And when they had killed him, they buried him – because they said, He is the son of Jē-hōsh'-ā-phāt who looked unto the LORD with all his heart. So the house of Ā-hā-zī'-āh had no power still to keep the kingdom.

¹⁰But when Āth-ā-lī'-āh the mother of Ā-hā-zī'-āh saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of Judah. ¹¹But Jē-hō-shāb'-ē-āth the daughter of the king took Jō'-āsh the son of Ā-hā-zī'-āh, and stole him from among the king's sons who were killed. And she put him and his nurse in a bedroom. So Jē-hō-shāb'-ē-āth, the daughter of king Jē-hôr'-ām, the wife of Jē-hoi'-ā-dā the priest (for she was the sister of Ā-hā-zī'-āh) hid him from Āth-ā-lī'-āh so that she did not kill him. ¹²And he was with them six years hidden in the house of God. And Āth-ā-lī'-āh reigned over the land.

¹And in the seventh year Jē-hoi'-ā-dā made himself strong. And he took the captains of hundreds, Āz-ā-rī'-āh the son of Jē-rō'-hām, and Ish'-mā-ēl the son of Jē-hō-hā'-nān, and Āz-ā-rī'-āh the son of Ō'-bēd, and Mā-ā-sei'-āh the son of Ā-daī'-āh, and Ē-lī-shā'-phāt the son of Zich'-rī into covenant with him. ²And they went about in Judah and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief of the fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem. ³And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said to them, Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD has said of the sons of David. ⁴This is the thing that you shall do. A third part of you entering on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be keepers of the doors. ⁵And a third part shall be at the king's house. And a third part shall be at the gate of the foundation. And all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD. ⁶But let none come into the house of the LORD except the priests, and those of the Levites who minister. They shall go in, for they are holy. But all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD. ⁷And the Levites shall surround the king, each man with his weapons in his hand. And whoever comes into the house, he shall be put to death. But you be with the king when he comes in and when he goes out.

⁸So the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jē-hoi'-ā-dā the priest had commanded. And every man took his men who were to come in on the sabbath, with the ones who were to go out on the sabbath. For Jē-hoi'-ā-dā the priest did not dismiss the courses. ⁹Moreover Jē-hoi'-ā-dā the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds king David's spears and bucklers and shields, which were in the house of God. ¹⁰And he set all the people, each man having his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the temple, by the king round about. ¹¹Then they brought out the king's son and put the crown upon him, and gave him the testimony, and made him king. And Jē-hoi'-ā-dā and his sons anointed him and said, Let the king live!

¹²Now when Āth-ā-lī'-āh heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the LORD. ¹³And she looked, and behold, the king stood at his pillar at the entering in, and the princes and the trumpets by the king. And all the people of the land were rejoicing and sounding with trumpets, also the singers with instruments of music, and such as taught to sing praise. Then Āth-ā-lī'-āh tore her clothes and cried, Treason! Treason! ¹⁴Then Jē-hoi'- ă-dă the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, Take her out of the ranks. And whoever follows her, let him be killed with the sword. For the priest said, Do not kill her in the house of the LORD. ¹⁵So they laid hands on her. And when she had come to the entering in of the horse gate by the king's house, they killed her there.

¹⁶And Jē-hoi'-ă-dă made a covenant between him, and between all the people, and between the king, that they should be the LORD's people. ¹⁷Then all the people went to the house of Bă'-ăl and broke it down, and broke his altars and his images in pieces. And they killed Măt'-tăn the priest of Bă'-ăl before the altars. ¹⁸Also Jē-hoi'-ă-dă chose the officers of the house of the LORD by the hand of the priests the Levites, whom David had distributed in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing as it was ordained by David. ¹⁹And he set the porters at the gates of the house of the LORD, so that none who was unclean in anything should enter in. ²⁰And he took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought the king down from the house of the LORD. And they came through the high gate into the king's house, and set the king upon the throne of the kingdom. ²¹And all the people of the land rejoiced. And the city was quiet after they had killed Āth-ă-lī'-ăh with the sword.

¹Jō'-ăsh was seven years old when he began to reign. And he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Zi'-bī-ăh of Bēer-shē'-bă. ²And Joash did that which was right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jē-hoi'-ă-dă the priest. ³And Jē-hoi'-ă-dă got for him two wives. And they had sons and daughters.

⁴And after this Joash was of a mind to repair the house of the LORD. ⁵And he gathered together the priests and the Levites and said to them, Go out to the cities of Judah, and gather money from all Israel to repair the house of your God from year to year. And see that you hasten the matter. However, the Levites did not hasten it. ⁶And the king called for Jē-hoi'-ă-dă and said to him, Why have you not made the Levites bring in the collection out of Judah and out of Jerusalem, according to Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Israel, for the tabernacle of witness? ⁷For the sons of Āth-ă-lī'-ăh, that wicked woman, have broken up the house of God. And also all the dedicated things of the house of the LORD they have given to Bă'-ă-lim.

tion that Moses the servant of God laid upon Israel in the wilderness. ¹⁰And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and threw into the chests until they had made an end. ¹¹Now at the time the chest was brought into the king's office by the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it and carried it to its place again. So they did day by day, and gathered a great amount of money. ¹²And the king and Jē-hoi'-ā-dā gave it to those who did the work of the service of the house of the LORD. And they hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also such as worked iron and brass, to mend the house of the LORD. ¹³So the workmen worked, and the work was completed by them, and they set the house of God in its proper state and made it strong. ¹⁴And when they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jē-hoi'-ā-dā. Of this money were made vessels for the house of the LORD, vessels to minister and to offer, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they always offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD all the days of Jē-hoi'-ā-dā. ¹⁵But Jē-hoi'-ā-dā became old, and was full of days when he died. He was a hundred and thirty years old when he died. ¹⁶And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward God and toward His house.

¹⁷Now after the death of Jē-hoi'-ā-dā the princes of Judah came and bowed down to the king. Then the king listened to them. ¹⁸And they left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served groves and idols. And wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their guilt. ¹⁹Yet He sent prophets to them to bring them again unto the LORD. And they testified against them. But they would not listen. ²⁰And the Spirit of God came upon Zēch-ā-rī'-āh the son of Jē-hoi'-ā-dā the priest, who stood above the people and said unto them, Thus says God, Why do you pass over the commandments of the LORD so that you cannot be blessed? Beause you have forsaken the LORD, He has also forsaken you. ²¹And they plotted against him and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of the LORD. ²²So Joash the king did not remember the kindness which Jē-hoi'-ā-dā his father had done to him, but killed his son. And when he died, he said, May the LORD look upon it, and require it.

²³And at the end of the year the army of Syria came up against him. And they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them to the king of Damascus. ²⁴For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men, and the LORD delivered a very great army into their hand, because they had forsaken the God of the fathers. So they executed judgment against Joash. ²⁵And when they had departed from him (for they left him in great diseases), his own servants plotted against him for the blood of the sons of Jē-hoi'-ā-dā the priest, and killed him on his bed, and he died. And they buried him in the city of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings. ²⁶And these are the ones who plotted against him — Zā'-bād the son of Shīm'-ē-āth of Ammon, and Jē-hō'-zā-bād the son of Shīm'-rīth of Moab. ²⁷Now as to his sons, and the greatness of the burdens laid upon him, and the repairing of the house of God, behold, they are written in the story of the book of the kings. And Ām-ā-zī'-āh his son reigned in his stead.

¹Ām-ā-zī'-āh was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jē-hō-ād'-dān of Jerusalem. ²And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, but not with a perfect heart. ³Now when the kingdom was made sure unto him, he killed his servants who had killed the king his father. ⁴But he did not kill their children, but did as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, The father shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.

⁵Moreover Ām-ā-zī'-āh gathered Judah together and made them captains over thousands and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin. And he numbered them from twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand choice men able to go forth to war, that could handle spear and shield. ⁶He also hired a hundred thousand mighty men of war out of Israel for a hundred talents of silver. ⁷But there came a man of God to him saying, O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you, for the LORD is not with Israel, with all the children of Ephraim. ⁸But if you will go, do it! Be strong for the battle, for God shall make you fall before the enemy, for God has power to help and to throw down. ⁹And Ām-ā-zī'-āh said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Israel? And the man of God answered, The LORD is able to give you much more than this. ¹⁰Then Ām-ā-zī'-āh separated them, the army that had come to him out of Ephraim, to go home again. Therefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in great anger.

¹¹And Ām-ā-zī'-āh made himself strong, and led forth his people, and went to the valley of salt, and struck ten thousand of the children of Sē'-ir. ¹²And the children of Judah carried away captive ten thousand alive, and brought them to the top of the rock, and threw them down from the top of the rock so they were all broken in pieces. ¹³But the soldiers of the army which Ām-ā-zī'-āh sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah from Samaria even to Bēth-hōr'-ōn, and struck three thousand of them and took much spoil.

¹⁴Now after Ām-ā-zī'-āh had come from the slaughter of the Ē'-dom-ites, he brought the gods of the children of Sē-ir and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them and burned incense unto them. ¹⁵Therefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Ām-ā-zī'-āh, and He sent to him a prophet who said to him, Why have you sought after the gods of the people, which could not deliver their own people out of your hand? ¹⁶And as he talked with him, the king said to him, Have we made you of the king's counsel? Stop! Why should you be stricken? Then the prophet stopped. And he said, I know that God has determined to destroy you because you have done this and have not listened to my counsel.

¹⁷Then Ām-ā-zī'-āh king of Judah took advice, and sent to Jē-hō'-āsh the son of Jē-hō'-ā-hāz the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come let us look one another in the face. ¹⁸And Jē-hō'-āsh king of Israel sent to Ām-ā-zī'-āh king of Judah saying, The thistle that was in Lēb'-ā-non sent to the cedar that was in Lēb'-ā-non, saying, Give your daughter to my son for a wife. And there passed by a wild beast that was in Lēb'-ā-non and trampled the thistle down. ¹⁹You say, Lo, you have stricken the Ē'-dom-ites, and your heart lifts you up to boast. Now stay at home -- why should you meddle to your hurt, so that you should fall, you and Judah with you?

²⁰But Ām-ā-zī'-āh would not hear, for it was from God so that He might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought after the gods of Edom. ²¹So Jē-hō'-āsh the king of Israel went up. And they saw one another in the face, he and Ām-ā-zī'-āh king of Judah, at Bēth-shē'-mēsh which belongs to Judah. ²²And Judah was put to the worse before Israel, and each man fled to his tent. ²³And Jē-hō'-āsh the king of Israel took Ām-ā-zī'-āh king of Judah, the son of Jō'-āsh the son of Ā-hā-zī'-āh, at Bēth-shē'-mēsh, and brought him to Jerusalem and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits. ²⁴And he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels which were found in the house of God with Ō'-bēd-ē'-dom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

²⁷Now after the time that Ām-ā-zī'-āh turned away from following the LORD, they made a plot against him in Jerusalem. And he fled to Lā'-chīsh. But they sent to Lā'-chīsh after him and killed him there. ²⁸And they brought him upon horses and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah.

¹Then all the people of Judah took Ūz-zī'-āh, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the place of his father Ām-ā-zī'-āh. ²He built Ē'-lōth, and restored it to Judah, after the king slept with his fathers. ³Ūz-zī'-āh was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jēc-ō-lī'-āh of Jerusalem. ⁴And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Ām-ā-zī'-āh did. ⁵And he sought God in the days of Zēch-ā-rī'-āh, who had understanding in the visions of God. As long as he sought the LORD, God made blessed him. ⁶And he went forth and warred against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jāb'-nēh, and the wall of Āsh'-dōd, and built cities around Āsh'-dōd and among the Philistines. ⁷And God helped him against the Philistines and against the Ā-rā'-bī-āns who lived in Gūr-bā'-āl, and the Mē-hū'-nīms. ⁸And the Ammonites gave gifts to Ūz-zī'-āh. And his name spread abroad even to the entering in of Egypt, for he was made very strong.

⁹Moreover, Ūz-zī'-āh built towers in Jerusalem at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them. ¹⁰Also he built towers in the desert, and dug many wells. For he had many cattle, both in the low country and in the plains. He also had husbandmen and vinedressers in the mountains, and in Cār'-mēl. For he loved the earth. ¹¹Moreover, Ūz-zī'-āh had an army of fighting men who went out to war by bands, according to the number of their oversight by the hand of Jē'-ī-ēl the scribe and Mā-ā-seī'-āh the ruler, under the hand of Hān-ā-nī'-āh, one of the king's captains. ¹²The whole number of the chief of the fathers of the mighty men of power were two thousand and six hundred. ¹³And under their hand was an army of three hundred and seven thousand, five hundred, that made war with mighty power to help the king against the enemy. ¹⁴And Ūz-zī'-āh prepared for them, throughout all the army, shields and spears and helmets and coats of armor and bows and slings to throw stones. ¹⁵And he made engines in Jerusalem, invented by skillful men, to be on the towers and on the corners, to shoot arrows and great stones with. And his name spread far abroad. For he was wonderfully helped until he was strong.

¹⁶But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up to his ruin. For he sinned against the LORD his God, and went into the temple of the LORD to burn incense upon the altar of incense. ¹⁷And Āz-ă-rī'-ăh the priest went in after him, and with him eighty priests of the LORD, mighty men. ¹⁸And they withstood Ūz-zī'-ăh the king and said to him, It does not belong to you, Ūz-zī'-ăh, to burn incense unto the Lord, but to the priests, the sons of Aaron who are consecrated to burn incense. Go out of the temple, for you have sinned. Neither shall it be for your honor from the LORD God. ¹⁹Then Ūz-zī'-ăh was angry. And he had a censer in his hand to burn incense. And while he was angry with the priests, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the incense altar. ²⁰And Āz-ă-rī'-ăh the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him. And, behold, he was leprous in his forehead! And they thrust him out from there. Yes, he himself hurried to go out also, because the LORD had stricken him. ²¹And Ūz-zī'-ăh the king was a leper until the day of his death, and lived in a separate house, being a leper. For he was cut off from the house of the LORD. And Jō'-thām his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

²²Now the rest of the acts of Ūz-zī'-ăh, first and last, I-sā'-iāh the prophet, the son of Amoz, wrote. So Ūz-zī'-ăh slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the burial which belonged to the kings. For they said, He is a leper. And his son Jō'-thām reigned in his stead.

¹Jō'-thām was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jē-rū'-shāh, the daughter of Zā'-dōk. ²And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Ūz-zī'-ăh did. However, he did not enter into the temple of the LORD. And the people still did evilly. ³He built the high gate of the house of the LORD, and on the wall of Ō'-phēl he built much. ⁴Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built palaces and towers. ⁵He also fought with the king of the Ammonites and won against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year a hundred talents of silver and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. This the children of Ammon paid to him, both the second year and the third. ⁶So Jō'-thām became mighty because he prepared his ways before the LORD his God.

⁷Now the rest of the acts of Jō'-thām, and all his wars, and his ways, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. ⁸He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. ⁹And Jō'-thām slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David. And his son Ahaz reigned in his stead.

¹Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. But he did not do that which was right in the sight of the LORD, like David his father. ²For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and also made molded images for Bā'-ā-līm. ³Moreover he burned incense in the valley of the son of Hīn'-nōm, and burned his children in the fire, according to the hateful gods of the nations whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel. ⁴He also sacrificed and burned incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree. ⁵Therefore the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria. And they struck him and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who struck him with a great slaughter.

⁶For Pē'-käh the son of Rēm-ā-lī'-äh killed a hundred and twenty thousand in Judah in one day, all mighty men, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. ⁷And Zīch'-rī, a mighty man of Ephraim, killed Mā-ā-seī'-äh the king's son, and Āz-rī'-kām the governor of the house, and Ēl-kā'-nāh who was next to the king. ⁸And the children of Israel carried away captive two hundred thousand of their brothers, women, sons, and daughters, and also took away much spoil from them and brought the spoil to Samaria. ⁹But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Ō'-dēd. And he went out before the army that came to Samaria and said to them. Behold, because the Lord God of your fathers was angry with Judah, He has delivered them into your hands, and you have killed them in a rage which reaches up to Heaven. ¹⁰And now you intend to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem, for bondmen and bondwomen: to you. Are there not with you, even with you, sins against the LORD your God? ¹¹Now therefore hear me, and deliver again the captives which you have taken captive of your brothers. For the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you.

¹²Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Āz-ā-rī'-äh the son of Jō-hā'-nān, Bēr-ē-chī'-äh the son of Mē-shīl'-lē-mōth, and Jē-hiz-kī'-äh the son of Shāl'-lūm, and Ām-ā'-sā the son of Hād-lā'-ī, stood up against them who came from the war. ¹³And they said to them, You shall not bring the captives here. For we have offended the LORD, and you intend to add to our sins and to our trespass. For our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel. ¹⁴So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation. ¹⁵And the men who were called by name rose up and took the captives and clothed all that were naked among them with the spoil, and dressed them, and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble ones upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, to their brothers. Then they returned to Samaria.

¹⁶At that time king Ahaz sent to the kings of Assyria to help him. ¹⁷For again the E'-dom-ites had come and had beaten Judah and had carried away captives. ¹⁸The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the low country and of the south of Judah, and had taken Bēth-shē'-mēsh and Aī'-jā-lon, and Gē-dē'-rōth, and Shō'-chō with the villages of it, and Tīm'-nāh with the villages of it, Gīm'-zō also and the villages of it. And they lived there. ¹⁹For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel. For he made Judah naked, and sinned grievously against the LORD. ²⁰And Tīl-gāth-pīl-nē'-šēr king of Assyria came to him and troubled him, but did not strengthen him. ²¹For Ahaz took away a portion of the house of the LORD, and of the house of the king, and of the princes, and gave it to the king of Assyria. But he did not help him.

²²And in the time of his distress he trespassed even more against the LORD, this king Ahaz. ²³For he sacrificed unto the gods of Damascus who struck him. And he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria helped them, I will sacrifice to them so that they may help me. But they were the ruin of him and of all Israel. ²⁴And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and shut up the doors of the house of the LORD. And he made himself altars in every corner of Jerusalem. ²⁵And in each separate city of Judah he made high places to burn incense unto other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers.

²⁶Now the rest of his acts and of all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. ²⁷And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem. But they did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel. And his son Hēz-ē-kī'-āh reigned in his stead.

¹Hēz-ē-kī'-āh began to reign when he was twenty-five years old, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Ā-bī'-jāh the daughter of Zēch-ā-rī'-āh. ²And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.

³In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the house of the LORD and repaired them. ⁴And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the east street. ⁵And he said to them, Hear me, Levites, now sanctify yourselves and sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place. ⁶For our fathers have sinned and done that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the house of the LORD, and have turned their backs. ⁷Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place unto the God of Israel. ⁸Therefore the wrath of the LORD was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and He has delivered them to trouble, to ruin, and to hissing — as you see with your eyes. ⁹For lo, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this. ¹⁰Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that His fierce wrath may turn away from us. ¹¹My sons, do not be negligent now. For the LORD has chosen you to stand before Him, to serve Him, and that you should minister unto Him and burn incense.

¹²Then the Levites arose — Mā'-hāth the son of Ā-mā'-saī, and Jō'-ēl the son of Āz-ā-rī'-āh, of the sons of the Kō'-hāth-ītes. And of the sons of Mē-rār'-ī, arose Kish the son of Āb'-dī, and Āz-ā-rī'-āh the son of Jē-hāl'-ē-lēl. And of the Gēr'-shōn-ītes were Jō'-āh the son of Zīm'-māh, and Eden the son of Jō'-āh. ¹³And of the sons of Ē-lī-zā'-phān were Shīm'-rī and Jē-ī'-ēl. And of the sons of Ā'-sāph were Zēch-ā-rī'-āh and Māt-tā-nī'-āh. ¹⁴And of the sons of Hē'-mān were Jē-hī'-ēl and Shīm'-ē-ī. And of the sons of Jē-dū'-thūn were Shēm-aī'-āh and Ūz'-zī'-ēl. ¹⁵And they gathered their brothers and sanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, by the words of the LORD, to clean the house of the LORD. ¹⁶And the priests went in to the inner part of the house of the LORD to clean it. And they brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it to carry it outside into the brook Kī'-drōn.

¹⁷And they began to make it pure on the first day of the first month. And on the eighth day of the month they came to the porch of the LORD. So they made the house of the LORD pure in eight days, and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end. ¹⁸Then they went in to Hēz-ē-kī'-āh the king and said, We have cleaned all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the vessels of it, and the showbread table, with all the vessels of it. ¹⁹Besides, we have made ready and pure all the vessels which king Ahaz in his reign cast away in his sin. And behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.

²⁰Then Hēz-ē-kī'-āh the king rose early and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD. ²¹And they brought seven bulls and seven rams and seven lambs and seven he-goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom, and for the holy place, and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the LORD. ²²So they killed the bulls, and the priests received the blood and sprinkled it on the altar. Likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar. They also killed the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar. ²³And they brought forth the he-goats for the sin offering before the king and the congregation. And they laid their hands upon them. ²⁴And the priest killed them, and they made atonement with their blood upon the altar, to make atonement for all Israel. For the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel.

²⁵And he set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king's seer and Nathan the prophet. For so was the commandment of the LORD by His prophets. ²⁶And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets. ²⁷And Hēz-ē-kī'āh commanded to offer the burnt offering upon the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the song of the LORD also began with the trumpets and with the instruments ordained by David king of Israel. ²⁸And all the congregation worshipped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded. All this went on until the burnt offering was finished. ²⁹And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all who were present with him bowed themselves and worshipped. ³⁰Moreover Hēz-ē-kī'āh the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the LORD with the words of David and of Ā'sāph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped. ³¹Then Hēz-ē-kī'āh answered and said, Now you have consecrated yourselves unto the LORD. Come near and bring sacrifices and thank-offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank-offerings. And as many as were of a free heart brought burnt offerings. ³²And the number of the burnt offerings which the congregation brought was seventy bulls, a hundred rams, two hundred lambs. All these were for a burnt offering to the LORD. ³³And the things set apart unto God were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep. ³⁴But the priests were too few, so that they could not skin all the burnt offerings. Therefore their brothers the Levites helped them until the work was ended, and until the priests had made themselves pure. For the Levites were more upright in heart to make themselves pure than the priests. ³⁵And also the burnt offerings were very many, with the fat of the peace offerings and the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order. ³⁶And Hēz-ē-kī'āh rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people. For the thing was done suddenly.

¹And Hēz-ē-kī'āh sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Mā-nās'-sēh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover unto the LORD God of Israel.

²For the king had taken advice, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the Passover in the second month. ³For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not made themselves pure enough, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem. ⁴And the thing pleased the king and all the congregation. ⁵So they established a decree to send a notice throughout all Israel, from Bēer-shē'-bā even to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passover unto the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem. For they had not done it for a long time as it was written. ⁶So the runners went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, You children of Israel, turn again to the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and He will return to the remnant of you who have escaped out of the hands of the king of Assyria. ⁷And do not be like your fathers and like your brothers who sinned against the LORD God of their fathers, who therefore gave them up to ruin, as you see. ⁸Now do not be stiffnecked, as your fathers were, but yield yourselves unto the LORD and enter into His temple which He has set apart forever. And serve the LORD your God, so that the fierceness of His wrath may turn away from you. ⁹For if you turn again to the LORD, your brothers and your children shall find pity before those who lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land. For the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn His face away from you if you return unto Him. ¹⁰So the runners passed from city to city, through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh even to Zē-bū'-lūn. But they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them. ¹¹Nevertheless many from Asher and Manasseh and Zē-bū'-lūn humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem. ¹²Also in Judah the hand of God was to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, by the word of the LORD.

¹³And many people gathered at Jerusalem to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation. ¹⁴And they arose and took away the altars which were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense they took away, and threw them into the brook Kī'-drōn. ¹⁵Then they killed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the second month. And the priests and the Levites were ashamed and made themselves pure, and brought in the burnt offerings into the house of the LORD. ¹⁶And they stood in their place in their manner, according to the law of Moses the man of God. The priests sprinkled the blood which they received from the hand of the Levites. ¹⁷For there were many in the congregation who were not made pure. Therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passovers for everyone who was not clean, to sanctify them unto the LORD. ¹⁸For a multitude of the people, many from Ephraim and Manasseh, Is'-sā-chār and Zē-bū'-lūn, had not cleaned themselves — yet they ate the Passover otherwise than it was written. But Hēz-ē-kī'-āh prayed for them, saying, May the good LORD pardon everyone ¹⁹*who* prepares his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he is not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary. ²⁰And the LORD listened to Hēz-ē-kī'-āh and healed the people. ²¹And the children of Israel who were present at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness. And the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with loud instruments unto the LORD. ²²And Hēz-ē-kī'-āh spoke comfortably to all the Levites who taught the good knowledge of the LORD. And they ate throughout the feast seven days, offering peace offerings and making confessions to the LORD God of their fathers. ²³And the whole gathering agreed to keep another seven days. And they kept another seven days with gladness. ²⁴For Hēz-ē-kī'-āh king of Judah gave to the congregation a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep. And the princes gave to the congregation a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep. And a great number of priests sanctified themselves. ²⁵And all the congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and who lived in Judah, rejoiced. ²⁶So there was great joy in Jerusalem. For since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem. ²⁷Then the priests the Levites arose and blessed the people. And their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to His holy dwelling-place, unto Heaven.

¹Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah and broke the images in pieces, and cut down the groves, and threw down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, also in Ephraim and Manasseh, until they had completely destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned, each man to his possession, into their own cities.

²And Hēz-ē-kī'-āh set the courses of the priests and the Levites according to their courses, each man according to his service, the priests and Levites for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the tents of the LORD. ³*He* also set forth the king's portion of his goods for the burnt offerings for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the law of the LORD. ⁴Moreover he commanded the people who lived in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites so that they might be strong in the law of the LORD.

⁵And as soon as the commandment came out, the children of Israel brought plentifully of the first-fruits of corn, wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field. And the tithe of all things they brought in plentifully. ⁶And as to the children of Israel and Judah who lived in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of holy things which were set apart unto the LORD their God, and laid them by heaps. ⁷In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished in the seventh month. ⁸And when Hēz-ē-kī'-āh and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD and His people Israel. ⁹Then Hēz-ē-kī'-āh asked the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps. ¹⁰And Āz-ā-rī'-āh the chief priest of the house of Zā'-dōk answered him and said, Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat and have plenty left. For the LORD has blessed His people, and that which is left is this great store.

¹¹Then Hēz-ē-kī'-āh commanded storehouses to be prepared in the house of the LORD. And they prepared them, ¹²and brought in the offerings and the tithes and the things set apart unto God faithfully. And over them was Cō-nō-nī'-āh the Levite ruler, and Shīm'-ē-ī his brother was the next. ¹³And Jē-hī'-ēl, and Āz-ā-zī'-āh, and Nahath, and Ās'-ā-hēl, and Jēr'-ī-mōth, and Jō'-zā-bād, and Ē-lī'-ēl, and Īs-mā-chī'-āh, and Mā'-hāth, and Bē-naī'-āh, were overseers under the hand of Cō-nō-nī'-āh and Shīm'-ē-ī his brother, at the commandment of Hēz-ē-kī'-āh the king, and Āz-ā-rī'-āh the ruler of the house of God. ¹⁴And Kōr'-ē the son of Īm'-nāh the Levite, the gatekeeper toward the east, was over the free-will offerings of God, to share out the sacrifices of the LORD and the most holy things. ¹⁵And next to him were Eden, and Mīn-ī'-ā-mīn, and Jēsh'-ū-ā, and Shēm-aī'-āh, Ām-ā-rī'-āh, and Shēc-ā-nī'-āh, in the cities of the priests, in their set office, to give to their brothers by courses, to the great as well as to the small — ¹⁶besides registering the males from three years and upward, unto everyone who enters into the house of the LORD, giving his daily portion for their service in their charges according to their courses — ¹⁷both to the genealogy of the priests by the house of their fathers, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, and their charges by their courses — ¹⁸and to the genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation. For in their set office they set themselves apart in holiness. ¹⁹Also of the sons of Aaron the priest who were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in each separate city were the men who were expressed by name, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all who were reckoned by genealogies among the Levites.

²⁰And so Hēz-ē-kī'-āh did throughout all Judah, and worked that which was good and right and true before the LORD his God. ²¹And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and was blessed.

¹After these things done in faithfulness, Sēn-nāch'-ēr-īb king of Assyria came and entered into Judah, and camped against the fenced cities, and thought to win them for himself. ²And when Hēz-ē-kī'-āh saw that Sēn-nāch'-ēr-īb had come, and that he had set his face to fight against Jerusalem, ³he took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the fountains which were outside the city. And they helped him. ⁴So there were gathered many people together, who stopped all the fountains and the brook which ran through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the king of Assyria come and find much water? ⁵Also he made himself strong and built up all the wall that was broken, and raised it up to the towers, and another wall outside, and repaired Mil'-lō in the city of David, and made darts and shields in abundance. ⁶And he set captains of war over the people and gathered them together unto himself in the street of the gate of the city. And he spoke to them comfortably, saying, ⁷Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid nor dismayed because of the king of Assyria, or for all the multitude that is with him. For there are more with us than with him. ⁸With him is an arm of flesh, but with us is the LORD our God to help us and to fight our battles. And the people rested themselves upon the words of Hēz-ē-kī'-āh king of Judah.

⁹After this Sēn-nāch'-ēr-īb king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem. But he went up against Lā'-chīsh, and all his power with him. The servants came to Hēz-ē-kī'-āh king of Judah, and to all Judah that was at Jerusalem, saying, ¹⁰Sēn-nāch'-ēr-īb king of Assyria says this — On what do you trust that you abide in the stronghold of Jerusalem? ¹¹Does not Hēz-ē-kī'-āh move you to give yourselves over to die by famine and by thirst, saying, Jehovah our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria? ¹²Has not the same Hēz-ē-kī'-āh taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, You shall worship before one altar and burn incense upon it? ¹³Do you not know what I and my fathers have done unto all the people of other lands? Were the gods of the nations of those lands in any way able to deliver their lands out of my hands? ¹⁴Who was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers completely destroyed who could deliver his people out of my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of my hand? ¹⁵Now therefore, do not let Hēz-ē-kī'-āh deceive you, nor move you in this way, neither yet believe him. For no god of any nation was able to deliver his people out of my hand, and out of the hand of my fathers. How much less shall your god deliver you out of my hand? ¹⁶And his servants spoke still more against the LORD God, and against His servant Hēz-ē-kī'-āh.

¹⁷He also wrote letters to revile the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against Him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of my hand, so shall not the God of Hēz-ē-kī'-āh deliver his people out of my hand. ¹⁸Then they cried out with a loud voice in the Jews' speech unto the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, in order to frighten them and to trouble them, so that they might take the city. ¹⁹And they spoke against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the peoples of the earth, which were the work of the hands of man. ²⁰And for this reason Hēz-ē-kī'-āh the king and the prophet Ī-sā'-iāh the son of Amoz prayed and cried to Heaven.

²¹And the LORD sent an angel to cut off all the mighty men of power, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he had come into the house of his god, they who came forth from his own bowels killed him there with the sword. ²²So the LORD saved Hēz-ē-kī'-āh and the people of Jerusalem from the hand of Sēn-nāch'-ēr-īb the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all others, and guided them on every side. ²³And many brought gifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and presents to Hēz-ē-kī'-āh king of Judah, so that he was magnified in the sight of all nations from that time on.

²⁴In those days Hēz-ē-kī'-āh was sick unto death, and prayed unto the LORD. And He spoke unto him, and He gave him a sign. ²⁵But Hēz-ē-kī'-āh did not give again according to the good done to him, for his heart was lifted up. Therefore there was wrath upon him and upon Judah and Jerusalem. ²⁶But Hēz-ē-kī'-āh humbled himself for the pride of his heart, he and the people of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD did not come upon them in the days of Hēz-ē-kī'-āh.

²⁷And Hēz-ē-kī'-āh had exceeding much riches and honor. And he made himself treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all kinds of pleasant jewels. ²⁸*He* also made storehouses for the increase of grain and wine and oil, and stalls for all kinds of animals, and cotes for flocks. ²⁹Moreover he provided himself cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in great plenty. For God had given him very many things. ³⁰This same Hēz-ē-kī'-āh also stopped the upper water-course of Gī'-hōn and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hēz-ē-kī'-āh was blessed in all his works. ³¹However, in regard to the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon who sent to him to ask about the wonder that was done in the land, God left him in order to try him, so that He might know all that was in his heart.

³²Now the rest of the acts of Hēz-ē-kī'-āh, and his goodness, behold, they are written in the vision of Ī-sā'-iāh the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. ³³And Hēz-ē-kī'-āh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the highest of the tombs of the sons of David. And all Judah and the people of Jerusalem honored him at his death. And his son Mā-nās'-sēh reigned in his stead.

¹Mā-nās'-sēh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. ²But he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, like the abominations of the heathen whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel. ³For he built again the high places which Hēz-ē-kī'-āh his father had broken down, and he reared up altars for Bā'-ā-līm, and made groves, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them. ⁴And he built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, In Jerusalem shall My name be forever. ⁵And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD. ⁶And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hin'-nōm. He also practiced secret arts, and used fortune-telling, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit and with wizards. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD in order to provoke Him to anger. ⁷And he set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever. ⁸Neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I have set apart for your fathers, so that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses. ⁹So Manasseh made Judah and the people of Jerusalem to err, to do worse than the nations whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel. ¹⁰And the LORD spoke to Manasseh and to His people, but they would not listen.

¹¹Therefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the army of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh among the thorns and bound him with chains and carried him to Babylon. ¹²And when he was in affliction, he sought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers. ¹³And he prayed unto Him, and He was pleased to answer him, and heard his prayer, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew the LORD was God. ¹⁴Now after this he built a wall outside the city of David, on the west side of Gī'-hōn, in the valley, even to the entering in at the Fish Gate, and went around Ō'-phēl, and raised it to a very great height. And he put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah. ¹⁵And he took away the strange gods, and the idol out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mountain of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and threw them out of the city. ¹⁶And he repaired the altar of the LORD and sacrificed on it peace offerings and thank offerings. And he commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel. ¹⁷However the people still sacrificed in the high places, but only to the LORD their God.

¹⁸Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer unto his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel. ¹⁹His prayer also, and how God was pleased to answer him, and all his sin and his trespass, and the places in which he built high places and set up groves and graven images, before he was humbled – behold, they are written among the sayings of the seers.

²⁰So Mā-nās'-sēh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house. And his son Ā'-mōn reigned in his stead.

²¹Ā'-mōn was twenty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. ²²But he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, even as Manasseh his father did. For Amon sacrificed unto all the carved images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them. ²³And he did not humble himself before the LORD, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself. But Amon trespassed more and more. ²⁴And his servants plotted against him, and killed him in his own house. ²⁵But the people of the land killed all those who had plotted against king Amon. And the people of the land made his son Jō-sī'-āh king in his stead.

¹Jō-sī'-āh was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem thirty-one years. ²And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and did not turn aside to the right hand nor to the left.

³For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young, he began to seek after the God of David his father. And in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images. ⁴And they broke down the altars of Bā'-ā-līm in his presence. And he cut down the images which were on high above them, and the groves. And the carved images and the molten images he also broke in pieces and made dust from them, and strewed it upon the graves of the ones who had sacrificed unto them. ⁵And he burned the bones of the priests upon their altars and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem. ⁶And so he did in the cities of Manasseh and Ephraim and Simeon, even unto Nāph'-tā-lī, with their tools round about. ⁷And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and had beaten the carved images into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

⁸Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the house, he sent Shā'-phān the son of Āz-ā-lī'-āh, and Mā-ā-seī'-āh the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Jō'-ā-hāz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God. ⁹And when they came to Hil-kī'-āh the high priest, they delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doors had gathered from the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and from all the remnant of Israel, and from all Judah and Benjamin, and they returned to Jerusalem. ¹⁰And they put it in the hands of the workmen who had the oversight of the house of the LORD. And they gave it to the workmen who worked in the house of the LORD, to repair and mend the house. ¹¹They gave it to the carvers and builders, to buy cut stone and timber for joints, and beams to build up the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed. ¹²And the men did the work faithfully. And the overseers of them were Jā'-hāth and O-bā-dī'-āh, the Levites, of the sons of Mě-rāḥ'-ī; and Zēch-ā-rī'-āh and Mě-shūl'-lām from the sons of the Kō'-hāth-ites, to set it forward; and the Levites, all who were skillful with instruments of music. ¹³Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and overseers of all who worked the work in any manner of service. And of the Levites there were scribes and officers and porters.

¹⁴And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hil-kī'-āh the priest found a book of the law of the LORD by Moses. ¹⁵And Hil-kī'-āh answered and said to Shā'-phān the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hil-kī'-āh delivered the book to Shā'-phān. ¹⁶And Shā'-phān carried the book to the king, and brought the king word back again, saying, All that was given your servants to do they are doing. ¹⁷And they have gathered together the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and to the hand of the workmen. ¹⁸Then Shā'-phān the scribe told the king, saying, Hil-kī'-āh the priest has given me a book. And Shā'-phān read it before the king. ¹⁹And when the king had heard the words of the law, he tore his clothes. ²⁰And the king commanded Hil-kī'-āh, and Ā-hī'-kām the son of Shā'-phān, and Āb'-dōn the son of Mī'-cāh, and Shā'-phān the scribe, and Ā-sai'-āh a servant of the king, saying, ²¹Go inquire of the LORD for me and for those who are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found. For great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out upon us because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD to do according to all that is written in this book. ²²And Hil-kī'-āh, and those whom the king had chosen, went to Hül'-dāh the prophetess, and the wife of Shāl'-lūm the son of Tik'-vāth, the son of Hās'-rāh, keeper of the wardrobe. (Now she lived in Jerusalem in the second part.) And they spoke to her as to that.

²³And she answered them, Thus says the LORD God of Israel, Tell the man who sent you to me, ²⁴Thus says the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place and upon the people of it, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah — ²⁵because they have forsaken Me, and have burned incense unto other gods, so that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands. Therefore My wrath shall be poured out upon this place and shall not be quenched. ²⁶And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, so shall you say to him — Thus says the LORD God of Israel concerning the words which you have heard, ²⁷Because your heart was tender and you humbled yourself before your God when you heard His words against this place and against its people, and humbled yourself before Me, and tore your clothes and wept before Me, I have even heard you also, says the LORD. ²⁸Behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, neither shall your eyes see all the evil which I will bring upon this place and upon its people. So they brought the king word again.

²⁹Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. ³⁰And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah, and the people of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people from the greatest to the smallest. And he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the LORD. ³¹And the king stood in his place and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD and to keep His commandments and His testimonies, and His statutes, with all his heart and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book. ³²And he caused all that were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand to it. And the people of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. ³³And Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the territories that belonged to the children of Israel. And he made all that were present in Israel to serve, to serve the LORD their God. All his days they did not depart from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

¹Moreover Josiah kept a Passover unto the LORD in Jerusalem. And they killed the passover lamb on the fourteenth of the first month. ²And he set the priests in their charges, and encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD. ³And he said to the Levites who taught all Israel, who were holy unto the LORD, Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel built. It shall not be a burden upon your shoulders. Now serve the LORD your God and His people Israel, ⁴and prepare by the houses of your fathers, according to your courses, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son. ⁵And stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the families of the fathers of your brothers the sons of the people, and the division of the families of the Levites. ⁶So kill the passover lamb, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare your brothers so that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

⁷And Jō-sī'-āh gave to the people from the flock, lambs and kids, all for the Passover offerings, for all who were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bulls. These were from what the king owned. ⁸And his princes offered to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hil-kī'-āh and Zēch-ā-rī'-āh and Jē-hī'-ēl, rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the Passover offerings two thousand six hundred bulls, and three hundred oxen. ⁹Cō-nā-nī'-āh also, and Shēm-aī'-āh and Nēth'-ā-nēel, his brothers, and Hāsh-ā-bī'-āh and Jē-ī'-ēl and Jō'-zā-bād, chief of the Levites, gave unto the Levites for Passover offerings five thousand bulls and five hundred oxen. ¹⁰So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their courses, according to the king's commandment. ¹¹And they killed the passover lamb, and the priests sprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Levites skinned them. ¹²And they removed the burnt offerings so that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the people, to offer unto the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moses. And so they did with the oxen. ¹³And they roasted the passover lamb with fire according to the law. But the holy offerings they boiled in pots and in caldrons, and in pans, and divided them quickly among all the people.

¹⁴And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests — because the priests the sons of Aaron were busy in offering of burnt offerings and the fat until night — therefore the Levites prepared for themselves and for the priests the sons of Aaron. ¹⁵And the singers, the sons of Ā'-sāph were in their place, according to the commandment of David, and Ā'-sāph, and Hē'-mān, and Jē-dū'-thūn the king's seer. And the porters waited at every gate. They might not depart from their service, for their brothers the Levites prepared for them. ¹⁶So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the Passover, and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah. ¹⁷And the children of Israel who were present kept the Passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days. ¹⁸And there was no Passover like that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet. Neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a Passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel who were present, and the people of Jerusalem. ¹⁹This Passover was kept in the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah.

²⁰After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Nē'-chō king of Egypt came up to fight against Cār-chē'-mish by Eû-phrā'-tēs. And Josiah went out against him. ²¹But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, What have I to do with you, you king of Judah? I do not come against you this day, but against the house with which I have war. For God commanded me to make haste. You must cease from meddling with God, who is with me, so that He does not destroy you. ²²But Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself so that he might fight with him. And he did not listen unto the words of Nē'-chō from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Mē-gīd'-dō. ²³And the archers shot at king Jō-sī'-āh. And the king said to his servants, Take me away, for I am sorely wounded. ²⁴His servants therefore took him out of that chariot and put him in the second chariot that he had. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried in the tombs of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

²⁵And Jeremiah mourned for Josiah. And all the singing men and the singing women have spoken of Josiah in their lamentations until this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel. And behold, they are written in the Lām-ēn-tā'-tions. ²⁶Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his goodness, according to that which was written in the law of the LORD, ²⁷and his deeds, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

¹Then the people of the land took Jē-hō'-ā-hāz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's stead in Jerusalem. ²Jē-hō'-ā-hāz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. ³And the king of Egypt put him down at Jerusalem, and laid a fine of a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold upon the land. ⁴And the king of Egypt made Ē-lī'-ā-kīm his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jē-hoi'-ā-kīm. And Nē'-chō took Jē-hō'-ā-hāz his brother and carried him to Egypt.

⁵Jē-hoi'-ā-kīm was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God. ⁶Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār king of Babylon came up against him and bound him in chains to carry him to Babylon. ⁷Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār also carried away many of the vessels of the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon. ⁸Now the rest of the acts of Jē-hoi'-ā-kīm, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. And Jē-hoi'-ā-chīn his son reigned in his stead.

⁹Jē-hoi'-ā-chīn was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. ¹⁰And when the year had ended, king Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār sent and brought him to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the house of the LORD. And he made his brother Zēd-ē-kī'-āh king over Judah and Jerusalem.

¹¹Zēd-ē-kī'-āh was twenty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. ¹²And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God, and did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet speaking from the mouth of the LORD. ¹³And he also rebelled against king Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār, who had made him swear by God. But he stiffened his neck and hardened his heart from turning unto the LORD God of Israel.

¹⁴Moreover, all the chief of the priests, and the people, sinned very much after all the hateful idols of the nations. And they polluted the house of the LORD which He had made holy in Jerusalem. ¹⁵And the LORD God of their fathers sent to them by His messengers, rising up over and over again and sending, because He had pity on His people and on His dwelling-place. ¹⁶But they mocked the messengers of God and despised His words, and ill-treated His prophets until the wrath of the LORD arose against His people, until there was no healing. ¹⁷Therefore He brought upon them the king of the Chāl'-dēes, who killed their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no pity upon young man or maiden, old man, or the one who stooped for age. He gave them all into his hand. ¹⁸And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes, he brought all these to Babylon. ¹⁹And they burned the house of God, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem, and burned all the palaces of it with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels of it. ²⁰And the ones who had escaped from the sword he carried away to Babylon, where they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia — ²¹to fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed its sabbaths. For as long as it lay waste, it kept sabbath, to fulfill seventy years.

²²Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, so that the word of the LORD spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah might be done, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he sent a notice throughout all his kingdom, and also in writing, saying, ²³Thus says Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth have been given to me by the LORD God. And He has commanded me to build Him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Who is there among you of all His people? May the LORD his God be with him, and let him go up.

The Book of EZRA

¹Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, so that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he sent a notice throughout all his kingdom, and also in writing, saying, ²Thus says Cyrus king of Persia, The LORD God of Heaven has given me all the kingdoms of the earth. And He has commanded me to build Him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah. ³Who is there among you of all His people? Let his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel (He is the God) which is in Jerusalem. ⁴And whoever remains in any place where he is staying, let the men of his place help him with silver and with gold and with goods and with animals, besides the free-will offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

⁵Then the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, and all those whose spirit God had raised, rose up to go up to build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem. ⁶And all those who were around them made their hands strong with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with animals, and with precious things, besides all that which was willingly offered.

⁷Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the LORD, which Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār had brought forth out of Jerusalem and had put them in the house of his gods. ⁸Even those Cyrus king of Persia brought forth by the hand of Mith'-rē-dāth the treasurer, and numbered them unto Shēsh-bāz'-zār, the prince of Judah. ⁹And this is the number of them: thirty platters of gold, a thousand platters of silver, twenty-nine knives, ¹⁰thirty basins of gold, four hundred and ten silver basins of a second kind, and a thousand other vessels. ¹¹All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these did Shēsh-bāz'-zār bring up, when the exiles were brought up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

¹Now these are the children of the province who went up out of the captivity, of those who had been carried away, whom Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār the king of Babylon had carried away unto Babylon. And these came again unto Jerusalem and Judah, each one to his own city. ²*These are the ones* who came with Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl: Jēsh'-ū-ā, Nē-hēm-ī'-āh, Sē-raī'-āh, Rē-ēl-aī'-āh, Mōr-dē-cā'-ī, Bīl'-shān, Mīs'-pār, Bīg-vā'-ī, Rē'-hūm, Bā'-ā-nāh. This is the number of the men of the people of the children of Israel. ³The children of Pār'-ōsh were two thousand one hundred and seventy-two. ⁴The children of Shēph-ā-tī'-āh were three hundred and seventy-two. ⁵The children of Âr'-âh were seven hundred and seventy-five. ⁶The children of Pâ'-hâth-mô'-âb, of the children of Jêsh'-û-â and Joab were two thousand eight hundred and twelve. ⁷The children of Ê'-lâm were a thousand two hundred and fifty-four. ⁸The children of Zât'-tû were nine hundred and forty-five. ⁹The children of Zâc-câ'-î were seven hundred and sixty. ¹⁰The children of Bâ'-nî were six hundred and forty-two. ¹¹The children of Bê-bâ'-î were six hundred and twenty-three. ¹²The children of Âz'-gâd were a thousand two hundred and twenty-two. ¹³The children of Âd-ô-nî'-kâm were six hundred and sixty-six. ¹⁴The children of Big-vâ'-î were two thousand and fifty-six. ¹⁵The children of Â'-din were four hundred and fifty-four. ¹⁶The children of Â'-têr of Hêz-ê-ki'-âh were ninety-eight. ¹⁷The children of Bê-zâ'-î were three hundred and twenty-three. ¹⁸The children of Jôr'-âh were a hundred and twelve. ¹⁹The children of Hâsh'-ûm were two hundred and twenty-three. ²⁰The children of Gîb'-bâr were ninety-five. ²¹The children of Bethlehem were a hundred and twenty-three. ²²The men of Nê-tô'-phâh were fifty-six. ²³The men of Ân'-â-thôth were a hundred and twenty-eight. ²⁴The children of Âz-mâ'-vêth were forty-two. ²⁵The children of Kir'-jâth-âr-îm, Chê-phî'-râh, and Bêer'-ôth, were seven hundred and forty-three. ²⁶The children of Râ'-mâh and Gê'-bâ were six hundred and twenty-one. ²⁷The men of Mich'-mäs were a hundred and twenty-two. ²⁸The men of Bethel and Ai were two hundred and twenty-three. ²⁹The men of Nebo were fifty-two. ³⁰The men of Mäg'-bish were a hundred and fifty-six. ³¹The children of the other Ê'-lâm were a thousand two hundred and fifty-four. ³²The children of Hâr'-îm were three hundred and twenty. ³³The children of Lod, Hâ'-did and Ô'-nô were seven hundred and twenty-five. ³⁴The children of Jericho were three hundred and forty-five. ³⁵The children of Sên'-â-âh were three thousand six hundred and thirty.

³⁶The priests. The children of Jê-dai'-âh, of the house of Jêsh'-û-â, were nine hundred and seventy-three. ³⁷The children of Immer were a thousand and fifty two. ³⁸The children of Pâsh'-ûr were a thousand two hundred and forty-seven. ³⁹The children of Hâr'-îm were a thousand and seventeen.

⁴⁰The Levites. The children of Jêsh'-û-â and Kâd'-mî-êl, of the children of Hô-dâ-vî'-âh, were seventy-four.

⁴¹The singers. The children of Â'-sâph were a hundred and twenty-eight.

⁶⁴The whole congregation together was forty-two thousand, three hundred and sixty, ⁶⁵besides their servants and their maids of whom there were seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven. And there were among them two hundred singing men and singing women. ⁶⁶Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules two hundred and forty-five, ⁶⁷their camels four hundred and thirty-five, their asses six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

⁶⁸And some of the chief of the fathers, when they came to the house of the LORD which is at Jerusalem, offered freely for the house of God to set it up in its place. ⁶⁹They gave according to their ability to the treasure of the work, six hundred and one thousand drams of gold, and five thousand pounds of silver, and one hundred priests' garments. ⁷⁰So the priests, and the Levites, and many of the people, and the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the Nēth'-ī-nīms, lived in their cities. And all Israel lived in their cities.

¹And when the seventh month had come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem. ²Then Jēsh'-ū-ā the son of Jō'-zā-dāk stood up, and his brothers the priests, and Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl the son of Shē-āl'-ti-ēl, and his brothers. And they built the altar of the God of Israel in order to offer burnt offerings on it, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of God. ³And they set the altar upon its bases, for fear was upon them because of the people of those countries. And they offered burnt offerings on it unto the LORD, burnt offerings both morning and evening. ⁴They also kept the feast of tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the custom, as the duty of every day required. ⁵And afterward they offered the continual burnt offering, both of the new moons and of all the set feasts of the LORD that were set apart, and of everyone who willingly offered a free-will offering unto the LORD. ⁶From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings unto the LORD. But the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not laid. ⁷They gave money also unto the masons and to the carpenters. And they gave meat and drink and oil unto the people of Sī'-dōn and to the people of Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lēb'-ā-non to the sea of Joppa, according to the grant which they had from Cyrus king of Persia.

⁸Now in the second year of their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl the son of Shē-āl'-ti-ēl, and Jēsh'-ū-ā the son of Jō'-zā-dāk, and the rest of their brothers the priests and the Levites, and all they who had come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem, began. And they chose the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the LORD. ⁹Then Jēsh'-ū-ā stood up together with his sons and his brothers, Kād'-mī-ēl and his sons, the sons of Judah, to set forward the workmen in the house of God — the sons of Hēn-ā'-dād, with their sons and their brothers the Levites. ¹⁰And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they set the priests in their robes with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Ā'-sāph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, according to the order of David king of Israel. ¹¹And they sang together by course in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD, because He is good, for His mercy endures forever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid. ¹²But many of the priests and Levites and chief of the fathers, ancient men who had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice. And many shouted aloud for joy — ¹³so that the people could not tell the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people. For the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

¹Now when the enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity built the temple unto the LORD God of Israel, ²then they came to Zē-rüb'-bā-bēl and to the chief of the fathers, and said to them, Let us build with you, for we seek your God, even as you. And we have sacrificed unto him since the days of Ē'-sār-hād'-don king of Assyria, who brought us up here. ³But Zē-rüb'-bā-bēl, and Jēsh'-ū-ā, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said to them, You have nothing to do with us to build a house unto our God. But we ourselves together will build unto the LORD God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia has commanded us. ⁴Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building. ⁵And they hired advisers against them to frustrate their purpose all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Dā-rī'-ūs king of Persia. ⁶And in the reign of Ā-hās-ū-ē'-rūs, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the people of Judah and Jerusalem.

¹¹This is the copy of the letter which they sent to him, unto Ār-tā-xēr-x'-ēs the king.

Your servants the men of the province Beyond the River, and so forth. ¹²Let it be known to the king that the Jews who came up from you to us have come to Jerusalem, and are building the rebellious and the evil city, and have set up the walls of it, and have joined the foundations. ¹³Now let it be known to the king that if this city is built and the walls set up, then they will not pay toll, taxes, or custom, and you shall endanger the strength of the kings. ¹⁴Now because we have eaten the salt of the palace, and it was not right for us to see the king's dishonor, therefore we have sent and notified the king ¹⁵so that search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers. So you shall find in the book of the records, and you shall know that this city is a rebellious city and hurtful unto kings and provinces, and that they have rebelled in it in olden times – for which cause this city was destroyed. ¹⁶We notify the king that if this city is built and the walls of it set up, by this means you shall have no portion on this side the river.

¹⁷Then the king sent an answer to Rē'-hūm the chancellor, and to Shīm'-shaī the scribe, and to the rest of their companions who dwell in Samaria, and to the rest Beyond the River, Peace, and so forth. ¹⁸The letter which you sent to us has been plainly read before me. ¹⁹And I commanded, and search has been made, and it is found that this city has lifted up itself against kings in old time, and that rebellion and revolt have been made in it. ²⁰There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, who have ruled over all beyond the river. And toll, taxes, and custom was paid to them. ²¹Now you give commandment to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not built until commandment shall be given from me. ²²Now take heed that you do not fail to do this. Why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?

²³Now when the copy of king Ār-tā-xērx'-ēs' letter was read before Rē'-hūm, and Shīm'-shaī the scribe, and their companions, they hurried to Jerusalem to the Jews, and made them stop by force and power. ²⁴Then the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem ceased. So it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Dā-rī'-ūs king of Persia.

¹Then the prophets, Hāg'-gai the prophet, and Zēch-ā-rī'-āh the son of Id'-dō, prophesied unto the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, even to them. ²Then Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl the son of Shē-āl'-tī-ēl and Jēsh'-ū-ā the son of Jō'-zā-dāk rose up and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem. And with them were the prophets of God helping them.

³At the same time Tāt'-naī, governor of the province Beyond the River, and Shē'-thār-bōz'-naī, and their companions, came to them and said this to them – Who has commanded you to build this house and to make this wall? ⁴Then they said to them in this way, What are the names of the men who are building this building? ⁵But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, so that they could not cause them to stop until the matter came to Dā-rī'-ūs, and answer by letter concerning this had been returned.

Unto Dā-rī'-ūs the king, all peace. ⁸Let it be known to the king that we went into the province of Judea, to the house of the great God, which is being built with great stones, and timber is being laid in the walls, and this work goes on fast and is blessed in their hands. ⁹Then we asked those elders and said this to them, Who commanded you to build this house and to make these walls? ¹⁰We also asked their names in order to notify you so that we might write the names of the men who are the chief of them. ¹¹And they returned this answer to us, saying, We are the servants of the God of Heaven and earth. And we build the house that was built many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and set up. ¹²But after our fathers had provoked the God of Heaven to wrath, He gave them into the hand of Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār the king of Babylon, the Chāl-dē'-ān, who destroyed this house and carried the people away to Babylon. ¹³But in the first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon, king Cyrus gave an order to build this house of God. ¹⁴And also the vessels of gold and silver from the house of God, which Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those Cyrus the king took out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one whose name was Shēsh-bāz'-zār, whom he had made governor. ¹⁵And he said to him, Take these vessels and go. Carry them into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be built in His place. ¹⁶Then the same Shēsh-bāz'-zār came and laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem. And since that time even until now it has been building, but is not finished. ¹⁷Now therefore, if it seems good to the king, let there be search made in the king's treasure-house, which is there at Babylon, whether it is so that an order was given from Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem. And let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

¹Then Dā-rī'-ūs the king gave an order, and search was made in the house of the scrolls, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon. ²And there was found at Āch-mē'-thā, in the palace that is in the province of the Medes, a scroll. And in it was a record written thus:

³In the first year of Cyrus the king, Cyrus the king gave an order concerning the house of God at Jerusalem. Let the house be built, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations of it be strongly laid. The height of it shall be sixty cubits, and the breadth of it shall be sixty cubits, ⁴*with* three rows of great stones and a row of new timber. And let the expenses be given out of the king's house. ⁵And also let the gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought to Babylon, be given back and brought again to the temple which is at Jerusalem, to their place, and place them in the house of God.

⁶Now, therefore, Tāt'-naī, governor of the province Beyond the River, Shē'-thār-bōz'-naī, and your companions the Ā-phār'-sā-chītes, who are beyond the river, keep away from there. ⁷Let the work of this house of God alone. Let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in its place. ⁸Moreover I give an order as to what you shall do to the elders of these Jews for the building of this house of God, that at once expense be given to these men from the king's goods, from the taxes beyond the river, so that they may not have to stop. ⁹And that which they have need of, both young bulls and rams and lambs, for the burnt offerings of the God of Heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the choice of the priests who are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail, ¹⁰so that they may offer sacrifices of sweet savors unto the God of Heaven, and pray for the life of the king and of his sons. ¹¹Also I have given an order that whoever shall change this word, let timber be pulled down from his house and be set up, and let him be hanged on it. And let his house be made a dunghill for this. ¹²And may the God who has caused His name to dwell there destroy all kings and people who shall put their hand to change and to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Dā-rī'-ūs have given an order. Let it be done with speed.

¹³Then Tāt'-naī, governor of the province Beyond the River, Shē'-thār-bōz'-naī, and their companions, according to that which Dā-rī'-ūs the king had sent, so they did speedily. ¹⁴And the elders of the Jews built, and they were blessed through the prophesying of Hāg'-gaī the prophet and Zēch-ā-rī'-āh the son of Id'-dō. And they built and finished it according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the commandment of Cyrus, and Dā-rī'-ūs, and Ār-tā-xērx'-ēs king of Persia. ¹⁵And this house was finished on the third day of the month Ā'-dār, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Dā-rī'-ūs the king.

¹⁶And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dēd-ī-cā'-tion of this house of God with joy. ¹⁷And they offered at the dedication of this house of God a hundred bulls, two hundred rams, and four hundred lambs. And for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve he-goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. ¹⁸And they set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God which is at Jerusalem, as it is written in the book of Moses. ¹⁹And the children of the captivity kept the Passover upon the fourteenth of the first month. ²⁰For the priests and the Levites were purified together — all of them were pure — and they killed the passover lamb for all the children of the captivity, and for their brothers the priests, and for themselves. ²¹And the children of Israel, who had come again out of captivity, and all such as had separated themselves unto them from the uncleanness of the nations of the land, in order to seek the LORD God of Israel, did eat. ²²And they kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy. For the LORD had made them joyful, and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria to them, to make their hands strong in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

¹Now after these things, in the reign of Ār-tā-xēr-x'-ēs king of Persia, Ezra the son of Sē-rai'-āh, the son of Āz-ā-rī'-āh, the son of Hil-kī'-āh, ²the son of Shāl'-lūm, the son of Zā'-dōk, the son of Ā-hī'-tūb, ³the son of Ām-ā-rī'-āh, the son of Āz-ā-rī'-āh, the son of Mē-rai'-ōth, ⁴the son of Zēr-ā-hī'-āh, the son of Ūz'-zī, the son of Būk'-kī, ⁵the son of Ā-bī'-shū-ā, the son of Phīn'-ē-hās, the son of Ēl-ē-ā'-zār, the son of Aaron the chief priest, ⁶this Ezra went up from Babylon. And he was a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given. And the king granted him all he asked, according to the hand of the LORD his God upon him. ⁷And there went up some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the Nēth'-ī-nīms, unto Jerusalem in the seventh year of Ār-tā-xēr-x'-ēs the king. ⁸And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king. ⁹For upon the first of the first month he began to go up from Babylon, and on the first of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him. ¹⁰For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach statutes and judgments in Israel.

¹²Ār-tā-xēr-x'-ēs, king of kings, unto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of Heaven, perfect peace, and so forth. ¹³I gave an order that everyone of the people of Israel, and their priests and Levites in my kingdom, who desire of their own free will to go up to Jerusalem, go with you. ¹⁴*This is* because you have sent by the king, and by his seven advisors to ask about Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of your God which is in your hand. ¹⁵And they are also to carry the silver and gold which the king and his advisors have freely offered unto the God of Israel, whose house is in Jerusalem, ¹⁶and all the silver and gold which you can find in all the province of Babylon, with the free-will offering of the people and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem. ¹⁷*This is so* that you may buy speedily with this money bulls, rams, lambs, with their meal offerings and their drink offerings, and offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem. ¹⁸And whatever shall seem good to you and to your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, do that after the will of your God. ¹⁹Also the vessels which are given you for the service of the house of your God, deliver them before the God of Jerusalem. ²⁰And whatever more shall be needful for the house of your God, which you shall have need to give, give it out of the king's treasure-house. ²¹And I, I Ār-tā-xērx'-ēs the king, give an order to all the treasurers who are beyond the river, that whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of Heaven, shall ask of you, it shall be done speedily — ²²unto a hundred talents of silver, and to a hundred measures of wheat, and to a hundred baths of wine, and to a hundred baths of oil, and salt without saying how much. ²³Whatever is commanded by the God of Heaven, let it be carefully done for the house of the God of Heaven — for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons? ²⁴Also we notify you, that in regard to any of the priests and the Levites, singers, gatekeepers, Nēth'-ī-nīms, or ministers of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose toll, taxes, or custom upon them. ²⁵And you, Ezra, after the wisdom of your God that is in your hand, set officers and judges who may judge all the people who are beyond the river, all who know the laws of your God, and teach them who do not know. ²⁶And whoever will not do the law of your God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily upon him, whether it is unto death, or to exile, or to taking of goods, or putting him in prison.

²⁷Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, who has put this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem, ²⁸and has given me favor before the king and his advisors and before all the king's mighty princes. And I was made strong as the hand of the LORD my God was upon me, and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

¹These are now the chief of their fathers, and this is the genealogy of those who went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Ār-tā-xērx'-ēs the king. ²From the sons of Phīn'-ē-hās; Gēr'-shōm. From the sons of Īth'-ā-mār; Daniel. From the sons of David; Hāt'-tūsh. ³From the sons of Shēch-ā-nī'-āh, from the sons of Phār'-ōsh; Zēch-ā-rī'-āh. And with him were counted by genealogy of the males a hundred and fifty. ⁴From the sons of Pā'-hāth-mō'-āb; Ēl-ī-hō-ē'-naī the son of Zēr-ā-hī'-āh, and with him two hundred males. ⁵From the sons of Shēch-ā-nī'-āh; the son of Jā-hā'-zī-ēl, and with him three hundred males. ⁶From the sons also of Ā'-dīn, Ē'-bēd the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males. ⁷And from the sons of Ē'-lām, Jē-shai'-āh the son of Āth-ā-lī'-āh, and with him seventy males. ⁸And from the sons of Shēph-ā-tī'-āh; Zēb-ā-dī'-āh the son of Michael, and with him eighty males. ⁹From the sons of Joab; Ō-bā-dī'-āh the son of Jē-hī'-ēl, and with him two hundred and eighteen males. ¹⁰And from the sons of Shē-lō'-mīth; the son of Jōs-ī-phī'-āh, and with him a hundred and sixty males. ¹¹And from the sons of Bē-bā'-ī; Zēch-ā-rī'-āh the son of Bē-bā'-ī, and with him twenty-eight males. ¹²And from the sons of Āz'-gād; Jō-hā'-nān the son of Hāk'-kā-tān, and with him a hundred and ten males. ¹³And from the last sons of Ād-ō-nī'-kām; their names were these, Ē-liph'-ē-lēt, Jē-ī'-ēl, and Shēm-aī'-āh, and with them sixty males. ¹⁴From the sons also of Bīg-vā'-ī; Ū'-thaī, and Zāb'-būd, and with them seventy males.

¹⁵And I gathered them together to the river which runs to Ā-hā'-vā. And we stayed there in tents three days. And I looked over the people and the priests, and did not find there any of the sons of Levi. ¹⁶Then I sent for Ēl-ī-ē'-zēr, for Ar'-ī-ēl, for Shēm-aī'-āh, and for Ēl-nā'-thān, and for Jār'-īb, and for Ēl-nā'-thān, and for Nathan, and for Zēch-ā-rī'-āh, and for Mē-shūl'-lām, chief men — also for Joi'-ā-rīb, and for Ēl-nā'-thān, men of understanding. ¹⁷And I sent them with commandment unto Id'-dō the chief of the place Cās-ī-phī'-ā, and I told them what they should say to Id'-dō, to his brothers the Nēth'-ī-nīms, at the place Cās-ī-phī'-ā — that they should bring to us ministers for the house of our God. ¹⁸And by the good hand of our God upon us they brought us a man of understanding, from the sons of Māh'-lī, the son of Levi, the son of Israel, and Shēr-ē-bī'-āh, with his sons and his brothers, eighteen — ¹⁹and Hāsh-ā-bī'-āh, and with him Jē-shaī'-āh from the sons of Mē-rār'-ī, his brothers and their sons, twenty — ²⁰also of the Nēth'-ī-nīms whom David and the princes had chosen for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nēth'-ī-nīms. All of them were called by name.

²¹Then I called a fast there at the river Ā-hā'-vā, so that we might humble ourselves before our God, in order to seek from Him a right way for us and for our little ones, and for all our goods. ²²For I was ashamed to ask of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way, because we had spoken to the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all those who seek Him for good, but His power and His wrath are against all those who forsake Him. ²³So we fasted and prayed to our God for good. And he was pleased to hear us.

²⁴Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Shēr-ē-bī'-āh, Hāsh-ā-bī'-āh, and ten of their brothers with them. ²⁵And I weighed to them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, the offering of the house of our God, which the king and his advisors and his lords, and all Israel who were there, had offered. ²⁶I even weighed into their hands six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels of a hundred talents, and of gold a hundred talents — ²⁷also twenty basins of gold of a thousand drams, and two vessels of fine copper as desirable as gold. ²⁸And I said to them, You are holy unto the LORD. The vessels also are holy. And the silver and the gold are a free-will offering unto the LORD God of your fathers. ²⁹Watch and keep them until you weigh them before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and the chief of the fathers of Israel at Jerusalem in the rooms of the house of the LORD. ³⁰So the priests and the Levites took the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem unto the house of our God.

³¹Then we departed from the river of Ā-hā'-vā on the twelfth of the first month, to go unto Jerusalem. And the hand of our God was upon us, and He delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and from such as lay in wait by the way. ³²And we came to Jerusalem and stayed there three days.

³³Now on the fourth day the silver and the gold and the vessels were weighed in the house of our God by the hand of Mēr'-ē-mōth the son of Ū-rī'-āh the priest. And with him was Ēl-ē-ā'-zār the son of Phīn'-ē-hās, and with them was Jō'-zā-bād the son of Jēsh'-ū-ā, and Nō-ā-dī'-āh the son of Bin'-nū-ī, Levites. ³⁴*They were weighed* by number and by weight of every one. And all the weight was written at that time. ³⁵*Also* the children of those who had been carried away, who had come out of the captivity, offered burnt offerings unto the God of Israel, twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, twelve he-goats for a sin offering. All this was a burnt offering unto the LORD. ³⁶And they delivered the king's orders to the king's lieutenants and to the governors of the province Beyond the River. And they helped the people and the house of God.

¹Now when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands. But they are doing according to their abominations, those of the Canaanites, the Hīt'-tites, the Pē-rīz'-zītes, the Jēb'-ū-sītes, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. ²For they have taken of their daughters for themselves and for their sons. So the holy seed has mixed themselves with the people of those lands. Yes, the hand of the princes and rulers has been chief in this sin. ³And when I heard this thing, I tore my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down stricken dumb. ⁴Then everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel was gathered unto me, because of the sin of those who had been carried away. And I remained dumb until the evening sacrifice.

⁵And at the evening sacrifice I rose up from my affliction. And tearing my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees and spread out my hands unto the LORD my God. ⁶And I said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face unto Thee, my God. For our iniquities have increased over our heads, and our guiltiness has grown up to the heavens. ⁷Since the days of our fathers we have been in a great sin until this day. And for our iniquities we, our kings, and our priests, have been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to shame of face, as it is this day. ⁸And now for a little time grace has been shown from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape and to give us a nail in His holy place, so that our God may enlighten our eyes and give us a little life in our bondage. ⁹For we were slaves, yet our God has not left us in our bondage, but has given mercy to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us some life, to set up the house of our God, and to repair its waste, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem. ¹⁰And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken Thy commandments ¹¹which Thou hast commanded by Thy servants the prophets, saying, The land into which you go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations which have filled it from one end to the other with their uncleanness. ¹²Now therefore do not give your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor seek their peace or their wealth forever, so that you may be strong and eat the good of the land and leave it for an inheritance to your children forever. ¹³And after all that has come upon us for our evil deeds and for our great sin, since Thou our God hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such an escape as this, ¹⁴should we again break Thy commandments and join hands with the people of these hateful things? Wouldst Thou not be angry with us until Thou hadst crushed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping? ¹⁵O LORD God of Israel, Thou art righteous. For we are left a remnant that has escaped, as it is this day. Behold, we are before Thee in our sins, for we cannot stand before Thee because of this.

¹Now when Ezra had prayed, and when he had confessed, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, there gathered unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men and women and children — for the people wept with a great weeping. ²And Shēch-ā-nī'-āh the son of Jē-hī'-ēl, of the sons of Ē'-lām, answered and said to Ezra, We have sinned against our God and have taken strange wives from the people of the land. Yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing. ³Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as have been born of them, according to the advice of my lord, and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God. And let it be done according to the Law. ⁴Arise, for this matter belongs to you. We also will be with you. Be of good courage and do it. ⁵Then Ezra arose and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel to swear that they should do according to this word. And they swore.

⁶Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God and went into the room of Jō-hā'-nān the son of Ē-li-āsh'-īb. And when he came there, he ate no bread nor drank water. For he mourned because of the sin of those who had been carried away.⁷ And they sent a notice throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together to Jerusalem,⁸ and that whoever would not come within three days, according to the advice of the princes and the elders, all he owned would be lost, and he himself separated from the congregation of those who had been carried away.

⁹Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth of the month. And all the people sat in the street of the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for the great rain.¹⁰ And Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, You have sinned, and have taken strange wives to increase the sin of Israel.¹¹ Now therefore make confession unto the LORD God of your fathers, and do His pleasure. And separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives.¹² Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As you have said, so we must do.¹³ But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand outside. Neither is this a work of one or two days. For we who have sinned in this thing are many.¹⁴ Now let our rulers of all the congregation stand, and let all those who have taken strange wives in our cities, come at a set time, and with them the elders of every city and the judges of it, until the fierce wrath of our God for this matter has turned from us.

¹⁸And among the sons of the priests these were found who had taken strange wives: From the sons of Jēsh'-ū-ā the son of Jō'-zā-dāk and his brothers were Mā-ā-seī'-āh, and Ēl-ī-ē'-zēr, and Jār'-īb, and Gēd-ā-lī'-āh.¹⁹ And they gave their hands that they would put away their wives. And being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their sin.²⁰ And from the sons of Īm'-mēr were Hā-nā'-nī and Zēb-ā-dī'-āh.²¹ And from the sons of Hār'-īm were Mā-ā-seī'-āh, and Elijah, and Shēm-aī'-āh, and Jē-hī'-ēl, and Ū-z-zī'-āh.²² And from the sons of Pāsh'-ur were Ēl-ī-ō-ē'-nāī, Mā-ā-seī'-āh, Ishmael, Nēth'-ā-nēel, Jō'-zā-bād, and Ēl-ā'-sāh.²³ Also from the Levites were Jō'-zā-bād, and Shīm'-ē-i, and Kē-laī'-āh (the same as Kē-lī'-tā), Pēth-ā-hī'-āh, Judah, and Ēl-ī-ē'-zēr.²⁴ From the singers also were Ē-li-āsh'-īb, and from the porters, Shāl'-lūm and Tē'-lēm and Ū'-rī.²⁵ Moreover from Israel: From the sons of Pār'-ōsh were Rā-mī'-āh, and Jē-zī'-āh, and Māl-chī'-āh, and Mī'-ā-mīn, and Ēl-ē-ā'- zär, and Mäl-chī'-jääh, and Bě-naī'-äh. ²⁶And from the sons of Ē'-läm were Mät-tā-nī'-äh, Zěch-ä-rī'-äh, and Jě-hī'-ēl, and Ab'-dī, and Jěr'-ē-mōth, and Ē-lī'-äh. ²⁷And from the sons of Zāt'-tū were Ēl-ī-ō-ē'-naī, Ē-lī-āsh'-īb, Mät-tā-nī'-äh, and Jěr'-ē-mōth, and Zā'-bād, and Ā-zī'-zā. ²⁸From the sons of Bě-bā'-ī also were Jě-hō-hā'-nān, Hān-ā-nī'-äh, Zāb-bā'-ī, and Āth-lā'-ī. ²⁹And from the sons of Bā'-nī were Mě-shūl'-läm, Mäl-lüch, and Ā-dai'-ah, Jāsh'-üb, and Shě'-äl, and Rā'-mōth. ³⁰And from the sons of Pā'-häth-mō'-āb were Ād'-nä, and Chě'-läl, Bě-naī'-äh, Mā-ä-seī'-äh, Mät-tā-nī'-äh, Běz'-ä-lēel, and Bīn'-nū-ī, and Mā-nās'-sēh. ³¹And from the sons of Hār'-īm were Ēl-ī-ē'-zēr, Ish-ī'-jääh, Mäl-chī'-äh, Shēm-aī'-äh, Shīm'-ē-on, ³²Benjamin, Mäl'-luch, and Shēm-ä-rī'-äh. ³³From the sons of Hāsh'-üm were Mät-tē'-nai, Mät'-tä-thäh, Zā'-bād, Ē-līph'-ē-lēt, Jěr-ē-mā'-ī, Mā-nās'-sēh, and Shīm'-ē-ī. ³⁴From the sons of Bā'-nī were Mā-ä-dā'-ī, Amram, and Ū'-ēl, ³⁵Bě-naī'-äh, Bě-deī'-äh, Chěl'-lüh, ³⁶Vā-nī'-äh, Měr'-ē-mōth, Ē-lī-āsh'-īb, ³⁷Mät-tā-nī'-äh, Mät-tē'-nai, and Jā'-ä-sau, ³⁸and Bā'-nī, and Bīn'-nū-ī, Shīm'-ē-ī, ³⁹and Shěl-ē-mī'-äh, and Nathan, and Ā-dai'-äh, ⁴⁰Māch-nād'-ē-baī, Shā'-shaī, Shār-ā'-ī, ⁴¹Āz'-ä-rēel, and Shěl-ē-mī'-äh, Shēm-ä-rī'-äh, ⁴²Shāl'-lüm, Ām-ä-rī'-äh, and Joseph. ⁴³From the sons of Nē'-bō were Jē-ī'-ēl, Mät-tī-thī'-äh, Zā'-bād, Zě-bī'-nä, Jā'-dau, and Jō'-ēl, Bě-naī'-äh.

⁴⁴All these had taken strange wives. And many of them had wives by whom they had children.

The Book of NEHEMIAH

¹The words of Nē-hēm-ī'-āh the son of Hāch-ā-lī'-āh. And in the month Chīs'-leū, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shū'-shān the palace, ²Hā-nā'-nī, one of my brothers, came, he and men of Judah. And I asked them concerning the Jews who had escaped, who were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem. ³And they said to me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and shame. The wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and its gates are burned with fire.

⁴And when I heard these words, I sat down and wept. And I mourned for days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of Heaven. ⁵And I said, I pray Thee, O LORD God of Heaven, the great and awesome God who keeps covenant and mercy for those who love Him and keep His commandments — ⁶let Thy ear now be open, and Thy eyes open, so that Thou mayest hear the prayer of Thy servant, which I pray before Thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel Thy servants, and confessing the sins of the children of Israel which we have sinned against Thee. Both I and my father's house have sinned. ⁷We have acted very wickedly against Thee, and have not kept the commandments nor the statutes nor the judgments which Thou didst command Thy servant Moses. ⁸I pray Thee, remember the word that Thou didst command Thy servant Moses, saying, If you sin, I will scatter you among the nations, ⁹but if you turn unto Me, and keep My commandments and do them, though you were cast out unto the outermost part of heaven, yet I will gather you from there and will bring you unto the place that I have chosen to set My name there. ¹⁰Now these are Thy servants and Thy people whom Thou hast redeemed by Thy great power and by Thy strong hand. ¹¹O LORD, I pray Thee, let now Thy ear be open to the prayer of Thy servant, and to the prayer of Thy servants who desire to fear Thy name. And I pray Thee, bless Thy servant today, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. (For I was the king's cupbearer.)

¹And in the month Nī'-sān, in the twentieth year of Ār-tā-xēr-x'-ēs the king, wine was before him. And I took up the wine and gave it to the king. Now I had not been sad in his presence before. ²Therefore the king said to me, Why is your face sad, since you are not sick? This is nothing but sorrow of heart. Then I was very much afraid. ³And I said to the king, Let the king live forever. Why should not my face be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' tombs, lies waste, and the gates of it are burned with fire? ⁴Then the king said unto me, For what do you ask? So I prayed to the God of Heaven, ⁵and I said to the king, If it please the king, and if your servant has found favor in your sight, I pray that you would send me to Judah, unto the city of my fathers' tombs, so that I may build it. ⁶And the king said to me (the queen also sitting by him), For how long shall your journey be? And when will you return? So it pleased the king to send me, and I set him a time. ⁷Moreover I said to the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors of the province Beyond the River, so that they may let me pass through until I come to Judah — ⁸and a letter unto Ā'-sāph the keeper of the king's forest, so that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which belonged to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house into which I shall enter. And the king granted me what I asked, according to the good hand of my God upon me.

⁹Then I came to the governors of the province Beyond the River and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me. ¹⁰When Sān-bāl'-lāt the Hôr'-ōn-ite, and Tō-bī'-āh the servant, the Ammonite, heard, it grieved them very much that there had come a man to seek the good of the children of Israel. ¹¹So I came to Jerusalem and was there three days.

¹²And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me. Neither did I tell any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem. And there was no animal with me, except the animal that I rode upon. ¹³And I went out by night by the Valley Gate, even before the Jackal Fountain, and to the Dung Gate, and looked at the walls of Jerusalem which were broken down, and the gates of it which were burned with fire. ¹⁴Then I went on to the Fountain Gate, and to the King's Pool. But there was no place for the animal that was under me to pass. ¹⁵Then I went up in the night by the brook and looked at the wall, and turned back, and entered by the Valley Gate, and returned. ¹⁶And the rulers did not know where I had gone, nor what I was doing. Neither had I told it as yet to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that did the work.

¹⁷Then I said to them, You see the trouble that we are in, how Jerusalem is wasted, and the gates of it are burned with fire. Come and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, so that we may no more be a reproach. ¹⁸Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me, and also the king's words that he had spoken unto me.

And they said, Let us rise up to build. So they made their hands strong for this good work. ¹⁹But when Sān-bāl'-lāt the Hôr'-ōn-ite, and Tō-bī'-āh the servant, the Ammonite, and Gē'-shēm the Ā-rā'-bī-ān, heard, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us. And they said, What is this that you do? Will you rebel against the king? ²⁰Then I answered them and said to them, The God of Heaven, He will bless us, and we,

His servants, will arise and build. But you have no portion or right or memorial in Jerusalem.

¹Then Ē-li-āsh'-ib the high priest rose up with his brothers the priests, and they built the Sheep Gate. They sanctified it and set up the doors of it, even unto the Tower of Hām-mē'-āh they sanctified it, unto the Tower of Hān'-ā-nēel. ²And next to him the men of Jericho built. And next to them Zāc'-cūr the son of Imri built. ³But the sons of Hās-sē-nā'-āh built the Fish Gate, who laid the beams of it and set up the doors of it, the locks of it, and the bars of it. ⁴And next to them Mēr'-ē-mōth the son of Ū-rī'-jāh, the son of Kōz repaired. And next to them Mē-shūl'-lām the son of Bēr-ē-chī'-āh, the son of Mē-shēz'-ā-bēel repaired. And next to them Zā'-dōk the son of Bā'-ā-nā repaired. ⁵And next to them the Tē-kō'-ites repaired. But their nobles did not put their necks to the work of their Lord. ⁶Moreover the old gate was repaired by Jē-hoi'-ā-dā the son of Pā-sē'-āh, and Mē-shūl'-lām the son of Bēs-ō-deī'-āh. They laid the beams of it and set up the doors of it and the locks of it and the bars of it. ⁷And next to them Mēl-ā-tī'-āh of Gibeon repaired, and Jā'-dōn of Mē'-rōn, the men of Gibeon and of Mizpah, unto the throne of the governor on this side the river. ⁸Next to him Ūz'-zī-ēl the son of Hār-hai'-āh, of the goldsmiths, repaired. And next to him Hān-ā-nī'-āh, the son of one of the perfumers, repaired. And they made Jerusalem strong unto the Broad Wall. ⁹And next to them Rē-phaī'-āh the son of Hur, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem repaired. ¹⁰Next to them Jē-dai'-āh the son of Hā-rū'-māph repaired, even across from his house. And next to him Hāt'-tūsh the son of Hāsh-āb-nī'-āh repaired. ¹¹Māl-chī'-jāh the son of Hār'-im and Hāsh-ūb the son of Pā'-hāth-mō'-āb, repaired the other piece, and the Tower of the Furnaces. ¹²And next to him Shāl'-lūm the son of Hā-lō'-hēsh, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem, he and his daughters repaired. ¹³Hā'-nūn, and the people of Zā-nō'-āh, repaired the Valley Gate. They built it, and set up the doors of it, the locks of it, and the bars of it, and a thousand cubits on the wall unto the Dung Gate. ¹⁴But the Dung Gate was repaired by Māl-chī'-āh the son of Rē'-chāb, the ruler of part of Bēth-hāc'-cē-rēm. He built it and set up the doors of it, the locks of it, and the bars of it. ¹⁵But the Fountain Gate was repaired by Shāl'-lūm the son of Cōl-hō'-zēh, the ruler of part of Mizpah. He built it and covered it, and set up the doors of it, the locks of it, and the bars of it, and the wall of the Pool of Shē'-lāh by the king's garden, and unto the stairs that go down from the City of David. ¹⁶After him Nē-hēm-i'-āh the son of Āz'-būk, the ruler of the half part of Bēth'-zur, repaired unto the place across from the tombs of David, and to the pool that was made, and to the house of the mighty men. ¹⁷After him the Levites, Rē'-hūm the son of Bā'-nī, repaired. Next to him Hāsh-ā-bī'-āh, the ruler of the half part of Kē-ī'-lāh, repaired in his part. ¹⁸After him their brothers, Bā-vā'-ī the son of Hēn-ā'-dād, the ruler of the half part of Kē-ī'-lāh, repaired. ¹⁹And next to him, Ē'-zēr the son of Jēsh'-ū-ā, the ruler of Mizpah, repaired another piece over against the going up to the armory at the turning of the wall.

²⁰After him Bār'-ūch the son of Zāb-bā'-ī earnestly repaired the other piece, from the turning unto the door of the house of Ē-li-āsh'-ib the high priest. ²¹After him Mēr'-ē-mōth the son of Ū-rī'-jāh the son of Koz repaired another piece, from the door of the house of Ē-li-āsh'-ib even to the end of the house of Ē-li-āsh'-ib. ²²And after him the priests, the men of the plain, repaired. ²³After him Benjamin and Hāsh'-ūb repaired across from their house. After him Āz-ā-rī'-āh the son of Mā-ā-seī'-āh the son of Ān-ā-nī'-āh repaired by his house. ²⁴After him Bīn'-nū-ī the son of Hēn-ā'-dād repaired another piece, from the house of Āz-ā-rī'-āh unto the turning of the wall, even to the corner. ²⁵Pā'-lāl the son of Ū'-zaī repaired across from the turning of the wall, and the tower which lies out from the king's high house, that was by the court of the prison. After him Pē-dai'-āh the son of Pār'-ōsh repaired. ²⁶Moreover the Nēth'-ī-nīms who lived in Ō'-phēl repaired unto the place across from the Water Gate toward the east, and the tower that sticks out. ²⁷After them the Tē-kō'-ites repaired another piece, opposite the great tower that sticks out, even to the wall of Ō'-phēl. ²⁸The priests repaired from above the Horse Gate, every one across from his house. ²⁹After them Zā'-dōk the son of Īm'-mēr repaired across from his house. After him Shēm-aī'-āh the son of Shēch-ā-nī'-āh, the keeper of the East Gate, repaired. ³⁰After him Hān-ā-nī'-āh the son of Shēl-ē-mī'-āh, and Hā'-nūn the sixth son of Zā'-lāph repaired another piece. After him Mē-shūl'-lām the son of Bēr-ē-chī'-āh repaired across from his room. ³¹After him Māl-chī'-āh the goldsmith's son repaired to the place of the Nēth'-ī-nīms, and of the merchants, over against the Mīph'-kād Gate, and to the going up of the corner. ³²And between the going up of the corner to the Sheep Gate the goldsmiths and the merchants repaired.

¹But when Sān-bāl'-lāt heard that we built the wall, he was angry and greatly displeased, and mocked the Jews. ²And he spoke before his brothers and the army of Samaria, and said, What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they fortify themselves? Will they sacrifice? Will they make an end in a day? Will they bring to life the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned? ³Now Tō-bī'-āh the Ammonite was beside him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox goes up, he shall even break down their stone wall.

⁴O our God, hear, for we are despised. And turn their curse upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity. ⁵And do not cover their iniquity, and do not let their sin be blotted out from before

Thee. For they have provoked Thee to anger before the builders. ⁶So we built the wall, and all the wall was joined together unto the half of it. For the people had a mind to work.

⁷But when Sān-bāl'-lāt and Tō-bī'-āh, and the Ā-rā'-bī-āns, and the Ammonites, and the Āsh'-dō-dites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem had gone up, and that the breaks were being filled, they were very angry. ⁸And all of them plotted together to come and fight against Jerusalem and do harm to it. ⁹But we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them. ¹⁰And Judah said, The strength of the carriers of burdens is weakening, and there is much rubbish, so that we are not able to build the wall. ¹¹And our foes have said, They shall not know, or see, until we come in the middle of them, and kill them, and cause the work to cease. ¹²And when the Jews who lived by them came in, they said to us ten times, From all places where you shall turn to us they will be upon you.

¹³Therefore I stationed in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people according to their families with their sword, their spears, and their bows. ¹⁴And I looked and rose up, and said unto the nobles and to the rulers and to the rest of the people, Do not be afraid of them. Remember the LORD, who is great and terrible, and fight for your brothers, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses. ¹⁵And when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and that God had brought their wisdom to nothing, all of us returned to the wall, each one to his work. ¹⁶And from that time forth half of my servants worked in the work, and the other half of them held the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the coats of mail. And the rulers were behind all the house of Judah — ¹⁷the ones who built on the wall, and the ones who carried burdens, with those who were lifting, each one worked with one of his hands in the work, and held a weapon. ¹⁸For of the builders, each one had his sword tied by his side, and built. And he who sounded the trumpet was beside me.

¹⁹And I said to the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, far from one another. ²⁰In whatever place therefore you hear the sound of the trumpet, gather there to us. Our God will fight for us. ²¹So we labored in the work. And half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning until the stars appeared. ²²Likewise at the same time I said to the people, Let everyone with his servant stay inside Jerusalem, so that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labor in the day. ²³So neither I, nor my brothers, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us put off our clothes — except that everyone had his vessel of water.

¹And there was a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brothers the Jews. ²For certain ones said, We, our sons, and our daughters, are many. Let us get grain for them, so that we may eat and live. ³Some also said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses. Let us buy grain because of the famine. ⁴Some also said, We have borrowed money for the king's tax upon our lands and vineyards. ⁵Yet now our flesh is like the flesh of our brothers, our children like their children. And, lo, we bring our sons and our daughters into bondage, to be slaves, and some of our daughters are brought into bondage already. Neither is it in our power to redeem them, for other men have our lands and vineyards.

⁶ And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words. ⁷Then I considered within myself, and I rebuked the nobles and the rulers, and said to them, You exact interest, each one from his brother. And I held a great gathering against them. ⁸And I said to them, According to our ability we have redeemed our brothers, the Jews who were sold to the heathen. And will you even sell your brothers? Or shall they be sold to us? Then they were silent and found nothing to answer. ⁹Also I said, What you do is not good. Should you not walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the nations our enemies? ¹⁰I likewise, my brothers and my servants, might take from them money and grain. I pray you, let us leave off this interest. ¹¹I pray you, even today, give back to them their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money and of the grain, the wine, and the oil, that you take from them. ¹²Then they said, We will restore, and will ask nothing from them. So we will do as you say. Then I called the priests and took an oath from them that they should do according to this promise. ¹³Also I shook my lap and said, So let God shake out every man from his house, and from his labor, who does not keep this promise, even may he be shaken out this way and emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. And the people did according to this promise.

¹⁴Moreover from the time that I was chosen to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even to the thirty-second year of Ār-tā-xērx'-ēs the king — twelve years — I and my brothers have not eaten the bread of the governor. ¹⁵But the former governors that had been before me were too heavy upon the people, and had taken bread and wine from them, besides forty shekels of silver. Yes, even their servants bore rule over the people. But I did not do this, because of the fear of God. ¹⁶Yes, I also kept on in the work of this wall. Neither did we buy any land. And all my servants were gathered there unto the work. ¹⁷Moreover there were at my table a hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, besides those who came unto us from among the nations that were around us. ¹⁸Now that which was prepared daily was one ox and six choice sheep. Also birds were prepared, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine. Yet for all this I did not seek the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people. ¹⁹Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

¹Now when Sān-bāl'-lāt, and Tō-bī'-āh and Gē'-shēm the Ā-rā'-bī-ān, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had built the wall, and that there was no break left in it (though at that time I had not set the doors upon the gates), ²Sān-bāl'-lāt and Gē'-shēm sent to me, saying, Come, let us meet together in the villages in the plain of Ō'-nō. But they thought to do me harm. ³And I sent messengers to them, saying, I am doing a great work, so I cannot come down. Why should the work cease while I leave it and come down to you? ⁴Yet they sent to me four times in this way. And I answered them in the same way. ⁵Then Sān-bāl'-lāt sent his servant to me in the same way the fifth time with an open letter in his hand, in which was written, ⁶It is reported among the heathen, and Gāsh'-mū says it, that you and the Jews are thinking of rebelling — for which cause you build the wall, so that you may be their king, according to these words. ⁷And you have also set up prophets to preach about you at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah. And now it shall be reported to the king according to these words. Therefore come now and let us talk it over together. ⁸Then I sent to him saying, There are no such things done as you say, but you pretend them out of your own heart. ⁹For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work so that it may not be done. Now therefore, O God, make my hands strong.

¹⁰Afterward I came to the house of Shēm-aī'-āh the son of Dēl-aī'-āh the son of Mē-hēt'-ā-bēel, who was shut up. And he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, inside the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple. For they will come to kill you. Yea, in the night they will come to kill you. ¹¹And I said, Should such a man as I flee? And who, being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in. ¹²And, I understood that lo! God had not sent him, but that he said this prophecy against me because Tō-bī'-āh and Sān-bāl'-lāt had hired him. ¹³Therefore he was hired that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and so that they might have something for an evil report with which they might reproach me. ¹⁴My God, think upon Tō-bī'-āh and Sān-bāl'-lāt according to these their works, and on the prophetess Nō-ā-dī'-āh, and the rest of the prophets who would have made me afraid.

¹⁵So the wall was finished in the twenty-fifth day of Ē'-lūl, in fifty-two days. ¹⁶And when all our enemies heard of it, and all the nations who were around us saw, they were very much lowered in their own eyes. For they saw that this work was done by our God.

¹⁷Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tō-bī'-āh, and the letters of Tō-bī'-āh came to them. ¹⁸For there were many in Judah sworn to him because he was the son-in-law of Shēch-ā-nī'-āh the son of Ār'-āh, and his son Jō-hā'-nān had taken the daughter of Mē-shūl'-lām the son of Bēr-ē-chī'-āh. ¹⁹Also they reported his good deeds before me, and told my words to him. And Tō-bī'-āh sent letters to make me afraid.

¹Now when the wall was built and I had set up the doors, and the gatekeepers and the singers and the Levites were chosen, ²I gave my brother Hā-nā'-nī, and Hān-ā-nī'-āh the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem. For he was a faithful man, and feared God above many. ³And I said to them, Do not let the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun is hot. And while they stand by, let them shut and bar the doors. And set guards from the people of Jerusalem, each one in his watch, and each one to be across from his house. ⁴Now the city was large and great, but the people in it were few, and the houses were not built.

⁵And my God put into my heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, so that they might be counted by genealogy. And I found a register of the genealogy of those who came up at the first. And I found written in it: ⁶These are the children of the province who went up out of the captivity, of those who had been carried away, whom Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār the king of Babylon had carried away. And they came again to Jerusalem and to Judah, every one to his city, ⁷and came with Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl, Jēsh'-ū-ā, Nē-hēm-i'-āh, Āz-ā-rī'-āh, Rā-ā-mī'-āh, Nā-hā-mā'-nī, Mōr-dē-cā'-ī, Bilshan, Mīs'-pē-rēth, Bīg-vā'-ī, Nē'-hūm, Bā'-ā-nāh. The number of the men of the people of Israel were: seven. ¹⁹The children of Bîg-vâ'-î were two thousand and sixty-seven. ²⁰The children of Ā'-dîn were six hundred and fifty-five. ²¹The children of Ā'-têr of Hêz-ê-kî'-âh were ninety-eight. ²²The children of Hâsh'-ûm were three hundred and twenty-eight. ²³The children of Bê-zâ'-î were three hundred and twenty-four. ²⁴The children of Hâr'-îph were a hundred and twelve. ²⁵The children of Gîb'-ê-ôn were ninety-five. ²⁶The men of Bethlehem and Nê-tô'-phâh were a hundred and eighty-eight. ²⁷The men of Ān'-â-thôth were a hundred and twenty-eight. ²⁸The men of Bêth-âz-mâ'-vêth were forty-two. ²⁹The men of Kîr'-jâth-jê'-â-rîm, Chê-phî'-râh, and Bêēr'-ôth were seven hundred and forty-three. ³⁰The men of Râ'-mâh and Gê'-bâ were six hundred and twenty-one. ³¹The men of Mîch'-mâs were a hundred and twenty-two. ³²The men of Bethel and Ā'-î were a hundred and twenty-three. ³³The men of the other Nê'-bô were fifty-two. ³⁴The children of the other Ê'-lâm were a thousand two hundred and fifty-four. ³⁵The children of Hâr'-îm were three hundred and twenty. ³⁶The children of Jericho were three hundred and forty-five. ³⁷The children of Lod, Hâ'-dîd, and Ô'-nô were seven hundred and twenty-one. ³⁸The children of Sên'-â-âh were three thousand nine hundred and thirty.

⁸The children of Pār'-ōsh were two thousand and seventy-two. ⁹The children of Shēph-ā-tī'-āh were three hundred and seventy-two. ¹⁰The children of Ār'-āh were six hundred and fifty-two. ¹¹The children of Pā'-hāth—mō'-āb, of the children of Jēsh'-ū-ā and Joab were two thousand, eight hundred and eighteen. ¹²The children of Ē'-lām were a thousand two hundred and fifty-four. ¹³The children of Zāt'-tū were eight hundred and forty-five. ¹⁴The children of Zāc-cā'-ī were seven hundred and sixty. ¹⁵The children of Bīn'-nū-ī were six hundred and forty-eight. ¹⁶The children of Bē-bā'-ī were six hundred and twenty-eight. ¹⁷The children of Āz'-gād were two thousand three hundred and twenty-two. ¹⁸The children of Ād-ō-nī'-kām were six hundred and sixty-

³⁹The priests: the children of Jê-daî'-âh, of the house of Jêsh'-û-â, were nine hundred and seventy-three. ⁴⁰The children of Îm'-mêr were a thousand and fifty-two. ⁴¹The children of Pâsh'-ûr were a thousand two hundred and forty-seven. ⁴²The children of Hâr'-îm were a thousand and seventeen.

⁴³The Levites: the children of Jêsh'-û-â, of Kâd'-mî-êl, and of the children of Hô'-dê-vâh were seventy-four.

⁴⁴The singers: the children of Ā'-sâph were a hundred and forty-eight.

⁶¹And these were they who went up from Tēl-mē'-lāh, Tēl-hā-rē'-shā, Chēr'-ūb, Ād'-dōn, and Īm'-mēr. But they could not show their father's house, nor their seed, whether they were of Israel. ⁶²The children of Dēl-aī'-āh, the children of Tō-bī'-āh, the children of Nē-kō'-dā, six hundred and forty-two.

⁶⁶The whole congregation together was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty, ⁶⁷besides their manservants and their maidservants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven. And they had two hundred and forty-five singing men and singing women. ⁶⁸Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six. Their mules were two hundred and forty-five. ⁶⁹Their camels were four hundred and thirty-five, and six thousand seven hundred and twenty were the asses.

⁷⁰And some of the chief of the fathers gave unto the work. The governor gave to the treasury a thousand darics of gold, fifty basins, and five hundred and thirty priests' garments. ⁷¹And some of the chief of the fathers gave to the treasury of the work twenty thousand darics of gold, and two thousand two hundred minas of silver. ⁷²And what the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand darics of gold and two thousand minas of silver, and sixty-seven priests' garments. ⁷³So the priests, and the Levites, and the gatekeepers, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nēth'-ī-nīms, and all Israel, lived in their cities. And when the seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

¹And all the people gathered themselves together as one man into the street that was before the water gate. And they spoke unto Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel. ²And Ezra the priest brought the law before the congregation, both of men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, upon the first day of the seventh month. ³And he read in it before the street which was in front of the Water Gate from the morning until noon, in front of the men and the women, and those who could understand. And the ears of all the people listened to the book of the law. ⁴And Ezra the scribe stood upon a pulpit of wood which they had made for the purpose. And beside him stood Māt-tī-thī'-āh, and Shē'-mā, and Ā-naī'-āh, and Ū-rī'-jāh, and Hīl-kī'-āh, and Mā-ā-seī-āh, on his right hand — and on his left hand, Pē-dai'-āh, and Mī'-shā-ēl, and Māl-chī'-āh, and Hāsh'-ūm, and Hāsh-bā-dā'-nā, Zēch-ārī'-āh, and Mē-shūl'-lām. ⁵And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was above all the people. And when he opened it, all the people stood up. ⁶And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, Amen, Amen, lifting up their hands. And they bowed their heads and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground. ⁷Also Jēsh'-ū-ā, and Bā'-nī, and Shēr-ē-bī'-āh, Jā'-mīn, Āk'-kūb, Shāb'-bē-thai, Hō-dī'-jāh, Mā-ā-seī'-āh, Kē-lī'-tā, Āz-ā-rī'-āh, Jō'-zā-bād, Hā'-nān, Pē-lai'-āh, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law. And the people were in their place. ⁸So they read in the book, in the law of God, clearly. And they gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.

⁹And Nē-hēm-ī'-āh, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people, said unto all the people, This day is holy unto the LORD your God. Do not mourn or weep. For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law. ¹⁰Then he said to them, Go your way and eat the fat and drink the sweet, and send portions to him for whom nothing is prepared. For this day is holy unto our LORD. Neither be sorry, for the joy of the LORD is your strength. ¹¹So the Levites quieted all the people, saying, Be quiet, for the day is holy. Neither be grieved. ¹²And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great rejoicing, because they had understood the words which were declared to them.

¹³And on the second day the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, were gathered unto Ezra the scribe, even to understand the words of the law. ¹⁴And they found written in the law which the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month, ¹⁵and that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth to the mountain and bring olive branches and pine branches and myrtle branches and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written. ¹⁶So the people went out and brought them, and made themselves booths, each one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the street of the Water Gate, and in the street of the Gate of Ephraim. ¹⁷And all the congregation of those who had come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths. For since the days of Joshua the son of Nun until that day, the children of Israel had not done so. And there was very great gladness. ¹⁸Also day by day, from the first day until the last day, he read in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days, and on the eighth day was a closing feast, according to the law.

¹Now in the twenty-fourth day of this month, the children of Israel were gathered with fasting and with sackcloth, and with earth upon them. ²And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers, and stood and confessed their sins and the sins of their fathers. ³And they stood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of the LORD their God a fourth part of the day. And another fourth part they confessed and worshipped the LORD their God.

⁴Then stood upon the stairs, of the Levites, Jēsh'-ū-ā, and Bā'-nī, Kād'-mī-ēl, Shēb-ā-nī'-āh, Būn'-nī, Shēr-ē-bī'-āh, Bā'-nī and Chē-nā'-nī, and cried with a loud voice unto the LORD their God. ⁵Then the Levites, Jēsh'-ū-ā, and Kād'-mī-ēl, Bā'-nī, Hāsh-āb-nī'-āh, Shēr-ē-bī'-āh, Hō-dī'-jah, Shēb-ā-nī'-āh, and Pēth-ā-hī'-āh, said, Stand up and bless the LORD your God forever and ever. And blessed be Thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise. ⁶Thou, even Thou, art LORD alone. Thou hast made the heavens, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are on it, the seas, and all that is in them, and Thou dost preserve them all. And the host of heaven worships Thee. ⁷Thou art the LORD, the God who chose Abraham and brought him forth out of Ur of the Chāl'-dēēš, and gave him the name of Abraham, ⁸and found his heart faithful before Thee, and made a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, and the Pě-riz'-zīte, and the Jēb'-ū-šīte, and the Gīr'-gā-shīte, even to give it to his seed. And Thou hast performed Thy words, for Thou art righteous.

⁹And Thou didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and didst hear their cry by the Red Sea, ¹⁰and didst give out signs and wonders upon Pharaoh and upon all his servants and upon all the people of his land. For Thou didst know that they were acting proudly against them. So Thou didst get Thee a name, as it is this day. ¹¹And Thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land. And their pursuers Thou didst throw into the deep, like a stone into the mighty waters. ¹²Moreover, Thou didst lead them in the day by a cloudy pillar, and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way in which they should go. ¹³And Thou didst come down upon Mount Sī'-naī, and spoke with them from Heaven, and gave them right judgments and true laws, good statutes and commandments. ¹⁴And Thou didst make known unto them Thy holy sabbath, and commanded them commandments, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses Thy servant. ¹⁵And Thou didst give them bread from Heaven for their hunger, and brought forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst. And Thou didst promise them that they should go in to possess the land which Thou hadst sworn to give them.

¹⁶But they and our fathers acted proudly and hardened their necks, and did not listen to Thy commandments. ¹⁷And they refused to obey, neither were they mindful of Thy wonders which Thou didst do among them. But they hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage. But Thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and didst not forsake them. ¹⁸Yea, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is your God who brought you up out of Egypt, and had worked great blasphemies, ¹⁹yet Thou in Thy great mercies didst not forsake them in the wilderness. The pillar of the cloud did not depart from them by day to lead them in the way, nor the pillar of fire by night, to show them light and the way in which they should go. ²⁰Thou didst also give Thy good Spirit to teach them, and didst not withhold Thy manna from their mouth, and didst give them water for their thirst. ²¹And forty years Thou didst sustain them in the wilderness. They lacked nothing; their clothes did not become old, and their feet did not swell. ²²Moreover Thou didst give them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners. So they possessed the land of Sī'-hōn, and the land of the king of Hēsh'-bōn, and the land of Og king of Bā'-shān.

²³Thou didst also multiply their children like the stars of the heavens, and didst bring them into the land concerning which Thou hadst promised to their fathers that they should go in to possess it. ²⁴So the children went in and possessed the land, and Thou didst humble the people of the land before them, the Canaanites, and didst give them into their hands, with their kings and the people of the land, so that they might do with them as they would. ²⁵And they took strong cities and a rich land, and possessed houses full of all goods, wells already dug, vineyards and oliveyards, and fruit trees in abundance. So they ate and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in Thy great goodness. ²⁶Nevertheless they were disobedient and rebelled against Thee, and cast Thy law behind their backs. And they killed Thy prophets who testified against them to turn them to Thee, and they worked great blasphemies.

²⁷Therefore Thou didst deliver them into the hand of their enemies, who troubled them. And in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto Thee, Thou didst hear them from Heaven. And according to Thy manifold mercies, Thou didst give them deliverers, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies. ²⁸But after they had rest, they did evil again before Thee. Therefore Thou didst leave them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the rule over them. Yet when they returned and cried unto Thee, Thou didst hear them from Heaven. And many times Thou didst deliver them according to Thy mercies, ²⁹and didst testify against them that Thou mightest bring them again unto Thy law. Yet they acted proudly and did not listen unto Thy commandments, but sinned against Thy judgments (which if a man do, he shall live in them), and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear. ³⁰Yet many years Thou didst have patience with them, and didst testify against them by Thy Spirit by Thy prophets. Yet they would not give ear. Therefore Thou didst give them into the hand of the people of the lands. ³¹But for Thy great mercies' sake, Thou didst not completely destroy them nor forsake them. For Thou art a gracious and merciful God. ³²Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the fearful God, who dost keep covenant and mercy, let not all the trouble that has come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all Thy people, since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day, seem little before Thee. ³³However, Thou art just in all that is brought upon us, for Thou hast done right, but we have done wickedly. ³⁴Neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept Thy law, nor listened unto Thy commandments and Thy words with which Thou didst testify against them. ³⁵For they have not served Thee in their kingdom, and in Thy great goodness which Thou didst give them, and in the large and rich land which Thou didst give before them — neither did they turn from their wicked works. ³⁶Behold, we are servants this day, and for the land that Thou didst give unto our fathers to eat the fruit of it and the good of it, behold, we are servants in it. ³⁷And it yields much increase to the kings whom Thou hast set over us because of our sins. Also they have rule over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great trouble. ³⁸And because of all this we make a sure covenant, and write it, and our princes, Levites, and priests are at the sealing of it.

¹Now those who sealed were, Nē-hēm-i'-āh, the governor, the son of Hāch-ā-lī'-āh, and Zūd-kī'-jāh, ²Sē-rai'-āh, Āz-ā-rī'-āh, Jeremiah, ³Pāsh'-ur, Ām-ā-rī'-āh, Māl-chī'-jāh, ⁴Hāt'-tūsh, Shēb-ā-nī'-āh, Māl'-lūch, ⁵Hār'-īm, Mēr'-ē-mōth, Ō-bā-dī'-āh, ⁶Daniel, Gīn'-nē-thōn, Bār'-ūch, ⁷Mē-shūl'-lām, Ā-bī'-jāh, Mī'-jā-mīn, ⁸Mā-ā-zī'-āh, Bīl-gā'-ī, Shēm-āi'-āh. These were the priests. ⁹And the Levites were both Jēsh'-ū-ā the son of Āz-ā-nī'-āh, Bīn'-nū-i of the sons of Hēn-ā'-dād, Kād'-mī-ēl, ¹⁰and their brothers, Shēb-ā-nī'-āh, Hō-dī'-jāh, Kē-lī'-tā, Pē-lai'-āh, Hā'-nān, ¹¹Mī'-chā, Rē'-hōb, Hāsh-ā-bī'-āh, ¹²Zāc'-cūr, Shēr-ē-bī'-āh, Shēb-ā-

nī'-āh, ¹³Hō-dī'-jāh, Bā'-nī, Bē-nī'-nū. ¹⁴The chief of the people were Pār'-ōsh, Pā'-hāth—mō'-āb, Ē'-lām, Zāt'-thū, Bā'-nī, ¹⁵Būn'-nī, Āz'-gād, Bē-bā'-ī, ¹⁶Ād-ō-nī'-jāh, Bīg-vā'-ī, Ā'-dīn, ¹⁷Ā'-tēr, Hīz-kī'-jāh, Āz'-zūr, ¹⁸Hō-dī'-jāh, Hāsh'-ūm, Bē-zā'-ī, ¹⁹Hār'-īph, Ān'-ā-thōth, Nē-bā'-ī, ²⁰Māg'-pī-āsh, Mē-shūl'-lām, Hē'-zīr, ²¹Mē-shēz'-ā-bēel, Zā'-dōk, Jād'-dū-ā, ²²Pēl-ā-tī'-āh, Hā'-nān, Ā-naī'-āh, ²³Hō-shē'-ā, Hān-ā-nī'-āh, Hāsh'-ūb, ²⁴Hāl-lō'-hēsh, Pī'-lē-hā, Shō'-bēk, ²⁵Rē'-hūm, Hā-shāb'-nāh, Mā-ā-seī'-āh, ²⁶and Ā-hī'-jāh, Hā'-nān, Ā'-nān, ²⁷Māl'-lūch, Hār'-īm, Bā'-ā-nāh.

²⁸And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the Nēth'-ī-nīmš, and all those who had separated themselves from the people of the lands unto the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters (everyone who had knowledge, and who had understanding), ²⁹were holding fast to their brothers, their honored ones. And they entered into a curse and into an oath, to walk in God's law which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to be careful to do all the commandments of Jehovah our Lord, and His judgments and His statutes. ³⁰And we swore that we would not give our daughters unto the people of the land nor take their daughters for our sons. ³¹And if the people of the land should bring goods or any food on the Sabbath day to sell it, that we would not buy it from them on the Sabbath or on the holy day, and that we would leave the seventh year, and the interest of every debt. ³²Also we put commands upon ourselves, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God, ³³for the showbread, and for the continual meal offering, and for the continual burnt offering, of the sabbaths, of the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make an atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God. ³⁴And we cast the lots among the priests, and the Levites, and the people, for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, according to the houses of our fathers, at times appointed year by year, to burn upon the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the law — ³⁵and to bring the first-fruits of our ground, and the first-fruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, unto the house of the LORD. ³⁶Also to bring the first-born of our sons, and of our cattle, as it is written in the law, and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, unto the priests who minister in the house of our God. ³⁷And that we should bring the first-fruits of our dough, and our offerings, and the fruit of all kinds of trees, of wine and of oil, unto the priests, to the rooms of the house of our God. And the tithes of our ground to the Levites, so that the same Levites might have the tithes in all the cities we farmed. ³⁸And the priest the son of Aaron shall be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes, and the Levites shall bring up the tithes of the tithes to the house of our God, to the rooms, into the treasure-house. ³⁹For the children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the offering of the grain, of the new wine, and the oil, to the rooms where the vessels of the sanctuary are, and the priests who minister, and the gatekeepers and the singers. And we will not forsake the house of our God.

¹And the rulers of the people lived at Jerusalem. The rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of every ten to live in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine parts in other cities. ²And the people blessed all the men who willingly offered themselves to live at Jerusalem.

³Now these are the chief of the province, who lived in Jerusalem. But in the cities of Judah everyone lived in his possession in their cities — Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the Nēth'-ī-nīmš, and the children of Solomon's servants. ⁴And at Jerusalem lived certain of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin. From the children of Judah were Ā-thai'-āh the son of Ūz-zī'-āh, the son of Zēch-ā-rī'-āh, the son of Ām-ā-rī'-āh, the son of Shēph-ā-tī'-āh, the son of Mā-hāl'-ā-lēel, of the children of Pē'-rēz, ⁵and Mā-ā-seī'-āh the son of Bār'-ūch, the son of Cōl-hō'-zēh, the son of Hā-zaī'-āh, the son of Ā-dai'-āh, the son of Joi'-ā-rīb, the son of Zēch-ā-rī'-āh, the son of Shī-lō'-nī. ⁶All the sons of Pē'-rēz who lived in Jerusalem were four hundred and sixty-eight mighty men.

⁷And these are the sons of Benjamin — Sāl'-lū the son of Mē-shūl'-lām, the son of Jō'-ēd, the son of Pē-dai'-āh, the son of Kō-lai'-āh, the son of Mā-ā-seī'-āh, the son of Ī'-thī-ēl, the son of Jē-sai'-āh. ⁸And after him were Gāb-bā'-ī, Sāl-lā'-ī, nine hundred and twenty-eight. ⁹And Joel the son of Zich'-rī was their overseer. And Judah the son of Sēn'-ū-āh was second over the city.

¹⁰From the priests were Jē-dai'-āh the son of Joi'-ā-rīb, Jā'-chīn, ¹¹Sē-raī'-āh the son of Hīl-kī'-āh, the son of Mē-shūl'-lām, the son of Zā'-dōk, the son of Mē-raī'-ōth, the son of Ā-hī'-tūb, who was the ruler of the house of God. ¹²And their brothers who did the work of the house were eight hundred and twenty-two. And Ā-dai'-āh the son of Jē-rō'-hām, the son of Pēl-ā-lī'-āh, the son of Amzi, the son of Zēch-ā-rī'-āh, the son of Pā'-shur, the son of Māl-chī'-āh, ¹³and his brothers, chief of the fathers, two hundred and forty-two. And Ā-māsh'-aī the son of Āz'-ā-rēel, the son of Ā-hā'-saī, the son of Mē-shīl'-lē-mōth, the son of Īm'-mēr, ¹⁴and their brothers, mighty men of power, were a hundred and twenty-eight. And their overseer was Zāb'-dī-ēl, the son of one of the great men.

¹⁵Also from the Levites were Shēm-aī'-āh the son of Hāsh'-ūb, the son of Āz-rī'-kām, the son of Hāsh-ā-bī'-āh, the son of Būn'-nī. ¹⁶And Shāb'-bē-thai and Jō'-zā-bād, of the chief of the Levites, had the oversight of the outward business of the house of God. ¹⁷And Māt-tā-nī'-āh the son of Mī'-chā, the son of Zāb'-dī, the son of Ā'-sāph, was the leader to begin the thanksgiving in prayer. And Bāk-bū-kī'-āh was the second among his brothers, and then Abda the son of Shām'-mū-ā, the son of Gā'-lāl, the son of Jē-dū'-thūn. ¹⁸All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred and eighty-four. ¹⁹Moreover the gatekeepers, Āk'-kūb, Tāl'-mōn, and their brothers who kept the gates, were a hundred and seventy-two.

²⁰And the rest of Israel, of the priests and the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, each one in his inheritance. ²¹But the Nēth'-ī-nīms lived in Ō'-phēl; and Zī'-hā and Gis'-pā were over the Nēth'-ī-nīms. ²²The overseer also of the Levites at Jerusalem was Ūz'-zī the son of Bā'-nī, the son of Hāsh-ā-bī'-āh, the son of Māt-tā-nī'-āh, the son of Mī'-chā. Of the sons of Ā'-sāph, the singers were over the business of the house of God. ²³For it was the king's commandment concerning them that a certain portion should be for the singers, due for every day. ²⁴And Pēth-ā-hī'-āh the son of Mē-shēz'-ā-bēel, of the children of Zē'-rāh the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people. ²⁵And for the villages, with their fields, some of the children of Judah lived at Kīr'-jāth-ār'-bā, and in its villages, and at Dī'-bōn, and in its villages, and at Jē-kāb'-zēel, and in its villages, ²⁶and at Jēsh'-ū-ā, and at Mō-lā'-dāh, and at Bēth'-phē-lēt, ²⁷and at Hā'-zār-shū'-āl, and at Bēer-shē'-bā, and in the villages of it, ²⁸and at Ziklag, and at Mē-kō'-nāh, and in its villages, ²⁹and at Ēn-rīm'-mon, and at Zā-rē'-āh, and at Jār'-mūth, ³⁰Zā-nō'-āh, Adullam, in their villages, at Lā'-chish, and the fields of it, at Ā-zē'-kāh, and in its villages. And they lived from Bēer-shē'-bā unto the valley of Hīn'-nom. ³¹The children also of Benjamin from Gē'-bā lived at Mīch'-māsh, and Ai'-jā, and Bethel, and their villages, ³²*and* at Ān'-ā-thōth, Nob, Ān'-ā-nī'-āh, ³³Hā'-zōr, Rā'-māh, Gīt-tā'-im, ³⁴Hā'-dīd, Zē-bō'-im, Nē-bāl'-lāt, ³⁵Lod, and Ō'-nō, the valley of craftsmen. ³⁶And divisions of the Levites were in Judah and in Bethlehem.

¹Now these are the priests and the Levites who went up with Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl the son of Shē-āl'-tī-ēl, and Jēsh'-ū-ā – Sē-raī'-āh, Jeremiah, Ezra, ²Ām-ā-rī'-āh, Māl'-lūch, Hāt'-tūsh, ³Shēch-ā-nī'-āh, Ré'-hūm, Mēr'-ē-mōth, ⁴Īd'-dō, Gīn'-nē-thō, Ā-bī'-jāh, ⁵Mī'-ā-mīn, Mā-ā-dī'-āh, Bīl'-gāh, ⁶Shēm-aī'-āh, and Joi'-ā-rīb, Jē-dai'-āh, ⁷Sāl'-lū, Ā'-mōk, Hil-kī'-āh, Jē-dai'-āh. These were the chief of the priests and of their brothers in the days of Jēsh'-ū-ā. ⁸Moreover the Levites were Jēsh'-ū-ā, Bīn'-nū-ī, Kād'-mī-ēl, Shēr-ē-bī'-āh, Judah. Māt-tā-nī'-āh was over the thanksgiving, he and his brothers. ⁹Also Bāk-bū-kī'-āh and Ūn'-nī, their brothers, were over against them in the watches.

¹⁰And Jēsh'-ū-ā fathered Joi'-ā-kim, Joi'-ā-kim also fathered Ē-lī-āsh'-ib, and Ē-lī-āsh'-ib fathered Joi'-ā-dā, ¹¹and Joi'-ā-dā fathered Jonathan, and Jonathan fathered Jād'-dū-ā. ¹²And in the days of Joi'-ā-kim were priests, the chief of the fathers. From the house of Sē-rai'-āh was Mē-rai'-āh. From Jeremiah was Hān-ā-nī'-āh. ¹³From Ezra was Mē-shūl'-lām. From Ām-ā-rī'-āh was Jē-hō-hā'-nān. ¹⁴From Mēl'-ī-cū was Jonathan. From Shēb-ā-nī'-āh was Joseph. ¹⁵From Hār'-im was Ād'-nā. From Mē-rai'-ōth was Hēl-kā'-ī. ¹⁶From Id'-dō was Zēch-ā-rī'-āh. From Gīn'-nē-thōn was Mē-shūl'-lām. ¹⁷From Ā-bī'-jāh was Zich'-rī. From Mīn-ī'-ā-mīn, of Mō-ā-dī'-āh, was Pīl-tā'-ī. ¹⁸From Bīl'-gāh was Shām'-mū-ā. From Shēm-aī'-āh was Jē-hōn'-ā-thān. ¹⁹And from Joi'-ā-rib was Māt-tē'-naī. From Jē-dai'-āh was Ūz'-zī. ²⁰From Sāl-lā'-ī was Kāl-lā'-ī. From Ā'-mōk was Ē'-bēr. ²¹From Hil-kī'-āh was Hāsh-ā-bī'-āh. From Jē-dai'-āh was Nēth'-ā-nēel.

²⁷And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, they sought the Levites out of all their places to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, and with thanksgiving, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps. ²⁸And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country around Jerusalem, and from the villages of the Nē-tōph'-ā-thī — ²⁹also from the house of Gil'-gāl, and out of the fields of Gē'-bā and Āz-mā'-vēth (for the singers had built themselves villages all around Jerusalem.) ³⁰And the priests and the Levites purified themselves. And they purified the people, and the gates, and the wall. ³¹Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and chose two great companies to give thanks. One went to the right upon the wall toward the Dung Gate. ³²And after them went Hō-shāi'-āh, and half the princes of Judah, ³³and Āz-ā-rī'-āh, Ezra, and Mē-shūl'-lām, ³⁴Judah, and Benjamin, and Shēm-aī'-āh, and Jeremiah, ³⁵and many of the priests' sons with trumpets — Zēch-ā-rī'-āh the son of Jonathan, the son of Shēm-aī'-āh, the son of Māt-tā-nī'-āh, the son of Mī-chai'-āh, the son of Zāc'-cūr, the son of Ā'-sāph, ³⁶and his brothers, Shēm-aī'-āh, and Āz-ā-rā'-ēl, Mīl'-ā-laī, Gil'-ā-laī, Mā-ā'-ī, Nēth'-ā-nēel, and Judah, Hā-nā'-nī, with the musical instruments of David the man of God, and with Ezra the scribe before them.

³⁷And at the Fountain Gate, which was across from them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even to the Water Gate eastward. ³⁸And the other company which gave thanks went across from them, and I after them, and half of the people upon the wall, from beyond the Tower of the Furnaces even to the broad wall, ³⁹and from above the Gate of Ephraim, and above the old gate, and above the Fish Gate, and the tower of Hān'-ā-nēel, and the tower of Mē'-āh, even to the Sheep Gate. And they stood still in the Prison Gate. ⁴⁰So stood the two companies to give thanks in the house of God, and I, and half of the rulers with me. ⁴¹And the priests, Ē-lī'-ā-kīm, Mā-ā-seī'-āh, Mīn-ī'-ā-mīn, Mī-chai'-āh, Ēl-ī-ō-ē'-naī, Zēch-ā-rī'-āh, and Hān-ā-nī'-āh, were with trumpets, ⁴²and Mā-ā-seī'-āh, and Shēm-aī'-āh, and Ēl-ē-ā'-zār, and Ūz'-zī, and Jē-hō-hā'-nān, and Māl-chī'-jāh, and Ē'-lām, and Ē'-zēr. And the singers sang loud, with Jēz-rā-hī'-āh their overseer. ⁴³Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced. For God had made them rejoice with great joy. The wives also and the children rejoiced, so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

⁴⁴And at that time some were chosen over the rooms for the treasuries, for the offerings, for the first-fruits, and for the tithes, to gather to them out of the fields of the cities the portions of the law for the priests and Levites. For Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites who waited. ⁴⁵And both the singers and the gatekeepers kept the charge of their God, and the charge of the cleansing, according to the commandment of David and of Solomon his son. ⁴⁶For in the days of David and Ā'-sāph of old there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God. ⁴⁷And all Israel gave the portions of the singers and the gatekeepers, every day its portion, in the days of Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl and in the days of Nē-hēm-ī'-āh. And they set the holy things apart for the Levites, and the Levites set them apart for the children of Aaron.

¹On that day they read in the book of Moses in the ears of the people. And in it it was found written that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God forever, ²because they did not meet the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Bā'-lāam against them so that he should curse them. However our God turned the curse into a blessing. ³Now when they had heard the law, they separated all the mixed multitude from Israel.

⁴And before this, Ē-li-āsh'-īb the priest, who was set over the rooms of the house of our God, and who was related to Tō-bī'-āh, ⁵and he had prepared for himself a large room where they had in days of old laid the meal offering, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the offerings of the priests. ⁶But in all this time I was not at Jerusalem. For in the thirty-second year of Ār-tā-xēr'-ēš king of Babylon, I came to the king. And after some days I was given permission to leave the king. ⁷And I came to Jerusalem, and understood the evil which Ē-li-āsh'-īb did for Tō-bī'-āh in preparing him a room in the courts of the house of God. ⁸And it grieved me very much. Therefore I threw all the household stuff of Tō-bī'-āh out of the room. ⁹Then I commanded, and they purified the rooms. And I brought there again the vessels of the house of God, with the meal offering and the frankincense.

¹⁰And I saw that the portions of the Levites had not been given to them; for the Levites and the singers, who did the work, had fled each one to his field. ¹¹Then I contended with the rulers and said, Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together and set them in their place. ¹²Then all Judah brought the tithe of the grain and the new wine and the oil into the treasuries. ¹³And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shēl-ē-mī'-āh the priest, and Zā'-dōk the scribe, and of the Levites, Pē-dai'-āh. And next to them was Hā'-nān the son of Zāc'-cūr, the son of Māt-tā-nī'-āh. For they were counted faithful, and their office was to distribute to their brothers. ¹⁴Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and do not wipe out my good deeds which I have done for the house of my God, and for the offices of it.

¹⁵In those days I saw in Judah some treading wine-presses on the Sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and loading asses — and also wine, grapes, and figs, and all kinds of burdens which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. And I testified against them in the day in which they sold food. ¹⁶Men of Tyre also lived in it, who brought fish and all kinds of goods, and sold on the Sabbath to the children of Judah and in Jerusalem. ¹⁷Then I contended with the nobles of Judah and said to them, What evil thing is this that you do, and defile the Sabbath day? ¹⁸Did not your fathers do this, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us and upon this city? Yet you bring more wrath upon Israel by defiling the Sabbath. ¹⁹And when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the Sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and commanded that they should not be opened until after the Sabbath. And I set some of my servants at the gates, so that there should be no burden brought in on the Sabbath day. ²⁰So the merchants and sellers of all kinds of goods stayed the night outside Jerusalem once or twice. ²¹Then I testified against them, and said to them, Why do you stay around the wall? If you do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time on they did not come on the Sabbath. ²²And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the Sabbath day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of Thy mercy.

²³In those days I also saw Jews who had married wives from Āsh'-dōd, from Ammon, and from Moab. ²⁴And their children spoke half in the speech of Āsh'-dōd, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of each people. ²⁵And I contended with them, and cursed them, and struck certain of them, and plucked off their hair. And I made them swear by the name of God, saying, You shall not give your daughters to their sons, or take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves. ²⁶Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? Yet among many nations there was no king like him, who was beloved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel. But women from other lands caused even him to sin. ²⁷Shall we then listen to you, to do all this great evil, to sin against our God in marrying strange wives? ²⁸And one of the sons of Joi'-ā-dā, the son of Ē-lī-āsh'-ib the high priest, was son-in-law to Sān-bāl'-lāt the Hōr'-ōn-ite. Therefore I chased him from me. ²⁹Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood and of the Levites. ³⁰So I cleansed them from all strangers, and appointed charges unto the priests and the Levites, every one in his business, ³¹and for the wood offering, at chosen times, and for the first-fruits. Remember me, O my God, for good!

The Book of ESTHER

¹Now in the days of Ā-hās-ū-ē'-rūs (this is the Ā-hās-ū-ē'-rūs who reigned from India even to Ē-thī-ō'-pī-ā, over a hundred and twenty-seven provinces), ²in those days, when king Ā-hās-ū-ē'-rūs sat upon the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shū'-shān the palace, ³in the third year of his reign, he made a feast unto all his princes and his servants. The power of Persia and Mē'-dī-ā, the nobles and princes of the provinces, were before him ⁴when he showed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honor of his excellent majesty many days, a hundred and eighty days. ⁵And when these days had expired, the king made a feast to all the people who were present in Shū'-shān the palace, both unto great and small, for seven days in the court of the garden of the king's palace. ⁶*There were* white, green, and blue hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble. The beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement of red and blue and white and black marble. ⁷And they gave them drink in vessels of gold (the vessels being different from one another), and royal wine in abundance, according to the state of the king. ⁸And the drinking was according to the law. No one compelling, for so the king had commanded all the officers of his house that they should do according to every man's pleasure. ⁹Also Vāsh'-tī the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ā-hās-ū-ē'-rūs.

¹⁰On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mē'-hū'-mān, Bīz'-thā, Hār-bō'-nā, Bīg'-thā, and Ā-bāg'-thā, Zē'-thār, and Cār'-cās, the seven officers who served in the presence of Ā-hās-ū-ē'-rūs the king, ¹¹to bring Vāsh'-tī the queen before the king with the royal crown, in order to show the people and the princes her beauty — for she was beautiful to look upon. ¹²But the queen Vāsh'-tī refused to come at the king's command by his officers. Therefore the king was very angry, and his anger burned within him. ¹³Then the king said to the wise men who knew the times (for so was the king's manner toward all who knew law and judgment — ¹⁴and the next to him was Cār-shē'-nā, Shē'-thār, Ād-mā'-thā, Tār'-shīsh, Mē'-rēs, Mār-sē'-nā, and Mē-mū'-cān, the seven princes of Persia and Mē'-dī-ā, who saw the king's face and who sat the first in the kingdom), ¹⁵What shall we do to the queen Vāsh'-tī according to law, because she has not done the commandment of the king Ā-hās-ū-ē'-rūs by the officers? ¹⁶And Mē-mū'-cān answered before the king and princes, Vāsh'-tī the queen has not only done wrong to the king, but also to all the princes, and to all the people who are in all the provinces of king Ā-hās-ū-ē'-rūs. ¹⁷For this deed of the queen shall become known to all women, so that their husbands shall be despised in their eyes, and it shall be reported that the king Ā-hās-ū-ē'-rūs commanded Vāsh'-tī the queen to be brought in before him, but she did not come. ¹⁸The ladies of Persia and Mē'-dī-ā shall say the same unto all the king's princes who have heard of the deed of the queen. So there shall be too much contempt and wrath. ¹⁹If it please the king, let there be a royal command from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, so that it may not be changed, that Vāsh'-tī come no more before king Ā-hās-ū-ē'-rūs. And let the king give her royal state unto another who is better than she is. ²⁰And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his empire (for it is great), all the wives shall give their husbands honor, both the great and small. ²¹And the saying pleased the king and the princes. And the king did according to the word of Mē-mū'-cān. ²²For he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to the writing of it, and to every people in their language, so that every man should bear rule in his own house, and that it should be published according to the language of every people.

¹After these things, when the wrath of king Ā-hās-ū-ē'-rūs had calmed down, he remembered Vāsh'-tī and what she had done, and what was ordered against her. ²Then the king's servants who served him said, Let beautiful young virgins be sought for the king. ³And let the king choose officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, so that they may gather together all the beautiful young virgins unto Shū'-shān the palace, to the house of the women, unto the hand of Hē'-gē the king's officer, keeper of the women. And let their ointments be given to them. ⁴And let the young woman who pleases the king be queen instead of Vāsh'-tī. And the thing pleased the king, and he did so.

⁸So when the king's commandment and his order was heard, and when many young women had been gathered together unto Shū'-shān the palace, into the hand of Hē'-gāī, Esther was also brought unto the king's house, into the hand of Hē'-gāī, keeper of the women. ⁹And the young woman pleased him, and she received kindness from him. And he quickly gave her the ointments for herself, with such things as were set aside to her, and seven young women who were fit to be given her, out of the king's house. And he moved her and her maids to the best place in the house of the women. ¹⁰Esther had not revealed her people nor her kindred, for Môr-dē-cā'-ī had commanded her that she should not show it. ¹¹And Môr-dē-cā'-ī walked every day in front of the court of the women's house in order to know how Esther did and what was to become of her.

¹²Now when every maid's turn had come to go in to king Ā-hās-ū-ē'-rūs, after she had been twelve months, according to the law of the women (for so the days of their anointing were done — six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odors, and with other things for the purifying of the women), ¹³then indeed the young woman came to the king. Whatever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women to the king's house. ¹⁴She went in the evening, and on the next day she returned to the second house of the women, into the hand of Shā-āsh'-gāz, the king's officer who kept the concubines. She did not come in to the king any more, unless the king delighted in her, and she was called by name.

¹⁵Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Āb'-ī-hāil the uncle of Môr-dē-cā'-ī, who had taken her for his daughter, had come to go in unto the king, she asked nothing but what was chosen by Hē'-gāi the king's officer, the keeper of the women. And Esther had favor in the sight of all who looked upon her. ¹⁶So Esther was taken to king Ā-hās-ū-ē'-rūs into his royal house in the tenth month, which is the month Tē'-bēth, in the seventh year of his reign. ¹⁷And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she received grace and favor in his sight more than all the virgins. So much so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vāsh'-tī. ¹⁸Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, Esther's feast. And he ordered a rest for the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king. ¹⁹And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Môr-dē-cā'-ī sat in the king's gate. ²⁰Esther had not yet revealed her kindred nor her people, as Môr-dē-cā'-ī had commanded her. For Esther obeyed the command of Môr-dē-cā'-ī as she did when she was brought up with him.

²¹In those days, while Môr-dē-cā'-ī sat in the king's gate, two of the king's officers, Big'-thān and Tē'-rēsh, of those who kept the door, were angry and tried to lay a hand on king Ā-hās-ū-ē'-rūs. ²²And the thing was known to Môr-dē-cā'-ī, who told it to Esther the queen. And Esther told the king of it in Môr-dē-cā'-ī's name. ²³And when the matter was searched into, it was found out. Therefore they were both hanged on a tree. And it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king.

¹After these things king Ā-hās-ū-ē-rūs promoted Hā'-mān the son of Hām-mē-dā'-thā the Āg'-ā-gīte, and lifted him up, and set his seat above all the princes who were with him. ²And all the king's servants who were in the king's gate bowed and worshipped Hā'-mān, for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mōr-dē-cā'-ī did not bow nor worship. ³Then the king's servants who were in the king's gate said to Mōr-dē-cā'-ī, Why do you break the king's commandment? ⁴Now when they spoke daily unto him, and when he did not listen to them, they told Hā'-mān, to see if Mōr-dē-cā'-ī's matters would stand. For he had told them that he was a Jew. ⁵And when Hā'-mān saw that Mōr-dē-cā'-ī did not bow nor worship him, then Hā'-mān was full of wrath. ⁶And he scorned to lay hands only on Mōr-dē-cā'-ī, for they had revealed to him the people of Mōr-dē-cā'-ī. Therefore Hā'-mān sought to destroy all the Jews who were throughout the whole kingdom of Ā-hās-ū-ē-rūs, the people of Mōr-dē-cā'-ī.

⁷In the first month, that is, the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ā-hās-ū-ē-rūs, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Hā'-mān from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month Ā'-dār.

⁸And Hā'-mān said to king Ā-hās-ū-ē-rūs, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people, in all the provinces of your kingdom. And their laws are different from all people, neither do they keep the king's laws. Therefore it is not for the king's gain to allow them to live. ⁹If it pleases the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed. And I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those who have charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries. ¹⁰And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it to Hā'-mān the son of Hām-mē-dā'-thā the Āg'-ā-gīte, the Jews' enemy. ¹¹And the king said to Hā'-mān, The silver is given to you, the people also, to do with them as seems good to you. ¹²Then the king's scribes were called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Hā'-mān had commanded to the king's lieutenants, and to the governors who were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province, according to the writing of it, and to every people according to their language. It was written in the name of king Ā-hās-ū-ē-rūs and sealed with the king's ring. ¹³And the letters were sent by postal riders into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, upon the thirteenth of the twelfth month, which is the month Ā'-dār, and to take what they owned for a prize. ¹⁴The copy of the writing, for a commandment to be given in every province, was published unto all people so that they should be ready for that day. ¹⁵The posts went out, being hurried by the king's commandment, and the decree was given in Shù'-shān the palace. And the king and Hā'-mān sat down to drink, but the city Shù'-shān was perplexed.

¹When Môr-dē-cā'-ī understood all that was done, Môr-dē-cā'-ī tore his clothes and put on sackcloth with ashes and went out into the middle of the city, and cried with a loud and bitter cry. ²And he even came before the king's gate—for none might enter into the king's gate clothed with sackcloth. ³And in every province, wherever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping and wailing. And many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

⁴So Esther's maids and her officers came and told her. Then the queen was exceedingly grieved, and she sent clothing to clothe Môr-dē-cā'-ī, and to take away his sackcloth from him. But he did not receive it. ⁵Then Esther called for Hā'-tāch, one of the king's officers whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Môr-dē-cā'-ī to know what it was and why it was. ⁶So Hā'-tāch went forth to Môr-dē-cā'-ī, to the street of the city which was in front of the king's gate. ⁷And Môr-dē-cā'-ī told him of all that had happened to him, and of the sum of the money which Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jews in order to destroy them. ⁸Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree which was given at Shù'-shān in order to destroy them, to show it to Esther and to declare it to her, and to command her that she should go in to the king to beg grace of him, and to seek help for her people. ⁹And Hā'-tāch came and told Esther the words of Môr-dē-cā'-ī.

¹⁰Again Esther spoke to Hā'-tāch, and gave him commandment to Môr-dē-cā'-ī—¹¹All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that whoever, whether man or woman, shall come to the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden scepter so that he may live. But I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days. ¹²And they told Môr-dē-cā'-ī Esther's words. ¹³Then Môr-dē-cā'-ī commanded them to answer Esther, Do not think within yourself that you shall escape in the king's house more than all the Jews. ¹⁴For if you are completely silent at this time, then relief and deliverance shall arise to the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house shall be destroyed. And who knows whether you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this?

¹⁵Then Esther told them to return Môr-dē-cā'-ī this answer—¹⁶Go, gather together all the Jews who are present in Shù'-shān, and fast for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day. My maidens and I will also fast in the same way. And so I will go in unto the king, which is not according to the law. And if I perish, I perish. ¹⁷So Môr-dē-cā'-ī went his way and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

¹Now on the third day Esther put on her royal clothing, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, across from the king's house. And the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, across from the gate of the house. ²And when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, she received favor in his sight. And the king held out to Esther the golden scepter that was in his hand. So Esther drew near and touched the top of the scepter. ³Then the king said to her, What do you desire, queen Esther? And what is your wish? It shall be given to you even to half of the kingdom. ⁴And Esther answered, If it seems good unto the king, let the king and Haman come today to the banquet which I have prepared for him. ⁵Then the king said, Cause Haman to hurry so that he may do as Esther has said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet which Esther had prepared.

⁶And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, What is your petition that it shall be granted unto you? And what is your request? It shall be performed even to half of the kingdom. ⁷Then Esther answered and said, As to my petition and my request, ⁸if I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet which I shall prepare for them, and I will do tomorrow as the king has said.

⁹Then Haman went forth that day joyful and with a glad heart. But when Haman saw Môr-dē-cā'-ī in the king's gate, that he did not stand up nor move for him, he was full of anger against Môr-dē-cā'-ī. ¹⁰But Haman held himself in. And when he came home, he sent and called for his friends and Zē'-rēsh his wife. ¹¹And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things in which the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king. ¹²Moreover Haman said, Yes, Esther the queen let no man but me come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared. And also tomorrow I am invited to her banquet, with the king. ¹³Yet all this avails me nothing as long as I see Môr-dē-cā'-ī the Jew sitting at the king's gate.

¹⁴Then Zē'-rēsh his wife and all his friends said to him, Let a gallows fifty cubits high be made, and tomorrow speak to the king that Môr-dē-cā'-ī may be hanged on it. Then go in merrily with the king to the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman, and he caused the gallows to be made.

¹On that night the king could not sleep, and he commanded to bring the book of records of the chronicles. And they were read before the king. ²And it was found written that Môr-dē-cā'-ī had told of Big-thā'-nā and Tē'-rēsh, two of the king's officers, the keepers of the door who tried to lay a hand on the king Ā-hās-ū-ē'-rūs. ³And the king said, What honor and dignity has been done to Môr-dē-cā'-ī for this? Then the king's servants who served him said, Nothing has been done for him.

⁴And the king said, Who is in the court? Now Haman had come into the outer court of the king's house to speak to the king to hang Môr-dē-cā'-ī on the gallows which he had prepared for him. ⁵And the king's servants said to him, Behold, Haman stands in the court. And the king said, Let him come in. ⁶So Haman came in. And the king said to him, What shall be done to the man whom the king delights to honor? Now Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honor more than to myself? ⁷And Haman answered the king, For the man whom the king delights to honor, ⁸let the royal clothing be brought, which the king usually wears, and the horse that the king rides upon, and the royal crown which is set upon his head. ⁹And let this clothing and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes so that they may dress the man whom the king delights to honor, and bring him on horseback through the streets of the city, and proclaim before him, This is what shall be done to the man whom the king delights to honor. ¹⁰Then the king said to Haman, Make haste! Take the clothing and the horse, as you have said, and do even so to Môr-dē-cā'-ī the Jew, who sits at the king's gate. Do not fail to do any of all the things you have spoken. ¹¹Then Haman took the clothing and the horse and dressed Môr-dē-cā'-ī, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, This is what shall be done to the man whom the king delights to honor!

¹²And Môr-dē-cā'-ī came again to the king's gate. But Haman hurried to his house mourning, and having his head covered. ¹³And Haman told Zē'-rēsh his wife and all his friends everything that had happened to him. Then his wise men and Zē'-rēsh his wife said to him, If Môr-dē-cā'-ī is of the seed of the Jews, before whom you have begun to fall, you shall not prevail against him but shall surely fall before him. ¹⁴And while they were still talking with him, the king's officers came. And they hurried to bring Haman to the banquet which Esther had prepared.

¹So the king and Haman came to the banquet of Esther the queen. ²And the king said again to Esther on the second day of the banquet of wine, What is your petition, queen Esther, that it may be granted you? And what is your request? And it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom. ³Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favor in your sight, O king, and if it pleases the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request. ⁴For we are sold, my people and I, to be destroyed, to be killed, and to perish. But if we had been sold for men-slaves and women-slaves, I would have held my tongue, although the enemy could not make up for the king's damage. ⁵Then the king Ā-hās-ū-ē-rūs answered and said to Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he who dares presume in his heart to do so? ⁶And Esther said, The man who is our adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen.

⁷And the king, arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath, went into the palace garden. And Haman stood up to beg for his life from Esther the queen, for he saw that evil was determined against him by the king. ⁸Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine. And Haman had fallen upon the bed on which Esther was. Then the king said, Will he also force the queen before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face. ⁹And Hār-bō'nāh, one of the officers, said before the king, Also look! the gallows fifty cubits high which Haman made for Mōr-dē-cā'-ī, who had spoken good for the king, stands in the house of Haman. Then the king said, Hang him on it! ¹⁰So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mōr-dē-cā'-ī. Then the king's wrath was pacified.

¹On that day king Ā-hās-ū-ē-rūs gave the house of Haman the Jews' enemy to Esther the queen. And Mōr-dē-cā'-ī came before the king, for Esther had told what he was to her. ²And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mōr-dē-cā'-ī. And Esther set Mōr-dē-cā'-ī over the house of Haman.

³And Esther spoke yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and begged him with tears to put away the evil of Haman the Āg'-ā-gīte, and his plot which he had plotted against the Jews. ⁴Then the king held out the golden scepter toward Esther. So Esther arose and stood before the king, ⁵and said, If it please the king, and if I have found favor in his sight, and if the thing is right before the king, and if I am pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to bring back the letters (a sly plan by Haman the son of Hām-mē-dā'-thā the Āg'-ā-gīte), which he wrote to destroy the Jews who are in all the king's provinces. ⁶For how can I bear to see the evil that shall come upon my people? Or how can I endure to see the slaughter of my kindred?

⁷Then the king Ā-hās-ū-ē'-rūs said to Esther the queen and to Môr-dē-cā'-ī the Jew, Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and have hanged him upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jews. ⁸And you write for the Jews as it pleases you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring. For the writing which is written in the king's name and sealed with the king's ring, no man may turn back. ⁹Then the king's scribes were called at that time in the third month, that is, the month Sī'-vān, on the twenty-third of it. And it was written according to all that Môr-dē-cā'-ī commanded to the Jews, and to the lieutenants and the governors and rulers of the provinces which are from India to Ē-thī-ō'-pī-ā, a hundred and twenty-seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing of it, and to every people in their language, and to the Jews according to their writing and according to their language. ¹⁰And he wrote in the name of king Ā-hās-ū-ē'-rūs and sealed it with the king's ring. And he sent letters by riders on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young drōm-ē-dār'-ies. ¹¹In them the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to kill and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province who desired to attack them, both little ones and women, and to take what they owned for a prize, ¹²upon one day in all the provinces of king Ā-hās-ū-ē'-rūs — upon the thirteenth of the twelfth month, which is the month Ā'-dār. ¹³The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was announced to all people, even that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies. ¹⁴So the posts that rode upon mules and camels went out, being hurried and pressed on by the king's commandment. And the order was given at Shū'-shān the palace.

¹⁵And Môr-dē-cā'-ī went out from the presence of the king in royal clothing of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple. And the city of Shū'-shān rejoiced and was glad. ¹⁶The Jews had light and gladness and joy and honor. ¹⁷And in every province, and in every city where the king's commandment and his order came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land became Jews, for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

¹Now in the twelfth month, that is, the month Ā'-dār, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his order came to be done, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them (though it was turned around, so that the Jews had rule over the ones who hated them), ²the Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ā-hās-ū-ē-rūs, in order to lay hand on any who sought their harm. And no man could withstand them, for the fear of them fell upon all people. ³And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants and the governors and officers of the king helped the Jews, because the fear of Môr-dē-cā'-ī fell upon them. ⁴For Môr-dē-cā'-ī was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces. For this man Môr-dē-cā'-ī became greater and greater. ⁵So the Jews struck all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they would unto those who hated them. ⁶And in Shû'-shān the palace the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men. ⁷And Pār-shān-dā'-thā, and Dāl'-phōn, and Ās-pā'-thā, ⁸and Pôr-ā'-thā, and Ā-dā'-lī-ā, and Ār-ī-dā'-thā, ⁹and Pār-māsh'-tā, and Ar'-ī-saī, and Ār'-ī-daī, and Vā-jēz'-ā-thā, ¹⁰they killed the ten sons of Haman the son of Hām-mē-dā'-thā, the enemy of the Jews. But they did not lay their hands on the spoil. ¹¹On that day the number of those who were killed in Shû'-shān the palace was brought before the king.

¹²And the king said to Esther the queen, The Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men in Shû'-shān the palace, and the ten sons of Haman. What have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? Now what is your petition, that it may be granted you? Or what further request do you have? And it shall be done. ¹³Then Esther said, If it pleases the king, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Shû'-shān to do tomorrow also according to this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows. ¹⁴And the king commanded it to be done so. And the order was given at Shû'-shān, and they hanged Haman's ten sons. ¹⁵For the Jews who were in Shû'-shān gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Ā'-dār, and killed three hundred men at Shû'-shān. But they did not lay their hands upon the spoil. ¹⁶But the other Jews who were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and killed seventy-five thousand of their foes. But they did not lay their hands on the spoil.

¹⁷And on the thirteenth day of the month Ā'-dār, and on the fourteenth day of the same, they rested and made it a day of feasting and gladness. ¹⁸But the Jews who were at Shû'-shān gathered together on the thirteenth of it and on the fourteenth of it. And on the fifteenth of the same, they rested and made it a day of feasting and gladness. ¹⁹Therefore the Jews of the villages, who lived in the unwalled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Ā'-dār a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and a day of sending portions to one another.

²⁰And Môr-dē-cā'-ī wrote these things, and sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of the king Ā-hās-ū-ē-rūs, near and far, ²¹to establish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Ā'-dār, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly, ²²as the days in which the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day — that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions to one another, and gifts to the poor. ²³And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Môr-dē-cā'-ī had written to them — ²⁴because Haman the son of Hām-mē-dā'-thā the Āg'-ā-gīte, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to finish them and to destroy them. ²⁵But when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked plot which he had plotted against the Jews should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows. ²⁶Therefore they called these days Pū'-rīm after the name of Pur. Therefore for all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come to them, ²⁷the Jews ordained, and took upon them and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their time every year — ²⁸and that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city — and that these days of Pū'-rīm should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed.

²⁹Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Āb'-ī-hāil, and Môr-dē-cā'-ī the Jew, wrote with all authority to confirm this second letter of Pū'-rīm. ³⁰And he sent the letters to all the Jews, to the hundred and twenty-seven provinces of the kingdom of Ā-hās-ū-ē'-rūs, with words of peace and truth, ³¹in order to confirm these days of Pū'-rīm in their set times, according as Môr-dē-cā'-ī the Jew and Esther the queen had ordered them, and as they had decreed for themselves and for their seed the matters of the fastings and of their cry. ³²And the order of Esther confirmed these matters of Pū'-rīm. And it was written in the book.

¹And the king Ā-hās-ū-ē'-rūs laid a tax upon the land and upon the isles of the sea. ²And all the acts of his power and of might, and the declaration of the greatness of Môr-dē-cā'-ī, with which the king made him great, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Mē'-dī-ā and Persia? ³For Môr-dē-cā'-ī the Jew was next to king Ā-hās-ū-ē'-rūs and great among the Jews, and pleasing to the multitude of his brothers, seeking the wealth of his people and speaking peace to all his seed.

The Book of JOB

¹There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job. And that man was perfect and upright, and one who feared God and turned aside from evil. ²And there were born to him seven sons and three daughters. ³His possessions also were seven thousand sheep and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she-asses, and a very great household — so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the east. ⁴And his sons went and feasted in their houses, each one on his day. And they sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. ⁵And when they had gone around the days of their feasting, Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all. For Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned and cursed God in their hearts. So Job did always.

⁶Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD. And Satan also came among them. ⁷And the LORD said to Satan, Where do you come from? Then Satan answered the LORD and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. ⁸And the LORD said to Satan, Have you set your heart against My servant Job, because there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and upright man, one who fears God and turns away from evil? ⁹Then Satan answered the LORD and said, Does Job fear God for nothing? ¹⁰Hast Thou not made a hedge around him, and around his house, and around all that he has on every side? Thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land. ¹¹But put forth Thy hand now, and touch all that he has, and he will curse Thee to Thy face. ¹²And the LORD said to Satan, Behold, all that he has is in your power. Only do not put forth your hand upon him. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

¹³And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house. ¹⁴And there came a messenger to Job and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them. ¹⁵And the Să-bē'-āns swooped down and took them away. Yea, they have killed the servants with the edge of the sword. And I only have escaped alone to tell you. ¹⁶While he was still speaking, there also came another and said, The fire of God has fallen from the heavens and has burned up the sheep and the servants, and destroyed them. And I only have escaped alone to tell you. ¹⁷While he was still speaking, there also came another and said, The Chāl-dē'-āns made out three bands and swooped down upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and have killed the servants with the edge of the sword. And I only have escaped alone to tell you. ¹⁸While he was still speaking, there also came another and said, Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house. ¹⁹And, behold, a great wind came from the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead. And I only have escaped alone to tell you. ²⁰Then Job arose, and tore his robe, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground and worshipped. ²¹And he said, I came naked out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return there. The LORD gave, and the LORD has taken away. Blessed be the name of the LORD. ²²In all this Job did not sin, nor charge God foolishly.

¹Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD. And Satan also came among them to present himself before the LORD. ²And the LORD said to Satan, Where do you come from? And Satan answered the LORD and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. ³And the LORD said unto Satan, Have you set your heart unto My servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one who fears God and turns away from evil? And still he is keeping hold of his integrity, although you moved Me against him to destroy him without cause. ⁴And Satan answered the LORD and said, Skin for skin — yea, all that a man has he will give for his life. ⁵Put forth Thy hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse Thee to Thy face. ⁶And the LORD said to Satan, Behold, he is in your hand — but save his life.

⁷So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD and struck Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot to the top of his head. ⁸And he took a broken piece of pottery to scrape himself with. And he sat down among the ashes.

¹¹Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that had come upon him, they each one came from his own place — Ē-lí-phāz the Tē-mān-īte, and Bil'-dād the Shú'-hīte, and Zō'-phār the Nā-ām'-ā-thite. For they had met together to come to mourn with him and to comfort him. ¹²And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and did not know him, they lifted up their voice and wept. And each one tore his robe, and they sprinkled dust upon their heads toward Heaven. ¹³So they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights. And no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his grief was very great.

¹After this Job opened his mouth and cursed his day. ²And Job spoke and said, ³Let the day perish in which I was born, and the night in which it was said,

A man-child is conceived.

⁴Let that day be darkness!
Let not God look upon it from above, neither let the light shine upon it.

⁵Let darkness and the shadow of death claim it.

Let a cloud dwell upon it;
Let the blackness of the day terrify it.

⁶As for that night, let darkness seize upon it!

Let it not rejoice among the days of the year,

Let it not come into the number of the months.

⁷Lo, let that night be silent;
let no joyful voice come in it.

⁸Let those curse it who curse the day, who are ready to stir up Lē-vī'-ā-thān.

⁹Let the stars of its twilight be dark;
let it look for light, but have none, neither let it see the dawning of the day —

¹⁰because it did not shut up the doors of my mother's womb, nor hide sorrow from my eyes.

¹¹Why did I not give up the spirit when I came out of the belly?

¹²Why did the knees go before me? or why the breasts, that I should suck?

¹³For now I should have lain still and been quiet;

I should have slept. Then I would have been at rest

¹⁴with kings and wise men of the earth, who built ruins for themselves,

¹⁵or with princes who had gold, who filled their houses with silver.

¹⁶Or as a hidden untimely birth I would not have been,
like infants who never saw light.

¹⁷There the wicked cease from troubling, and there the weary are at rest.

¹⁸There the prisoners are at ease together;
they hear not the voice of the slave driver.

¹⁹The small and the great are there, and the slave is free from his master.

²⁰Why is light given to him who is in misery, and life to the bitter in soul?

²¹to those who long for death, but it comes not;
and dig for it more than for hidden treasures?

²²to those who rejoice exceedingly, and are glad, when they can find the grave?

²³Why is light given to a man whose way is hidden, whom God has hedged in?

²⁴For my sighing comes before I eat, and my groanings are poured out like the waters.

²⁵For the thing which I greatly feared has come upon me, and that which I was afraid of has come to me.

²⁶I was not in safety, nor did I have rest,

Nor was I quiet; yet trouble comes.

CHAPTER 4

¹Then Ē-li'-phāz the Tē'-mān-ite answered:

²If we try a word with you, will you be grieved?

But who can withhold himself from speaking?

³Behold, you have instructed many, and you have made the weak hands strong.

⁴Your words have upheld him who was falling, and you have made strong the feeble knees.

⁵But now it has come upon you, and you faint.
 It touches you, and you are troubled.

⁶Is not your fear your hope?
Is not your hope the uprightness of your ways?

⁷Remember, I pray you, who ever perished who was innocent?

Or where were the righteous cut off?

⁸As I have seen, the ones who plow iniquity and sow wickedness reap the same.

⁹By the blast of God they perish, and by the breath of His nostrils they are destroyed.

¹⁰The roar of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and the teeth of the young lions, are broken.

¹¹The strong lion perishes for lack of prey, and the strong lion's cubs are scattered abroad.

¹²Now a thing was secretly brought to me, and my ear received a little of it.

¹³In thoughts from the visions of the night,
when deep sleep falls upon men,

¹⁴fear came upon me, and trembling, which made all my bones shake.

¹⁵Then a spirit passed before my face;
the hair of my flesh stood up.

¹⁶It stood still,
but I could not tell the form of it.
An image was before my eyes;
there was silence; then I heard a voice,

¹⁷Shall man who dies be more just than God?

Shall a man be more pure than his Maker?

¹⁸Behold, He puts no trust in His servants, and His angels He charges with folly!

¹⁹How much less in those who live in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust,
who are crushed before the moth?

²⁰They are destroyed from morning till evening;
they perish forever without anyone caring.

²¹Does not the loftiness which is in them go away?
They die, even without wisdom.

CHAPTER 5

¹Call now — is there anyone who will answer you?
And to which of the saints will you turn?

²For wrath kills the foolish man, and envy slays the silly one.

³I have seen the foolish taking root, but suddenly I cursed his dwelling-place.

⁴His children are far from safety, and they are crushed in the gate, neither is there any to deliver them.

⁵*Their* harvest the hungry eats, and takes it even out of the thorns;
and the robber swallows up their wealth.

⁶For affliction does not come forth from the dust, neither does trouble spring up out of the ground;

⁷but man is born to trouble, as the sparks fly upward.

⁸I would seek unto God, and unto God I would commit my cause —

⁹*to God* who does things great and beyond search;
marvelous things without number,

¹⁰who gives rain upon the earth and sends waters upon the field,

¹¹to set upon high those who are low, so that those who mourn may be lifted up to safety.

¹²He brings to nothing the plots of the crafty,
so that their hands cannot do wisely.

¹³He takes the wise in their own craftiness;
and the counsel of the wily is carried headlong.

¹⁴They meet with darkness in the daytime, and grope in the noonday as in the night.

- ¹⁵But He saves the poor from the sword,
from their mouth,
and from the hand of the mighty.
- ¹⁶So the poor have hope,
and iniquity shuts her mouth.
- ¹⁷Behold, happy is the man whom God
corrects.
Therefore do not despise the chastening of the Almighty.
- ¹⁸For He makes sore, and binds up;
He wounds, and His hands make whole.
- ¹⁹He will deliver you in six troubles;
yea, in seven no evil shall touch you.
- ²⁰In famine He shall redeem you from death;
and in war from the power of the sword.
- ²¹You shall be hidden from the whip of the tongue;
neither shall you be afraid of robbery when it comes.
- ²²At destruction and famine you shall laugh;
neither shall you be afraid of the beasts of the earth.
- ²³For you shall be in covenant with the stones of the field; and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with you.
- ²⁴And you shall know that your tent is in peace;
and you shall visit your fold, and shall miss nothing.
- ²⁵You shall know also that your seed shall be great, and your offspring as the grass of the earth.
- ²⁶You shall come to your grave in a full age, like a shock of grain comes in its season.
- ²⁷Behold this; we have searched it, it is so.
Hear it and know it for your good.
- ³For now it would be heavier than the sand of the sea;
therefore are my words swallowed up.
- ⁴For the arrows of the Almighty are within me, the poison of which drinks up my spirit;
the terrors of God set themselves in order against me.
- ⁵Does the wild ass bray when he has grass?
Or does the ox low over his fodder?
- ⁶Can that which has no taste be eaten without salt?
Or is there any taste in the white of an egg?
- ⁷My soul refuses to touch them;
they are as sorrowful food to me.
- ⁸Oh that I might have my desire, and that God would grant me the thing that I long for!
- ⁹Even that it would please God to destroy me;
that He would loose His hand and cut me off!
- ¹⁰Then should I yet have comfort;
yea, I would rejoice in pain, though He did not spare me;
for I have not hidden the words of the Holy One.
- ¹¹What is my strength, that I should hope?
And what is my end, that I should be patient?
- ¹²Is my strength the strength of stones?
Or is my flesh of brass?
- ¹³Is not my help in me?
And is wisdom fully driven away from me?
- ¹⁴To him who is afflicted, pity is due from his friends, but he forsakes the fear of the Almighty.
- ¹⁵My brothers have dealt deceitfully as a brook,
as the streams of brooks they pass away;
¹⁶*brooks* which are black because of the ice, and in which the snow is hidden.

CHAPTER 6

- ¹Then Job answered and said, ²Oh that my grief were but weighed, and my ruin laid in the balances together!

- 17When they become warm, they go away;
when it is hot, they vanish out of their place.
- 18The paths of their way are turned aside;
they go to nothing and are lost.
- 19The troops of Tē'-mā looked,
the companies of Shē'-bā hoped for them.
- 20They were ashamed because they had hoped;
they came there and were ashamed.
- 21For now you are like them;
you see my casting down, and are afraid.
- 22Did I say, Give to me?
or, Offer a bribe for me from your wealth?
- 23or, Deliver me from the enemy's hand?
or, Redeem me from the hand of the mighty?
- 24Teach me, and I will be silent;
and cause me to understand where I have gone astray.
- 25Right words are powerful,
but what does your arguing argue?
- 26Do you intend to criticize words, and the speeches of one who is hopeless, that are as wind?
- 27Yea, you cause anger to fall on the fatherless, and you dig a pit for your friend.
- 28And now, please look upon me;
for if I lie, it is before your face.
- 29Turn back, I pray you, let there be no sin;
yea, return again, my righteousness is in this matter.
- 30Is there wrong in my tongue?
Cannot my taste tell things that are wrong?
- and as a hireling looks for his wages, 3so I am made to possess months of vanity, and weary nights are appointed to me.
- 4When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise?
But the night is long,
and I am full of tossing to and fro until the dawning of the day.
- 5My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust;
my skin is broken and has run afresh.
- 6My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are ended without hope.
- 7O remember that my life is a breath;
my eye shall no more see good.
- 8The eye of him who has seen me shall see me no more;
Your eyes are upon me, and I am gone.
- 9As the cloud falls and vanishes away, so he who goes down to the grave shall come up no more.
- 10He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more.
- 11Therefore I will not hold my mouth;
I will speak in the trouble of my spirit;
I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.
- 12Am I like the sea, or a whale, that Thou dost set a watch over me?
- 13When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint —
- 14then Thou dost scare me with dreams, and dost terrify me with visions; 15so that my soul chooses strangling, and death rather than my life.
- 16I despise it; I would not live always;
let me alone, for my days are vanity.
- 17What is man, that Thou shouldst magnify him?
and that Thou shouldst set Thy heart upon him?
- 18and that Thou shouldst remember him every morning, and try him every moment?
- 19Wilt Thou never look away from me,

CHAPTER 7

- 1Is there not a warfare to man upon earth?
Are not his days also like the days of a hireling?
- 2As a servant earnestly desires the shadow, nor let me alone until I swallow down my spittle?

²⁰I have sinned. What shall I do to Thee, O Thou watcher of men?

Why hast Thou set me as a mark against Thee,
so that I am a burden to myself?

²¹And why dost Thou not pardon my transgression, and take away my iniquity?
For now I shall sleep in the dust, and Thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

CHAPTER 8

¹Then Bil'-dād the Shû'-hite answered and said,

²How long will you speak these things, since the words of your mouth are like a strong wind?

³Does God twist judgment?

Or does the Almighty twist justice?

⁴If your children have sinned against Him, and if He has cast them away for their transgression,

⁵if you would seek earnestly to God and make your prayer unto the Almighty,

⁶if you were pure and upright, surely now He would awake for you, and make the dwelling-place of your righteousness blessed.

⁷Though your beginning was small, yet your end should greatly increase.

⁸For, I pray you, ask of the former age, and prepare yourself to the search of their fathers —

⁹for we are but of yesterday and know nothing, because our days upon earth are a shadow —

¹⁰shall they not teach you, and tell you, and speak words out of their heart?

¹¹Can the rush grow up without mire?
Can the reed-grass grow without water?

¹²While it is yet in its greenness, and not cut down,
it dries out before any other herb.

¹³So are the paths of all who forget
God;

and the hope of the ungodly shall perish.

¹⁴*His* hope shall be cut off, and his trust shall be in a spider's web.

¹⁵He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand;
he shall hold fast to it, but it shall not endure.

¹⁶He is green before the sun, and his branches shoot forth in his garden.

¹⁷His roots are wrapped around the heap, and he sees the place of stones.

¹⁸If he is destroyed from his place, then it shall deny him: I have not seen you.

¹⁹Behold, this is the joy of his way, and out of the earth shall others grow.

²⁰Behold, God will not cast away an innocent man,
neither will He help the evil-doers,

²¹until He fills your mouth with laughter, and your lips with rejoicing.

²²Those who hate you shall be clothed with shame;
and the tent of the wicked shall be no more.

CHAPTER 9

¹Then Job answered and said,

²Truly I know it is so, but how should man be just with God?

³If he will argue with Him, he cannot answer Him one of a thousand.

⁴*He* is wise in heart, and mighty in strength.

Who has hardened himself against Him and been blessed —

⁵*He* who removes the mountains, and they know it not, when He overturns them in His anger;

⁶*He* who shakes the earth out of its place,
and the pillars of it tremble;

- ⁷He who commands the sun, and it does not rise;
and seals up the stars;
- ⁸who alone stretches out the heavens, and walks upon the waves of the sea;
- ⁹who made the Bear, Ōr-ī'-on,
and Plei'-ā-dēs, and the chambers of the south;
- ¹⁰who does great things past finding out;
yea, marvelous things without number?
- ¹¹Lo, He goes by me, and I see Him not;
He passes on also, but I do not perceive Him.
- ¹²Behold, He takes away — who can turn Him back?
Who will say to Him, What doest Thou?
- ¹³God will not withdraw His anger;
the helpers of pride stoop under Him.
- ¹⁴How much less shall I answer Him, and choose my arguments with Him?
- ¹⁵Whom, though I were righteous, yet I would not answer, but for my judgment I pray unto Him.
- ¹⁶If I had called and He had answered me, yet would I not believe that He had listened to my voice —
- ¹⁷He who breaks me with a tempest, and multiplies my wounds without cause;
- ¹⁸who will not allow me to take my breath,
but fills me with bitterness.
- ¹⁹If I speak of strength, lo, He is mighty!
And if of judgment, who shall set me a time?
- ²⁰If I justify myself, my own mouth shall condemn me;
though I am perfect, He shall prove me perverse.
- ²¹*Though* I were perfect, yet I would not know my soul.
I would despise my life.
- ²²It is all the same — therefore I say,
He destroys the perfect and the wicked.
- ²³If the whip kills suddenly,
He will mock at the calamity of the innocent.
- ²⁴The earth is given into the hand of the wicked;
He covers the faces of its judges;
if it is not He, then who is it?
- ²⁵Now my days are swifter than a runner;
they flee away, they see no good.
- ²⁶They have passed away like the swift ships;
like the eagle who swoops on the prey.
- ²⁷If I say, I will forget my complaint,
I will depart from my heaviness and be of good cheer,
- ²⁸I am afraid of all my sorrows;
I know that Thou wilt not hold me innocent.
- ²⁹I shall become condemned,
why then should I labor in vain?
- ³⁰If I wash myself with snow water, and make my hands ever so clean,
- ³¹yet Thou wilt plunge me into the ditch, and my own clothes shall despise me.
- ³²For He is not a man, as I am, that I should answer Him, that we should come together in judgment.
- ³³Neither is there any mediator between us, who might lay his hand on us both.
- ³⁴Let Him take His rod away from me, and let not His fear make me afraid;
- ³⁵then would I speak and not fear Him;
for it is not so with me.

CHAPTER 10

- ¹My soul is weary of my life;
I will leave my complaint upon myself;
I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.
- ²I will say to God, Do not condemn me;
make me know why Thou dost contend with me.
- ³Is it good unto Thee that Thou shouldst press down, that Thou shouldst despise the work of Thy hands,

- and shine upon the wisdom of the wicked?
⁴Hast Thou eyes of flesh?
 Or dost Thou see as a man sees?
⁵Are Thy days like the days of man?
 Are Thy years like man's days, ⁶that Thou dost seek out my iniquity, and search for my sin?
⁷Thou knowest that I am not wicked; and there is none who can deliver out of Thy hand.
⁸Thy hands have made me and shaped me, together all around;
 yet Thou dost destroy me.
⁹Remember, I beseech Thee, that Thou hast formed me as the clay; and wilt Thou bring me into the dust again?
¹⁰Hast Thou not poured me out like milk, and curdled me like cheese?
¹¹Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh,
 and hast fenced me with bones and sinews.
¹²Thou hast granted me life and favor, and Thy providence has preserved
 my spirit.
¹³And these things hast Thou hidden in Thy heart;
 I know that this is with Thee.
¹⁴If I sin, when Thou dost mark me, and Thou wilt not acquit me from my iniquity.
¹⁵If I am wicked, woe unto me;
 and if I am righteous, I will not lift up my head — being filled with shame, and looking upon my affliction.
¹⁶For it increases! Thou dost hunt me as a fierce lion;
 and again Thou showest Thyself marvelous upon me.
¹⁷Thou dost renew Thy witnesses against me,
 and dost increase Thy anger upon
 me;
 army after army is against me.
¹⁸Why then hast Thou brought me forth out of the womb?
 Oh that I had given up the spirit, and no eye had seen me!
- ¹⁹I should have been as though I had not been;
 I would have been carried from the womb to the grave.
²⁰Are not my days few?
 Cease then, and let me alone, that I may take comfort a little ²¹before I go where I shall not return, even to the land of darkness and the shadow of death;
²²a land of thick darkness, as darkness itself,
 a land of the shadow of death,
 without any order,
 and where the light is as darkness.

CHAPTER 11

- ¹Then Zō'-phār the Nā-ām'-ā-thite
 answered and said, ²Should not the multitude of words be answered?
 And should a man full of talk be justified?
³Should your lies make men silent?
 And when you mock, shall no man make you ashamed?
⁴For you have said, My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in Thy eyes.
⁵But oh that God would speak, and open His lips against you, ⁶and that He would tell you the secrets of His wisdom, that sound wisdom is manifold!
 Know therefore that God forgets for you some of your iniquity.
⁷Can you by searching find out God?
 Can you perfectly find out the Almighty?
⁸*It is as high as heaven* — what can you do?
It is deeper than hell — what can you know?
⁹The measure of it is longer than the earth,
 and broader than the sea.
¹⁰If He passes through and shuts up, or gathers together, then who can turn Him back?
¹¹For He knows vain men;

- and when He sees wickedness, will
He not search it?
- ¹²For foolish man would be wise, though man be born a wild ass's colt.
- ¹³If you prepare your heart and stretch out your hands toward Him;
- ¹⁴if iniquity is in your hand, put it far
away, and do not let wickedness dwell in your tents —
- ¹⁵surely then you shall lift up your face without spot;
yea, you shall be steadfast and shall not fear;
- ¹⁶for you shall forget your misery, and you shall remember it as waters that pass away.
- ¹⁷And your life shall be clearer than the noonday;
though there be darkness, you shall be as the morning.
- ¹⁸And you shall be safe, because there is hope;
yea, you shall look around you, and you shall take your rest in safety.
- ¹⁹Also you shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid.
Yea, many shall seek your favor.
- ²⁰But the eyes of the wicked shall fail, and they shall have no escape, and their hope shall be like the giving up of the spirit.
- ⁶The tents of robbers are at peace, and those who provoke God are sure, in whatever God brings unto their hand.
- ⁷But now ask the animals, and they shall teach you;
and the birds of the air, and they shall tell you;
- ⁸or speak to the earth, and it shall teach
you;
and the fish of the sea shall declare it to you;
- ⁹who of all these does not know that the hand of the LORD has done this?
- ¹⁰In whose hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind?
- ¹¹Does not the ear try words?
And does not the mouth taste its food?
- ¹²With the old man is wisdom, and understanding in length of days.
- ¹³With Him is wisdom and strength;
He has wisdom and understanding.
- ¹⁴Behold, He breaks down, and it cannot be built up again;
He shuts up a man, and there can be no opening.
- ¹⁵Behold, He withholds the waters, and they dry up;
also He sends them out, and they overturn the earth.
- ¹⁶With Him is strength and sound wisdom;
the deceived and the deceiver are His.
- ¹⁷He leads wise men away stripped,
and makes the judges fools.
- ¹⁸He cuts away the bonds of kings, and binds their loins with a girdle.
- ¹⁹He leads priests away stripped,
and overthrows the mighty.
- ²⁰He removes the speech of the men of trust, and takes away the understanding of the aged.
- ²¹He pours scorn upon princes, and unties the belt of the mighty.
- ²²He discovers deep things out of darkness,

CHAPTER 12

- ¹And Job answered and said,
- ²No doubt you are the people, and wisdom will die with you.
- ³But I have understanding as well as
you;
I do not fall short of you;
yes, who does not know such things as these?
- I am like one mocked by his neighbor, who calls upon God, and He answers
him.
- The just, the upright man is laughed to scorn.
- He that is ready to slip with his feet is like a lamp which is despised in the thought of him who is at ease.

- and brings out to light the shadow of death.
- ²³He gives greatness to the nations, and destroys them.
He spreads out the nations, and leads them away.
- ²⁴He takes away the heart of the chief of the people of the land, and causes them to wander in a wilderness where there is no path.
- ²⁵They grope in the dark without light, and He makes them to stagger like a drunken man.
- ¹⁵Though he slay me, yet will I trust in Him — but I will maintain my own ways before Him.
- ¹⁶This also shall be my salvation, that a hypocrite shall not come before Him.
- ¹⁷Listen carefully to my words, and let what I say be in your ears.
- ¹⁸Behold now, I have set my cause in order;
I know that I shall be justified.
- ¹⁹Who is he that will plead for me, for now, if I hold my tongue, I shall give up the spirit.

- ¹Lo, my eye has seen all this, my ear has heard and understood it.
- ²What you know, I know also —
I do not fall short of you.
- ³Surely I would speak to the Almighty, and I desire to argue my case before God.
- ⁴But you are makers of lies, you are all doctors of no value.
- ⁵Oh that you would altogether hold your peace!
and it would be your wisdom.
- ⁶Hear now my reasoning, and listen to the pleadings of my lips.
- ⁷Would you speak unrighteously for God?
and talk deceitfully for Him?
- ⁸Will you accept His person?
Will you contend for God?
- ⁹Is it good that He should search you out?
Or as one man mocks another, do you mock Him?
- ¹⁰He will surely blame you, if you secretly favor persons.
- ¹¹Shall not His highness make you afraid?
and his dread fall upon you?
- ¹²Your remembered sayings are like ashes,
your bodies like bodies of clay.
- ¹³Be quiet. Let me alone so that I may speak, and let come on me what may.
- ¹⁴Why do I take my flesh in my teeth and put my life in my hand?
- ²⁰Only do not do two things to me;
then I will not hide myself from Thee.
- ²¹Withdraw Thy hand far from me, and let not Thy fear make me afraid.
- ²²Then call Thou, and I will answer;
or let me speak, and answer Thou me.
- ²³How many are my iniquities and sins?
Make me to know my transgression and my sin.
- ²⁴Why dost Thou hide Thy face, and hold me for Thy enemy?
- ²⁵Wilt Thou break a leaf driven to and fro?
Wilt Thou pursue the dry stubble?
- ²⁶For Thou dost write bitter things against me, and dost make me to possess the sins of my youth.
- ²⁷Thou dost put my feet also in the stocks, and dost look closely unto all my paths;
Thou dost set a limit for the soles of my feet.
- ²⁸Man, like a rotten thing, wears away, like a garment that is moth-eaten.

CHAPTER 14

- ¹Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble.
- ²He comes forth like a flower, and is cut down;
he also flees as a shadow, and does not stay.
- ³And dost Thou open Thy eyes upon such a one,

- and bring me into judgment with Thee?
⁴Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean?
 No one!
⁵Since his days are fixed,
 the number of his months is with Thee, and Thou hast set his bounds so that he cannot pass, ⁶look away from him, so that he may rest until he shall finish his day, like a hireling.
⁷For there is hope of a tree,
 if it is cut down, that it will sprout again,
 and that the tender branch of it will not cease.
⁸Though the root of it becomes old in the earth, and though the stump of it dies in the ground, ⁹yet through the scent of water it will bud and bring forth branches like a plant.
¹⁰But man dies, and wastes away;
 yea, man gives up the spirit, and where is he?
¹¹As the waters fail from the sea, and a river falls away and dries up, ¹²so man lies down and does not rise.
 Till the heavens are no more, they shall not awake, nor be awakened out of their sleep.
¹³O that Thou wouldst hide me in the grave, that Thou wouldst keep me secret, until Thy wrath is past, that Thou wouldst set me a fixed time, and remember me!
¹⁴If a man die, shall he live again?
 All the days of my warfare I will wait, until my change comes.
¹⁵Thou shalt call, and I will answer Thee;
 Thou shalt have a desire to the work of Thy hands.
¹⁶For now Thou dost number my steps;
 dost thou not watch over my sin?
¹⁷My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and Thou dost sew up my iniquity.
¹⁸And surely a falling mountain crumbles away, and the rock is moved out of its place.
¹⁹The waters wear the stones;
 Thou dost wash away the things which grow out of the dust of the earth;
 and Thou dost destroy the hope of man.
²⁰Thou dost always have Thy way against him, and he passes;
 Thou dost change his face, and dost send him away.
²¹His sons come to honor, and he knows it not;
 and they are brought low, but he does not understand them.
²²But his flesh upon him shall have pain, and his soul within him shall mourn.

CHAPTER 15

- ¹Then E-li'-pház the Tē'-mān-ite answered and said, ²Should a wise man answer with windy knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind?
³Should he reason with talk that does no good, or with speeches with which he cannot do good?
⁴Yea, you do away with fear, and take away prayer before God.
⁵For your iniquity teaches your mouth, and you choose the tongue of the crafty.
⁶Your own mouth condemns you, and not I;
 yes, your own lips testify against you.
⁷Are you the first man that was born?
 Or were you made before the hills?
⁸Have you heard the secret of God?
 And do you limit wisdom to yourself?
⁹What do you know that we do not know?
 What do you understand that is not in us?
¹⁰With us are both the grayheaded and very aged men, much older than your father.

- ¹¹Are the comforts of God small with you?
Is there any secret thing with you?
- ¹²Why does your heart carry you away?
And what do your eyes wink at,
- ¹³that you turn your spirit against God,
and let such words go out of your mouth?
- ¹⁴What is man, that he should be clean?
And what is he who is born of a woman,
that he should be righteous?
- ¹⁵Behold, He puts no trust in His saints;
yea, the heavens are not clean in His sight.
- ¹⁶How much more hateful and filthy is man, who drinks iniquity like water?
- ¹⁷I will show you; hear me;
and that which I have seen I will declare;
- ¹⁸that which wise men have told from their fathers, and have not hidden it;
- ¹⁹unto whom alone the earth was given,
and no stranger passed among them.
- ²⁰The wicked man labors in pain all his days, and the number of years is hidden to the terrible one.
- ²¹A fearful sound is in his ears;
in peace the destroyer shall come upon him.
- ²²He does not believe that he shall come back out of darkness, and that he is waited for by the sword.
- ²³He wanders abroad for bread, saying,
Where is it?
He knows that the day of darkness is ready at hand.
- ²⁴Trouble and pain shall make him afraid;
they shall overflow against him, as a king ready to the battle —
- ²⁵because he stretches out his hand against God, and sets himself against the Almighty.
- ²⁶He runs upon him, with a stiff neck, with the thick layers of his shields,
- ²⁷because he has covered his face with fatness, and has put layers of fat upon his loins.
- ²⁸And he lives in ruined cities, and in houses where no man lives, which are ready to become heaps.
- ²⁹He shall not be rich, nor shall his wealth hold out, nor shall he prolong their days upon the earth.
- ³⁰He shall not depart out of darkness;
the flame shall dry up his branches, and by the breath of his mouth he shall go away.
- ³¹Let not him who is deceived trust in vanity;
for vanity shall be his reward.
- ³²It shall be done before his time, and his branch shall not be green.
- ³³He shall shake off his unripe grape,
like the vine,
and shall cast off his flower like the olive.
- ³⁴For the company of the ungodly shall not bear fruit, and fire shall devour the tents of bribery.
- ³⁵They conceive mischief, and bring forth evil, and their belly prepares deceit.

CHAPTER 16

- ¹Then Job answered and said,
- ²I have heard many such things;
you are all tiresome comforters.
- ³Shall words of wind have an end?
Or what provokes you that you should answer?
- ⁴I also could speak as you do;
if your soul were in my soul's place,
I could heap up words against you,
and shake my head at you.
- ⁵I might make you strong with my mouth, and the moving of my lips would spare you.
- ⁶Though I speak, my pain is not held back, and though I forbear, in what way am I eased?
- ⁷But now He has made me weary;

CHAPTER 17

- Thou hast destroyed all my company.
- ⁸And you have filled me with wrinkles, which is a witness against me.
And rising up against me, my leanness bears witness to my face.
- ⁹He has torn me in His wrath, and hated me;
He gnashes upon me with His teeth;
my enemy sharpens his eyes upon me.
- ¹⁰They have gaped upon me with their mouth;
and have scornfully beaten me upon the cheek;
they have gathered themselves together against me.
- ¹¹God has delivered me to the ungodly, and turned me over into the hands of the wicked.
- ¹²I was at ease, but He has broken me in pieces;
yea, He has also taken me by my neck and shaken me to pieces and set me up for His mark.
- ¹³His archers hem me in;
He cuts my kidneys apart, and does not spare;
He pours out my gall upon the ground.
- ¹⁴He breaks me with break upon break;
He runs upon me like a giant.
- ¹⁵I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin and defiled my horn in the dust.
- ¹⁶My face is smeared with weeping, and on my eyelids is the shadow of death;
- ¹⁷though no violence was in my hand, and my prayer is pure.
- ¹⁸O earth, do not cover my blood, and let my cry have no place.
- ¹⁹Also now, behold, my Witness is in Heaven, and He who testifies of me is on high.
- ²⁰My friends scorn me;
my eye pours out tears unto God.
- ²¹O that one might plead for a man with God,
as a man pleads for his neighbor!
- ²²When a few years have come,
then I shall go the way from which I shall not return.
- ¹My spirit is broken, my days are ended, the grave is ready for me.
- ²Surely there are mockers with me.
And does not my eye rest on their insults?
- ³Lay down a pledge for me with Thyself;
who is he who will strike hands with me.
- ⁴For Thou hast hidden their heart from understanding;
therefore Thou shalt not lift them up.
- ⁵He who for a share speaks flattery to his friends,
even the eyes of his children shall fail.
- ⁶He has made me also a byword of the people;
and I have become one in whose face they spit.
- ⁷My eye also is dim because of sorrow, and all my members are like a shadow.
- ⁸Upright men shall be amazed at this,
and the innocent shall stir himself up against the hypocrite.
- ⁹The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he who has strong hands shall be stronger and stronger.
- ¹⁰For as for you all, return, and come now;
and I shall not find a wise man among you.
- ¹¹My days are past, my purposes are broken off, even the thoughts of my heart.
- ¹²They change the night into day;
the light is short because of darkness.
- ¹³If I wait, the grave is my home.
If I have made my bed in the darkness;
- ¹⁴if I have said to rotteness, You are my father, and to the worm, You are my mother and my sisters —
- ¹⁵where then is my hope?
And as for my hope, who shall see it?
- ¹⁶They shall go down to the bars of the pit,
when our rest together is in the dust.

CHAPTER 18

¹Then Bīl'-dād the Shû'-hîte answered and said,

²How long will it be until you set an end to words?

Understand, and afterwards we will speak.

³Why are we counted as cattle, or seem stupid in your sight?

⁴He tears himself in his anger; shall the earth be forsaken for you? And shall the rock be moved out of its place?

⁵Yes, the light of the wicked shall be put out, and the spark of his fire shall not shine.

⁶The light shall be dark in his tent, and his candle shall be put out with him.

⁷The steps of his strength shall be hampered, and his own plans shall throw him down.

⁸For he is thrown into a net by his own feet, and he walks upon a net.

⁹The trap shall take him by the heel, and the robber shall hold sway against him.

¹⁰The rope is laid for him in the ground, and a trap for him in the way.

¹¹Terrors shall make him afraid on every side, and shall pursue him close to his heels.

¹²His strength shall be hunger-bitten, and trouble shall be ready at his side.

¹³It shall devour the strength of his skin; even the first-born of death shall devour his strength.

¹⁴His hope shall be rooted out of his tent, and it shall bring him to the king of terrors.

¹⁵It shall dwell in his tent, because it is none of his; brimstone shall be scattered upon his home.

¹⁶His roots shall be dried up beneath, and above his branch shall be cut off.

¹⁷His memory shall perish from the earth, and he shall have no name in the street.

¹⁸He shall be driven from light to darkness, and chased out of the world.

¹⁹He shall have neither son nor kinsman among his people, nor any remaining in his dwellings.

²⁰Those of the west have been amazed at his day, as those from the east have been made afraid.

²¹Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked, and this is the place of him who does not know God.

CHAPTER 19

¹Then Job answered and said,

²How long will you grieve my soul and break me in pieces with words?

³These ten times you have blamed me; you are not ashamed that you make yourselves strange to me.

⁴And if indeed I have been guilty, my error remains with myself.

⁵If indeed you will magnify yourselves against me, and plead against me my misery, ⁶know now that God has overthrown me, and has closed His net about me.

⁷Behold, I cry out, Violence! But I am not heard.

I cry aloud, but there is no justice.

⁸He has fenced up my way so that I cannot pass, and He has set darkness in my paths.

⁹He has stripped me of my glory, and has taken the crown from my head.

¹⁰He has destroyed me on every side, and I am gone, and He has uprooted my hope like a tree.

¹¹He has also kindled His wrath against me, and unto Himself He counts me as one of His enemies.

¹²His troops come together and raise up their way against me, and camp around my tent.

¹³He has put my brothers far from me, and my friends have truly turned away from me.

¹⁴My people have fallen away, and my familiar friends have forgotten me.

¹⁵Those who dwell in my house, and my maids, count me as a stranger;
I am a foreigner in their sight.

¹⁶I called my servant, and he gave me no answer;
I must beg him with my mouth.

¹⁷My breath is hated by my wife, and I must beg to the children of my mother's womb.

¹⁸Even young children despised me;
I arose, and they spoke against me.

¹⁹All my close friends turned away from me;
and those whom I loved have turned against me.

²⁰My bone clings to my skin and to my flesh,
and I have escaped with the skin of my teeth.

²¹Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O my friends!

For the hand of God has touched me.

²²Why do you, like God, persecute me and why are you not satisfied with my flesh?

²³Oh that my words were now written!
Oh that they were printed in a book!

²⁴that they were engraved with an iron and lead pen, and cut in the rock forever.

²⁵For I know that my Redeemer lives, and that He shall stand at the last day upon the earth;

²⁶and though after my skin worms destroy this body,
yet in my flesh I shall see God,

²⁷whom I shall see for myself, and my eyes shall behold, and not another's.

My heart is exhausted within me.

²⁸But you ought to say, Why do we persecute him, since the root of the matter is found in me?

²⁹Be afraid of the sword; for wrath brings the punishment of the sword, so that you may know there is a judgment.

CHAPTER 20

¹Then Zó'-phär the Nā-ām'-ā-thite
answered and said,

²Therefore my thoughts cause me to answer, and for this I make haste.

³I have heard the rebuke meant to shame me, and the spirit of my understanding causes me to answer.

⁴Do you know this from days of old, since man was placed upon earth, ⁵that the singing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the ungodly is only for a minute?

⁶Though his honor mounts up to the heavens, and his head reaches unto the clouds, ⁷yet he shall perish forever like his own dung;

they who have seen him shall say,
Where is he?

⁸He shall fly away like a dream, and shall not be found;

yes, he shall be chased away like a vision of the night.

⁹The eye that has seen him shall see him no more;

neither shall his place see him any more.

¹⁰His children shall seek to please the poor, and his hands shall restore their goods.

¹¹His bones are full of his youth, which shall lie down with him in the dust.

¹²Though wickedness is sweet in his mouth,

though he hides it under his tongue;

¹³though he spares it and does not forsake it,

but keeps it still within his mouth; ¹⁴yet his food in his bowels is turned, it is the gall of asps within him.

15He has swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again;
 God shall cast them out of his belly.
 16He shall suck the poison of asps;
 the viper's tongue shall slay him.
 17He shall not see the rivers, the flowings of the brooks of honey and butter.
 18He shall give back that which he labored for,
 and shall not swallow it down — according to the wealth which he has gotten,
 he shall not rejoice.
 19For he has pressed down and forsaken the poor;
 he has violently taken away a house which he did not build.
 20Surely he shall not feel quietness in his belly, he shall not save any of that which he desired.
 21None of his food shall be left; therefore no man shall look for his goods.
 22In the fullness of his plenty he shall be in trouble;
 every hand of the wicked shall come upon him.
 23When he is about to fill his belly, God shall cast the fury of His wrath
 upon him,
 and shall rain it upon him while he is eating.
 24He shall flee from the iron weapon, and the bow of steel shall strike through him.
 25It is drawn, and comes out of the body;
 yea, the glittering sword comes out of his gall; terrors are upon him.
 26All darkness shall be hidden in his secret places;
 a fire not blown shall burn him;
 it shall go ill with him who is left in his tent.
 27The heavens shall reveal his iniquity; and the earth shall rise up against him.
 28The increase of his house shall depart, and shall flow away in the day of his wrath.

29This is the portion of a wicked man from God, and the inheritance given to him by God.

CHAPTER 21

1But Job answered and said, 2Listen carefully to my speech, and let this be your comfort.
 3Allow me to speak;
 and after I have spoken, mock on.
 4As for me, is my complaint to man?
 Why should my spirit not be troubled?
 5Turn unto me and be amazed, and lay your hand upon your mouth.
 6Even when I remember, I am afraid, and trembling takes hold on my flesh.
 7Why do the wicked live, become old,
 yes, become mighty in power?
 8Their seed is established in their sight with them, and their offspring before their eyes.
 9Their houses are safe from fear;
 neither is the rod of God upon them.
 10Their bull breeds and does not fail; their cow calves, and does not cast her calf.
 11They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.
 12They take the timbrel and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the organ.
 13They spend their days in wealth and go down in a moment to the grave.
 14Therefore they say to God, Depart from us;
 for we do not desire the knowledge of your ways.
 15What is the Almighty, that we should serve him?
 And what profit should we have if we pray to him?
 16Lo, their good is not in their hand; the wisdom of the wicked is far from me.
 17How often is the candle of the wicked put out,
 and their trouble comes upon them!
 He shares out pains in His anger;
 18they are as stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the storm steals away.

CHAPTER 22

⁹God lays up his iniquity for his children.

He rewards him, and he shall know it.

¹⁰His eyes shall see his ruin, and he shall drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

¹¹For what pleasure does he have in his house after him, when the number of his months is cut off in the middle?

¹²Shall anyone teach God knowledge, since He shall judge those who are on high?

¹³One dies in his full strength, being wholly at ease and quiet.

¹⁴His breasts are full of milk, his bones are wet with marrow.

¹⁵And another dies in the bitterness of his soul, and never eats with pleasure.

¹⁶They lie down together in the dust, and the worms shall cover them.

¹⁷Behold, I know your thoughts, and the plots which you wrongfully hatch against me.

¹⁸For you say, Where is the house of the prince? And where are the dwelling-places of the wicked?

¹⁹Have you not asked those who go by the way?

And do you not know their signs,

²⁰that the wicked is kept for the day of ruin?

They shall be brought forth to the day of wrath.

²¹Who shall declare his way to his face? And who shall repay him what he has done?

²²Yet shall he be brought to the grave, and shall remain in the tomb.

²³And the clods of the valley shall be sweet to him, and every man shall draw after him, as there is no numbering of those before him.

²⁴How then do you comfort me in vain, since in your answers there remain transgression?

¹Then E-li'-phāz the Tē'-mān-ite answered and said, ²Can a man be any good to God, as he who is wise may be of good to himself?

³Is it any pleasure to the Almighty that you are righteous? Or is it gain to Him that you make your ways perfect?

⁴Will He reprove you for fear of you? Will He enter into judgment with you?

⁵Is not your wickedness great, and your iniquity without measure?

⁶For you have taken a pledge from your brother for nothing, and stripped the naked of their clothing.

⁷You have not given water to the weary to drink, and you have held back bread from the hungry.

⁸But as for the mighty man, he had the earth, and the honored man lived in it.

⁹You have sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless have been broken.

¹⁰Therefore snares are all around you, and sudden fear troubles you;

¹¹or darkness, so that you cannot see; and a flood of waters cover you.

¹²Is not God high in Heaven?

And behold the height of the stars, how high they are!

¹³And you say, How does God know? Can He judge through the dark cloud?
